MOTION OF DEBTORS FOR ENTRY OF ORDER (I) DIRECTING JOINT ADMINISTRATION OF CHAPTER 11 CASES AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), respectfully represent in support of this motion (the "Motion"):

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and Rule 1015-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors request entry of an order (i) directing joint administration of their chapter 11 cases for procedural purposes only and (ii) granting related relief.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Local Rule 9013–1(f), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. On the date hereof, the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

5. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[1] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the First Day Declaration.

6. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

7. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

8. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

9. Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b) provides, in relevant part, that "[i]f . . . two or more petitions are pending in the same court by or against . . . a debtor and an affiliate, the court may order a joint administration of the estates." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1015(b). The Debtors are all "affiliates" as that term is defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Court is authorized to grant the relief requested herein.

10. In addition, Local Rule 1015-1 provides, in relevant part, as follows:

> An order of joint administration may be entered, without notice and an opportunity for hearing, upon the filing of a motion for joint administration . . . supported by an affidavit, declaration or verification, which establishes that the joint administration of two or more cases pending in this Court under title 11 is warranted and will ease the administrative burden for the Court and the parties.

11. Pursuant to Local Rule 1015-1, the Debtors have filed the First Day Declaration contemporaneously herewith. As set forth in the First Day Declaration, joint administration of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases will save the Debtors and their estates substantial time and expense because it will remove the need to prepare, replicate, file, and serve duplicative notices, applications, and orders. Further, joint administration will relieve the Court of entering duplicative orders and maintaining duplicative files and dockets. The United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee") and other parties in interest will similarly benefit from joint administration of these chapter 11 cases, as it will spare them the time and effort of reviewing duplicative pleadings and papers.

12. Joint administration will not adversely affect creditors' rights because this Motion requests only the administrative consolidation, and not the substantive consolidation, of the Debtors' estates. As such, each creditor will continue to hold its claim against a particular Debtor's estate after this Motion is approved. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court modify the captions of these chapter 11 cases to reflect joint administration as follows:

SKILLSOFT CORPORATION, et al.	:	Case No. 20– _____ ( )
Debtors.[1]	:	(Joint Administration Requested)

APPLICATION OF DEBTORS PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 156(C) FOR APPOINTMENT OF KURTZMAN CARSON CONSULTANTS LLC AS CLAIMS AND NOTICING AGENT NUNC PRO TUNC TO THE PETITION DATE

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent in support of this application (the "Application"):

Relief Requested

1. By this Application, pursuant to section 156(c) of title 28 of the United States Code, section 105(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and Rule 2002-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors request entry of an order appointing Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC") as claims and noticing agent

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, as applicable, are Skillsoft Corporation (6115); Amber Holding Inc. (0335); SumTotal Systems LLC (7228); MindLeaders, Inc. (6072); Accero, Inc. (4684); CyberShift Holdings, Inc. (2109); CyberShift, Inc. (U.S.) (0586); Pointwell Limited; SSI Investments I Limited; SSI Investments II Limited; SSI Investments III Limited; Skillsoft Limited; Skillsoft Ireland Limited; ThirdForce Group Limited; Skillsoft U.K. Limited; and Skillsoft Canada, Ltd. The location of the Debtors' corporate U.S. headquarters is 300 Innovative Way, Suite 201, Nashua, NH 03062.

("Claims and Noticing Agent") in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, which will include, among other things, KCC taking full responsibility for the distribution of notices and the maintenance, processing, and docketing of proofs of claim, if any, filed in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

3. The Debtors' selection of KCC to act as their Claims and Noticing Agent satisfies the Court's Protocol for the Employment of Claims and Noticing Agents under 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) (the "Claims Agent Protocol"). The Debtors have obtained and reviewed engagement proposals from at least two (2) other court-approved claims and noticing agents to ensure selection through a competitive process. Moreover, the Debtors submit, based on all engagement proposals that they and their advisors have obtained and reviewed, that KCC's rates are competitive and reasonable given KCC's quality of services and expertise. The terms of KCC's retention are set forth in the Engagement Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit C (the "Engagement Agreement"); provided that the Debtors are seeking approval solely of the terms and provisions as set forth in this Application and the Proposed Order.

4. The Debtors anticipate that there will be in excess of 10,000 entities to be noticed during and in connection with their chapter 11 cases. Local Rule 2002-1(f) provides that "[i]n all cases with more than 200 creditors or parties in interest listed on the creditor matrix, unless the Court orders otherwise, the debtor shall file [a motion to authorize the retention of a noticing and/or claims clerk] on the first day of the case or within seven (7) days thereafter. The notice and/or claims clerk shall comply with the [Claims Agent Protocol]." In view of the number of anticipated notice parties and the complexity of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, the Debtors submit that the appointment of a Claims and Noticing Agent is required by Local Rule 2002-1(f) and is otherwise in the best interests of both the Debtors' estates and their creditors.

5. Because the administration of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases will require KCC to perform duties outside the scope of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c), the Debtors are seeking, by separate application filed contemporaneously herewith, authorization to retain and employ KCC as administrative advisor pursuant to section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. In support of this Application, the Debtors submit the Declaration of Robert Jordan, Managing Director of KCC (the "Jordan Declaration"), annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

Jurisdiction

7. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules, the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Application to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

8. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

9. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

10. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

11. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.5% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

12. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

13. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Application, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

KCC's Qualifications

14. KCC is comprised of leading industry professionals with significant experience in both the legal and administrative aspects of large, complex chapter 11 cases. KCC's professionals have experience in noticing, claims administration, solicitation, balloting and facilitating other administrative aspects of chapter 11 cases of the size and complexity of these cases. KCC's professionals have acted as debtor's counsel or official claims and noticing agent in many large bankruptcy cases in this District and in other districts nationwide. See, e.g., In re Art Van Furniture, LLC, et al.,, Case No. 20-10553 (CSS) (Bankr. 15. By appointing KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, the distribution of notices and the processing of claims will be handled efficiently and expeditiously. Further, KCC's appointment would relieve the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Clerk") of the administrative burden of processing what may be an overwhelming number of claims.

Services to be Provided

16. This Application pertains only to the work to be performed by KCC under the Clerk's delegation of duties permitted by 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and Local Rule 2002-1(f). Any work to be performed by KCC outside of this scope is not covered by this Application or by any order granting approval hereof. Specifically, KCC will perform the following tasks in its role as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Claims and Noticing Services"), as well as all quality control relating thereto:

(a) Prepare and serve required notices and documents in these chapter 11 cases in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules in the form and manner directed by the Debtors and/or the Court, including (i) notice of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and, if required, the initial meeting of creditors under section 341(a) of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) notice of any claims bar date; (iii) notices of transfers of claims; (iv) notices of objections to claims and objections to transfers of claims; (v) notices of any hearings on a disclosure statement and confirmation of the Debtors' plan or plans of reorganization, including under Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d); (vi) notice of the effective date of any plan; and (vii) all other notices, orders, pleadings, publications, and other documents as the Debtors or the Court may deem necessary or appropriate for an orderly administration of these chapter 11 cases;

(b) Maintain an official copy of the Debtors' schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs (collectively, the "Schedules"), listing the Debtors' known creditors and the amounts owed thereto;

(c) Maintain (i) a list of all potential creditors, equity holders and other parties in interest and (ii) a "core" service mailing list consisting of all parties described in Bankruptcy Rule 2002(i), (j), and (k), and those parties that have filed a notice of appearance pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9010; and update and make such lists available upon request by a party-in-interest or the Clerk;

(d) Furnish a notice to all potential creditors of the last date for filing proofs of claim and a form for filing a proof of claim, after such notice and form are approved by the Court, and notify potential creditors of the existence, amount and classification of their respective claims as set forth in the Schedules, if any, which may be effected by inclusion of such information (or the lack thereof, in cases where the Schedules indicate no debt due to the subject party) on a customized proof of claim form provided to potential creditors;

(e) Maintain a post office box or address for the purpose of receiving claims and returned mail, and process all mail received;

(f) For all notices, motions, orders, or other pleadings or documents served, prepare and file, or cause to be filed, with the Clerk an affidavit or certificate of service within seven (7) business days of service that includes (i) either a copy of the notice served or the docket number(s) and title(s) of the pleading(s) served; (ii) a list of persons to whom it was served (in alphabetical order) with their addresses as appropriate; (iii) the manner of service; and (iv) the date served;

(g) Process all proofs of claim received, including those received by the Clerk, check processing for accuracy, and maintain the original proofs of claim in a secure area;

(h) Provide an electronic interface for filing proofs of claim;

(i) Maintain the official claims register for each Debtor (collectively, the "Claims Registers") on behalf of the Clerk; upon the Clerk's request, provide the Clerk with certified, duplicate unofficial Claims Registers; and specify in the Claims Registers the following information for each claim docketed: (i) the claim number assigned; (ii) the date received; (iii) the name and address of the claimant and agent; if applicable, who filed the claim; (iv) the amount asserted; (v) the asserted classification(s) of the claim (e.g., secured, unsecured, priority, etc.); (vi) the applicable Debtor; and (vii) any disposition of the claim;

(j) Provide public access to the Claims Registers, including complete proofs of claim with attachments, if any, without charge;

(k) Implement necessary security measures to ensure the completeness and integrity of the Claims Registers and the safekeeping of the original claims;

(l) Record all transfers of claims and provide any notices of such transfers as required by Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e);

(m) Relocate, by messenger or overnight delivery, all of the court-filed proofs of claim to the offices of KCC, not less than weekly;

(n) Upon completion of the docketing process for all claims received to date for each case, turn over to the Clerk copies of the Claims Registers for the Clerk's review (upon the Clerk's request);

(o) Monitor the Court's docket for all notices of appearance, address changes, and claims-related pleadings and orders filed and make necessary notations on and/or changes to the Claims Register and any service or mailing lists, including to identify and eliminate duplicative names and addresses from such lists;

(p) Identify and correct any incomplete or incorrect addresses in any mailing or service lists;

(q) Assist in the dissemination of information to the public and respond to requests for administrative information regarding these chapter 11 cases as directed by the Debtors or the Court, including through the use of a case website and/or call center;

(r) If these chapter 11 cases are converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, contact the Clerk's office within three (3) days of notice to KCC of entry of the order converting the cases;

(s) Thirty (30) days prior to the close of these chapter 11 cases, to the extent practicable, request that the Debtors submit to the Court a proposed order dismissing KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent and terminating its services in such capacity upon completion of its duties and responsibilities and upon the closing of these chapter 11 cases;

(t) Within seven (7) days of notice to KCC of entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, provide to the Court the final version of the Claims Registers as of the date immediately before the close of the chapter 11 cases; and

(u) At the close of these chapter 11 cases, (i) box and transport all original documents, in proper format, as provided by the Clerk's office, to (A) the Philadelphia Federal Records Center, 14700 Townsend Road, Philadelphia, PA 19154-1096 or (B) any other location requested by the Clerk's office; and (ii) docket a completed SF-135 Form indicating the accession and location numbers of the archived claims.

17. The Claims Registers shall be open to the public for examination without charge during regular business hours and on a case-specific website maintained by KCC.

KCC's Compensation

18. The Debtors request that the undisputed fees and expenses incurred by KCC in the performance of the Claims and Noticing Services be treated as administrative expenses of the Debtors' chapter 11 estates pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code and be paid in the ordinary course of business without further application to or order of the Court. KCC agrees to maintain records of all services showing dates, categories of services, fees charged and expenses incurred, and to serve monthly invoices on the Debtors, the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"), counsel for the Debtors, counsel for any official committee monitoring the expenses of the Debtors and any party-in-interest who specifically requests service of the monthly invoices. If any dispute arises relating to the Engagement Agreement or monthly invoices, the parties will meet and confer in an attempt to resolve the dispute. In the event the parties are unable to reach a resolution, they may seek resolution of the matter from the Court.

19. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors provided KCC a retainer in the amount of $60,000 (the "Retainer"). KCC seeks to first apply the retainer to all prepetition invoices, and thereafter, to have the retainer replenished to the original retainer amount, and thereafter, to hold the retainer under the Engagement Agreement during these chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Engagement Agreement.

20. Additionally, under the terms of the Engagement Agreement, the Debtors have agreed to indemnify and hold harmless KCC and its members, directors, officers, employees, consultants, subcontractors and agents to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as outlined in the Engagement Agreement. Such indemnification excludes circumstances resulting from, arising out of, or related to KCC's gross negligence or willful misconduct or as otherwise provided in the Engagement Agreement or Proposed Order. The Debtors believe that such an indemnification obligation is customary, reasonable, and necessary to retain the services of a Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases.

Disinterestedness

21. Although the Debtors do not propose to employ KCC under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code pursuant to this Application (such retention will be sought by separate application), KCC has nonetheless reviewed its electronic database to determine whether it has any relationships with the creditors and parties in interest identified by the Debtors and the Debtors have been advised that, to the best of KCC's knowledge, information, and belief, and except as disclosed in the Jordan Declaration, KCC has represented that it neither holds nor represents any interest materially adverse to the Debtors' estates in connection with any matter on which it would be employed.

22. Moreover, in connection with its retention as Claims and Noticing Agent, KCC represents in the Jordan Declaration, among other things, the following:

(a) KCC is not a creditor of the Debtors;

(b) KCC will not consider itself employed by the United States government and shall not seek any compensation from the United States government in its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(c) By accepting employment in these chapter 11 cases, KCC waives any rights to receive compensation from the United States government in connection with these chapter 11 cases;

(d) In its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, KCC will not be an agent of the United States and will not act on behalf of the United States;

(e) KCC will not employ any past or present employees of the Debtors in connection with its work as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(f) KCC is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the matters upon which it is engaged;

(g) In its capacity as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, KCC will not intentionally misrepresent any fact to any person;

(h) KCC shall be under the supervision and control of the Clerk's office with respect to the receipt and recordation of claims and claim transfers;

(i) KCC will comply with all requests of the Clerk's office and the guidelines promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States for the implementation of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c); and

(j) None of the services provided by KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases shall be at the expense of the Clerk's office.

KCC will supplement its disclosure to the Court if any facts or circumstances are discovered that would require such additional disclosure.

Compliance with Claims and Noticing Agent Protocol

23. This Application complies with the Claims Agent Protocol and substantially conforms to the standard application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) regularly filed with and granted by this Court. To the extent that there is any inconsistency among this Application, the Proposed Order and the Engagement Agreement, the Proposed Order shall govern in all respects.

Basis for Relief Requested

24. Section 156(c) of title 28 of the United States Code, which governs the staffing and expenses of the bankruptcy court, authorizes the Court to use facilities other than those of the Clerk for the administration of chapter 11 cases, and provides as follows:

> Any court may utilize facilities or services, either on or off the court's premises, which pertain to the provision of notices, dockets, calendars, and other administrative information to parties in cases filed under the provisions of title 11, United States Code, where the > costs of such facilities or services are paid for out of the assets of the estate and are not charged to the United States.

28 U.S.C. § 156(c).

25. By appointing KCC as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, the distribution of notices and the processing of claims will be expedited and the Clerk's office will be relieved of the administrative burden of processing any such claims.

26. The Debtors submit, based on all engagement proposals obtained and reviewed, that KCC's rates are competitive and reasonable given KCC's quality of services and expertise.

27. Based on the foregoing, this Section 156(c) Application conforms to the standard application in use by this Court.

28. Pursuant to the Debtors' request, KCC has served in the capacity as Claims and Noticing Agent since the Petition Date with assurances that the Debtors would seek approval of KCC's employment and retention, nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, so that KCC may be compensated for services prior to entry of an order approving KCC's retention. No party-in-interest will be prejudiced by the granting of the nunc pro tunc employment, as provided herein, because KCC has provided and continues to provide valuable services to the Debtors' estates in the interim period. Courts in this jurisdiction have routinely approved nunc pro tunc employment similar to that requested herein in matters comparable to this matter.

29. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors have satisfied the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and the Local Rules. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request the entry of an order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and Local Rule 2002–1(f) authorizing the Debtors to retain and employ KCC as the Claims and Noticing Agent, nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date.

30. The Debtors believe the retention of KCC is in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, and all parties in interest.

31. The Debtors' knowledge, information and belief regarding the matters set forth in this Section 156(c) Application are based on and made in reliance upon the Jordan Declaration.

32. Notice of this Application will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Debtors are authorized to retain KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent effective nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date under the terms of the Engagement Agreement.

2. KCC is authorized and directed to perform noticing services and to receive, maintain, record, and otherwise administer the proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases, and all related tasks, all as described in the Application (collectively, the "Claims and Noticing Services").

3. KCC shall serve as the custodian of court records and shall be designated as the authorized repository for all proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases and is authorized and directed to maintain official claims registers for each of the Debtors, to provide public access to every proof of claim unless otherwise ordered by the Court and to provide the Clerk with a certified duplicate thereof upon the request of the Clerk.

4. KCC is authorized and directed to provide an electronic interface for filing proofs of claim and to obtain a post office box or address for the receipt of proofs of claim.

5. KCC is authorized to take such other action to comply with all duties set forth in the Application.

6. The Debtors are authorized to compensate KCC in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Agreement upon the receipt of reasonably detailed invoices setting forth the services provided by KCC and the rates charged for each, and to reimburse KCC for all reasonable and necessary expenses it may incur, upon the presentation of appropriate documentation, without the need for KCC to file fee applications or otherwise seek Court approval for the compensation of its services and reimbursement of its expenses.

7. KCC shall maintain records of all services showing dates, categories of services, fees charged and expenses incurred, and shall serve monthly invoices on the Debtors, the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware, counsel for the Debtors, counsel for any official committee monitoring the expenses of the Debtors, and any party-in-interest who specifically requests service of the monthly invoices.

8. The parties shall meet and confer in an attempt to resolve any dispute that may arise relating to the Engagement Agreement or monthly invoices; provided that the parties may seek resolution of the matter from the Court if resolution is not achieved.

8. Pursuant to section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, the fees and expenses of KCC under this Order shall be an administrative expense of the Debtors' estates.

9. KCC may apply its retainer to all prepetition invoices, which retainer shall be replenished to the original retainer amount, and thereafter, KCC may hold its retainer under the Engagement Agreement during the chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Engagement Agreement.

10. The Debtors shall indemnify KCC under the terms of the Engagement Agreement, as modified pursuant to this Order.

11. KCC shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution or reimbursement pursuant to the Engagement Agreement for services other than the services provided under the Engagement Agreement, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution or reimbursement therefor are approved by the Court.

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Engagement Agreement, the Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify KCC, or provide contribution or reimbursement to KCC, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from KCC's gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors allege the breach of KCC's contractual obligations if the Court determines that indemnification, contribution or reimbursement would not be permissible pursuant to In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (iii) settled prior to a judicial determination under (i) or (ii), but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which KCC should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of the Engagement Agreement as modified by this Order.

13. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these chapter 11 cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), or (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, KCC believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Agreement (as modified by this Order), including the advancement of defense costs, KCC must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to KCC before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. This paragraph is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by KCC for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify KCC. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by KCC for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement.

14. In the event KCC is unable to provide the services set out in this order, KCC will immediately notify the Clerk and the Debtors' attorney and, upon approval of the Court, cause to have all original proofs of claim and computer information turned over to another claims and noticing agent with the advice and consent of the Clerk and the Debtors' attorney.

15. The Debtors may submit a separate retention application, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327 and/or any applicable law, for work that is to be performed by KCC but is not specifically authorized by this Order.

16. The Debtors and KCC are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order.

17. Notwithstanding any term in the Engagement Agreement to the contrary, the Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.

18. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

19. KCC shall not cease providing claims processing services during the chapter 11 cases for any reason, including nonpayment, without an order of the Court.

20. In the event of any inconsistency between the Engagement Agreement, the Application and the Order, the Order shall govern.

21. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.

4. As agent and custodian of Court records pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c), KCC will perform, at the request of the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Clerk"), the services specified in the Application and the Engagement Agreement, and, at the Debtors' request, any related administrative, technical and support services as specified in the Application and the Engagement Agreement. In performing such services, KCC will charge the Debtors the rates set forth in the Engagement Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit C to the Application.

5. KCC represents, among other things, the following:

(a) KCC is not a creditor of the Debtors;

(b) KCC will not consider itself employed by the United States government and shall not seek any compensation from the United States government in its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(c) By accepting employment in these chapter 11 cases, KCC waives any rights to receive compensation from the United States government in connection with these chapter 11 cases;

(d) In its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, KCC will not be an agent of the United States and will not act on behalf of the United States;

(e) KCC will not employ any past or present employees of the Debtors in connection with its work as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(f) KCC is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the matters upon which it is engaged;

(g) In its capacity as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, KCC will not intentionally misrepresent any fact to any person;

(h) KCC shall be under the supervision and control of the Clerk's office with respect to the receipt and recordation of claims and claim transfers;

(i) KCC will comply with all requests of the Clerk's office and the guidelines promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States for the implementation of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c); and

(j) None of the services provided by KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases shall be at the expense of the Clerk's office.

6. Although the Debtors do not propose to retain KCC under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code pursuant to the Application (such retention will be sought by separate application), I caused to be submitted for review by our conflicts system the names of all known potential parties in interest (the "Potential Parties in Interest") in these chapter 11 cases. The list of Potential Parties in Interest was provided by the Debtors and included, among other parties, the Debtors, the Debtors' non-Debtor affiliates, current and former directors and officers of the Debtors, the Debtors' secured creditors and other lenders, the Debtors' thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis, and other various parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases. The results of the conflict check were compiled and reviewed by KCC professionals under my supervision. At this time, and as set forth in further detail herein, KCC is not aware of any connection that would present a disqualifying conflict of interest. Should KCC discover any new relevant facts or connections bearing on the matters described herein during the period of its retention, KCC will use reasonable efforts to file promptly a supplemental declaration.

7. To the best of my knowledge, and based solely upon information provided to me by the Debtors, and except as provided herein, neither KCC, nor any of its professionals, has any materially adverse connection to the Debtors, their creditors or other relevant parties. KCC may have relationships with certain of the Debtors' creditors as vendors or in connection with cases in which KCC serves or has served in a neutral capacity as claims and noticing agent and/or administrative advisor for another chapter 11 debtor.

8. KCC has and will continue to represent clients in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. In addition, KCC and its personnel have and will continue to have relationships personally or in the ordinary course of business with certain vendors, professionals and other parties in interest that may be involved in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases in matters unrelated to these cases. KCC may also provide professional services to entities or persons that may be creditors or parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases, which services do not directly relate to, or have any direct connection with, these chapter 11 cases or the Debtors.

9. KCC is an indirect subsidiary of Computershare Limited ("Computershare"). Computershare is a financial services and technologies provider for the global securities industry, including providing administrative transfer agent services such as maintaining records of shareholdings and share transfers. Within the Computershare corporate structure, KCC operates as a separate, segregated business unit. This separation extends to management, employees, access to information technology systems, and client information. As such, any relationships that Computershare and its affiliates maintain do not create an interest of KCC that would be materially adverse to the Debtors' estates or any class of creditors or equity security holders. Computershare Investor Services Ltd., an affiliate of Computershare, provides transfer agent services to Skillsoft Limited.

10. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors paid KCC a retainer in the amount of $60,000 (the "Retainer"). Through the Application, KCC seeks to first apply the Retainer to all prepetition invoices, following which the Retainer shall be replenished to the original Retainer amount, and thereafter, to hold such Retainer under the Engagement Agreement during the Debtors' chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Engagement Agreement.

11. KCC and its personnel in their individual capacities regularly utilize the services of law firms, accounting firms and financial advisors. Such firms engaged by KCC or its personnel may appear in chapter 11 cases representing the Debtors or parties in interest. All engagements where such firms represent KCC or its personnel in their individual capacities are unrelated to these chapter 11 cases.

12. Based on the foregoing, I believe that KCC is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code. Moreover, to the best of my knowledge and belief, neither KCC nor any of its partners or employees holds or represents any interest materially adverse to the Debtors' estates with respect to any matter upon which KCC is to be engaged.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my information, knowledge and belief.

Engagement Agreement

KCC AGREEMENT FOR SERVICES

This Agreement is entered into as of the 20th day of March 2020, between Skillsoft Corporation (together with its affiliates and subsidiaries, the "Company"),[1] and Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (together with its affiliates and subcontractors, "KCC"). In consideration of the premises set forth herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Terms and Conditions

I. SERVICES

A. KCC agrees to provide the Company with consulting services regarding noticing, claims management and reconciliation, plan solicitation, balloting, disbursements and any other services agreed upon by the parties or otherwise required by applicable law, government regulations or court rules or orders.

B. KCC further agrees to provide (i) computer software support and training in the use of the support software, (ii) KCC's standard reports as well as consulting and programming support for the Company requested reports, (iii) program modifications, (iv) data base modifications, and/or (v) other features and services in accordance with the fees outlined in a pricing schedule provided to the Company (the "KCC Fee Structure").

C. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, KCC may, upon request by the Company, (i) provide a communications plan including, but not limited to, preparation of communications materials, dissemination of information and a call center staffed by KCC and/or (ii) provide confidential on-line workspaces or virtual data rooms and publish documents to such workspaces or data rooms (which publication shall not be deemed to violate the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement).

D. The price listed for each service in the KCC Fee Structure represents a bona fide proposal for such services, which may be accepted in whole or in part. Services will be provided when requested by the Company or required by applicable law, government regulations or court rules or orders. Services are mutually exclusive and are deemed delivered and accepted by the Company when provided by KCC.

E. The Company acknowledges and agrees that KCC will often take direction from the Company's representatives, employees, agents and/or professionals (collectively, the "Company Parties") with respect to the services being provided under this Agreement. The parties agree that KCC may rely upon, and the Company agrees to be bound by, any requests, advice or information provided by the Company Parties to the same extent as if such requests, advice or information were provided by the Company. The Company agrees and understands that KCC shall not provide the Company or any other party with any legal advice.

[1] The term Company shall include, to the extent applicable, the Company, as debtor and debtor in possession in its chapter 11 case, together with any affiliated debtors and debtors in possession whose chapter 11 cases are jointly administered with the Company's chapter 11 case.

KCC AGREEMENT FOR SERVICES

II. PRICES, CHARGES AND PAYMENT

A. KCC agrees to charge and the Company agrees to pay KCC for its services at the rates and prices set by KCC that are in effect as of the date of this Agreement and in accordance with the KCC Fee Structure. KCC's prices are generally adjusted periodically to reflect changes in the business and economic environment and are inclusive of all charges. KCC reserves the right to reasonably increase its prices, charges and rates; provided, however, that if any such increase exceeds 10%, KCC will give thirty (30) days written notice to the Company.

B. In addition to fees and charges for services, the Company agrees to pay KCC's reasonable and documented out-of-pocket transportation, lodging, and meal expenses incurred in connection with services provided under this Agreement.

C. In addition to all fees for services and expenses hereunder, the Company shall pay to KCC (i) any fees and charges related to, arising out of, or as a result of any error or omission made by the Company or the Company Parties, as mutually determined by KCC and the Company, and (ii) all taxes that are applicable to this Agreement or that are measured by payments made under this Agreement and are required to be collected by KCC or paid by KCC to a taxing authority.

D. Where the Company requires services that are unusual or beyond the normal business practices of KCC, or are otherwise not provided for in the KCC Fee Structure, the cost of such services shall be charged to the Company at a competitive rate as mutually agreed to by the Company and KCC.

E. KCC agrees to submit its invoices to the Company monthly and the Company agrees that the amount invoiced is due and payable upon the Company's receipt of the invoice. KCC's invoices will contain reasonably detailed descriptions of charges for both hourly (fees) and non-hourly (expenses) case specific charges. Where total invoice amounts are expected to exceed $10,000 in any single month and KCC reasonably believes it will not be paid, KCC may require advance payment from the Company due and payable upon demand and prior to the performance of services hereunder. If any amount is unpaid as of thirty (30) days from the receipt of the invoice, the Company further agrees to pay a late charge, calculated as one and one-half percent (1-1/2%) of the total amount unpaid every thirty (30) days. In the case of a dispute in the invoice amount, the Company shall give written notice to KCC within ten (10) days of receipt of the invoice by the Company. The undisputed portion of the invoice will remain due and payable immediately upon receipt of the invoice. Late charges shall not accrue on any amounts in dispute or any amounts unable to be paid due to Court order or applicable law. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, the fees for print notice and media publication (including commissions) must be paid at least three (3) days in advance of those fees and expenses being incurred. Certain fees and charges may need to be adjusted due to availability related to the COVID-19 (novel coronavirus) global health issue.

F. In the event that the Company files for protection pursuant to chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (a "Chapter 11 Filing"), the parties intend that KCC shall be employed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) to the extent possible and otherwise in accordance with applicable Bankruptcy law and that all amounts due under this Agreement shall, to the extent possible, be paid as administrative expenses of the Company's chapter 11 estate. As soon as practicable following a Chapter 11 Filing (and otherwise in accordance with applicable law and rules and orders of the Bankruptcy Court), the Company shall cause pleadings to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court seeking entry of an order or orders approving this Agreement (the "Retention Order"). The form and substance of the pleadings and the Retention Order shall be reasonably acceptable to KCC. If any Company chapter 11 case converts to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, KCC will continue to be paid for its services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The parties recognize and agree that if there is a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Retention Order, the terms of the Retention Order shall govern during the chapter 11 or other proceeding.

G. To the extent permitted by applicable law, KCC shall receive a retainer in the amount of $60,000 (the "Retainer") that may be held by KCC as security for the Company's payment obligations under the Agreement. The Retainer is due upon execution of this Agreement. KCC shall be entitled to hold the Retainer until the termination of the Agreement. Following termination of the Agreement, KCC shall return to the Company any amount of the Retainer that remains following application of the Retainer to the payment of unpaid invoices.

III. RIGHTS OF OWNERSHIP

A. The parties understand that the software programs and other materials furnished by KCC pursuant to this Agreement and/or developed during the course of this Agreement by KCC are the sole property of KCC. The term "program" shall include, without limitation, data processing programs, specifications, applications, routines, and documentation. The Company agrees not to copy or permit others to copy the source code from the support software or any other programs or materials furnished pursuant to this Agreement.

B. The Company further agrees that any ideas, concepts, know-how or techniques relating to data processing or KCC's performance of its services developed or utilized during the term of this Agreement by KCC shall be the exclusive property of KCC. Fees and expenses paid by the Company do not vest in the Company any rights in such property, it being understood that such property is only being made available for the Company's use during and in connection with the services provided by KCC under this Agreement.

IV. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each of KCC and the Company, on behalf of themselves and their respective employees, agents, professionals and representatives, agrees to keep confidential all non-public records, systems, procedures, software and other information received from the other party in connection with the services provided under this Agreement; provided, however, that if either party reasonably believes that it is required to produce any such information by order of any governmental agency or other regulatory body it may, upon not less than five (5) business days' written notice to the other party, release the required information.

KCC AGREEMENT FOR SERVICES

V. SUSPENSION OF SERVICE AND TERMINATION

A. This Agreement shall remain in force until terminated or suspended by either party (i) upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party or (ii) immediately upon written notice for Cause (defined herein). As used herein, the term "Cause" means (i) gross negligence or willful misconduct of KCC that causes serious and material harm to the Company's reorganization under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) the failure of the Company to pay KCC invoices for more than sixty (60) days from the date of invoice, or (iii) the accrual of invoices or unpaid services in excess of the retainer held by KCC where KCC reasonably believes it will not be paid.

B. In the event that this contract is terminated, regardless of the reason for such termination, KCC shall coordinate with the Company and, to the extent applicable, the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, to maintain an orderly transfer of record keeping functions and KCC shall provide all necessary staff, services and assistance required for an orderly transfer. The Company agrees to pay for such services in accordance with KCC's then existing prices for such services. If such termination occurs following entry of the Retention Order, the Company shall promptly seek entry of an order (in form and substance reasonably acceptable to KCC) that discharges KCC from service and responsibility in the Company's bankruptcy case.

C. Any data, programs, storage media or other materials furnished by the Company to KCC or received by KCC in connection with the services provided under the terms of this Agreement may be retained by KCC until the services provided are paid for, or until this Agreement is terminated with the services paid in full. The Company shall remain liable for all fees and expenses imposed under this Agreement as a result of data or physical media maintained or stored by KCC. KCC shall dispose of the data and media in the manner requested by the Company. The Company agrees to pay KCC for reasonable expenses incurred as a result of the disposition of data or media. If the Company has not utilized KCC's services under this Agreement for a period of at least ninety (90) days, KCC may dispose of the data or media, and be reimbursed by the Company for the expense of such disposition, after giving the Company thirty (30) days' notice. Notwithstanding any term herein to the contrary, following entry of the Retention Order, the disposition of any data or media by KCC shall be in accordance with any applicable instructions from the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, local Bankruptcy Court rules and orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

VI. SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS

KCC strives to provide continuous improvements in the quality of service to its clients. KCC, therefore, reserves the right to make changes in operating procedure, operating systems, programming languages, general purpose library programs, application programs, time period of accessibility, types of terminal and other equipment and the KCC data center serving the Company, so long as any such changes do not materially interfere with ongoing services provided to the Company in connection with the Company's chapter 11 case.

KCC AGREEMENT FOR SERVICES

VII. BANK ACCOUNTS

At the Company's request and subject to Court approval following any chapter 11 filing, KCC may be authorized to establish accounts with financial institutions in the name of and as agent for the Company. To the extent that certain financial products are provided to the Company pursuant to KCC's agreement with financial institutions, KCC may receive compensation from such financial institutions for the services KCC provides pursuant to such agreement.

VIII. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

A. The Company shall indemnify and hold KCC, its affiliates, members, directors, officers, employees, consultants, subcontractors and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) (collectively, "Losses") resulting from, arising out of or related to KCC's performance under this Agreement. Such indemnification shall exclude Losses resulting from KCC's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Losses include any liabilities resulting from claims by any third-parties against any Indemnified Party. The Company shall notify KCC in writing promptly upon the assertion, threat or commencement of any claim, action, investigation or proceeding that the Company becomes aware of with respect to the services provided by KCC under this Agreement. The Company's indemnification obligations hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

B. Except as provided herein, KCC's liability to the Company or any person making a claim through or under the Company for any Losses of any kind, even if KCC has been advised of the possibility of such Losses, whether direct or indirect and unless due to gross negligence or willful misconduct of KCC, shall be limited to the total amount billed or billable to the Company for the portion of the particular work which gave rise to the alleged Loss. In no event shall KCC be liable for any indirect, special or consequential damages such as loss of anticipated profits or other economic loss in connection with or arising out of the services provided for in this Agreement. In no event shall KCC's liability to the Company for any Losses, whether direct or indirect, arising out of this Agreement exceed the total amount billed to the Company and actually paid to KCC for the services contemplated under the Agreement; provided, however, that this limitation shall not apply to the Company during any chapter 11 case in which the Company is a debtor.

C. The Company is responsible for the accuracy of the programs, data and information it or any Company Party submits for processing to KCC and for the output of such information. KCC does not verify information provided by the Company and, with respect to the preparation of schedules and statements, all decisions are at the sole discretion and direction of the Company. The Company reviews and approves all schedules and statements filed on behalf of, or by, the Company; KCC bears no responsibility for the accuracy or contents therein. The Company agrees to initiate and maintain backup files that would allow the Company to regenerate or duplicate all programs and data submitted by the Company to KCC.

D. The Company agrees that except as expressly set forth herein, KCC makes no representations or warranties, express or implied, including, but not limited to, any implied or express warranty of merchantability, fitness or adequacy for a particular purpose or use, quality, productiveness or capacity.

IX. FORCE MAJEURE

Whenever performance by KCC of any of its obligations hereunder is materially prevented or impacted by reason of any act of God, strike, lock-out or other industrial or transportation disturbance, fire, lack of materials, law, regulation or ordinance, war or war condition, or by reason of any other matter beyond KCC's reasonable control, then such performance shall be excused and this Agreement shall be deemed suspended during the continuation of such prevention and for a reasonable time thereafter.

X. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

The Company and KCC are and shall be independent contractors of each other and no agency, partnership, joint venture or employment relationship shall arise, directly or indirectly, as a result of this Agreement.

XI. NOTICES

All notices and requests in connection with this Agreement shall be given or made upon the respective parties in writing and shall be deemed as given as of the third day following the day it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage pre-paid or on the day it is given if sent by facsimile or electronic mail or on the day after the day it is sent if sent by overnight courier to the appropriate address set forth below:

XIII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT/ MODIFICATIONS

Each party acknowledges that it has read this Agreement, understands it, and agrees to be bound by its terms and further agrees that it is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties, which supersedes and merges all prior proposals, understandings, other agreements, and communications oral and written between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. The Company represents that it has the authority to enter into this Agreement, and the Agreement is non-dischargeable under any applicable statute or law. This Agreement and the rights and duties hereunder shall not be assignable by the parties hereto except upon written consent of the other, with the exception that this Agreement can be assigned without written consent by KCC to a wholly-owned subsidiary or affiliate of KCC.

XVI. ATTORNEYS' FEES

In the event that any legal action, including an action for declaratory relief, is brought to enforce the performance or interpret the provisions of this Agreement, the parties agree to reimburse the prevailing party's reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and all other related expenses, which may be set by the court in the same action or in a separate action brought for that purpose, in addition to any other relief to which the prevailing party may be entitled.

distribution of notices and the maintenance, processing and docketing of proofs of claim, if any, filed in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, all as more fully set forth in the Application; and upon the Jordan Declaration, filed contemporaneously with and attached to the Application as Exhibit B; and the Debtors having estimated that there are in excess of 10,000 notice parties in these chapter 11 cases; and it appearing that the receiving, docketing and maintaining of proofs of claim would be unduly time consuming and burdensome for the Clerk; and the Court being authorized under 28 U.S.C. §156(c) to utilize, at the Debtors' expense, outside agents and facilities to provide notices to parties in title 11 cases and to receive, docket, maintain, photocopy and transmit proofs of claim; and the Court being satisfied that KCC has the capability and experience to provide such services and that KCC does not hold an interest adverse to the Debtors or the estates respecting the matters upon which it is to be engaged; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Application and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a)-(b) and 1334(b), and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012; and consideration of the Application and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and venue being proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and notice of the Application having been provided to the Notice Parties, and such notice having been adequate and appropriate under the circumstances; and it appearing that no other or further notice need be provided; and a hearing having been held to consider the relief requested in the Application (the "Hearing"); and upon the First Day Declaration, filed contemporaneously with the Application, the record of the Hearing and all of the proceedings had before the Court is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and all parties in interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Application establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Debtors are authorized to retain KCC as Claims and Noticing Agent effective nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date under the terms of the Engagement Agreement.

2. KCC is authorized and directed to perform noticing services and to receive, maintain, record, and otherwise administer the proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases, and all related tasks, all as described in the Application (collectively, the "Claims and Noticing Services").

3. KCC shall serve as the custodian of court records and shall be designated as the authorized repository for all proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases and is authorized and directed to maintain official claims registers for each of the Debtors, to provide public access to every proof of claim unless otherwise ordered by the Court and to provide the Clerk with a certified duplicate thereof upon the request of the Clerk.

4. KCC is authorized and directed to provide an electronic interface for filing proofs of claim and to obtain a post office box or address for the receipt of proofs of claim.

5. KCC is authorized to take such other action to comply with all duties set forth in the Application.

6. The Debtors are authorized to compensate KCC in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Agreement upon the receipt of reasonably detailed invoices setting forth the services provided by KCC and the rates charged for each, and to reimburse KCC for all reasonable and necessary expenses it may incur, upon the presentation of appropriate documentation, without the need for KCC to file fee applications or otherwise seek Court approval for the compensation of its services and reimbursement of its expenses.

7. KCC shall maintain records of all services showing dates, categories of services, fees charged and expenses incurred, and shall serve monthly invoices on the Debtors, the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware, counsel for the Debtors, counsel for any official committee monitoring the expenses of the Debtors, and any party-in-interest who specifically requests service of the monthly invoices.

8. The parties shall meet and confer in an attempt to resolve any dispute that may arise relating to the Engagement Agreement or monthly invoices; provided that the parties may seek resolution of the matter from the Court if resolution is not achieved.

8. Pursuant to section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, the fees and expenses of KCC under this Order shall be an administrative expense of the Debtors' estates.

9. KCC may apply its retainer to all prepetition invoices, which retainer shall be replenished to the original retainer amount, and thereafter, KCC may hold its retainer under the Engagement Agreement during the chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Engagement Agreement.

10. The Debtors shall indemnify KCC under the terms of the Engagement Agreement, as modified pursuant to this Order.

11. KCC shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution or reimbursement pursuant to the Engagement Agreement for services other than the services provided under the Engagement Agreement, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution or reimbursement therefor are approved by the Court.

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Engagement Agreement, the Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify KCC, or provide contribution or reimbursement to KCC, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from KCC's gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors allege the breach of KCC's contractual obligations if the Court determines that indemnification, contribution or reimbursement would not be permissible pursuant to In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (iii) settled prior to a judicial determination under (i) or (ii), but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which KCC should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of the Engagement Agreement as modified by this Order.

13. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these chapter 11 cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), or (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, KCC believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Agreement (as modified by this Order), including the advancement of defense costs, KCC must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to KCC before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. This paragraph is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by KCC for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify KCC. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by KCC for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement.

14. In the event KCC is unable to provide the services set out in this order, KCC will immediately notify the Clerk and the Debtors' attorney and, upon approval of the Court, cause to have all original proofs of claim and computer information turned over to another claims and noticing agent with the advice and consent of the Clerk and the Debtors' attorney.

15. The Debtors may submit a separate retention application, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327 and/or any applicable law, for work that is to be performed by KCC but is not specifically authorized by this Order.

16. The Debtors and KCC are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order.

17. Notwithstanding any term in the Engagement Agreement to the contrary, the Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.

18. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

19. KCC shall not cease providing claims processing services during the chapter 11 cases for any reason, including nonpayment, without an order of the Court.

20. In the event of any inconsistency between the Engagement Agreement, the Application and the Order, the Order shall govern.

21. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.

MOTION OF DEBTORS PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 105 FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER ENFORCING THE PROTECTIONS OF 11 U.S.C. §§ 362, 365, 525, AND 541

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent in support of this motion (the "Motion"):

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, the Debtors request entry of an order, pursuant to section 105(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), enforcing the protections of sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code to aid in the administration of these chapter 11 cases and to help ensure that the Debtors' global business operations are not disrupted.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on a final basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013–1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

5. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

(the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

7. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.5% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

9. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

10. As discussed below, sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code automatically provide certain protections to the Debtors as a result of filing these chapter 11 cases; however, given the nature of the Company's business, many of the Debtors' creditors, contract counterparties, and other parties in interest are based outside of the United States and may be unfamiliar with these provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors seek entry of an order embodying these aspects of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are not asking the Court to grant any relief beyond the protections that are already automatically provided to the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code, but merely seek a "comfort order" that can be shown to parties in interest.

11. As a result of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, and by operation of law pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay enjoins all entities from, among other things: (i) commencing or continuing any judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against any of the Debtors that was or could have been initiated before the Petition Date; (ii) recovering a claim against any of the Debtors that arose before the Petition Date; (iii) enforcing against any of the Debtors or property of their estates a judgment that was obtained before the Petition Date; or (iv) taking any action to collect, assess, or recover a claim against any of the Debtors that arose before the Petition Date. See 11 U.S.C. § 362.

12. The injunction contained in section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is self-executing. It constitutes a fundamental debtor protection that, together with other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, provides a debtor with a "breathing spell" that is essential to a successful reorganization. See, e.g., Borman v. Raymark Indus., Inc., 946 F.2d 1031, 1033 (3d Cir. 1991) ("The automatic stay was intended to give the debtor 'a breathing spell from his creditors…. It permits the debtor to attempt a repayment or reorganization plan, or simply to be relieved of the financial pressures that drove him into bankruptcy.'") (quoting H.R. Rep. No. 95-959, at 340 (1978), U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News 1978, pp. 5963, 6296-97).

13. The protections of the automatic stay apply to a debtor's property wherever located and by whomever held. See 11 U.S.C. § 541(a); In re Allen, 768 F.3d 274, 276, 279 (3d Cir. 2014) (stating that "[b]ankruptcy jurisdiction, at its core, is in rem" and holding that actual possession by the debtor is not required for property to be part of the debtor's estate) (internal citation and quotation marks omitted) (alteration and emphasis in original); Underwood v. Hilliard (In re Rimsat, Ltd.), 98 F.3d 956, 961 (7th Cir. 1996) (bankruptcy court's in rem jurisdiction over property of estate permits injunctions against foreign proceedings pursuant to the automatic stay). The automatic stay, therefore, applies to the Debtors' assets and operations throughout the world.

14. Section 365(e)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code renders insolvency termination provisions in contracts unenforceable against a chapter 11 debtor. Specifically, section 365(e)(1) provides that:

> Notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease, or in applicable law, an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor may not be terminated or modified, and any right or obligation under such contract or lease may not be terminated or modified, at any time after the commencement of the case solely because of a provision in such contract or lease that is conditioned on—
> (A) the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor at any time before the closing of the case;
>
> (B) the commencement of a case under this title; or
> (C) the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement.

11 U.S.C. § 365(e)(1). Bankruptcy Courts have applied section 365(e)(1) liberally, holding that provisions modifying or terminating the relationships of the contracting parties due to the filing of a bankruptcy case are "unenforceable as a matter of law." In re W.R. Grace & Co., 475 B.R. 34, 152 (D. Del. 2012) (collecting cases).

15. Similarly, pursuant to section 541(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, a provision in an agreement, transfer instrument, or applicable nonbankruptcy law is unenforceable if such provision "restricts or conditions transfer of such interest by the debtor" or:

> that is conditioned on the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor, on the commencement of a case under this title, or on the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement, and that effects or gives an option to effect a forfeiture, modification, or termination of the debtor's interest in property.

11 U.S.C. § 541(c)(1)(B).

16. Pursuant to section 525(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, "governmental units," including foreign "governmental units," are prohibited from, among other things, denying, revoking, suspending, or refusing to renew licenses, permits, charters, franchises, or other similar grants held by a chapter 11 debtor (or persons with whom the debtor is associated, including affiliates) on the basis that the debtor has failed to pay a dischargeable debt, commenced a chapter 11 case, or was insolvent prior to the commencement of such case. See 11 U.S.C. § 525(a). The Bankruptcy Code defines "governmental unit" as the "United States; State; Commonwealth; District; Territory; municipality; foreign state; department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States (but not a United States trustee while serving as a trustee in a case under this title), a State, a Commonwealth, a District, a Territory, a municipality, or a foreign state; or other foreign or domestic government." 11 U.S.C. § 101(27). Thus, the protections of section 525(a) apply broadly to local, state, and foreign governmental units.

17. Notwithstanding the self-executing and global nature of sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code, not all parties affected, or potentially affected, by the commencement of these chapter 11 cases are aware of these statutory provisions or their significance and impact. Therefore, it is prudent to obtain an order confirming and reinforcing the relevant provisions of the aforementioned sections of the Bankruptcy Code.

18. The requested relief is particularly appropriate in these chapter 11 cases, as the Company includes fifty (50) separate entities organized under the laws of twenty-one (21) different jurisdictions. Nineteen (19) of such entities are obligors on the Company's funded debt, which entities are organized under the laws of Canada, Ireland, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom, and the United States. In addition, the Debtors, through their various debtor and non-debtor affiliates and subsidiaries, operate in numerous locales with different legal systems, including Australia, Austria, Canada, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Singapore, Switzerland and the United Kingdom. The Debtors engage with numerous foreign customers, suppliers, and other vendors, as well as foreign regulators and other governmental units. The Debtors believe that, absent an order from this Court, parties might attempt to take improper actions against the Debtors and/or property of their estates.

19. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers the Court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Granting the relief requested in this Motion is fully consistent with the terms of the Bankruptcy Code and will facilitate a smooth and orderly transition of the Debtors' operations into chapter 11 and minimize the disruption of their business affairs. The Debtors, therefore, request that this Court grant the requested relief. Granting the requested relief, which the Debtors will be able to transmit to affected parties, will give effect to the protections under sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code by proactively confirming the applicability and effect of these provisions in the form of an order that bears the imprimatur of a federal court and may be transmitted to third parties as necessary.

Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. (27) under subsection (a) of this section, of the exercise by a master netting agreement participant of any contractual right (as defined in section 555, 556, 559, or 560) under any security agreement or arrangement or other credit enhancement forming a part of or related to any master netting agreement, or of any contractual right (as defined in section 555, 556, 559, or 560) to offset or net out any termination value, payment amount, or other transfer obligation arising under or in connection with 1 or more such master netting agreements to the extent that such participant is eligible to exercise such rights under paragraph (6), (7), or (17) for each individual contract covered by the master netting agreement in issue; and

(28) under subsection (a), of the exclusion by the Secretary of Health and Human Services of the debtor from participation in the medicare program or any other Federal health care program (as defined in section 1128B(f) of the Social Security Act pursuant to title XI or XVIII of such Act).

The provisions of paragraphs (12) and (13) of this subsection shall apply with respect to any such petition filed on or before December 31, 1989.

(c) Except as provided in subsections (d), (e), (f), and (h) of this section—

(1) the stay of an act against property of the estate under subsection (a) of this section continues until such property is no longer property of the estate;

(2) the stay of any other act under subsection (a) of this section continues until the earliest of—

(A) the time the case is closed;

(B) the time the case is dismissed; or

(C) if the case is a case under chapter 7 of this title concerning an individual or a case under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title, the time a discharge is granted or denied;

(3) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13, and if a single or joint case of the debtor was pending within the preceding 1-year period but was dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707(b)—

(A) the stay under subsection (a) with respect to any action taken with respect to a debt or property securing such debt or with respect to any lease shall terminate with respect to the debtor on the 30th day after the filing of the later case;

(B)on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed; and

(C) for purposes of subparagraph (B), a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary)—

(i) as to all creditors, if—

(I) more than 1 previous case under any of chapters 7, 11, and 13 in which the individual was a debtor was pending within the preceding 1-year period;

(II) a previous case under any of chapters 7, 11, and 13 in which the individual was a debtor was dismissed within such 1-year period, after the debtor failed to—

(aa) file or amend the petition or other documents as required by this title or the court without substantial excuse (but mere inadvertence or negligence shall not be a substantial excuse unless the dismissal was caused by the negligence of the debtor's attorney);

(bb) provide adequate protection as ordered by the court; or

(cc) perform the terms of a plan confirmed by the court; or

(III) there has not been a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 or any other reason to conclude that the later case will be concluded—

(aa) if a case under chapter 7, with a discharge; or

(ii) as to any creditor that commenced an action under subsection (d) in a previous case in which the individual was a debtor if, as of the date of dismissal of such case, that action was still pending or had been resolved by terminating, conditioning, or limiting the stay as to actions of such creditor; and

(i) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual under this title, and if 2 or more single or joint cases of the debtor were pending within the previous year but were dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707(b), the stay under subsection (a) shall not go into effect upon the filing of the later case; and

(ii) on request of a party in interest, the court shall promptly enter an order confirming that no stay is in effect;

(B) if, within 30 days after the filing of the later case, a party in interest requests the court may order the stay to take effect in the case as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may impose), after notice and a hearing, only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed;

(C) a stay imposed under subparagraph (B) shall be effective on the date of the entry of the order allowing the stay to go into effect; and

(D) for purposes of subparagraph (B), a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary)—

(i) as to all creditors if—

(I) 2 or more previous cases under this title in which the individual was a debtor were pending within the 1-year period;

(II) a previous case under this title in which the individual was a debtor was dismissed within the time period stated in this paragraph after the debtor failed to file or amend the petition or other documents as required by this title or the court without substantial excuse (but mere inadvertence or negligence shall not be substantial excuse unless the dismissal was caused by the negligence of the debtor's attorney), failed to provide adequate protection as ordered by the court, or failed to perform the terms of a plan confirmed by the court; or

(III) there has not been a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under this title, or any other reason to conclude that the later case will not be concluded, if a case under chapter 7, with a discharge, and if a case under chapter 11 or 13, with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed; or

(ii) as to any creditor that commenced an action under subsection (d) in a previous case in which the individual was a debtor if, as of the date of dismissal of such case, such action was still pending or had been resolved by terminating, conditioning, or limiting the stay as to such action of such creditor.

(d) On request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, the court shall grant relief from the stay provided under subsection (a) of this section, such as by terminating, annulling, modifying, or conditioning such stay—

(1) for cause, including the lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest;

(2) with respect to a stay of an act against property under subsection (a) of this section, if—

(A) the debtor does not have an equity in such property; and

(B) such property is not necessary to an effective reorganization;

(3) with respect to a stay of an act against single asset real estate under subsection (a), by a creditor whose claim is secured by an interest in such real estate, unless, not later than the date that is 90 days after the entry of the order for relief (or such later date as the court may determine for cause by order entered within that 90-day period) or 30 days after the court determines that the debtor is subject to this paragraph, whichever is later—

(A) the debtor has filed a plan of reorganization that has a reasonable possibility of being confirmed within a reasonable time; or

(B) the debtor has commenced monthly payments that—

(i) may, in the debtor's sole discretion, notwithstanding section 363(c)(2), be made from rents or other income generated before, on, or after the date of the commencement of the case by or from the property to each creditor whose claim is secured by such real estate (other than a claim secured by a judgment lien or by an unmatured statutory lien); and

(ii) are in an amount equal to interest at the then applicable nondefault contract rate of interest on the value of the creditor's interest in the real estate; or

(4) with respect to a stay of an act against real property under subsection (a), by a creditor whose claim is secured by an interest in such real property, if the court finds that the filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors that involved either—

(A) transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval; or

(B) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting such real property.

If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, an order entered under paragraph (4) shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept any certified copy of an order described in this subsection for indexing and recording.

(1) Thirty days after a request under subsection (d) of this section for relief from the stay of any act against property of the estate under subsection (a) of this section, such stay is terminated with respect to the party in interest making such request, unless the court, after notice and a hearing, orders such stay continued in effect pending the conclusion of, or as a result of, a final hearing and determination under subsection (d) of this section. A hearing under this subsection may be a preliminary hearing, or may be consolidated with the final hearing under subsection (d) of this section. The court shall order such stay continued in effect pending the conclusion of the final hearing under subsection (d) of this section if there is a reasonable likelihood that the party opposing relief from such stay will prevail at the conclusion of such final hearing. If the hearing under this subsection is a preliminary hearing, then such final hearing shall be concluded not later than thirty days after the conclusion of such preliminary hearing, unless the 30-day period is extended with the consent of the parties in interest or for a specific time which the court finds is required by compelling circumstances.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 in which the debtor is an individual, the stay under subsection (a) shall terminate on the date that is 60 days after a request is made by a party in interest under subsection (d), unless—

(A) a final decision is rendered by the court during the 60-day period beginning on the date of the request; or

(B) such 60-day period is extended—

(i) by agreement of all parties in interest; or

(ii) by the court for such specific period of time as the court finds is required for good cause, as described in findings made by the court.

(f) Upon request of a party in interest, the court, with or without a hearing, shall grant such relief from the stay provided under subsection (a) of this section as is necessary to prevent irreparable damage to the interest of an entity in property, if such interest will suffer such damage before there is an opportunity for notice and a hearing under subsection (d) or (e) of this section.

(g) In any hearing under subsection (d) or (e) of this section concerning relief from the stay of any act under subsection (a) of this section—

(1) the party requesting such relief has the burden of proof on the issue of the debtor's equity in property; and

(2) the party opposing such relief has the burden of proof on all other issues.

(h)

(1) In a case in which the debtor is an individual, the stay provided by subsection (a) is terminated with respect to personal property of the estate or of the debtor securing in whole or in part a claim, or subject to an unexpired lease, and such personal property shall no longer be property of the estate if the debtor fails within the applicable time set by section 521(a)(2)—

(A) to file timely any statement of intention required under section 521(a)(2) with respect to such personal property or to indicate in such statement that the debtor will either surrender such personal property or retain it and, if retaining such personal property, either redeem such personal property pursuant to section 722, enter into an agreement of the kind specified in section 524(c) applicable to the debt secured by such personal property, or assume such unexpired lease pursuant to section 365(p) if the trustee does not do so, as applicable; and

(B) to take timely the action specified in such statement, as it may be amended before expiration of the period for taking action, unless such statement specifies the debtor's intention to reaffirm such debt on the original contract terms and the creditor refuses to agree to the reaffirmation on such terms.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if the court determines, on the motion of the trustee filed before the expiration of the applicable time set by section 521(a)(2), after notice and a hearing, that such personal property is of consequential value or benefit to the estate, and orders appropriate adequate protection of the creditor's interest, and orders the debtor to deliver any collateral in the debtor's possession to the trustee. If the court does not so determine, the stay provided by subsection (a) shall terminate upon the conclusion of the hearing on the motion.

(i) If a case commenced under chapter 7, 11, or 13 is dismissed due to the creation of a debt repayment plan, for purposes of subsection (c)(3), any subsequent case commenced by the debtor under any such chapter shall not be presumed to be filed not in good faith.

(j) On request of a party in interest, the court shall issue an order under subsection (c) confirming that the automatic stay has been terminated.

(k)

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), an individual injured by any willful violation of a stay provided by this section shall recover actual damages, including costs and attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, may recover punitive damages.

(2) If such violation is based on an action taken by an entity in the good faith belief that subsection (h) applies to the debtor, the recovery under paragraph (1) of this subsection against such entity shall be limited to actual damages.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, subsection (b)(22) shall apply on the date that is 30 days after the date on which the bankruptcy petition is filed, if the debtor files with the petition and serves upon the lessor a certification under penalty of perjury that—

(A) under nonbankruptcy law applicable in the jurisdiction, there are circumstances under which the debtor would be permitted to cure the entire monetary default that gave rise to the judgment for possession, after that judgment for possession was entered; and

(B) the debtor (or an adult dependent of the debtor) has deposited with the clerk of the court, any rent that would become due during the 30-day period after the filing of the bankruptcy petition.

(2) If, within the 30-day period after the filing of the bankruptcy petition, the debtor (or an adult dependent of the debtor) complies with paragraph (1) and files with the court and serves upon the lessor a further certification under penalty of perjury that the debtor (or an adult dependent of the debtor) has cured, under nonbankruptcy law applicable in the jurisdiction, the entire monetary default that gave rise to the judgment under which possession is sought by the lessor, subsection (b)(22) shall not apply, unless ordered to apply by the court under paragraph (3).

(A) If the lessor files an objection to any certification filed by the debtor under paragraph (1) or (2), and serves such objection upon the debtor, the court shall hold a hearing within 10 days after the filing and service of such objection to determine if the certification filed by the debtor under paragraph (1) or (2) is true.

(B) If the court upholds the objection of the lessor filed under subparagraph (A)—

(i) subsection (b)(22) shall apply immediately and relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to complete the process to recover full possession of the property; and

(ii) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the court's order upholding the lessor's objection.

(4) If a debtor, in accordance with paragraph (5), indicates on the petition that there was a judgment for possession of the residential rental property in which the debtor resides and does not file a certification under paragraph (1) or (2)—

(A) subsection (b)(22) shall apply immediately upon failure to file such certification, and relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to complete the process to recover full possession of the property; and

(B) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the docket indicating the absence of a filed certification and the applicability of the exception to the stay under subsection (b)(22).

(A) Where a judgment for possession of residential property in which the debtor resides as a tenant under a lease or rental agreement has been obtained by the lessor, the debtor shall so indicate on the bankruptcy petition and shall provide the name and address of the lessor that obtained that pre-petition judgment on the petition and on any certification filed under this subsection.

(B) The form of certification filed with the petition, as specified in this subsection, shall provide for the debtor to certify, and the debtor shall certify—

(i) whether a judgment for possession of residential rental housing in which the debtor resides has been obtained against the debtor before the date of the filing of the petition; and

(ii) whether the debtor is claiming under paragraph (1) that under nonbankruptcy law applicable in the jurisdiction, there are circumstances under which the debtor would be permitted to cure the entire monetary default that gave rise to the judgment for possession, after that judgment of possession was entered, and has made the appropriate deposit with the court.

(C) The standard forms (electronic and otherwise) used in a bankruptcy proceeding shall be amended to reflect the requirements of this subsection.

(D) The clerk of the court shall arrange for the prompt transmittal of the rent deposited in accordance with paragraph (1)(B) to the lessor.

(m)

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, subsection (b)(23) shall apply on the date that is 15 days after the date on which the lessor files and serves a certification described in subsection (b)(23).

(A) If the debtor files with the court an objection to the truth or legal sufficiency of the certification described in subsection (b)(23) and serves such objection upon the lessor, subsection (b)(23) shall not apply, unless ordered to apply by the court under this subsection.

(B) If the debtor files and serves the objection under subparagraph (A), the court shall hold a hearing within 10 days after the filing and service of such objection to determine if the situation giving rise to the lessor's certification under paragraph (1) existed or has been remedied.

(C) If the debtor can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that the situation giving rise to the lessor's certification under paragraph (1) did not exist or has been remedied, the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall remain in effect until the termination of the stay under this section.

(D) If the debtor cannot demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that the situation giving rise to the lessor's certification under paragraph (1) did not exist or has been remedied—

(i) relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to proceed with the eviction; and

(ii) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the court's order upholding the lessor's certification.

(3) If the debtor fails to file, within 15 days, an objection under paragraph (2)(A)—

(A) subsection (b)(23) shall apply immediately upon such failure and relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to complete the process to recover full possession of the property; and

(B) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the docket indicating such failure.

(n)

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), subsection (a) does not apply in a case in which the debtor—

(A) is a debtor in a small business case pending at the time the petition is filed;

(B)was a debtor in a small business case that was dismissed for any reason by an order that became final in the 2-year period ending on the date of the order for relief entered with respect to the petition;

(C) was a debtor in a small business case in which a plan was confirmed in the 2-year period ending on the date of the order for relief entered with respect to the petition; or

(D) is an entity that has acquired substantially all of the assets or business of a small business debtor described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C), unless such entity establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that such entity acquired substantially all of the assets or business of such small business debtor in good faith and not for the purpose of evading this paragraph.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply—

(A) to an involuntary case involving no collusion by the debtor with creditors; or

(B) to the filing of a petition if—

(i) the debtor proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the filing of the petition resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the debtor not foreseeable at the time the case then pending was filed; and

(ii) it is more likely than not that the court will confirm a feasible plan, but not a liquidating plan, within a reasonable period of time.

(o) The exercise of rights not subject to the stay arising under subsection (a) pursuant to paragraph (6), (7), (17), or (27) of subsection (b) shall not be stayed by any order of a court or administrative agency in any proceeding under this title.

Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code

§ 365. Executory contracts and unexpired leases

(a) Except as provided in sections 765 and 766 of this title and in subsections (b), (c), and (d) of this section, the trustee, subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor.

(1) If there has been a default in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, the trustee may not assume such contract or lease unless, at the time of assumption of such contract or lease, the trustee—

(A) cures, or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly cure, such default other than a default that is a breach of a provision relating to the satisfaction of any provision (other than a penalty rate or penalty provision) relating to a default arising from any failure to perform nonmonetary obligations under an unexpired lease of real property, if it is impossible for the trustee to cure such default by performing nonmonetary acts at and after the time of assumption, except that if such default arises from a failure to operate in accordance with a nonresidential real property lease, then such default shall be cured by performance at and after the time of assumption in accordance with such lease, and pecuniary losses resulting from such default shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph;

(B) compensates, or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly compensate, a party other than the debtor to such contract or lease, for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from such default; and

(C) provides adequate assurance of future performance under such contract or lease.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not apply to a default that is a breach of a provision relating to—

(A) the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor at any time before the closing of the case;

(B) the commencement of a case under this title;

(C) the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement; or

(D) the satisfaction of any penalty rate or penalty provision relating to a default arising from any failure by the debtor to perform nonmonetary obligations under the executory contract or unexpired lease.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this subsection and paragraph (2)(B) of subsection (f), adequate assurance of future performance of a lease of real property in a shopping center includes adequate assurance—

(A) of the source of rent and other consideration due under such lease, and in the case of an assignment, that the financial condition and operating performance of the proposed assignee and its guarantors, if any, shall be similar to the financial condition and operating performance of the debtor and its guarantors, if any, as of the time the debtor became the lessee under the lease;

(B) that any percentage rent due under such lease will not decline substantially;

(C) that assumption or assignment of such lease is subject to all the provisions thereof, including (but not limited to) provisions such as a radius, location, use, or exclusivity provision, and will not breach any such provision contained in any other lease, financing agreement, or master agreement relating to such shopping center; and

(D) that assumption or assignment of such lease will not disrupt any tenant mix or balance in such shopping center.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if there has been a default in an unexpired lease of the debtor, other than a default of a kind specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the trustee may not require a lessor to provide services or supplies incidental to such lease before assumption of such lease unless the lessor is compensated under the terms of such lease for any services and supplies provided under such lease before assumption of such lease.

(c) The trustee may not assume or assign any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties, if—

(A) applicable law excuses a party, other than the debtor, to such contract or lease from accepting performance from or rendering performance to an entity other than the debtor or the debtor in possession, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties; and

(B) such party does not consent to such assumption or assignment; or

(2) such contract is a contract to make a loan, or extend other debt financing or financial accommodations, to or for the benefit of the debtor, or to issue a security of the debtor; or

(3) such lease is of nonresidential real property and has been terminated under applicable nonbankruptcy law prior to the order for relief.

(1) In a case under chapter 7 of this title, if the trustee does not assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease of residential real property or of personal property of the debtor within 60 days after the order for relief, or within such additional time as the court, for cause, within such 60-day period, fixes, then such contract or lease is deemed rejected.

(2) In a case under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title, the trustee may assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease of residential real property or of personal property of the debtor at any time before the confirmation of a plan but the court, on the request of any party to such contract or lease, may order the trustee to determine within a specified period of time whether to assume or reject such contract or lease.

(3) The trustee shall timely perform all the obligations of the debtor, except those specified in section 365(b)(2), arising from and after the order for relief under any unexpired lease of nonresidential real property, until such lease is assumed or rejected, notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of this title. The court may extend, for cause, the time for performance of any such obligation that arises within 60 days after the date of the order for relief, but the time for performance shall not be extended beyond such 60-day period. This subsection shall not be deemed to affect the trustee's obligations under the provisions of subsection (b) or (f) of this section. Acceptance of any such performance does not constitute waiver or relinquishment of the lessor's rights under such lease or under this title.

(4) (A) Subject to subparagraph (B), an unexpired lease of nonresidential real property under which the debtor is the lessee shall be deemed rejected, and the trustee shall immediately surrender that nonresidential real property to the lessor, if the trustee does not assume or reject the unexpired lease by the earlier of—

(i) the date that is 120 days after the date of the order for relief; or

(ii) the date of the entry of an order confirming a plan.

(B)

(i) The court may extend the period determined under subparagraph (A), prior to the expiration of the 120-day period, for 90 days on the motion of the trustee or lessor for cause.

(ii) If the court grants an extension under clause (i), the court may grant a subsequent extension only upon prior written consent of the lessor in each instance.

(5) The trustee shall timely perform all of the obligations of the debtor, except those specified in section 365(b)(2), first arising from or after 60 days after the order for relief in a case under chapter 11 of this title under an unexpired lease of personal property (other than personal property leased to an individual primarily for personal, family, or household purposes), until such lease is assumed or rejected notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of this title, unless the court, after notice and a hearing and based on the equities of the case, orders otherwise with respect to the obligations or timely performance thereof. This subsection shall not be deemed to affect the trustee's obligations under the provisions of subsection (b) or (f). Acceptance of any such performance does not constitute waiver or relinquishment of the lessor's rights under such lease or under this title.

(1) Notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease, or in applicable law, an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor may not be terminated or modified, and any right or obligation under such contract or lease may not be terminated or modified, at any time after the commencement of the case solely because of a provision in such contract or lease that is conditioned on—

(A) the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor at any time before the closing of the case;

(B) the commencement of a case under this title; or

(C) the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not apply to an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties, if—

(i) applicable law excuses a party, other than the debtor, to such contract or lease from accepting performance from or rendering performance to the trustee or to an assignee of such contract or lease, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties; and

(ii) such party does not consent to such assumption or assignment; or

(B) such contract is a contract to make a loan, or extend other debt financing or financial accommodations, to or for the benefit of the debtor, or to issue a security of the debtor.

(f)

(1) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law, that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment of such contract or lease, the trustee may assign such contract or lease under paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(2) The trustee may assign an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor only if—

(A) the trustee assumes such contract or lease in accordance with the provisions of this section; and

(B) adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee of such contract or lease is provided, whether or not there has been a default in such contract or lease.

(3) Notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law that terminates or modifies, or permits a party other than the debtor to terminate or modify, such contract or lease or a right or obligation under such contract or lease on account of an assignment of such contract or lease, such contract, lease, right, or obligation may not be terminated or modified under such provision because of the assumption or assignment of such contract or lease by the trustee.

(g) Except as provided in subsections (h)(2) and (i)(2) of this section, the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor constitutes a breach of such contract or lease—

(1) if such contract or lease has not been assumed under this section or under a plan confirmed under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title, immediately before the date of the filing of the petition; or

(2) if such contract or lease has been assumed under this section or under a plan confirmed under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title—

(A) if before such rejection the case has not been converted under section 1112, 1208, or 1307 of this title, at the time of such rejection; or

(B) if before such rejection the case has been converted under section 1112, 1208, or 1307 of this title—

(i) immediately before the date of such conversion, if such contract or lease was assumed before such conversion; or

(ii) at the time of such rejection, if such contract or lease was assumed after such conversion.

(A) If the trustee rejects an unexpired lease of real property under which the debtor is the lessor and—

(i) if the rejection by the trustee amounts to such a breach as would entitle the lessee to treat such lease as terminated by virtue of its terms, applicable nonbankruptcy law, or any agreement made by the lessee, then the lessee under such lease may treat such lease as terminated by the rejection; or

(ii) if the term of such lease has commenced, the lessee may retain its rights under such lease (including rights such as those relating to the amount and timing of payment of rent and other amounts payable by the lessee and any right of use, possession, quiet enjoyment, subletting, assignment, or hypothecation) that are in or appurtenant to the real property for the balance of the term of such lease and for any renewal or extension of such rights to the extent that such rights are enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

(D) In this paragraph, "lessee" includes any successor, assign, or mortgagee permitted under the terms of such lease.

(i) if the rejection amounts to such a breach as would entitle the timeshare interest purchaser to treat the timeshare plan as terminated under its terms, applicable nonbankruptcy law, or any agreement made by timeshare interest purchaser, the timeshare interest purchaser under the timeshare plan may treat the timeshare plan as terminated by such rejection; or

(ii) if the term of such timeshare interest has commenced, then the timeshare interest purchaser may retain its rights in such timeshare interest for the balance of such term and for any term of renewal or extension of such timeshare interest to the extent that such rights are enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

(B) If the timeshare interest purchaser retains its rights under subparagraph (A), such timeshare interest purchaser may offset against the moneys due for such timeshare interest for the balance of the term after the date of the rejection of such timeshare interest, and the term of any renewal or extension of such timeshare interest, the value of any damage caused by the nonperformance after the date of such rejection, of any obligation of the debtor under such timeshare plan, but the timeshare interest purchaser shall not have any right against the estate or the debtor on account of any damage occurring after such date caused by such nonperformance.

(A) If the debtor in a case under chapter 7 is an individual, the debtor may notify the creditor in writing that the debtor desires to assume the lease. Upon being so notified, the creditor may, at its option, notify the debtor that it is willing to have the lease assumed by the debtor and may condition such assumption on cure of any outstanding default on terms set by the contract.

(B) If, not later than 30 days after notice is provided under subparagraph (A), the debtor notifies the lessor in writing that the lease is assumed, the liability under the lease will be assumed by the debtor and not by the estate.

(C) The stay under section 362 and the injunction under section 524(a)(2) shall not be violated by notification of the debtor and negotiation of cure under this subsection.

(3) In a case under chapter 11 in which the debtor is an individual and in a case under chapter 13, if the debtor is the lessee with respect to personal property and the lease is not assumed in the plan confirmed by the court, the lease is deemed rejected as of the conclusion of the hearing on confirmation. If the lease is rejected, the stay under section 362 and any stay under section 1301 is automatically terminated with respect to the property subject to the lease.

(B)on the motion of a party in interest for continuation of the automatic stay and upon notice and a hearing, the court may extend the stay in particular cases as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may then impose) after notice and a hearing completed before the expiration of the 30-day period only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed; and

(C) for purposes of subparagraph (B), a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary)—

(cc) perform the terms of a plan confirmed by the court; or

(III) there has not been a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 or any other reason to conclude that the later case will be concluded—

(aa) if a case under chapter 7, with a discharge; or

(ii) as to any creditor that commenced an action under subsection (d) in a previous case in which the individual was a debtor if, as of the date of dismissal of such case, that action was still pending or had been resolved by terminating, conditioning, or limiting the stay as to actions of such creditor; and

(i) if a single or joint case is filed by or against a debtor who is an individual under this title, and if 2 or more single or joint cases of the debtor were pending within the previous year but were dismissed, other than a case refiled under a chapter other than chapter 7 after dismissal under section 707(b), the stay under subsection (a) shall not go into effect upon the filing of the later case; and

(ii) on request of a party in interest, the court shall promptly enter an order confirming that no stay is in effect;

(B) if, within 30 days after the filing of the later case, a party in interest requests the court may order the stay to take effect in the case as to any or all creditors (subject to such conditions or limitations as the court may impose), after notice and a hearing, only if the party in interest demonstrates that the filing of the later case is in good faith as to the creditors to be stayed;

(C) a stay imposed under subparagraph (B) shall be effective on the date of the entry of the order allowing the stay to go into effect; and

(D) for purposes of subparagraph (B), a case is presumptively filed not in good faith (but such presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary)—

(i) as to all creditors if—

(I) 2 or more previous cases under this title in which the individual was a debtor were pending within the 1-year period;

(II) a previous case under this title in which the individual was a debtor was dismissed within the time period stated in this paragraph after the debtor failed to file or amend the petition or other documents as required by this title or the court without substantial excuse (but mere inadvertence or negligence shall not be substantial excuse unless the dismissal was caused by the negligence of the debtor's attorney), failed to provide adequate protection as ordered by the court, or failed to perform the terms of a plan confirmed by the court; or

(III) there has not been a substantial change in the financial or personal affairs of the debtor since the dismissal of the next most previous case under this title, or any other reason to conclude that the later case will not be concluded, if a case under chapter 7, with a discharge, and if a case under chapter 11 or 13, with a confirmed plan that will be fully performed; or

(ii) as to any creditor that commenced an action under subsection (d) in a previous case in which the individual was a debtor if, as of the date of dismissal of such case, such action was still pending or had been resolved by terminating, conditioning, or limiting the stay as to such action of such creditor.

(d) On request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, the court shall grant relief from the stay provided under subsection (a) of this section, such as by terminating, annulling, modifying, or conditioning such stay—

(1) for cause, including the lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest;

(2) with respect to a stay of an act against property under subsection (a) of this section, if—

(A) the debtor does not have an equity in such property; and

(B) such property is not necessary to an effective reorganization;

(3) with respect to a stay of an act against single asset real estate under subsection (a), by a creditor whose claim is secured by an interest in such real estate, unless, not later than the date that is 90 days after the entry of the order for relief (or such later date as the court may determine for cause by order entered within that 90-day period) or 30 days after the court determines that the debtor is subject to this paragraph, whichever is later—

(A) the debtor has filed a plan of reorganization that has a reasonable possibility of being confirmed within a reasonable time; or

(B) the debtor has commenced monthly payments that—

(i) may, in the debtor's sole discretion, notwithstanding section 363(c)(2), be made from rents or other income generated before, on, or after the date of the commencement of the case by or from the property to each creditor whose claim is secured by such real estate (other than a claim secured by a judgment lien or by an unmatured statutory lien); and

(ii) are in an amount equal to interest at the then applicable nondefault contract rate of interest on the value of the creditor's interest in the real estate; or

(4) with respect to a stay of an act against real property under subsection (a), by a creditor whose claim is secured by an interest in such real property, if the court finds that the filing of the petition was part of a scheme to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors that involved either—

(A) transfer of all or part ownership of, or other interest in, such real property without the consent of the secured creditor or court approval; or

(B) multiple bankruptcy filings affecting such real property.

If recorded in compliance with applicable State laws governing notices of interests or liens in real property, an order entered under paragraph (4) shall be binding in any other case under this title purporting to affect such real property filed not later than 2 years after the date of the entry of such order by the court, except that a debtor in a subsequent case under this title may move for relief from such order based upon changed circumstances or for good cause shown, after notice and a hearing. Any Federal, State, or local governmental unit that accepts notices of interests or liens in real property shall accept any certified copy of an order described in this subsection for indexing and recording.

(1) Thirty days after a request under subsection (d) of this section for relief from the stay of any act against property of the estate under subsection (a) of this section, such stay is terminated with respect to the party in interest making such request, unless the court, after notice and a hearing, orders such stay continued in effect pending the conclusion of, or as a result of, a final hearing and determination under subsection (d) of this section. A hearing under this subsection may be a preliminary hearing, or may be consolidated with the final hearing under subsection (d) of this section. The court shall order such stay continued in effect pending the conclusion of the final hearing under subsection (d) of this section if there is a reasonable likelihood that the party opposing relief from such stay will prevail at the conclusion of such final hearing. If the hearing under this subsection is a preliminary hearing, then such final hearing shall be concluded not later than thirty days after the conclusion of such preliminary hearing, unless the 30-day period is extended with the consent of the parties in interest or for a specific time which the court finds is required by compelling circumstances.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in a case under chapter 7, 11, or 13 in which the debtor is an individual, the stay under subsection (a) shall terminate on the date that is 60 days after a request is made by a party in interest under subsection (d), unless—

(A) a final decision is rendered by the court during the 60-day period beginning on the date of the request; or

(B) such 60-day period is extended—

(i) by agreement of all parties in interest; or

(ii) by the court for such specific period of time as the court finds is required for good cause, as described in findings made by the court.

(f) Upon request of a party in interest, the court, with or without a hearing, shall grant such relief from the stay provided under subsection (a) of this section as is necessary to prevent irreparable damage to the interest of an entity in property, if such interest will suffer such damage before there is an opportunity for notice and a hearing under subsection (d) or (e) of this section.

(g) In any hearing under subsection (d) or (e) of this section concerning relief from the stay of any act under subsection (a) of this section—

(1) the party requesting such relief has the burden of proof on the issue of the debtor's equity in property; and

(2) the party opposing such relief has the burden of proof on all other issues.

(1) In a case in which the debtor is an individual, the stay provided by subsection (a) is terminated with respect to personal property of the estate or of the debtor securing in whole or in part a claim, or subject to an unexpired lease, and such personal property shall no longer be property of the estate if the debtor fails within the applicable time set by section 521(a)(2)—

(A) to file timely any statement of intention required under section 521(a)(2) with respect to such personal property or to indicate in such statement that the debtor will either surrender such personal property or retain it and, if retaining such personal property, either redeem such personal property pursuant to section 722, enter into an agreement of the kind specified in section 524(c) applicable to the debt secured by such personal property, or assume such unexpired lease pursuant to section 365(p) if the trustee does not do so, as applicable; and

(B) to take timely the action specified in such statement, as it may be amended before expiration of the period for taking action, unless such statement specifies the debtor's intention to reaffirm such debt on the original contract terms and the creditor refuses to agree to the reaffirmation on such terms.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if the court determines, on the motion of the trustee filed before the expiration of the applicable time set by section 521(a)(2), after notice and a hearing, that such personal property is of consequential value or benefit to the estate, and orders appropriate adequate protection of the creditor's interest, and orders the debtor to deliver any collateral in the debtor's possession to the trustee. If the court does not so determine, the stay provided by subsection (a) shall terminate upon the conclusion of the hearing on the motion.

(i) If a case commenced under chapter 7, 11, or 13 is dismissed due to the creation of a debt repayment plan, for purposes of subsection (c)(3), any subsequent case commenced by the debtor under any such chapter shall not be presumed to be filed not in good faith.

(j) On request of a party in interest, the court shall issue an order under subsection (c) confirming that the automatic stay has been terminated.

(k)

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), an individual injured by any willful violation of a stay provided by this section shall recover actual damages, including costs and attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, may recover punitive damages.

(2) If such violation is based on an action taken by an entity in the good faith belief that subsection (h) applies to the debtor, the recovery under paragraph (1) of this subsection against such entity shall be limited to actual damages.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, subsection (b)(22) shall apply on the date that is 30 days after the date on which the bankruptcy petition is filed, if the debtor files with the petition and serves upon the lessor a certification under penalty of perjury that—

(A) under nonbankruptcy law applicable in the jurisdiction, there are circumstances under which the debtor would be permitted to cure the entire monetary default that gave rise to the judgment for possession, after that judgment for possession was entered; and

(B) the debtor (or an adult dependent of the debtor) has deposited with the clerk of the court, any rent that would become due during the 30-day period after the filing of the bankruptcy petition.

(2) If, within the 30-day period after the filing of the bankruptcy petition, the debtor (or an adult dependent of the debtor) complies with paragraph (1) and files with the court and serves upon the lessor a further certification under penalty of perjury that the debtor (or an adult dependent of the debtor) has cured, under nonbankruptcy law applicable in the jurisdiction, the entire monetary default that gave rise to the judgment under which possession is sought by the lessor, subsection (b)(22) shall not apply, unless ordered to apply by the court under paragraph (3).

(A) If the lessor files an objection to any certification filed by the debtor under paragraph (1) or (2), and serves such objection upon the debtor, the court shall hold a hearing within 10 days after the filing and service of such objection to determine if the certification filed by the debtor under paragraph (1) or (2) is true.

(B) If the court upholds the objection of the lessor filed under subparagraph (A)—

(i) subsection (b)(22) shall apply immediately and relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to complete the process to recover full possession of the property; and

(ii) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the court's order upholding the lessor's objection.

(4) If a debtor, in accordance with paragraph (5), indicates on the petition that there was a judgment for possession of the residential rental property in which the debtor resides and does not file a certification under paragraph (1) or (2)—

(A) subsection (b)(22) shall apply immediately upon failure to file such certification, and relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to complete the process to recover full possession of the property; and

(B) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the docket indicating the absence of a filed certification and the applicability of the exception to the stay under subsection (b)(22).

(A) Where a judgment for possession of residential property in which the debtor resides as a tenant under a lease or rental agreement has been obtained by the lessor, the debtor shall so indicate on the bankruptcy petition and shall provide the name and address of the lessor that obtained that pre-petition judgment on the petition and on any certification filed under this subsection.

(B) The form of certification filed with the petition, as specified in this subsection, shall provide for the debtor to certify, and the debtor shall certify—

(i) whether a judgment for possession of residential rental housing in which the debtor resides has been obtained against the debtor before the date of the filing of the petition; and

(ii) whether the debtor is claiming under paragraph (1) that under nonbankruptcy law applicable in the jurisdiction, there are circumstances under which the debtor would be permitted to cure the entire monetary default that gave rise to the judgment for possession, after that judgment of possession was entered, and has made the appropriate deposit with the court.

(C) The standard forms (electronic and otherwise) used in a bankruptcy proceeding shall be amended to reflect the requirements of this subsection.

(D) The clerk of the court shall arrange for the prompt transmittal of the rent deposited in accordance with paragraph (1)(B) to the lessor.

(m)

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, subsection (b)(23) shall apply on the date that is 15 days after the date on which the lessor files and serves a certification described in subsection (b)(23).

(A) If the debtor files with the court an objection to the truth or legal sufficiency of the certification described in subsection (b)(23) and serves such objection upon the lessor, subsection (b)(23) shall not apply, unless ordered to apply by the court under this subsection.

(B) If the debtor files and serves the objection under subparagraph (A), the court shall hold a hearing within 10 days after the filing and service of such objection to determine if the situation giving rise to the lessor's certification under paragraph (1) existed or has been remedied.

(C) If the debtor can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that the situation giving rise to the lessor's certification under paragraph (1) did not exist or has been remedied, the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall remain in effect until the termination of the stay under this section.

(D) If the debtor cannot demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that the situation giving rise to the lessor's certification under paragraph (1) did not exist or has been remedied—

(i) relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to proceed with the eviction; and

(ii) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the court's order upholding the lessor's certification.

(3) If the debtor fails to file, within 15 days, an objection under paragraph (2)(A)—

(A) subsection (b)(23) shall apply immediately upon such failure and relief from the stay provided under subsection (a)(3) shall not be required to enable the lessor to complete the process to recover full possession of the property; and

(B) the clerk of the court shall immediately serve upon the lessor and the debtor a certified copy of the docket indicating such failure.

(n)

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), subsection (a) does not apply in a case in which the debtor—

(A) is a debtor in a small business case pending at the time the petition is filed;

(B)was a debtor in a small business case that was dismissed for any reason by an order that became final in the 2-year period ending on the date of the order for relief entered with respect to the petition;

(C) was a debtor in a small business case in which a plan was confirmed in the 2-year period ending on the date of the order for relief entered with respect to the petition; or

(D) is an entity that has acquired substantially all of the assets or business of a small business debtor described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C), unless such entity establishes by a preponderance of the

evidence that such entity acquired substantially all of the assets or business of such small business debtor in good faith and not for the purpose of evading this paragraph.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply—

(A) to an involuntary case involving no collusion by the debtor with creditors; or

(B) to the filing of a petition if—

(i) the debtor proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the filing of the petition resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the debtor not foreseeable at the time the case then pending was filed; and

(ii) it is more likely than not that the court will confirm a feasible plan, but not a liquidating plan, within a reasonable period of time.

(o) The exercise of rights not subject to the stay arising under subsection (a) pursuant to paragraph (6), (7), (17), or (27) of subsection (b) shall not be stayed by any order of a court or administrative agency in any proceeding under this title.

Exhibit 2

Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code

§ 365. Executory contracts and unexpired leases

(a) Except as provided in sections 765 and 766 of this title and in subsections (b), (c), and (d) of this section, the trustee, subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor.

(1) If there has been a default in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, the trustee may not assume such contract or lease unless, at the time of assumption of such contract or lease, the trustee—

(A) cures, or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly cure, such default other than a default that is a breach of a provision relating to the satisfaction of any provision (other than a penalty rate or penalty provision) relating to a default arising from any failure to perform nonmonetary obligations under an unexpired lease of real property, if it is impossible for the trustee to cure such default by performing nonmonetary acts at and after the time of assumption, except that if such default arises from a failure to operate in accordance with a nonresidential real property lease, then such default shall be cured by performance at and after the time of assumption in accordance with such lease, and pecuniary losses resulting from such default shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph;

(B) compensates, or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly compensate, a party other than the debtor to such contract or lease, for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from such default; and

(C) provides adequate assurance of future performance under such contract or lease.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not apply to a default that is a breach of a provision relating to—

(A) the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor at any time before the closing of the case;

(B) the commencement of a case under this title;

(C) the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement; or

(D) the satisfaction of any penalty rate or penalty provision relating to a default arising from any failure by the debtor to perform nonmonetary obligations under the executory contract or unexpired lease.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this subsection and paragraph (2)(B) of subsection (f), adequate assurance of future performance of a lease of real property in a shopping center includes adequate assurance—

(A) of the source of rent and other consideration due under such lease, and in the case of an assignment, that the financial condition and operating performance of the proposed assignee and its guarantors, if any, shall be similar to the financial condition and operating performance of the debtor and its guarantors, if any, as of the time the debtor became the lessee under the lease;

(B) that any percentage rent due under such lease will not decline substantially;

(C) that assumption or assignment of such lease is subject to all the provisions thereof, including (but not limited to) provisions such as a radius, location, use, or exclusivity provision, and will not breach any such provision contained in any other lease, financing agreement, or master agreement relating to such shopping center; and

(D) that assumption or assignment of such lease will not disrupt any tenant mix or balance in such shopping center.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if there has been a default in an unexpired lease of the debtor, other than a default of a kind specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the trustee may not require a lessor to provide services or supplies incidental to such lease before assumption of such lease unless the lessor is compensated under the terms of such lease for any services and supplies provided under such lease before assumption of such lease.

(c) The trustee may not assume or assign any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties, if—

(A) applicable law excuses a party, other than the debtor, to such contract or lease from accepting performance from or rendering performance to an entity other than the debtor or the debtor in possession, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties; and

(B) such party does not consent to such assumption or assignment; or

(2) such contract is a contract to make a loan, or extend other debt financing or financial accommodations, to or for the benefit of the debtor, or to issue a security of the debtor; or

(3) such lease is of nonresidential real property and has been terminated under applicable nonbankruptcy law prior to the order for relief.

(1) In a case under chapter 7 of this title, if the trustee does not assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease of residential real property or of personal property of the debtor within 60 days after the order for relief, or within such additional time as the court, for cause, within such 60-day period, fixes, then such contract or lease is deemed rejected.

(2) In a case under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title, the trustee may assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease of residential real property or of personal property of the debtor at any time before the confirmation of a plan but the court, on the request of any party to such contract or lease, may order the trustee to determine within a specified period of time whether to assume or reject such contract or lease.

(3) The trustee shall timely perform all the obligations of the debtor, except those specified in section 365(b)(2), arising from and after the order for relief under any unexpired lease of nonresidential real property, until such lease is assumed or rejected, notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of this title. The court may extend, for cause, the time for performance of any such obligation that arises within 60 days after the date of the order for relief, but the time for performance shall not be extended beyond such 60-day period. This subsection shall not be deemed to affect the trustee's obligations under the provisions of subsection (b) or (f) of this section. Acceptance of any such performance does not constitute waiver or relinquishment of the lessor's rights under such lease or under this title.

(4) (A) Subject to subparagraph (B), an unexpired lease of nonresidential real property under which the debtor is the lessee shall be deemed rejected, and the trustee shall immediately surrender that nonresidential real property to the lessor, if the trustee does not assume or reject the unexpired lease by the earlier of—

(i) the date that is 120 days after the date of the order for relief; or

(ii) the date of the entry of an order confirming a plan.

(B)

(i) The court may extend the period determined under subparagraph (A), prior to the expiration of the 120-day period, for 90 days on the motion of the trustee or lessor for cause.

(ii) If the court grants an extension under clause (i), the court may grant a subsequent extension only upon prior written consent of the lessor in each instance.

(5) The trustee shall timely perform all of the obligations of the debtor, except those specified in section 365(b)(2), first arising from or after 60 days after the order for relief in a case under chapter 11 of this title under an unexpired lease of personal property (other than personal property leased to an individual primarily for personal, family, or household purposes), until such lease is assumed or rejected notwithstanding section 503(b)(1) of this title, unless the court, after notice and a hearing and based on the equities of the case, orders otherwise with respect to the obligations or timely performance thereof. This subsection shall not be deemed to affect the trustee's obligations under the provisions of subsection (b) or (f). Acceptance of any such performance does not constitute waiver or relinquishment of the lessor's rights under such lease or under this title.

(1) Notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease, or in applicable law, an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor may not be terminated or modified, and any right or obligation under such contract or lease may not be terminated or modified, at any time after the commencement of the case solely because of a provision in such contract or lease that is conditioned on—

(A) the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor at any time before the closing of the case;

(B) the commencement of a case under this title; or

(C) the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not apply to an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties, if—

(i) applicable law excuses a party, other than the debtor, to such contract or lease from accepting performance from or rendering performance to the trustee or to an assignee of such contract or lease, whether or not such contract or lease prohibits or restricts assignment of rights or delegation of duties; and

(ii) such party does not consent to such assumption or assignment; or

(B) such contract is a contract to make a loan, or extend other debt financing or financial accommodations, to or for the benefit of the debtor, or to issue a security of the debtor.

(f)

(1) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law, that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment of such contract or lease, the trustee may assign such contract or lease under paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(2) The trustee may assign an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor only if—

(A) the trustee assumes such contract or lease in accordance with the provisions of this section; and

(B) adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee of such contract or lease is provided, whether or not there has been a default in such contract or lease.

(3) Notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law that terminates or modifies, or permits a party other than the debtor to terminate or modify, such contract or lease or a right or obligation under such contract or lease on account of an assignment of such contract or lease, such contract, lease, right, or obligation may not be terminated or modified under such provision because of the assumption or assignment of such contract or lease by the trustee.

(g) Except as provided in subsections (h)(2) and (i)(2) of this section, the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor constitutes a breach of such contract or lease—

(1) if such contract or lease has not been assumed under this section or under a plan confirmed under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title, immediately before the date of the filing of the petition; or

(2) if such contract or lease has been assumed under this section or under a plan confirmed under chapter 9, 11, 12, or 13 of this title—

(A) if before such rejection the case has not been converted under section 1112, 1208, or 1307 of this title, at the time of such rejection; or

(B) if before such rejection the case has been converted under section 1112, 1208, or 1307 of this title—

(i) immediately before the date of such conversion, if such contract or lease was assumed before such conversion; or

(ii) at the time of such rejection, if such contract or lease was assumed after such conversion.

(A) If the trustee rejects an unexpired lease of real property under which the debtor is the lessor and—

(i) if the rejection by the trustee amounts to such a breach as would entitle the lessee to treat such lease as terminated by virtue of its terms, applicable nonbankruptcy law, or any agreement made by the lessee, then the lessee under such lease may treat such lease as terminated by the rejection; or

(ii) if the term of such lease has commenced, the lessee may retain its rights under such lease (including rights such as those relating to the amount and timing of payment of rent and other amounts payable by the lessee and any right of use, possession, quiet enjoyment, subletting, assignment, or hypothecation) that are in or appurtenant to the real property for the balance of the term of such lease and for any renewal or extension of such rights to the extent that such rights are enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

(B) If the lessee retains its rights under subparagraph (A)(ii), the lessee may offset against the rent reserved under such lease for the balance of the term after the date of the rejection of such lease and for the term of any renewal or extension of such lease, the value of any damage caused by the nonperformance after the date of such rejection, of any obligation of the debtor under such lease, but the lessee shall not have any other right against the estate or the debtor on account of any damage occurring after such date caused by such nonperformance.

(C) The rejection of a lease of real property in a shopping center with respect to which the lessee elects to retain its rights under subparagraph (A)(ii) does not affect the enforceability under applicable nonbankruptcy law of any provision in the lease pertaining to radius, location, use, exclusivity, or tenant mix or balance.

(D) In this paragraph, "lessee" includes any successor, assign, or mortgagee permitted under the terms of such lease.

(A) If the trustee rejects a timeshare interest under a timeshare plan under which the debtor is the timeshare interest seller and—

(i) if the rejection amounts to such a breach as would entitle the timeshare interest purchaser to treat the timeshare plan as terminated under its terms, applicable nonbankruptcy law, or any agreement made by timeshare interest purchaser, the timeshare interest purchaser under the timeshare plan may treat the timeshare plan as terminated by such rejection; or

(ii) if the term of such timeshare interest has commenced, then the timeshare interest purchaser may retain its rights in such timeshare interest for the balance of such term and for any term of renewal or extension of such timeshare interest to the extent that such rights are enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

(B) If the timeshare interest purchaser retains its rights under subparagraph (A), such timeshare interest purchaser may offset against the moneys due for such timeshare interest for the balance of the term after the date of the rejection of such timeshare interest, and the term of any renewal or extension of such timeshare interest, the value of any damage caused by the nonperformance after the date of such rejection, of any obligation of the debtor under such timeshare plan, but the timeshare interest purchaser shall not have any right against the estate or the debtor on account of any damage occurring after such date caused by such nonperformance.

(1) If the trustee rejects an executory contract of the debtor for the sale of real property or for the sale of a timeshare interest under a timeshare plan, under which the purchaser is in possession, such purchaser may treat such contract as terminated, or, in the alternative, may remain in possession of such real property or timeshare interest.

(2) If such purchaser remains in possession—

(A) such purchaser shall continue to make all payments due under such contract, but may, offset against such payments any damages occurring after the date of the rejection of such contract caused by the nonperformance of any obligation of the debtor after such date, but such purchaser does not have any rights against the estate on account of any damages arising after such date from such rejection, other than such offset; and

(B) the trustee shall deliver title to such purchaser in accordance with the provisions of such contract, but is relieved of all other obligations to perform under such contract.

(j) A purchaser that treats an executory contract as terminated under subsection (i) of this section, or a party whose executory contract to purchase real property from the debtor is rejected and under which such party is not in possession, has a lien on the interest of the debtor in such property for the recovery of any portion of the purchase price that such purchaser or party has paid.

(k) Assignment by the trustee to an entity of a contract or lease assumed under this section relieves the trustee and the estate from any liability for any breach of such contract or lease occurring after such assignment.

(l) If an unexpired lease under which the debtor is the lessee is assigned pursuant to this section, the lessor of the property may require a deposit or other security for the performance of the debtor's obligations under the lease substantially the same as would have been required by the landlord upon the initial leasing to a similar tenant.

(m) For purposes of this section 365 and sections 541(b)(2) and 362(b)(10), leases of real property shall include any rental agreement to use real property.

(n)

(1) If the trustee rejects an executory contract under which the debtor is a licensor of a right to intellectual property, the licensee under such contract may elect—

(A) to treat such contract as terminated by such rejection if such rejection by the trustee amounts to such a breach as would entitle the licensee to treat such contract as terminated by virtue of its own terms, applicable nonbankruptcy law, or an agreement made by the licensee with another entity; or

(B) to retain its rights (including a right to enforce any exclusivity provision of such contract, but excluding any other right under applicable nonbankruptcy law to specific performance of such contract) under such contract and under any agreement supplementary to such contract, to such intellectual property (including any embodiment of such intellectual property to the extent protected by applicable nonbankruptcy law), as such rights existed immediately before the case commenced, for—

(i) the duration of such contract; and

(ii) any period for which such contract may be extended by the licensee as of right under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

(2) If the licensee elects to retain its rights, as described in paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection, under such contract—

(A) the trustee shall allow the licensee to exercise such rights;

(B) the licensee shall make all royalty payments due under such contract for the duration of such contract and for any period described in paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection for which the licensee extends such contract; and

(C) the licensee shall be deemed to waive—

(i) any right of setoff it may have with respect to such contract under this title or applicable nonbankruptcy law; and

(ii) any claim allowable under section 503(b) of this title arising from the performance of such contract.

(3) If the licensee elects to retain its rights, as described in paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection, then on the written request of the licensee the trustee shall—

(A) to the extent provided in such contract, or any agreement supplementary to such contract, provide to the licensee any intellectual property (including such embodiment) held by the trustee; and

(B) not interfere with the rights of the licensee as provided in such contract, or any agreement supplementary to such contract, to such intellectual property (including such embodiment) including any right to obtain such intellectual property (or such embodiment) from another entity.

(4) Unless and until the trustee rejects such contract, on the written request of the licensee the trustee shall—

(A) to the extent provided in such contract or any agreement supplementary to such contract—

(i) perform such contract; or

(ii) provide to the licensee such intellectual property (including any embodiment of such intellectual property to the extent protected by applicable nonbankruptcy law) held by the trustee; and

(B) not interfere with the rights of the licensee as provided in such contract, or any agreement supplementary to such contract, to such intellectual property (including such embodiment), including any right to obtain such intellectual property (or such embodiment) from another entity.

(o) In a case under chapter 11 of this title, the trustee shall be deemed to have assumed (consistent with the debtor's other obligations under section 507), and shall immediately cure any deficit under, any commitment by the debtor to a Federal depository institutions regulatory agency (or predecessor to such agency) to maintain the capital of an insured depository institution, and any claim for a subsequent breach of the obligations thereunder shall be entitled to priority under section 507. This subsection shall not extend any commitment that would otherwise be terminated by any act of such an agency.

(1) If a lease of personal property is rejected or not timely assumed by the trustee under subsection (d), the leased property is no longer property of the estate and the stay under section 362(a) is automatically terminated.

(A) If the debtor in a case under chapter 7 is an individual, the debtor may notify the creditor in writing that the debtor desires to assume the lease. Upon being so notified, the creditor may, at its option, notify the debtor that it is willing to have the lease assumed by the debtor and may condition such assumption on cure of any outstanding default on terms set by the contract.

(B) If, not later than 30 days after notice is provided under subparagraph (A), the debtor notifies the lessor in writing that the lease is assumed, the liability under the lease will be assumed by the debtor and not by the estate.

(C) The stay under section 362 and the injunction under section 524(a)(2) shall not be violated by notification of the debtor and negotiation of cure under this subsection.

(3) In a case under chapter 11 in which the debtor is an individual and in a case under chapter 13, if the debtor is the lessee with respect to personal property and the lease is not assumed in the plan confirmed by the court, the lease is deemed rejected as of the conclusion of the hearing on confirmation. If the lease is rejected, the stay under section 362 and any stay under section 1301 is automatically terminated with respect to the property subject to the lease.

(B) the debtor has no obligation to repay the money, redeem the collateral, or buy back the property at a stipulated price; and

(C) neither the debtor nor the trustee have exercised any right to redeem provided under the contract or State law, in a timely manner as provided under State law and section 108(b);

(9) any interest in cash or cash equivalents that constitute proceeds of a sale by the debtor of a money order that is made—

(A) on or after the date that is 14 days prior to the date on which the petition is filed; and

(B) under an agreement with a money order issuer that prohibits the commingling of such proceeds with property of the debtor (notwithstanding that, contrary to the agreement, the proceeds may have been commingled with property of the debtor), unless the money order issuer had not taken action, prior to the filing of the petition, to require compliance with the prohibition; or

(10) funds placed in an account of a qualified ABLE program (as defined in section 529A(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) not later than 365 days before the date of the filing of the petition in a case under this title, but—

(A) only if the designated beneficiary of such account was a child, stepchild, grandchild, or stepgrandchild of the debtor for the taxable year for which funds were placed in such account;

(B) only to the extent that such funds—

(i) are not pledged or promised to any entity in connection with any extension of credit; and

(ii) are not excess contributions (as described in section 4973(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986); and

(C) in the case of funds placed in all such accounts having the same designated beneficiary not earlier than 720 days nor later than 365 days before such date, only so much of such funds as does not exceed $6,225. Paragraph (4) shall not be construed to exclude from the estate any consideration the debtor retains, receives, or is entitled to receive for transferring an interest in liquid or gaseous hydrocarbons pursuant to a farmout agreement.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, an interest of the debtor in property becomes property of the estate under subsection (a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(5) of this section notwithstanding any provision in an agreement, transfer instrument, or applicable nonbankruptcy law—

(A) that restricts or conditions transfer of such interest by the debtor; or

(B) that is conditioned on the insolvency or financial condition of the debtor, on the commencement of a case under this title, or on the appointment of or taking possession by a trustee in a case under this title or a custodian before such commencement, and that effects or gives an option to effect a forfeiture, modification, or termination of the debtor's interest in property.

(2) A restriction on the transfer of a beneficial interest of the debtor in a trust that is enforceable under applicable nonbankruptcy law is enforceable in a case under this title.

(d) Property in which the debtor holds, as of the commencement of the case, only legal title and not an equitable interest, such as a mortgage secured by real property, or an interest in such a mortgage, sold by the debtor but as to which the debtor retains legal title to service or supervise the servicing of such mortgage or interest, becomes property of the estate under subsection (a)(1) or (2) of this section only to the extent of the debtor's legal title to such property, but not to the extent of any equitable interest in such property that the debtor does not hold.

(e) In determining whether any of the relationships specified in paragraph (5)(A) or (6)(A) of subsection (b) exists, a legally adopted child of an individual (and a child who is a member of an individual's household, if placed with such individual by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption by such individual), or a foster child of an individual (if such child has as the child's principal place of abode the home of the debtor and is a member of the debtor's household) shall be treated as a child of such individual by blood.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, property that is held by a debtor that is a corporation described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such Code may be transferred to an entity that is not such a corporation, but only under the same conditions as would apply if the debtor had not filed a case under this title.

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

1. Pursuant to section 1505 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), the Debtors request that Skillsoft Canada, Ltd. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the First Day Declaration.

that, as Foreign Representative, Skillsoft Canada be expressly authorized to (i) seek recognition of these chapter 11 cases and certain of this Court's orders in Canada, including the DIP Order, (ii) request that the Canadian Court (as defined herein) lend assistance to this Court in protecting the property of the Debtors' estates, and (iii) seek any other appropriate relief from the Canadian Court that is just and proper in furtherance of the protection of the Debtors' estates.

2. A proposed form of order approving the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

5. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

6. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

7. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

9. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

10. The Restructuring Support Agreement contains a milestone requiring Skillsoft Canada, as a "foreign representative", to commence within four (4) business days following entry of the Interim DIP Order and Prepack Scheduling Order (each as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) a recognition proceeding in the Court of Queen's Bench of New Brunswick (Trial Division) (the "Canadian Court") pursuant to the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada), R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36 as amended (the "CCAA") to seek an order or orders of the Canadian Court, among other things, recognizing the Debtors' chapter 11 cases as a "foreign main proceeding" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA and giving full force and effect to this Court's orders in Canada (the "Canadian Recognition Proceeding").

Appointment of Foreign Representative

11. As more fully described in the First Day Declaration, the Company is a global enterprise software and technology provider of (i) learning content (including courses, videos, books and other learning assets) that supports learning, performance and success; (ii) an intelligent learning experience platform designed to engage modern learners via a consumer-led experience to accelerate learning; and (iii) a talent development technology platform that supports an organization's talent acquisition, learning management and talent management.

12. As a global enterprise, the Company, among other things, (i) conducts business in numerous foreign jurisdictions, including Canada, (ii) includes entities which are incorporated under the laws of various foreign jurisdictions, (iii) has many key contracts that are governed by the laws of foreign jurisdictions, (iv) has many foreign creditors, and (v) has a global customer base.

13. Skillsoft Canada, a borrower under the First Lien Revolving Facility and guarantor with respect to the Company's First Lien Term Loan Facility and Second Lien Term Loan Facility, is incorporated under the laws of the Canadian Province of New Brunswick and maintains assets and operations in that jurisdiction. As a result of the Company's assets and operations in Canada, which are interconnected with the Debtors' global operations, it is necessary to ensure that these chapter 11 cases, as well as orders of the Court issued herein, are recognized and respected in Canada.

14. As a result of the above and pursuant to the terms of the Restructuring Support Agreement, Skillsoft Canada (as the proposed Foreign Representative) will shortly file an application with the Canadian Court on behalf of the Debtors' estates pursuant to the CCAA to commence the Canadian Recognition Proceeding. The purpose of the Canadian Recognition Proceeding is to request that the Canadian Court recognize these chapter 11 cases as a "foreign main proceeding" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA, enforce this Court's orders in Canada to protect the Debtors' assets and operations in Canada and help implement the Debtors' restructuring, and seek certain other ancillary relief.

15. To commence the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, the Debtors require authority for a Debtor to act as the "foreign representative" on behalf of the Debtors' estates by order of this Court.

16. Although the Debtors operate in foreign jurisdictions other than Canada, the Debtors do not believe additional recognition proceedings will be necessary to give effect or implement these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors reserve all rights, however, to seek appointment of foreign representative(s), as needed, with respect to ancillary proceedings in other jurisdictions if the Company ultimately determines commencing additional proceedings is necessary or desirable to give effect to the chapter 11 cases and/or implement the restructuring transactions contemplated by the Prepackaged Plan.

Relief Requested

17. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order, pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code, to appoint Skillsoft Canada to act as the "foreign representative" on behalf of the Debtors' estates (the "Foreign Representative") in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding.

Basis for Relief Requested

18. Section 46 of the CCAA provides that a foreign representative may apply to a Canadian court for recognition of a foreign proceeding in respect of which they are a foreign representative. CCAA, R.S.C., Ch. C-36, § 46 (1985) (Can.). Under the CCAA, a recognition application must be accompanied by a "certified copy of the instrument, however designated, authorizing the foreign representative to act in that capacity or a certificate from the foreign court affirming the foreign representative's authority to act in that capacity." Id. at § 46(2)(b).

19. Accordingly, in order for Skillsoft Canada to be recognized as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, and thereby apply to have these chapter 11 cases recognized by the Canadian Court, this Court must enter an order authorizing Skillsoft Canada to act as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding. If the order is granted, Skillsoft Canada will be able to file the order with the Canadian Court as the instrument authorizing Skillsoft Canada to act as Foreign Representative pursuant to section 46 of the CCAA.

20. Although the provisions of chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code generally do not apply to other chapters of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to section 103(k)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code applies to any case under the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, section 103(k)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> Chapter 15 applies only in a case under such chapter, except that— (1) sections 1505, 1513, and 1514 apply in all cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 103(k)(1).

21. Section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code allows a debtor in possession to obtain a court order recognizing the debtor in possession as foreign representative of the debtor's estate in order to submit a petition to a foreign court requesting recognition of the debtor's chapter 11 case. Specifically, section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> A trustee or another entity (including an examiner) may be authorized by the court to act in a foreign country on behalf of an estate created under section 541. An entity authorized to act under this section may act in any way permitted by the applicable foreign law.

11 U.S.C. § 1505.

22. Authorizing Skillsoft Canada to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding will provide an effective mechanism to protect and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and estates. Because the Debtors have assets in Canada, it is critical that a stay under the CCAA similar to the automatic stay imposed pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code be granted in Canada, and that this Court's orders also be recognized in Canada. In addition, as Skillsoft Canada is a guarantor of the DIP Financing it is critical (and a milestone pursuant to the DIP Financing) that the Canadian Court recognize and give effect to this Court's DIP Order.

23. Similar relief to that requested herein has been granted by courts in other large chapter 11 cases where a debtor has foreign assets and/or operations. See, e.g., In re Pier 1 Imports, Inc., et al, No 20-30805 (KRH) (Bankr. Based on the urgency of the circumstances surrounding this Motion and the need to commence the Canadian Recognition Proceeding as soon as possible, the Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. Jurisdiction

4. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

5. On the Petition Date, the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

6. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

7. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief

(the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

8. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.5% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

9. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

10. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Debtors' Cash Management System

11. The Company uses a Cash Management System consisting primarily of entity level operating accounts to collect and fund each entity's operations. The Cash Management System facilitates cash monitoring, forecasting, and reporting and enables the Company to maintain control over the administration of forty-five (45) bank accounts, fifteen (15) of which are held by the Debtors (collectively, the "Debtor Bank Accounts") and the remaining thirty (30) of which are held by certain Non-Debtor Affiliates (collectively, the "Non-Debtor Bank Accounts" and, together with the Debtor Bank Accounts and any other bank accounts the Company may open in the ordinary course of business, the "Bank Accounts"). As set forth below, the Debtor Bank Accounts are maintained by Bank of America, N.A. ("BoA"), Silicon Valley Bank, a subsidiary of SVB Financial Group ("SV Bank"), and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo" and, together with BoA, SV Bank, Wells Fargo, and any institution with which the Debtors may open new bank accounts within the ordinary course of business, the "Banks"), and the Non-Debtor Bank Accounts are maintained by BoA, Citibank, N.A. ("CitiBank"), Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (ICBC) ("ICBC"), and Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation ("Mitsuisumitomo"). The Debtors' treasury and accounting departments, both located at the Company's headquarters in Nashua, New Hampshire, maintain daily oversight over the Cash Management System and implement cash management controls for entering, processing, and releasing funds.

12. The Cash Management System is similar to those commonly employed by businesses comparable in size and scale to the Debtors. Indeed, comparably sized businesses use integrated systems to help control funds, ensure cash availability for each entity, and reduce administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds among multiple entities. Any disruption of the Cash Management System would be materially detrimental to the Debtors' operations because their businesses require prompt access to cash and accurate cash tracking.

A. Bank Accounts and Flow of Funds

13. The Cash Management System is tailored to meet the Debtors' operating needs, thereby enabling the Debtors to control and monitor corporate funds, ensure cash availability and liquidity across the Debtors' global operations, comply with the requirements of their financing agreements, and reduce administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds and the development of accurate account balances.

2. Description of Funds Processing

18. The following descriptions broadly set forth the manner in which cash is received and disbursed throughout the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business.

- Receipts: All receipts relating to each Debtor's business, with the exception of SumTotal Systems, LLC,[3] are deposited into the relevant Debtor's operating account.

- Disbursements: Each Debtor makes all operational disbursements in the ordinary course of business from its own operational account(s).

19. Certain of the Debtors (the "Originators") are parties to receivables purchase agreements (together with all related documents, the "AR Purchase Agreement") with Non-Debtor Affiliate Skillsoft Receivables Financing LLC (the "AR Borrower"). Pursuant to the AR Purchase Agreement, the AR Borrower purchases accounts receivable (the "Receivables") from the Originators (and the related cash proceeds)[4] in exchange for cash borrowed by the AR Borrower pursuant to that certain Credit Agreement (as may be amended, restated, amended and

[3] As discussed above receipts with respect to SumTotal Systems LLC, are deposited into one of two lockbox accounts, which are swept to SumTotal Systems, LLC's operating account on a daily basis.

[4] The sale of such Receivables occur immediately and automatically upon the creation of the Receivables without further action of the AR Borrower or the Originator. Under the terms of the AR Facility and AR Purchase Agreement, the sales of the Receivables are intended to be "true sales" and absolute assignments of the Receivables.

restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "AR Facility Agreement") by and between (i) the AR Borrower, as borrower; (ii) the lenders party thereto (collectively, the "AR Facility Lenders"); and (iii) CIT Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, collateral agent, and accounts bank (the "AR Facility Agent"). The AR Facility is secured by substantially all of the assets of the AR Borrower, including the Receivables and the cash proceeds therefrom. The Debtors do not guarantee the obligations under the AR Facility and the AR Facility Lenders do not have recourse to the Debtors except in limited circumstances relating to a breach by a Debtor Originator of certain representations or warranties made in respect of the Receivables sold by such Debtor Originator. The sale of the Receivables from the Originator to the AR Borrower provides the Originators with liquidity to fund operating disbursements and limits certain risks of non-collection associated with the Receivables.

20. Pursuant to the AR Facility and the AR Purchase Agreement, proceeds received from third parties on account of the Receivables are initially received by each Originator to be held in trust for the benefit of the AR Borrower. Although the cash proceeds from the Receivables are received by the Originators, the cash proceeds never become property of the Originators' bankruptcy estates. Within two (2) business days of receipt of cash proceeds, the applicable Originator must transfer any cash proceeds into a segregated trust account held by the AR Borrower and such funds are used to satisfy the AR Borrower's obligations under the AR Facility Agreement. The AR Facility Agreement will remain operative during the pendency of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

21. By this Motion, the Debtors request authority to continue their ordinary course cash management practices under the AR Facility Agreement and the AR Purchase Agreement, including, but not limited to, the sale of Receivables from the Originators to the AR

Borrower and subsequent remittance of the cash proceeds of such receivables to the AR Borrower consistent with the terms of the relevant agreements with the AR Borrower and past practices in the ordinary course of business.

3. Intercompany Transactions

22. As described in the First Day Declaration, the Company is a global enterprise with operations in North America, Europe, Asia, and Australia. As described above, the Company relies upon a system of standalone operational accounts at each entity that make both receipts and disbursements to support the individual entity's business operations. In certain instances, individual entities may receive transfers from other Debtor or Non-Debtor Affiliates for various reasons. In order to transfer funds between entities, the Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates rely upon intercompany transactions (the "Intercompany Transactions"). Although certain Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates generate revenue from third parties, many of the Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates rely in part or wholly on the Intercompany Transactions for business income and funds to cover operational and interest expenses. Accordingly, to support the Debtors' business and global footprint, the Debtors engage in certain intercompany financial transactions with each other and with Non-Debtor Affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

23. As a result of the Intercompany Transactions, there may be claims owing between two (2) Debtors or between a Debtor and a Non-Debtor Affiliate at any given time. Historically, the Company's Intercompany Transactions may be broadly broken down into four (4) separate categories: (i) balances generated by provision of intellectual property or research and development services between affiliates ("Transfer Pricing"); (ii) cash transfers to fund operating, interest, and other business expenses at the receiving entity ("Current Transfers" together with Transfer Pricing "Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions"); (iii) intercompany notes issued in connection with acquisition and refinancing opportunities ("Notes"); and (iv) legacy balances generated prior to 2012 for which transactions were not segregated and balances between affiliates are not readily available ("Permanent Transfers").

24. Each Intercompany Transaction results in an accompanying bookkeeping entry reflecting a claim for the amounts owed to or by each Debtor or Non-Debtor Affiliate (each such claim, an "Intercompany Claim"), and is an essential component of the Cash Management System. The Debtors maintain, and will continue to maintain, records of these transfers of cash and bookkeeping entries on a postpetition basis, and can ascertain, trace, and account for the Intercompany Transactions.

25. By this Motion, the Debtors request authority to continue entering into Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions, which are discussed in greater detail below, including between the Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates. The Debtors have implemented internal mechanisms that will permit them, with the assistance of their advisors, to track all postpetition Intercompany Transactions accurately. The Debtors also request authority to continue any netting or setoff practices following the Petition Date on an ordinary course basis.[5] Furthermore, to ensure that each Debtor will not fund the operations of another entity at the expense of such Debtors' creditors, the Debtors respectfully request: (i) pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) and 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, that all valid postpetition Intercompany Claims owed to a Debtor or Non-Debtor Affiliate on account of an Intercompany Transaction with another Debtor be afforded administrative expense status, subject and junior to the claims, including adequate protection claims, granted in connection with any postpetition financing in accordance with any interim and final orders, as applicable, approving such postpetition financing; and (ii) unless prohibited by applicable law, that postpetition transfers made by a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Affiliate pursuant to an Intercompany Transaction shall be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such Non-Debtor Affiliate (and not a contribution of capital); provided that any postpetition transfers by a Non-Debtor Affiliate to a Debtor will reduce the postpetition claim such Debtor has against the Non-Debtor Affiliate.

(i) Transfer Pricing

26. In the ordinary course of business, the Company uses Transfer Pricing to compensate Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates for providing, among other things, (i) intellectual property rights; (ii) research and development services; and (iii) management and administrative services. To maximize efficiency, preserve liquidity and minimize overhead, the Company utilizes Transfer Pricing to allow certain of the Company's entities to provide certain services to other affiliates at a market-rate in the ordinary course of business. The Debtors typically charge approximately $14.7 million per month to other Debtor entities and approximately $2.7 million per month to Non-Debtor Affiliates in Transfer Pricing. Non-Debtor Affiliates charge approximately $1.8 million per month to Debtor entities in Transfer Pricing. A brief description of the various types of Transfer Pricing is set forth below:

27. Skillsoft Ireland Limited and SumTotal Systems, LLC own the majority of the Company's intellectual property. These entities license intellectual property to regional distributor entities such as Skillsoft France S.à r.l. and SumTotal Systems Canada Limited in exchange for royalty payments pursuant to distribution agreements. The intellectual property is then used by the distributor entities to market the Company's learning management system software and other products to customers across the globe. The Debtors typically charge approximately $11.0 million per month to other Debtor entities and approximately $2.7 million per month to Non-Debtor Affiliates in Transfer Pricing attributable to intellectual property and related royalties. Non-Debtor Affiliates charge approximately $0.1 million per month to Debtor entities in Transfer Pricing attributable to intellectual property and related royalties.

28. Similarly, the Company is continually seeking to maintain its competitive market position and award-winning corporate learning and talent development solutions while developing new solutions, services, and products for customers across the globe. Specifically, the Company's software, technology, and content development efforts are focused on, among other things, (i) content and courseware, (ii) courseware authoring tools, (iii) talent development applications, (iv) learning management systems, and (v) learning experience platforms. To that end, certain of the Company's entities (including both Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates) perform software, technology, and content development activities to deliver innovative learning and talent development solutions for the benefit of the entire Company (the "R&D Entities"). In exchange for these services, the beneficiary of these services (typically Skillsoft Ireland Limited or SumTotal Systems, LLC) pays certain Transfer Pricing charges (typically at cost plus a margin) to the R&D Entities pursuant to a research and development services agreement. The Debtors typically charge approximately $1.8 million per month to other Debtor entities in Transfer Pricing attributable to research and development services. Non-Debtor Affiliates charge approximately $1.7 million per month to Debtor entities in Transfer Pricing attributable to research and development services.

29. Skillsoft Ireland Limited is responsible for directing the Company's key strategic business decisions including, among other things, (i) approving key investments in technology platforms; (ii) establishing and monitoring financial goals; and (iii) evaluating and approving acquisitions. Given the size of the U.S. market, Skillsoft employs certain management level executives who play a key role in this process. Similarly, Skillsoft provides global and regional administrative support to the Company on Skillsoft Ireland Limited's behalf including, among other things, finance, human resources, legal, and IT services. Skillsoft charges approximately $1.9 million per month to Skillsoft Ireland Limited. Such payment remunerates Skillsoft for costs associated with these activities plus an arm's length markup.

30. All Transfer Pricing is made in the ordinary course of the Company's business pursuant to contracts between each of the Company's relevant entities. The Company regularly monitors the terms of Transfer Pricing contracts and ensures the terms of such contracts are consistent with comparable companies and market rates. Each Transfer Pricing payment is for a service the Company requires to operate that cannot be practically or economically replaced by a third party. Similarly, the market for third parties to pay the Company for services provided under such contracts would be effectively non-existent due to restrictions on use of intellectual property and/or lack of distribution networks.

(ii) Current Transfers

31. In the ordinary course of business, the Company uses Current Transfers to (i) move cash from Debtor and Non-Debtor Affiliate entities with a cash surplus to entities that require cash in order to fund operational needs such as payroll, accounts payable, and taxes and (ii) to provide Debtors with compensation for certain services purchased on behalf of the entire Company for which there is no Transfer Pricing.[6]

32. Current Transfers are initiated by the treasury and accounting departments at Skillsoft or Skillsoft Ireland Limited (the "Directing Entities"). The Directing Entities monitor the liquidity of all Debtors and Non-Debtors Affiliates. Upon identification of a Debtor or Non-

[6] For example: Skillsoft purchases internet on behalf of the entire Company from CenturyLink Communications and Skillsoft Ireland Limited purchases monthly payroll services for certain affiliates. In each case, Current Transfers are used to ensure Skillsoft and Skillsoft Ireland Limited, respectively, are properly compensated for provision of such services.

Debtor Affiliate that requires liquidity (the "Current Transferee"), the Directing Entities work to identify a Debtor or Non-Debtor Affiliate with a surplus of cash in the same denomination sufficient to fill the Current Transferee's liquidity need (the "Current Transferor"). Upon confirmation of the Current Transferee, the Current Transferor, and the quantum of the Current Transfer, the Current Transfer is recorded in the books and records of the Current Transferee and Current Transferor, a signed intercompany form is scanned to the Directing Entities, and the Current Transfer effectuated.

33. Current Transfers are necessary to allow the Company the flexibility to address unforeseen operational costs and ensure proper allocation of expenses across the corporate structure. Without Current Transfers, the enterprise value of the Company as a whole could fall as a result of wholly preventable operational shortfalls at entities with temporal cash needs. Due to the variable nature of Current Transfers, the amount of Current Transfers fluctuates seasonally and based upon the performance of various entities. Prior to the Petition Date, on average the Debtors transferred approximately $5 million per month among Debtors and $315,000 per month to Non-Debtor Affiliates in Current Transfers. The estimate excludes transfers made to fund debt service payments.

4. Existing Business Forms and Books and Records

34. The Debtors use a variety of preprinted business forms, including checks, letterhead, correspondence forms, invoices, and other business forms in the ordinary course of business (collectively, and as they may be modified from time to time, the "Business Forms"). The Debtors also maintain books and records to document their financial results and a wide array of necessary operating information (collectively, the "Books and Records"). To avoid a significant disruption to their business operations that would result from a disruption of the Cash Management System, and to avoid unnecessary expense, the Debtors request authority to continue using all Business Forms and Books and Records in use immediately before the Petition Date, including with respect to the Debtors' ability to update authorized signatories and services, as needed—without reference to the Debtors' status as chapter 11 debtors in possession—rather than requiring the Debtors to incur the expense and delay of ordering or printing new Business Forms and creating new Books and Records; provided, however, that, with respect to checks that the Debtors print themselves, the Debtors will include the "Debtor in Possession" legend on those checks within ten (10) business days after the date of entry of the Proposed Interim Order.

5. Bank Fees

35. The Debtors incur periodic service charges and other fees in connection with the maintenance of the Debtors' Bank Accounts (the "Bank Fees"). The Bank Fees are paid monthly and are automatically deducted from the Bank Accounts as they are assessed by their respective Banks. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe that approximately $16,362 of prepetition Bank Fees are outstanding, and $16,362 are or will become due and payable during the interim period.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

A. Continuing to Participate in Cash Management System Is in the Best Interests of the Debtors, their Creditors, and Other Parties in Interest

36. The Debtors request authority to continue using the Cash Management System in the same manner as before the Petition Date and to implement ordinary course changes to the Cash Management System consistent with past practices. Such relief is appropriate under sections 363(c) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

37. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to "use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). The purpose of this section is to provide a debtor with the flexibility to engage in the ordinary course transactions required to operate its business without unneeded oversight by its creditors or the court. See In re Roth Am., Inc., 975 F.2d 949, 952 (3d Cir. 1992) ("Section 363 is designed to strike [a] balance, allowing a business to continue its daily operations without excessive court or creditor oversight and protecting secured creditors and others from dissipation of the estate's assets.") (citations omitted) (alteration in orginal); In re Vision Metals, Inc., 325 B.R. 138, 145 (Bankr. D. Del. 2005) (same). Included within the purview of section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is a debtor's ability to continue "routine transactions" necessitated by a debtor's cash management system. See, e.g., In re Nellson Nutraceutical, Inc., 369 B.R. 787, 796 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (noting that courts have shown a reluctance to interfere in a debtor's making of routine, day-to-day business decisions) (citations omitted); In re Vision Metals, 325 B.R. at 142 ("[W]hen a chapter 11 debtor in possession continues to operate its business, as permitted by section 1108, no court authorization is necessary for the debtor to enter transactions that fall within the ordinary course of its business.").

38. Additionally, the Court may rely on its equitable powers to grant the relief requested herein. Specifically, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a) and the doctrine of necessity, the Court may exercise its broad grant of equitable powers to approve this Motion, including the payment of prepetition obligations when such payment is essential to the continued operation of a debtor's business. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 824–25 (D. Del. 1999) (holding that section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides a statutory basis for the payment of prepetition claims under the doctrine of necessity and noting that "[t]he Supreme Court, the Third Circuit and the District of Delaware all recognize the court's power to authorize payment of pre-petition claims when such payment is necessary for the debtor's survival during chapter 11"). Therefore, it is within the Court's equitable power under section 105(a) to approve the continued use of the Cash Management System.

39. The Cash Management System constitutes an ordinary-course and essential business practice providing significant benefits to the Debtors, including the ability to control corporate funds, ensure the maximum availability of funds when and where necessary, reduce borrowing costs and administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds, and ensure the availability of timely and accurate account balance information consistent with prepetition practices. The use of the Cash Management System has historically reduced the Debtors' expenses by enabling them to use funds in an optimal and efficient manner. Accordingly, the continued use of the Cash Management System without interruption is vital to the Debtors' business operations and the success of these chapter 11 cases.

40. The AR Purchase Agreement constitutes an ordinary-course and essential business practice providing significant benefits to the Debtors, including access to liquidity, limitation to risk exposure, and, accordingly, an increased level of certainty in cash flow forecasting and reduced need for cash reserves. Without authorization to continue performance under the terms of the AR Purchase Agreement, the Debtors would be forced to increase the size of the DIP Facility to cover liquidity needs and account for risk of Receivables non-payment, which would result in a diminution of value of Debtors' estates compared to continued performance under the AR Purchase Agreement.

41. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Debtors request that all Banks at which the Bank Accounts are maintained be authorized to continue administering such accounts as they were maintained prepetition, without interruption, and in the ordinary course of business. The Banks should also be authorized to pay any and all drafts, wires, and ACH transfers issued on the Bank Accounts for payment of any claims arising on or after the Petition Date, or before the Petition Date to the extent such claims were approved by an order of the Bankruptcy Court, in each case so long as sufficient funds exist in the relevant accounts.

42. For the foregoing reasons, continuation of the Cash Management System is necessary, appropriate, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all other parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases and should be authorized pursuant to sections 363(c)(1) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Continued Performance of Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions Is Warranted and Postpetition Intercompany Claims Should Be Granted Administrative Expense Priority

43. As stated above, the Debtors routinely engaged in Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions before the Petition Date. In this regard, section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to "enter into transactions, including the sale or lease of property of the estate, in the ordinary course of business . . . and [] use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing." Additionally, under section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, "[a]fter notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed administrative expenses . . . including—the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate . . . ."

44. The Debtors believe that they do not require the Court's approval to continue entering into and performing under Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions because such transactions are in the ordinary course of business within the meaning of section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Ordinary Couse Intercompany Transactions are routine not only for the Debtors' business, but also common among many business enterprises that operate through multiple affiliates. Precisely because of their routine nature, the Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions are integral to the Debtors' ability to continue operating without disruption.

Accordingly, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request express authority to engage in such transactions postpetition. The Debtors also request that the Court grant administrative expense status to all claims against a Debtor by another Debtor or Non-Debtor Affiliate for all postpetition Ordinary Course Intercompany Claims, subject and junior in all respects to any superpriority claims, including adequate protection claims, granted pursuant to any subsequent order of the Court. If Intercompany Claims are afforded such status, each Debtor using funds flowing through the Cash Management System will continue bearing the ultimate responsibility for its ordinary-course transactions with Debtor and Non-Debtor Affiliates.

45. Continuing the Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions is in the best interests of the Debtors and estates, and is warranted under the circumstances. First, the Debtors are able to account for all Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions. The Debtors track all transfers in the Company's accounting system and have the ability to identify and account for all Intercompany Transactions, including all cash receipts and disbursements.

46. Second, the Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions between the Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates are necessary to prevent unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' businesses. As noted above, the Debtors rely upon Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions to provide for the necessary flow of intellectual property, funding of research and development, administration, and cash needs of their businesses. Specifically, the Transfer Pricing payments (including those Transfer Pricing Payments to Non-Debtor Affiliates) are critical to allow the Debtors to continue operating their business in the ordinary course without any disruption. Transfer Pricing ensures that entities holding intellectual property and performing research are adequately funded and that sales entities have access to the technology they need. Moreover, Transfer Pricing is carefully monitored to ensure it reflects the value of the materials and services being conveyed. Similarly, Current Transfers provide Company entities access to capital to address unexpected cash shortfalls that occur seasonally and in the ordinary course of business. Together, these systems increase the operational efficiency and enterprise value of the Company as a whole.

47. Without the authority to continue entering into Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions, the Debtors would be unable to operate their business because they would lose access to the intercompany services that the Transfer Pricing supports and access to liquidity provided by Current Transfers. Sales entities would lose access to intellectual property, research and development entities would lose funding, and the Company would lose management and administrative support capabilities across branches. Additionally, certain of the Company's entities would be exposed to liquidity shortfalls related to unexpected disbursements or delays in receivables. Even if these services could be replaced, such replication would take time and money and would result in no better terms than those provided by Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions. Furthermore, because the Debtors hold all of the equity in each Non-Debtor Affiliate, ensuring that the Non-Debtor Affiliates' business remains uninterrupted during these chapter 11 cases—including through the continuation of Intercompany Transactions—will inure to the benefit of the Debtors' estates. Non-Debtor Affiliates will continue satisfying obligations throughout these chapter 11 cases such as the payment of payroll and payroll taxes for Non-Debtor Affiliates' employees.

48. For the reasons set forth herein, continuing the Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest.

C. The Court Should Authorize the Debtors to Pay Bank Fees and Similar Service Charges

49. The Debtors typically pay approximately $16,362 per month in Bank Fees and similar service charges. Paying the Bank Fees is in the best interests of the Debtors and parties in interest in these cases because it will prevent any disruption to the Cash Management System. Furthermore, as the Banks have a right to setoff for Bank Fees owing payment of prepetition Bank Fees should not alter the rights of unsecured creditors in the chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, by this Motion, the Debtors seek authority, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to pay any outstanding prepetition Bank Fees to maintain the Cash Management System, and to continue paying postpetition Bank Fees in the ordinary course.

D. Maintenance of Existing Bank Accounts and Business Forms Is Warranted

50. Volume 7 of the United States Trustee Program Policy and Practices Manual, dated October 2011 (the "UST Operating Guidelines") generally requires that a chapter 11 debtor, among other things: (i) establish one debtor in possession account for all estate monies required for the payment of taxes (including payroll taxes); (ii) close all existing bank accounts and open new debtor in possession accounts with an authorized depository that agrees with the requirements of the Office of the U.S. Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"); (iii) maintain a separate debtor in possession account for cash collateral; and (iv) obtain checks that bear the designation "Debtor in Possession." See UST Operating Guidelines § 7-1. Moreover, Local Rule 2015-2(a) generally requires that a chapter 11 debtor that runs out of checks must order new checks labeled "Debtor in Possession" with the corresponding bankruptcy number.

51. All of the Debtor Bank Accounts are held at Banks that are designated as authorized depositories in accordance with the U.S. Trustee's guidelines. Furthermore, if the Debtors were required to open new debtor in possession accounts and modify the Cash Management System accordingly, the Debtors would be forced to reconstruct the Cash Management System in its entirety, which would prove unnecessarily cumbersome during a critical time for the Company. The Debtors' treasury department, including accounting and bookkeeping employees, would need to focus their efforts on immediately opening new bank accounts and working to establish controls for cash to flow properly, thereby diverting their attention from stabilizing their operations and their daily responsibilities, all of which would have a negative impact on the Debtors' ability to operate their business.

52. The Debtors should also be permitted to maintain their existing Business Forms. The Debtors issue manual checks from time to time and use a variety of Business Forms in the ordinary course of their business. Strict compliance with the UST Operating Guidelines and Local Rule 2015-2(a) would increase the Debtors' expenses and would risk unnecessarily confusing the Debtors' customers, suppliers, and employees. Accordingly, the Debtors believe it is appropriate to continue to use all Business Forms as such forms were in existence before the Petition Date. Furthermore, in light of the expense and delay attendant to ordering entirely new business forms, the Debtors believe it is appropriate to use their existing Business Forms without any reference to the Debtors' current status as debtors in possession subject to Local Rule 2015-2(b). However, for checks that the Debtors print or issue themselves, the Debtors will use reasonable efforts to begin printing the "Debtor in Possession" legend and the bankruptcy case number on those checks within ten business days of the entry of the Proposed Interim Order.

53. In short, any benefits of the Debtors' strict compliance with the UST Operating Guidelines or Local Rule 2015-2(a) would be far outweighed by the resulting expense, inefficiencies, and disruption to the Debtors' businesses. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority to maintain the Debtor Bank Accounts and their Business Forms during these chapter 11 cases.

E. Extension of Time to Comply with Section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code Is Warranted to the Extent Such Requirements Are Not Met

54. All of the Debtor Bank Accounts comply with Section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code because all Debtor Bank Accounts are maintained at authorized depositories under the UST Operating Guidelines (BoA, SV Bank, and Wells Fargo).

55. However, if the Court determines that the Debtor Bank Accounts are not in compliance with section 345(b), the Debtors seek by this Motion a forty five (45) day extension of the time (or such additional time as the U.S. Trustee may agree to) to comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, without prejudice to the Debtors' ability to seek a further extension or final waiver of those requirements. During the extension period, the Debtors propose to engage the U.S. Trustee in discussions to determine what modifications to the Cash Management System, if any, would be appropriate under the circumstances.

56. Section 345(a) of the Bankruptcy Code governs a debtor's deposit and investment of cash during its chapter 11 case and authorizes such deposits or investments as "will yield the maximum reasonable net return on such money, taking into account the safety of such deposit or investment." For deposits or investments that are not "insured or guaranteed by the United States or by a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States," section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a debtor obtain from the "entity with which such money is deposited or invested—a bond—in favor of the United States [that is] secured by the undertaking of a[n adequate] corporate surety . . . unless the court for cause orders otherwise."

57. In chapter 11 cases such as these, strict adherence to the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code would be inconsistent with the value-maximizing purpose of chapter 11 by unduly hampering a debtor's ability under section 345(a) to invest money such "as will yield the maximum reasonable net return on such money." As a result, in 1994, to avoid "needlessly handcuff[ing] larger, more sophisticated debtors," Congress amended section 345(b) to provide that its strict investment requirements may be waived or modified if the court so orders "for cause." 140 Cong. Rec. H. 10,767 (Oct. 4, 1994).

58. The Debtors satisfy the requirements necessary to obtain an extension of time to comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. With respect to procedural requirements, Local Rule 2015–2(b) provides that:

> no waiver of the investment requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 345 shall be granted by the Court without notice and an opportunity for hearing in accordance with these Local Rules. However, if a motion for such a waiver is filed on the first day of a chapter 11 case in which there are more than 200 creditors, or otherwise for cause shown, the Court may grant an interim waiver until a hearing on the debtor's motion can be held.

59. Here, the Debtors have filed this Motion on the first day of their chapter 11 cases. The Debtors have more than 200 creditors and therefore cause exists to grant the interim waiver requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors' present request for an extension of time to comply with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code is warranted.

Reservation of Rights

60. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

61. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). As described above, and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course and maximize the value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and (h)

62. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

63. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. Greenberg, Esq., and Christina M. Brown, Esq.); (iv) counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group, (Attn: Yushan Ng, Esq. and Sarah Levin, Esq.) and 55 Hudson Yards, New York, New York 10001 (Attn: Evan R. Fleck, Esq., Benjamin M. Schak, Esq., and Sarah Levin, Esq.)); (v) counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB ("WSFS"), in its capacity as First Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vi) counsel WSFS, in its capacity as Second Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vii) counsel to CIT Bank, N.A., in its capacity as AR Facility Agent, Holland & Knight LLP, 200 Crescent Court, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75201 (Attn: Samuel Pinkston); (viii) the Internal Revenue Service; (ix) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (x) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (xi) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; and (xii) the Banks (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). As this Motion is seeking "first day" relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered in respect of the Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Orders granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis to the extent set forth herein.

2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, pursuant to sections 363(c) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to continue to manage their cash pursuant to the Cash Management System maintained by the Debtors before the Petition Date; to collect and disburse cash in accordance with the Cash Management System and Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions, except as otherwise set forth herein; and to make ordinary course changes to their Cash Management System, provided that such changes do not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

3. The Debtors in their capacity as Originators are authorized, but not directed to continue complying with the terms of the AR Facility Agreement and the AR Purchase Agreement in the ordinary course of business.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue using, in their present form (or as subsequently amended in accordance with this Interim Order), the Business Forms, as well as checks and other documents related to the Debtor Bank Accounts existing immediately before the Petition Date; provided that once the Debtors' existing Business Forms, checks, and other related documents have been used, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts, when reordering checks or reprinting Business Forms or other related documents, to require the designation "Debtor in Possession" and the corresponding bankruptcy case number on such checks, Business Forms, and related documents; provided further that, with respect to checks which the Debtors or their agents print themselves, the Debtors shall begin printing the "Debtor in Possession" legend and the bankruptcy case number on such items within 10 business days of the date of entry of this Interim Order.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the U.S. Trustee Operating Guidelines, the Debtors are further authorized to: (i) designate, maintain and continue to use any or all of their existing Debtor Bank Accounts in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately before the Petition Date in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with prepetition practices; (ii) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from such accounts by all usual means, including through checks, wire transfers, ACH transfers, and other debits in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with prepetition practices; (iii) pay any Bank Fees or other charges associated with the Debtor Bank Accounts, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, in the ordinary course and consistent with the Debtors' prepetition practice; and (iv) treat their prepetition Debtor Bank Accounts for all purposes as debtor in possession accounts.

6. The Debtors are authorized, subject to the reasonable consent of Required DIP Lenders (as defined in the DIP Orders (defined below)), to open new bank accounts and enter into any ancillary agreements, including new deposit account control agreements, related to the foregoing; provided that all accounts opened by any of the Debtors on or after the Petition Date at any bank shall, for purposes of this Interim Order, be deemed a Debtor Bank Account as if it had been listed on Appendix 1 to this Interim Order under the heading "Debtor Bank Accounts"; provided further that such opening of an account shall be timely indicated on the Debtors' monthly operating report and notice of such opening shall be provided within ten (10) business days to the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"), counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, and counsel to the administrative agent for the Debtors' prepetition and proposed postpetition financing lenders; and provided further that the Debtors shall only open any such new Debtor Bank Account at a bank that has executed a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, or at such bank that is willing to immediately execute such agreement.

7. Each Bank is authorized to accept and rely upon, all representations from the Debtors as to which checks, drafts, wires or ACH transfers are dated before, on, or after the Petition Date and which checks are to be honored or dishonored, regardless of whether or not such payment or honoring is or is not authorized by an order of this Court (but such check, draft, wire, or other transfer shall only be honored to the extent of available funds). No Bank shall incur any liability for relying upon any Debtor's instruction as to which checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers should be honored or dishonored or for such Bank's inadvertence in honoring any check, draft, wire, or ACH transfer at variance from the Debtors' instructions unless such inadvertence constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of such Bank. Each Debtor shall promptly provide a list of checks to each Bank for each Debtor Bank Account maintained at such Bank specifying, by check sequencing number, dollar amount, date of issue, and payee information, those checks that are to be dishonored by such Bank (the "List of Checks to be Dishonored"), which checks may include those issued after the Petition Date as well as those issued before the Petition Date that are not to be honored or paid according to any order of this Court, and each Bank may honor all other checks. Except for those checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers that are authorized or required to be honored under an order of this Court, the Debtors shall not instruct or request any Bank to pay or honor any check, draft, or other payment item issued on a Debtor Bank Account before the Petition Date but presented to such Bank for payment after the Petition Date. The Debtors shall include on the List of Checks to be Dishonored: (i) all pre-petition checks, drafts or other payment item issued on a Debtor Bank Account before the Petition Date that remain outstanding as of the Petition Date, other than those authorized or required to be honored under an order of this Court and (ii) all postpetition checks paying prepetition obligations, other than those that are authorized or required to be honored under an order of this Court.

8. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Debtors from closing any Debtor Bank Accounts as they may deem necessary and appropriate, if consistent with the terms of any postpetition financing agreements and any orders of this Court relating thereto. Any relevant Bank is further authorized to honor the Debtors' requests to close such Debtor Bank Accounts, and the Debtors shall give notice of the closure of any account within ten (10) business days to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases and counsel to the DIP Lenders (as defined in the DIP Orders).

9. For all Banks at which the Debtors maintain Debtor Bank Accounts that are party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, within fifteen (15) business days of the date of entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall (i) contact each such Bank, (ii) provide each such Bank with each of the Debtors' employee identification numbers, and (iii) identify each of their Debtor Bank Accounts held at such Banks as being held by a debtor in possession in a chapter 11 case.

10. For Banks that are not a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware, the Debtors shall use their good faith efforts to cause the bank to execute a Uniform Depository agreement in a form prescribed by the Office of the United States Trustee within forty five (45) days of the date of entry of this Order.

11. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue engaging in Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions in connection with the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business (including with respect to netting or setoffs permitted by section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), but subject to the terms of the Debtors' DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the DIP Orders); provided, however, that before the final order on this Motion, transfers from the Debtors to Non-Debtor Affiliates shall not exceed $2 million.

12. The Debtors shall not be authorized by this Interim Order to undertake any Intercompany Transactions or set off mutual postpetition obligations relating to intercompany receivables and payables that are (i) not on the same terms as, or materially consistent with, the Debtors' operation of their business in the ordinary course of business during the prepetition period or (ii) prohibited or restricted by the terms of the DIP Orders. Pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) and 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, all valid net postpetition Intercompany Transactions made in the ordinary course between Debtors shall be accorded administrative expense status, junior to any adequate protection claims granted under the DIP Orders.

13. Unless prohibited by applicable law, transfers made by a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Affiliate pursuant to a postpetition Intercompany Transaction shall be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such Non-Debtor Affiliate (and not a contribution of capital); provided that any transfers by a Non-Debtor Affiliate to a Debtor will reduce the claim against the Non-Debtor Affiliate and any such transfer shall be subject to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement.

14. The Debtors shall maintain accurate and detailed records of all transactions and transfers, including Intercompany Transactions, within the Cash Management System, so that all postpetition transfers and transactions are readily ascertainable, traceable, recorded properly, and distinguished between prepetition and postpetition transactions.

15. The Banks are authorized to charge, and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay, honor, or allow, prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, and charge back returned items, whether such items were deposited prepetition or postpetition, to the Debtor Bank Accounts in the ordinary course. Any such postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, or charge-backs are not so paid shall be entitled to priority as administrative expense pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. The Debtors shall have forty-five (45) calendar days (or such additional time as the U.S. Trustee may agree to) from the Petition Date within which to either come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or to make such other arrangements as agreed to by the U.S. Trustee, and that such extension is without prejudice to the Debtors' right to request a further extension or waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Interim Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

18. Notwithstanding anything in the Motion or this Interim Order to the contrary, any payment made or action taken by any of the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, as well as the exercise of any and all rights and authorizations granted or approved hereunder, shall be subject in all respects to, as applicable: (i) the orders approving the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition debtor-in-possession financing facilities (collectively, the "DIP Orders"); (ii) other documentation governing the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition financing facilities; (iii) the Budget (as defined in the DIP Orders); and (iv) the terms and conditions set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any of the DIP Orders and this Interim Order, the terms of the DIP Order (or DIP Orders, as applicable) shall control.

19. Notwithstanding the Debtors' use of a consolidated cash management system, the Debtors shall calculate quarterly fees under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) based on the disbursements of each Debtor, regardless of which entity pays those disbursements.

20. Notwithstanding entry of this Interim Order, nothing herein shall (a) create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party or (b) alter or impair the validity, continuation, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any security interest or lien, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

21. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) have been satisfied.

22. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and Local Rule 9013-1(m).

23. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

24. A hearing to consider entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis shall be held on _____, 2020, at _____ (prevailing Eastern Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be in writing, filed with the Court, and served in accordance with Local Rules 5005-4 and 9036-1 upon the following parties: (i) the proposed attorneys for the Debtors, (a) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. cash in accordance with the Cash Management System, including through the sale and subsequent service and remittance of receivables to Skillsoft Receivables Financing LLC by Originators and Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions, except as otherwise set forth herein; and to make ordinary course changes to their Cash Management System, provided that such changes do not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue using, in their present form (or as subsequently amended in accordance with this Final Order), the Business Forms, as well as checks and other documents related to the Debtor Bank Accounts existing immediately before the Petition Date; provided that once the Debtors' existing Business Forms, checks, and other related documents have been used, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts, when reordering checks or reprinting Business Forms or other related documents, to require the designation "Debtor in Possession" and the corresponding bankruptcy case number on such checks, Business Forms, and related documents; provided further that, with respect to checks which the Debtors or their agents print themselves, the Debtors shall begin printing the "Debtor in Possession" legend and the bankruptcy case number on such items within ten (10) business days of the date of entry of the Interim Order.

4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the U.S. Trustee Operating Guidelines, the Debtors are further authorized to: (i) designate, maintain and continue to use any or all of their existing Debtor Bank Accounts in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately before the Petition Date in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with prepetition practices; (ii) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from such accounts by all usual means, including, through checks, wire transfers, ACH transfers, and other debits in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with prepetition practices; (iii) pay any Bank Fees or other

7. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Debtors from closing any Debtor Bank Accounts as they may deem necessary and appropriate, if consistent with the terms of any postpetition financing agreement and any orders of this Court relating thereto. Any relevant Bank is further authorized to honor the Debtors' requests to close such Debtor Bank Accounts, and the Debtors shall give notice of the closure of any account within ten (10) business days to the U.S.

Trustee, counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, and counsel to the DIP Lenders (as defined in the DIP Orders).

8. For Banks that are not a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware, the Debtors shall use their good faith efforts to cause the bank to execute a Uniform Depository agreement in a form prescribed by the Office of the United States Trustee within forty five (45) days of the date of entry of the Interim Order.

9. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue engaging in Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions in connection with the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business (including with respect to netting or setoffs permitted by section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), but subject to the terms of the Debtors' DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the DIP Orders).

10. The Debtors shall not be authorized by this Final Order to undertake any Intercompany Transactions or set off mutual postpetition obligations relating to intercompany receivables and payables that are (i) not on the same terms as, or materially consistent with, the Debtors' operation of their business in the ordinary course of business during the prepetition period or (ii) prohibited or restricted by the terms of the DIP Orders. Pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) and 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, all valid postpetition Intercompany Transactions made in the ordinary course between Debtors shall be accorded administrative expense status, junior to any adequate protection claims granted under the DIP Orders.

11. Unless prohibited by applicable law, transfers made by a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Affiliate pursuant to a postpetition Intercompany Transaction shall be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such Non-Debtor Affiliate (and not a contribution of capital); provided that any transfers by a Non-Debtor Affiliate to a Debtor will reduce the claim against the Non-Debtor Affiliate and any such transfer shall be subject to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement.

12. The Debtors shall maintain accurate and detailed records of all transactions and transfers, including Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions, within the Cash Management System, so that all postpetition transfers and transactions are readily ascertainable, traceable, recorded properly, and distinguished between prepetition and postpetition transactions.

13. The Banks are authorized to charge, and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay, honor, or allow, prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, and charge back returned items, whether such items were deposited prepetition or postpetition, to the Debtor Bank Accounts in the ordinary course. Any such postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, or charge-backs are not so paid shall be entitled to priority as administrative expense pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. The Debtors shall have forty-five (45) calendar days (or such additional time as the U.S. Trustee may agree to) from the Petition Date within which to either come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or to make such other arrangements as agreed to by the U.S. Trustee, and that such extension is without prejudice to the Debtors' right to request a further extension or waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

15. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Final Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Final Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. Notwithstanding anything in the Motion or this Final Order to the contrary, any payment made or action taken by any of the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, as well as the exercise of any and all rights and authorizations granted or approved hereunder, shall be subject in all respects to, as applicable: (i) the orders approving the Debtors' use of cash collateral and/or postpetition debtor-in-possession financing facilities (collectively, the "DIP Orders"); (ii) other documentation governing the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition financing facilities; (iii) the Budget (as defined in the DIP Orders); and (iv) the terms and conditions set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any of the DIP Orders and this Final Order, the terms of the DIP Order (or DIP Orders, as applicable) shall control.

17. Notwithstanding the Debtors' use of a consolidated cash management system, the Debtors shall calculate quarterly fees under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) based on the disbursements of each Debtor, regardless of which entity pays those disbursements.

18. Notwithstanding entry of this Final Order, nothing herein shall (a) create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party or (b) alter or impair the validity, continuation, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any security interest or lien, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

19. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a).

20. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

21. The Debtors are authorized to take all action necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Final Order.

22. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and/or enforcement of this Final Order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis to the extent set forth herein.

2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, pursuant to sections 363(c) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to continue to manage their cash pursuant to the Cash Management System maintained by the Debtors before the Petition Date; to collect and disburse cash in accordance with the Cash Management System and Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions, except as otherwise set forth herein; and to make ordinary course changes to their Cash Management System, provided that such changes do not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

3. The Debtors in their capacity as Originators are authorized, but not directed to continue complying with the terms of the AR Facility Agreement and the AR Purchase Agreement in the ordinary course of business.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue using, in their present form (or as subsequently amended in accordance with this Interim Order), the Business Forms, as well as checks and other documents related to the Debtor Bank Accounts existing immediately before the Petition Date; provided that once the Debtors' existing Business Forms, checks, and other related documents have been used, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts, when reordering checks or reprinting Business Forms or other related documents, to require the designation "Debtor in Possession" and the corresponding bankruptcy case number on such checks, Business Forms, and related documents; provided further that, with respect to checks which the Debtors or their agents print themselves, the Debtors shall begin printing the "Debtor in Possession" legend and the bankruptcy case number on such items within 10 business days of the date of entry of this Interim Order.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the U.S. Trustee Operating Guidelines, the Debtors are further authorized to: (i) designate, maintain and continue to use any or all of their existing Debtor Bank Accounts in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately before the Petition Date in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with prepetition practices; (ii) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from such accounts by all usual means, including through checks, wire transfers, ACH transfers, and other debits in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with prepetition practices; (iii) pay any Bank Fees or other charges associated with the Debtor Bank Accounts, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, in the ordinary course and consistent with the Debtors' prepetition practice; and (iv) treat their prepetition Debtor Bank Accounts for all purposes as debtor in possession accounts.

6. The Debtors are authorized, subject to the reasonable consent of Required DIP Lenders (as defined in the DIP Orders (defined below)), to open new bank accounts and enter into any ancillary agreements, including new deposit account control agreements, related to the foregoing; provided that all accounts opened by any of the Debtors on or after the Petition Date at any bank shall, for purposes of this Interim Order, be deemed a Debtor Bank Account as if it had been listed on Appendix 1 to this Interim Order under the heading "Debtor Bank Accounts"; provided further that such opening of an account shall be timely indicated on the Debtors' monthly operating report and notice of such opening shall be provided within ten (10) business days to the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"), counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, and counsel to the administrative agent for the Debtors' prepetition and proposed postpetition financing lenders; and provided further that the Debtors shall only open any such new Debtor Bank Account at a bank that has executed a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, or at such bank that is willing to immediately execute such agreement.

7. Each Bank is authorized to accept and rely upon, all representations from the Debtors as to which checks, drafts, wires or ACH transfers are dated before, on, or after the Petition Date and which checks are to be honored or dishonored, regardless of whether or not such payment or honoring is or is not authorized by an order of this Court (but such check, draft, wire, or other transfer shall only be honored to the extent of available funds). No Bank shall incur any liability for relying upon any Debtor's instruction as to which checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers should be honored or dishonored or for such Bank's inadvertence in honoring any check, draft, wire, or ACH transfer at variance from the Debtors' instructions unless such inadvertence constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of such Bank. Each Debtor shall promptly provide a list of checks to each Bank for each Debtor Bank Account maintained at such Bank specifying, by check sequencing number, dollar amount, date of issue, and payee information, those checks that are to be dishonored by such Bank (the "List of Checks to be Dishonored"), which checks may include those issued after the Petition Date as well as those issued before the Petition Date that are not to be honored or paid according to any order of this Court, and each Bank may honor all other checks. Except for those checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers that are authorized or required to be honored under an order of this Court, the Debtors shall not instruct or request any Bank to pay or honor any check, draft, or other payment item issued on a Debtor Bank Account before the Petition Date but presented to such Bank for payment after the Petition Date. The Debtors shall include on the List of Checks to be Dishonored: (i) all pre-petition checks, drafts or other payment item issued on a Debtor Bank Account before the Petition Date that remain outstanding as of the Petition Date, other than those authorized or required to be honored under an order of this Court and (ii) all postpetition checks paying prepetition obligations, other than those that are authorized or required to be honored under an order of this Court.

8. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Debtors from closing any Debtor Bank Accounts as they may deem necessary and appropriate, if consistent with the terms of any postpetition financing agreements and any orders of this Court relating thereto. Any relevant Bank is further authorized to honor the Debtors' requests to close such Debtor Bank Accounts, and the Debtors shall give notice of the closure of any account within ten (10) business days to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases and counsel to the DIP Lenders (as defined in the DIP Orders).

9. For all Banks at which the Debtors maintain Debtor Bank Accounts that are party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, within fifteen (15) business days of the date of entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall (i) contact each such Bank, (ii) provide each such Bank with each of the Debtors' employee identification numbers, and (iii) identify each of their Debtor Bank Accounts held at such Banks as being held by a debtor in possession in a chapter 11 case.

10. For Banks that are not a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware, the Debtors shall use their good faith efforts to cause the bank to execute a Uniform Depository agreement in a form prescribed by the Office of the United States Trustee within forty five (45) days of the date of entry of this Order.

11. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue engaging in Ordinary Course Intercompany Transactions in connection with the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business (including with respect to netting or setoffs permitted by section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), but subject to the terms of the Debtors' DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the DIP Orders); provided, however, that before the final order on this Motion, transfers from the Debtors to Non-Debtor Affiliates shall not exceed $2 million.

12. The Debtors shall not be authorized by this Interim Order to undertake any Intercompany Transactions or set off mutual postpetition obligations relating to intercompany receivables and payables that are (i) not on the same terms as, or materially consistent with, the Debtors' operation of their business in the ordinary course of business during the prepetition period or (ii) prohibited or restricted by the terms of the DIP Orders. Pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) and 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, all valid net postpetition Intercompany Transactions made in the ordinary course between Debtors shall be accorded administrative expense status, junior to any adequate protection claims granted under the DIP Orders.

13. Unless prohibited by applicable law, transfers made by a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Affiliate pursuant to a postpetition Intercompany Transaction shall be deemed a claim against, and loan to, such Non-Debtor Affiliate (and not a contribution of capital); provided that any transfers by a Non-Debtor Affiliate to a Debtor will reduce the claim against the Non-Debtor Affiliate and any such transfer shall be subject to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement.

14. The Debtors shall maintain accurate and detailed records of all transactions and transfers, including Intercompany Transactions, within the Cash Management System, so that all postpetition transfers and transactions are readily ascertainable, traceable, recorded properly, and distinguished between prepetition and postpetition transactions.

15. The Banks are authorized to charge, and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay, honor, or allow, prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, and charge back returned items, whether such items were deposited prepetition or postpetition, to the Debtor Bank Accounts in the ordinary course. Any such postpetition fees, costs, charges, and expenses, including the Bank Fees, or charge-backs are not so paid shall be entitled to priority as administrative expense pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. The Debtors shall have forty-five (45) calendar days (or such additional time as the U.S. Trustee may agree to) from the Petition Date within which to either come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or to make such other arrangements as agreed to by the U.S. Trustee, and that such extension is without prejudice to the Debtors' right to request a further extension or waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Interim Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

18. Notwithstanding anything in the Motion or this Interim Order to the contrary, any payment made or action taken by any of the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, as well as the exercise of any and all rights and authorizations granted or approved hereunder, shall be subject in all respects to, as applicable: (i) the orders approving the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition debtor-in-possession financing facilities (collectively, the "DIP Orders"); (ii) other documentation governing the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition financing facilities; (iii) the Budget (as defined in the DIP Orders); and (iv) the terms and conditions set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any of the DIP Orders and this Interim Order, the terms of the DIP Order (or DIP Orders, as applicable) shall control.

19. Notwithstanding the Debtors' use of a consolidated cash management system, the Debtors shall calculate quarterly fees under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) based on the disbursements of each Debtor, regardless of which entity pays those disbursements.

20. Notwithstanding entry of this Interim Order, nothing herein shall (a) create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party or (b) alter or impair the validity, continuation, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any security interest or lien, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

21. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) have been satisfied.

22. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and Local Rule 9013-1(m).

23. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

24. A hearing to consider entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis shall be held on July 7, 2020, at 2:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be in writing, filed with the Court, and served in accordance with Local Rules 5005-4 and 9036-1 upon the following parties: (i) the proposed attorneys for the Debtors, (a) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. The Debtors further request that the Court (i) authorize all applicable financial institutions (collectively, the "Banks") to receive, process, honor, and pay all checks presented for payment and electronic payment requests relating to the foregoing to the extent directed by the Debtors in accordance with this Motion and to the extent the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Banks, whether such checks were presented or electronic requests were submitted before or after the Petition Date (as defined herein), and (ii) authorize all Banks to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as appropriate pursuant to this Motion, without any duty of further inquiry, and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

3. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on an interim basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Interim Order"), and a proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on a final basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit B (the "Proposed Final Order" and, together with the Proposed Interim Order, the "Proposed Orders").

Jurisdiction

4. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

5. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

6. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

(the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

8. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; and (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

9. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

10. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Debtors' Insurance Policies and Programs

11. In connection with the operation of the Debtors' business, the Debtors maintain various insurance policies and workers' compensation programs (collectively, the "Insurance Policies and Programs" and all premiums and other obligations related thereto, including any workers' compensation claims, and broker or advisor fees, assessments, or other fees, collectively, the "Insurance Obligations") through several different insurance carriers (the "Insurers") including, but not limited to, those Insurance Policies and Programs and Insurers listed on Exhibit C annexed hereto (the "Insurance Schedule").[3]

A. The Insurance Policies

12. The Debtors maintain various liability, property and other insurance policies, which provide the Debtors with insurance related to, among other things, property liability, general liability, automotive liability, foreign liability,[4] excess liability, workers' compensation, directors' and officers' liability, employment practice liability, fiduciary liability, crime, errors and omissions liability and cyber liability (collectively, the "Insurance Policies"). The Debtors maintain the Insurance Policies to help manage and limit the various risks associated with operating their businesses, which is essential to the preservation of the value of the Debtors' businesses and assets. Some of the Insurance Policies are required by certain regulations, laws, and contracts that govern the Debtors' commercial activities. Further, the Bankruptcy Code reinforces these requirements, as section 1112(b)(4)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that

[3] Due to the size and complexity of the Debtors' businesses, it is possible that certain of the Debtors' Insurance Policies and Programs may have been inadvertently omitted from the list of Insurance Policies and Programs set forth on Exhibit C hereto. Accordingly, Exhibit C includes a non-exhaustive list of the Debtors' Insurance Policies and Programs. Furthermore, the Debtors may, in the future, enter into new Insurance Policies and Programs not listed on Exhibit C.

[4] The Debtors generally secure a local policy where required by local regulation.

"failure to maintain appropriate insurance that poses a risk to the estate or to the public," is "cause" for mandatory conversion or dismissal of a chapter 11 case. 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(4)(C).

13. Pursuant to the Insurance Policies, the Debtors pay quarterly premiums based upon a fixed rate established and billed by each Insurer (collectively, the "Insurance Premiums"). The Debtors pay approximately $2,300,000 in Insurance Premiums each year. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' believe there are no Insurance Premium payments due and payable for the Insurance Policies and Programs, nor will any become due and payable within the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases. However, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors' are seeking interim relief to continue to maintain and renew any Insurance Policies that may expire during the interim period, and to the extent any payments become due, authority to make such payments.[5]

14. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to pay their Insurance Premiums, as they come due, in the ordinary course of business, whether arising from the prepetition or postpetition period, throughout these chapter 11 cases.

B. The Workers' Compensation Program

15. The Debtors maintain workers' compensation insurance as required by statute in each of the states, territories and foreign jurisdictions in which they operate (collectively, the "Workers' Compensation Program").

16. The Debtors' participate in a guaranteed cost program with respect to the Workers' Compensation Program. In each instance, the Debtors' liability for each Workers' Compensation claim (the "Workers' Compensation Claim") is covered in full by the Insurer and requires no deductible. The Debtors, as the insured, only pay an annual premium and the Insurer pays all claims and expenses. Specifically, the Debtors maintain Workers' Compensation insurance through a policy with Chubb (Pacific Indemnity Company) ("Chubb PIC"). The coverage period is June 15, 2019 through June 15, 2020,[6] and the annual premium was approximately $201,000, which was based on projected employee payroll and paid in full prior to the Petition Date. Accordingly, to the best of their knowledge, the Debtors do not owe any prepetition amounts on account of the Workers' Compensation Program as of the Petition Date.

17. Under the Workers' Compensation Program, Chubb PIC is obligated to pay all or part of a Workers' Compensation Claim directly to an employee, his or her medical providers, or his or her heirs or legal representatives. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors are not aware of any open or potential Workers' Compensation Program Claims. It is possible that an event giving rise to an obligation of Chubb PIC to make a payment on account of a Workers' Compensation Claim—for example, for injury or disease of an employee—could have occurred prepetition without the Debtors' knowledge. Accordingly, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors seek modification of the automatic stay to (i) the extent necessary to permit the Debtors' employees to proceed against Chubb PIC with any claims they may have under the Workers' Compensation Program and (ii) allow Chubb PIC to pay such Workers' Compensation Claims and related costs.

18. By this Motion, the Debtors request authority to maintain their Workers' Compensation Program in the ordinary course of business, and to pay any obligations arising under or in connection with the Workers' Compensation Program.

[6] The policy with Chubb PIC will automatically review on June 15, 2020, however, the Debtors do not anticipate any amounts being owed on the renewed policy until mid-July.

C. The Debtors' Insurance Broker

19. In connection with maintaining the Insurance Policies and Programs, the Debtors employ certain insurance service providers to help them procure, negotiate and evaluate the Insurance Policies and Programs and process claims related thereto.

20. The Debtors utilize Marsh & McLennan Companies, Inc.[7] (the "Broker") as their insurance broker and service provider to assist with the procurement and negotiation of certain Insurance Policies and, in certain circumstances, to remit payment to the Insurers on behalf of the Debtors. In exchange for these services, the Broker's compensation is included as part of the quarterly premiums paid by the Debtors.

21. By this Motion, the Debtors request to continue honoring their obligations to the Broker in the ordinary course of business.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

A. Maintaining the Debtors' Insurance Policies and Programs and Payment of the Insurance Obligations Related Thereto is in the Ordinary Course of the Debtors Business Permitted by Section 363

22. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to "use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). The purpose of this section is to provide a debtor in possession with the flexibility to engage in the ordinary transactions required to operate its business without unneeded oversight by its creditors or the court. In re Roth Am., Inc., 975 F.2d 949, 952 (3d Cir. 1992) ("Section 363 is designed to strike [a] balance, allowing a business to continue its daily operations without excessive court or creditor oversight and protecting secured creditors and others from dissipation of the estate's assets.") (internal citation omitted); Vision Metals, Inc. v. SMS Demag, Inc. (In re Vision Metals, Inc.), 325 B.R. 138, 145 (Bankr. D. Del. 2005) (same). Included within the purview of section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is a debtor's ability to continue "routine transactions." See e.g. In re Nellson Nutraceutical, Inc., 369 B.R. 787, 796 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (noting that courts have shown reluctance to interfere in a debtor's making of routine, day-to-day business decisions); Vison Metals, 325 B.R. at 142 ("[W]hen a chapter 11 debtor in possession continues to operate its business, as permitted by section 1108, no court authorization is necessary for the debtor to enter transactions that fall within the ordinary course of its business."). Here, maintaining the Insurance Policies Programs and honoring the Insurance Obligations related thereto are the type of ordinary-course transactions contemplated by section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, section 363(c)(1) authorizes the continuation of the Insurance Policies and Programs in the ordinary course of business.

23. Even if continuation of the Insurance Policies and Programs and other relief requested herein is outside of the ordinary course, the Court may grant the relief requested pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 363(b) provides, in pertinent part, that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). To approve the use of assets outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, Ltd. v. Montgomery World Holding Corp. (In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp.), 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (internal citations omitted); see also In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987). Moreover, if "the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor's conduct." Comm. Of Asbestos Related Litigants and/or Creditors v. Johns-Manville-Corp. (In re Johns-Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (citation omitted); see also Stanziale v. Nachtomi (In re Tower Air, Inc.), 416 F.3d 229, 238 (3d. Cir. 2005) (stating that "[o]vercoming the presumptions of the business judgment rule on the merits is a near-Herculean task").

24. The Insurance Policies and Programs are essential to the Debtors' operations, as the Debtors would be exposed to significant liability if the Insurance Policies and Programs were allowed to lapse or terminate. Such exposure could have a materially adverse impact on the Debtors' chapter 11 strategy and their ability to maximize value for their stakeholders. The Court should also authorize the Debtors to continue paying their Broker in the ordinary course of business. The Broker is intimately familiar with the Debtors' business and Insurance Policies and Programs and Insurance Obligations. Losing the services provided by the Insurance Service Providers would result in a costly disruption to the Debtors' businesses and breach of certain contractual obligations would detract from efficient administration of these chapter 11 cases. If the Court determines that maintaining the Insurance Policies and Programs is not in their ordinary course of business, the Court should authorize the continuance of the Insurance Policies and Programs as a valid exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

B. Payment of the Insurance Obligations Related to the Insurance Policies and Programs is Warranted Under Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Doctrine of Necessity

25. A bankruptcy court may authorize a debtor to pay certain prepetition obligations pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Section 363(b) provides, in pertinent part, that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." To approve the use of assets outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy

Code, courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. at 153 (internal citations omitted); see also In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. at 335–36.

26. In addition, the Court has the authority, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to authorize the relief requested herein, because such relief is necessary for the Debtors to carry out their fiduciary duties under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code "contains an implied duty of the debtor-in-possession" to "protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value," on behalf of a debtor's creditors and other parties in interest. In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)); see also Unofficial Comm. of Equity Holders v. McManigle (In re Penick Pharm., Inc.), 227 B.R. 229, 233 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) ("[U]pon filing its petition, the Debtor became debtor in possession and, through its management . . . was burdened with the duties and responsibilities of a bankruptcy trustee.").

27. Further, in a long line of well-established cases, courts consistently have permitted payment of prepetition obligations where such payment is necessary to preserve or enhance the value of a debtor's estate for the benefit of all creditors. See, e.g., Miltenberger v. Logansport, C & S W.R. Co., 106 U.S. 286, 312 (1882) (payment of pre-receivership claim prior to reorganization permitted to prevent "stoppage of the continuance of [crucial] business relations"); In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981) (holding that "if payment of a claim which arose prior to reorganization is essential to the continued operation of the . . . [business] during reorganization, payment may be authorized even if it is made out of [the] corpus"); Dudley v. Mealey, 147 F.2d 268, 271 (2d Cir. 1945) (extending doctrine for payment of prepetition claims beyond railroad reorganization cases), cert. denied 325 U.S. 873 (1945); Mich. Bureau of Workers' Disability Comp. v. Chateaugay Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 80 B.R. 279, 285-86 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (approving lower court order authorizing payment of prepetition wages, salaries, expenses, and benefits).

28. In addition, the Court may rely on the doctrine of necessity and its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize the payment of prepetition claims when such payment is essential to the continued operation of a debtor's business. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 824-25 (D. Del. 1999) (holding that section 105(a) of Bankruptcy Code provides statutory basis for payment of prepetition claims under the doctrine of necessity particularly when such payment is necessary for the debtor's survival during chapter 11); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (confirming that the doctrine of necessity is standard for enabling a court to authorize payment of prepetition claims prior to confirmation of a reorganization plan).

29. Paying the Insurance Obligations are necessary costs of preserving the Debtors' estates. The Debtors are contractually and legally obligated to maintain certain types of insurance, and the Debtors must maintain certain of the Insurance Policies and Programs in order to comply with the operating guidelines of the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 3. For example, applicable state law mandates that certain Debtors maintain workers' compensation coverage for their employees. The Debtors' failure to maintain the Workers' Compensation Program could jeopardize their coverage and expose the Debtors to fines and other adverse actions by state workers' compensation boards. In addition, the risk that eligible workers' compensation claimants would not receive timely payments for prepetition employment-related injuries could negatively impact the financial well-being and morale of not just those claimants, but also the Debtors' active employees.

30. Accordingly, authority to continue maintaining the Insurance Policies and to pay all Insurance Obligations, including any unpaid Insurance Obligations arising prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, is critical to the Debtors' ability to preserve the going-concern value of their businesses, which will inure to the benefit of all parties in interest. Moreover, the relief requested by this Motion represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, and is justified under sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are not aware of any prepetition amounts due, but are seeking authorization out of an abundance of caution in case there is something that the Debtors are not currently aware of.

C. The Automatic Stay Should Be Modified for Workers' Compensation Claims

31. Section 362(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code operates to stay:

> the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1). Section 362(d)(1), however, permits a debtor or other party in interest to request a modification or termination of the automatic stay for "cause." 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

32. Pursuant to section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek authority to modify the automatic stay to permit employees who hold workers' compensation claims to proceed with such claims in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum. The Debtors further request that any recovery on account of such claims be limited solely to the proceeds under the Debtors' applicable Insurance Policies and proceeds from non-Debtor sources.

33. There is cause to modify the automatic stay because staying the workers' compensation claims could result in employee departures or otherwise harm employee morale, at a time when the Debtors need their workforce to be operating at peak efficiency. Unnecessary distractions – or worse, heavy attrition – could jeopardize the Debtors' chapter 11 strategy and result in irreversible harm to the Debtors' businesses. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court modify the automatic stay as it relates to valid workers' compensation claims to allow employees holding any such claims to pursue resolution and collection from the applicable Insurance Providers and any other non-Debtor sources.

D. Cause Exists to Authorize Debtors' Financial Institutions to Honor Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers

34. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the Insurance Obligations in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations and anticipated access to cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to an authorized payment in respect of the Insurance Obligations addressed in this Motion. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently and that the Court should authorize the Banks, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested herein, solely to the extent that the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Banks, and such Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

Reservation of Rights

35. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

36. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). As described above, the lapse, termination, or non-renewal of any of the Insurance Policies and Programs as a result of the Debtors' failure to pay their Insurance Obligations could subject the Debtors to substantial administrative liability and a potential cessation of operations. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(a) and 6004(h)

37. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) and an order authorizing relief from the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) and 4001(a)(3), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue new postpetition checks, or effect new electronic funds transfers, on account of the Insurance Obligations, and to replace any prepetition checks or electronic fund transfer requests that may be lost or dishonored or rejected as a result of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

8. Notwithstanding anything in the Motion or this Interim Order to the contrary, any payment made or action taken by any of the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted here, as well as the exercise of any and all rights and authorizations granted or approved hereunder, shall be subject in all respects to, as applicable: (i) the orders approving the Debtors' use of cash collateral and/or postpetition debtor-in-possession financing facilities (collectively, the "DIP Orders"); (ii) other documentation governing the Debtors' use of cash collateral and postpetition financing facilities; and (iii) the Approved Budge (as defined in the DIP Orders). To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any of the DIP Orders and this Interim Order, the terms of the DIP Order (or DIP Orders, as applicable) shall control.

9. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Interim Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Notwithstanding entry of this Interim Order, nothing herein shall create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party.

11. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) have been satisfied.

12. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and Local Rule 9013-1(m).

13. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3) and 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

14. A hearing to consider entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis shall be held on July 7, 2020, at 2:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be in writing, filed with the Court, and served in accordance with Local Rules 5005-4 and 9036-1 upon the following parties: (i) the proposed attorneys for the Debtors, (a) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. (jane.m.leamy@usdoj.gov)) by June 30, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

15. The Debtors are authorized to take all action necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order.

16. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and/or enforcement of this Interim Order.

amount up to approximately $1,100,000.00 on an interim basis and in an amount up to approximately $1,650,000.00 on a final basis.

2. The Debtors further request that the Court (i) authorize all applicable financial institutions (collectively, the "Banks") to receive, process, honor, and pay all checks presented for payment and electronic payment requests relating to Taxes and Fees to the extent directed by the Debtors in accordance with this Motion and to the extent the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Bank, whether such checks were presented or electronic requests were submitted before or after the Petition Date (as defined herein), and (ii) authorize all Banks to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as appropriate pursuant to this Motion, without any duty of further inquiry, and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

Jurisdiction

cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

5. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

6. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

7. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.5% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

9. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Taxes and Fees

11. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors collect, withhold and incur an assortment of Taxes and Fees that they remit periodically to various foreign, federal, state and local taxing, licensing, regulatory and other governmental authorities (each an "Authority" and collectively, the "Authorities").[3] The Taxes and Fees include (i) Sales and Use Taxes; (ii) Income and Franchise Taxes; (iii) Real Property Taxes; (iv) Personal Property Taxes; (v) Fees; and (vi) Other Foreign Taxes (each as defined and described in detail below).

[3] Due to the vast number of Authorities, a specific listing of the Authorities has been omitted from this Motion but may be obtained upon reasonable written request to the Debtors' proposed counsel.

12. Taxes and Fees incurred by a particular Debtor are generally paid directly by that Debtor, with the following limited exceptions. First, Debtors Skillsoft Corporation and Amber Holding Inc. file consolidated U.S. federal and certain state tax returns, and any combined income tax obligation of these entities is paid by Debtor Skillsoft Corporation. In certain states, Debtors Skillsoft Corporation and Amber Holding Inc. file separate state tax returns and each pays its separate income tax obligation. In addition, Debtor SumTotal Systems LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from Amber Holdings Inc. for U.S. federal tax purposes and all payments for Taxes and Fees owed by Debtor Amber Holding Inc. are remitted by Debtor SumTotal Systems LLC, of which Amber Holding Inc. is the sole member. Finally, Debtors Skillsoft Limited, Skillsoft Ireland Limited, Pointwell Limited, ThirdForce Group Limited, SSI Investments I Limited, SSI Investments II Limited, and SSI Investments III Limited (collectively, the "MindLeaders VAT Group") file returns for value-added taxes ("VAT") incurred by all seven entities using the VAT number of non-Debtor MindLeaders Ireland Learning Limited. Any resulting payments due for the MindLeaders VAT Group are remitted by Debtor Skillsoft Ireland Limited.

13. The Debtors seek to pay certain Taxes and Fees (including prepetition amounts owed with respect thereto) to, among other things, prevent Authorities from taking actions that may interfere with the Debtors' administration of their chapter 11 cases. Such interference could include the commencement of personal liability actions against directors, officers, and other key employees, the assertion of liens on the Debtors' property, or the assessment of penalties or significant interest on past-due taxes. In addition, non-payment of the Taxes and Fees may give rise to priority claims pursuant to section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors also believe that certain of the Taxes and Fees collected prepetition are not property of the Debtors' estates but, rather, are held in trust for the applicable Authorities. Accordingly, the relief requested herein is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates.

14. The Debtors estimate that approximately $1,100,000.00 of Taxes and Fees arising prior to the Petition Date will become due and payable within the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases (the "Interim Period").

A. Sales and Use Taxes

15. Certain of the Debtors incur or collect from customers a variety of national, state, and local sales taxes, gross receipts taxes, and similar obligations in connection with the operation of their businesses (collectively, the "Sales Taxes"). Sales Taxes are generally established by the applicable Authority as a percentage of the retail price of the good purchased or as a percentage of gross sales.

16. Certain of the Debtors also incur use taxes on account of the purchase of various inventory, supplies, or other goods utilized by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business (collectively, the "Use Taxes" and, together with the Sales Taxes, the "Sales and Use Taxes"). Use Taxes typically arise if a supplier does not have business operations in the state in which it is supplying goods and, therefore, does not charge sales tax on goods that are otherwise taxable to the purchaser.

17. As a general matter, the Debtors are required to remit Sales and Use Taxes to the applicable Authorities on a monthly or quarterly basis, depending on the jurisdiction. On average, the Debtors remit approximately $478,000.00 per month in aggregate Sales and Use Taxes. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $230,000.00 in Sales and Use Taxes, approximately $187,000.00 of which will become due and payable within the Interim Period. Sales and Use Taxes collected by the Debtors enjoy priority status pursuant to section 507(a)(8)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, and in most cases, are held in trust for the applicable Authorities. Failure to remit payment for such liabilities may result in personal liability for the Debtors' directors and officers.

B. Income and Franchise Taxes

18. Certain countries, states and localities where the Debtors operate require that the Debtors pay income or corporate taxes ("Income Taxes"). Income Taxes are generally calculated as a percentage of net income (the difference between gross receipts and expenses, after accounting for additional write-offs). Such Income Taxes, if unpaid, would enjoy priority status under section 507(a)(8)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. Moreover, in certain states, the Debtors' directors and officers may have personal liability for failure to timely pay Income Taxes. On average, the Debtors remit approximately $1,064,000.00 in aggregate Income Taxes per year, paid in quarterly installments based on estimated results. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they have accrued approximately $716,000.00 in Income Taxes, approximately $694,000.00 of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

19. Debtor Skillsoft Corporation incurs franchise taxes assessed by the State of New Hampshire ("Franchise Taxes"). Franchise Tax obligations are calculated as a percentage of total compensation, interest and dividends paid and are generally remitted by the Debtors on an annual basis in quarterly installments. On average, the Debtors remit approximately $417,000.00 per year in aggregate Franchise Taxes. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $51,000.00 in Franchise Taxes, $51,000.00 of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period. Failure to make payment on the Franchise Taxes could lead to the assessment of penalties against the Debtors, thereby depleting the value of the Debtors' estates unnecessarily.

C. Real and Personal Property Taxes

20. State and local laws in many of the jurisdictions where the Debtors operate generally grant the applicable Authorities the power to levy property taxes against the Debtors' leased real property and the Debtors' personal property (the "Real Property Taxes" and "Personal Property Taxes," respectively). Real Property Taxes and Personal Property Taxes have priority pursuant to section 507(a)(8)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and may create a lien on or security interest in the property so taxed.

21. Debtor Skillsoft Ireland Limited is liable for Real Property Tax obligations incurred on account of its occupancy of leased real property in Dublin, Ireland. Such payments are made to the applicable Authority on an annual basis, in quarterly installments. On average, the Debtors remit approximately $73,000.00 per year in aggregate Real Property Taxes. Debtor Skillsoft Ireland Limited estimates that, as of the Petition Date, it has accrued approximately $38,000.00 in Real Property Taxes, $38,000.00 of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

22. The Debtors generally remit Personal Property Taxes in quarterly installments. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $250,000.00 in aggregate Personal Property Taxes per year. Although the Debtors believe that they are current with respect to their payment of Personal Property Taxes, the Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they have accrued approximately $23,000.00 in Personal Property Taxes, approximately none of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

D. Fees

23. Applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations require certain of the Debtors to pay fees for a wide range of business licenses and permits, as well as for filing annual reports where required by the applicable Authority (collectively, the "Fees"). The method for calculating Fees and the deadlines for paying such amounts varies by jurisdiction. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $13,000.00 in aggregate Fees per year. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have accrued approximately $5,000.00 in aggregate Fees, approximately $1,000.00 of which will become due and payable within the Interim Period. Failure to pay the Fees where required by applicable law could impede the Debtors' ability to operate in some jurisdictions where they do business, thereby leading to harm to the Debtors' estates well in excess of the relatively small quantum of Fees owed.

E. Other Foreign Taxes

24. In addition to their U.S. operations, the Debtors transact business in numerous jurisdictions around the globe. In connection with such foreign operations, certain of the Debtors collect, withhold or incur VAT and goods and services taxes owed to Authorities in Canada, Ireland and the United Kingdom (collectively, "Other Foreign Taxes"). The Debtors remit such taxes on a monthly or quarterly basis, depending on jurisdiction. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they have accrued approximately $550,000.00 in Other Foreign Taxes, approximately $85,000.00 of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

25. Ample cause exists to authorize the payment of the Taxes and Fees, including that (i) failure to pay the Taxes and Fees may interfere with the Debtors' continued operations; (ii) certain of the Taxes and Fees may not be property of the Debtors' estates; (iii) failure to pay prepetition Property Taxes may increase the scope of secured and priority claims held by the applicable Authorities against the Debtors' estates; and (iv) the Court has authority to grant the requested relief under sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

A. Failure to Pay the Taxes and Fees Could Materially Impair the Debtors' Reorganization Efforts

26. Nonpayment of the Taxes and Fees could cause certain Authorities to take adverse action against the Debtors or their estates, including asserting liens on the Debtors' assets or seeking to lift the automatic stay, which could impose significant costs on the Debtors' estates. Additionally, failure to pay the Taxes and Fees may jeopardize the Debtors' maintenance of good standing to operate in the jurisdictions in which they do business. For example, Authorities could impose penalties on, and charge the Debtors accrued interest, for their failure to pay certain Taxes and Fees. Continued non-payment could result in tax levies. Neither the Debtors' businesses nor their chapter 11 strategy can afford to endure such needless setbacks.

27. In addition, failure to pay certain Taxes and Fees could subject the Debtors' officers and directors to lawsuits or prosecution during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. The dedicated and active participation of the Debtors' directors, officers, and other employees is not only integral to the Debtors' continued, uninterrupted operations, but also essential to the orderly administration of these chapter 11 cases. The threat of a lawsuit or criminal prosecution and any ensuing liability could distract the Debtors and their personnel from important tasks, to the detriment of all parties in interest.

B. Certain of the Taxes and Fees May Not Be Property of the Debtors' Estates

28. Some of the Taxes and Fees may constitute "trust fund" taxes, which the Debtors are required to collect and hold in trust for payment to the applicable Authorities. Section 541(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, as follows:

> Property in which the debtor holds, as of the commencement of the case, only legal title and not an equitable interest . . . becomes property of the estate . . . only to the extent of the debtor's legal title to such > property, but not to the extent of any equitable interest in such property that the debtor does not hold.

11 U.S.C. § 541(d).

29. If the Debtors have collected or hold Taxes and Fees in trust for payment to the Authorities, such funds do not constitute property of the Debtors' estates. See, e.g., Begier v. I.R.S., 496 U.S. 53, 60–62 (1990) (holding that excise and withholding taxes are property held by a debtor in trust for another and, as such, are not property of the debtor's estate); Shank v. Walsh, State Dept. of Revenue (In re Shank), 792 F.2d 829, 833 (9th Cir. 1986) (sales tax required by state law to be collected by sellers from their customers is a "trust fund" tax and not released by bankruptcy discharge); DeChiaro v. N.Y. State Tax Comm'n, 760 F.2d 432, 435–36 (2d Cir. 1985) (same); City of Farrell v. Sharon Steel Corp., 41 F.3d 92, 96 (3d Cir. 1994) (finding that withholding taxes were subject to a trust); In re Am. Int'l Airways, Inc., 70 B.R. 102, 103 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987) (holding that funds held in trust for federal excise and withholding taxes are not property of the debtor's estate). The Debtors, therefore, generally do not have an equitable interest in such funds, and they should be permitted to pay the applicable Taxes and Fees to the Authorities as they become due.

C. Certain of the Taxes and Fees May be Secured or Entitled to Priority Treatment

30. The Debtors' failure to pay certain of the Taxes and Fees may give rise to secured or priority claims in favor of the affected Authorities. In fact, the creation and perfection of such a lien may not violate the automatic stay—even if the lien arises under applicable law for taxes due after the Petition Date. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(18) (automatic stay does not apply to "the creation or perfection of a statutory lien for an ad valorem property tax, or a special tax or special assessment on real property whether or not ad valorem, imposed by a governmental unit, if such tax or assessment comes due after the date of the filing of the petition"); see also In re

Gifaldi, 207 B.R. 54, 56 n.1 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 1997) (noting that section 362(b)(18) reversed case law that had held that the creation of a statutory lien for ad valorem property taxes violated the automatic stay). Similarly, many of the claims at issue here are entitled to priority treatment under the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(8). Thus, the Debtors' requested relief will not prejudice the recovery of junior creditors but, instead, will benefit all parties in interest by reducing the quantum of secured or priority claims that might otherwise accrue interest during the pendency of these proceedings. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 506(b), 511(a); United States v. Ron Pair Enters., Inc., 489 U.S. 235, 241–43 (1989) (nonconsensual lienholders may receive interest on their claims under section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code).

D. Payment of the Taxes and Fees Is Warranted Under Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and Doctrine of Necessity

31. A bankruptcy court may authorize a debtor to pay certain prepetition obligations pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Section 363(b) provides, in pertinent part, that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate…." To approve the use of assets outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (internal citations omitted); see also In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987).

32. In addition, the Court has the authority, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to authorize the relief requested herein, because such relief is necessary for the Debtors to carry out their fiduciary duties under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code "contains an implied duty of the debtor-in-possession" to "protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value," on behalf of a debtor's creditors and other parties in interest. In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)); see also Unofficial Comm. of Equity Holders v. McManigle (In re Penick Pharm., Inc.), 227 B.R. 229, 232–33 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) ("[U]pon filing its petition, the Debtor became debtor in possession and, through its management . . . was burdened with the duties and responsibilities of a bankruptcy trustee.").

33. Further, in a long line of well-established cases, courts consistently have permitted payment of prepetition obligations where such payment is necessary to preserve or enhance the value of a debtor's estate for the benefit of all creditors. See, e.g., Miltenberger v. Logansport, C. & S.W.R. Co., 106 U.S. 286, 312 (1882) (payment of pre-receivership claim prior to reorganization permitted to prevent "stoppage of the continuance of [crucial] business relations"); In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981) (holding that "if payment of a claim which arose prior to reorganization is essential to the continued operation of the . . . [business] during reorganization, payment may be authorized even if it is made out of [the] corpus"); Dudley v. Mealey, 147 F.2d 268, 271 (2d Cir. 1945) (extending doctrine for payment of prepetition claims beyond railroad reorganization cases), cert. denied 325 U.S. 873 (1945); Mich. Bureau of Workers' Disability Comp. v. Chateaugay Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 80 B.R. 279, 285–86 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (approving lower court order authorizing payment of prepetition wages, salaries, expenses, and benefits).

34. In addition, the Court may rely on the doctrine of necessity and its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize the payment of prepetition claims when such payment is essential to the continued operation of a debtor's business. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 824–25 (D. Del. 1999) (holding that section 105(a) of Bankruptcy Code provides statutory basis for payment of prepetition claims under the doctrine of necessity particularly when such payment is necessary for the debtor's survival during chapter 11); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (confirming that the doctrine of necessity is standard for enabling a court to authorize payment of prepetition claims prior to confirmation of a reorganization plan).

35. The relief requested by this Motion represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, and is justified under sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' failure to pay the Taxes and Fees could have a material adverse impact on their ability to operate in the jurisdictions where they do business and may lead to the imposition of liens, the accrual of interest charges, and unnecessary fees and penalties, thereby depleting the value of the Debtors' estates. These potential consequences threaten to irreparably impair the Debtors' ability to conduct a successful reorganization process and maximize the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of creditors. Authorizing the Debtors to pay prepetition amounts related to the Taxes and Fees is thus in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their economic stakeholders.

E. Cause Exists to Authorize Debtors' Financial Institutions to Honor Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers

36. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the Taxes and Fees in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations and anticipated access to cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to an authorized payment in respect of the Taxes and Fees.

Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently and that the Court should authorize the Banks, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested herein, solely to the extent that the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Banks, and such Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

Reservation of Rights

37. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

38. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). As described above, failure to pay the Taxes and Fees may interfere with the Debtors' continued operations and chapter 11 strategy, and increase the scope of secured and priority claims held by the applicable Authorities against the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and (h)

39. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

40. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. (ii) establishing procedures for determining adequate assurance of payment for future utility services, (iii) prohibiting utility providers from altering, refusing, or discontinuing utility service on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and/or outstanding prepetition invoices, and (iv) granting related relief.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on an interim basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Interim Order"), and a proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on a final basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit C (the "Proposed Final Order" and, together with the Proposed Interim Order, the "Proposed Orders").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013–1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with the Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

5. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed with the Court a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

6. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the First Day Declaration.

8. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

9. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases;

(VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Debtors' Utilities

A. Utility Providers

10. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur utility expenses, including electricity, natural gas, water, sewage, telecommunications, and waste services. The Debtors make utility payments in one of two ways, (i) by direct payment to a utility provider, or (ii) via a landlord through rent payments. Approximately 48 utility providers (collectively, the "Utility Providers") provide services to the Debtors, including those entities identified on Exhibit B hereto (the "Utility Service List").[3]

11. On average, the Debtors spend approximately $138,540.00 per month on utility costs and estimate that, as of the Petition Date, approximately $138,540.00 worth of prepetition utility costs are outstanding.

12. Preserving utility services on an uninterrupted basis is essential to the Debtors' ongoing operations. The Debtors maintain their corporate U.S. headquarters in Nashua, [3] "Utility Providers" used herein does not include any utility provider paid through rent payments. The Debtors reserve the right to amend or supplement the Utility Service List to include any Utility Provider omitted. The inclusion of any entity on the Utility Service List is not an admission that such entity is a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve their rights to dispute any such characterization.

New Hampshire with additional offices in Boston, Massachusetts, Burlington, Massachusetts, Norwood, Massachusetts, Gainesville, Florida, Scottsdale, Arizona, Des Moines, Iowa, Parsippany, New Jersey, Knoxville, Tennessee, Columbus, Ohio and Rochester, New York, and any interruption in utility services – even for a brief period of time – would seriously disrupt the Debtors' ability to continue operations and service their customers. Such a result could seriously jeopardize the Debtors' restructuring efforts and, ultimately, creditor recoveries.

B. Proposed Adequate Assurance

13. The Debtors intend to pay postpetition obligations owed to the Utility Providers in a timely manner. The Debtors expect that their cash on hand, plus cash flows from operations and their proposed use of cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing will be sufficient to pay postpetition obligations related to their utility services in the ordinary course of business.

14. Pursuant to section 366(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a utility may alter, refuse, or discontinue a debtor's utility service if the utility does not receive "adequate assurance of payment" for postpetition utility services from the debtor within thirty (30) days after the commencement of the debtor's chapter 11 case. Section 366(c)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code defines "assurance of payment" of postpetition charges as "(i) a cash deposit; (ii) a letter of credit; (iii) a certificate of deposit; (iv) a surety bond; (v) a prepayment of utility consumption; or (vi) another form of security that is mutually agreed on between the utility and the debtor or the trustee." 11 U.S.C. § 366(c)(1)(A).

15. As noted above, the Debtors intend to pay all postpetition obligations owed to the Utility Providers in a timely manner and have sufficient funds to do so. Nevertheless, to provide the Utility Providers with adequate assurance pursuant to section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors propose depositing into an interest-bearing segregated account for the benefit of the Utility Providers (the "Adequate Assurance Account") cash in an amount equal to two (2) weeks' payment for utility services, which amount will be calculated using the historical average for such payments over a period of time, ranging from one (1) to twelve (12) months depending on the length of the relationship with the respective Utility Providers (the "Adequate Assurance Deposit").

16. The Adequate Assurance Deposit will be held by the Debtors in the Adequate Assurance Account for the benefit of the Utility Providers identified on the Utility Service List during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that the total amount of the Adequate Assurance Deposit will be approximately $69,270.00.

17. The Adequate Assurance Deposit may be adjusted by the Debtors if the Debtors terminate any of the utility services provided by a Utility Provider, make alternative arrangements with a Utility Provider for adequate assurance of payment, determine that an entity listed on the Utility Service List is not a "utility provider" as defined by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, or supplement the Utility Service List to include additional Utility Providers. The amount allocated for, and payable to, each Utility Provider will be limited to the amount set forth on Exhibit B as to each Utility Provider or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and such Utility Provider.

18. The Debtors further request authority to cause the Adequate Assurance Deposit and any funds held in the Adequate Assurance Account to be returned to the Debtors upon the effective date of a chapter 11 plan or such other time as these cases may be closed without further order of the Court.

19. The Adequate Assurance Deposit, in conjunction with cash on hand, cash flow from operations, and their proposed use of cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing, demonstrates the Debtors' ability to pay for future utility services in the ordinary course of business (collectively, the "Proposed Adequate Assurance") and constitutes sufficient adequate assurance to the Utility Providers.

C. Proposed Adequate Assurance Procedures

20. If any Utility Provider believes it is entitled to additional or different adequate assurance based on individualized circumstances, it may follow the procedures described below and set forth in more detail in the Proposed Orders (the "Adequate Assurance Procedures"):[4]

a. The Debtors will mail a copy of this Motion and the Proposed Interim Order, which include the proposed Adequate Assurance Procedures, to each Utility Provider within two (2) business days after entry of the Proposed Interim Order.

b. The Debtors will deposit the Adequate Assurance Deposit in the Adequate Assurance Account within twenty (20) calendar days after entry of the Proposed Interim Order; provided that to the extent any Utility Provider receives any other value from the Debtors as adequate assurance of payment, the Debtors may reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit maintained in the Adequate Assurance Account on account of such Utility Provider by the amount of such other value.

c. Any Utility Provider seeking additional assurances of payment in the form of deposits, prepayments or otherwise must serve a request for additional assurance (an "Additional Assurance Request") so that it is actually received by all of the Adequate Assurance Parties (as defined below) at the following addresses: (i) Skillsoft Corporation, 300 Innovative Way, Suite 201, Nashua, New Hampshire 03062 (Attn.: Gregory Porto); (ii) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn.: Robert J. Lemons, Esq., Katherine Theresa Lewis, Esq., and Daniel R. Sotsky, Esq.); (iii) Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A.,

[4] To the extent that there are any inconsistencies or discrepancies between the summary of the Adequate Assurance Procedures in this Motion and the Adequate Assurance Procedures as set forth in the Proposed Orders, the Proposed Orders control in all respects. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in the following summary shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Proposed Orders.

920 North King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Mark D. Collins, Esq. and Amanda R. Steele, Esq.); and (iv) counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB ("WSFS"), in its capacity as DIP Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.) (collectively, the "Adequate Assurance Notice Parties").

d. Any Additional Assurance Request must (i) be made in writing, (ii) set forth the location for which utility services are provided, (iii) include a summary of the Debtors' payment history relevant to the affected account(s), and (iv) set forth why the Utility Provider believes the Proposed Adequate Assurance is not sufficient adequate assurance of future payment.

e. If a Utility Provider fails to serve on the Adequate Assurance Notice Parties an Additional Assurance Request, such Utility Provider shall be (i) deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment "satisfactory" to such Utility Provider in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) prohibited from discontinuing, altering, or refusing service to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases or any unpaid prepetition charges, or requiring additional assurance of payment other than the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

f. Upon receipt of any Additional Assurance Request as provided herein, the Debtors shall promptly negotiate with such Utility Provider to resolve its Additional Assurance Request.

g. The Debtors may, in their sole discretion and without further order of the Court, resolve any Additional Assurance Request by mutual agreement with a Utility Provider, and may, in connection with any such agreement, in their sole discretion, provide a Utility Provider with additional adequate assurance of future payment, which may include, but shall not be limited to, cash deposits, payments of any outstanding prepetition balance due to the Utility Provider, prepayments or other forms of security, in each case, without further order of the Court.

h. If the Debtors are not able to reach a resolution with a Utility Provider that has submitted an Adequate Assurance Request, the Debtors will request a hearing before the Court to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment with respect to the Utility Provider (the "Determination Hearing") pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

i. Pending resolution of such dispute at the Determination Hearing, the relevant Utility Provider shall be prohibited from discontinuing, altering or refusing service to the Debtors on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, any unpaid charges for prepetition services provided to any of the Debtors by the Utility Provider, or any objections to the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

j. Absent compliance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures and the terms of the Proposed Orders, the Debtors' Utility Providers are prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and/or any unpaid charges for prepetition services provided to any of the Debtors and are deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment in accordance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. Subsequent Modifications

21. The Debtors have made a good-faith effort to identify their Utility Providers and include them on the Utility Service List. Nonetheless, to the extent that the Debtors subsequently identify additional Utility Providers, the Debtors seek authority, in their sole discretion, to amend the Utility Service List to add or remove any Utility Provider before or after entry of the order by the Court. Any such amended Utility Service List shall be filed with the Court. The Debtors further request that the Court's order on this Motion be deemed to apply to any such subsequently identified Utility Provider, regardless of when such Utility Provider is added to the Utility Service List. The Debtors will cause a copy of this Motion and any order hereon to be served on any such Utility Provider subsequently added to the Utility Service List and will deposit two (2) weeks' worth of estimated utility costs in the Adequate Assurance Account for the benefit of such Utility Provider. Subsequently added Utility Providers shall make an Additional Assurance Request in accordance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures.

22. The Debtors request that the Court require any Utility Provider subsequently added to the Utility Service List that objects to the entry of an order granting this Motion to file with the Court and serve an objection in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and the Adequate Assurance Procedures.

23. The Debtors request that all Utility Providers, including Utility Providers subsequently added to the Utility Service List, be prohibited from altering, refusing or discontinuing utility services to the Debtors absent further order of the Court.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

24. The Debtors respectfully submit that the Utility Providers will be adequately assured of payment for future services by the relief requested herein. Congress enacted section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code to protect debtors from utility service cutoffs upon a bankruptcy filing while providing utility companies with adequate assurance that the debtors would pay for postpetition services. See H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, at 350 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5963, 6306. Accordingly, section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits utilities from altering, refusing, or discontinuing services to a debtor solely on account of unpaid prepetition amounts for a period of 30 days after a chapter 11 filing.

25. Section 366(c) requires only that a utility's assurance of payment be "adequate." Courts recognize that adequate assurance of performance does not constitute an absolute guarantee of a debtor's ability to pay. See, e.g., Steinebach v. Tucson Elec. Power Co. (In re Steinebach), 303 B.R. 634, 641 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2004) ("Adequate assurance of payment is not, however, absolute assurance . . . 'a Bankruptcy Court is not required to give a utility company the equivalent of a guarantee of payment, but must only determine that the utility is not subject to any unreasonable risk of non-payment for post-petition services.'") (quoting In re Adelphia Bus. Solutions, Inc., 280 B.R. 63, 80 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002)); see also In re Caldor, Inc.-NY, 199 B.R. 1, 3 (S.D.N.Y. 1996) (section 366(b) "does not require an 'absolute guarantee of payment'") (citation omitted), aff'd sub nom. Va. Elec. & Power Co., v. Caldor, Inc.-NY, 117 F.3d 646 (2d Cir. 1997).

26. In this analysis, Courts have recognized that, in determining the requisite level of adequate assurance, bankruptcy courts should "focus 'upon the need of the utility for assurance, and to require that the debtor supply no more than that, since the debtor almost perforce has a conflicting need to conserve scarce financial resources.'" Va. Elec. & Power Co., 117 F.3d at 650 (citation omitted); see also In re Penn. Cent. Transp. Co., 467 F.2d 100, 103–04 (3d Cir. 1972) (affirming bankruptcy court's ruling that utility deposits were not necessary where such deposits likely would "jeopardize the continuing operation of the [debtor] merely to give further security to suppliers who already are reasonably protected"). Indeed, "[c]ourts will approve an amount that is adequate enough to insure against unreasonable risk of nonpayment, but are not required to give the equivalent of a guaranty of payment in full." In re The Great Atl. & Pac. Tea Co., Case No. 11-CV-1338 (CS), 2011 WL 5546954, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 14, 2011) (citations omitted). In fact, there is nothing to prevent a court from deciding that, on the facts of the case before it, the amount required of the debtor to provide adequate assurance of payment to a utility company should be nominal or even zero. See, e.g., In re Pac-West Telecomm., Inc., Case No. 07-10562 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. May 2, 2007) (ECF No. 39) (approving adequate assurance in the form of one-time supplemental prepayment to each utility company equal to prorated amount of one week's charge).

27. Based upon the foregoing, the Debtors believe that most, if not all, of their Utility Providers have adequate assurance of payment even without recourse to the Adequate Assurance Deposit. The Debtors anticipate having sufficient resources to pay, and intend to pay, all valid postpetition obligations for utility services in a timely manner. In addition, the Debtors' reliance on utility services for the operation of their businesses and preservation of value of their assets provides them with a powerful incentive to stay current on their utility obligations. These factors, which the Court may consider when determining the amount of any adequate assurance payments, justify finding that the Debtors are not required to make any additional adequate assurance payments in these chapter 11 cases. In light of the foregoing, the Debtors respectfully submit that the Proposed Adequate Assurance is more than sufficient to assure the Utility Providers of future payment.

28. Absent the approval of the Adequate Assurance Procedures, Utility Providers could discontinue service, without warning, thirty (30) days after the Petition Date, if they claim they have not yet received a "satisfactory" adequate assurance payment. Under the Adequate Assurance Procedures, however, any Utility Provider that fails to submit to the Adequate Assurance Notice Parties an Additional Assurance Request shall be deemed to consent to the Adequate Assurance Procedures and shall be bound by the order granting this Motion. See In re Syroco, Inc., 374 B.R. 60, 62 (Bankr. D.P.R. Aug. 22, 2007) (a utility provider's lack of objection, response or counter-demand after receiving notice of hearing on a utilities motion, notice of interim order and notice of final hearing constitutes tacit acceptance of the debtor's proposed two-week cash deposit as adequate assurance of payment as such term is used in section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code).

29. The Adequate Assurance Procedures are necessary for the Debtors to effectuate their chapter 11 strategy without unnecessary and costly disruptions on account of discontinued utility services. If the Adequate Assurance Procedures are not approved, the Debtors likely will be confronted with and forced to address numerous requests by their Utility Providers at a critical time for their businesses. Moreover, the Debtors could be blindsided by a Utility Provider unilaterally deciding—on or after the 30th day following the Petition Date—that it is not adequately protected and, therefore, either is entitled to make an exorbitant demand for payment to continue providing service or discontinue providing service to the Debtors altogether. Such an outcome could seriously jeopardize the Debtors' operations and their ability to maximize the value of their estates.

30. Under the circumstances of these cases, the Debtors believe that the establishment of a cash reserve in the form of the Adequate Assurance Deposit constitutes adequate assurance of payment under section 366(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

31. In addition, the Court has the authority, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to authorize the relief requested herein, because such relief is necessary for the Debtors to carry out their fiduciary duties under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code "contains an implied duty of the debtor-in-possession" to "protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value," on behalf of a debtor's creditors and other parties in interest. In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)); see also Unofficial Comm. of Equity Holders v. McManigle (In re Penick Pharm., Inc.), 227 B.R. 229, 232-33 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) ("[U]pon filing its petition, the Debtor became debtor in possession and, through its management . . . was burdened with the duties and responsibilities of a bankruptcy trustee.").

32. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors respectfully submit that the relief requested herein is necessary and appropriate, is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates, and should be granted in all respects.

Reservation of Rights

33. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as: (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors or their estates; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action that may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

34. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). As described above, preserving utility services on an uninterrupted basis is essential to the Debtors' ongoing operations. Even a brief interruption would seriously disrupt the Debtors' ability to continue operations and service their customers. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and (h)

35. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

36. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis to the extent set forth herein.

2. Absent compliance with the procedures set forth in the Motion and this Interim Order, the Debtors' utility providers (the "Utility Providers") are prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and/or any unpaid prepetition charges and are deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment in accordance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Funds held in the Adequate Assurance Account and any Adequate Assurance Deposit shall be returned to the Debtors upon the effective date of a chapter 11 plan for the Debtors or such other time as these cases may be closed without further Court order; provided, that there are no outstanding disputes related to postpetition payments due.

4. The Adequate Assurance Deposit, in conjunction with the Debtors' cash on hand, cash flow from operations, and their proposed use of cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing, demonstrate the Debtors' ability to pay for future utility services in the ordinary course of business (together, the "Proposed Adequate Assurance") and constitute sufficient adequate assurance to the Utility Providers.

5. The following Adequate Assurance Procedures are hereby approved in the entirety on an interim basis:

a. The Debtors will mail a copy of the Motion and this Interim Order, which include the Adequate Assurance Procedures, to each Utility Provider within two (2) business days after entry of this Interim Order.

b. The Debtors will deposit the Adequate Assurance Deposit in the Adequate Assurance Account within twenty (20) calendar days after entry of this Interim Order; provided that to the extent any Utility Provider receives any other value from the Debtors as adequate assurance of payment, the Debtors may reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit maintained in the Adequate Assurance Account on account of such Utility Provider by the amount of such other value upon the agreement of such Utility Provider.

c. Any Utility Provider seeking additional assurances of payment in the form of deposits, prepayments or otherwise must serve a request for additional assurance (an "Additional Assurance Request") so that it is actually received by all of the Adequate Assurance Parties (as defined below) at the following addresses: (i) Skillsoft Corporation, 300 Innovative Way, Suite 201, Nashua, New Hampshire 03062 (Attn.: Gregory Porto); (ii) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn.: Robert J. Lemons, Esq., Katherine Theresa Lewis, Esq., and Daniel R. Sotsky, Esq.); (iii) Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., 920 North King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Mark D. Collins, Esq. and Amanda R. Steele, Esq.); and (iv) counsel to WSFS, in its capacity as DIP Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.) (collectively, the "Adequate Assurance Notice Parties").

d. Any Additional Assurance Request must (i) be made in writing, (ii) set forth the location for which utility services are provided, (iii) include a summary of the Debtors' payment history relevant to the affected account(s), and (iv) set forth why the Utility Provider believes the Proposed Adequate Assurance is not sufficient adequate assurance of future payment.

e. If a Utility Provider fails to serve on the Adequate Assurance Notice Parties an Additional Assurance Request, such Utility Provider shall be (i) deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment "satisfactory" to such Utility Provider in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) prohibited from discontinuing, altering, or refusing service to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases and/or any unpaid prepetition charges, or requiring additional assurance of payment other than the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

f. Upon receipt of any Additional Assurance Request as provided herein, the Debtors shall promptly negotiate with such Utility Provider to resolve such its Additional Assurance Request.

g. The Debtors may, in their sole discretion and without further order of the Court, resolve any Additional Assurance Request by mutual agreement with a Utility Provider, and may, in connection with any such agreement, in their sole discretion, provide a Utility Provider with additional adequate assurance of future payment, which may include, but is not limited to, cash deposits, payments of any outstanding prepetition balance due to the Utility Provider, prepayments or other forms of security, in each case, without further order of the Court.

h. If the Debtors are not able to reach a resolution with a Utility Provider that has submitted an Adequate Assurance Request, the Debtors will request a hearing before the Court to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment with respect to the Utility Provider (the "Determination Hearing") pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

i. Pending resolution of such dispute at the Determination Hearing, the relevant Utility Provider is prohibited from discontinuing, altering or refusing service to the Debtors on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, any unpaid charges for prepetition services provided to any of the Debtors by the Utility Provider, or any objections to the Adequate Assurance.

j. Absent compliance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures and the terms of this Interim Order, the Debtors' Utility Providers are prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and/or any unpaid charges for prepetition services provided to any of the Debtors and are deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment in accordance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The Debtors are authorized, in their sole discretion, to amend the utility service list attached as Exhibit B to the Motion (the "Utility Service List") to add or delete any Utility Provider, and this Interim Order shall apply to any Utility Provider that is subsequently added to the Utility Service List. Any such amended Utility Service List shall be filed with the Court.

7. The inclusion of any entity in, or the omission of any entity from, the Utility Service List shall not be deemed an admission by the Debtors that such entity is or is not a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights and defenses with respect thereto.

8. For those Utility Providers that are subsequently added to the Utility Service List, the Debtors will serve a copy of this Interim Order on the subsequently added Utility Provider and deposit two (2) weeks' worth of estimated utility costs in the Adequate Assurance Account for the benefit of such Utility Provider, and any such subsequently added entities shall make an Additional Assurance Request in accordance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures.

9. The Debtors may terminate the services of any Utility Provider and are immediately authorized to reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit by the amount held on account of such terminated Utility Provider.

10. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Interim Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. Notwithstanding entry of this Interim Order, nothing herein shall create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party.

12. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) have been satisfied.

13. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and Local Rule 9013-1(m).

14. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

15. A hearing to consider entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis shall be held on _____, 2020, at _____ (prevailing Eastern Time) and any objections or responses to the Motion shall be in writing, filed with the Court, and served in accordance with Local Rules 5005-4 and 9036-1 upon the following parties: (i) the proposed attorneys for the Debtors, (a) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. The Debtors have deposited the Adequate Assurance Deposit in the Adequate Assurance Account; provided that to the extent any Utility Provider receives any other value from the Debtors as adequate assurance of payment, the Debtors may reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit maintained in the Adequate Assurance Account on account of such Utility Provider by the amount of such other value upon the agreement of such Utility Provider.

c. Any Utility Provider seeking additional assurances of payment in the form of deposits, prepayments or otherwise must serve a request for additional assurance (an "Additional Assurance Request") so that it is actually received by the Adequate Assurance Parties (as defined below) at the following addresses: (i) Skillsoft Corporation, 300 Innovative Way, Suite 201, Nashua, New Hampshire 03062 (Attn.: Gregory Porto); (ii) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn.: Robert J. Lemons, Esq., Katherine Theresa Lewis, Esq., and Daniel R. Sotsky, Esq.); (iii) Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., 920 North King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Mark D. Collins, Esq. and Amanda R. Steele, Esq.); and (iv) counsel to WSFS, in its capacity as DIP Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.) (collectively, the "Adequate Assurance Notice Parties").

d. Any Additional Assurance Request must (i) be made in writing, (ii) set forth the location for which utility services are provided, (iii) include a summary of the Debtors' payment history relevant to the affected account(s), and (iv) set forth why the Utility Provider believes the Proposed Adequate Assurance is not sufficient adequate assurance of future payment.

e. Any Additional Assurance Request must be made and actually received by the Debtors. If a Utility Provider fails to serve on the Adequate Assurance Notice Parties an Additional Assurance Request, such Utility Provider shall be (i) deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment "satisfactory" to such Utility Provider in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (ii) prohibited from discontinuing, altering, or refusing service to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases and/or any unpaid prepetition charges, or requiring additional assurance of payment other than the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

f. Upon receipt of any Additional Assurance Request as provided herein, the Debtors shall promptly negotiate with such Utility Provider to resolve such its Additional Assurance Request.

g. The Debtors may, in their sole discretion and without further order of the Court, resolve any Additional Assurance Request by mutual agreement with a Utility Provider, and may, in connection with any such agreement, in their sole discretion, provide a Utility Provider with additional adequate assurance of future payment, which may include, but is not limited to, cash deposits, payments of any outstanding prepetition balance due to the Utility Provider, prepayments or other forms of security, in each case, without further order of the Court.

h. If the Debtors are not able to reach a resolution with a Utility Provider that has submitted an Adequate Assurance Request, the Debtors will request a hearing before the Court to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment with respect to the Utility Provider (the "Determination Hearing") pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

i. Pending resolution of such dispute at the Determination Hearing, the relevant Utility Provider is prohibited from discontinuing, altering or refusing service to the Debtors on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, any unpaid charges for prepetition services provided to any of the Debtors by the Utility Provider, or any objections to the Adequate Assurance.

j. Absent compliance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures and the terms of this Final Order, the Debtors' Utility Providers are prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and/or any unpaid charges for prepetition services provided to any of the Debtors and are deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment in accordance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The Debtors are authorized, in their sole discretion, to amend the utility service list attached as Exhibit B to the Motion (the "Utility Service List") to add or delete any Utility Provider, and this Final Order shall apply to any Utility Provider that is subsequently added to the Utility Service List. Any such amended Utility Service List shall be filed with the Court.

7. The inclusion of any entity in, or the omission of any entity from, the Utility Service List shall not be deemed an admission by the Debtors that such entity is or is not a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights and defenses with respect thereto.

8. For those Utility Providers that are subsequently added to the Utility Service List, the Debtors will serve a copy of this Final Order on the subsequently added Utility Provider and deposit two (2) weeks' worth of estimated utility costs in the Adequate Assurance Account for the benefit of such Utility Provider, and any such subsequently added entities shall make an Additional Assurance Request in accordance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures.

9. The Debtors may terminate the services of any Utility Provider and are immediately authorized to reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit by the amount held on account of such terminated Utility Provider.

10. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Final Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Final Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. Notwithstanding entry of this Final Order, nothing herein shall create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by, any party.

12. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a).

13. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Final Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

14. The Debtors are authorized to take all action necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Final Order.

15. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and/or enforcement of this Final Order.

MOTION OF DEBTORS FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO PAY PREPETITION TRADE CLAIMS IN ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent in support of this motion (the "Motion"):

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, the Debtors request, pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), and 503(b)(9) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and Rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and consistent with the unimpaired treatment of General Unsecured Claims under the Prepackaged Plan (each as defined herein), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors request authority to pay in full in their discretion and in the ordinary course of business, allowed prepetition claims of creditors (the "Trade Creditors") that provide goods or services related to the Debtors' operations (collectively, the "Trade Claims"). The Debtors estimate the aggregate amount of the Trade Claims is approximately $22.0 million. The Debtors further request that this Court confirm administrative priority status of all undisputed obligations of the Debtors owing to vendors and suppliers arising from the postpetition delivery of goods and provision of services ordered before the Petition Date under the Prepetition Purchase Orders (as defined herein) and authorize the Debtors to pay such obligations in the ordinary course of business.

2. The Debtors further request that the Court (i) authorize all applicable financial institutions (collectively, the "Banks") to receive, process, honor, and pay all checks presented for payment and electronic payment requests relating to the foregoing to the extent directed by the Debtors in accordance with this Motion and to the extent the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Bank, whether such checks were presented or electronic requests were submitted before or after the Petition Date (as defined herein), and (ii) authorize all Banks to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as appropriate pursuant to this Motion, without any duty of further inquiry, and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

3. No party in interest will be prejudiced by the relief requested by this Motion because the Trade Claims are unimpaired under the Prepackaged Plan and will be paid in full. Thus, the relief requested herein seeks to alter only the timing, not the amount or priority, of such payments. Moreover, authority to pay the Trade Claims in the ordinary course of business is necessary to avoid the risk of key vendors and service providers withholding essential services or refusing to sell goods to the Debtors

4. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on an interim basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Interim Order"), and a proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on a final basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit B (the "Proposed Final Order" and, together with the Proposed Interim Order, the "Proposed Orders").

Jurisdiction

5. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

6. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

7. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Bankruptcy Rules.

8. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.[2]

9. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.5% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

11. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

The Debtors' Business Model and Trade Creditors

A. The Debtors' Business Model

12. The Debtors are a global leader in corporate learning, delivering cutting-edge technology and engaging content that drives business impact for modern enterprises. The success of their businesses derives in large part from their ability to provide customers with a broad offering of products and services, including a dynamic array of learning content, an intelligent learning experience platform, and its unique SumTotal talent development suite. The market for these goods and services is, without question, highly competitive and fast-changing as technologies and customer preferences (and demands) evolve on a near-continuous basis. The Debtors must be able to respond quickly to movements in market trends and customer preferences, such that their customer base remains confident that the Debtors are providing the most up to date goods and services as efficiently as possible. Importantly, the Trade Creditors are integrated into the Debtors' highly sophisticated and customized supply chain, making it difficult for the Debtors to replace them in a timely manner. The Debtors' inability or failure to meet customer expectations immediately at the outset of these chapter 11 cases in this regard could be fatal to their restructuring efforts.

13. The Trade Creditors provide the Debtors with the essential goods and services that facilitate these and other of their operations. The Trade Claims include claims of the Debtors' (i) content providers (ii) datacenters providing essential hosting services and uninterrupted network connection for the Debtors' various online platforms, (iii) software vendors that provide the Debtors with licenses to integrate certain software applications into their learning products, (iv) marketing service providers, (v) providers of IT support and digital security for software vulnerability and malware protection, and (vi) business services and other general operational expenses that are not addressed in other first day motions.

B. The Debtors' Trade Claims

14. The Debtors incur numerous fixed, liquidated, and undisputed payment obligations to the Trade Creditors in the ordinary course of business. The Trade Claims are comprised of (a) prepetition claims entitled to statutory priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "503(b)(9) Claims," and the claimants asserting 503(b)(9) Claims, the "503(b)(9) Claimants"), (b) non-priority, prepetition claims held by Critical Vendors (as defined herein, and such claims, the "Critical Vendor Claims") totaling approximately $15,300,000, and (c) non-priority prepetition claims held by ordinary course professionals and all other trade claimants (the "Non-Priority Trade Claims") totaling approximately $6,700,000. For the 12 months before the Petition Date, the Debtors' average monthly payment to Trade Creditors was approximately $23,600,000. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe a total of approximately $22,000,000 on account of undisputed Trade Claims. The Debtors estimate that approximately $18,000,000 of that amount will become due within the interim period before a final hearing on this Motion (the "Interim Period"). The following table summarizes the types of Trade Claims held by the Trade Creditors, and provides the Debtors' estimate of the total amount of each type of Trade Claim outstanding as of the Petition Date, including estimates for the portion of such total coming due within the Interim period:

Category	Description of Claims	Estimated Total Amount Outstanding as of Petition Date	Estimated Amount Due Within Interim Period
503(b)(9) Claims[3]	Claims entitled statutory priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.	N/A	N/A
Critical Vendor Claims	Claims of certain Trade Creditors that are essential to maintaining the going concern value of the Debtors' enterprise.	$15.3 million	$12.5 million
Non-Priority Trade Claims	All other Trade Claims incurred in the ordinary course of business.	$6.7 million	$5.5 million
Total Trade Claims:		$22.0 million	$18.0 million

15. The Debtors are not seeking to pay these amounts immediately or in one lump sum; rather, the Debtors intend to pay these amounts as they become due and payable in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors have filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Senior Secured Superpriority Financing and (B) Use Case Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Parties, (III) Granting Liens and Superpriority Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "DIP Motion"), which, in addition to the cash generated by the Debtors' business, will provide the necessary additional liquidity for the Debtors to continue operations in the ordinary course of business. As set forth in the budget (the "Budget") annexed to the DIP Motion, the Debtors' proposed expenditures set forth in the Budget include payment of the Trade Claims the Debtors are seeking authority to pay pursuant to this Motion. Accordingly, the Debtors believe they will have ample liquidity to pay the Trade Claims in the ordinary course during the administration of these chapter 11 cases.

[3] As noted herein, the Debtors do not believe any prepetition claims are entitled to statutory priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, but are seeking relief to pay any such claims in the ordinary course to the extent they arise.

Conditions to Payment of Trade Claims in the Ordinary Course

16. The Debtors request authority to pay all Trade Claims on the following terms and conditions:

a. The Debtors, in their sole discretion, subject to the limitations set forth below, shall determine which Trade Claims, if any, will be paid pursuant to the Proposed Orders.

b. Before making a payment to a creditor under the Proposed Orders, the Debtors may, in their discretion, settle all or some of the prepetition claims of such creditor for less than their face amount without further notice or hearing.

Treatment of Trade Claims Under the Prepackaged Plan

17. The goal of the Debtors' prepackaged chapter 11 cases is to deleverage the Debtors' balance sheet with minimal interruption of their business operations. Disruption to the Debtors' timely receipt of necessary goods and services could negatively impact the Debtors' operations and ability to meet their commitments in the ordinary course, which would harm their businesses, damage their market reputation, and possibly result in a loss of customers. Accordingly, it is imperative that the Debtors maintain positive relationships with the providers of the goods and services essential to their business operations throughout these cases. The Debtors negotiated the terms of the Prepackaged Plan with this goal in mind: under the Prepackaged Plan, the legal, equitable, and contractual rights of Trade Creditors must be unimpaired to avoid disruption to the normal operations of the business during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the relief requested in this Motion furthers the Debtors' overarching restructuring goals to maximize the value of the estates without prejudice to the Debtors' stakeholders, all in accordance with the Prepackaged Plan.

18. Furthermore, substantially all executory contracts and unexpired leases to which any of the Debtors are parties, and which have not expired by their own terms on or before the effective date of the date an order is entered confirming the Prepackaged Plan, shall be assumed under the terms of the Prepackaged Plan. Any outstanding amounts owed under any executory contract or unexpired lease to be assumed under the Prepackaged Plan shall be paid or otherwise "cured" pursuant to section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

A. Payment of Non-Priority Trade Claims Is Warranted Under Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and Doctrine of Necessity

19. A bankruptcy court may authorize a debtor to pay certain prepetition obligations pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Section 363(b) provides, in pertinent part, that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." To approve the use of assets outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (internal citations omitted); see also In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987); In re Tower Air, Inc., 416 F.3d 229, 238 (3d Cir. 2005) (stating that "[o]vercoming the presumptions of the business judgment rule on the merits is a near-Herculean task").

20. In addition, the Court has the authority, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to authorize the relief requested herein, because such relief is necessary for the Debtors to carry out their fiduciary duties under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a). Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code "contains an implied duty of the debtor-in-possession" to "protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value," on behalf of a debtor's creditors and other parties in interest. In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)); see also Unofficial Comm. of Equity Holders v. McManigle (In re Penick Pharm., Inc.), 227 B.R. 229, 232–33 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) ("[U]pon filing its petition, the Debtor became debtor in possession and, through its management . . . was burdened with the duties and responsibilities of a bankruptcy trustee.").

21. Further, in a long line of well-established cases, courts consistently have permitted payment of prepetition obligations where such payment is necessary to preserve or enhance the value of a debtor's estate for the benefit of all creditors. See, e.g., Miltenberger v. Logansport, C. & S.W.R. Co., 106 U.S. 286, 312 (1882) (payment of pre-receivership claim prior to reorganization permitted to prevent "stoppage of the continuance of [crucial] business relations"); In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981) (holding that "if payment of a claim which arose prior to reorganization is essential to the continued operation of the . . . [business] during reorganization, payment may be authorized even if it is made out of [the] corpus"); Dudley v. Mealey, 147 F.2d 268, 271 (2d Cir. 1945) (extending doctrine for payment of prepetition claims beyond railroad reorganization cases), cert. denied 325 U.S. 873 (1945); Mich. Bureau of Workers' Disability Comp. v. Chateaugay Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 80 B.R. 279, 285–86 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (approving lower court order authorizing payment of prepetition wages, salaries, expenses, and benefits).

22. This "doctrine of necessity" functions in a chapter 11 reorganization as a mechanism by which the Court can exercise its equitable power to allow payment of critical prepetition claims not explicitly authorized by the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 824–25 (D. Del. 1999) (holding that section 105(a) of Bankruptcy Code provides statutory basis for payment of prepetition claims under the doctrine of necessity particularly when such payment is necessary for the debtor's survival during chapter 11); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (confirming that the doctrine of necessity is standard for enabling a court to authorize payment of prepetition claims prior to confirmation of a reorganization plan).

23. It is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment to pay the Trade Claims as they become due in the ordinary course of business because doing so will avoid value-destructive business interruption and will not prejudice the Debtors' other stakeholders. The Prepackaged Plan, which the Debtors' secured lenders have agreed to support and vote in favor of by the requisite voting majorities, provides for the full and uninterrupted payment of such claims. The goods and services provided by Trade Creditors are necessary for the continued, uninterrupted operation of the Debtors' businesses. The Debtors anticipate that failure to pay the Trade Claims as they become due is likely to result in many Trade Creditors refusing to provide essential goods and services or conditioning the delivery of such goods and services on compliance with onerous and commercially unreasonable terms.

24. Nonperformance by numerous Trade Creditors could materially disrupt the Debtors' business operations and jeopardize the continued viability of the Debtors' business and these cases to the detriment of all of the Debtors' stakeholders. In addition, because the Trade Creditors are already familiar with the Debtors' assets and business needs based on years of the Debtors' building relationships with such vendors, they are in the best position to provide the necessary goods and services to the Debtors, and are the most likely to do so on commercially reasonable terms. If certain of the Trade Creditors refuse to perform on their obligations, the Debtors may find it very difficult to locate replacement vendors of geographic or logistical scope necessary to support their operations, and indeed, may make it difficult to maintain business operations. Therefore, even if it were possible to obtain replacement goods and services, doing so would likely cause substantial delay and significant costs.

25. Moreover, no party in interest will be prejudiced by the relief requested herein because the Trade Claims are unimpaired and will be paid in full under the Prepackaged Plan. The relief requested herein seeks to alter only the timing, not the amount or priority, of such payments. Furthermore, paying the modest amount of Trade Claims—approximately 1.1% of the total debt to be restructured in these cases—in the ordinary course is prudent when compared to the amount the Debtors' stakeholders stand to lose if the Debtors' businesses were to be interrupted. Accordingly, continued payment of the Trade Claims as provided herein is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, is in the best interests of the Debtors' and their respective estates and creditors, and is warranted under the circumstances.

26. Courts in this district have authorized payment of prepetition general unsecured claims in the ordinary course of business where a debtor's proposed prepackaged plan of reorganization provides for a 100% recovery on general unsecured claims. See, e.g., In re Checkout Holding Corp., No. 18-12794 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 10, 2019) (ECF No. 188) (authorizing payment of prepetition general unsecured claims in the ordinary course of business); In re Mattress Firm, Inc., No. 18-12241 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 26, 2018) (ECF No. 425) (same); In re Se. Grocers, LLC, No. 18-10700 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 23, 2018) (ECF No. 336) (same); In re Tidewater Inc., No. 17-11132 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. June 13, 2017) (ECF No. 219) (same); In re American Gilsonite Co., No. 16-12316 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 18, 2016) (ECF No. 128) (same); In re Basic Energy Servs., Inc., No. 16-12320 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 17, 2016) (ECF No. 168) (same).

B. Additional Bases for Payment of Trade Claims

i. Certain Trade Claims are Administrative Expenses

27. Certain Trade Claims may be entitled to the statutory priority for goods delivered to the Debtors in the ordinary course of business within 20 days before the Petition Date. Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that claims for goods delivered to the Debtors in the ordinary course of business within 20 days after the Petition Date are administrative expense claims against the applicable Debtor's estate. See 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9). The Debtors, therefore, are required to pay such claims in full to confirm a plan of reorganization. See id.; 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(A) (requiring payment in full of claims entitled to administrative expense priority). Instead of paying such Trade Claims on the effective date of the Prepackaged Plan, the Debtors seek authority to pay the Trade Claims during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases as they become due. The Bankruptcy Code requires, and the Prepackaged Plan provides for, payment in full of administrative expense claims on the effective date of the Prepackaged Plan, or as soon as practicable thereafter. Thus, payment of Trade Claims entitled to priority under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code under the Proposed Orders will effect only a change in the timing of such payments, not the amounts or priority thereof.

28. In light of the various office and facility closures caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Debtors do not anticipate the delivery of goods in the ordinary course within the 20-day window prior to the Petition Date. To the extent the Debtors identify any deliveries that were made within the statutory window, the Debtors request authority to pay the associated claims asserted by such Trade Vendors in the ordinary course. Finally, authorizing the Debtors to pay Trade Claims pursuant to the terms set forth herein should eliminate the burden on this Court and the Debtors arising from numerous individual motions requesting payment on account of 503(b)(9) claims.

29. Courts in this district have frequently authorized the payment of vendor claims entitled to administrative priority pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Checkout Holding Corp., No. 18-12794 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 10, 2019) (ECF No. 188) (authorizing debtors to pay 503(b)(9) claims); In re The NORDAM Grp., Inc., No. 18-11699 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 29, 2018) (ECF No. 224) (same); In re Claire's Stores, Inc., No. 18-10584 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 20, 2018) (ECF No. 96) (same); In re The Bon-Ton Stores, Inc., No. 18-10248 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 6, 2018) (ECF No. 117) (same); In re TK Holdings Inc., No. 17-11375 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 26, 2017) (ECF No. 327) (same).

ii. Certain Trade Creditors Are Critical Vendors Necessary to Ensure Continuation of Debtors' Operations

30. The Debtors have determined that certain of the Trade Creditors are essential to maintaining the going concern value of the Debtors' enterprise (the "Critical Vendors"). These Critical Vendors include, among others: (i) datacenters used to house the Debtors' software-as-a-service learning asset and delivery platform offerings, critical applications and data, and physical equipment including routers, switches, storage systems, and servers; (ii) software producers that provide the Debtors with non-exclusive licenses to promote, sublicense, and distribute software to be integrated into the Debtors' learning products; and (iii) content vendors that publish and/or own content and information that is licensed to the Debtors and delivered in an agreed-upon format for use in the Debtors' learning products.

31. Payment of Critical Vendors is necessary for the Debtors to maintain operations, to preserve the value of the Debtors' business, and moreover, to enable the Debtors to function in the ordinary course. Given the nature of the goods and services provided by the Critical Vendors, the consequences if the Critical Vendors cease providing such goods and services to the Debtors, and the resulting loss of value to the Debtors' estates, the relief requested herein is necessary and appropriate. The Debtors' authority to address their Critical Vendor Claims in the initial days of these cases will send a clear signal to their suppliers and customers that the Debtors are both willing and able to conduct business as usual after the Petition Date. Failure to authorize the Debtors to pay Critical Vendor Claims as provided herein would jeopardize the Debtors' chapter 11 restructuring strategy, and, ultimately, the success of these chapter 11 cases. Of the Trade Claims, an amount of approximately $15.3 million represent Critical Vendor Claims, with approximately $12.5 million coming due and payable during the Interim Period.

32. Courts in this district regularly grant relief to pay critical vendors consistent with that which the Debtors are seeking in this Motion. See, e.g., In re LBI Media, Inc., No. 18-12655 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 21, 2018) (ECF No. 82) (authorizing debtors to pay prepetition claims of critical vendors); In re The NORDAM Grp., Inc., No. 18-11699 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 29, 2018) (ECF No. 224) (same); In re Claire's Stores, Inc., No. 18-10584 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 17, 2018) (ECF No. 279) (same); In re TK Holdings Inc., No. 17-11375 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 9, 2017) (ECF No. 445) (same).

C. Confirmation of Administrative Expense Status of Prepetition Purchase Orders is Appropriate and Necessary to Debtors' Reorganization

33. Furthermore, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors have certain prepetition purchase orders (the "Prepetition Purchase Orders") outstanding with various third party vendors and suppliers (the "Vendors") for goods or services ordered by the Debtors that have not yet been delivered or provided to the Debtors. These Vendors may be concerned that, because the Debtors' obligations under the Prepetition Purchase Orders arose before the Petition Date, such obligations will be treated as general unsecured claims in these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, and notwithstanding the Prepackaged Plan's treatment of general unsecured claims, certain Vendors may refuse to provide goods or services to the Debtors purchased pursuant to the Prepetition Purchase Orders unless the Debtors issue substitute purchase orders postpetition or obtain an order of the Court (i) confirming that all undisputed obligations of the Debtors arising from the postpetition delivery of goods or services subject to Prepetition Purchase Orders are afforded administrative expense priority status under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) authorizing the Debtors to satisfy such obligations in the ordinary course of business.

34. It is necessary to the uninterrupted operation of the Debtors' business that obligations owed under the Prepetition Purchase Orders for goods or services delivered or provided postpetition be explicitly granted administrative expense status. Pursuant to section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, obligations that arise in connection with the postpetition delivery of necessary goods and services are afforded administrative expense priority status. See, e.g., Frito-Lay, Inc. v. LTV Steel Co. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 10 F.3d 944, 956 (2d Cir. 1993) ("[A] claim will be afforded priority 'only to the extent that the consideration supporting the claimant's right to payment was both supplied to and beneficial to the debtor-in-possession in the operation of the business.'") (quoting Trustees of Amalgamated Ins. Fund v. McFarlin's, Inc., 789 F.2d 98, 101 (2d Cir. 1986) (quoting In re Mammoth Mart, Inc., 536 F.2d 950, 954 (1st Cir. 1976))); In re Tropicana Entm't, LLC, No. 08-10856 (KJC), 2015 WL 6112064, at *5 (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 14, 2015) (internal quotation omitted) ("[Pursuant to] Bankruptcy Code § 503(b)(1)(A), the Court may allow as administrative expenses, the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate, including wages, salaries, commissions for services rendered after the commencement of the case."); In re Blockbuster Inc., No. 10-14997 (BRL), 2010 WL 5559538, at *3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 27, 2010) (final order ruling that "Debtors' undisputed obligations . . . that arise from the postpetition delivery of materials, goods, and services that were ordered in the prepetition period shall have administrative expense priority status pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code."). Thus, the granting of the relief requested herein will not provide the Vendors with any greater priority than they otherwise would have if the relief were not granted, and will not prejudice any other parties in interest.

35. Similar relief to that requested herein has been granted in other chapter 11 cases in this and other districts. See, e.g., In re Tidewater Inc., No. 17-11132 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. June 13, 2017) (ECF No. 219) (granting administrative expense status to undisputed obligations to vendors arising from postpetition delivery of goods and services ordered prepetition); see also In re The NORDAM Grp., Inc., No. 18-11699 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 29, 2018) (ECF No. 224) (granting administrative expense status to undisputed obligations to vendors arising from postpetition delivery of goods and services ordered prepetition); In re The Bon-Ton Stores, Inc., No. 18-10248 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 6, 2018) (ECF No. 115) (same); In re TK Holdings Inc., No. 17-11375 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 26, 2017) (ECF No. 327) (same).

D. Cause Exists to Authorize Debtors' Financial Institutions to Honor Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers

36. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described herein in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations and anticipated access to cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to an authorized payment in respect of the Trade Claims. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently and that the Court should authorize the Banks, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested herein, solely to the extent that the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Banks, and such Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

Reservation of Rights

37. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

38. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). As described above, failure to pay the Trade Claims immediately and in the ordinary course would expose the Debtors' businesses to imminent and unnecessary risk. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and (h)

39. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

40. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. Greenberg, Esq. and Christina M. Brown, Esq.); (iv) counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group, Milbank LLP, 55 Hudson Yards, New York, New York 10001 (Attn: Evan R. Fleck, Esq., Benjamin M. Schak, Esq. and Sarah Levin, Esq.); (v) counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB ("WSFS"), in its capacity as First Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vi) counsel to WSFS, in its capacity as Second Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vii) counsel to WSFS, in its capacity as DIP Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vii) counsel to CIT Bank, N.A., in its capacity as AR Facility Agent, Holland & Knight LLP, 200

Crescent Court, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75201 (Attn: Samuel Pinkston, Esq.); (viii) the Internal Revenue Service; (ix) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (x) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (x) the Banks; and (xi) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). As this Motion is seeking "first day" relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered in respect of the Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Orders granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

entry of interim and final orders (i) authorizing the Debtors to (a) pay prepetition wages, salaries, reimbursable expenses, and other obligations on account of the Compensation and Benefits Programs (as defined herein) in the ordinary course of business as provided herein and (b) continue to administer the Compensation and Benefits Programs and (ii) granting related relief.

2. The Debtors further request that the Court (i) authorize all applicable financial institutions (collectively, the "Banks") to receive, process, honor, and pay all checks presented for payment and electronic payment requests relating to the foregoing to the extent directed by the Debtors in accordance with this Motion and to the extent the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Bank, whether such checks were presented or electronic requests were submitted before or after the Petition Date (as defined herein), and (ii) authorize all Banks to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as appropriate pursuant to this Motion, without any duty of further inquiry, and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

3. The Debtors further request that the Court authorize the Payroll Processors (as defined herein), to honor and pay all checks presented for payment and electronic payment requests relating to the foregoing to the extent directed by the Debtors in accordance with the relief granted pursuant to this Motion, whether such checks were presented or electronic requests were submitted before or after the Petition Date.

4. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on an interim basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Interim Order"), and a proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on a final basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit B (the "Proposed Final Order" and, together with the Proposed Interim Order, the "Proposed Orders").

Jurisdiction

5. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

6. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

7. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

9. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.5% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

10. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

11. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

The Debtors' Workforce

12. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors employ approximately 1,380 individuals on a full-time basis in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Ireland (collectively, the "Employees"). Of the Debtors' Employees, approximately 409 are employed across Canada, Ireland, and the United Kingdom (the "International Employees"), while approximately 971 are employed domestically (the "Domestic Employees"). In addition, the Debtors' non-Debtor affiliates employ approximately 862 full-time, salaried employees across various jurisdictions, including France, Australia, India, and Japan. Thus, as of the Petition Date, the Company employs approximately 2,242 full-time employees in total, of which approximately 971 are employed domestically, and 1,271 are employed internationally. None of the Employees are party to a collective bargaining agreements or other similar labor agreements.

13. Additionally, the Debtors employ several part-time employees, and utilize the services of independent contractors and temporary workers, to, among other things, produce content for their extensive portfolio of learning content assets, to develop software for its learning and talent development technology platforms, and to perform various administrative services (collectively, the "Supplemental Employees" and, together with the Employees, the Debtors' "Workforce"). The Supplemental Employees are an important complement to the Debtors' Employees, and their services ensure the Debtors' core business operations run smoothly on a day-to-day basis. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have approximately twenty-five (25) individuals as Supplemental Employees.

14. The Debtors' Workforce performs a wide variety of functions that are critical to the Debtors' operations. Several of these individuals are highly trained and have an essential working knowledge of the Debtors' business and/or product offerings that cannot easily be replicated. Failure to maintain the continued, uninterrupted services of their Workforce could upend the Debtors' reorganization efforts and jeopardize their business as a going concern.

Compensation and Benefits Programs

15. As with similarly situated companies, the Debtors maintain various compensation and benefits programs and pay various administrative fees and premiums in connection therewith (each as defined herein and, collectively, the "Compensation and Benefits Programs"), including:

(a) Workforce Compensation;

(b) Payroll Processing Fees;

(c) Withholding Obligations;

(d) Reimbursable Expenses;

(e) Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs;

(f) Health Insurance Programs;

(g) Life Insurance and Disability Programs;

(h) Retirement Plans;

(i) Paid Time Off;

(j) Non-Insider Severance;

(k) Redundancy Benefits; and

(l) Other Employee Benefits

16. The Debtors believe that the vast majority of their Employees rely exclusively or primarily on the compensation and benefits they receive through the Compensation and Benefits Programs to pay their daily living expenses and support their families. The Employees will face significant financial consequences if the Debtors are not permitted to continue to administer the Compensation and Benefits Programs in the ordinary course of business. Further, the Debtors' failure to honor their obligations in connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs likely would result in attrition at a time when the Debtors need to retain their Workforce, motivate their Workforce to perform at peak efficiency and attract top talent to fill critical experience and skills requirements identified by the business.

17. Subject to the Court's approval and the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Debtors intend to continue to administer their Compensation and Benefits Programs in the ordinary course. The Debtors further request confirmation of their right to modify, change, and/or discontinue any of their Compensation and Benefits Programs and to implement new programs, policies, and/or benefits in the ordinary course of business during these chapter 11 cases, in their discretion and without the need for further Court approval, subject to applicable orders entered in these chapter 11 cases, any agreements executed in contemplation of these chapter 11 cases, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, and Local Rules.

18. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe the following aggregate prepetition amounts on account of the Compensation and Benefits Programs (the "Final Amounts") and that the following prepetition amounts on account of the Compensation and Benefits Programs will become due and payable during the Interim Period (the "Interim Amounts"):

Compensation and Benefits Program	Interim Amount	Final Amount
Workforce Compensation	$904,793	$1,301,312
Payroll Processing Fees	$21,565	$21,565
Withholding Obligations	$170,202	$207,657
Reimbursable Expenses	$772,579	$828,129
Health Insurance Programs	$585,477	$585,477
Life Insurance and Disability Programs	$8,000	$8,000
Retirement Plans	$44,078	$44,078
Paid Time Off	N/A	N/A
Non-Insider Severance	$86,724	$187,175
Redundancy Benefits	N/A	N/A
Other Employee Benefit Programs	$72,196	$72,196
Total Amounts	$2,665,614	$3,255,589

19. As shown in the above table, the Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $3,255,589 on account of the Compensation and Benefit Programs, approximately $2,665,614 of which will become due and payable during the period between the Petition Date and the final hearing on the Motion (the "Interim Period"). To fulfill these imminent commitments, the Debtors request entry of the proposed Interim Order, authorizing the Debtors to pay Compensation in an aggregate amount not to exceed the Interim Amount, subject to the $13,650 per-payee cap established by sections 507(a)(4) and (a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors also seek authorization at the final hearing on this Motion to pay any remaining prepetition Compensation and Benefit Program obligations owing at that time.

A. Compensation, Withholding Obligations, and Reimbursable Expenses

(i) Unpaid Workforce Compensation

20. The Debtors pay Workforce wages, salaries, commissions and other compensation (excluding Reimbursable Expenses and Paid Time Off), as well as directors' fees and retainers, on a weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, or less frequent basis (collectively, the "Compensation"). Because most Employees and Supplemental Employees are paid in arrears, the Debtors will owe certain Employees and Supplemental Employees accrued but unpaid Compensation as of the Petition Date. Compensation also may be due as of the Petition Date for a variety of reasons, such as certain members of the Workforce holding issued but uncashed paychecks as of the Petition Date. In the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors spent an average of approximately $13,602,756 per month on account of Compensation.

21. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $1,301,312 on account of Compensation earned by Employees prior to the Petition Date, approximately $904,793 of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period. Of this amount, approximately $703,831 is owed to Domestic Employees, and $200,962 is owed to International Employees. Additionally, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not owe any amounts on account of Compensation earned by Supplemental Employees prior to the Petition Date.

a. Commission Pay Policy

22. As part of the Compensation offered to Employees engaged in certain sales activities, the Debtors administer a commission pay policy that provides commissions upon such participating Employees meeting or exceeding predetermined sales goals (the "Commission Pay Policy" and the commissions paid thereunder, the "Commissions"). The Commission Pay Policy is available for certain Employees considered designated and authorized representatives of the Company responsible for the licensing or sale of products and services ("Sales Employees").[3] In the twelve months prior to the Petition Date, approximately 544 Sales Employees participated in this program.

23. Under the Commission Pay Policy, each Sales Employee is assigned a sales goal ("Sales Quota"), which may be satisfied upon achievement of certain defined sales goals outlined in a Sales Employee's compensation plan. Sales activities, actual sales, and other measures of job performance and progress toward established goals are monitored by the Debtors on an on-going basis. Participating Sales Employees may earn Commissions under the Commission Pay Policy in connection with sales performance on a monthly, quarterly, annual, and/or other basis as established by the Debtors. The Debtors estimate that the average annual cost of administering the Commission Pay Policy is approximately $29,452,811. As of the Petition

[3] Examples of Sales Employees include Regional Account Executives, Global Business Development Executives, Regional Manager/Directors, Inside Sales Consultants, Inside Sales Account Managers, Inside Sales Lead Generators, Channel Account Executives, Compliance Regional Account Executives, Customer Sales Directors, and Customer Success Manager.

Date, the Debtors estimate that accrued Commissions total approximately $464,569, of which $68,050 will come due and owing in the Interim Period.

b. Non-Insider Incentive Programs

24. The Debtors maintain certain incentive programs to motivate and reward certain of their non-insider Employees (collectively, the "Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs").[4] The Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs include various performance-based incentive programs, such as (i) the Performance Based Bonus Plan, (ii) the SumTotal and Skillsoft Professional Services Bonus Plans, (iii) Retention Bonus Awards and (iv) the Outstanding Contributor Award Program. The Debtors believe that the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs are integral to the Debtors' business operations because they generally align eligible Employees' interests with those of the Debtors by linking payments under the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs to the overall performance and efficiency of the Debtors' operations.

25. The Debtors believe that they are current on all scheduled payments on account of the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs, and that no amounts will come due and owing on account of the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs during the Interim Period. Following a payout date, however, the Debtors routinely receive inquiries from Employees who were entitled to receive awards under the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs but, due to administrative updates and pending reconciliations, were not paid such awards (the "Omitted Incentive Awards"). The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe de minimis amounts on account of the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs, and that no amounts will come due and owing on account of the Omitted Incentive Awards during the Interim Period.

[4] The relief sought in this Motion with respect to the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs does not include the payment of any obligations to an "insider" (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code, an "Insider"). For purposes of this Motion, Insiders shall include their Executive Chairman, their Chief Financial Officer, Chief Administrative Officer, Chief People Officer, and Senior Vice President, Finance. The Debtors reserve all rights with respect to the classification of all other persons as "Insiders" and "non-Insiders."

26. Pursuant to the relief requested by this Motion on a final basis, the Debtors also seek authority to continue the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

(1) Performance-Based Bonus Plan

27. The Debtors offer certain Employees an annual bonus opportunity based on the performance of the Company in a given fiscal year (the "Performance-Based Bonus Plan"), pursuant to which each participant is assigned a target annual bonus opportunity at the beginning of each plan year (or, prorated to their start date during the fiscal year), and the percentage of the target bonus opportunity that is earned by each participant is determined by the Company's attainment of its target financial performance. Generally, only full-time regular employees (with the exception of commissioned sales associates) are eligible to participate in the Performance-Based Bonus Plan.

28. Participants may receive a percentage up to 100% of an annual bonus opportunity, depending on the overall level of attainment of the Company's financial performance objective. Bonus opportunities are paid under the Performance-Based Bonus Plan, to the extent earned, at the end of the first complete pay period following a determination by the Board of Directors (or its designee) regarding the level of bonuses to be paid, typically in May. The Debtors estimate that the total amount that could be payable under the Performance-Based Bonus Plan for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2020 was approximately $13,493,308. It has been determined by the Board of Directors, however, that bonuses under the Performance-Based Bonus Plan for this period were not earned and will not be paid. Accordingly, the Debtors do not anticipate that any amounts will become due and owing under the Performance-Based Bonus Plan during the Interim Period.

(2) Professional Services Bonus Plan

29. The Debtors maintain a bonus structure for certain SumTotal and Skillsoft professional service Employees intended to align an incentive element of a participating individual's compensation with the goals of the Company and the professional services organization (the "Professional Services Bonus Plan"). There are different categories of Employees at Skillsoft and SumTotal that are eligible to participate in either the Skillsoft or SumTotal Professional Services Bonus Plan: (1) individuals whose primary role is to work on customer delivery; (2) individuals whose primary job responsibility is supporting sales efforts; and (3) individuals who are part of the Professional Services management teams. The bonus attainment under the Professional Services Bonus Plan is based on a combination of financial and individual performance and delivery quality as measured by certain key performance indicators ("KPIs"). KPIs are weighted based on the primary focus of the role and relative impact that the role has on each KPI. The Debtors estimate that the average annual cost of administering the Professional Services Bonus Plans is approximately $583,004.23, but do not anticipate that any amounts will become due and owing under the Professional Services Bonus Plans during the Interim Period.

(3) Retention Bonus Awards

30. The Debtors maintain an incentive practice for Employees that provides additional compensation on a discretionary basis (a "Retention Bonus Award"), less usual withholdings and deductions, if the Employee remains employed by the Debtors through a specified date. The Retention Bonus Awards provide an additional incentive for participating Employees to remain employed with the Debtors, and is considered a key aspect of the Debtors compensation package for participating Employees. A Retention Bonus Award is not earned unless and until the Employee completes the specified term of service. When a term of service is completed, the Retention Bonus Award is generally paid in the first complete pay period following the end of the defined retention period. The Debtors estimate that, on an average annual basis, approximately $621,220 Retention Bonus Awards are paid out, but that no Retention Bonus Awards are outstanding as of the Petition Date.

(4) Outstanding Contributor Award Program

31. The Debtors offer an additional incentive program for certain Employees demonstrating exceptional performance during a fiscal year. Under this incentive program (the "Outstanding Contributor Award Program"), twenty (20) Employees across the company are recognized each fiscal year for their outstanding achievement in their particular role and awarded a "travel voucher" valued at $2,500. The annual cost of administering the Outstanding Contributor Award Program is $50,000, with each voucher coming due and payable upon the recipient incurring the travel expense. As of the Petition Date, there are approximately 25 such vouchers that may be expended by the Debtors' Employees. In light of widespread travel restrictions in place as of the Petition Date, however, the Debtors estimate that de minimis amounts will come due and payable in the Interim Period on account of the Outstanding Contributor Award Program.

(ii) Payroll Processing

32. The Debtors utilize various vendors to administer payroll and several other employee-related benefits programs (collectively, the "Payroll Processors"). The Payroll Processors provide, among other things, the Debtors' payroll processing system and ensure proper tax and benefits withholding. On an average, the Debtors pay the Payroll Processors administration fees of approximately $258,780 (the "Payroll Processing Fees") each year. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe the Payroll Processors approximately $21,565 in Payroll Processing Fees, all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

(iii) Withholding Obligations

33. During applicable pay periods, the Debtors deduct certain amounts from Employees' paychecks, including garnishments, levies, child support and related fees, and pre-tax contributions to certain of the Health and Welfare Programs (as defined herein) (collectively, the "Deductions"). The Debtors transfer the amounts comprising such Deductions to various designated third-party recipients. In the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors withheld, on average, approximately $1,577,502 in Deductions each month. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they hold approximately $107,955 in Deductions.

34. The Debtors also are required by law to withhold from Domestic Employees' paychecks amounts related to, among other things, federal, state, and local income taxes and Social Security and Medicare taxes (collectively, the "Domestic Employee Payroll Taxes") for remittance to applicable federal, state, and local taxing authorities. Similarly, the Debtors withhold from International Employees' paychecks certain amounts as required by applicable laws in each respective country, including amounts related to National Insurance in the United Kingdom, Canada Pension Plan in Canada, and Universal Social Charge in Ireland (collectively, the "International Employee Payroll Taxes" and, together with the Domestic Employee Payroll Taxes, the "Employee Payroll Taxes"). The Debtors must then match the Employee Payroll Taxes from their own funds and pay, based upon a percentage of gross payroll, additional amounts for state and federal unemployment insurance (together with the Employee Payroll Taxes, the "Payroll Taxes"). In the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors remitted, on average, approximately $3,660,228 in Payroll Taxes each month.

35. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that the aggregate amount of accrued but unremitted Deductions and Payroll Taxes (together, the "Withholding Obligations") is approximately $207,657, approximately $170,202 of which will come due during the Interim Period. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to forward to the appropriate third-party recipients, consistent with historical practice, any unremitted Withholding Obligations and to continue to honor the Withholding Obligations in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.[5]

(iv) Reimbursable Expenses

36. The Debtors reimburse certain expenses (collectively, the "Reimbursable Expenses"). The Reimbursable Expenses include (i) the Employee Reimbursable Expenses, (ii) the Employee Credit Card Reimbursements, (iii) Relocation Expenses, and (iv) Education Benefit Program Expenses. In aggregate, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $828,129 in Reimbursable Expenses as of the Petition Date, approximately $772,579 of which will come due and owing in the Interim Period.

a. Employee Reimbursable Expenses

37. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors reimburse certain Employees for reasonable and customary business expenses incurred in the scope of their employment (the "Employee Reimbursable Expenses"). Employee Reimbursable Expenses, include, but are not limited to, expenses arising typically from transportation, lodging, and dining that are incurred in connection with business travel. The Debtors seek authority to continue reimbursing Employees

[5] Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have sought authority, but not direction, to pay certain prepetition taxes, assessments, fees, and other charges in the ordinary course of business pursuant to the Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to Pay Certain Prepetition Taxes and Fees, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Taxes Motion"). By this Motion, the Debtors do not seek authority to pay prepetition claims that may be covered by the relief sought in the Taxes Motion.

for Employee Reimbursable Expenses in the ordinary course of business and to honor any outstanding obligations related to the Employee Reimbursable Expenses, including paying any administrative fees related thereto. In the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors reimbursed, on average, approximately $415,847 in Employee Reimbursable Expenses each month. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $415,847 in Employee Reimbursable Expenses remain outstanding, all of which could become due and payable during the Interim Period.

b. Employee Credit Card Reimbursements

38. The Debtors provide certain Employees with corporate credit cards (the "Corporate Credit Cards"), which Employees can use to make work-related purchases. Approximately 14 Employees have been issued Corporate Credit Cards, each of which were issued to these Employees in their own names. For Domestic Employees, the charges on Corporate Credit Cards are charged directly to the Debtors and paid by the Debtors at regular intervals. International Employees holding Corporate Credit Cards, however, are personally responsible for making payments on their Corporate Credit Cards, and may seek reimbursement from the Debtors for these payments.[6] Employees may also seek reimbursement for work-related purchases charged to their personal credit cards (together with the Corporate Credit Cards, the "Employee Credit Cards"), by submitting expense reports.

39. On average, the Debtors pay approximately $339,412 each month on account of Reimbursable Expenses charged to Employee Credit Cards (the "Employee Credit Card Reimbursements"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $339,412 on account of Employee Credit Card Reimbursements, approximately all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

c. Relocation Expenses

40. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors also pay certain expenses incurred by Employees who are required to relocate in connection with their employment (the "Relocation Expenses"). The majority of Relocation Expenses are either reimbursed to the Employees or directly billed to the Debtors by the Debtors' relocation provider. The Relocation Expenses include, but are not limited to, costs associated with the transportation of household goods, temporary living accommodations and travel to the new destination.

41. On an average annual basis, the Debtors spend approximately $8,706 on account of Relocation Expenses. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there are no unpaid amounts on account of Relocation Expenses.

d. Education Benefit Program Expenses

42. The Debtors also maintain an education reimbursement plan (the "Education Reimbursement Plan") to encourage both Domestic and International Employees to participate and complete relevant education programs. Under the Education Reimbursement Plan offered to Domestic Employees, for example, eligible Employees who work at least thirty (30) hours per week may have qualifying education expenses reimbursed up to $5,250 per calendar year. Further, the Debtors maintain a scholarship program for the children of Employees who plan to continue education in undergraduate, graduate, or vocational school programs (the "Scholarship Program" and together with the Education Reimbursement Plan, the "Education Benefit Programs"). The Debtors offer twenty scholarships through the Scholarship Program each academic year, each valued at $2,500.

43. On an average annual basis, the Debtors spend approximately $173,000 on account of the Education Benefit Programs. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $72,870 on account of the Education Benefit Programs, approximately $17,320 of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

B. Employee Benefit Programs

44. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors offer certain Employees various benefits programs, including the Health and Welfare Programs and Paid Leave (each as defined herein and, collectively, the "Employee Benefits Programs"). By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to continue to administer the Employee Benefits Programs in the ordinary course of business and to pay any prepetition obligations owed on account of the Employee Benefits Programs.

(i) Health and Welfare Programs

45. The Debtors offer several health and welfare benefits programs to eligible Employees, including the Health Insurance Programs, the Life Insurance and Disability Programs, and the 401(k) Plan (each as defined herein and, collectively, the "Health and Welfare Programs"). In addition, the Debtors pay certain routine administrative fees to third-party service providers in connection with administering the Health and Welfare Programs.

a. Health Insurance Programs

46. Certain Employees are eligible to participate in a number of the Health and Welfare Programs, including the Medical Plans, the FSA, the Vision Plans, and the Dental Plans (each as defined herein and, collectively, the "Health Insurance Programs"). The Debtors share the cost of Health Insurance Program premiums with the Employees. Employee contributions to the Health Insurance Programs are deducted from each Employee's paycheck on a pre-tax basis.

47. The Debtors offer medical and prescription drug benefit programs (the "Medical Plans") to certain Employees. The Medical Plans offered to Domestic Employees are administered by United HealthCare Services, Inc. (the "Domestic Medical Plan Administrator"). International Employees are offered Medical Plans from various providers, including Medavie Blue Cross in Canada, the British United Provident Association Limited ("BUPA") in the United Kingdom, and the Voluntary Health Insurance Board in Ireland (collectively, the "International Plan Administrators" and, together with the Domestic Medical Plan Administrator, the "Medical Plan Administrators"). The coverage in the Medical Plans differs depending on the level of coverage an Employee elects to receive, and monthly health care premiums differ depending on the Medical Plan in which an Employee is enrolled and whether the Employee has dependents covered by the applicable Medical Plan. The total cost of the Medical Plans, including administrative fees and the cost of paying associated claims, is approximately $1,541,577 per month.

48. In total, the Debtors pay administrative fees and premiums to the Medical Plan Administrators (the "Medical Plan Administrative Fees") of approximately $141,577 per month. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $141,577 in Medical Plan Administrative Fees, all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period. Of this amount, approximately $70,000 is owed to the Domestic Medical Plan Administrator and approximately $71,577 is owed to the International Plan Administrators.

49. The Debtors spend approximately $1,400,000 per month on medical and prescription drug claims asserted under the Medical Plans (collectively, the "Medical Claims"). The Debtors make payments on account of the Medical Claims on a weekly basis. On average, Employees submit Medical Claims approximately ninety (90) days after incurring the relevant medical expenses, and thus the Debtors are unable to ascertain with certainty the prepetition amounts due and outstanding on account of the Medical Claims. Based on historical trends, the Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $350,000 on account of prepetition Medical Claims asserted by Domestic Employees, all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period. Further, because the Medical Plans available to International Employees are fully insured plans, there are no Medical Claims associated with such plans that will become due and payable by the Debtors during the Interim Period.

50. Domestic Employees may contribute a portion of their compensation into a flexible spending account (the "FSA") administered by Benefit Resources, Inc. The proceeds of an FSA may be used for incidental medical expenses, and eligible Domestic Employees may make contributions regardless of whether they are enrolled in one of the Debtors' offered Medical Plans. Participating Employees can make pre-tax payroll contributions to the FSA up to $2,700 annually to cover any non-reimbursed medical expenses. Currently, approximately 462 Employees contribute to FSAs. The Debtors pay a monthly administration fee to Benefit Resources, Inc. of approximately $1,500 on account of the FSA's. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $1,500 in FSA administrative fees, approximately all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

51. Certain of the Debtors' Employees are eligible to participate in vision insurance plans (the "Vision Plans"). The Medical Plans offered to both Domestic Employees and International Employees include Vision Plans administered by the applicable Medical Plan Administrator at no additional cost to participating Employees. Accordingly, there is no additional cost to the Debtors on account of the Vision Plans offered to the Employees.

52. Similarly, the Debtors offer certain of their Employees the option to participate in dental insurance plans (the "Dental Plans"), which Dental Plans are administered by Delta Dental Plans Association for Domestic Employees, Cigna Dental for Employees in the United Kingdom, and by the respective Medical Plan Administrators for all other International Employees (collectively, the "Dental Plan Administrators"). The total cost of the Dental Plans to the Debtors is approximately $74,000 per month.

53. The Debtors pay administrative fees of approximately $6,000 per month on account of the Dental Plans. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $6,000 on account of administrative fees related to the Dental Plans, all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period. The Debtors also spend approximately $68,000 per month on dental claims asserted under the Dental Plans (collectively, the "Dental Claims"). The Debtors make payments on account of the Dental Claims on a monthly basis. On average, Employees submit claims approximately ninety (90) days after incurring the relevant dental expenses, and thus the Debtors are unable to ascertain with certainty the prepetition amounts due and outstanding on account of Dental Claims. Based on historical trends, the Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they owe approximately $68,000 on account of prepetition Dental Claims, all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

54. The Debtors offer an opt-out incentive for certain Employees that may have access to medical coverage outside of their employment with the Debtors (the "Opt-Out Incentive"). Accordingly, the Debtors offer an annualized stipend of $1,500 for any Employee that elects to waive participation in the Health Insurance Programs, which is provided at a rate of $62.50 per semi-monthly pay period. In the twelve months prior to the Petition Date, amounts owed to Employees that have chosen to participate in the Opt-Out Incentive amounted to approximately $210,000, or approximately $18,400 per month. Accordingly, the Debtors estimate that approximately $18,400 will come due and owing on account of the Opt-Out Incentive during the Interim Period.

55. In sum, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that the amount of accrued but unpaid obligations under the Health Insurance Programs, including administrative fees, is approximately $585,477, all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

b. Life Insurance and Disability Programs

(1) Life and AD&D Insurance Programs

56. The Debtors provide combined life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance coverage (the "Basic Life and AD&D Insurance") to Domestic Employees through Symetra Life and Disability Company (the "Life Insurance Program Administrator"). International Employees receive Basic Life and AD&D Insurance through various providers, including RBC Life Insurance Co. in Canada, Canada Life Group Assurance in the United Kingdom, and New Ireland Insurance in Ireland. The Basic Life and AD&D Insurance offered by the Debtors provides coverage of up to $300,000 in the event of an Employee's death or dismemberment for Domestic Employees, and up to $1,113,480 for International Employees. Current Domestic Employees also may purchase supplemental life insurance and voluntary accidental death and dismemberment insurance (together with the Basic Life and AD&D Insurance, the "Life and AD&D Insurance Program") to cover themselves, their spouses, and their children through the Life Insurance Program Administrator. The total cost of the Life and AD&D Insurance Program is approximately $8,000 each month, with the entire amount being paid by the Debtors at no cost to Employees. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $8,000 on account of the Life and AD&D Insurance Program, all of which will come due and owing in the Interim period.

57. In addition, the Debtors provide business travel accident insurance (the "BTA Insurance") to certain of their Employees through Federal Insurance Company. The total cost of the BTA Insurance is covered by the Debtors' premium payments made under the Life and AD&D Insurance Program. Accordingly, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they do not owe any amounts on account of the BTA Insurance.

(2) Short-Term Disability Benefits

58. The Debtors provide certain Employees with short-term disability benefits (the "Short-Term Disability Benefits"). All benefits-eligible employees receive Short-Term Disability Benefits without cost. The Debtors' Short-Term Disability Benefits provides income replacement of 70% of an Employee's regular pay for up to 12 weeks, as approved by the applicable carrier, with a maximum benefit of $2,500 per week. Currently, approximately 8 Employees receive Short-Term Disability Benefits. In the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $5,100 per month on account of administrative fees and premiums with respect to the Short-Term Disability Benefits. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe de minimis amounts on account of the Short-Term Disability Benefits.

(3) Long-Term Disability Insurance

59. All benefits-eligible Employees participate in long-term disability insurance plans (the "Long-Term Disability Insurance Plans" and, together with the Life and AD&D Insurance Program and the Short-Term Disability Benefits, the "Life Insurance and Disability Programs"). Employees have the option to elect to pay the premium for an applicable Long-Term Disability Insurance Plans in order to receive tax free benefit payments in the event of a claim. If such Employee does not elect to pay the premium, the Debtors pay such premium on their behalf. The total cost of the Long-Term Disability Insurance Plans is approximately $16,000 per month, which is fully covered by premiums paid by participating Employees.

c. Retirement Plans

60. The Debtors offer eligible Domestic Employees the opportunity to participate in a 401(k) plan (the "401(k) Plan"). Domestic Employees who participate in the 401(k) Plan can make pre-tax payroll contributions to their 401(k) accounts up to the maximum amount permitted by the IRS. Each Domestic Employee's 401(k) contributions are deducted automatically from their paychecks. The Debtors match a Domestic Employee's 401(k) contributions on a discretionary basis, with a maximum matching contribution of a total of $4,000 annually per participating employee (the "401(k) Contributions"). Generally, the 401(k) Contributions are made by the Debtors each pay period, with a single true-up payment made, to the extent necessary, at the end of the fiscal year. On an average annual basis, the Debtors spend approximately $3,000,000 on account of 401(k) Contributions. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe that they owe approximately $36,805 with respect to their 401(k) Contributions, all of which will come due and owing in the Interim Period.

61. The 401(k) Plan is administered by Empower Retirement. The Debtors generally do not incur costs to Empower Retirement on account of the 401(k) Plan, as plan administrative and investment fees are embedded into each participating Employee's individual account and paid for by such Employees. As such, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts on account of administrative fees in connection with the 401(k) Plan.

62. The Debtors offer similar retirement benefit programs to eligible International Employees (collectively, the "International Retirement Benefit Programs" and together with the 401(k) Plan, the "Retirement Plans"). For Canadian employees, for example, the Debtors offer a Structured Retirement Savings Plan, pursuant to which the Debtors contribute an amount equal to 50% of an Employees' contributions to the program up to a maximum of 3% of such Employee's annual earnings. International Employees in Ireland and the United Kingdom similarly participate in pension schemes, administered by LifeSight and Aviva, respectively, pursuant to which the Debtors match Employee program contributions up to a stated cap. As with the 401(k) Plan, the Debtors pay no administrative fees in connection with the International Retirement Benefit Programs. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe that they owe approximately $7,273 with respect to the International Retirement Benefit Programs, all of which will come due and owing in the Interim Period.

63. In the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $320,000 per month on account of the Retirement Plans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $44,078 on account of the Retirement Plans, approximately all of which will come due during the Interim Period.

(ii) Paid Leave

64. The Debtors maintain a policy for providing Employees paid leave in the form of Paid Time Off (as defined herein) and certain other paid leave (collectively, the "Paid Leave").

65. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide paid time off ("Paid Time Off") to certain Employees, which may be used for any reason. Paid Time Off generally accrues at specified rates up to a maximum amount based on the Employee's level, area of employment, and length of employment. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that their Employees have accrued Paid Time Off with a value of approximately $2,506,051 in the aggregate. This amount, however, is not a current cash payment obligation. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to pay any "cash out" amounts due with respect to earned but unused Paid Time Off as it may come due and payable and to continue administering the Paid Time Off policies in the ordinary course of business.

66. In addition, the Debtors provide certain other forms of Paid Leave, including:

(a) non-statutory sick pay;

(b) paid holidays throughout the year for certain Employees;

(c) paid Leave for religious observance; and

(d) other Paid Leave for personal reasons, many of which are required by law, including statutory sick leave, workers' compensation leave, missed work time in the ordinary course of business for bereavement leave, jury or court attendance, and time spent voting.

These other forms of Paid Leave do not involve incremental cash outlays beyond standard payroll obligations.

67. The Debtors believe that the continuation of the Paid Leave policies in accordance with prior practice is essential to maintaining positive Employee morale during these chapter 11 cases. Further, the policies are broad-based programs upon which all Employees have come to depend. The Debtors anticipate that their Employees will utilize any accrued Paid Leave in the ordinary course of business, which will not create any material cash flow requirements beyond the Debtors' regular payroll obligations.

(iii) Non-Insider Severance

68. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors offer severance packages for the benefit of certain terminated non-Insider Employees (the "Non-Insider Severance Program"). Certain Employees are eligible, on either a contractual or discretionary basis, to receive severance benefits if such non-Insider Employees are terminated due to a workforce adjustment or any not-for-cause reason. Pursuant to the Non-Insider Severance Program, eligible Employees, upon termination, are entitled to receive payments, as well as any cash benefits to which they were entitled under their employment agreements within a contractually designated period (the "Non-Insider Severance Benefits"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately twelve (12) individuals may assert prepetition claims against the Debtors for Non-Insider Severance Benefits under the Non-Insider Severance Program (the "Severance Claims").

69. The Debtors' ability to pay and provide discretionary severance amounts and other benefits has been critical to maintaining positive Employee morale and loyalty. Further, certain International Employees hold Severance Claims arising from their termination from Skillsoft U.K. Limited that will come due during these chapter 11 cases. Delaying payment of these claims until the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 may expose the Debtors to the risk of defending an action for damages in the United Kingdom. Increased instability in the Debtors' Workforce will only undermine the Debtors' ability to strengthen their financial and operational foundation, generate growth, and position themselves for long-term success. The Debtors believe that the Non-Insider Severance Program reduces the time and expense that the Debtors otherwise would spend defending against the assertion of claims, including claims asserted in foreign jurisdictions that may not be subject to the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, by severed Employees.

70. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $187,175 on account of the Non-Insider Severance Program, approximately $86,724 of which will come due and owing in the Interim Period. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to continue the Non-Insider Severance Program and make limited payments thereunder in the ordinary course as they come due, in an amount totaling approximately $86,724 in the Interim Period. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors do not seek authority to pay any obligations in excess of the 507(a)(4) priority cap.

(iv) Redundancy Benefits

71. The Debtors are required under certain foreign jurisdictions to provide benefit payments to International Employees who are terminated under certain circumstances (the "Redundancy Benefits"). Failure to honor the Redundancy Benefits could result in director liability and other penalties to the Debtors. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not owe any amounts to former International Employees on account of Redundancy Benefits, and the Debtors believe they are authorized to continue providing Redundancy Benefits in the ordinary course of business. Out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors seek authority to continue paying the Redundancy Benefits on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices and any prepetition amounts that may be outstanding as of the Petition Date.

(v) Other Employee Benefit Programs

72. In addition to the foregoing, the Debtors have certain other practices and policies that provide benefits to their Employees (collectively, the "Other Employee Benefit Programs"), such as an employee cell phone service plan (the "Employee Phone Program") and an employee vehicle allowance program for certain International Employees (the "Employee Vehicle Allowance Program"). Under the Employee Phone Program, the Debtors purchase cell phones and cell phone service plans for use by certain employees in connection with their employment with the Debtors. Similarly, under the Employee Vehicle Allowance Program, approximately thirty-six (36) Employees at Skillsoft U.K. Limited and three (3) Employees at Skillsoft Ireland Limited receive a monthly allowance towards covering certain costs associated with those Employees using their personal vehicle for business reasons.

73. The Debtors intend to continue and honor such practices, programs, and policies after the Petition Date, and such practices, programs, and policies may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time in the ordinary course of the Debtor's operations, but solely to the extent consistent with the terms of the Prepackaged Plan. On an average annual basis, the Debtors spend approximately $884,796 on account of the Other Employee Benefit Programs. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $72,196 on account of the Other Employee Benefit Programs, approximately all of which will become due and payable during the Interim Period.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

A. Payment of Obligations on Account of Compensation and Benefits Programs Is Warranted Under Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and Doctrine of Necessity

74. A bankruptcy court may authorize a debtor to pay certain prepetition obligations pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Section 363(b) provides, in pertinent part, that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." To approve the use of assets outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (internal citations omitted); accord In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987).

75. In addition, the Court has the authority, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to authorize the relief requested herein, because such relief is necessary for the Debtors to carry out their fiduciary duties under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code "contains an implied duty of the debtor-in-possession" to "protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value," on behalf of a debtor's creditors and other parties in interest. In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)); see also Unofficial Comm. of Equity Holders v. McManigle (In re Penick Pharm., Inc.), 227 B.R. 229, 232–33 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) ("[U]pon filing its petition, the Debtor became debtor in possession and, through its management . . . was burdened with the duties and responsibilities of a bankruptcy trustee.").

76. Further, in a long line of well-established cases, courts consistently have permitted payment of prepetition obligations where such payment is necessary to preserve or enhance the value of a debtor's estate for the benefit of all creditors. See, e.g., Miltenberger v. Logansport, C&S W.R. Co., 106 U.S. 286, 312 (1882) (holding that the payment of pre-receivership claim that arose prior to a reorganization should be permitted to prevent "stoppage of the continuance of [crucial] business relations"); In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981) (holding that "if payment of a claim which arose prior to reorganization is essential to the continued operation of the . . . [business] during reorganization, payment may be authorized even if it is made out of [the] corpus"); Dudley v. Mealey, 147 F.2d 268, 271 (2d Cir. 1945) (extending the doctrine permitting the payment of prepetition claims beyond railroad reorganization cases), cert. denied 325 U.S. 873 (1945); Mich. Bureau of Workers' Disability Comp. v. Chateaugay Corp. (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 80 B.R. 279, 285–86 (S.D.N.Y. 1987)

(approving a lower court order that authorized payment of prepetition wages, salaries, expenses, and benefits).

77. In addition, the Court may rely on the doctrine of necessity and its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize the payment of prepetition claims when such payment is essential to the continued operation of a debtor's business. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, 242 B.R. 821, 824–25 (D. Del. 1999) (holding that section 105(a) of Bankruptcy Code provides a statutory basis for the payment of prepetition claims under the doctrine of necessity particularly when such payment is necessary for the debtor's survival during a chapter 11 case); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (confirming that the doctrine of necessity is a standard that enables a court to authorize payment of prepetition claims prior to the confirmation of a reorganization plan).

78. The relief requested by this Motion represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, and is justified under sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Authorizing the Debtors to pay prepetition amounts related to the Compensation and Benefits Programs is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their economic stakeholders. Indeed, without the relief requested herein, the Debtors' Employees may seek alternative opportunities, perhaps with the Debtors' competitors. The loss of valuable Employees, who are the lifeblood of the Debtors' operations, would deplete the Debtors' Workforce and thereby hinder the Debtors' ability to meet customer demands. Such an outcome would diminish stakeholder confidence in the Debtors' ability to successfully carry out their chapter 11 strategy and to continue operating as a going-concern.

79. Additionally, failure to satisfy the prepetition obligations in connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs will adversely impact Employee morale and loyalty at a time of perceived uncertainty in light of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors believe that the majority of their Employees rely exclusively or primarily on the compensation and benefits they receive in connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs to meet their daily living needs. Employees will be exposed to significant financial difficulties and other distractions if the Debtors are not permitted to honor their obligations in connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs. Furthermore, if the Court does not authorize the Debtors to honor their various obligations under the Health Insurance Programs, and the Life Insurance and Disability Programs, Employees will not receive appropriate coverage and, thus, may become obligated to pay certain healthcare-related claims in cases where the Debtors have not paid the respective providers. The loss of such coverage will result in considerable anxiety for Employees (and likely attrition) at a time when the Debtors need such Employees to perform at peak efficiency. Employee attrition would cause the Debtors to incur additional expenses to find appropriate and experienced replacements, severely disrupting the Debtors' operations at a critical juncture.

80. Moreover, certain of the obligations under the Compensation and Benefits Programs are entitled to priority treatment under sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, under section 507(a)(4)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, claims of employees for "wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation, severance, and sick leave pay" earned within 180 days before the Petition Date are afforded priority unsecured status up to $13,650 per individual. 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(4)(A). Thus, virtually all the Compensation obligations are priority claims that, in any event, will have to be paid in full. Accordingly, the Debtors request entry of the proposed Interim Order authorizing the Debtors to pay Compensation in an aggregate amount not to exceed the Interim Amount subject to the $13,650 cap, followed by the final hearing on this Motion authorizing the Debtors to pay all other outstanding Compensation obligations.

81. Further, no party in interest will be prejudiced by the relief requested by this Motion because all claims asserted under the Compensation and Benefits Programs are unimpaired under the Prepackaged Plan and will be paid in full. Thus, the relief requested herein seeks to alter only the timing, not the amount or priority, of such payments.

82. Finally, payment of the Payroll Processing Fees and the other administrative fees in connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs also is necessary. Without the continued services of the Payroll Processors, the Medical Plan Administrator, and the Life Insurance Program Administrator, among others, the Debtors will be unable to continue to honor their obligations to Employees in an efficient and cost-effective manner and maintain their employee base, both of which are critical to the smooth functioning of the Debtors' operations.

B. Payment of Certain Obligations in Connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs Is Required by Law

83. The Debtors seek authority to remit the Withholding Obligations to the appropriate third parties. These amounts principally represent Employee earnings that governments, judicial authorities, and Employees themselves have designated for deduction from their paychecks. Indeed, certain Deductions, including contributions to the Health and Welfare Programs and child support and alimony payments, are not property of the Debtors' estates because they have been withheld from Employees' paychecks on another party's behalf. See 11 U.S.C. § 541(b) ("Property in which the debtor holds, as of the commencement of the case, only legal title and not an equitable interest . . . becomes property of the estate . . . only to the extent of the debtor's legal title to such property, but not to the extent of any equitable interest in such property that the debtor does not hold"). Further, federal, state and foreign laws require the Debtors and their officers to make certain tax payments that have been withheld from their Employees' paychecks. See 26 U.S.C. § 6672, 7501(a); see also City of Farrell v. Sharon Steel Corp., 41 F.3d 92, 95–97 (3d Cir. 1994) (finding that a state law requiring a corporate debtor to withhold city income tax from its employees' wages created a trust relationship between debtor and the city for payment of withheld income taxes); In re Am. Int'l Airways, Inc., 70 B.R. 102, 103 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987) (holding that funds held in trust for federal excise and withholding taxes are not property of a debtor's estate); DuCharmes & Co., Inc. v. Michigan (In re DuCharmes & Co.), 852 F.2d 194, 196 (6th Cir. 1988) (noting that individual officers of a company may be held personally liable for failure to pay trust fund taxes). Because the Deductions and Payroll Taxes are not property of the Debtors' estates, the Debtors request that the Court authorize them to transmit the Deductions and Payroll Taxes to the proper parties in the ordinary course of business.

C. Continuation of the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs and the Non-Insider Severance Program Does Not Implicate Section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code

84. The Debtors request authority to continue the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs and the Non-Insider Severance Program. Neither the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs nor the Non-Insider Severance Program implicate sections 503(c)(1) or 503(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code because no payments thereunder will be made to Insiders. See 11 U.S.C. § 503(c)(1)–(2).

85. As discussed herein, the Debtors have substantial business justification for continuing the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs and the Non-Insider Severance Program in the ordinary course of business, including (i) maintaining Employee morale, (ii) disincentivizing Employees to pursue other employment opportunities, and (iii) reassuring Employees that the Debtors intend to honor their obligations to Employees—both during and after their tenure with the Debtors. Further, former-International Employees entitled to severance payments under the Non-Insider Severance Program may not be familiar with the chapter 11 process, and absent the relief sought herein, may seek remedies against the Debtors within the United Kingdom for Severance Claims that come due during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. Given the potential harm and expense associated with participating in such proceedings in a foreign jurisdiction, the relatively small amounts to be made on account of the Severance Claims in the Interim Period, and that such claims are unimpaired and entitled to payment in full under the Prepackaged Plan, the Debtors believe payment of the Severance Claims as provided for herein is in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest.

86. Courts in this jurisdiction have permitted debtors to maintain their prepetition employee incentive programs during the pendency of chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re PhaseRx, Ch. 11 Case No. 17-12890 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 2, 2018); In re Real Indus., Ch. 11 Case No. 17-12464 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 19, 2017). Courts in this jurisdiction also have permitted debtors to continue existing severance programs and pay severance obligations that become due in the ordinary course to non-Insider employees who are terminated postpetition. See, e.g., In re TK Holdings Inc., Ch. 11 Case No. 17-11375 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 26, 2017); In re Aspect Software Parent, Inc., Ch. 11 Case No. 16-10597 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. April 1, 2016); In re RCS Capital Corporation, Ch. 11 Case No. 16-10223 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 23, 2016).

87. The Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs and the Non-Insider Severance Program do not implicate section 503(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code because they were commenced within the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. Cf. 11 U.S.C. § 503(c)(3) (prohibiting certain payments "outside of the ordinary course of business"). If section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not implicated, the Court may grant the requested relief if it finds that the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs and the Non-Insider Severance Program satisfy the requirements of section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Mesa Air Group, Inc., Ch. 11 Case No. 10-10018 (MG), 2010 WL 3810899, at *3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 24, 2010) (noting that compensation plans commenced within the ordinary course of business are governed by section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, not section 503(c)).

88. For the reasons stated, continuation of the Non-Insider Employee Incentive Programs and the Non-Insider Severance Program—like all of the relief sought in this Motion—is critical and necessary to assuage Employee fears and motivate them to achieve the Debtors' chapter 11 objectives. Accordingly, the requested relief should be approved.

D. Cause Exists to Authorize Debtors' Financial Institutions to Honor Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers

89. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts on account of the Compensation and Benefits Programs in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations and anticipated access to cash collateral and debtor-in-possession financing. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to an authorized payment in respect of the Compensation and Benefits Programs. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently and that the Court should authorize the Banks, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested herein, solely to the extent that the Debtors have sufficient funds standing to their credit with such Banks, and such Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

Reservation of Rights

90. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

91. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after the filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). As described above, the Debtors' failure to honor their obligations in connection with the Compensation and Benefits Programs would cause severe personal hardship to the Debtors' Workforce and likely would result in attrition at a time when the Debtors need their Workforce to perform at peak efficiency. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and (h)

92. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

93. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. Bateman, Esq.); (vi) counsel to WSFS, in its capacity as Second Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. As this Motion is seeking "first day" relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered in respect of the Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Orders granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

Credit Documents (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the "DIP Documents") to incur the postpetition financing (the "DIP Financing") in an aggregate principal amount of $60 million (the "DIP Facility" and the loans borrowed thereunder, the "DIP Loans"), including with respect to an interim withdrawal of up to $30 million prior to entry of the Final Order, and (b) use the Cash Collateral (as such term is defined in section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code); (ii) granting adequate protection to prepetition secured parties as provided herein; (iii) granting liens and superpriority claims; (iv) modifying the automatic stay; (v) scheduling a hearing to consider the relief requested herein on a final basis (the "Final Hearing"); and (vi) granting related relief.

In support of this Motion, the Debtors submit (i) the Declaration of Christopher A. Wilson in Support of Motion of Debtors for Entry of Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Senior Secured Superpriority Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Parties, (III) Granting Liens and Superpriority Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Wilson Declaration") and (ii) the Declaration of John Frederick in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "First Day Declaration" and, together with the Wilson Declaration, the "Declarations") and incorporated herein by reference. The Debtors' initial budget (the "Initial Approved Budget") reflecting their anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

Preliminary Statement

1. The Debtors have negotiated a comprehensive, prenegotiated consensual restructuring (the "Restructuring") supported by each of their major creditor constituencies. This comprehensive Restructuring was memorialized in that certain Restructuring Support Agreement dated as of June 12, 2020, annexed to the First Day Declaration as Exhibit B (the "Restructuring Support Agreement") by and between the Company and lenders, or investment advisors or managers for the account of lenders, representing approximately 81% in value of the Company's First Lien Debt and approximately 84% in value of the Second Lien Debt. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authorization to obtain the DIP Financing, which is backstopped by certain of the Debtors' First Lien Lenders, and approval of their entry into the DIP Credit Agreement and the DIP Documents.

2. As described herein, and as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Financing provides the Debtors with (i) reasonable pricing, (ii) necessary liquidity, and (iii) customary budget covenants. In addition, the Debtors' proposed DIP Financing permits the Debtors to use Cash Collateral with the support of the prepetition secured lenders to see the Debtors' through their prepackaged chapter 11 cases. The DIP Financing and use of Cash Collateral are critical to ensure the Debtors' smooth entry into chapter 11 and their ability to operate their business prudently during the pendency of these prepackaged chapter 11 cases for the benefit of their stakeholders. The DIP Financing will provide sufficient liquidity to fund these chapter 11 cases and the Debtors' operations, and will demonstrate to the market that the Debtors are poised for a successful reorganization. In addition to the foregoing reasons, several compelling reasons justify the relief requested herein:

3. The Debtors' Estates Will Suffer Immediate and Irreparable Harm Without the Requested Relief: The Debtors are entering chapter 11 with very limited cash on hand and immediate access to the DIP Financing and Cash Collateral is thereby critical to ensure the Debtors' smooth entry into chapter 11 and ability to prudently operate their businesses during the pendency of these prepackaged chapter 11 cases. The Debtors believe the commencement of these chapter 11 cases will place increased demands on liquidity due to, among other things, the costs of administering these chapter 11 cases and potential unforeseen impacts on the Debtors' operations and working capital needs that may result from the filing. The Debtors therefore submit that the requested relief is necessary to avoid the immediate and irreparable harm that would otherwise result if the Debtors are denied the vital liquidity that would be provided through their proposed interim borrowings and use of Cash Collateral.

4. The Proposed DIP Financing Results From Vigorous and Arm's Length Negotiations: The Debtors, with assistance from experienced financial and legal advisors, engaged with the Consenting Creditors—who had long experience with the Debtors and familiarity with their businesses—to provide DIP financing. Negotiations with the proposed DIP Lenders (as defined below) were conducted at arm's-length and were iterative and rigorous. The successful nature of this process is demonstrated by the terms of the DIP Facility and the Debtors' prepackaged chapter 11 cases. The Debtors believe the DIP Facility provides sufficient liquidity with customary budget-based restrictions, all at reasonable rates and with market fees. Importantly, the Debtors propose a limited, initial draw of $30 million on the terms as described herein.

5. The Proposed DIP Financing Sends a Strong and Vital Message to the Market: The Debtors expect that vendors, customers, employees, and other stakeholders will be highly focused on whether these prepackaged chapter 11 cases are appropriately funded to maximize the greatest possibility of success. In addition to the holistic support of the Debtors' creditors, as demonstrated by the execution of the Restructuring Support Agreement, access to DIP Financing will provide a strong message to the Debtors' customers, vendors, customers, and competitors that these prepackaged chapter 11 cases are well-funded and that the Debtors are likely to successfully reorganize within the milestones set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement.

6. The Proposed DIP Lenders Have Proceeded in Good Faith: The DIP Financing proposal was reviewed and analyzed by both the Debtors and their experienced professionals. As further detailed in the Declarations, the Debtors' negotiations with the prospective DIP Lenders and their advisors were conducted at arm's-length, with the assistance of the Debtors' advisors.

Jurisdiction

7. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

    - fully-perfected first priority, senior priming lien on, and security interest in all DIP Collateral comprising the Prepetition Collateral;
    - junior liens on any Prepetition Collateral subject to Existing Senior Liens; and
    - superpriority administrative expense claims (the "Superpriority DIP Claims").

    - superpriority claims as provided for in section 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code that will have a priority in payment over any and all administrative expenses of the kinds (except the Superpriority DIP Claims) specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Protection Super Priority Claims"); and

    - the payment of all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses payable to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group, whether incurred pre- or post-petition.

Prepetition Capital Structure

11. As of the Petition Date, the Company's prepetition capital structure consists of approximately $2.1 billion in total funded debt, made up of: (i) a first lien term loan facility in an original principal amount of $900 million and an incremental facility in an original principal amount of $465 million incurred on September 30, 2014, and under which approximately $1.29 billion of principal amount is outstanding; (ii) a first lien revolving credit facility in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $80 million, under which approximately $79.5 million of revolving loans are outstanding and letters of credit with an aggregate face amount of approximately $500,000 were issued; (iii) a second lien term loan facility in an original principal amount of $485 million and an in incremental facility in an original payment amount of $185 million incurred on September 30, 2014, and under which approximately $670 million of principal amount is outstanding (the foregoing (i)-(iii), collectively, the "Debtor Obligations"); and (iv) an up to $90 million accounts receivables-backed facility borrowed by non-Debtor Skillsoft Receivables Financing LLC (the "AR Borrower"), under which approximately $68 million is outstanding (the "Non-Debtor Obligations" and, (i)-(iv), collectively, the "Funded Debt Obligations"). The Funded Debt Obligations are summarized in more detail below:

A. Debtor Obligations

1. First Lien Debt

12. On April 28, 2014, certain of the Debtors, among others, entered into that certain First Lien Credit Agreement (as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "First Lien Credit Agreement") by and among (i) Evergreen Skills Intermediate Lux S.à r.l., a private limited liability company, incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 8, rue Notre-Dame, L-2240 Luxembourg, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and registered with the Luxembourg Trade and Companies Register under number B 186.054 ("Holdings"); (ii) Evergreen Skills Lux S.à r.l., a private limited liability company, incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 8, rue Notre-Dame, L-2240 Luxembourg, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and registered with the Luxembourg Trade and Companies Register under number B 185.790 (the "Lux Borrower"), Skillsoft Canada Ltd., a New Brunswick corporation (the "Canadian Borrower" or "Skillsoft Canada"), and Skillsoft (the "U.S. Borrower" and, collectively with the Lux Borrower and the Canadian Borrower, the "First Lien Borrowers"), as borrowers; (iii) the various lenders from time to time party thereto (collectively, the "First Lien Lenders"); and (iv) Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB ("WSFS") (as successor agent to Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays")), as administrative and collateral agent (in such capacity, the "First Lien Agent"), pursuant to which the First Lien Lenders agreed to provide the First Lien Borrowers with the First Lien Term Loan Facility and the First Lien Revolving Credit Facility (each, as defined below). As of the Petition Date, an aggregate principal amount of approximately $1.29 billion was outstanding under the First Lien Credit Agreement (the "First Lien Debt"). The First Lien Borrowers' obligations under the First Lien Credit Agreement are guaranteed by certain subsidiaries of the Company (collectively, the "Subsidiary Guarantors"), the First Lien Borrowers, and Holdings. The First Lien Debt is secured by a first-priority security interest in substantially all of the assets, subject to certain limitations and exclusions, of Holdings, the First Lien Borrowers, and the Subsidiary Guarantors. A description of each of the First Lien Term Loan Facility and the First Lien Revolving Facility are set forth below.

ix. The First Lien Term Loan Facility

13. Pursuant to the First Lien Credit Agreement, certain of the First Lien Lenders agreed to provide (i) on the original closing date the Lux Borrower and the U.S. Borrower with term loans in an original aggregate principal amount of $900 million and (ii) on September 30, 2014 an incremental $465 million of term loans (collectively, the "First Lien Term Loan Facility" and the loans thereunder, the "First Lien Term Loans"). The First Lien Term Loan Facility matures in April 2021. As of the Petition Date, an aggregate balance of approximately $1.29 billion in principal amount of First Lien Term Loans remains outstanding.

x. First Lien Revolving Credit Facility

14. Pursuant to the First Lien Credit Agreement, certain of the First Lien Lenders agreed to provide the First Lien Borrowers with revolving commitments in an aggregate principal amount of up to $100 million; the revolving commitments were subsequently reduced to $80 million (the "First Lien Revolving Facility" and the loans thereunder, the "First Lien Revolving Loans"). The First Lien Revolving Facility matures in October 2020. As of the Petition Date, an aggregate balance of approximately $79.5 million in principal amount of First Lien Revolving Loans remains outstanding and letters of credit with an aggregate face amount of approximately $500,000 were issued.

2. Second Lien Debt

15. On April 28, 2014, certain of the Debtors, among others, entered into that certain Second Lien Credit Agreement (as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Second Lien Credit Agreement") by and among (i) Holdings; (ii) the Lux Borrower and the U.S. Borrower, as borrowers (collectively, the "Second Lien Borrowers"); (iii) the various lenders from time to time party thereto (collectively, the "Second Lien Lenders", with the First Lien Lenders, the "Prepetition Secured Parties"), and WSFS (as successor agent to Barclays), as administrative and collateral agent (in such capacity, the "Second Lien Agent"), pursuant to which the Second Lien Lenders agreed to provide (i) on the original closing date, the Second Lien Borrowers with term loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $485 million and (ii) on September 30, 2014 an incremental $185 million of loans (the "Second Lien Term Loan Facility" and the loans thereunder, the "Second Lien Loans").

16. The Second Lien Term Loan Facility matures in April 2022. As of the Petition Date, an aggregate principal amount of approximately $670 million was outstanding under the Second Lien Credit Agreement (the "Second Lien Debt"). The Second Lien Borrowers' obligations under the Second Lien Credit Agreement are guaranteed by Holdings, the Second Lien Borrowers, and the Subsidiary Guarantors. The Second Lien Debt is secured by a second-priority security interest in substantially all of the assets, subject to certain limitations and exclusions, of Holdings, the Second Lien Borrowers, and the Subsidiary Guarantors, with such security interests junior in all respects to the First Lien Debt.

3. Intercreditor Agreement

17. The relative contractual rights of the holders of First Lien Debt, on the one hand, and the holders of Second Lien Debt, on the other hand, are governed by that certain First

Lien/Second Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of April 28, 2014 (as amended, supplemented, amended and restated or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Intercreditor Agreement"). The Intercreditor Agreement controls the rights and obligations of holders of First Lien Debt and Second Lien Debt with respect to, among other things, priority of security over collateral, matters of debtor-in-possession financing, the use of cash collateral, and adequate protection.

B. Non-Debtor Obligations

18. On December 20, 2018, the AR Borrower entered into that certain Credit Agreement (as may be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "AR Facility Agreement" and the facility provided thereunder, the "Existing AR Facility") by and between (i) the AR Borrower, as borrower; (ii) the lenders party thereto (collectively, the "AR Facility Lenders"); and (iii) CIT Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, collateral agent, and accounts bank (the "AR Facility Agent"). Pursuant to the AR Facility Agreement, the AR Facility Lenders agreed to provide the AR Borrower with revolving loans, subject to borrowing base availability, comprised of a Class A revolving line of credit up to $75 million and a Class B revolving line of credit up to $15 million. The Class B revolving line of credit was added to the AR Facility Agreement pursuant to that certain Amendment No. 2 to the AR Facility Agreement, entered into on September 9, 2019 to (i) upsize advance rates to 95% and (ii) allow for the implementation of an incremental $15 million tranche of subordinated debt under the AR Agreement.

19. The AR Borrower's obligations under the AR Facility Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets of the AR Borrower. Certain of the Debtors are "Originators" (as defined in the AR Facility Agreement) under the Existing AR Facility, originating receivables which are then sold to the AR Borrower. The Originators continue to service the receivables sold to the AR Borrower and remit to the AR Borrower the proceeds of such receivables collected. However, none of the Originators or other Debtors guaranteed the obligations in connection with the Existing AR Facility except in limited circumstances relating to a breach by such Originator of certain representations or warranties made in respect of the underlying receivables sold by such Originator. After giving effect to that certain Amendment No. 3 to the AR Facility Agreement, executed on June 12, 2020, the revolving period under the AR Facility Agreement is scheduled to terminate upon the earlier of (i) December 2023, (ii) the Effective Date, and (iii) the occurrence of certain other events specified under the AR Facility Agrement. As of the Petition Date, an aggregate principal amount of approximately $68 million was outstanding under the Existing AR Facility.

20. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement and Amendment No. 3 to the AR Facility Agreement (which amendment modified the AR Facility Agreement to allow for continued funding during the pendency of the chapter 11 cases), the Existing AR Facility shall remain in place and the AR Facility Lenders shall, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the AR Facility Agreement, continue to fund under the Existing AR Facility through consummation of the Plan. Additionally, pursuant to the Cooperation Agreement, the Class B Lenders remain obligated to and will continue to make credit extensions to the AR Borrower in the ordinary course through the Effective Date to the extent that the Class A Lenders continue to make credit extensions through the Effective Date. On the Effective Date, the AR Facility Agreement is contemplated to be amended and restated into an exit AR Facility Agreement (the "Exit AR Facility Agreement") in a principal amount of up to $75 million, secured on the same basis as the Existing AR Facility, on terms that are materially consistent with the AR Agreement; provided, however, that all provisions relating to the Class B Loans may be modified to remove the Class B revolving line of credit or to replace the Class B Lender. The Debtors are currently in negotiations with the AR Facility Agent regarding the terms of the Exit AR Facility Agreement.

Debtors' Liquidity Needs and Marketing Efforts

A. Debtors Have an Immediate Need to Use Cash Collateral and Obtain DIP Financing

21. The Debtors are entering chapter 11 with limited cash on hand and require access to the DIP Financing and authority to use Cash Collateral to ensure they have sufficient liquidity to operate their businesses and administer their estates during these chapter 11 cases. The DIP Facility will provide the Debtors with the liquidity necessary to, among other things, make payroll and satisfy their other working capital and general corporate purposes, including essential payments to vendors and service providers.

22. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors, in consultation with their professionals, reviewed and analyzed projected cash needs and prepared an initial analysis outlining the Debtors' postpetition cash need that would be reasonably required to complete the Debtors' prepackaged chapter 11 cases. This analysis included among other things, (i) the potential acceleration of demands on available liquidity; (ii) the availability to draw under the Existing AR Facility Agreement; and (iii) the potential impact of COVID-19. Based on the Debtors' analysis, the Debtors determined they would be unable to fund these chapter 11 cases based on Cash Collateral alone and would need incremental liquidity in the form of additional DIP financing. This analysis culminated in the Initial Approved Budget for the $60 million DIP Facility which was shared with the proposed DIP Lenders prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors believe that the Initial Approved Budget and its projections provide an accurate reflection of the Debtors' funding requirements over the identified period and are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.

23. The proposed DIP Financing is essential for sustaining the Company's global operations and business. The DIP Facility will provide the Debtors with the liquidity necessary to, among other things, make payroll and satisfy their other working capital and general corporate purposes. The DIP Facility will also authorize the Debtors to make payments to certain of the Debtors' prepetition creditors pursuant to the Debtors' "first day" motions thereby allowing these chapter 11 cases to proceed on a prepackaged basis. Allowing these cases to proceed on a fully consensual prepackaged basis will ultimately save the Debtors the costs of administering a longer chapter 11 case which would have otherwise increased the size of the Debtors' proposed DIP Facility. The DIP Facility will further provide assurance to the Debtors' customers, employees, stakeholders and business partners that the Debtors will continue operating "business as usual" and operations will not be disrupted by the commencement of these chapter 11 cases.

24. Absent the authority to enter into and access the DIP Financing, even for a limited period of time, the Debtors' will be unable to continue operating their business, which will cause irreparable harm to the Company and its stakeholders. The Debtors believe it is imperative that the Company sends a clear message to its business partners, employees, and customers that it will be well-capitalized during these chapter 11 cases. Any market perception that the Company will not be able to sustain itself through the bankruptcy process may result in the loss of key employees, parents, and customers and a decline in order intake will exacerbate the Company's ability to successfully restructure and emerge as a going concern.

25. Importantly, the Debtors believe that the funding provided under the DIP Facility will allow the Debtors to pursue a reorganization and confirmation of their proposed prepackaged chapter 11 plan, as reflected in the Restructuring Support Agreement. Furthermore, pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the DIP Lenders are not requiring repayment of the DIP Loans but will agree to convert their outstanding DIP Loans on the effective date of the Plan into a first out term loan facility that will not mature until December 2024. Absent authority to enter into and access the DIP Facility, the Debtors will be unable to continue operating their businesses or providing their learning products and services to customers, resulting in a deterioration of value and immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, the Debtors' need for the DIP Facility, coupled with both the advantageous terms of the DIP Facility and the attendant benefits of securing a comprehensive restructuring, support the approval of the DIP Financing.

B. Efforts to Obtain DIP Financing

26. In December 2018, the Company engaged Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP as legal counsel and Houlihan Lokey Capital, Inc. ("Houlihan") to explore possible liability management transactions to help right size the Debtors' balance sheet. Thereafter, in December 2019 the Debtors engaged Alix Partners LLP as financial advisor. With the assistance of its professional advisors, the Company engaged with its key stakeholders, including (i) an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; and (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group that are party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt. Given the importance of the Existing AR Facility to the Company's liquidity, the Company also engaged the AR Lenders under its AR Facility Agreement to obtain their support with respect to the Company's comprehensive restructuring.

27. In the months leading up to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors took several key steps to maximize their near-term liquidity including, but not limited to (i) entering into forbearance agreements with respect to certain defaults arising under the First Lien Credit Agreement and the Second Lien Credit Agreement, including the failure to make $42 million in interest and amortization payments; (ii) executing Amendment No. 2 to the AR Facility Agreement to increase advance rates to 95% and allow for incremental financing under the AR Facility Agreements; and (iii) drawing the maximum amount of the Company's First Lien Revolving Loans.

28. Ultimately, despite these steps, in the course of negotiations with the Company's stakeholders, it became evident that a liability management transaction or an out-of-court restructuring would be impossible and that a comprehensive restructuring, mostly likely achieved through a chapter 11 process, would be the best way to preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' business. The Debtors' ultimate goal was and is a fully consensual restructuring supported by the Consenting Creditors that imposes minimal disruption to the Company's business.

29. Leading up to the Petition Date, as part of the broader restructuring process, the Debtors, with the assistance of their professionals, searched for potential sources of postpetition financing that could provide the Debtors with sufficient liquidity to fund their business operations during the restructuring process.

30. Notably, the vast majority of the Debtors' assets are encumbered by liens granted to the First Lien Lenders and Second Lien Lenders, such that any potential third-party financing would have to be all or partially unsecured, on a junior basis, "prime" the Debtors' existing secured lenders' prepetition liens, or be secured by the Debtors' limited unencumbered assets. Additionally, the Debtors were informed by their prepetition senior lenders that such lenders would not consent to being primed by third-party DIP Financing, which, (i) given the value of the Debtors' encumbered and unencumbered assets, and (ii) with respect to the Debtors' encumbered assets, the lack of any equity cushion behind the claims of the Prepetition Secured Parties, would have made obtaining third party financing difficult, if not impossible.

31. Given these facts, a third-party DIP loan, even if one were available, would almost certainly have resulted in a long, costly, and likely losing priming fight with the First Lien Lenders. Equally important, any attempt by the Debtors to seek a nonconsensual priming would have undermined the support of the Consenting Creditors for the broader restructuring, as reflected in the Restructuring Support Agreement, and delayed the Debtors' ability to exit from chapter 11, all to the significant detriment of the Debtors' stakeholders.

32. As part of the Debtors global negotiations with the Consenting Creditors in connection with a broader restructuring of the Debtors' balance sheet, the Debtors initiated discussions regarding terms of a potential DIP financing. The Consenting Creditors proposed a term sheet for a DIP financing proposal that was backstopped by certain of the Company's First Lien Lenders (including those in both the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group). Importantly, the term sheet provided for a conversion of the entire DIP Facility amount into a new first-out term loan facility under the proposed chapter 11 plan—accordingly, there was no requirement that the DIP Financing be paid off or refinanced on the effective date of the chapter 11 plan. Even more, the proposal provided for additional financing in the form of $50 million in new money upon emergence (in addition to the converted DIP Financing) backstopped by certain of the Company's First Lien Lenders.

33. Upon receipt of the term sheet from the Consenting Creditors, the Debtors and their professionals sought to negotiate the best available DIP financing. In advance of the Petition Date, the Debtors and the prospective DIP Lenders, with the assistance of their respective legal and financial advisors, negotiated the terms and provisions of the DIP Facility. The negotiations resulted in concessions made by the prospective DIP Lenders.

34. Despite the challenges associated with obtaining third-party DIP Financing as described above, Houlihan marketed the DIP Financing to determine whether a third party would be willing to provide the Debtors with DIP Financing on better terms than those offered by the First Lien Lenders. Given the First Lien Lender's insistence that they would not consent to a DIP facility that primed their existing security interests, Houlihan focused its marketing efforts on securing a junior DIP. Houlihan substantively engaged with nine (9) financial institutions to solicit offers to provide the Debtors with DIP Financing on a junior lien basis and/or collateralized only by unencumbered collateral. None of the third parties contacted were willing to provide a DIP financing proposal to the Debtors.

35. Negotiations between the Debtors and the proposed DIP Lenders regarding the provision of the DIP Facility were conducted in good faith and on an arm's-length basis. These negotiations were successful and were memorialized in that certain Term Sheet for DIP and Exit Financing Facilities attached as Exhibit C to the Restructuring Support Agreement and ultimately set forth in the proposed DIP Credit Agreement.

Basis for Relief Requested

A. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Obtain Secured, Superpriority DIP Financing

1. Entry into the DIP Facility is an Exercise of the Debtors' Sound Business Judgment

36. Provided that an agreement to obtain secured credit does not run afoul of the provisions of, and policies underlying, the Bankruptcy Code, courts grant a debtor considerable deference in acting in accordance with its sound business judgment in obtaining such credit. See, e.g., In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 163 B.R. 964, 974 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (approving a postpetition loan and receivables facility "reflect[ed] sound and prudent business judgement"); In re L.A. Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. 308, 313 (Bankr. D. Del. 2011) ("[C]ourts will almost always defer to the business judgment of a debtor in the selection of the lender."); In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) ("[C]ases consistently reflect that the court's discretion under section 364 [of the Bankruptcy Code] is to be utilized on grounds that permit [a debtor's] reasonable business judgment to be exercised so long as the financing agreement does not contain terms that leverage the bankruptcy process and powers or its purpose is not so much to benefit the estate as it is to benefit a party-in-interest."); In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 881 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (noting that approval of postpetition financing requires, inter alia, an exercise of "sound and reasonable business judgment.").

37. In determining whether the Debtors have exercised sound business judgment in selecting DIP financing, a court need only "examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances." In re AbitibiBowater Inc., 418 B.R. 815, 831 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009). Here, the Debtors' determination to secure DIP financing was a business decision guided by the Debtors' financial and restructuring needs. Specifically, the Debtors together with their advisors, determined that the Debtors will require immediate liquidity to smoothly transition into chapter 11 and additional liquidity through their restructuring process in order to continue operating "business as usual." Without the additional liquidity, the Debtors would be operating at a suboptimal level of liquidity and unable to preserve nor maximize value, to the detriment of the Debtors' customers, creditors, employees, vendors, and other parties in interest.

38. Bankruptcy courts generally will not second-guess a debtor's business decisions when those decisions involve "a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [its] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code." In re Curlew Valley Assocs., 14 B.R. 506, 513-14 (Bankr. D. Utah 1981) (noting that courts should not second guess a debtor's business decision when that decision involves "a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [the debtor's] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code"). To determine whether the business judgment test is met, "the court 'is required to examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances.'" In re Dura Auto. Sys. Inc., No. 06-11202 (KJC), 2007 WL 7728109, at *97 (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 15, 2007) (citation omitted).

39. The Debtors with the assistance of their advisors, carefully reviewed the proposed DIP Financing and vigorously negotiated the salient terms with the Consenting Creditors and their advisors. Keeping in mind the advantages of the Consenting Creditors' holistic support for the Debtors' restructuring, and the proposed DIP Lenders' willingness to "roll" the DIP Financing to an exit facility, the Debtors ultimately decided that moving forward with the DIP Financing was appropriate and in the Debtors' best interests. Furthermore, given the DIP Financing available to the Debtors, and the Debtors' current liquidity position, any alternative would be detrimental to all stakeholders. Thus, in light of the above, the Debtors and their advisors determined that the DIP Financing was the best path forward under the totality of circumstances, and the Debtors believe that they have obtained the best financing available

40. The Debtors respectfully submit that the interim relief requested here is necessary to preserve the value of estate assets, and is an exercise of the Debtors' sound and reasonable business judgment.

2. The Debtors Should be Authorized to Obtain Postpetition Financing on a Secured and Superpriority Basis

41. The Debtors satisfy the requirements for relief under section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, which authorizes a debtor to obtain secured or superpriority financing under certain circumstances. Specifically, section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

> If the trustee is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt:
> (1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of this title; [or]
> (2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien;
> (3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien[.]

11 U.S.C. § 364(c).

42. To satisfy the requirements of section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor need only demonstrate "by a good faith effort that credit was not available" to the debtor on an unsecured or administrative expense basis. Bray v. Shenandoah Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n (In re Snowshoe Co.), 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986) ("The statute imposes no duty to seek credit from every possible lender before concluding that such credit is unavailable."); see also Pearl-Phil GMT (Far East) Ltd. v. Caldor Corp., 266 B.R. 575, 584 (S.D.N.Y. 2001)

(superpriority administrative expenses authorized where debtor could not obtain credit as an administrative expense). When few lenders are likely to be able and willing to extend the necessary credit to a debtor, "it would be unrealistic and unnecessary to require [the debtor] to conduct such an exhaustive search for financing." In re Sky Valley, Inc., 100 B.R. 107, 113 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988), aff'd sub nom., Anchor Sav. Bank FSB v. Sky Valley, Inc., 99 B.R. 117, 120 n.4 (N.D. Ga. 1989); see also Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. at 40 (approving financing facility and holding that the debtor made reasonable efforts to satisfy the standards of section 364(c) where it approached four lending institutions, was rejected by two, and selected the most favorable of the two offers it received).

43. The Debtors believe the proposed DIP Financing is the only available financing at this time. As discussed in the Wilson Declaration and set forth herein, the Debtors, through Houlihan, solicited other potential DIP financing sources but did not receive any proposals. After evaluating the proposed DIP Financing and the lack of any viable alternatives, the Debtors determined that the proposed DIP Lenders' proposal provided more than reasonable economic terms under the totality of the circumstances. Moreover, the proposed DIP Lenders are only willing to extend the DIP Financing on a senior secured, superpriority basis. Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, the Debtors respectively submit that the Court should authorize the Debtors to provide the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders superpriority liens and a superpriority administrative expense claim for any obligations arising under the DIP.

3. DIP Facility Provides for Consensual Priming and Cash Collateral Use

44. In addition to authorizing financing under section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts may authorize a debtor to obtain postpetition credit secured by a lien that is senior or equal in priority to existing liens on the encumbered property, without the consent of the existing lien holders, if the debtor cannot otherwise obtain such credit and the interests of existing lien holders are adequately protected. See 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1). Specifically, section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

> (1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if:
> (A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and
>
> (B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.
>
> (2) In any hearing under this subsection, the trustee has the burden of proof on the issue of adequate protection.

11 U.S.C. § 364(d).

45. When determining whether to authorize a debtor to obtain credit secured by senior liens as authorized by section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts focus on whether the transaction will enhance the value of the Debtors' assets. Courts consider a number of factors, including:

- whether the party subject to a priming lien has consented to such treatment;
- whether alternative financing is available on any other basis (i.e., whether any better offers, bids, or timely proposals are before the court);
- whether the proposed financing is necessary to preserve estate assets and is necessary, essential and appropriate for continued operation of the debtors' business;
- whether the terms of the proposed financing are reasonable and adequate given the circumstances of both the debtors and proposed lender(s); and
- whether the proposed financing agreement was negotiated in good faith and at arms' length and entry therein is an exercise of sound and reasonable business judgment and in the best interest of the debtor's estate and its creditors.

See, e.g., Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. at 37–39; Bland v. Farmworker Creditors, 308 B.R. 109, 113-14 (S.D. Ga. 2003); Farmland Indus., 294 B.R. at 862–79; In re Lyondell Chem. Co., Case No. 09-10023 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 5, 2009); In re Barbara K. Enters., No. 08-11474 (MG), 2008 WL 2439649 at *10 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 16, 2008). The DIP Financing satisfies these factors.

46. First, and most importantly, the priming is consensual. Although the DIP Facility primes the Prepetition Secured Parties' prepetition liens in the Collateral, the requisite First Lien Lenders have affirmatively consented to such priming and are providing the DIP Facility, and over 83% of the Second Lien Lenders have agreed to support the Restructuring (including but not limited to the priming of liens set forth in the proposed DIP Facility) on the terms set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement and the DIP Documents. Furthermore, to the extent applicable, the Second Lien Lenders are deemed to have consented to the priming of their prepetition liens pursuant to section 6.01 of the Intercreditor Agreement.

47. Second, the Debtors have limited cash on hand and are left with limited options. The commencement of these chapter 11 cases will only increase demands on that liquidity due to, among other things, the costs of administering these chapter 11 cases and the acceleration or elimination of trade terms. Immediate access to the DIP Facility is thus critically necessary to ensure a smooth transition into chapter 11 and enable the Debtors to prudently operate their businesses and, in turn, maximize value for all parties in interest, during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. To this end, approval of the DIP Facility will enable the Debtors to send precisely that "business as usual" message to their customers, vendors, and business partners.

48. Third, as described in greater detail above and in the Wilson Declaration, the Debtors and the proposed DIP Lenders negotiated the DIP Documents in good faith and at arms' length, and the Debtors' entry into the DIP Documents represents a sound exercise of their business judgment. Specifically, the contemplated interest rate and other payments related to the DIP Facility as well as the collateral structure and related terms were all negotiated for at arm's length as an integrated package of terms from the proposed DIP Lenders and are in the aggregate generally consistent with the cost and structure of debtor-in-possession financings in comparable circumstances. At this juncture, the Debtors believe the proposed DIP Lenders' proposal is the Debtors' most logical (and only) choice for the Debtors.

4. Prepetition Secured Parties Are Adequately Protected

49. A debtor may obtain postpetition credit "secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if" "the debtor, among other things, provides "adequate protection" to those parties whose liens are primed. See 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1)(B). What constitutes adequate protection is decided on a case-by-case basis, and adequate protection may be provided in various forms, including payment of adequate protection fees, payment of interest, or granting of replacement liens or administrative claims. See, e.g., In re Cont'l Airlines Inc., 154 B.R. 176, 180-81 (Bankr. D. Del. 1993); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., Nos. 91-803, 91-804, 1992 WL 79323, at *2 (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 18, 1992); see also In re Mosello, 195 B.R. 277, 289 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("[t]he determination of adequate protection is a fact-specific inquiry . . . left to the vagaries of each case").

50. The Debtors and the proposed DIP Lenders propose granting to the Prepetition Secured Parties adequate protection to the extent of any diminution in value in the form of the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Super Priority Claims, and the payment of all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses payable to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group, whether incurred pre- or post-petition.

51. The Debtors submit that their provision of adequate protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties is fair and reasonable, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of section 364(d)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

52. The Prepetition Secured Parties have consented to the proposed adequate protection. In addition, subject to entry of the Final Order, approving the DIP Facility, the Debtors propose to provide the First Lien Lenders with customary lender protections, including 506(c) and 552(b) waivers and stipulations in respect of the validity of prepetition liens and obligations, among other things

B. Debtors Should be Authorized to Use Postpetition Collateral, Including Cash Collateral

53. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code places certain restrictions on a debtor's use of Cash Collateral. Specifically, section 363(c) provides, in pertinent part, that:

> The trustee may not use, sell, or lease cash collateral . . . unless:
>
> (A) each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents; or
> (B) the court, after notice and a hearing, authorizes such use, sale, or lease in accordance with the provisions of this section [363].

11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(2). Further, section 363(e) provides that "on request of an entity that has an interest in property . . . proposed to be used, sold or leased, by the trustee, the court, with or without a hearing, shall prohibit or condition such use, sale, or lease as is necessary to provide adequate protection of such interest." 11 U.S.C. § 363(e).

54. The Debtors submit that the requirements of sections 363(c)(2) and (e) are met here, and the Debtors should be authorized to use the Cash Collateral. As noted above, the requisite Prepetition Secured Parties have affirmatively consented to the use of Cash Collateral and the Debtors are providing the Prepetition Secured Parties with adequate protection, which (i) is fair and reasonable and (ii) adequately protects the Prepetition Secured Parties' interests in the Debtors' interests in the Prepetition Collateral. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the Debtors to use the Cash Collateral under section 363(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. DIP Fees Are Reasonable and Should be Approved

55. As described above, the Debtors have agreed, subject to Court approval, to pay certain fees to the DIP Lenders. Specifically, the DIP Documents contemplate that the Debtors will pay fees and expenses to (i) the DIP Lenders, including a 3% commitment fee and a 2.5% backstop fee, (ii) the DIP Agent, including an annual administrative fee and seasoning fee, and (iii) the DIP Escrow Agent, including an annual administration fee (collectively, the "DIP Fees") in exchange for their providing, agenting, and/or arranging the DIP Facility. As described in the Wilson Declaration, the DIP Fees are customary and usual and in line with DIP financing of this kind. The DIP Fees, together with the other provisions of the DIP Documents, represent the most favorable terms to the Debtors on which the DIP Lenders would agree to make the DIP Facility available. The Debtors considered the DIP Fees when determining in their sound business judgment whether the DIP Documents constituted the best terms on which the Debtors could obtain sufficient DIP Financing necessary to continue their operations and prosecute their chapter 11 cases. The Debtors believe paying the DIP Fees in order to obtain such DIP Financing is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, creditors and other parties in interest. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the Debtors to pay the DIP Fees.

D. DIP Lenders Should be Deemed Good Faith Lenders

56. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code protects a good faith lender's right to collect on loans extended to a debtor, and its right in any lien securing those loans, even if the authority of the debtor to obtain such loans or grant such liens is later reversed or modified on appeal. Section 364(e) provides that:

> The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section [364 of the Bankruptcy Code] to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 364(e).

57. Here, the Debtors believe the DIP Documents embody the most favorable terms on which the Debtors could obtain DIP Financing from the DIP Lenders. All rigorous negotiations regarding the provision of the DIP Facility were conducted in good faith and on an arm's length basis. The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility are fair and reasonable, and the proceeds of the DIP Facility will be used only for purposes that are permissible under the Bankruptcy Code. Further, no consideration is being provided to any party to the DIP Facility other than as disclosed herein. Accordingly, the Court should find that the DIP Lenders are "good faith" lenders within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and are entitled to all of the protections afforded by that section.

E. Scope of Carve Out Is Appropriate

58. The DIP Liens are subject to the Carve Out. Without the Carve Out, the Debtors and other parties in interest may be deprived of certain rights and powers because the services for which professionals may be paid in these chapter 11 cases would be restricted. See Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., at 38, 40 (observing that courts insist on carve outs for professionals representing parties in interest because "[a]bsent such protection, the collective rights and expectations of all parties-in-interest are sorely prejudiced"). The Carve Out does not directly or indirectly deprive the Debtors' estates or other parties in interest of possible rights and powers. Additionally, the Carve Out ensures that assets will be available for the payment of fees of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court or the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware and professional fees of the Debtors and an unsecured creditors committee, if one is appointed. Accordingly, the Carve Out is necessary and appropriate, and should be approved.

F. Automatic Stay Should Be Modified on a Limited Basis

59. The relief requested herein contemplates a modification of the automatic stay to permit the Debtors to grant the DIP Liens. Specifically, the DIP Facility contemplates modifying the automatic stay so as to (i) permit the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens entry into the DIP Documents and (ii) provide for the automatic vacation of such stay to permit the DIP Agent to enforce its rights with respect to the DIP Collateral in the event of an Event of Default under the DIP Facility, subject to five (5) business day's remedies notice period.

60. Stay modifications of this kind are ordinary and standard features for DIP Financings, and in the Debtors' business judgment, are reasonable and fair under the present circumstances. See, e.g., In re The NORDAM Grp., Inc., Case No. 18-11699 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. July 25, 2018) (ECF No. 85); In re Claire's Stores, Inc., Case No. 18-10584 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Immediate Relief Is Required to Avoid Immediate and Irreparable Harm

61. The Court may grant interim relief in respect of a motion filed pursuant to section 363(c) or 364 of the Bankruptcy Code where, as here, interim relief is "necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the estate pending a final hearing." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(b)(2), (c)(2); 6003(b). The Debtors and their estates will suffer immediate and irreparable harm if the interim relief requested herein, including authorizing the Debtors to use the Cash Collateral and to incur the interim borrowings under the DIP Documents, is not granted promptly after the Petition Date.

62. The Debtors have minimal cash on hand as of the Petition Date and the Debtors anticipate that the commencement of these chapter 11 cases will significantly and immediately increase the demands on their liquidity as a result of, among other things, the costs of administering these chapter 11 cases, implementing critical restructuring initiatives, and addressing key constituents' concerns regarding the Debtors' financial health and ability to continue operations in light of these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the Debtors have an immediate need for access to liquidity to, among other things, continue the operation of their business, maintain important relationships with customers, meet payroll, procure goods and services from vendors and suppliers, and otherwise satisfy their working capital and operational needs, all of which are required to preserve and maintain the Debtors' going concern value for the benefit of all parties in interest. For all of the reasons set forth above, prompt entry of the Interim Order is necessary to avert immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates and is consistent with, and warranted under, Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2).

Request for Final Hearing

63. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and 4001(c)(2), the Debtors request that the Court set a date, which is no later than twenty-five (25) days after the entry of the Interim Order, to hold a hearing to consider entry of the Final Order and approval of the relief requested in this Motion on a final basis.

64. The Debtors also request authority to serve a copy of the signed Interim Order, which fixes the time and date for the filing of objections, if any, to entry of the Final Order, by first class mail upon the notice parties listed below, and further request that the Court deem service thereof sufficient notice of the hearing on the Final Order under Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2).

Notice

65. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee, 844 King Street, Suite 2207, Wilmington, Delaware, 19801 (Attn: Jane Leamy, Esq. As this Motion is seeking "first day" relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered in respect of the Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Orders granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

(v) Validity, Perfection, and Priority of Prepetition Liens and Prepetition Obligations. F. Findings Regarding the DIP Facility and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) The Debtors have an immediate need to obtain the funds available under the DIP Facility and to use Cash Collateral (solely to the extent consistent with the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents)) to, among other things, (A) permit the orderly continuation of their businesses; (B) make certain Adequate Protection Payments; and (C) pay the costs of administration of their estates and satisfy their other working capital and general corporate purposes during the pendency of these Cases. Specifically, the proceeds of the DIP Loans will provide the Debtors with the ability to fund day-to-day operations and meet administrative obligations during the Cases. The DIP Facility will also reassure the Debtors' customers and employees that the Debtors will have access to additional liquidity to meet their commitments during the Cases and that the Debtors' businesses will continue as a going concern post-emergence. The ability of the Debtors to obtain sufficient working capital and liquidity through the incurrence of the new indebtedness for borrowed money and other financial accommodations is vital to the preservation and maintenance of the Debtors' going concern value and successful reorganization. The Debtors will not have sufficient sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses in the ordinary course of business throughout the Cases without access to the DIP Facility and authorized use of Cash Collateral.

(ii) The Debtors are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under Bankruptcy Code section 503(b)(1) as an administrative expense. The Debtors are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code for the purposes set forth in the DIP Documents without the Debtors granting to the DIP Secured Parties, subject to the Carve Out as provided for herein, the DIP Liens (defined below) and the DIP Superpriority Claims (defined below) under the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents.

(iii) The DIP Facility has been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties, and all of the Debtors' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with the DIP Facility and the DIP Documents including, without limitation, all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtors pursuant to the DIP Documents and all other obligations under the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Obligations") shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Secured Parties in good faith as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. The DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, and the DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of Bankruptcy Code section 364(e) in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified on appeal or otherwise, and any liens or claims granted to, or payments made to, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or the DIP Lenders hereunder arising prior to the effective date of any such vacatur, reversal, or modification of this Interim Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, including entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein.

(iv) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Parties' agreement to subordinate their liens and superpriority claims to the DIP Obligations and the Carve Out and to permit the use of their Cash Collateral as set forth herein, the Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, (i) a waiver of any "equities of the case" claims under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(v) Consent by Prepetition Agents. The Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition First Lien Credit Agreement (the "Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders")), on behalf of and for the benefit of each of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement (the "Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders")), on behalf of and for the benefit of each of the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties, have consented to, conditioned on the entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors' incurrence of the DIP Facility and proposed use of Cash Collateral on the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and the terms of the adequate protection provided for in this Interim Order, including that the Adequate Protection Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims are subject and subordinate to the Carve Out.

G. Good Cause Shown; Best Interest. Good cause has been shown for entry of this Interim Order, and entry of this Interim Order is in the best interests of the Debtors' respective estates and creditors as its implementation will, among other things, allow for the continued operation of the Debtors' existing business and enhance the Debtors' prospects for a successful reorganization. Absent granting the relief sought by this Interim Order, the Debtors' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed.

H. Notice. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b) and (c), and 9014, and the Local Rules, notice of the Interim Hearing and the emergency relief requested in the Motion has been provided by the Debtors. Under the circumstances, the notice given by the Debtors of the Motion, the relief requested herein, and of the Interim Hearing complies with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b) and (c), and 9014 and applicable Local Rules.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the Motion, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

To the extent not entered into as of the date hereof, the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties shall negotiate the DIP Documents in good faith, and in all respects such DIP Documents shall be consistent with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and otherwise reasonably acceptable to the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the Required Lenders (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, the "Required DIP Lenders"). Upon entry of this Interim Order and until execution and delivery of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties shall be bound by (x) the terms and conditions and other provisions set forth in the executed DIP Documents, and (y) this Interim Order, which shall govern and control the DIP Facility. Upon entry of this Interim Order, the Interim Order, the DIP Credit Agreement, and other DIP Documents shall govern and control the DIP Facility. The DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent are hereby authorized to execute and enter into its respective obligations under the DIP Documents, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein and this Interim Order. Upon execution and delivery thereof, the DIP Documents shall constitute valid and binding obligations of the Debtors enforceable in accordance with their terms. To the extent there exists any conflict among the terms and conditions of the Motion, the DIP Documents, and this Interim Order, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall govern and control. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Motion and the DIP Documents, the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents shall govern.

(b) Upon entry of this Interim Order, the Borrower is hereby authorized to borrow, and the Guarantors are hereby authorized to guaranty, borrowings up to an aggregate principal amount of $60,000,000 in DIP Loans, subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents.

(c) The proceeds of the DIP Loans shall be used solely for the purposes permitted under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and in accordance with the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. Attached as Exhibit 1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference is the Initial Approved Budget prepared by the Debtors and approved by the Required DIP Lenders in accordance with Section 9.18 of the DIP Credit Agreement.

(d) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor is authorized, and the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby lifted to the extent necessary to perform all acts and to make, execute, and deliver all instruments and documents, and to pay all fees, that may be reasonably required or necessary for the Debtors' performance of their obligations under the DIP Documents including, without limitation:

(1) the execution, delivery, and performance of the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the DIP Credit Agreement, any guaranty, security and pledge agreement, and any mortgage to the extent contemplated thereby;

(2) the execution, delivery, and performance of one or more amendments, waivers, consents, or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (in each case in accordance with the terms of the applicable DIP Documents and in such form as the Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent (if applicable), and the Required DIP Lenders may agree), it being understood that (i) no further approval of the Court shall be required for amendments, waivers, consents, or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents or the DIP Obligations that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or modify the commitments or the rate of interest or other amounts payable thereunder and (ii) any such amendments, waivers, consents or modifications to the DIP Documents shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee and the Committee (if any);

(3) the non-refundable payment to each of and/or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties, as applicable, of the fees and expenses referred to in the DIP Documents, including (x) all fees and other amounts owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the DIP Lenders and (y) all reasonable and documented costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of counsel and other professionals retained as provided for in the DIP Documents (whether incurred before or after the Petition Date, including, for the avoidance of doubt, (a) the Specified Lender Advisors; (b) the Crossholder Lender Advisors; and (c) the Agent Advisors (each, as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), and, solely to the extent necessary to exercise its rights and fulfill its obligations under the DIP Documents, one counsel to the DIP Agent in each local jurisdiction, which such fees and expenses shall not be subject to the approval of the Court, nor shall any recipient of any such payment be required to file with respect thereto any interim or final fee application with the Court provided that any fees and expenses of a professional shall be subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 of this Interim Order; and

(4) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents.

(e) Upon entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations, and the DIP Liens shall constitute valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors enforceable against each Debtor party thereto in accordance with their respective terms and the terms of this Interim Order for all purposes during the Cases, any subsequently converted Case of any Debtor to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or after the dismissal of any Case. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security under the DIP Credit Agreement, the other DIP Documents, or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including without limitation, under sections 502(d), 548, or 549 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, reduction, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim. All payments or proceeds remitted (a) to or on behalf of the DIP Agent or the DIP Escrow Agent on behalf of any DIP Secured Parties or (b) to or on behalf of the Prepetition Secured Parties, in each case pursuant to the DIP Documents, the provisions of this Interim Order, or any subsequent order of this Court, shall be received free and clear of any claim, charge, assessment, or other liability, including, without limitation, any such claim or charge arising out of or based on, directly or indirectly, section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (and, solely in the case of waivers of rights under sections 506(c) and 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the entry of the Final Order approving such waivers).

(f) The Guarantors are hereby authorized and directed to jointly, severally, and unconditionally guarantee, and upon entry of this Interim Order shall be deemed to have guaranteed, in full, all of the DIP Obligations.

4. Budget and Variance Reporting. The Initial Approved Budget is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and each updated, modified, or supplemented budget shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders (it being acknowledged and agreed that the Initial Approved Budget attached to this Interim Order is approved by and satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders and is and shall be the Approved Budget unless and until replaced in accordance with terms of the DIP Credit Agreement, and that with respect to any subsequent Approved Budget, such approval and satisfaction of the Required DIP Lenders may be communicated via an email from either of the Specified Lender Advisors). The Approved Budget shall be updated, modified or supplemented by the Debtors from time to time in writing transmitted to the DIP Agent and the Specified Lender Advisors with the written consent of and/or at the request of the Required DIP Lenders (with a copy of such written consent or request concurrently delivered to the DIP Agent) (which consent may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors) (any such proposed budget, the "Proposed Budget"), but in any event not less than one time in each four (4) consecutive week period, commencing with the first full week following entry of this Interim Order, and each Proposed Budget shall be substantially in the form of the Initial Approved Budget and otherwise satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders, and no such Proposed Budget shall be effective unless acceptable to the Required DIP Lenders (which acceptance may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors); and upon delivery of such acceptance by the Required DIP Lenders, such Proposed Budget shall be deemed the newly approved Approved Budget; provided, however, that in the event the Required DIP Lenders, on the one hand, and the Borrower, on the other hand, cannot agree as to an updated, modified or supplemented budget, such disagreement shall constitute an immediate Event of Default once the period covered by the prior approved Approved Budget has terminated (and at all times thereafter such then current approved Approved Budget shall remain in effect unless and until a new Approved Budget is approved by the Required DIP Lenders (which approval may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors)). Commencing on July 16, 2020, on or before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) on the Thursday of every other week, the Borrower shall deliver to the DIP Agent and the Specified Lender Advisors (for distribution to the DIP Lenders) an Approved Budget Variance Report (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), which shall be prepared by the Borrower as of the last day of the respective Variance Testing Period (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), be in a form satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders in their sole discretion (which satisfaction may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors) and include all materials required by, and be otherwise consistent with, Section 9.18(c) of the DIP Credit Agreement.

5. Access to Records. Upon request, the Debtors shall provide the Specified Lender Advisors and the Crossholder Lender Advisors with all reporting and other information required to be provided to the DIP Agent under the DIP Documents, subject to the same limitations set forth therein. In addition to, and without limiting whatever rights to access the DIP Secured Parties have under the DIP Documents, upon reasonable notice to Debtors' counsel (e-mail being sufficient), at reasonable times and during normal business hours, the Debtors shall permit representatives, agents, and employees of the DIP Secured Parties to have access to (i) inspect the Debtors' assets, and (ii) all information (including historical information and the Debtors' books and records) and personnel, including regularly scheduled meetings as mutually agreed with the senior management of the Debtors and other company advisors (during normal business hours), and provide the DIP Secured Parties with access to all information they shall reasonably request, excluding any information for which confidentiality is owed to third parties, information subject to attorney client or similar privilege, or where such disclosure would not be permitted by any applicable law, in each case as set forth in the DIP Documents.

6. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against each of the Debtors' estates (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all administrative expenses, adequate protection claims, diminution claims (if any), and all other claims against the Debtors, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and over any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to authorization in the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113, or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, which allowed claims shall for the purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and which shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including, without limitation, subject to authorization in the Final Order, any proceeds or property recovered in connection with the pursuit of claims or causes of action arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code (such claims and causes of action, the "Avoidance Actions" and, the proceeds thereof and the property recovered with respect thereto, collectively, the "Avoidance Proceeds"), if any, subject only to, and subordinated in all respects to, the payment of the Carve Out.

7. DIP Liens. As security for the DIP Obligations, effective and perfected upon the date of this Interim Order, and without the necessity of the execution, recordation of filings by the Debtors of mortgages, security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, state or federal notices, recordings (including, without limitation, any recordings with the United States Patent and Trademark or Copyright Office), or other similar documents or agreements, or the possession or control by the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or any DIP Lender of, or over, any DIP Collateral, the following security interests and liens are hereby granted by the Debtors to the DIP Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties (all property identified in clause (a) and (b) below being collectively referred to as the "DIP Collateral"), subject only to (x) the Carve Out and (y) the Existing Senior Liens (all such liens and security interests granted to the DIP Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Lenders, pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents, the "DIP Liens"):

(a) First Priority Lien On Any Unencumbered Property. Pursuant to section 364(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected, non-avoidable, automatically, and properly perfected first priority senior security interest in and lien upon all property of the Debtors, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, that, on or as of the Petition Date is not subject to valid, perfected, and non-avoidable liens (or perfected after the Petition Date to the extent permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) (collectively, the "Previously Unencumbered Property") (subject to the Carve Out), including, without limitation (in each case, to the extent not subject to valid, perfected, and non-avoidable liens), an equity pledge of any first-tier foreign subsidiaries of the Debtors, unencumbered cash constituting property of the Debtors (whether maintained with the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or otherwise) and any investment of such cash, accounts, inventory, goods, contract rights, instruments, documents, chattel paper, patents, trademarks, copyrights, and licenses therefor, accounts receivable, receivables and receivables records, general intangibles, payment intangibles, tax or other refunds, insurance proceeds, letters of credit, contracts, owned real estate, real property leaseholds, fixtures, deposit accounts, commercial tort claims, securities accounts, instruments, investment property, letter-of-credit rights, supporting obligations, machinery and equipment, real property, leases (and proceeds from the disposition thereof), all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of each Debtor, other equity or ownership interests (including equity interests in subsidiaries of each Debtor), money, investment property, intercompany claims, claims arising on account of transfers of value from a Debtor to (x) another Debtor and (y) a non-Debtor affiliate incurred on or following the Petition Date, causes of action, including causes of action arising under section 549 of the Bankruptcy Code (but excluding all other Avoidance Actions), all products and proceeds of the foregoing and, subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the Avoidance Proceeds; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (x) with respect to non-residential leases of real property, unless the applicable lease expressly permits the granting of liens on such lease, the liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order shall attach solely to the proceeds of such lease and not to the subject lease itself and (y) Excluded Property (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) shall not be subject to such liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order.

(b) Liens Priming the Prepetition Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all property of the Debtors that was subject to the Prepetition Liens (subject to the Carve Out) including, without limitation, the Prepetition Collateral and Cash Collateral; provided that such liens shall be immediately junior to any valid, perfected, and unavoidable liens, if any, existing as of the Petition Date that are senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as permitted by the terms of the Prepetition Credit Documents; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (x) with respect to non-residential leases of real property, unless the applicable lease expressly permits the granting of liens on such lease, the liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order shall attach solely to the proceeds of such lease and not to the subject lease itself and (y) Excluded Property (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) shall not be subject to such liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order.

(c) Validity, Enforceability. The DIP Liens shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in these Cases, or any case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of these Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, "Successor Cases"). Except as expressly provided herein with respect to the Carve Out and Existing Senior Liens, if any, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and the DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any of these Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of these Cases or Successor Cases. The DIP Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Liens shall not be subject to section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the DIP Liens shall be deemed legal, valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected first-priority liens (subject only to the Carve Out and Existing Senior Liens, if any), not subject to subordination, impairment, or avoidance, for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases.

8. Adequate Protection for the Prepetition Secured Parties. Subject only to the Carve Out and the terms of this Interim Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration of the stipulations and consents set forth herein, as adequate protection of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), solely for and equal in amount to the aggregate postpetition diminution in value of such interests (if any) (each such diminution, a "Diminution in Value"), resulting from, among other things, the imposition of the priming DIP Liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subordination to the Carve Out, the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), and the imposition of the automatic stay, the Prepetition Agents, for the benefit of themselves and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, are hereby granted the following (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Adequate Protection Liens.

(1) First Lien Adequate Protection Liens. As security for and adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties in the Prepetition Collateral, to the extent of any Diminution in Value, the Debtors are authorized to, and as of entry of this Interim Order are deemed to have granted (without the necessity of the execution by the Debtors (or recordation or other filing), of security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, mortgages, state or federal notices, recordings (including, without limitation, any recordings with the United States Patent and Trademark or Copyright Office), or other similar documents or agreements and without the necessity of taking possession or control of any DIP Collateral) to the Prepetition First Lien Collateral Agent, for the benefit of itself and each of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, additional and replacement, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, effective and automatically perfected postpetition security interests in and liens

(together, the "First Lien Adequate Protection Liens") on all DIP Collateral, including, subject to authorization in the Final Order, all Avoidance Proceeds. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be subordinate only to (A) the Carve Out, (B) the DIP Liens, and (C) Existing Senior Liens, if any. The First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall otherwise be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP Collateral (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code). The First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in these Cases or any Successor Cases. Except as expressly provided herein with respect to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, and the Existing Senior Liens, if any, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any of these Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of these Cases or Successor Cases. The First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be deemed legal, valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected second-priority liens (subject only to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, and Existing Senior Liens, if any), not subject to subordination, impairment, or avoidance, for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases.

(2) Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens. As security for and adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties in the Prepetition Collateral to the extent of any Diminution in Value, the Debtors are authorized to, and as of entry of this Interim Order are deemed to have granted (without the necessity of the execution by the Debtors (or recordation or other filing), of security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, mortgages, state or federal notices, recordings (including, without limitation, any recordings with the United States Patent and Trademark or Copyright Office), or other similar documents or agreements and without the necessity of taking possession or control of any DIP Collateral) to the Prepetition Second Lien Collateral Agent, for the benefit of itself and each of the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties, additional and replacement, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and effective and automatically perfected postpetition security interests in and liens (together, the "Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens" and, together with the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, the "Adequate Protection Liens") on all DIP Collateral, including, subject to authorization in the Final Order, all Avoidance Proceeds. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be subordinate only to the (A) Carve Out, (B) the DIP Liens, (C) the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, (D) the Prepetition First Lien Revolving and Term Loan Liens, and (E) Existing Senior Liens, if any. The Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall otherwise be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP Collateral (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code). The Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in these Cases or any Successor Cases. Except as expressly provided herein with respect to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, the Prepetition First Lien Revolving and Term Loan Liens, and Existing Senior Liens, if any, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any of these Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of these Cases or Successor Cases. The Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be deemed legal, valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected third-priority liens (subject only to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, the Prepetition First Lien Revolving and Term Loan Liens, and Existing Senior Liens, if any), not subject to subordination, impairment, or avoidance, for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases.

(b) Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims.

(1) First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. As further adequate protection, and to the extent provided by sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties shall have an allowed administrative expense claim in each of the Cases prior and senior to any and all other administrative expense claims in such Cases to the extent of any Diminution in Value (if any) (the "First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), but junior to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims. Subject to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims in all respects, the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims will not be junior to any claims and shall have priority over all administrative expense claims against each of the Debtors, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to authorization in the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(d), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Second Lien Adequate Protection Claims. The Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code granted hereunder unless and until the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, or satisfied in a manner otherwise agreed to by the Required DIP Lenders, in each case as provided in the DIP Documents.

(2) Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. As further adequate protection, and to the extent provided by sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties shall have an allowed administrative expense claim in each of the Cases prior and senior to any and all other administrative expense claims in such Cases to the extent of any Diminution in Value (the "Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims" and, together with the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, the "Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), but junior to the Carve Out, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. Subject to the Carve Out, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims in all respects, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims will not be junior to any claims and shall have priority over all administrative expense claims against each of the Debtors, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to authorization in the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(d), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code granted hereunder unless and until the DIP Obligations and the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, or satisfied in a manner otherwise agreed to by the Required DIP Lenders and the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, in each case as provided in the DIP Documents.

(c) Adequate Protection Payments. As further adequate protection, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay, in accordance with the terms of Paragraph 18 of this Interim Order, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (the "Adequate Protection Fees"), whether incurred before or after the Petition Date, including all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses of the Prepetition Agents and for the counsel and other professionals retained as provided for in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, of (A) the Specified Lender Advisors, (B) the Crossholder Lender Advisors, (C) the Agent Advisors, and (D) solely to the extent necessary to exercise and fulfill their obligations under the Prepetition Credit Documents, one counsel to the Prepetition Agents in each local jurisdiction (all payments referenced in this sentence, collectively, the "Adequate Protection Payments"). None of the Adequate Protection Fees shall be subject to separate approval by this Court or the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and no recipient of any such payment shall be required to file any interim or final fee application with respect thereto or otherwise seek the Court's approval of any such payments.

(d) Right to Seek Additional Adequate Protection. This Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, the rights of the Prepetition Secured Parties to request further or alternative forms of adequate protection at any time or the rights of the Debtors or any other party to contest such request, and the Debtors' rights to object to the same are expressly preserved.

(e) Modification of Automatic Stay. The automatic stay imposed under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is modified to the extent necessary to effectuate all of the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, to: (a) permit the Debtors to grant and allow the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (b) permit the Debtors to perform such acts as the DIP Agent, the Required DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders or the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders may request in their respective reasonable discretions to assure the perfection and priority of the liens granted herein; (c) permit the Debtors to incur all liabilities and obligations to the Agents, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order; and (d) subject to the Carve Out, authorize the Debtors to make, and the Agents, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties to retain and apply, payments made in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order; provided that, during the Remedies Notice Period (defined below), the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent applicable) shall remain in effect.

9. Carve Out.

(a) Priority of Carve Out. Subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Paragraph 9, each of the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Liens, Adequate Protection Liens, and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims shall be subject and subordinate to the Carve Out. The Carve Out shall have such priority over all assets of the Debtors, including any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, and any funds in the Loan Proceeds Account (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement).

(b) Definition of Carve Out. As used in this Interim Order, the "Carve Out" means the sum of (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the United States Trustee under section 1930(a) of title 28 of the United States Code plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iii) below); (ii) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses up to $75,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iii) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, procedural order, or otherwise, all reasonable and documented unpaid out-of-pocket fees and expenses (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") of persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee pursuant to section 328 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons") incurred at any time before or on the first business day following delivery by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) of a Carve Out Trigger Notice (defined below), whether allowed by the Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees of Professional Persons in an aggregate amount not to exceed

$3,000,000 incurred after the first business day following delivery by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) of the Carve Out Trigger Notice (the "Termination Declaration Date"), to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, procedural order, or otherwise (the amounts set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap"). For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Committee, if any, which notice shall be delivered following (i) the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the DIP Obligations under the DIP Facility, stating that the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked or (ii) the occurrence of a Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), other than clauses (a), (c), or (d) of the definition of "Maturity Date" in the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Specified Maturity Date").

(c) Carve Out Reserves. On the Termination Declaration Date, the Carve Out Trigger Notice shall (i) be deemed a draw request and notice of borrowing by the Debtors for DIP Term Loans under the DIP Facility (on a pro rata basis based on the then outstanding DIP Obligations), in an amount equal to the then unpaid amounts (including the good-faith estimated and reasonable Professional Fees accrued and not yet invoiced) of the Allowed Professional Fees (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP Term Loans) and (ii) also constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand as of such date and any available cash thereafter held by any Debtor to fund a reserve in an amount equal to the then unpaid amounts of the Allowed Professional Fees. The DIP Escrow Agent shall transfer the applicable amounts, and the Debtors shall deposit and hold such amounts in a segregated account at the DIP Agent in trust to pay such then unpaid Allowed Professional Fees (the "Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve") prior to any and all other claims. On the Termination Declaration Date, the Carve Out Trigger Notice shall also (i) be deemed a request by the Debtors for DIP Term Loans under the DIP Facility (on a pro rata basis based on the then outstanding DIP Obligations), in an amount equal to the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP Term Loans) and (ii) constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand as of such date and any available cash thereafter held by any Debtor, after funding the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve, to fund a reserve in an amount equal to the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap. The DIP Escrow Agent shall transfer the applicable amounts, and the Debtors shall deposit and hold such amounts in a segregated account at the DIP Agent in trust to pay such Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (the "Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve" and, together with the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve, the "Carve Out Reserves") prior to any and all other claims. On the first business day after the DIP Agent gives such notice to such DIP Lenders, notwithstanding anything in the DIP Credit Agreement to the contrary, including with respect to the existence of a Default (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or Event of Default, the failure of the Debtors to satisfy any or all of the conditions precedent for DIP Loans under the DIP Facility, any termination of the DIP Obligations following an Event of Default, or the occurrence of the Maturity Date, each DIP Lender with an outstanding Commitment (on a pro rata basis based on the then outstanding Commitments) shall make available to the DIP Agent such DIP Lender's pro rata share with respect to such borrowing in accordance with the DIP Facility. Notwithstanding any restriction on the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral, all funds in the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve shall be used first to pay the obligations set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) of the definition of Carve Out set forth above

(the "Pre-Carve Out Amounts"), but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap, until paid in full, and then, to the extent the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve has not been reduced to zero, to pay the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, unless the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all Commitments have been terminated, in which case any such excess shall be paid to the applicable Prepetition Agents for the benefit of the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties in accordance with their rights and priorities as of the Petition Date. Notwithstanding any restriction on the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral, all funds in the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve shall be used first to pay the obligations set forth in clause (iv) of the definition of Carve Out set forth above (the "Post-Carve Out Amounts"), and then, to the extent the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve has not been reduced to zero, to pay the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, unless the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all Commitments have been terminated, in which case any such excess shall be paid to the applicable Prepetition Agents for the benefit of the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties in accordance with their rights and priorities as of the Petition Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents, or this Interim Order, if either of the Carve Out Reserves is not funded in full in the amounts set forth in this Paragraph 9, then, any excess funds in one of the Carve Out Reserves following the payment of the Pre-Carve Out Amounts and Post-Carve Out Amounts, respectively, shall be used to fund the other Carve Out Reserve, up to the applicable amount set forth in this Paragraph 9, prior to making any payments to the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agents, as applicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents or this Interim Order, following delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent and the Prepetition Agents shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Carve Out Reserves have been fully funded, but shall have a security interest in any residual interest in the Carve Out Reserves, with any excess paid to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Documents. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Carve Out Reserves shall not constitute DIP Loans or increase or reduce the DIP Obligations, (ii) the failure of the Carve Out Reserves to satisfy in full the Allowed Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Approved Budget, Carve Out, Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap, Carve Out Reserves, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the DIP Facility, or in any facility pursuant to Prepetition Credit Agreements, the Carve Out shall be senior to all liens and claims securing the DIP Facility, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and any and all other forms of adequate protection, liens, or claims securing the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Obligations.

(d) Payment of Allowed Professional Fees Prior to the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made prior to the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall not reduce the Carve Out.

(e) No Direct Obligation to Pay Allowed Professional Fees. None of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be responsible for the payment or reimbursement of any fees or disbursements of any Professional Person incurred in connection with the Cases or any Successor Cases. Nothing in this Interim Order or otherwise shall be construed to obligate the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP

Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, in any way, to pay compensation to, or to reimburse expenses of, any Professional Person or to guarantee that the Debtors have sufficient funds to pay such compensation or reimbursement.

(f) Payment of Carve Out On or After the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall permanently reduce the Carve Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Any funding of the Carve Out shall be added to, and made a part of, the DIP Obligations secured by the DIP Collateral and shall otherwise be entitled to the protections granted under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable law.

10. Reserved.

11. Reservation of Rights of the DIP Agent, DIP Escrow Agent, DIP Lenders, and Prepetition Secured Parties. Subject in all cases to the Carve Out, notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair: (a) any of the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors including the right to seek additional adequate protection at and following the Final Hearing; provided that any such further or different adequate protection shall at all times be subordinate and junior to the Carve Out and the claims and liens of the DIP Secured Parties granted under this Interim Order and the DIP Documents; (b) any of the rights of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including, without limitation, the right of any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Cases, conversion of any of the Cases to cases under chapter 7, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers in any of the Cases, or (iii) seek to propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan or plans; or (c) any other rights, claims, or privileges (whether legal, equitable, or otherwise) of any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties. The delay in or failure of the DIP Secured Parties and/or the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise their rights and remedies shall not constitute a waiver of any of the DIP Secured Parties' or the Prepetition Secured Parties' rights and remedies.

12. Reservation of Certain Committee and Third Party Rights and Bar of Challenges and Claims. Subject to the Challenge Period (defined below), the stipulations, admissions, waivers, and releases contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, shall be binding upon the Debtors, their estates, and any of their respective successors in all circumstances and for all purposes, and the Debtors are deemed to have irrevocably waived and relinquished all Challenges (defined below) as of the Petition Date. The stipulations, admissions, and waivers contained in this Interim Order, including, the Debtors' Stipulations, shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including any Committee and any other person acting on behalf of the Debtors' estates, unless and to the extent that a party in interest with proper standing granted by order of the Court (or other court of competent jurisdiction) has timely and properly filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter under the Bankruptcy Rules (i) before the earlier of (a) except as to any Committee, seventy-five (75) calendar days after entry of the Interim Order, (b) in the case of any such adversary proceeding or contested matter filed by any Committee, sixty (60) calendar days after the appointment of such Committee, and (c) the date of entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, subject to further extension by written agreement of the Prepetition First Lien Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders) and the

Prepetition Second Lien Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) (in each case, a "Challenge Period" and the date of expiration of each Challenge Period being, a "Challenge Period Termination Date"); provided, however, that if, prior to the end of a Challenge Period (x) the cases are converted to chapter 7, or (y) a chapter 11 trustee is appointed, then, in each such case, the Challenge Period applicable to the chapter 7 trustee or the chapter 11 trustee shall be the time remaining under the applicable Challenge Period plus ten (10) days; (ii) seeking to avoid, object to, or otherwise challenge the findings or Debtors' Stipulations regarding: (a) the validity, enforceability, extent, priority, or perfection of the mortgages, security interests, and liens of the Prepetition Agents and the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (b) the validity, enforceability, allowability, priority, secured status, or amount of the Prepetition Obligations (any such claim, a "Challenge"), and (iii) in which the Court enters a final order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter. Upon the expiration of the Challenge Period Termination Date without the filing of a Challenge (or if any such Challenge is filed and overruled): (a) any and all such Challenges by any party (including the Committee, if any, any chapter 11 trustee, and/or any examiner or other estate representative appointed or elected in these Cases, and any chapter 7 trustee and/or examiner or other estate representative appointed or elected in any Successor Cases) shall be deemed to be forever barred; (b) the Prepetition Obligations shall constitute allowed claims, not subject to counterclaim, setoff, recoupment, reduction, subordination, recharacterization, defense, or avoidance for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases; (c) the Prepetition Indebtedness shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, and perfected secured claims, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, or avoidance; and (d) all of the Debtors' stipulations and admissions contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors'

Stipulations, and all other waivers, releases, affirmations, and other stipulations as to the priority, extent, and validity as to the Prepetition Secured Parties' claims, liens, and interests contained in this Interim Order shall be of full force and effect and forever binding upon the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, and all creditors, interest holders, and other parties in interest in these Cases and any Successor Cases. Furthermore, if any such adversary proceeding or contested matter is timely and properly filed under the Bankruptcy Rules, the stipulations and admissions contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive on any Committee and any other person or entity except to the extent that such stipulations and admissions were expressly challenged in such adversary proceeding or contested matter prior to the Challenge Period Termination Date. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including, without limitation, any Committee appointed in the Cases, standing or authority to pursue any cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation any challenges (including a Challenge) with respect to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the Prepetition Liens, and the Prepetition Obligations, and a separate order of the Court conferring such standing on any Committee or other party-in-interest shall be a prerequisite for the prosecution of a Challenge by such Committee or such other party-in-interest.

13. DIP Termination Date. On the DIP Termination Date (defined below), (a) all DIP Obligations shall be immediately due and payable, all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility will terminate; (b) all authority to use Cash Collateral shall cease; provided, however, that during the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors may use Cash Collateral to fund the Carve Out and pay payroll and other expenses critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates strictly in accordance with the Approved Budget, subject to such variances as permitted in the DIP Credit Agreement; and (c) the DIP Secured Parties shall be otherwise entitled to exercise rights and remedies under the DIP Documents in accordance with this Interim Order. For the purposes of this Interim Order, the "DIP Termination Date" shall mean the "Maturity Date" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement.

14. Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events, unless waived by the Required DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents, shall constitute an event of default (collectively, the "Events of Default"): (a) the failure of the Debtors to comply with or perform, in any material respect, any of the terms, provisions, conditions, covenants, or obligations under this Interim Order; or (b) the occurrence of an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to any applicable cure or grace period).

15. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default. Immediately upon the occurrence of and during the continuation of an Event of Default, or a Specified Maturity Date, notwithstanding the provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, without any application, motion, or notice to, hearing before, or order from the Court, but subject to the terms of this Interim Order and the Remedies Notice Period, (a) the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) may declare (any such declaration shall be referred to herein as a "Termination Declaration") (i) all DIP Obligations owing under the DIP Documents to be immediately due and payable, (ii) the termination, reduction or restriction of any further commitment to extend credit to the Debtors to the extent any such commitment remains under the DIP Facility, (iii) the termination of the DIP Facility and the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the DIP Lenders, but without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations, and (iv) the application of the Carve Out through the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice to the Borrower and (b) subject to Paragraph 13 above, the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) may declare a termination, reduction or restriction on the ability of the Debtors to use Cash Collateral (the date which is the earliest to occur of any such date a Termination Declaration is delivered and the DIP Termination Date shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date"). The Termination Declaration shall not be effective until notice has been provided by electronic mail (or other electronic means) to counsel to the Debtors (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), counsel to the Committee, if any, and the U.S. Trustee. The automatic stay in the Cases otherwise applicable to the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties is hereby modified so that five (5) Business Days after the date a Termination Declaration is delivered (the "Remedies Notice Period"): (a) the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order to satisfy the DIP Obligations and DIP Superpriority Claims; and (b) the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to exercise their rights and remedies to the extent available in accordance with the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents and this Interim Order with respect to the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral; provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt the Debtors may continue to use Cash Collateral in accordance with Paragraph 13 of this Interim Order during the Remedies Notice Period. During the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors, the Committee, if any, and/or any party in interest shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing within the Remedies Notice Period with the Court. Except as set forth in this Paragraph 15 or otherwise ordered by the Court prior to the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, upon the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors shall be deemed to have waived their right to and shall not be entitled to seek relief, including, without limitation, under section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such relief would in any way impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow

Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order. Unless the Court has determined that an Event of Default has not occurred and/or is not continuing or the Court orders otherwise, the automatic stay shall automatically be terminated as to all of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties (solely with respect to the use of Cash Collateral to the extent permitted hereunder) at the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period without further notice or order, and the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to exercise all remedies set forth herein, in the DIP Documents, and in the Prepetition Credit Documents, as applicable, or as otherwise available at law without further order of or application or motion to this Court consistent with this Interim Order.

16. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. Subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, no expenses of administration of the Cases or any Successor Cases or future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the Prepetition Collateral or the DIP Collateral (except to the extent of the Carve Out), the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties pursuant to sections 105(a) or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law or equity, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties.

17. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized to use the Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties, but solely for the purposes set forth in this Interim

Order and in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents) including, without limitation, to make payments on account of the Adequate Protection Obligations provided for in this Interim Order and to make any transfers between Debtors necessary to comply with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

18. Expenses and Indemnification.

(a) The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to pay, in accordance with this Interim Order, the principal, interest, fees, payments, expenses, and other amounts described in the DIP Documents as such amounts become due and without need to obtain further Court approval, including, without limitation, backstop, closing, arrangement or commitment fees (including all fees and other amounts owed to the DIP Lenders), the DIP Administrative Agent's fees, the DIP Collateral Agent's fees, and the DIP Escrow Agent's fees, the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and disbursements of counsel and other professionals to the extent set forth in Paragraph 8(c) of this Interim Order, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, all to the extent provided in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and expenses, including the fees and expenses of counsel and advisors to the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the Prepetition Agents, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the Prepetition Agents, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice as provided for herein.

(b) The Debtors shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay all fees and expenses described above, which obligations shall constitute DIP Obligations. Provided no Fee Objection (defined below) has been made, the Debtors shall pay the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket professional fees, expenses, and disbursements of professionals to the extent provided for in paragraph 8(c) of this Interim Order (collectively, the "Lender Professionals" and, each, a "Lender Professional") as soon as reasonably practicable after a ten (10) Business Days review period commencing with the receipt by counsel for the Debtors, any Committee, and the U.S. Trustee of each of the invoices therefor (the "Invoiced Fees" and such review period, the "Review Period") and without the necessity of filing formal fee applications, including such amounts arising before the Petition Date. Invoiced Fees shall be in the form of an invoice summary for professional fees and categorized expenses incurred during the pendency of the Cases, and such invoice summary shall not be required to contain time entries, but shall include a general, brief description of the nature of the matters for which services were performed, and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any work product doctrine, privilege or protection, common interest doctrine privilege or protection, any other evidentiary privilege or protection recognized under applicable law, or any other confidential information, and the provision of such invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, privilege or protection, common interest doctrine privilege or protection, or any other evidentiary privilege or protection recognized under applicable law; provided that, upon the request of the U.S. Trustee prior to the expiration of the Review Period, the applicable Lender Professional shall provide more detailed support of the Invoiced Fees to the U.S. Trustee on a confidential basis. The Debtors, any Committee, or the U.S. Trustee (collectively, the "Fee Notice Parties") may dispute the payment of any portion of the Invoiced Fees (the "Disputed Invoiced Fees") if, within the Review Period, a Fee Notice Party notifies the submitting party in writing setting forth the specific objections (a "Fee Objection") to the Disputed Invoiced Fees (to be followed by the filing with the Court, if necessary, of a motion or other pleading, with at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the submitting party of any hearing on such motion or other pleading). For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall promptly pay in full all Invoiced Fees in accordance with the terms of this paragraph other than the Disputed Invoiced Fees.

(c) In addition, the Debtors will indemnify the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and their respective affiliates, successors, and assigns and the officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, advisors, controlling persons, and members of each of the foregoing (each, an "Indemnified Person") and hold them harmless from and against all costs, expenses (including but not limited to reasonable and documented out-of-pocket legal fees and expenses), and liabilities arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated hereby and any actual or proposed use of the proceeds of any loans made under the DIP Facility; provided that no such person will be indemnified for costs, expenses, or liabilities to the extent determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have been incurred solely by reason of the gross negligence, actual fraud, bad faith, or willful misconduct of such person (or their related persons). No Indemnified Person shall have any liability (whether direct or indirect, in contract, tort, or otherwise) to the Debtors or any shareholders or creditors of the Debtors for or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except to the extent such liability is found in a final non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted solely from such Indemnified Person's gross negligence, actual fraud, bad faith, or willful misconduct or, solely with respect to the DIP Lenders, breach of their obligations under the DIP Documents, and in no event shall any Indemnified Person be liable on any theory of liability for any special, indirect, consequential, or punitive damages.

19. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder, or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

20. Section 507(b) Reservation. Subject to the Carve Out, nothing herein shall impair or modify the application of section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Secured Parties is insufficient to compensate for any Diminution in Value of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral during the Cases. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed a finding by the Court, or an acknowledgment by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties that the adequate protection granted herein does in fact adequately protect any of the Prepetition Secured Parties against any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including the Cash Collateral).

21. Insurance. Until the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, at all times the Debtors shall maintain casualty and loss insurance coverage for the Prepetition Collateral and the DIP Collateral on the terms set forth in the DIP Documents.

22. No Waiver for Failure to Seek Relief. The failure or delay of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or the Required DIP Lenders to exercise rights and remedies under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, or applicable law, as the case may be, shall not constitute a waiver of their respective rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise.

23. Perfection of the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) The DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the Prepetition Agents are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record financing statements, intellectual property filings, mortgages, deposit account control agreements, notices of lien, or similar instruments in any jurisdiction in order to validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted hereunder. Whether or not the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) shall choose to file such financing statements, intellectual property filings, mortgages, notices of lien, or similar instruments, such liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable, and not, subject to the Challenge Period, subject to challenge, dispute, or subordination as of the date of entry of this Interim Order. If the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) determine to file or execute any financing statements, agreements, notice of liens, or similar instruments, the Debtors shall cooperate and assist in any such execution and/or filings as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders), and the automatic stay shall be modified to allow such filings.

(b) A certified copy of this Interim Order may be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices by or on behalf of the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien, or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized to accept such certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and recording; provided, however, that notwithstanding the date of any such filing, the date of such perfection shall be the date of this Interim Order.

(c) Any provision of any lease or other license, contract or other agreement that requires (i) the consent or approval of one or more landlords or other parties or (ii) the payment of any fees or obligations to any governmental entity, in order for any Debtor to pledge, grant, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer any such leasehold interest, or the proceeds thereof, or other collateral related thereto, is hereby deemed to be inconsistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to applicable law. Any such provision shall have no force and effect with respect to the granting of the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens on such leasehold interest or the proceeds of any assignment and/or sale thereof by any Debtor in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement or this Interim Order, subject to applicable law.

24. Reserved.

25. Release. Subject to the rights and limitations set forth in Paragraphs E(v) and 12 of this Interim Order, and effective upon entry of this Interim Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on their own behalf and on behalf of each of their predecessors, their successors, and assigns, shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, unconditionally, irrevocably, and fully forever release, remise, acquit, relinquish, irrevocably waive, and discharge each of the DIP Secured Parties, and each of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and each of their respective affiliates, former, current, or future officers, employees, directors, agents, representatives, owners, members, partners, financial advisors, legal advisors, shareholders, managers, consultants, accountants, attorneys, affiliates, assigns, and predecessors in interest, each in their capacity as such, of and from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, responsibilities, disputes, remedies, causes of action, indebtedness and obligations, rights, assertions, allegations, actions, suits, controversies, proceedings, losses, damages, injuries, attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, or judgments of every type, whether known, unknown, asserted, unasserted, suspected, unsuspected, accrued, unaccrued, fixed, contingent, pending, or threatened, including, without limitation, all legal and equitable theories of recovery, arising under common law, statute, or regulation or by contract, of every nature and description that exist on the date hereof with respect to or relating to the DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Obligations, the Prepetition Liens, or the Prepetition Credit Documents, as applicable, including, without limitation, (i) any so-called "lender liability" or equitable subordination claims or defenses, (ii) any and all claims and causes of action arising under the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) any and all claims and causes of action regarding the validity, priority, extent, enforceability, perfection, or avoidability of the liens or claims of the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties; provided that nothing in this paragraph shall in any way limit or release the obligations of any DIP Secured Party under the DIP Documents.

26. Credit Bidding. Subject to the terms of the RSA, and section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Agent (at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) shall have the right to credit bid (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles), up to the full amount of the underlying lenders' respective claims, including, for the avoidance of doubt, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, if any, in any sale of all or any portion of the Prepetition Collateral or the DIP Collateral, including, without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any chapter 11 plan subject to confirmation under Bankruptcy Code section 1129(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(iii).

27. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Interim Order.

(a) Unless and until all DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility are terminated, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Credit Documents or this Interim Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against such DIP Collateral; and (ii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral, except as set forth in Paragraph 23 herein.

(b) In the event this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified on appeal or otherwise, any liens or claims granted to the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties hereunder arising prior to the effective date of any such vacatur, reversal, or modification of this Interim Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, including entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits afforded in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Unless and until all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Obligations, and Adequate Protection Payments are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility are terminated, the Debtors irrevocably waive the right to seek and shall not seek or consent to, directly or indirectly (i) except as permitted under the DIP Documents or, if not provided for therein, with the prior written consent of the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the DIP Escrow Agent, the Required DIP Lenders, the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), the Required Prepetition First Lien

Lenders, the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders), and the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders, (x) any modification, stay, vacatur, or amendment of this Interim Order or (y) a priority claim for any administrative expense or unsecured claim against any of the Debtors (now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, any administrative expense of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) in any of the Cases, pari passu with or senior to the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, or the Prepetition Obligations, or (z) any other order allowing use of the DIP Collateral; (ii) except as permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Carve Out), any lien on any of the DIP Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral with priority equal or superior to the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens or the Prepetition Liens, as applicable; (iii) the use of Cash Collateral for any purpose other than as permitted in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order; (iv) except as set forth in the DIP Documents, the return of goods pursuant to section 546(h) of the Bankruptcy Code (or other return of goods on account of any prepetition indebtedness) to any creditor of any Debtor; (v) an order converting or dismissing any of the Cases; (vi) an order appointing a chapter 11 trustee in any of the Cases; or (vii) an order appointing an examiner with enlarged powers in any of the Cases.

(d) Notwithstanding any order dismissing any of the Cases entered at any time, (x) the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and the other administrative claims granted pursuant to this Interim Order, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Interim Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Payments are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash (and such DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and the other administrative claims granted pursuant to this Interim Order, shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); and (y) to the fullest extent permitted by law the Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens, and security interests referred to in clause (x) above.

(e) Except as expressly provided in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired, or discharged by (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Cases to a case under chapter 7, dismissing any of the Cases, terminating the joint administration of these Cases or by any other act or omission, (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Cases. Pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Cases cease to be jointly administered, or in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code. The DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations and the Adequate Protection Payments are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash (or, with respect to the DIP Obligations, otherwise satisfied in a manner agreed to by the Required DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders), and the DIP Escrow Agent).

(f) Other than as set forth in this Interim Order, neither the DIP Liens nor the Adequate Protection Liens shall be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest granted in any of the Cases or arising after the Petition Date, and neither the DIP Liens nor the Adequate Protection Liens shall be subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code.

28. Limitation on Use of DIP Facility Proceeds, DIP Collateral, and Cash Collateral. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Interim Order, none of the DIP Facility, the DIP Collateral, the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, or the Carve Out or proceeds thereof may be used: (a) to investigate (including by way of examinations or discovery proceedings), initiate, seek standing with respect to, assert, prosecute, join, commence, support, or finance the initiation or prosecution of any claim, counterclaim, action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defense, adversary proceeding, or other litigation of any type (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties (each in their capacities as such), and each of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, consultants, financial advisors, affiliates, assigns, or successors, with respect to any transaction, occurrence, omission, action, or other matter (including formal discovery proceedings in anticipation thereof), including, without limitation, any so-called "lender liability" claims and causes of action, or seeking relief that would impair the rights and remedies of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties (each in their capacities as such) under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or this Interim Order, including,

29. Conditions Precedent. No DIP Lender shall have any obligation to make any DIP Loan under the respective DIP Documents unless all of the conditions precedent to the making of such extensions of credit under the applicable DIP Documents have been satisfied in full or waived in accordance with such DIP Documents.

30. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Interim Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Cases, including without limitation, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties, any Committee appointed in these Cases, and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties; provided that, except to the extent expressly set forth in this Interim Order, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of Cash Collateral or to extend any financing to any chapter 7 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors. In determining to make any loan (whether under the DIP Credit Agreement, a promissory note or otherwise) to permit the use of Cash Collateral or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) be deemed to be in control of the operations of the Debtors, or (ii) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders, or estates.

31. Limitation of Liability. Subject to entry of a Final Order, in determining to make any loan under the DIP Documents, permitting the use of Cash Collateral, or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, solely by reason thereof, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq. as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Furthermore, nothing in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or post-petition activities of any of the Debtors.

32. No Requirement to File Claim for DIP Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any prior or subsequent order of the Court, including, without limitation, any order establishing a deadline for the filing of proofs of claim or requests for payment of administrative expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, none of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or any DIP Lender shall be required to file any proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses with respect to any of the DIP Obligations, all of which shall be due and payable in accordance with the DIP Documents without the necessity of filing any such proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses, and the failure to file any such proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses shall not affect the validity, priority, or enforceability of any of the DIP Documents or of any indebtedness, liabilities, or obligations arising at any time thereunder or prejudice or otherwise adversely affect the DIP Agent's, the DIP Escrow Agent's, or any DIP Lender's rights, remedies, powers, or privileges under any of the DIP Documents, this Interim Order, or applicable law. The provisions set forth in this paragraph are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the substantive rights of any party-in-interest or their respective successors-in-interest.

33. No Requirement to File Claim for Prepetition Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any prior or subsequent order of the Court, including, without limitation, any order establishing a deadline for the filing of proofs of claim or requests for payment of administrative expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, neither the Prepetition Agents nor any Prepetition Secured Parties shall be required to file any proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses with respect to any of the Prepetition Obligations or Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; and the failure to file any such proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses shall not affect the validity, priority, or enforceability of any of the Prepetition Credit Documents or of any indebtedness, liabilities, or obligations arising at any time thereunder or prejudice or otherwise adversely affect any Prepetition Agent's or any Prepetition Secured Party's rights, remedies, powers, or privileges under any of the Prepetition Credit Documents, this Interim Order, or applicable law. In the event any Prepetition Agent nevertheless files a proof of claim, such Prepetition Agent is hereby authorized to file a single consolidated master proof of claim for all applicable Prepetition Obligations arising under the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents and applicable Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and such master proof of claim shall be deemed to constitute the filing of such proof of claim in each of the Cases of any Debtor against whom a claim may be asserted under the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents or this Interim Order. The provisions set forth in this paragraph are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the substantive rights of any party-in-interest or their respective successors-in-interest.

34. No Marshaling. Subject to entry of a Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral, and proceeds of the DIP Collateral shall be received and applied pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents notwithstanding any other agreement or provision to the contrary. Subject to entry of a Final Order granting such relief, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

35. Reserved.

36. Equities of the Case. The Prepetition Secured Parties shall each be entitled to all the rights and benefits of section 522(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the "equities of the case" exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits of any of the Collateral (including the Prepetition Collateral).

37. Final Hearing. The Final Hearing on the Motion shall be held on _____, 2020, at__:__ _.m., prevailing Eastern Time. Any objections or responses to entry of a final order on the Motion shall be filed on or before 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on _____, 2020, and shall be served on: [____]. In the event no objections to entry of the Final Order are timely received, this Court may enter such Final Order without need for the Final Hearing.

38. Effect of this Interim Order. This Interim Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be enforceable immediately upon execution hereof.

39. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Interim Order.

be made by it hereunder, regardless of the failure of any other Lender to fulfill its commitments hereunder and (b) other than as expressly provided herein with respect to a Defaulting Lender, failure by a Lender to perform any of its obligations under any of the Credit Documents shall not release any Person from performance of its obligation, under any Credit Document.

2.8 Interest.

(a) The unpaid principal amount of each ABR Loan shall bear interest from the date of the Borrowing thereof until maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) at a rate per annum that shall at all times be the Applicable Margin for ABR Loans plus the ABR, in each case, in effect from time to time.

(b) The unpaid principal amount of each Eurocurrency Loan shall bear interest from the date of the Borrowing thereof until maturity thereof (whether by acceleration or otherwise) at a rate per annum that shall at all times be the Applicable Margin for Eurocurrency Loans plus the relevant Eurocurrency Rate.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise elected by the Required Lenders (which election not to impose the default interest rate set forth in this Section 2.8(c) may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors), upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, Loans and all other Obligations overdue hereunder shall bear interest, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to 2% plus the rate otherwise applicable thereto.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall accrue from and including the date of any Borrowing to but excluding the date of any repayment thereof and shall be payable in the same currency in which the Loan is denominated; provided that any Loan that is repaid on the same date on which it is made shall bear interest for one day. Except as provided below, interest shall be payable (i) in respect of each ABR Loan, monthly in arrears on the last Business Day of each month of the Borrower, (ii) in respect of each Eurocurrency Loan, on the last day of each Interest Period applicable thereto, and (iii) in respect of each Loan, (A) on any prepayment in respect thereof, (B) at maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise), and (C) after such maturity, on demand.

(e) All computations of interest hereunder shall be made in accordance with Section 5.5.

(f) The Administrative Agent, upon determining the interest rate for any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans, shall promptly notify the Borrower and the relevant Lenders thereof. Each such determination shall, absent clearly demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

2.9 Interest Periods. At the time the Borrower gives a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion in respect of the making of, or conversion into or continuation as, a Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans in accordance with Section 2.6(a), the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent written notice of the Interest Period applicable to such Borrowing, which Interest Period shall be a one month period.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above:

(a) the initial Interest Period for any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans shall commence on the date of such Borrowing (including the date of any conversion from a Borrowing of ABR Loans) and each Interest Period occurring thereafter in respect of such Borrowing shall commence on the day on which the next preceding Interest Period expires;

(b) if any Interest Period relating to a Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans begins on the last Business Day of a calendar month or begins on a day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period, such Interest Period shall end on the last Business Day of the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period;

(c) if any Interest Period would otherwise expire on a day that is not a Business Day, such Interest Period shall expire on the next succeeding Business Day; provided that if any Interest Period in respect of a Eurocurrency Loan would otherwise expire on a day that is not a Business Day but is a day of the month after which no further Business Day occurs in such month, such Interest Period shall expire on the immediately preceding Business Day; and

(d) the Borrower shall not be entitled to elect any Interest Period in respect of any Eurocurrency Loan if such Interest Period would extend beyond the Maturity Date of such Loan.

2.10 Increased Costs, Illegality, Etc.

(a) In the event that (x) in the case of clause (i) below, the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders and (y) in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) below, the Required Lenders shall have reasonably determined (which determination shall, absent clearly demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto):

(i) on any date for determining the Eurocurrency Rate for any Interest Period that (x) deposits in the principal amounts and currencies of the Loans comprising such Eurocurrency Loan are not generally available in the relevant market or (y) by reason of any changes arising on or after the Closing Date affecting the applicable interbank market, adequate and fair means do not exist for ascertaining the applicable interest rate on the basis provided for in the definition of Eurocurrency Rate; or

(ii) at any time, that such Lenders shall incur increased costs or reductions in the amounts received or receivable hereunder with respect to any Eurocurrency Loans (including any increased costs or reductions attributable to Taxes, other than any increase or reduction attributable to Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes) because of any Change in Law; or

(iii) at any time, that the making or continuance of any Eurocurrency Loan has become unlawful by compliance by such Lenders in good faith with any law, governmental rule, regulation, guideline or order (or would conflict with any such governmental rule, regulation, guideline or order not having the force of law even though the failure to comply therewith would not be unlawful), or has become impracticable as a result of a contingency occurring after the Closing Date that materially and adversely affects the applicable interbank market;

(such Loans, "Impacted Loans"), then, and in any such event, such Required Lenders (or the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, in the case of clause (i) above) shall within a reasonable time thereafter give notice (if by telephone, confirmed in writing) to the Borrower, and to the Administrative Agent of such determination (which notice the Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the other Lenders). Thereafter (x) in the case of clause (i) above, Eurocurrency Loans shall no longer be available until such time as the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, notifies the Borrower, the Administrative Agent (if applicable) and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice by the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, no longer exist (which notice shall be given at such time when such circumstances no longer exist), and any Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion given by the Borrower with respect to Eurocurrency Loans that have not yet been incurred shall be deemed rescinded by the Borrower, (y) in the case of clause (ii) above, the Borrower shall pay to such Lenders, promptly after receipt of written demand therefor such additional amounts (in the form of an increased rate of, or a different method of calculating, interest or otherwise as such Required Lenders, in their reasonable discretion shall determine) as shall be required to compensate such Lenders for such actual increased costs or reductions in amounts receivable hereunder (it being agreed that a written notice as to the additional amounts owed to such Lenders, showing in reasonable detail the basis for the calculation thereof, submitted to the Borrower by such Lenders shall, absent clearly demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto), and (z) in the case of subclause (iii) above, the Borrower shall take one of the actions specified in subclause (x) or (y), as applicable, of Section 2.10(b) promptly and, in any event, within the time period required by law.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, has made the determination described in Section 2.10(a)(i)(x), the Required Lenders, in consultation with the affected Lenders, may establish an alternative interest rate for the Impacted Loans, in which case, such alternative rate of interest shall apply with respect to the Impacted Loans until (1) the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, revokes the notice delivered with respect to the Impacted Loans under clause (x) of the first sentence of the immediately preceding paragraph, (2) the Required Lenders or the affected Lenders notify the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that such alternative interest rate does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding the Impacted Loans, or (3) any Lender determines that any Requirement of Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for such Lender or its applicable lending office to make, maintain or fund Loans whose interest is determined by reference to such alternative rate of interest or to determine or charge interest rates based upon such rate or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to do any of the foregoing and provides the Administrative Agent and the Borrower written notice thereof.

(b) At any time that any Eurocurrency Loan is affected by the circumstances described in Section 2.10(a)(ii) or (iii), the Borrower may (and in the case of a Eurocurrency Loan affected pursuant to Section 2.10(a)(iii) shall) either (x) if a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion with respect to the affected Eurocurrency Loan has been submitted pursuant to Section 2.3 but the affected Eurocurrency Loan has not been funded or continued, cancel such requested Borrowing by giving the Administrative Agent written notice thereof on the same date that the Borrower was notified by Lenders pursuant to Section 2.10(a)(ii) or (iii) or (y) if the affected Eurocurrency Loan is then outstanding, upon at least three Business Days' notice to the Administrative Agent, require the affected Lender to convert each such Eurocurrency Loan into an ABR Loan; provided that if more than one Lender is affected at any time, then all affected Lenders must be treated in the same manner pursuant to this Section 2.10(b).

(c) If, after the Closing Date, any Change in Law relating to capital adequacy or liquidity of any Lender or compliance by any Lender or its parent with any Change in Law relating to capital adequacy or liquidity occurring after the Closing Date, has or would have the effect of reducing the actual rate of return on such Lender's or its parent's or its Affiliate's capital or assets as a consequence of such Lender's commitments or obligations hereunder to a level below that which such Lender or its parent or its Affiliate could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or its parent's policies with respect to capital adequacy or liquidity), then from time to time, promptly after demand by such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower shall pay to such Lender such actual additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or its parent for such actual reduction, it being understood and agreed, however, that a Lender shall not be entitled to such compensation as a result of such Lender's compliance with, or pursuant to any request or directive to comply with, any law, rule or regulation as in effect on the Closing Date or to the extent such Lender is not imposing such charges on, or requesting such compensation from, borrowers (similarly situated to the Borrower hereunder) under comparable syndicated credit facilities similar to the DIP Facility. Each Lender, upon determining in good faith that any additional amounts will be payable pursuant to this Section 2.10(c), will give prompt written notice thereof to the Borrower, which notice shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis of the calculation of such additional amounts, although the failure to give any such notice shall not, subject to Section 2.13, release or diminish the Borrower's obligations to pay additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.10(c) promptly following receipt of such notice.

(d) With respect to any alternative interest rate selected by the Required Lenders pursuant to this Section 2.10: (i) no Agent or the Escrow Agent shall be bound to follow or agree to any modification to this Agreement or any other Credit Document or any such rate that would increase or materially change or affect the duties, obligations or liabilities of any Agent or the Escrow Agent (including without limitation the imposition or expansion of discretionary authority), or reduce, eliminate, limit or otherwise change any right, privilege or protection of any Agent or the Escrow Agent, or would otherwise materially and adversely affect any Agent or the Escrow Agent, in each case in its reasonable judgment, without its express written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) and (ii) any such alternative interest rate shall be administratively feasible for the Administrative Agent.

2.11 Compensation. If (a) any payment of principal of any Eurocurrency Loan is made by the Borrower to or for the account of a Lender other than on the last day of the Interest Period for such Eurocurrency Loan as a result of a payment or conversion pursuant to Sections 2.5, 2.6, 2.10, 5.1, 5.2, or 13.7, as a result of acceleration of the maturity of the Loans pursuant to Section 11 or for any other reason, (b) any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans is not made as a result of a withdrawn Notice of Borrowing or a failure to satisfy borrowing conditions, (c) any ABR Loan is not converted into a Eurocurrency Loan as a result of a withdrawn Notice of Conversion, (d) any Eurocurrency Loan is not continued as a Eurocurrency Loan, as the case may be, as a result of a withdrawn Notice of Conversion or (e) any prepayment of principal of any Eurocurrency Loan is not made as a result of a withdrawn notice of prepayment pursuant to Sections 5.1 or 5.2, the Borrower shall, after receipt of a written request by such Lender (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such amount), promptly pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender any amounts required to compensate such Lender for any additional losses, costs or expenses that such Lender may reasonably incur as a result of such payment, failure to convert, failure to continue or failure to prepay, including any loss, cost or expense (excluding loss of anticipated profits) actually incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds acquired by any Lender to fund or maintain such Eurocurrency Loan. A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender as specified in this Section 2.11 and setting forth in reasonable detail the manner in which such amount or amounts were determined shall be delivered to the Borrower and shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

2.12 Change of Lending Office. Each Lender agrees that, upon the occurrence of any event giving rise to the operation of Sections 2.10(a)(ii), 2.10(a)(iii), 2.10(b) or 5.4 with respect to such Lender, it will, if requested by the Borrower use reasonable efforts (subject to overall policy considerations of such Lender) to designate another lending office for any Loans affected by such event; provided that such designation is made on such terms that such Lender and its lending office suffer no unreimbursed cost or other material economic, legal or regulatory disadvantage, with the object of avoiding the consequence of the event giving rise to the operation of any such Section. Nothing in this Section 2.12 shall affect or postpone any of the obligations of the Borrower or the right of any Lender provided in Sections 2.10 or 5.4.

2.13 Notice of Certain Costs. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, to the extent any notice required by Sections 2.10 or 2.11 is given by any Lender more than 180 days after such Lender has knowledge (or should have had knowledge) of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the additional cost, reduction in amounts, loss, or other additional amounts described in such Sections, such Lender shall not be entitled to compensation under Sections 2.10 or 2.11, as the case may be, for any such amounts incurred or accruing prior to the 181st day prior to the giving of notice to the Borrower; provided that, if the circumstances giving rise to such claim is retroactive, then such 180 day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

2.14 [Reserved].

2.15 [Reserved]

2.16 Defaulting Lenders.

(a) Adjustments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as that Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable Requirement of Law:

(i) Waivers and Amendments. Such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Required Lenders and Section 13.1.

(ii) Defaulting Lender Waterfall. Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 11 or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 13.9 shall be applied at such time or times as follows: first, as may be determined by the Administrative Agent to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to any Agent or the Escrow Agent hereunder; second, [reserved]; third, [reserved]; fourth, as the Borrower may request (so long as no Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement; fifth, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to (x) satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement and (y) [reserved]; sixth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower, the Lenders as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower or any Lender against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; seventh, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and eighth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 2.16(a)(ii) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(iii) Certain Fees. No Defaulting Lender shall be entitled to receive any fee payable under Section 4 for any period during which that Lender is a Defaulting Lender (and the Borrower shall not be required to pay any such fee that otherwise would have been required to have been paid to that Defaulting Lender).

(b) Defaulting Lender Cure. If the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein, that Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other

Lenders or take such other actions as may be necessary to cause the Term Loans to be held on a pro rata basis by the Lenders in accordance with their percentages of the Term Loan Commitments, whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender.

Section 3. [Reserved]

Section 4. Fees

4.1 Fees.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent in Dollars, for the account of each Lender (in each case pro rata according to the respective Commitments of all such Lenders), a commitment fee (the "Commitment Fee") on the Funding Date equal to 3.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the Term Loans.

(b) The Borrower agrees to pay (i) to the Agents and the Lenders, as applicable, for their respective accounts, the fees and other amounts due in accordance with the terms of the Fee Letter in accordance with the applicable terms thereof and (ii) to the Escrow Agent the fees set forth in the fee letter referenced in the Escrow Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall not be obligated to pay any amounts to any Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 4.1, except as otherwise set forth in Section 2.16(a)(iii)(B).

Section 5. Payments

5.1 Voluntary Prepayments.

(a) The Borrower shall have the right to prepay Term Loans, in each case, without premium or penalty, in whole or in part from time to time on the following terms and conditions: (1) the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent at the Administrative Agent's Office written notice of the Borrower's intent to make such prepayment, the amount of such prepayment and (in the case of Eurocurrency Loans) the specific Borrowing(s) pursuant to which made, which notice shall be given by the Borrower no later than 12:00 Noon (New York City time) (i) in the case of Eurocurrency Loans, three Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment, (ii) [reserved], (iii) in the case of ABR Loans, two Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment or (iv) [reserved], (2) each partial prepayment of (i) any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans shall be in a minimum amount of $5,000,000 (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) and in multiples of $1,000,000 (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) in excess thereof, (ii) any ABR Loans shall be in a minimum amount of $1,000,000 and in multiples of $500,000 in excess thereof, and (iii) [reserved]; and (3) in the case of any prepayment of Eurocurrency Loans pursuant to this Section 5.1 on any day other than the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto, the Borrower shall, promptly after receipt of a written request by any applicable Lender (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such amount), pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender any amounts required pursuant to Section 2.11.

5.2 Mandatory Prepayments.

(a) Term Loan Prepayments. Subject in all respects to the DIP Order, on each occasion that a Prepayment Event occurs, the Borrower shall, within two Business Days after receipt of the Net Cash Proceeds of any Prepayment Event (or, in the case of Deferred Net Cash Proceeds, within two Business Days after the Reinvestment Period ends), prepay, in accordance with clause (c) below, Term Loans with an equivalent principal amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds from such Prepayment Event, unless otherwise approved by the Required Lenders (which approval may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors). No prepayment pursuant to this Section 5.2(a) shall be required in respect of the sale or disposition of any Foreign Subsidiary's assets to the extent such prepayment would result in material adverse tax consequences (as reasonably determined by the Borrower in consultation with the Administrative Agent) or would be prohibited or restricted by applicable law.

(b) Reinvestment Period. Until the Reinvestment Period ends, the Parent or any Subsidiary shall apply the Net Cash Proceeds from such Casualty Event solely to reinvest in the business of the Parent or such Subsidiary in order to replace the property affected by such Casualty Event; provided that the Parent and the Subsidiaries will be deemed to have complied with this Section 5.2(b) if and to the extent that, within the Reinvestment Period after the Casualty Event that generated the Net Cash Proceeds, the Parent or such Subsidiary has reinvested such proceeds within the Reinvestment Period and, in the event any such proceeds are not reinvested within the Reinvestment Period, the Parent or such Subsidiary prepays the Loans in accordance with Section 5.2(a).

(c) Application to Repayment Amounts. Each prepayment required by Section 5.2(a) shall be allocated pro rata among the Loans based on the amounts due thereunder. With respect to each such prepayment, the Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to Section 5.2(a) two Business Days after the date of realization or receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds. Each such notice shall be irrevocable, shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such prepayment, shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit D and which shall include a calculation of the amount of such prepayment to be applied to the Term Loans requesting that the Administrative Agent provide notice of such prepayment to each Lender.

5.3 Method and Place of Payment.

(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all payments under this Agreement shall be made by the Borrower, without set-off, counterclaim or deduction of any kind, to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Lenders entitled thereto not later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time), in each case, on the date when due and shall be made in immediately available funds at the Administrative Agent's Office or at such other office as the Administrative Agent shall specify for such purpose by notice to the Borrower, it being understood that written or facsimile notice by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent to make a payment from the funds in the Borrower's account at the Administrative Agent's Office shall constitute the making of such payment to the extent of such funds held in such account. All repayments or prepayments of any Loans (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) hereunder shall be made in the currency in which such Loans are denominated and all other payments under each Credit Document shall, unless otherwise specified in such Credit Document, be made in Dollars. The Administrative Agent will thereafter cause to be distributed on the same day (if payment was actually received by the Administrative Agent prior to 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) or, otherwise, on the next Business Day in the Administrative Agent's sole discretion) like funds relating to the payment of principal or interest or Fees ratably to the Lenders entitled thereto.

(b) Any payments under this Agreement that are made later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) shall be deemed to have been made on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. Except as otherwise provided herein, whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest shall be payable during such extension at the applicable rate in effect immediately prior to such extension.

(c) Pre-Default Allocation of Payments. At all times when Section 5.3(d) does not apply and except as otherwise expressly provided herein, monies to be applied to the Obligations and the Pre-Petition Obligations, whether arising from payments by the Credit Parties, realization on Collateral, setoff or otherwise, shall be allocated as follows (subject, in all respects, to the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge):

(i) First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of the Agent Advisors payable under the Credit Documents) payable to the Agents and the Escrow Agent in their capacity as such pursuant to any Credit Document, until paid in full;

(ii) Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Lenders pursuant to any Credit Document (including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of Lender Advisors payable under Section 13.5 and amounts payable under Section 2.10 or 5.4), ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause Second payable to them, until paid in full;

(iii) Third, to pay interest and principal due in respect of all Loans, until paid in full;

(iv) Fourth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Credit Parties that are due and payable to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Escrow Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Escrow Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, until paid in full;

(v) Fifth, ratably to pay any Obligations that are that are due and payable to Defaulting Lenders, until paid in full;

(vi) Sixth, to the Pre-Petition Agents for the payment of the Pre-Petition Obligations in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreements; and

(vii) Last, the balance, if any, to the Borrower or as otherwise required by law.

Amounts shall be applied to each category of Obligations set forth above until Full Payment thereof and then to the next category. If amounts are insufficient to satisfy a category, they shall be applied on a pro rata basis among the Obligations in the category.

(d) Post-Default Allocation of Payments. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, the Required Lenders may elect, in lieu of the allocation of payments set forth in Section 5.3(a), that monies to be applied to the Obligations, whether arising from payments by the Credit Parties, realization on Collateral, setoff or otherwise, shall, to the extent elected by the Required Lenders (in writing to the Administrative Agent), be allocated as follows (subject, in all respects, to the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge):

(i) First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of Agent Advisors payable under the Credit Documents) payable to the Agents and the Escrow Agent pursuant to any Credit Document in their capacity as such, until paid in full;

(ii) Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Lenders pursuant to any Credit Document (including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of the Lender Advisors payable under Section 13.5 and amounts payable under Section 2.10 or 5.4), ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause Second payable to them, until paid in full;

(iii) Third, to pay interest and principal due in respect of all Loans, until paid in full;

(iv) Fourth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Credit Parties that are due and payable to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Escrow Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, until paid in full;

(v) Fifth, ratably to pay any Obligations that are that are due and payable to Defaulting Lenders, until paid in full;

(vi) Sixth, to pay any other Obligations until paid in full;

(vii) Seventh, to the Pre-Petition Agents for the payment of the Pre-Petition Obligations in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreements; and

(viii) Last, the balance, if any, after Full Payment of the Obligations, to the Borrower or as otherwise required by any Requirement of Law.

Amounts shall be applied to each category of Obligations set forth above until Full Payment thereof and then to the next category. The allocations set forth in this Section 5.3(d) may be changed by agreement among the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders without the consent of any Credit Party and are subject to Section 2.16 (regarding Defaulting Lenders); provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment to Section 5.3(d) shall be permitted without the consent of the Borrower which would modify the priority of the Pre-Petition Obligations set forth therein. If amounts are insufficient to satisfy a category, they shall be applied on a pro rata basis among the Obligations in the category. Appropriate adjustments shall be made with respect to payments from other Credit Parties to preserve the allocation to Obligations otherwise set forth above in this Section 5.3(d). For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Agreement shall relieve or waive payment of the Pre-Petition Obligations in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreements.

(e) If, except as otherwise expressly provided herein (subject in all respects to the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge), any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Loans resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Loans and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other similarly situated Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Loans of other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans; provided that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant, other than to any Credit Party or Affiliate thereof (as to which the provisions of this paragraph shall apply). The Borrower consents to the foregoing and agree, to the extent they may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against the Borrower's rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of the Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(f) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders hereunder that the Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders the amount due. In such event, if the Borrower has not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation.

(g) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it hereunder, then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), (i) apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations hereunder until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid and/or (ii) hold any such amounts in a segregated account as cash collateral for, and application to, any future funding obligations of such Lender hereunder; application of amounts pursuant to (i) and (ii) above shall be made in any order determined by the Administrative Agent in its discretion.

5.4 Net Payments.

(a) Payments Free of Taxes; Obligation to Withhold; Payments on Account of Taxes.

(i) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Credit Party hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall to the extent permitted by applicable laws be made free and clear of and without reduction or withholding for any Taxes.

(ii) If any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent or any other applicable Withholding Agent shall be required by applicable law to withhold or deduct any Taxes from any payment, then (A) such Withholding Agent shall withhold or make such deductions as are reasonably determined by such Withholding Agent to be required by applicable law, (B) such Withholding Agent shall timely pay the full amount withheld or deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority, and (C) to the extent that the withholding or deduction is made on account of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes, the sum payable by the applicable Credit Party shall be increased as necessary so that after such required withholding or deductions have been made (including any such withholding or deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5.4) each Lender (or, in the case of a payment to the Administrative Agent for its own account, the Administrative Agent) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such withholding or deductions been made.

(b) Payment of Other Taxes by the Borrower. Without limiting the provisions of clause (a) above, the Borrower shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law or timely reimburse the Administrative Agent or any Lender for the payment of any Other Taxes.

(c) Tax Indemnifications. Without limiting the provisions of clause (a) or (b) above, the Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and shall make payment in respect thereof within 15 days after demand therefor, for the full amount of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 5.4) payable by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of any such payment or liability (along with a written statement setting forth in reasonable detail the basis and calculation of such amounts) delivered to the Borrower by a Lender, or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by any Credit Party to a Governmental Authority as provided in this Section 5.4, the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of any return required by laws to report such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) Status of Lenders and Tax Documentation.

(i) Each Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and to the Administrative Agent, at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable laws or by the taxing authorities of any jurisdiction and such other reasonably requested information as will permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, to determine (A) whether or not any payments made hereunder or under any other Credit Document are subject to withholding Taxes, (B) if applicable, the required rate of withholding or deduction, and (C) such Lender's entitlement to any available exemption from, or reduction of, applicable Taxes in respect of any payments to be made to such Lender by any Credit Party pursuant to any Credit Document or otherwise to establish such Lender's status for withholding tax purposes in the applicable jurisdiction. Any documentation and information required to be delivered by a Lender pursuant to this Section 5.4(e) (including any specific documentation set forth in subsection (ii) below) shall be delivered by such Lender (i) on or prior to the Closing Date (or on or prior to the date it becomes a party to this Agreement), (ii) whenever a lapse of time or change in circumstances renders such documentation obsolete, expired or inaccurate in any respect and (iii) from time to time thereafter if reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent. Each such Lender shall also promptly notify in writing the Borrower and the Administrative Agent if such Lender is no longer legally eligible to provide any documentation previously provided.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.4, no Lender or the Administrative Agent shall be required to deliver any documentation that it is not legally eligible to deliver.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person (a "U.S. Lender") shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or such other documentation or information prescribed by applicable laws or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) each Non-U.S. Lender that is entitled under the Code or any applicable treaty to an exemption from or reduction of U.S. federal withholding tax with respect to any payments hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or any successor form thereto) claiming eligibility for benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party;

(2) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI (or any successor form thereto);

(3) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate, substantially in the form of Exhibit J-1, J-2, J-3 or J-4, as applicable, (a "Non-Bank Tax Certificate"), to the effect that such Non-U.S. Lender is not (A) a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, (B) a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or (C) a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code and that no payments under any Credit Document are effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Lender's conduct of a United States trade or business and (y) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or any successor thereto);

(4) where such Lender is a partnership (for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or otherwise not a beneficial owner (e.g., where such Lender has sold a participation), Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or any successor thereto), accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI, Internal Revenue service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E and/or Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (in each case, or any successor thereto), and all required supporting documentation (including, where one or more of the underlying beneficial owner(s) is claiming the benefits of the portfolio interest exemption, a Non-Bank Tax Certificate of such beneficial owner(s)) (provided that, if the Non-U.S. Lender is a partnership and not a participating Lender, the Non-Bank Tax Certificate(s) may be provided by the Non-U.S. Lender on behalf of the direct or indirect partner(s)); or

(5) executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable laws as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in United States federal withholding tax together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable laws to permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made;

(C) if a payment made to a Lender under any Credit Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount, if any, to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (C), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(iii) On or before the date the Administrative Agent (or any successor thereto) becomes a party to this Agreement, such Administrative Agent shall provide to the Borrower two duly-signed properly completed copies of the documentation prescribed in clause (A) or (B) below, as applicable (together with any required attachments): (A) IRS Form W-9 or any successor thereto, or (B)(x) IRS Form W-8ECI, or any successor thereto with respect to payments, if any, received by the Administrative Agent for its own account, and (y) with respect to payments received on account of any Lender, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor form) certifying that the Administrative Agent is either (a) a "qualified intermediary" or (b) a "U.S. branch" and that payment it receives for others are not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, in each case certifying that the Administrative Agent is assuming primary withholding responsibility under Chapters 3 and 4 of the Code and primary Form 1099 reporting and backup withholding responsibility for payments it receives for the accounts of others, with the effect that the Borrower can make payments to the Administrative Agent without deduction or withholding of any Taxes imposed by the United States. At any time thereafter, the Administrative Agent shall update documentation previously provided (including, if applicable, any successor forms thereto) when any documentation previously delivered has expired or become obsolete or invalid or otherwise upon the reasonable request of the Borrower. The Administrative Agent shall also promptly notify the Borrower in writing of its legal inability to do so.

(f) Treatment of Certain Refunds. If the Administrative Agent or any Lender determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by any Credit Party or with respect to which any Credit Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 5.4, the Administrative Agent or such Lender (as applicable) shall promptly pay to the Borrower an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by the Credit Parties under this Section 5.4 with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including any Taxes) incurred by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that the Borrower, upon the request of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, agrees to repay the amount paid over to the Borrower pursuant to this paragraph (f) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent or such Lender in the event the Administrative Agent or such Lender is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. In such event, the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, shall, at the Borrower's request, provide the Borrower with a copy of any notice of assessment or other evidence of the requirement to repay such refund received from the relevant taxing authority (provided that the Administrative Agent or such Lender may delete any information therein that it deems confidential). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (f), in no event will the Administrative Agent or any Lender be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this paragraph (f) the payment of which would place the Administrative Agent or any Lender in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Administrative Agent or any Lender would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This subsection shall not be construed to require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to any Credit Party or any other Person.

(g) If the Administrative Agent is a U.S. Person, it shall provide the Borrower with two duly completed original copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9. If the Administrative Agent is not a U.S. Person, it shall provide applicable Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (together with required accompanying documentation) with respect to payments to be received by it on behalf of the Lenders.

(h) [Reserved].

(i) Each party's obligations under this Section 5.4 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under the Credit Documents.

5.5 Computations of Interest and Fees.

(a) Except as provided in the next succeeding sentence, interest on Eurocurrency Loans shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed. Interest on ABR Loans shall be calculated on the basis of a 365- (or 366-, as the case may be) day year for the actual days elapsed.

(b) Fees shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed.

(c) For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) and disclosure thereunder, whenever any interest or any fee to be paid hereunder or in connection herewith is to be calculated on the basis of a 360-day or any other period of time that is less than a calendar year, the yearly rate of interest to which the rate used in such calculation is equivalent is the rate so used multiplied by the actual number of days in the calendar year in which the same is to be ascertained and divided by 360 or such other period of time, as applicable. The rates of interest under this Agreement are nominal rates, and not effective rates or yields. The principle of deemed reinvestment of interest does not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement.

5.6 Limit on Rate of Interest.

(a) No Payment Shall Exceed Lawful Rate. Notwithstanding any other term of this Agreement, the Borrower shall not be obliged to pay any interest or other amounts under or in connection with this Agreement or otherwise in respect of the Obligations in excess of the amount or rate permitted under or consistent with any applicable law, rule or regulation.

(b) Payment at Highest Lawful Rate. If the Borrower is not obliged to make a payment that it would otherwise be required to make, as a result of Section 5.6(a), the Borrower shall make such payment to the maximum extent permitted by or consistent with applicable laws, rules, and regulations (the "Maximum Rate").

(c) Adjustment if Any Payment Exceeds Lawful Rate. If any provision of this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents would obligate the Borrower to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to any Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate that would be prohibited by any applicable law, rule or regulation, then notwithstanding such provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by law, such adjustment to be effected, to the extent necessary, by reducing the amount or rate of interest required to be paid by the Borrower to the affected Lender under Section 2.8; provided that to the extent lawful, the interest or other amounts that would have been payable but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section shall be cumulated and the interest payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and after giving effect to all adjustments contemplated thereby, if any Lender shall have received from the Borrower an amount in excess of the maximum permitted by any applicable law, rule or regulation, then the Borrower shall be entitled, by notice in writing to the Administrative Agent to obtain reimbursement from that Lender in an amount equal to such excess, and pending such reimbursement, such amount shall be deemed to be an amount payable by that Lender to the Borrower.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any provision of this Agreement would oblige any Credit Party that is organized under the laws of Canada or any Province thereof to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to any Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate which would be prohibited by law or would result in a receipt by that Lender of "interest" at a "criminal rate" (as such terms are construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)), then, notwithstanding such provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by applicable law or so result in a receipt by that Lender of "interest" at a "criminal rate", such adjustment to be effected, to the extent necessary (but only to the extent necessary), as follows:

(i) first, by reducing the amount or rate of interest; and

(ii) thereafter, by reducing any fees, commissions, costs, expenses, premiums and other amounts required to be paid to the affected Lender which would constitute interest for purposes of section 347 of the Criminal Code (Canada).

5.7 Super Priority Nature of Obligations and Collateral Agent's Liens; Payment of Obligations.

(a) The priority of the Collateral Agent's Liens on the Collateral, claims and other interests shall be as set forth in the DIP Order and the Canadian DIP Recognition Order (and, for the avoidance of doubt, are subject to the Carve Out).

(b) Upon the maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) of any of the Obligations under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to immediate payment of such Obligations without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court or the Canadian Bankruptcy Court.

Section 6. Conditions Precedent.

6.2 Conditions Precedent to the Funding Date. In addition to the conditions set forth in Section 6.1, the obligations of each Lender to make any Loan hereunder on the Funding Date is subject to the satisfaction or waiver (by the Required Lenders in their sole discretion, any which waiver, and the satisfaction of the Required Lenders with any document described in Section 6 may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors), of the following conditions precedent:

(a) No Default. At the time of and immediately after giving effect to such Withdrawal and the application of the proceeds thereof, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on such date.

(b) Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 8 hereof or in any other Credit Document shall be true and correct in all material respects (except that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct in all respects) on and as of the date of such Withdrawal with the same effect as though made on and as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date (except that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct in all respects as of such earlier date).

(c) Bankruptcy Proceedings. (i) The DIP Order, the Canadian Interim Orders and the Canadian Final Order (to the extent required to be in effect on the date of such Withdrawal) shall not have been vacated, stayed, reversed, modified, or amended, in whole or in any part, without the Administrative Agent's and the Required Lenders' written consent and shall otherwise be in full force and effect; (ii) no

(h) Maximum Withdrawal. The amount of such Withdrawal does not exceed the Maximum Withdrawal Amount.

(i) Orders. Other than in connection with the Withdrawal on the Funding Date, the Canadian Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Canadian Interim Orders, and such orders shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the Required Lenders (and with respect to any provisions that affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent) in their sole discretion, be in full force and effect, and shall not have been reversed, modified, amended, stayed or vacated absent prior written consent of the Required Lenders (and with respect to any provisions that affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Required Lenders determine that the Borrower has failed to satisfy the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 7 for a Withdrawal Notice and so advise the Administrative Agent in writing (directly or through the Specified Lender Advisors), the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders) shall communicate the same to the Escrow Agent.

On any date on which the Loans shall have been accelerated, any amounts remaining in the Loan Proceeds Account, as the case may be, may be applied by the Administrative Agent to reduce the Loans then outstanding, in accordance with Section 5.3(d). None of the Credit Parties shall have (and each Credit Party hereby affirmatively waives) any right to withdraw, claim or assert any property interest in any funds on deposit in the Loan Proceeds Account upon the occurrence and continuance of any Default or Event of Default (except to fund the Carve Out).

The acceptance by the Borrower of the Loans or proceeds of a Withdrawal shall conclusively be deemed to constitute a representation by the Borrower that each of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 7 shall have been satisfied in accordance with its respective terms or has been irrevocably and expressly waived by the applicable Person; provided, however, that the making of any such Loan or Withdrawal (regardless of whether the lack of satisfaction was known or unknown at the time), shall not be deemed a modification or waiver by the Administrative Agent, any Lender or other Secured Party of the provisions of this Section 7 on such occasion or on any future occasion or operate as a waiver of (i) the right of Administrative Agent and Lenders to insist upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent with respect to any subsequent funding or issuance, (ii) any Default or Event of Default due to such failure of conditions or otherwise or (iii) any rights of any Agent, the Escrow Agent or any Lender as a result of any such failure of the Credit Parties to comply with such conditions precedent.

Section 8. Representations and Warranties

In order to induce the Lenders to enter into this Agreement and to make the Loans provided for herein, the Parent and the Borrower make the following representations and warranties to each Agent, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders on the date of each Credit Event (it being understood that the following representations and warranties shall be deemed made with respect to any Foreign Subsidiary only to the extent relevant under applicable law):

8.1 Corporate Status. Each Credit Party (a) is a duly organized and validly existing corporation, limited liability company or other entity in good standing (if applicable) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and subject to entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, and subject to any restrictions arising on account of any Credit Party's status as a "debtor" under the Bankruptcy Code, has the corporate, limited liability company or other organizational power and authority to own its property and assets and to transact the business in which it is engaged and (b) has duly qualified and is authorized to do business and is in good standing (if applicable) in all jurisdictions where it is required to be so qualified, except where the failure to be so qualified or authorized, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

8.2 Corporate Power and Authority. Subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, each Credit Party has the corporate or other organizational power and authority to execute, deliver and carry out the terms and provisions of the Credit Documents to which it is a party and has taken all necessary corporate or other organizational action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of the Credit Documents to which it is a party. Each Credit Party has duly executed and delivered each Credit Document to which it is a party and subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, each Credit Document constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of each Credit Party enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to the Legal Reservations.

8.3 No Violation. (a) Each Lender hereby irrevocably designates and appoints Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB as Administrative Agent and Escrow Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, as applicable, and irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent and the Escrow Agent, each in its respective capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Administrative Agent and the Escrow Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Section 12 (other than Sections 12.1, 12.9, 12.11 and 12.12 with respect to the Parent) are solely for the benefit of the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders, and none of the Parent, the Borrower or any other Credit Party shall have rights as third party beneficiary of any such provision. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement or any other Credit Document, neither Administrative Agent nor the Escrow Agent will have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein or in the Escrow Agreement, as applicable, or any fiduciary relationship with any Lender, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Credit Document or otherwise exist against the Administrative Agent or the Escrow Agent. In performing its functions and duties hereunder, each Agent and the Escrow Agent shall act solely as an agent of Lenders and does not assume and shall not be deemed to have assumed any obligation towards or relationship of agency or trust with or for any Credit Party or any of their respective Subsidiaries.

(b) The Administrative Agent and each Lender hereby irrevocably designate and appoint the Collateral Agent as the agent with respect to the Collateral, and each of the Administrative Agent and each Lender irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent, in such capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement or any other Credit Document, the Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth herein, or any fiduciary relationship with any of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Credit Document or otherwise exist against the Collateral Agent.

(c) Each Lender hereby irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent, based upon the instruction of the Required Lenders (but subject in all respects to the RSA), to credit bid and purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral at any sale thereof conducted by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under the provisions of the UCC, including pursuant to Sections 9-610 or 9-620 of the UCC (or any equivalent provision of the UCC), and the PPSA, at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or under Canadian Bankruptcy and Insolvency Law, or at any other sale or foreclosure conducted by the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law. In no event shall the Agent be obligated to take title to or possession of Collateral in its own name, or otherwise in a form or manner that may, in its reasonable judgment, expose it to liability; provided that if any Agent declines to take title to or possession of Collateral because it exposes it to liability, it will promptly notify the Specified Lender Advisors thereof.

(d) Each Lender irrevocably appoints each other Lender as its agent and bailee for the purpose of perfecting Liens (whether pursuant to Section 8-301(a)(2) of the UCC or otherwise), for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in assets in which, in accordance with the UCC and the PPSA or any other applicable Requirement of Law a security interest can be perfected by possession or control. Should any Lender obtain possession or control of any such Collateral, such Lender shall notify the Administrative Agent thereof, and, promptly following the Administrative Agent's request therefor, shall deliver such Collateral to the Collateral Agent or otherwise deal with such Collateral in accordance with the Administrative Agent's instructions.

12.2 Delegation of Duties. The Agents may each execute any of its duties under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents by or through agents, sub-agents, employees or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties. No Agent shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents, subagents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it in the absence of its gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined in the final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction).

12.3 Exculpatory Provisions. No Agent nor any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates shall be (a) liable for any action lawfully taken or omitted to be taken by any of them under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Credit Document (except for its or such Person's own gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined in the final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, in connection with its duties expressly set forth herein) or (b) responsible in any manner to any of the Lenders or any participant for any recitals, statements, representations or warranties made by any Credit Party or any officer thereof contained in this Agreement or any other Credit Document or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by such Agent under or in connection with, this Agreement or any other Credit Document or for the value, validity, effectiveness, genuineness, enforceability or sufficiency of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien or security interest created or purported to be created under the Security Documents, or for any failure of any Credit Party to perform its obligations hereunder or thereunder. The Administrative Agent shall not be under any obligation to ascertain or to inquire as to the observance or performance of any of the agreements contained in, or conditions of, this Agreement or any other Credit Document, or to inspect the properties, books or records of any Credit Party or any Affiliate thereof. The Collateral Agent shall not be under any obligation to ascertain or to inquire as to the observance or performance of any of the agreements contained in, or conditions of, this Agreement or any other Credit Document, or to inspect the properties, books or records of any Credit Party. The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to each Agent, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable: (i) by such Agent in each Credit Document and any other document related hereto or thereto to which it is a party and (ii) the entity serving as such Agent in each of its capacities hereunder and in each of its capacities under any Credit Document whether or not specifically set forth therein and each agent, custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder and under any Credit Document or related document, as the case may be. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, neither Agent shall be under any obligation (i) to monitor, determine or verify the unavailability or cessation of LIBOR or the Eurocurrency Rate (or other applicable benchmark interest rate), or whether or when there has occurred, or to give notice to any other transaction party of the occurrence of, any date on which such rate may be required to be transitions or replaced in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documents, applicable law or otherwise, (ii) to select, determine or designate any replacement to such rate, or other successor or replacement benchmark index, or whether any conditions to the designation of such a rate have been satisfied, (iii) to select, determine or designate any modifier to any replacement or successor index, or (iv) to determine whether or what any amendments to this Agreement or the other Credit Documents are necessary or advisable, if any, in connection with any of the foregoing. Neither Agent shall be liable for any inability, failure or delay on its part to perform any of its duties set forth in this Agreement or any other Credit Document as a result of the unavailability of LIBOR or the Eurocurrency Rate (or other applicable benchmark interest rate), including as a result of any inability, delay, error or inaccuracy on the part of any other party, including without limitation the Required Lenders or the Credit Parties, in providing any direction, instruction, notice or information required or contemplated by the terms of this Agreement and reasonably required for the performance of such duties. Neither Agent shall have any liability for any interest rate published by any publication that is the source for determining the interest rates of the Loans, including but not limited to Bloomberg (or any successor source) and the Reuters Screen (or any successor source), or for any rates compiled by the ICE Benchmark Administration or any successor thereto, or for any rates published on any publicly available source, including without limitation the Federal Reserve Bank of New York's Website, or in any of the foregoing cases for any delay, error or inaccuracy in the publication of any such rates, or for any subsequent correction or adjustment thereto.

12.4 Reliance by Agents. The Agents shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telecopy, telex or teletype message, statement, order or other document or instruction believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper Person or Persons and upon advice and statements of legal counsel (including the Agent Advisors, the Lender Advisors, the Specified Lender Advisors and counsel to the Escrow Agent), independent accountants and other experts selected by such Agent. Each Agent may deem and treat the Lender specified in the Register with respect to any amount owing hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes unless a written notice of assignment, negotiation or transfer thereof shall have been filed with the Administrative Agent. Each Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under this Agreement or any other Credit Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders as it deems appropriate or a Direction of the Required Lender or it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action. Each Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents in accordance with a request of the Required Lenders or a Direction of the Required Lenders, and such request and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all the Lenders and all future holders of the Loans; provided that the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or in the opinion of its counsel, may expose it to liability or that is contrary to any Credit Document or applicable law. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Credit Agreement or the other Credit Documents to the contrary, without limiting any rights, protections, immunities or indemnities afforded to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent hereunder (including without limitation this Section 12), phrases such as "satisfactory to the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "approved by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "acceptable to the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "as determined by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "designed by the [Administrative][Collateral] Agent", "specified by the [Administrative][Collateral] Agent", "in the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent's discretion," "selected by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "elected by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "requested by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "in the opinion of the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," and phrases of similar import that authorize or permit the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to approve, disapprove, determine, act, evaluate or decline to act in its discretion shall be subject to the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, receiving a Direction of the Required Lenders or other written direction from the Lenders or Required Lenders, as applicable, to take such action or to exercise such rights.

12.5 Notice of Default. No Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless such Agent has received written notice from a Lender or the Borrower referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default." In the event that the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall give notice thereof to the Lenders, the Escrow Agent and the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by the Required Lenders; provided that unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received such directions, the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interests of the Lenders except to the extent that this Agreement requires that such action be taken only with the approval of the Required Lenders or each of the Lenders, as applicable.

12.6 Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Other Lenders. Each Lender expressly acknowledges that no Agent nor the Escrow Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by any Agent or the Escrow Agent hereinafter taken, including any review of the affairs of any Credit Party, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by any Agent or the Escrow Agent to any Lender. Each Lender represents to the Agents that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own appraisal of an investigation into the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of the Borrower and each other Credit Party and made its own decision to make its Loans hereunder and enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also represents that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and to make such investigation as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of any of the Credit Parties. Except for notices, reports, and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders by the Administrative Agent hereunder, no Agent nor the Escrow Agent shall have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender with any credit or other information concerning the business, assets, operations, properties, financial condition, prospects or creditworthiness of any Credit Party that may come into the possession of any Agent or the Escrow Agent or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates.

12.7 Indemnification. The Lenders agree to severally indemnify each Agent and the Escrow Agent in its capacity as such (to the extent not reimbursed by the Credit Parties and without limiting the obligation of the Credit Parties to do so), ratably according to their respective portions of the Total Credit

Exposure in effect on the date on which indemnification is sought (or, if indemnification is sought after the date upon which the Commitments shall have terminated and the Loans shall have been paid in full, ratably in accordance with their respective portions of the Total Credit Exposure in effect immediately prior to such date), from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses, or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time (including at any time following the payment of the Loans) be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against an Agent or the Escrow Agent in any way relating to or arising out of the Commitments, this Agreement, any of the other Credit Documents or any documents contemplated by or referred to herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or any action taken or omitted by the any Agent or the Escrow Agent under or in connection with any of the foregoing; provided that no Lender shall be liable to an Agent or the Escrow Agent for the payment of any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from such Agent's or the Escrow Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, further, that no action taken by any Agent or the Escrow Agent in accordance with the directions of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be required by the Credit Documents) shall be deemed to constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct for purposes of this Section 12.7. In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time occur (including at any time following the payment of the Loans), this Section 12.7 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Lender or any other Person. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse each Agent and the Escrow Agent upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out-of-pocket expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by such Agent or the Escrow Agent in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice rendered in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Credit Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that such Agent or the Escrow Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of the Borrower; provided that such reimbursement by the Lenders shall not affect the Borrower's continuing reimbursement obligations with respect thereto. If any indemnity furnished to any Agent or the Escrow Agent for any purpose shall, in the opinion of such Agent or the Escrow Agent, as applicable, be insufficient or become impaired, such Agent or the Escrow Agent may call for additional indemnity and cease, or not commence, to do the acts indemnified against until such additional indemnity is furnished; provided that in no event shall this sentence require any Lender to indemnify any Agent or the Escrow Agent against any liability, obligation, loss, damage, penalty, action, judgment, suit, cost, expense or disbursement in excess of such Lender's pro rata portion thereof; and provided, further, this sentence shall not be deemed to require any Lender to indemnify any Agent or the Escrow Agent against any liability, obligation, loss, damage, penalty, action, judgment, suit, cost, expense or disbursement resulting from such Agent's or the Escrow Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The agreements in this Section 12.7 shall survive the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder. The indemnity provided to each Agent and the Escrow Agent under this Section 12.7 shall also apply to such Agent's and the Escrow Agent's respective Affiliates, directors, officers, members, partners, representatives, assigns, controlling persons, employees, trustees, investment advisors and agents and successors.

12.8 Agents in Their Individual Capacities. If applicable, the agency hereby created shall in no way impair or affect any of the rights and powers of, or impose any duties or obligations upon, any Agent in its individual capacity as a Lender hereunder. Each Agent, the Escrow Agent and its Affiliates may make loans to, accept deposits from and generally engage in any kind of business with any Credit Party as though such Agent or the Escrow Agent were not an Agent or the Escrow Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents. With respect to the Loans made by it, each Agent and the Escrow Agent shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as any Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent or the Escrow Agent, and the terms Lender and Lenders shall include each Agent and the Escrow Agent in its individual capacity.

12.9 Successor Agents.

(a) Each Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right (subject to the consent of the Borrower (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) so long as no Event of Default is continuing), to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation (the "Resignation Effective Date"), then the retiring Agent may on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above (including receipt of the Borrower's consent); provided that if the any Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) With effect from the Resignation Effective Date, (1) the retiring or removed agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Credit Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Credit Documents, the retiring Collateral Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security as nominee until such time as a successor Collateral Agent is appointed) and (2) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the retiring Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Agent as provided for above. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, hereunder, and upon the execution and filing or recording of such financing statements, or amendments thereto, and such amendments or supplements to the Mortgages, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as the Required Lenders may request, in order to continue the perfection of the Liens granted or purported to be granted by the Security Documents, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Credit Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section 12.9). Except as provided above, any resignation of Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB as the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 12.9 shall also constitute the resignation of Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB as the Collateral Agent and the Escrow Agent, subject to the terms of the Escrow Agreement. The fees payable by the Borrower (following the effectiveness of such appointment) to such Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, the provisions of this Section 12 (including Section 12.7) and Section 13.5 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Agent was acting as an Agent.

12.10 Withholding Tax. To the extent required by any applicable law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender under any Credit Document an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any authority of the United States or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered, was not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstances that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax ineffective) or if the Administrative Agent reasonably determines that a payment was made to a Lender pursuant to this Agreement without deduction of applicable withholding Tax from such payment, such Lender shall indemnify the Administrative Agent (to the extent that the Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by any applicable Credit Party and without limiting the obligation of any applicable Credit Party to do so) fully for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as Tax or otherwise, including penalties, additions to Tax and interest, together with all expenses incurred, including legal expenses, allocated staff costs and any out of pocket expenses. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Credit Document against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this Section 12.10. The agreements in Section 12.10 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

12.11 Agents Under Security Documents and Guarantee. Each Secured Party hereby further authorizes the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, to be the agent for and representative of the Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral and the Security Documents. Subject to Section 13.1, without further written consent or authorization from any Secured Party, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, may execute any documents or instruments necessary to (a) release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent thereof) under any Credit Document (i) upon the Maturity Date and Full Payment of all Obligations (except for contingent indemnification obligations), (ii) that is sold or to be sold or transferred as part of or in connection with any sale or other transfer permitted hereunder or under any other Credit Document to a Person that is not a Credit Party, (iii) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Credit Party, upon the release of such Credit Party from its Guarantee otherwise in accordance with the Credit Documents, (iv) as to the extent provided in the Security Documents, (v) that constitutes Excluded Property or (vi) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 13.1; (b) release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guarantee if such Person ceases to be a Credit Party (or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary) as a result of a transaction or designation permitted hereunder or (c) subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under any Credit Document to the holder of any Lien permitted under clause (vi) (solely with respect to Section 10.1(d)), and (ix) of the definition of Permitted Lien. Any such release of guarantee obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such guarantee obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the Obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Credit Parties, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Credit Parties or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

The Collateral Agent shall have its own independent right to demand payment of the amounts payable by the Borrower under this Section 12.11, irrespective of any discharge of the Borrower's obligations to pay those amounts to the other Lenders resulting from failure by them to take appropriate steps in insolvency proceedings affecting the Borrower to preserve their entitlement to be paid those amounts.

Any amount due and payable by the Borrower to the Collateral Agent under this Section 12.11 shall be decreased to the extent that the other Lenders have received (and are able to retain) payment in full of the corresponding amount under the other provisions of the Credit Documents and any amount due and payable by the Borrower to the Collateral Agent under those provisions shall be decreased to the extent that the Collateral Agent has received (and is able to retain) payment in full of the corresponding amount under this Section 12.11.

Prior to taking any action or executing any document pursuant to this Section 12.11 or Section 12.12, each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive, and may conclusively rely upon without incurring liability therefor, an officer's certificate executed by a Financial Officer of the Borrower certifying that such action and execution of such documents are authorized and permitted under this Agreement and any other Credit Document and all conditions precedent to such release or execution have been satisfied. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for executing any documents or instruments pursuant to Section 12.11 or 12.12 to the extent the Collateral Agent did so upon the Direction of the Required Lenders (which consent may be provided via email by any of the Specified Lender Advisors).

(a) Anything contained in any of the Credit Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, the Borrower (on behalf of itself and each other Credit Party), the Administrative Agent and each Secured Party hereby agree that (i) no Secured Party shall have any right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral or to enforce the Guarantee, it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies hereunder and under any of the Credit Documents may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof and all powers, rights and remedies under the Security Documents may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms thereof, and (ii) in the event of a foreclosure or similar enforcement action by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale or other disposition (including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 363(k), Section 1129(b)(2)(a)(ii) or otherwise of the Bankruptcy Code), the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or any Lender, except with respect to a "credit bid" pursuant to Section 363(k), Section 1129(b)(2)(a)(ii) or otherwise of the Bankruptcy Code) may, upon instruction from the Required Lenders, be the purchaser or licensor of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale or other disposition and the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as agent for and representative of the Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders in its or their respective individual capacities) shall be entitled, upon instructions from the Required Lenders, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such sale or disposition, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent at such sale or other disposition.

(b) Release of Collateral and Guarantees, Termination of Credit Documents.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or any other Credit Document, when all Obligations have been Paid in Full and all Commitments have terminated or expired, upon request of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Lender, or any other Secured Party) take such actions as shall be required or reasonably requested to release its security interest in all Collateral, and to release all guarantee obligations provided for in any Credit Document. Any such release of guarantee obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such guarantee obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the Obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of any Credit Party, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, any Credit Party or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

(ii) The Agents shall not be responsible for or have a duty to ascertain or inquire into any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Credit Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Agents be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral.

(iii) In case of the pendency of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or any other Debtor Relief Laws relative to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(A) to file a verified statement pursuant to rule 2019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure that, in its sole opinion, complies with such rule's disclosure requirements for entities representing more than one creditor;

(B) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Administrative Agent under this Agreement) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(C) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

(D) and any custodian, administrator, administrative receiver, receiver, receiver and manager, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under this Agreement. To the extent that the payment of any such compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent, its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under this Agreement out of the estate in any such proceeding, shall be denied for any reason, payment of the same shall be secured by a Lien on, and shall be paid out of, any and all distributions, dividends, money, securities and other properties that the Lenders may be entitled to receive in such proceeding whether in liquidation or under any plan of reorganization or arrangement or otherwise.

(iv) Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, plan of liquidation, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such proceeding.

12.13 Lender Action. Each Lender agrees that it shall not take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Credit Party or any other obligor under any of the Credit Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help), or institute any actions or proceedings, or otherwise commence any remedial procedures or cause any of the foregoing (through Affiliates or otherwise), with respect to any Collateral or any other property of any such Credit Party, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders). Without limiting the foregoing, each Lender agrees that, except as otherwise provided in any Credit Documents or with the written consent of the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders), it will not take any enforcement action, accelerate Obligations under any Credit Documents, or exercise any right that it might otherwise have under applicable Requirement of Law to credit bid or purchase any portion of the Collateral at any sale or foreclosure thereof referred to in Section 12.1; provided that nothing contained in this Section shall affect any Lender's right to credit bid its pro rata share of the Obligations pursuant to Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code.

12.14 Carve Out Account. In connection with the DIP Order, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized and directed to establish and maintain a single segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the "Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve Account" and a single segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the "Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve Account" (such accounts, collectively, the "Carve Out Accounts"). Funds will be deposited into and remitted from the Carve Out Accounts in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the DIP Order.

Section 13. Miscellaneous

13.1 Amendments, Waivers, and Releases.

(a) (a) Neither this Agreement nor any other Credit Document, nor any terms hereof or thereof, may be amended, supplemented or modified except in accordance with the provisions of this Section 13.1. Other than with respect to any amendment, modification or waiver contemplated in the proviso to clause (i) below, which shall only require the consent of the Lenders expressly set forth therein and not the Required Lenders, the Required Lenders may, or, with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent may, from time to time, (A) enter into with the relevant Credit Party or Credit Parties written amendments, supplements or modifications hereto and to the other Credit Documents for the purpose of adding any provisions to this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Lenders or of the Credit Parties hereunder or thereunder or (B) waive in writing, on such terms and conditions as the Required Lenders or the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, may specify in such instrument, any of the requirements of this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or any Default or Event of Default and its consequences; provided, however, that each such waiver and each such amendment, supplement or modification shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; and provided, further, that no such waiver and no such amendment, supplement or modification shall (x) (i) forgive or reduce any portion of any Loan or extend the scheduled maturity date of any Loan or reduce the stated rate of interest, premium or fees (it being understood that only the consent of the Required Lenders shall be necessary to waive any obligation of the Borrower to pay interest at the "default rate" or amend Section 2.8(c)), or forgive any portion thereof, or extend the date for the payment of any interest, premium or fee payable hereunder (other than as a result of waiving the applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates), or amend or modify any provisions of Sections 5.3(a) (with respect to the ratable allocation of any payments only) 13.9(a) or 13.20, or make any Loan, interest, Fee or other amount payable in any currency other than expressly provided herein, in each case without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby; provided that a waiver of any condition precedent in Sections 6 or 7 of this Agreement, the waiver of any Default, Event of Default, default interest, mandatory prepayment or reductions, any modification, waiver or amendment to the financial covenant definitions or financial ratios or any component thereof or the waiver of any other covenant shall not constitute an increase of any Commitment of a Lender, a reduction or forgiveness in the interest rates or the fees or premiums or a postponement of any date scheduled for the payment of principal, premium, interest or fees or an extension of the final maturity of any Loan or the scheduled termination date of any Commitment, in each case for purposes of this clause (i), or (ii) consent to the assignment or transfer by the Borrower of its rights and obligations under any Credit Document to which it is a party (except as permitted pursuant to Section 10.3), in each case without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, or (iii) amend, modify or waive any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document without the written consent of each Agent or the Escrow Agent in a manner that directly and adversely affects such Agent or the Escrow Agent, as applicable, or (iv) [reserved], or (v) [reserved], or (vi) [reserved], or (vii) release all or substantially all of the Guarantors under the Guarantees (except as expressly permitted by the Guarantees or this Agreement) or release all or substantially all of the Collateral under the Security Documents (except as expressly permitted by the Security Documents or this Agreement) without the prior written consent of each Lender, or (viii) [reserved], or (ix) reduce the percentages specified in the definitions of the terms Required Lenders or amend, modify or waive any provision of this Section 13.1 that has the effect of decreasing the number of Lenders that must approve any amendment, modification or waiver, without the written consent of each Lender or (y) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clause (x), (i) extend the final expiration date of any Lender's Commitment or (ii) increase the aggregate amount of the Commitments of any Lender, in each case, without the written consent of such Lender.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder, except (x) that the Commitment of such Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender, (y) for any such amendment, waiver or consent that treats such Defaulting Lender disproportionately from the other Lenders (other than because of its status as a Defaulting Lender), and (z) that the principal amount of any Loan owed to such Lender may not be decreased or reduced without the consent of such Lender.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) Any such waiver and any such amendment, supplement or modification shall apply equally to each of the affected Lenders and shall be binding upon the Parent, the Borrower, such Lenders, the Administrative Agent and all future holders of the affected Loans. In the case of any waiver, the Parent, the Borrower, the Lenders and the Administrative Agent shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, and any Default or Event of Default waived shall be deemed to be cured and not continuing, it being understood that no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon. In connection with the foregoing provisions, the Administrative Agent may, but shall have no obligations to, with the concurrence of any Lender, execute amendments, modifications, waivers or consents on behalf of such Lender.

(e) [Reserved].

(f) [Reserved].

(g) The Lenders hereby irrevocably agree that the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent by the Credit Parties on any Collateral shall be automatically released (i) in full, upon the termination of this Agreement and the payment of all Obligations hereunder (except for contingent indemnification obligations in respect of which a claim has not yet been made), (ii) upon the sale or other disposition of such Collateral (including as part of or in connection with any other sale or other disposition permitted hereunder) to any Person other than another Credit Party, to the extent such sale or other disposition is made in compliance with the terms of this Agreement, (iii) to the extent such Collateral is comprised of property leased to a Credit Party, upon termination or expiration of such lease, (iv) if the release of such Lien is approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other percentage of the Lenders whose consent may be required in accordance with this Section 13.1), (v) to the extent the property constituting such Collateral is owned by any Guarantor, upon the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under the applicable Guarantee (in accordance with the second following sentence), (vi) as required to effect any sale or other disposition of Collateral in connection with any exercise of remedies of the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Security Documents, and (vii) if such assets constitute Excluded Property. Any such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect, or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those being released) upon (or obligations (other than those being released) of the Credit Parties in respect of) all interests retained by the Credit Parties, including the proceeds of any sale, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral except to the extent otherwise released in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Documents. Additionally, the Lenders hereby irrevocably agree that any Subsidiary that is a Guarantor shall be released from the Guarantees upon consummation of any transaction not prohibited hereunder resulting in such Subsidiary ceasing to constitute a Subsidiary. The Lenders hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to execute and deliver any instruments, documents, and agreements necessary or desirable to evidence and confirm the release of any Guarantor or Collateral pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, all without the further consent or joinder of any Lender. Prior to taking any action or executing any document pursuant to this section, each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive, and may conclusively rely upon without incurring liability therefor, an officer's certificate executed by officer of the Borrower certifying that such action and execution of such documents are authorized and permitted under this Agreement and any other Credit Document and all conditions precedent to such release or execution have been satisfied.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Credit Documents may be amended to add syndication or documentation agents and make customary changes and references related thereto with the consent of only the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

(i) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement (including, without limitation, this Section 13.1) or any other Credit Document to the contrary, (i) [reserved]; (ii) [reserved]; (iii) any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document may be amended by an agreement in writing entered into by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to (x) cure any ambiguity, omission, mistake, defect or inconsistency (as reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower) and (y) effect administrative changes of a technical or immaterial nature and such amendment shall be deemed approved by the Lenders if the Lenders shall have received at least five Business Days' prior written notice of such change and the Administrative Agent shall not have received, within five Business Days of the date of such notice to the Lenders, a written notice from the Required Lenders stating that the Required Lenders object to such amendment; and (iv) guarantees, collateral documents and related documents executed by Credit Parties in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Required Lenders (which approval may be communicated via email by any Specified Lender Advisor) and may be, together with any other Credit Document, entered into, amended, supplemented or waived, without the consent of any other Person, by the applicable Credit Party or Credit Parties and the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (in each case acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders in their sole discretion), to (A) effect the granting, perfection, protection, expansion or enhancement of any security interest in any Collateral or additional property to become Collateral for the benefit of the Secured Parties, (B) as required by local law or advice of counsel to give effect to, or protect any security interest for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in any property or so that the security interests therein comply with any applicable Requirement of Law, or (C) to cure ambiguities, omissions, mistakes or defects (as reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent, the Required Lenders and the Borrower) or to cause such guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any Security Document to the contrary, the Required Lenders may, in their sole discretion, grant extensions of time for the satisfaction of any of the requirements under Sections 9.12, 9.13 and 9.14 or any Security Documents in respect of any particular Collateral or any particular Subsidiary if it determines that the satisfaction thereof with respect to such Collateral or such Subsidiary cannot be accomplished without undue expense or unreasonable effort or due to factors beyond the control of the Borrower and the other Credit Parties by the time or times at which it would otherwise be required to be satisfied under this Agreement or any Security Documents.

13.2 Notices. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices and other communications provided for hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall be in writing (including by facsimile transmission). All such written notices shall be mailed, faxed or delivered to the applicable address, facsimile number or electronic mail address, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(a) if to the Parent, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 13.2 or to such other address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number as shall be designated by such party in a notice to the other parties; and

(b) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire or to such other address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number as shall be designated by such party in a notice to the Parent, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent.

All such notices and other communications shall be deemed to be given or made upon the earlier to occur of (i) actual receipt by the relevant party hereto and (ii) (A) if delivered by hand or by courier, when signed for by or on behalf of the relevant party hereto; (B) if delivered by mail, three Business Days after deposit in the mails, postage prepaid; (C) if delivered by facsimile, when sent and receipt has been confirmed by telephone; and (D) if delivered by electronic mail, when delivered; provided that notices and other communications to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders pursuant to Sections 2.3, 2.6, 2.9 and 5.1 shall not be effective until received.

13.3 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the other Credit Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers, and privileges provided by law.

13.4 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder, in the other Credit Documents and in any document, certificate or statement delivered pursuant hereto or in connection herewith shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the making of the Loans hereunder.

13.5 Payment of Expenses; Indemnification.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay promptly following demand (and in any event as required by the DIP Order and/or the Canadian DIP Recognition Order), without the requirement of prior Bankruptcy Court approval and whether incurred before or after the Petition Date, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket legal, accounting, appraisal, consulting, financial advisory and other fees, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, in respect of the Specified Lender Advisors, the Crossholder Lender Advisors, the Lender Advisors and the Agent Advisors) incurred by the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Ad Hoc Group of Crossholder Lenders and their respective Affiliates in connection with the negotiation, preparation and administration of the Credit Documents, the Interim Order, the Final Order, the Canadian DIP Recognition Order or incurred in connection with:

(i) amendment, modification or waiver of, consent with respect to, or termination of, any of the Credit Documents or advice in connection with the syndication and administration of the Loans made pursuant hereto, including any Withdrawal, or its rights hereunder or thereunder

(ii) any litigation, contest, dispute, suit, proceeding or action (whether instituted by the Agents, any Lender, the Borrower or any other Person and whether as a party, witness or otherwise) in any way relating to the Collateral, any of the Credit Documents, the Pre-Petition Credit Documents, or any other agreement to be executed or delivered in connection herewith or therewith, including any litigation, contest, dispute, suit, case, proceeding or action, and any appeal or review thereof, in connection with a case or proceeding commenced by or against any Credit Party or any other Person that may be obligated to the Agents or the Lenders by virtue of the Credit Documents, including any such litigation, contest, dispute, suit, proceeding or action arising in connection with any work-out or restructuring of the Loans during the pendency of one or more Events of Default; provided that no Person shall be entitled to reimbursement under this clause (ii) in respect of any litigation, contest, dispute, suit, proceeding or action to the extent any of the foregoing results from such Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction);

(iii) any attempt to enforce or prosecute any rights or remedies of the Agents or any Lender against any or all of the Credit Parties or any other Person that may be obligated to the Agents or any Lender by virtue of any of the Credit Documents, including any such attempt to enforce any such remedies in the course of any work-out or restructuring of the Loans prior to or during the pendency of one or more Events of Default;

(iv) any work-out or restructuring of the Obligations prior to or during the pendency of one or more Events of Default;

(v) [reserved];

(vi) the obtaining of approval of the Credit Documents by the Bankruptcy Court or any other court;

(vii) the preparation and review of pleadings, documents, orders and reports related to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and any Successor Cases, attendance at meetings, court hearings or conferences related to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and any Successor Cases, and general monitoring of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and any Successor Cases and any action, arbitration or other proceeding (whether instituted by or against the Agents, any Lender, any Credit Party, any representative of creditors of an Credit Party or any other Person) in any way relating to any

Collateral (including the validity, perfection, priority or avoidability of the Liens with respect to any Collateral), the Pre-Petition Credit Documents, Credit Documents or the Obligations, including any lender liability or other claims;

(viii) efforts to (1) monitor the Loans or any of the other Obligations, (2) evaluate, observe or assess any of the Credit Parties or their respective affairs, (3) verify, protect, evaluate, assess, appraise, collect, sell, liquidate or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral or (4) settle or otherwise satisfy any charges or Liens with respect to any Collateral;

(ix) any lien searches or request for information listing financing statements or liens filed or searches conducted to confirm receipt and due filing of financing statements and security interests in all or a portion of the Collateral; and

(x) including, as to each of clauses (i) through (ix) above, all reasonable and documented professional and service providers' fees arising from such services and other advice, assistance or other representation, including those in connection with any appellate proceedings, and all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses, costs, charges and other fees incurred by such counsel and others in connection with or relating to any of the events or actions described in this Section 13.5, all of which shall be payable by Borrower to the Agents or the Lenders, as applicable.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such reasonable expenses, costs, charges and fees may include: reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses of accountants, sales consultants, financial advisors, the Agent Advisors, any Specified Lender Advisors, any Lender Advisor, environmental advisors, appraisers, investment bankers, management and other consultants; court costs and expenses; photocopying and duplication expenses; court reporter fees, costs and expenses; air express charges, and reasonable expenses for travel, lodging and food paid or incurred in connection with the performance of such legal, professional or other advisory services; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.5(a) or in any other Credit Document, each Credit Party reaffirms its obligation to pay the fees as set forth in the Financial Advisor Engagement Letters.

(b) The Borrower (on behalf of itself and the other Credit Parties) agrees to pay, indemnify and hold harmless each Lender, each Agent and their respective Related Parties (without duplication) (the "Indemnified Persons") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, demands, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses, disbursements or penalties of any kind or nature whatsoever (and the reasonable and documented fees, expenses, disbursements and other charges of any Specified Lender Advisors, any Lender Advisors and the Agent Advisors owed pursuant to Section 13.5(a)) of any such Indemnified Person arising out of or relating to any action, claim, litigation, investigation or other proceeding (regardless of whether such Indemnified Person is a party thereto), arising out of any Commitment, Loan or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, arising out of, or with respect to the Transactions or to the execution, delivery, performance, administration and enforcement of this Agreement, the other Credit Documents and any such other documents, agreements, letters or instruments delivered in connection with the transactions contemplated thereby or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including any of the foregoing relating to the violation of, noncompliance with or liability under, any Environmental Law or any actual or alleged presence, Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Materials attributable to any Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries (all the foregoing in this clause (iii), regardless of whether brought by any Credit Party, any of its subsidiaries or any other Person collectively, the "Indemnified Liabilities"); provided that the Borrower shall have no obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Person with respect to Indemnified Liabilities to the extent arising from (i) the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties as determined in a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, (ii) a material breach of the obligations of such Indemnified Person (other than with respect to each Agent) or any of its Related Parties under the terms of this Agreement by such Indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties as determined in a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, or (iii) any proceeding between and among Indemnified Persons that does not involve an act or omission by any Credit Party or any of their respective Subsidiaries; provided the Agents, to the extent acting in their capacity as such, shall remain indemnified in respect of such proceeding, to the extent that the exception set forth in the immediately preceding clause (i) of the immediately preceding proviso does not apply to such Agent at such time. The agreements in this Section 13.5 shall survive repayment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder. This Section 13.5 shall not apply with respect to Taxes, other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements arising from any non-Tax claim.

(c) Each Indemnified Person agrees (x) that the Borrower shall have no obligation to reimburse such Indemnified Person for fees and expenses and (y) to return and refund any and all amounts paid by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 13.5, in the case of each of clauses (x) and (y), to the extent such Indemnified Person is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documentation.

(d) No Credit Party or Indemnified Person (or any Related Party of an Indemnified Person) shall have any liability for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages resulting from this Agreement or any other Credit Document or arising out of its activities in connection herewith or therewith (whether before or after the Closing Date); provided that the foregoing shall not limit the Borrower's indemnification obligations to the Indemnified Persons pursuant to Section 13.5(a) or under any other provision of this Agreement or any of the other Credit Agreement Documents. No Indemnified Person (or any Related Party of an Indemnified Person) shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent that such damages have resulted from the willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of any Indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties as determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) All amounts reimbursable by the Borrower under this Section 13.5 shall constitute Obligations secured by the Collateral. The agreements in this Section 13.5 shall survive the termination of the Commitments and repayment of all other Obligations. All amounts due under this Section 13.5 shall be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Borrower of an invoice relating thereto. If the Borrower fail to pay when due any amounts payable by it hereunder or under any Credit Document, such amount may be paid on behalf of the Borrower by the Administrative Agent in its discretion by charging any loan account(s) of the Borrower, without notice to or consent from the Borrower, and any amounts so paid shall constitute Obligations hereunder.

13.6 Successors and Assigns; Participations and Assignments.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) except as expressly permitted by Section 10.3, the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void) and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 13.6. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in clause (c) of this Section 13.6) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders and each other Person entitled to indemnification under Section 13.5) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in clause (b)(ii) below and Section 13.7, any Lender may at any time assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) of

(A) the Parent; provided that no consent of the Borrower shall be required for (1) an assignment Loans or Commitments of to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender, or an Approved Fund or (2) an assignment of Loans or Commitments to any assignee if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or (3) so long as made in accordance with the RSA; and

(B) the Administrative Agent; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of any Term Loan to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

The Parent's consent shall be deemed to have been given if the Borrower has not responded within four Business Days after having received notice thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such assignment shall be made to a natural Person.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Loans, the amount of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 in the case of Term Loans (and shall, in each case be in an integral multiple thereof), unless each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent otherwise consents (which consents shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) or, if less, the assignment constitutes all of the applicable Lender's Term Loans; provided that no such consent of the Borrower shall be required if an Event of Default under Section 11.1(a) has occurred and is continuing; provided, further, that contemporaneous assignments by a Lender and its Affiliates or Approved Funds shall be aggregated for purposes of meeting the minimum assignment amount requirements stated above (and simultaneous assignments to or by two or more Related Funds shall be treated as one assignment), if any;

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided that this clause shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations in respect of the Term Loans;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance via an electronic settlement system or other method reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent, together with a processing and recordation fee in the amount of $3,500; provided that the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment;

(D) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an administrative questionnaire in a form approved by the Administrative Agent (the "Administrative Questionnaire") and applicable tax forms (as required under Section 5.4(e)); and

(E) any assignment to an Affiliated Lender (other than an Affiliated Institutional Lender) shall also be subject to the requirements of Section 13.6(h); and

(F) such assignment shall be permitted by, and in accordance with, the RSA.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent bears no responsibility for tracking or monitoring assignments to or participations by any Affiliated Lender.

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to clause (b)(v) of this Section 13.6, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5, 5.4 and 13.5). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.6 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) of this Section 13.6. For the avoidance of doubt, in case of an assignment to a new Lender pursuant to this Section 13.6, (i) the Administrative Agent, the new Lender and other Lenders shall acquire the same rights and assume the same obligations between themselves as they would have acquired and assumed had the new Lender been an original Lender signatory to this Agreement with the rights and/or obligations acquired or assumed by it as a result of the assignment and to the extent of the assignment the assigning Lender shall each be released from further obligations under the Credit Documents and (ii) the benefit of each Security Document shall be maintained in favor of the new Lender.

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at the Administrative Agent's Office a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amount of the Loans (and stated interest amounts) owing to each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates and, with respect to itself, any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. The Borrower hereby designates the Administrative Agent to serve as the Borrower's agent solely for purposes of maintaining the Register as provided in this Section 13.6(b)(iv). This Section 13.6(b)(iv) shall be construed so that all Loans are at all times maintained in "registered form" within the meaning of Section 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and any related Treasury Regulations (or any other relevant or successor provisions of the Code or of such Treasury Regulations).

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire and applicable tax forms (as required under Section 5.4(e) unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) of this Section 13.6 and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b) of this Section 13.6, the Administrative Agent shall promptly accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment, whether or not evidenced by a promissory note, shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (b)(v).

(c) (i) Any Lender may, without the consent of, or notice to the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than (x) a natural person, (y) any Credit Party or any of their Subsidiaries and (z) [reserved] (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, and (C) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in clauses (i) and (vii) of the third proviso to Section 13.1 that affects such Participant. Subject to clause (c)(ii) of this Section 13.6, the Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5, and 5.4 to the same extent as if it were a Lender (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections as though it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 13.6, including the requirements of clause (e) of Section 5.4) (it being agreed that any documentation required under Section 5.4(e) shall be provided to the participating Lender)). To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 13.9(b) as though it were a Lender; provided such Participant shall be subject to Section 13.9(a) as though it were a Lender.

(ii) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10, 2.11, 3.5 or 5.4 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive absent the sale of such the participation sold to such Participant, except to the extent such entitlement to a greater payment results from a Change in Law after the sale of the participations takes place. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest amounts) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. No Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register to any Person (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Credit Document) except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in connection with a tax audit or other proceeding to establish that such commitment, loan, or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations.

(d) Any Lender may, without the consent of, or notice to, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, or other central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender, and this Section 13.6 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(e) Subject to Section 13.16, the Borrower authorizes each Lender to disclose to any Participant, secured creditor of such Lender or assignee (each, a "Transferee") and any prospective Transferee any and all financial information in such Lender's possession concerning the Borrower and its Affiliates that has been delivered to such Lender by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement or that has been delivered to such Lender by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates in connection with such Lender's credit evaluation of the Borrower and its Affiliates prior to becoming a party to this Agreement.

(f) The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in any Assignment and Acceptance shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPV"), identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, the option to provide to the Borrower all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPV to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPV elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPV hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that no SPV shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender). In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereto hereby agrees (which agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement) that, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the payment in full of all outstanding commercial paper or other senior indebtedness of any SPV, it shall not institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, such SPV any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings under the laws of the United States or any State thereof. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.6, any SPV may (i) with notice to, but without the prior written consent of, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and without paying any processing fee therefor, assign all or a portion of its interests in any Loans to the Granting Lender or to any financial institutions (consented to by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent) providing liquidity and/or credit support to or for the account of such SPV to support the funding or maintenance of Loans and (ii) subject to Section 13.16, disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety, guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPV. This Section 13.6(g) may not be amended without the written consent of the SPV. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement but subject to the following sentence, each SPV shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5 and 5.4 to the same extent as if it were a Lender (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections as though it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 13.6, including the requirements of clause (e) of Section 5.4 (it being agreed that any documentation required under Section 5.4(e) shall be provided to the Granting Lender)). Notwithstanding the prior sentence, an SPV shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10, 2.11, 3.5 or 5.4 than its Granting Lender would have been entitled to receive absent the grant to such SPV, unless such grant to such SPV is made with the Borrower's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (and so long as no Event of Default is then continuing), (x) any Lender may, at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement in respect of its Term Loans to an Affiliated Lender; provided that:

(i) [reserved];

(ii) by its acquisition of Loans or Commitments, an Affiliated Lender shall be deemed to have acknowledged and agreed that:

(A) it shall not have any right to (I) attend or participate in (including, in each case, by telephone) any meeting (including "Lender only" meetings) or discussions (or portion thereof) among the Administrative Agent or any Lender at which representatives of the Borrower are not then present, (II) receive any information or material prepared by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or any communication by or among the Administrative Agent and one or more Lenders or any other material which is "Lender only", except to the extent such information or materials have been made available to the Borrower or its representatives (and in any case, other than the right to receive notices of prepayments and other administrative notices in respect of its Loans required to be delivered to Lenders pursuant to Section 2) or receive any advice of counsel to the Administrative Agent or (III) make any challenge to the Administrative Agent's or any other Lender's attorney-client privilege on the basis of its status as a Lender; and

(B) except with respect to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action (I) in Section 13.1 requiring the consent of all Lenders, all Lenders directly and adversely affected or specifically such Lender, (II) that alters an Affiliated Lender's pro rata share of any payments given to all Lenders, or (III) affects the Affiliated Lender (in its capacity as a Lender) in a manner that is disproportionate to the effect on any Lender, the Loans held by an Affiliated Lender shall be disregarded in both the numerator and denominator in the calculation of any Lender vote (and, in the case of a plan of reorganization that does not affect the Affiliated Lender in a manner that is materially adverse to such Affiliated Lender relative to other Lenders, shall be deemed to have voted its interest in the Term Loans in the same proportion as the other Lenders) (and shall be deemed to have been voted in the same percentage as all other applicable Lenders voted if necessary to give legal effect to this paragraph); and

(iii) the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans held at any one time by Affiliated Lenders may not exceed 25% of the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans outstanding at the time of such purchase.

For avoidance of doubt, the foregoing limitations shall not be applicable to Affiliated Institutional Lenders. None of the Borrower, the Parent, any other Subsidiary of the Parent or any Affiliated Lender shall be required to make any representation that it is not in possession of information which is not publicly available and/or material with respect to the Parent, the Borrower and their respective Subsidiaries or their respective securities for purposes of U.S. federal and state securities laws and all parties to the relevant transactions shall render customary "big boy" disclaimer letters.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Lenders hereto on the Funding Date may assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement in respect of the Term Loans on the Funding Date to an Affiliated Lender or any Pre-Petition Lender (or any Affiliated Lender thereof) in connection with the syndication of the Term Loans contemplated in the RSA.

13.8 Replacement of Lenders Under Certain Circumstances.

(a) The Borrower, at its cost and expense (which, for the avoidance of doubt, may be shared with the replacement institution with such institution's consent), shall be permitted to replace any Lender, and in the case of a Lender repay all Obligations of the Borrower due and owing to such Lender relating to the Loans that (a) requests reimbursement for amounts owing pursuant to Sections 2.10 or 5.4, (b) is affected in the manner described in Section 2.10(a)(iii) and as a result thereof any of the actions described in such Section is required to be taken, or (c) becomes a Defaulting Lender, with a replacement bank or other financial institution; provided that (i) such replacement does not conflict with any Requirement of Law, (ii) no Event of Default under Section 11.1 shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of such replacement, (iii) the Borrower shall repay (or the replacement bank or institution shall purchase, at par) all Loans and other amounts pursuant to Sections 2.10, 2.11, 5.4 or 13.5, as the case may be, owing to such replaced Lender prior to the date of replacement, (iv) the replacement bank or institution, if not already a Lender, an Affiliate of the Lender, an Affiliated Lender or Approved Fund, and the terms and conditions of such replacement, shall be satisfactory to the Required Lenders, (v) the replacement bank or institution, if not already a Lender shall be subject to the provisions of Section 13.6(a), (vi) the replaced Lender shall be obligated to make such replacement in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.6 (provided that unless otherwise agreed the Borrower shall be obligated to pay the registration and processing fee referred to therein), and (vii) any such replacement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any rights that the Borrower, any Agent, the Escrow Agent or any other Lender shall have against the replaced Lender. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each party hereto agrees that any assignment pursuant to the terms of this Section 13.7 may be effected pursuant to an Assignment and Acceptance executed by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the assignee and that the Lender making such assignment need not be a party thereto.

13.9 Adjustments; Set-off. Subject to Section 12.13, the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge,

(a) Except as contemplated in Section 13.6 or elsewhere herein, if any Lender (a "Benefited Lender") shall at any time receive any payment of all or part of its Loans, or interest thereon, or receive any collateral in respect thereof (whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by set-off, pursuant to events or proceedings of the nature referred to in Section 11.1(e), or otherwise), in a greater proportion than any such payment to or collateral received by any other Lender, if any, in respect of such other Lender's Loans, or interest thereon, such Benefited Lender shall purchase for cash from the other Lenders a participating interest in such portion of each such other Lender's Loan, or shall provide such other Lenders with the benefits of any such collateral, or the proceeds thereof, as shall be necessary to cause such Benefited Lender to share the excess payment or benefits of such collateral or proceeds ratably with each of the Lenders;

provided, however, that if all or any portion of such excess payment or benefits is thereafter recovered from such Benefited Lender, such purchase shall be rescinded, and the purchase price and benefits returned, to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

(b) Subject to the DIP Order, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, in addition to any rights and remedies of the Lenders provided by law, each Lender shall have the right, without prior notice to the Credit Parties, any such notice being expressly waived by the Credit Parties to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by the Credit Parties hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) (other than payroll, trust, tax, fiduciary, and petty cash accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by such Lender or any branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of the Credit Parties. Each Lender agrees promptly to notify the Credit Parties and the Administrative Agent after any such set-off and application made by such Lender; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

13.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Agreement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Agreement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

13.11 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

13.12 Integration. This Agreement and the other Credit Documents represent the agreement of the Borrower, the other Credit Parties, the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by the Borrower, the other Credit Parties, any Agent, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender relative to subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Credit Documents. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement or any Credit Document and the DIP Order, the provisions of the DIP Order shall govern.

13.13 GOVERNING LAW; CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINING A CONTRARY EXPRESS CHOICE OF LAW PROVISION) AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK IS SUPERSEDED BY THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

(b) ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT SHALL BE BROUGHT IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT, AND, IF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT DOES NOT HAVE (OR ABSTAINS FROM) JURISDICTION, IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND THE COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, IN EACH CASE LOCATED IN NEW YORK COUNTY, AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM ANY THEREOF, AND, BY

EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY ACCEPTS IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY, THE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS OUT OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT AND IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS SET FORTH HEREIN. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST ANY OTHER PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY EXPRESSLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE JURISDICTION OR LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUCH LITIGATION BROUGHT IN SUCH COURT AND ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH LITIGATION HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY PARTY HAS OR HEREAFTER MAY ACQUIRE ANY IMMUNITY FROM JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OR FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS (WHETHER THROUGH SERVICE OR NOTICE, ATTACHMENT PRIOR TO JUDGMENT, ATTACHMENT IN AID OF EXECUTION OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO ITSELF OR ITS PROPERTY, EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES SUCH IMMUNITY IN RESPECT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS.

13.14 Acknowledgments. The Borrower hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution, and delivery of this (a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution, and delivery of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents;

(b) (i) the credit facilities provided for hereunder and any related arranging or other services in connection therewith (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document) are an arm's-length commercial transaction between the Borrower and the other Credit Parties, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Lenders, the other Agents and the Escrow Agent on the other hand, and the Borrower and the other Credit Parties are capable of evaluating and understanding and understand and accept the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Credit Documents (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or thereof);

(i) in connection with the process leading to such transaction, each of the Administrative Agent, the other Agents and the Escrow Agent, is and has been acting solely as a principal and is not the financial advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrower, any other Credit Parties or any of their respective Affiliates, stockholders, creditors or employees, or any other Person;

(ii) neither the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender has assumed or will assume an advisory, agency or fiduciary responsibility in favor of the Borrower or any other Credit Party with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby or the process leading thereto, including with respect to any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document (irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent, other Agents, the Escrow Agent or any Lender has advised or is currently advising the Borrower, the other Credit Parties or their respective Affiliates on other matters) and neither the Administrative Agent, other Agents, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender has any obligation to the Borrower, the other Credit Parties or their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents;

(iii) the Administrative Agent, each other Agent, the Escrow Agent, each Lender and each Affiliate of the foregoing may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrower and their Affiliates, and neither the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests by virtue of any advisory, agency or fiduciary relationship; and

(iv) neither the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent any Lender nor any of their respective Affiliates has provided and none will provide any legal, accounting, regulatory or tax advice with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document) and the Borrower has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate. The Borrower hereby agrees (on behalf of itself and the other Credit Parties) that it will not claim that any Agent or the Escrow Agent owes a fiduciary or similar duty to the Credit Parties in connection with the Transactions contemplated hereby and waives and releases, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims that it may have against the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent or any Lender with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty; and

(c) no joint venture is created hereby or by the other Credit Documents or otherwise exists by virtue of the transactions contemplated hereby among the Lenders or among the Borrower, on the one hand, and any Lender, on the other hand.

13.15 WAIVERS OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE (TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW) TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

13.16 Confidentiality. The Administrative Agent, each other Agent and each Lender (collectively, the "Restricted Persons" and, each a "Restricted Person") shall treat confidentially all non-public information provided to any Restricted Person by or on behalf of any Credit Party hereunder with respect to such Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries and their businesses in connection with such Restricted Person's evaluation of whether to become a Lender hereunder or obtained by such Restricted Person pursuant to the requirements of this Agreement ("Confidential Information") and shall not publish, disclose or otherwise divulge such Confidential Information; provided that nothing herein shall prevent any Restricted Person from disclosing any such Confidential Information (a) pursuant to the order of any court or administrative agency or in any pending legal, judicial or administrative proceeding, or otherwise as required by applicable law, rule or regulation or compulsory legal process (in which case such Restricted Person agrees (except with respect to any routine or ordinary course audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any governmental or bank regulatory authority exercising examination or regulatory authority), to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform the Borrower promptly thereof prior to disclosure), (b) upon the request or demand of any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such Restricted Person or any of its Affiliates (in which case such Restricted Person agrees (except with respect to any routine or ordinary course audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any governmental or bank regulatory authority exercising examination or regulatory authority) to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform the Borrower promptly thereof prior to disclosure), (c) to the extent that such Confidential Information becomes publicly available other than by reason of improper disclosure by such Restricted Person or any of its affiliates or any related parties thereto in violation of any confidentiality obligations owing under this Section 13.16, (d) to the extent that such Confidential Information is received by such Restricted Person from a third party that is not, to such Restricted Person's knowledge, subject to confidentiality obligations owing to any Credit Party or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates, (e) to the extent that such Confidential Information was already in the possession of the Restricted Persons prior to any duty or other undertaking of confidentiality or is independently developed by the Restricted Persons without the use of such Confidential Information, (f) to such Restricted Person's affiliates and to its and their respective officers, directors, partners, employees, legal counsel, independent auditors, and other experts or agents who need to know such Confidential Information in connection with providing the Loans or action as an Agent hereunder and who are informed of the confidential nature of such Confidential Information and who are subject to customary confidentiality obligations of professional practice or who agree to be bound by the terms of this Section 13.16 (or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16) (with each such Restricted Person, to the extent within its control, responsible for such person's compliance with this paragraph), (g) to potential or prospective Lenders, hedge providers, participants or assignees, in each case who agree (pursuant to customary syndication practice) to be bound by the terms of this Section 13.16 (or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16); provided that (i) the disclosure of any such Confidential Information to any Lenders, hedge providers or prospective Lenders, hedge providers or participants or prospective participants referred to above shall be made subject to the acknowledgment and acceptance by such Lender, hedge provider or prospective Lender or participant or prospective participant that such Confidential Information is being disseminated on a confidential basis (on substantially the terms set forth in this Section 13.16 or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16) in accordance with the standard syndication processes of such Restricted Person or customary market standards for dissemination of such type of information, which shall in any event require "click through" or other affirmative actions on the part of recipient to access such Confidential Information and (ii) [reserved], (h) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense, or (i) to rating agencies in connection with obtaining ratings for the Borrower and the DIP Facility to the extent such rating agencies are subject to customary confidentiality obligations of professional practice or agree to be bound by the terms of this Section 13.16 (or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16). Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) Confidential Information shall not include, with respect to any Person, information available to it or its Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Parent, its Subsidiaries or their respective Affiliates, (ii) the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for compliance with this Section 13.16 by any other Restricted Person (other than its officers, directors or employees), (iii) in no event shall any Lender, the Administrative Agent or any other Agent be obligated or required to return any materials furnished by the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, and (iv) each Agent and each Lender may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the information about this Agreement to market data collectors, similar services providers to the lending industry, and service providers to the Agents and the Lenders in connection with the administration, settlement and management of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

13.17 Direct Website Communications. Each of the Parent and the Borrower may, at their option, provide to the Administrative Agent any information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the Credit Documents, including, without limitation, all notices, requests, financial statements, financial, and other reports, certificates, and other information materials, but excluding any such communication that (A) relates to a request for a new, or a conversion of an existing, borrowing or other extension of credit (including any election of an interest rate or interest period relating thereto), (B) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (C) provides notice of any default or event of default under this Agreement or (D) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any borrowing or other extension of credit thereunder (all such non-excluded communications being referred to herein collectively as "Communications"), by transmitting the Communications in an electronic/soft medium in a format reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent to the Administrative Agent at an email address provided by the Administrative Agent from time to time; provided that (i) upon written request by the Administrative Agent, the Borrower shall deliver paper copies of such documents to the Administrative Agent for further distribution to each Lender until a written request to cease delivering paper copies is given by the Administrative Agent and (ii) the Borrower shall notify (which may be by electronic mail) the Administrative Agent of the posting of any such documents and provide to the Administrative Agent by electronic mail electronic versions (i.e., soft copies) of such documents. Each Lender shall be solely responsible for timely accessing posted documents or requesting delivery of paper copies of such documents from the Administrative Agent and maintaining its copies of such documents. Nothing in this Section 13.17 shall prejudice the right of the Credit Parties, the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent or any Lender to give any notice or other communication pursuant to any Credit Document in any other manner specified in such Credit Document.

The Agents agree that the receipt of the Communications by any Agent at its e-mail address set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Agent for purposes of the Credit Documents. Each Lender agrees that notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) specifying that the Communications have been posted to the Platform shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Lender for purposes of the Credit Documents. Each Lender agrees (A) to notify the Administrative Agent in writing (including by electronic communication) from time to time of such Lender's e-mail address to which the foregoing notice may be sent by electronic transmission and (B) that the foregoing notice may be sent to such e-mail address.

(a) The Borrower further agrees that any Agent may make the Communications available to the Lenders by posting the Communications on Intralinks or a substantially similar electronic transmission system (the "Platform"), so long as the access to such Platform (i) is limited to the Agents, the Lenders and Transferees or prospective Transferees and (ii) remains subject to the confidentiality requirements set forth in Section 13.16.

(b) THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF ANY MATERIALS OR INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE CREDIT PARTIES (THE "BORROWER MATERIALS") OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall any Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties" and each an "Agent Party") have any liability to the Borrower, any Lender, or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's or such Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the internet, except to the extent the liability of any Agent Party resulted from such Agent Party's (or any of its Related Parties' (other than any trustee or advisor)) gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct as determined in the final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) The Borrower and each Lender acknowledge that certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to the Parent, the Borrower, the Subsidiaries or their securities) and, if documents or notices required to be delivered pursuant to the Credit Documents or otherwise are being distributed through the Platform, any document or notice that the Borrower has indicated contains only publicly available information with respect to the Borrower may be posted on that portion of the Platform designated for such public-side Lenders. If the Borrower has not indicated whether a document or notice delivered contains only publicly available information, the Administrative Agent shall post such document or notice solely on that portion of the Platform designated for Lenders who wish to receive material nonpublic information with respect to the Credit Parties and their securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall use commercially reasonable efforts to indicate whether any document or notice contains only publicly available information; provided, however, that, the following documents shall be deemed to be marked "PUBLIC," unless the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent promptly that any such document contains material nonpublic information: (1) the Credit Documents, (2) any notification of changes in the terms of the DIP Facility and (3) all financial statements and certificates delivered pursuant to Sections 9.1(b) and (d).

13.18 USA PATRIOT Act. Each Agent, the Escrow Agent and each Lender hereby notifies each Credit Party that pursuant to the requirements of the USA Patriot Act (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001)) (the "Patriot Act"), it is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each Credit Party, which information includes the name and address of each Credit Party and other information that will allow such Agent, the Escrow Agent and such Lender to identify each Credit Party in accordance with the Patriot Act.

13.19 Judgment Currency. If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder or any other Credit Document in one currency into another currency, the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with its normal banking procedures the Administrative Agent could purchase the first currency with such other currency on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The obligation of the Borrower in respect of any such sum due from it to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders hereunder or under the other Credit Documents shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than that in which such sum is denominated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Administrative Agent may in accordance with its normal banking procedures purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent from the Borrower in the Agreement Currency, the Borrower agrees, as a separate joint and several obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the Administrative Agent or the Person to whom such obligation was owing against such loss. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent in such currency, the Administrative Agent agrees to return the amount of any excess to the Borrower (or to any other Person who may be entitled thereto under applicable law).

13.20 Payments Set Aside. To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Parent or the Borrower is made to any Agent or any Lender, or any Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver, receiver and manager or any other party, in connection with any proceeding or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (b) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share of any amount so recovered from or repaid by any Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Overnight Rate from time to time in effect.

13.21 No Fiduciary Duty. Each Agent, the Escrow Agent, each Lender and their Affiliates (collectively, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the "Lenders"), may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Credit Parties, their stockholders and/or their affiliates. Each Credit Party agrees that nothing in the Credit Documents or otherwise will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between any Lender, on the one hand, and such Credit Party, its stockholders or its affiliates, on the other. The Credit Parties acknowledge and agree that (i) the transactions contemplated by the Credit Documents (including the exercise of rights and remedies hereunder and thereunder) are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Lenders, on the one hand, and the Credit Parties, on the other, and (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading thereto, (x) no Lender has assumed an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of any Credit Party, its stockholders or its affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (or the exercise of rights or remedies with respect thereto) or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether any Lender has advised, is currently advising or will advise any Credit Party, its stockholders or its Affiliates on other matters) or any other obligation to any Credit Party except the obligations expressly set forth in the Credit Documents and (y) each Lender is acting solely as principal and not as the agent or fiduciary of any Credit Party, its management, stockholders or creditors. Each Credit Party acknowledges and agrees that it has consulted its own legal and financial advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate and that it is responsible for making its own independent judgment with respect to such transactions and the process leading thereto. Each Credit Party agrees that it will not claim that any Lender has rendered advisory services of any nature or respect, or owes a fiduciary or similar duty to such Credit Party, in connection with such transaction or the process leading thereto.

13.22 Canadian Anti-Money Laundering. The Borrower acknowledges that, pursuant to AML Legislation, the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders may be required to obtain, verify and record information regarding the Borrower, its directors, authorized signing officers, direct or indirect shareholders or other Persons in control of the Borrower, and the transactions contemplated hereby. The Borrower shall promptly provide all such information, including supporting documentation and other evidence, as may be reasonably requested by any of the Agents, the Escrow Agent or the Lenders, or any prospective assignee or participant of any of the Agents, the Escrow Agent or the Lenders, in order to comply with any applicable AML Legislation, whether now or hereafter in existence.

(b) If any of the Agents or the Escrow Agent has ascertained the identity of the Borrower or any authorized signatories of the Borrower for the purposes of applicable AML Legislation, then such Agent or the Escrow Agent, as applicable:

(i) shall be deemed to have done so as an agent for each Lender, and this Agreement shall constitute a "written agreement" in such regard between each Lender and such Agent within the meaning of applicable AML Legislation; and

(ii) shall provide to each Lender copies of all information obtained in such regard without any representation or warranty as to its accuracy or completeness.

Notwithstanding the preceding sentence and except as may otherwise be agreed in writing, each of the Lenders agrees that none of the Agents nor the Escrow Agent has any obligation to ascertain the identity of the Borrower or any authorized signatories of the Borrower on behalf of any Lender, nor to confirm the completeness or accuracy of any information any of the Agents or the Escrow Agent obtains from the Borrower or any such authorized signatory in doing so.

13.23 [Reserved].

13.24 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of any Affected Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Credit Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Bank that is an Affected Financial Institution arising under any Credit Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of a Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by a Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any Bank that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Credit Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of any Resolution Authority.

F. Findings Regarding the DIP Facility and Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) The Debtors have an immediate need to obtain the funds available under the DIP Facility and to use Cash Collateral (solely to the extent consistent with the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents)) to, among other things, (A) permit the orderly continuation of their businesses; (B) make certain Adequate Protection Payments; and (C) pay the costs of administration of their estates and satisfy their other working capital and general corporate purposes during the pendency of these Cases. Specifically, the proceeds of the DIP Loans will provide the Debtors with the ability to fund day-to-day operations and meet administrative obligations during the Cases. The DIP Facility will also reassure the Debtors' customers and employees that the Debtors will have access to additional liquidity to meet their commitments during the Cases and that the Debtors' businesses will continue as a going concern post-emergence. The ability of the Debtors to obtain sufficient working capital and liquidity through the incurrence of the new indebtedness for borrowed money and other financial accommodations is vital to the preservation and maintenance of the Debtors' going concern value and successful reorganization. The Debtors will not have sufficient sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses in the ordinary course of business throughout the Cases without access to the DIP Facility and authorized use of Cash Collateral.

(ii) The Debtors are unable to obtain financing on more favorable terms from sources other than the DIP Lenders under the DIP Documents and are unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under Bankruptcy Code section 503(b)(1) as an administrative expense. The Debtors are also unable to obtain secured credit allowable under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code for the purposes set forth in the DIP Documents without the Debtors granting to the DIP Secured Parties, subject to the Carve Out as provided for herein, the DIP Liens (defined below) and the DIP Superpriority Claims (defined below) under the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents.

(iii) The DIP Facility has been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties, and all of the Debtors' obligations and indebtedness arising under, in respect of, or in connection with the DIP Facility and the DIP Documents including, without limitation, all loans made to and guarantees issued by the Debtors pursuant to the DIP Documents and all other obligations under the DIP Documents (collectively, the "DIP Obligations") shall be deemed to have been extended by the DIP Secured Parties in good faith as that term is used in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in express reliance upon the protections offered by section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. The DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, and the DIP Superpriority Claims shall be entitled to the full protection of Bankruptcy Code section 364(e) in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified on appeal or otherwise, and any liens or claims granted to, or payments made to, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or the DIP Lenders hereunder arising prior to the effective date of any such vacatur, reversal, or modification of this Interim Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, including entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein.

(iv) Sections 506(c) and 552(b). In light of the Prepetition Secured Parties' agreement to subordinate their liens and superpriority claims to the DIP Obligations and the Carve Out and to permit the use of their Cash Collateral as set forth herein, the Prepetition Secured Parties are entitled to the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, (i) a waiver of any "equities of the case" claims under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(v) Consent by Prepetition Agents. The Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition First Lien Credit Agreement (the "Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders")), on behalf of and for the benefit of each of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Lenders (as defined in the Prepetition Second Lien Credit Agreement (the "Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders")), on behalf of and for the benefit of each of the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties, have consented to, conditioned on the entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors' incurrence of the DIP Facility and proposed use of Cash Collateral on the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order and the terms of the adequate protection provided for in this Interim Order, including that the Adequate Protection Liens and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims are subject and subordinate to the Carve Out.

G. Good Cause Shown; Best Interest. Good cause has been shown for entry of this Interim Order, and entry of this Interim Order is in the best interests of the Debtors' respective estates and creditors as its implementation will, among other things, allow for the continued operation of the Debtors' existing business and enhance the Debtors' prospects for a successful reorganization. Absent granting the relief sought by this Interim Order, the Debtors' estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed.

H. Notice. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b) and (c), and 9014, and the Local Rules, notice of the Interim Hearing and the emergency relief requested in the Motion has been provided by the Debtors. Under the circumstances, the notice given by the Debtors of the Motion, the relief requested herein, and of the Interim Hearing complies with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001(b) and (c), and 9014 and applicable Local Rules.

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the Motion and the record before the Court with respect to the Motion, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

2. Objections Overruled. Any objections, reservations of rights, or other statements with respect to entry of the Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or resolved, are overruled on the merits. This Interim Order shall become effective immediately upon its entry.

3. Authorization of the DIP Facility and the DIP Documents.

(a) The Debtors are hereby immediately authorized and empowered to enter into, and to execute and deliver, the DIP Documents, and such additional documents, instruments, certificates and agreements as may be reasonably required or requested by the DIP Secured Parties to implement the terms or effectuate the purposes of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. To the extent not entered into as of the date hereof, the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties shall negotiate the DIP Documents in good faith, and in all respects such DIP Documents shall be consistent with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement and otherwise reasonably acceptable to the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the Required Lenders (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement, the "Required DIP Lenders"). Upon entry of this Interim Order and until execution and delivery of the DIP Credit Agreement and the other DIP Documents, the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties shall be bound by (x) the terms and conditions and other provisions set forth in the executed DIP Documents, and (y) this Interim Order, which shall govern and control the DIP Facility. Upon entry of this Interim Order, the Interim Order, the DIP Credit Agreement, and other DIP Documents shall govern and control the DIP Facility. The DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent are hereby authorized to execute and enter into its respective obligations under the DIP Documents, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein and this Interim Order. Upon execution and delivery thereof, the DIP Documents shall constitute valid and binding obligations of the Debtors enforceable in accordance with their terms. To the extent there exists any conflict among the terms and conditions of the Motion, the DIP Documents, and this Interim Order, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall govern and control. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Motion and the DIP Documents, the terms and conditions of the DIP Documents shall govern.

(b) Upon entry of this Interim Order, the Borrower is hereby authorized to borrow, and the Guarantors are hereby authorized to guaranty, borrowings up to an aggregate principal amount of $60,000,000 in DIP Loans into an escrow account, of which up to $30,000,000 in DIP Loans may be drawn prior to entry of the Final Order, subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents.

(c) The proceeds of the DIP Loans shall be used solely for the purposes permitted under the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, and in accordance with the Approved Budget, subject to permitted variances as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents. Attached as Exhibit 1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference is the Initial Approved Budget prepared by the Debtors and approved by the Required DIP Lenders in accordance with Section 9.18 of the DIP Credit Agreement.

(d) In furtherance of the foregoing and without further approval of this Court, each Debtor is authorized, and the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby lifted to the extent necessary to perform all acts and to make, execute, and deliver all instruments and documents, and to pay all fees, that may be reasonably required or necessary for the Debtors' performance of their obligations under the DIP Documents including, without limitation:

(1) the execution, delivery, and performance of the DIP Documents, including, without limitation, the DIP Credit Agreement, any guaranty, security and pledge agreement, and any mortgage to the extent contemplated thereby;

(2) the execution, delivery, and performance of one or more amendments, waivers, consents, or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents (in each case in accordance with the terms of the applicable DIP Documents and in such form as the Debtors, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent (if applicable), and the Required DIP Lenders may agree), it being understood that (i) no further approval of the Court shall be required for amendments, waivers, consents, or other modifications to and under the DIP Documents or the DIP Obligations that do not shorten the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder or modify the commitments or the rate of interest or other amounts payable thereunder and (ii) any such amendments, waivers, consents or modifications to the DIP Documents shall be provided to the U.S. Trustee and the Committee (if any);

(3) the non-refundable payment to each of and/or on behalf of the DIP Secured Parties, as applicable, of the fees and expenses referred to in the DIP Documents, including (x) all fees and other amounts owed to the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the DIP Lenders and (y) all reasonable and documented costs and expenses as may be due from time to time, including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of counsel and other professionals retained as provided for in the DIP Documents (whether incurred before or after the Petition Date, including, for the avoidance of doubt, (a) the Specified Lender Advisors; (b) the Crossholder Lender Advisors; and (c) the Agent Advisors (each, as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), and, solely to the extent necessary to exercise its rights and fulfill its obligations under the DIP Documents, one counsel to the DIP Agent in each local jurisdiction, which such fees and expenses shall not be subject to the approval of the Court, nor shall any recipient of any such payment be required to file with respect thereto any interim or final fee application with the Court provided that any fees and expenses of a professional shall be subject to the provisions of Paragraph 18 of this Interim Order; and

(4) the performance of all other acts required under or in connection with the DIP Documents.

(e) Upon entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the DIP Obligations, and the DIP Liens shall constitute valid, binding, and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors enforceable against each Debtor party thereto in accordance with their respective terms and the terms of this Interim Order for all purposes during the Cases, any subsequently converted Case of any Debtor to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or after the dismissal of any Case. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security under the DIP Credit Agreement, the other DIP Documents, or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, avoidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including without limitation, under sections 502(d), 548, or 549 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable state Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, or similar statute or common law), or subject to any defense, reduction, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim. (f) The Guarantors are hereby authorized and directed to jointly, severally, and unconditionally guarantee, and upon entry of this Interim Order shall be deemed to have guaranteed, in full, all of the DIP Obligations.

4. Budget and Variance Reporting. The Initial Approved Budget is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and each updated, modified, or supplemented budget shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders (it being acknowledged and agreed that the Initial Approved Budget attached to this Interim Order is approved by and satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders and is and shall be the Approved Budget unless and until replaced in accordance with terms of the DIP Credit Agreement, and that with respect to any subsequent Approved Budget, such approval and satisfaction of the Required DIP Lenders may be communicated via an email from either of the Specified Lender Advisors). The Approved Budget shall be updated, modified or supplemented by the Debtors from time to time in writing transmitted to the DIP Agent and the Specified Lender Advisors with the written consent of and/or at the request of the Required DIP Lenders (with a copy of such written consent or request concurrently delivered to the DIP Agent) (which consent may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors) (any such proposed budget, the "Proposed Budget"), but in any event not less than one time in each four (4) consecutive week period, commencing with the first full week following entry of this Interim Order, and each Proposed Budget shall be substantially in the form of the Initial Approved Budget and otherwise satisfactory to the Required DIP Lenders, and no such Proposed Budget shall be effective unless acceptable to the Required DIP Lenders (which acceptance may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors); and upon delivery of such acceptance by the Required DIP Lenders, such Proposed Budget shall be deemed the newly approved Approved Budget; provided, however, that in the event the Required DIP Lenders, on the one hand, and the Borrower, on the other hand, cannot agree as to an updated, modified or supplemented budget, such disagreement shall constitute an immediate Event of Default once the period covered by the prior approved Approved Budget has terminated (and at all times thereafter

6. DIP Superpriority Claims. Pursuant to section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all of the DIP Obligations shall constitute allowed superpriority administrative expense claims against each of the Debtors' estates (the "DIP Superpriority Claims") (without the need to file any proof of claim) with priority over any and all administrative expenses, adequate protection claims, diminution claims (if any), and all other claims against the Debtors, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and over any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to authorization in the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113, or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, which allowed claims shall for the purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and which shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including, without limitation, subject to authorization in the Final Order, any proceeds or property recovered in connection with the pursuit of claims or causes of action arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code (such claims and causes of action, the "Avoidance Actions" and, the proceeds thereof and the property recovered with respect thereto, collectively, the "Avoidance Proceeds"), if any, subject only to, and subordinated in all respects to, the payment of the Carve Out.

(b) Liens Priming the Prepetition Liens. Pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, a valid, binding, continuing, enforceable, fully-perfected first priority senior priming security interest in and lien upon all property of the Debtors that was subject to the Prepetition Liens (subject to the Carve Out) including, without limitation, the Prepetition Collateral and Cash Collateral; provided that such liens shall be immediately junior to any valid, perfected, and unavoidable liens, if any, existing as of the Petition Date that are senior in priority to the Prepetition Liens as permitted by the terms of the Prepetition Credit Documents; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (x) with respect to non-residential leases of real property, unless the applicable lease expressly permits the granting of liens on such lease, the liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order shall attach solely to the proceeds of such lease and not to the subject lease itself and (y) Excluded Property (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) shall not be subject to such liens granted pursuant to this Interim Order.

(c) Validity, Enforceability. The DIP Liens shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in these Cases, or any case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of these Cases, or in any other proceedings superseding or related to any of the foregoing (collectively, "Successor Cases"). Except as expressly provided herein with respect to the Carve Out and Existing Senior Liens, if any, the DIP Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and the DIP Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any of these Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of these Cases or Successor Cases. The DIP Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Liens shall not be subject to section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the DIP Liens shall be deemed legal, valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected first-priority liens (subject only to the Carve Out and Existing Senior Liens, if any), not subject to subordination, impairment, or avoidance, for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases.

8. Adequate Protection for the Prepetition Secured Parties. Subject only to the Carve Out and the terms of this Interim Order, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, and in consideration of the stipulations and consents set forth herein, as adequate protection of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), solely for and equal in amount to the aggregate postpetition diminution in value of such interests (if any) (each such diminution, a "Diminution in Value"), resulting from, among other things, the imposition of the priming DIP Liens on the Prepetition Collateral, subordination to the Carve Out, the Debtors' use of the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), and the imposition of the automatic stay, the Prepetition Agents, for the benefit of themselves and the other Prepetition Secured Parties, are hereby granted the following (collectively, the "Adequate Protection Obligations"):

(a) Adequate Protection Liens.

(1) First Lien Adequate Protection Liens. As security for and adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties in the Prepetition Collateral, to the extent of any Diminution in Value, the Debtors are authorized to, and as of entry of this Interim Order are deemed to have granted (without the necessity of the execution by the Debtors (or recordation or other filing), of security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, mortgages, state or federal notices, recordings (including, without limitation, any recordings with the United States Patent and Trademark or Copyright Office), or other similar documents or agreements and without the necessity of taking possession or control of any DIP Collateral) to the Prepetition First Lien Collateral Agent, for the benefit of itself and each of the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, additional and replacement, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, effective and automatically perfected postpetition security interests in and liens

(together, the "First Lien Adequate Protection Liens") on all DIP Collateral, including, subject to authorization in the Final Order, all Avoidance Proceeds. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be subordinate only to (A) the Carve Out, (B) the DIP Liens, and (C) Existing Senior Liens, if any. The First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall otherwise be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP Collateral (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code). The First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in these Cases or any Successor Cases. Except as expressly provided herein with respect to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, and the Existing Senior Liens, if any, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any of these Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of these Cases or Successor Cases. The First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be deemed legal, valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected second-priority liens (subject only to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, and Existing Senior Liens, if any), not subject to subordination, impairment, or avoidance, for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases.

(2) Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens. As security for and adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties in the Prepetition Collateral to the extent of any Diminution in Value, the Debtors are authorized to, and as of entry of this Interim Order are deemed to have granted (without the necessity of the execution by the Debtors (or recordation or other filing), of security agreements, control agreements, pledge agreements, financing statements, mortgages, state or federal notices, recordings (including, without limitation, any recordings with the United States Patent and Trademark or Copyright Office), or other similar documents or agreements and without the necessity of taking possession or control of any DIP Collateral) to the Prepetition Second Lien Collateral Agent, for the benefit of itself and each of the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties, additional and replacement, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and effective and automatically perfected postpetition security interests in and liens (together, the "Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens" and, together with the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, the "Adequate Protection Liens") on all DIP Collateral, including, subject to authorization in the Final Order, all Avoidance Proceeds. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be subordinate only to the (A) Carve Out, (B) the DIP Liens, (C) the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, (D) the Prepetition First Lien Revolving and Term Loan Liens, and (E) Existing Senior Liens, if any. The Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall otherwise be senior to all other security interests in, liens on, or claims against any of the DIP Collateral (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code). The Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in these Cases or any Successor Cases. Except as expressly provided herein with respect to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, the Prepetition First Lien Revolving and Term Loan Liens, and Existing Senior Liens, if any, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Cases or any Successor Cases, and the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in any of these Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon the dismissal of any of these Cases or Successor Cases. The Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code and, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to section 506(c) or the "equities of the case" exception of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to Paragraph 12 hereof, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Liens shall be deemed legal, valid, binding, enforceable, and perfected third-priority liens (subject only to the Carve Out, the DIP Liens, the First Lien Adequate Protection Liens, the Prepetition First Lien Revolving and Term Loan Liens, and Existing Senior Liens, if any), not subject to subordination, impairment, or avoidance, for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases.

(b) Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims.

(1) First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. As further adequate protection, and to the extent provided by sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties shall have an allowed administrative expense claim in each of the Cases prior and senior to any and all other administrative expense claims in such Cases to the extent of any Diminution in Value (if any) (the "First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), but junior to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims. Subject to the Carve Out and the DIP Superpriority Claims in all respects, the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims will not be junior to any claims and shall have priority over all administrative expense claims against each of the Debtors, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to authorization in the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(d), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Second Lien Adequate Protection Claims. The Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code granted hereunder unless and until the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, or satisfied in a manner otherwise agreed to by the Required DIP Lenders, in each case as provided in the DIP Documents.

(2) Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. As further adequate protection, and to the extent provided by sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties shall have an allowed administrative expense claim in each of the Cases prior and senior to any and all other administrative expense claims in such Cases to the extent of any Diminution in Value (the "Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims" and, together with the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, the "Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), but junior to the Carve Out, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. Subject to the Carve Out, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims in all respects, the Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims will not be junior to any claims and shall have priority over all administrative expense claims against each of the Debtors, now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to authorization in the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(d), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Prepetition Second Lien Secured Parties shall not receive or retain any payments, property or other amounts in respect of the Second Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code granted hereunder unless and until the DIP Obligations and the First Lien Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, or satisfied in a manner otherwise agreed to by the Required DIP Lenders and the Prepetition First Lien Secured Parties, in each case as provided in the DIP Documents.

(c) Adequate Protection Payments. As further adequate protection, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay, in accordance with the terms of Paragraph 18 of this Interim Order, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (the "Adequate Protection Fees"), whether incurred before or after the Petition Date, including all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses of the Prepetition Agents and for the counsel and other professionals retained as provided for in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, of (A) the Specified Lender Advisors, (B) the Crossholder Lender Advisors, (C) the Agent Advisors, and (D) solely to the extent necessary to exercise and fulfill their obligations under the Prepetition Credit Documents, one counsel to the Prepetition Agents in each local jurisdiction (all payments referenced in this sentence, collectively, the "Adequate Protection Payments"). None of the Adequate Protection Fees shall be subject to separate approval by this Court or the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and no recipient of any such payment shall be required to file any interim or final fee application with respect thereto or otherwise seek the Court's approval of any such payments.

(d) Right to Seek Additional Adequate Protection. This Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, the rights of the Prepetition Secured Parties to request further or alternative forms of adequate protection at any time or the rights of the Debtors or any other party to contest such request, and the Debtors' rights to object to the same are expressly preserved.

(e) Modification of Automatic Stay. The automatic stay imposed under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is modified to the extent necessary to effectuate all of the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, to: (a) permit the Debtors to grant and allow the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (b) permit the Debtors to perform such acts as the DIP Agent, the Required DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders or the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders may request in their respective reasonable discretions to assure the perfection and priority of the liens granted herein; (c) permit the Debtors to incur all liabilities and obligations to the Agents, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order; and (d) subject to the Carve Out, authorize the Debtors to make, and the Agents, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties to retain and apply, payments made in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order; provided that, during the Remedies Notice Period (defined below), the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent applicable) shall remain in effect.

9. Carve Out.

(a) Priority of Carve Out. Subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Paragraph 9, each of the DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Prepetition Liens, Adequate Protection Liens, and Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims shall be subject and subordinate to the Carve Out. The Carve Out shall have such priority over all assets of the Debtors, including any DIP Collateral, Prepetition Collateral, and any funds in the Loan Proceeds Account (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement).

(b) Definition of Carve Out. As used in this Interim Order, the "Carve Out" means the sum of (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the United States Trustee under section 1930(a) of title 28 of the United States Code plus interest at the statutory rate (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iii) below); (ii) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses up to $75,000 incurred by a trustee under section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (without regard to the notice set forth in clause (iii) below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, procedural order, or otherwise, all reasonable and documented unpaid out-of-pocket fees and expenses (collectively, the "Allowed Professional Fees") of persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to sections 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (such persons or firms, the "Debtor Professionals") and any persons or firms retained by any Committee pursuant to section 328 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons") incurred at any time before or on the first business day following delivery by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) of a Carve Out Trigger Notice (defined below), whether allowed by the Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice; and (iv) Allowed Professional Fees of Professional Persons in an aggregate amount not to exceed

$3,000,000 incurred after the first business day following delivery by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) of the Carve Out Trigger Notice (the "Termination Declaration Date"), to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, procedural order, or otherwise (the amounts set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap"). For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to the Committee, if any, which notice shall be delivered following (i) the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and acceleration of the DIP Obligations under the DIP Facility, stating that the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap has been invoked or (ii) the occurrence of a Maturity Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), other than clauses (a), (c), or (d) of the definition of "Maturity Date" in the DIP Credit Agreement (the "Specified Maturity Date").

(c) Carve Out Reserves. On the Termination Declaration Date, the Carve Out Trigger Notice shall (i) be deemed a draw request and notice of borrowing by the Debtors for DIP Term Loans under the DIP Facility (on a pro rata basis based on the then outstanding DIP Obligations), in an amount equal to the then unpaid amounts (including the good-faith estimated and reasonable Professional Fees accrued and not yet invoiced) of the Allowed Professional Fees (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP Term Loans) and (ii) also constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand as of such date and any available cash thereafter held by any Debtor to fund a reserve in an amount equal to the then unpaid amounts of the Allowed Professional Fees. The DIP Escrow Agent shall transfer the applicable amounts, and the Debtors shall deposit and hold such amounts in a segregated account at the DIP Agent in trust to pay such

then unpaid Allowed Professional Fees (the "Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve") prior to any and all other claims. On the Termination Declaration Date, the Carve Out Trigger Notice shall also (i) be deemed a request by the Debtors for DIP Term Loans under the DIP Facility (on a pro rata basis based on the then outstanding DIP Obligations), in an amount equal to the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (any such amounts actually advanced shall constitute DIP Term Loans) and (ii) constitute a demand to the Debtors to utilize all cash on hand as of such date and any available cash thereafter held by any Debtor, after funding the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve, to fund a reserve in an amount equal to the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap. The DIP Escrow Agent shall transfer the applicable amounts, and the Debtors shall deposit and hold such amounts in a segregated account at the DIP Agent in trust to pay such Allowed Professional Fees benefiting from the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap (the "Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve" and, together with the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve, the "Carve Out Reserves") prior to any and all other claims. On the first business day after the DIP Agent gives such notice to such DIP Lenders, notwithstanding anything in the DIP Credit Agreement to the contrary, including with respect to the existence of a Default (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) or Event of Default, the failure of the Debtors to satisfy any or all of the conditions precedent for DIP Loans under the DIP Facility, any termination of the DIP Obligations following an Event of Default, or the occurrence of the Maturity Date, each DIP Lender with an outstanding Commitment (on a pro rata basis based on the then outstanding Commitments) shall make available to the DIP Agent such DIP Lender's pro rata share with respect to such borrowing in accordance with the DIP Facility. Notwithstanding any restriction on the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral, all funds in the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve shall be used first to pay the obligations set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) of the definition of Carve Out set forth above

(the "Pre-Carve Out Amounts"), but not, for the avoidance of doubt, the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap, until paid in full, and then, to the extent the Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve has not been reduced to zero, to pay the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, unless the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all Commitments have been terminated, in which case any such excess shall be paid to the applicable Prepetition Agents for the benefit of the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties in accordance with their rights and priorities as of the Petition Date. Notwithstanding any restriction on the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral, all funds in the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve shall be used first to pay the obligations set forth in clause (iv) of the definition of Carve Out set forth above (the "Post-Carve Out Amounts"), and then, to the extent the Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve has not been reduced to zero, to pay the DIP Agent for the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties, unless the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all Commitments have been terminated, in which case any such excess shall be paid to the applicable Prepetition Agents for the benefit of the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties in accordance with their rights and priorities as of the Petition Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents, or this Interim Order, if either of the Carve Out Reserves is not funded in full in the amounts set forth in this Paragraph 9, then, any excess funds in one of the Carve Out Reserves following the payment of the Pre-Carve Out Amounts and Post-Carve Out Amounts, respectively, shall be used to fund the other Carve Out Reserve, up to the applicable amount set forth in this Paragraph 9, prior to making any payments to the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Agents, as applicable. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the DIP Documents or this Interim Order, following delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent and the Prepetition Agents shall not sweep or foreclose on cash (including cash received as a result of the sale or other disposition of any assets) of the Debtors until the Carve Out Reserves have been fully funded, but shall have a security interest in any residual interest in the Carve Out Reserves, with any excess paid to the DIP Agent for application in accordance with the DIP Documents. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, (i) disbursements by the Debtors from the Carve Out Reserves shall not constitute DIP Loans or increase or reduce the DIP Obligations, (ii) the failure of the Carve Out Reserves to satisfy in full the Allowed Professional Fees shall not affect the priority of the Carve Out, and (iii) in no way shall the Approved Budget, Carve Out, Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Cap, Carve Out Reserves, or any of the foregoing be construed as a cap or limitation on the amount of the Allowed Professional Fees due and payable by the Debtors. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the DIP Facility, or in any facility pursuant to Prepetition Credit Agreements, the Carve Out shall be senior to all liens and claims securing the DIP Facility, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and any and all other forms of adequate protection, liens, or claims securing the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Obligations.

(d) Payment of Allowed Professional Fees Prior to the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made prior to the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall not reduce the Carve Out.

(e) No Direct Obligation to Pay Allowed Professional Fees. None of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be responsible for the payment or reimbursement of any fees or disbursements of any Professional Person incurred in connection with the Cases or any Successor Cases. Nothing in this Interim Order or otherwise shall be construed to obligate the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP

Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties, in any way, to pay compensation to, or to reimburse expenses of, any Professional Person or to guarantee that the Debtors have sufficient funds to pay such compensation or reimbursement.

(f) Payment of Carve Out On or After the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall permanently reduce the Carve Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Any funding of the Carve Out shall be added to, and made a part of, the DIP Obligations secured by the DIP Collateral and shall otherwise be entitled to the protections granted under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable law.

10. Reserved.

11. Reservation of Rights of the DIP Agent, DIP Escrow Agent, DIP Lenders, and Prepetition Secured Parties. Subject in all cases to the Carve Out, notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, or otherwise impair: (a) any of the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors including the right to seek additional adequate protection at and following the Final Hearing; provided that any such further or different adequate protection shall at all times be subordinate and junior to the Carve Out and the claims and liens of the DIP Secured Parties granted under this Interim Order and the DIP Documents; (b) any of the rights of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including, without limitation, the right of any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Cases, conversion of any of the Cases to cases under chapter 7, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers in any of the Cases, or (iii) seek to propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan or plans; or (c) any other rights, claims, or privileges (whether legal, equitable, or otherwise) of any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties. The delay in or failure of the DIP Secured Parties and/or the Prepetition Secured Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise their rights and remedies shall not constitute a waiver of any of the DIP Secured Parties' or the Prepetition Secured Parties' rights and remedies.

12. Reservation of Certain Committee and Third Party Rights and Bar of Challenges and Claims. Subject to the Challenge Period (defined below), the stipulations, admissions, waivers, and releases contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, shall be binding upon the Debtors, their estates, and any of their respective successors in all circumstances and for all purposes, and the Debtors are deemed to have irrevocably waived and relinquished all Challenges (defined below) as of the Petition Date. The stipulations, admissions, and waivers contained in this Interim Order, including, the Debtors' Stipulations, shall be binding upon all other parties in interest, including any Committee and any other person acting on behalf of the Debtors' estates, unless and to the extent that a party in interest with proper standing granted by order of the Court (or other court of competent jurisdiction) has timely and properly filed an adversary proceeding or contested matter under the Bankruptcy Rules (i) before the earlier of (a) except as to any Committee, seventy-five (75) calendar days after entry of the Interim Order, (b) in the case of any such adversary proceeding or contested matter filed by any Committee, sixty (60) calendar days after the appointment of such Committee, and (c) the date of entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan, subject to further extension by written agreement of the Prepetition First Lien Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders) and the

Prepetition Second Lien Agent (acting at the direction of the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) (in each case, a "Challenge Period" and the date of expiration of each Challenge Period being, a "Challenge Period Termination Date"); provided, however, that if, prior to the end of a Challenge Period (x) the cases are converted to chapter 7, or (y) a chapter 11 trustee is appointed, then, in each such case, the Challenge Period applicable to the chapter 7 trustee or the chapter 11 trustee shall be the time remaining under the applicable Challenge Period plus ten (10) days; (ii) seeking to avoid, object to, or otherwise challenge the findings or Debtors' Stipulations regarding: (a) the validity, enforceability, extent, priority, or perfection of the mortgages, security interests, and liens of the Prepetition Agents and the Prepetition Secured Parties; or (b) the validity, enforceability, allowability, priority, secured status, or amount of the Prepetition Obligations (any such claim, a "Challenge"), and (iii) in which the Court enters a final order in favor of the plaintiff sustaining any such Challenge in any such timely filed adversary proceeding or contested matter. Upon the expiration of the Challenge Period Termination Date without the filing of a Challenge (or if any such Challenge is filed and overruled): (a) any and all such Challenges by any party (including the Committee, if any, any chapter 11 trustee, and/or any examiner or other estate representative appointed or elected in these Cases, and any chapter 7 trustee and/or examiner or other estate representative appointed or elected in any Successor Cases) shall be deemed to be forever barred; (b) the Prepetition Obligations shall constitute allowed claims, not subject to counterclaim, setoff, recoupment, reduction, subordination, recharacterization, defense, or avoidance for all purposes in these Cases and any Successor Cases; (c) the Prepetition Indebtedness shall be deemed to have been, as of the Petition Date, legal, valid, binding, and perfected secured claims, not subject to recharacterization, subordination, or avoidance; and (d) all of the Debtors' stipulations and admissions contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors'

Stipulations, and all other waivers, releases, affirmations, and other stipulations as to the priority, extent, and validity as to the Prepetition Secured Parties' claims, liens, and interests contained in this Interim Order shall be of full force and effect and forever binding upon the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, and all creditors, interest holders, and other parties in interest in these Cases and any Successor Cases. Furthermore, if any such adversary proceeding or contested matter is timely and properly filed under the Bankruptcy Rules, the stipulations and admissions contained in this Interim Order, including the Debtors' Stipulations, shall nonetheless remain binding and preclusive on any Committee and any other person or entity except to the extent that such stipulations and admissions were expressly challenged in such adversary proceeding or contested matter prior to the Challenge Period Termination Date. Nothing in this Interim Order vests or confers on any person (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), including, without limitation, any Committee appointed in the Cases, standing or authority to pursue any cause of action belonging to the Debtors or their estates, including, without limitation any challenges (including a Challenge) with respect to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the Prepetition Liens, and the Prepetition Obligations, and a separate order of the Court conferring such standing on any Committee or other party-in-interest shall be a prerequisite for the prosecution of a Challenge by such Committee or such other party-in-interest.

13. DIP Termination Date. On the DIP Termination Date (defined below), (a) all DIP Obligations shall be immediately due and payable, all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility will terminate; (b) all authority to use Cash Collateral shall cease; provided, however, that during the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors may use Cash Collateral to fund the Carve Out and pay payroll and other expenses critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates strictly in accordance with the Approved Budget, subject to such variances as permitted in the DIP Credit Agreement; and (c) the DIP Secured Parties shall be otherwise entitled to exercise rights and remedies under the DIP Documents in accordance with this Interim Order. For the purposes of this Interim Order, the "DIP Termination Date" shall mean the "Maturity Date" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement.

14. Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events, unless waived by the Required DIP Lenders in accordance with the terms of the DIP Documents, shall constitute an event of default (collectively, the "Events of Default"): (a) the failure of the Debtors to comply with or perform, in any material respect, any of the terms, provisions, conditions, covenants, or obligations under this Interim Order; or (b) the occurrence of an "Event of Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement (subject to any applicable cure or grace period).

15. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default. Immediately upon the occurrence of and during the continuation of an Event of Default, or a Specified Maturity Date, notwithstanding the provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, without any application, motion, or notice to, hearing before, or order from the Court, but subject to the terms of this Interim Order and the Remedies Notice Period, (a) the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) may declare (any such declaration shall be referred to herein as a "Termination Declaration") (i) all DIP Obligations owing under the DIP Documents to be immediately due and payable, (ii) the termination, reduction or restriction of any further commitment to extend credit to the Debtors to the extent any such commitment remains under the DIP Facility, (iii) the termination of the DIP Facility and the DIP Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the DIP Lenders, but without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations, and (iv) the application of the Carve Out through the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice to the Borrower and (b) subject to Paragraph 13 above, the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) may declare a termination, reduction or restriction on the ability of the Debtors to use Cash Collateral (the date which is the earliest to occur of any such date a Termination Declaration is delivered and the DIP Termination Date shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date"). The Termination Declaration shall not be effective until notice has been provided by electronic mail (or other electronic means) to counsel to the Debtors (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP), counsel to the Committee, if any, and the U.S. Trustee. The automatic stay in the Cases otherwise applicable to the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties is hereby modified so that five (5) Business Days after the date a Termination Declaration is delivered (the "Remedies Notice Period"): (a) the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies in accordance with the DIP Documents and this Interim Order to satisfy the DIP Obligations and DIP Superpriority Claims; and (b) the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to exercise their rights and remedies to the extent available in accordance with the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents and this Interim Order with respect to the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral; provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt the Debtors may continue to use Cash Collateral in accordance with Paragraph 13 of this Interim Order during the Remedies Notice Period. During the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors, the Committee, if any, and/or any party in interest shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing within the Remedies Notice Period with the Court. Except as set forth in this Paragraph 15 or otherwise ordered by the Court prior to the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, upon the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors shall be deemed to have waived their right to and shall not be entitled to seek relief, including, without limitation, under section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such relief would in any way impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow

Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties under this Interim Order. Unless the Court has determined that an Event of Default has not occurred and/or is not continuing or the Court orders otherwise, the automatic stay shall automatically be terminated as to all of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties (solely with respect to the use of Cash Collateral to the extent permitted hereunder) at the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period without further notice or order, and the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders) and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be permitted to exercise all remedies set forth herein, in the DIP Documents, and in the Prepetition Credit Documents, as applicable, or as otherwise available at law without further order of or application or motion to this Court consistent with this Interim Order.

16. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. Subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, no expenses of administration of the Cases or any Successor Cases or future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the Prepetition Collateral or the DIP Collateral (except to the extent of the Carve Out), the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties pursuant to sections 105(a) or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law or equity, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, and no such consent shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence by the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Parties.

17. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors are hereby authorized to use the Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties, but solely for the purposes set forth in this Interim

Order and in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances as set forth in this Interim Order and the DIP Documents) including, without limitation, to make payments on account of the Adequate Protection Obligations provided for in this Interim Order and to make any transfers between Debtors necessary to comply with the terms of the DIP Documents and this Interim Order.

18. Expenses and Indemnification.

(a) The Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to pay, in accordance with this Interim Order, the principal, interest, fees, payments, expenses, and other amounts described in the DIP Documents as such amounts become due and without need to obtain further Court approval, including, without limitation, backstop, closing, arrangement or commitment fees (including all fees and other amounts owed to the DIP Lenders), the DIP Administrative Agent's fees, the DIP Collateral Agent's fees, and the DIP Escrow Agent's fees, the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and disbursements of counsel and other professionals to the extent set forth in Paragraph 8(c) of this Interim Order, whether or not such fees arose before or after the Petition Date, all to the extent provided in this Interim Order or the DIP Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) all reasonable and documented fees, costs, and expenses, including the fees and expenses of counsel and advisors to the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the Prepetition Agents, and the Prepetition Secured Parties, incurred on or prior to such date without the need for any professional engaged by the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the Prepetition Agents, or the Prepetition Secured Parties to first deliver a copy of its invoice as provided for herein.

(b) The Debtors shall be jointly and severally obligated to pay all fees and expenses described above, which obligations shall constitute DIP Obligations. Provided no Fee Objection (defined below) has been made, the Debtors shall pay the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket professional fees, expenses, and disbursements of professionals to the extent provided for in paragraph 8(c) of this Interim Order (collectively, the "Lender Professionals" and, each, a "Lender Professional") as soon as reasonably practicable after a ten (10) Business Days review period commencing with the receipt by counsel for the Debtors, any Committee, and the U.S. Trustee of each of the invoices therefor (the "Invoiced Fees" and such review period, the "Review Period") and without the necessity of filing formal fee applications, including such amounts arising before the Petition Date. Invoiced Fees shall be in the form of an invoice summary for professional fees and categorized expenses incurred during the pendency of the Cases, and such invoice summary shall not be required to contain time entries, but shall include a general, brief description of the nature of the matters for which services were performed, and which may be redacted or modified to the extent necessary to delete any information subject to the attorney-client privilege, any work product doctrine, privilege or protection, common interest doctrine privilege or protection, any other evidentiary privilege or protection recognized under applicable law, or any other confidential information, and the provision of such invoices shall not constitute any waiver of the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, privilege or protection, common interest doctrine privilege or protection, or any other evidentiary privilege or protection recognized under applicable law; provided that, upon the request of the U.S. Trustee prior to the expiration of the Review Period, the applicable Lender Professional shall provide more detailed support of the Invoiced Fees to the U.S. Trustee on a confidential basis. The Debtors, any Committee, or the U.S. Trustee (collectively, the "Fee Notice Parties") may dispute the payment of any portion of the Invoiced Fees (the "Disputed Invoiced Fees") if, within the Review Period, a Fee Notice Party notifies the submitting party in writing setting forth the specific objections (a "Fee Objection") to the Disputed Invoiced Fees (to be followed by the filing with the Court, if necessary, of a motion or other pleading, with at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the submitting party of any hearing on such motion or other pleading). For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall promptly pay in full all Invoiced Fees in accordance with the terms of this paragraph other than the Disputed Invoiced Fees.

(c) In addition, the Debtors will indemnify the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and their respective affiliates, successors, and assigns and the officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, advisors, controlling persons, and members of each of the foregoing (each, an "Indemnified Person") and hold them harmless from and against all costs, expenses (including but not limited to reasonable and documented out-of-pocket legal fees and expenses), and liabilities arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated hereby and any actual or proposed use of the proceeds of any loans made under the DIP Facility; provided that no such person will be indemnified for costs, expenses, or liabilities to the extent determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have been incurred solely by reason of the gross negligence, actual fraud, bad faith, or willful misconduct of such person (or their related persons).

19. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder, or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

20. Section 507(b) Reservation. Subject to the Carve Out, nothing herein shall impair or modify the application of section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Secured Parties is insufficient to compensate for any Diminution in Value of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral during the Cases. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed a finding by the Court, or an acknowledgment by any of the Prepetition Secured Parties that the adequate protection granted herein does in fact adequately protect any of the Prepetition Secured Parties against any Diminution in Value of their respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral (including the Cash Collateral).

21. Insurance. Until the DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full, at all times the Debtors shall maintain casualty and loss insurance coverage for the Prepetition Collateral and the DIP Collateral on the terms set forth in the DIP Documents.

22. No Waiver for Failure to Seek Relief. The failure or delay of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or the Required DIP Lenders to exercise rights and remedies under this Interim Order, the DIP Documents, or applicable law, as the case may be, shall not constitute a waiver of their respective rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise.

23. Perfection of the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) The DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the Prepetition Agents are hereby authorized, but not required, to file or record financing statements, intellectual property filings, mortgages, deposit account control agreements, notices of lien, or similar instruments in any jurisdiction in order to validate and perfect the liens and security interests granted hereunder. Whether or not the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) shall choose to file such financing statements, intellectual property filings, mortgages, notices of lien, or similar instruments, such liens and security interests shall be deemed valid, perfected, allowed, enforceable, non-avoidable, and not, subject to the Challenge Period, subject to challenge, dispute, or subordination as of the date of entry of this Interim Order. If the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) determine to file or execute any financing statements, agreements, notice of liens, or similar instruments, the Debtors shall cooperate and assist in any such execution and/or filings as reasonably requested by the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders), and the automatic stay shall be modified to allow such filings.

(b) A certified copy of this Interim Order may be filed with or recorded in filing or recording offices by or on behalf of the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, mortgages, notices of lien, or similar instruments, and all filing offices are hereby authorized to accept such certified copy of this Interim Order for filing and recording; provided, however, that notwithstanding the date of any such filing, the date of such perfection shall be the date of this Interim Order.

(c) Any provision of any lease or other license, contract or other agreement that requires (i) the consent or approval of one or more landlords or other parties or (ii) the payment of any fees or obligations to any governmental entity, in order for any Debtor to pledge, grant, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer any such leasehold interest, or the proceeds thereof, or other collateral related thereto, is hereby deemed to be inconsistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to applicable law. Any such provision shall have no force and effect with respect to the granting of the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens on such leasehold interest or the proceeds of any assignment and/or sale thereof by any Debtor in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement or this Interim Order, subject to applicable law.

24. Reserved.

25. Release. Subject to the rights and limitations set forth in Paragraphs E(v) and 12 of this Interim Order, and with respect to the DIP Secured Parties, effective upon entry of this Interim Order, and with respect to the Prepetition Secured Parties, effective upon entry of the Final Order, each of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, on their own behalf and on behalf of each of their predecessors, their successors, and assigns, shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, unconditionally, irrevocably, and fully forever release, remise, acquit, relinquish, irrevocably waive, and discharge each of the DIP Secured Parties, and each of the Prepetition Secured Parties, and each of their respective affiliates, former, current, or future officers, employees, directors, agents, representatives, owners, members, partners, financial advisors, legal advisors, shareholders, managers, consultants, accountants, attorneys, affiliates, assigns, and predecessors in interest, each in their capacity as such, of and from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, responsibilities, disputes, remedies, causes of action, indebtedness and obligations, rights, assertions, allegations, actions, suits, controversies, proceedings, losses, damages, injuries, attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, or judgments of every type, whether known, unknown, asserted, unasserted, suspected, unsuspected, accrued, unaccrued, fixed, contingent, pending, or threatened, including, without limitation, all legal and equitable theories of recovery, arising under common law, statute, or regulation or by contract, of every nature and description that exist on the date hereof with respect to or relating to the DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Obligations, the Prepetition Liens, or the Prepetition Credit Documents, as applicable, including, without limitation, (i) any so-called "lender liability" or equitable subordination claims or defenses, (ii) any and all claims and causes of action arising under the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) any and all claims and causes of action regarding the validity, priority, extent, enforceability, perfection, or avoidability of the liens or claims of the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties; provided that nothing in this paragraph shall in any way limit or release the obligations of any DIP Secured Party under the DIP Documents.

26. Credit Bidding. Subject to the terms of the RSA, section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code and, solely with respect to the Prepetition First Lien Agent and the Prepetition Second Lien Agent, entry of the Final Order, the DIP Agent (at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders), the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), or the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders) shall have the right to credit bid (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles), up to the full amount of the underlying lenders' respective claims, including, for the avoidance of doubt, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, if any, in any sale of all or any portion of the Prepetition Collateral or the DIP Collateral, including, without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any chapter 11 plan subject to confirmation under Bankruptcy Code section 1129(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(iii).

27. Preservation of Rights Granted Under this Interim Order.

(a) Unless and until all DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility are terminated, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall: (i) have no right to and shall take no action to foreclose upon, or recover in connection with, the liens granted thereto pursuant to the Prepetition Credit Documents or this Interim Order, or otherwise seek to exercise or enforce any rights or remedies against such DIP Collateral; and (ii) not file any further financing statements, trademark filings, copyright filings, mortgages, notices of lien or similar instruments, or otherwise take any action to perfect their security interests in the DIP Collateral, except as set forth in Paragraph 23 herein.

(b) In the event this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified on appeal or otherwise, any liens or claims granted to the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties hereunder arising prior to the effective date of any such vacatur, reversal, or modification of this Interim Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, including entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein, and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall be entitled to all the rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits afforded in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Unless and until all DIP Obligations, Prepetition Obligations, and Adequate Protection Payments are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash, and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility are terminated, the Debtors irrevocably waive the right to seek and shall not seek or consent to, directly or indirectly (i) except as permitted under the DIP Documents or, if not provided for therein, with the prior written consent of the DIP Agent (at the direction of Required DIP Lenders), the DIP Escrow Agent, the Required DIP Lenders, the Prepetition First Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders), the Required Prepetition First Lien Lenders, the Prepetition Second Lien Agent (at the direction of Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders), and the Required Prepetition Second Lien Lenders, (x) any modification, stay, vacatur, or amendment of this Interim Order or (y) a priority claim for any administrative expense or unsecured claim against any of the Debtors (now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, any administrative expense of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) in any of the Cases, pari passu with or senior to the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, or the Prepetition Obligations, or (z) any other order allowing use of the DIP Collateral; (ii) except as permitted under the DIP Documents (including the Carve Out), any lien on any of the DIP Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral with priority equal or superior to the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens or the Prepetition Liens, as applicable; (iii) the use of Cash Collateral for any purpose other than as permitted in the DIP Documents and this Interim Order; (iv) except as set forth in the DIP Documents, the return of goods pursuant to section 546(h) of the Bankruptcy Code (or other return of goods on account of any prepetition indebtedness) to any creditor of any Debtor; (v) an order converting or dismissing any of the Cases; (vi) an order appointing a chapter 11 trustee in any of the Cases; or (vii) an order appointing an examiner with enlarged powers in any of the Cases.

(d) Notwithstanding any order dismissing any of the Cases entered at any time, (x) the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and the other administrative claims granted pursuant to this Interim Order, shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Interim Order until all DIP Obligations and Adequate Protection Payments are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash (and such DIP Liens, DIP Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and the other administrative claims granted pursuant to this Interim Order, shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest); and (y) to the fullest extent permitted by law the Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the claims, liens, and security interests referred to in clause (x) above.

(e) Except as expressly provided in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired, or discharged by (i) the entry of an order converting any of the Cases to a case under chapter 7, dismissing any of the Cases, terminating the joint administration of these Cases or by any other act or omission, (ii) the entry of an order approving the sale of any Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iii) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in any of the Cases. Pursuant to section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors have waived any discharge as to any remaining DIP Obligations or Adequate Protection Obligations. The terms and provisions of this Interim Order and the DIP Documents shall continue in these Cases, in any Successor Cases if these Cases cease to be jointly administered, or in any superseding chapter 7 cases under the Bankruptcy Code. The DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and all other rights and remedies of the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties granted by the provisions of this Interim Order shall continue in full force and effect until the DIP Obligations and the Adequate Protection Payments are indefeasibly paid in full, in cash (or, with respect to the DIP Obligations, otherwise satisfied in a manner agreed to by the Required DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent (acting at the direction of the Required DIP Lenders), and the DIP Escrow Agent).

(f) Other than as set forth in this Interim Order, neither the DIP Liens nor the Adequate Protection Liens shall be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest granted in any of the Cases or arising after the Petition Date, and neither the DIP Liens nor the Adequate Protection Liens shall be subject or junior to any lien or security interest that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors' estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code.

28. Limitation on Use of DIP Facility Proceeds, DIP Collateral, and Cash Collateral. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Interim Order, none of the DIP Facility, the DIP Collateral, the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, or the Carve Out or proceeds thereof may be used: (a) to investigate (including by way of examinations or discovery proceedings), initiate, seek standing with respect to, assert, prosecute, join, commence, support, or finance the initiation or prosecution of any claim, counterclaim, action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defense, adversary proceeding, or other litigation of any type (i) against any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties (each in their capacities as such), and each of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, consultants, financial advisors, affiliates, assigns, or successors, with respect to any transaction, occurrence, omission, action, or other matter (including formal discovery proceedings in anticipation thereof), including, without limitation, any so-called "lender liability" claims and causes of action, or seeking relief that would impair the rights and remedies of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties (each in their capacities as such) under the DIP Documents, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or this Interim Order, including, without limitation, for the payment of any services rendered by the professionals retained by the Debtors or any Committee appointed in these Cases in connection with the assertion of or joinder in any claim, counterclaim, action, suit, arbitration, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defense, adversary proceeding, or other contested matter, the purpose of which is to seek, or the result of which would be to obtain, any order, judgment, determination, declaration, or similar relief that would impair the ability of any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties to recover on the DIP Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral or seeking affirmative relief against any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Parties related to the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Obligations; (ii) invalidating, setting aside, avoiding, or subordinating, in whole or in part, the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Obligations, or the DIP Agent's, the DIP Escrow Agent's, the DIP Lenders', and the Prepetition Secured Parties' liens or security interests in the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral, as applicable; or (iii) for monetary, injunctive, or other affirmative relief against the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties, or the DIP Agent's, the DIP Escrow Agent's, the DIP Lenders', or the Prepetition Secured Parties' respective liens on or security interests in the DIP Collateral or the Prepetition Collateral, as applicable, that would impair the ability of any of the DIP Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties, as applicable, to assert or enforce any lien, claim, right, or security interest or to realize or recover on the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Obligations, to the extent applicable; (b) for objecting to or challenging in any way the legality, validity, priority, perfection, or enforceability of the claims, liens, or interests (including the Prepetition Liens) held by or on behalf of each of the Prepetition Secured Parties related to the Prepetition Obligations, or by or on behalf of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and the DIP Lenders related to the DIP Obligations; (c) for asserting, commencing, or prosecuting any claims or causes of action whatsoever, including, without limitation, any Avoidance Actions related to the DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Obligations, or the Prepetition Liens; or (d) for prosecuting an objection to, contesting in any manner, or raising any defenses to, the validity, extent, amount, perfection, priority, or enforceability of: (x) any of the DIP Liens or any other rights or interests of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or the DIP Lenders related to the DIP Obligations or the DIP Liens, or (y) any of the Prepetition Liens or any other rights or interests of any of the Prepetition Secured Parties related to the Prepetition Obligations or the Prepetition Liens; provided that no more than $50,000 of the proceeds of the DIP Facility, the DIP Collateral, or the Prepetition Collateral, including the Cash Collateral, in the aggregate, may be used by any Committee appointed in these Cases, if any, solely to investigate, within the Challenge Period, the claims, causes of action, adversary proceedings, or other litigation against the Prepetition Secured Parties solely concerning the legality, validity, priority, perfection, enforceability or extent of the claims, liens, or interests (including the Prepetition Liens) held by or on behalf of each of the Prepetition Secured Parties related to the Prepetition Obligations. Nothing contained in this Paragraph 28 shall prohibit the Debtors from responding or objecting to or complying with discovery requests of any Committee, in whatever form, made in connection with such investigation or the payment from the DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) of professional fees related thereto or from contesting or challenging whether a Termination Declaration has in fact occurred.

29. Conditions Precedent. No DIP Lender shall have any obligation to make any DIP Loan under the respective DIP Documents unless all of the conditions precedent to the making of such extensions of credit under the applicable DIP Documents have been satisfied in full or waived in accordance with such DIP Documents.

30. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns. The DIP Documents and the provisions of this Interim Order, including all findings herein, shall be binding upon all parties in interest in these Cases, including without limitation, the DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition Secured Parties, any Committee appointed in these Cases, and the Debtors and their respective successors and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected for the estate of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any of the Debtors or with respect to the property of the estate of any of the Debtors) and shall inure to the benefit of the DIP Secured Parties and the applicable Prepetition Secured Parties; provided that, except to the extent expressly set forth in this Interim Order, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall have no obligation to permit the use of Cash Collateral or to extend any financing to any chapter 7 trustee or similar responsible person appointed for the estates of the Debtors. In determining to make any loan (whether under the DIP Credit Agreement, a promissory note or otherwise) to permit the use of Cash Collateral or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not (i) be deemed to be in control of the operations of the Debtors, or (ii) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders, or estates.

31. Limitation of Liability. Subject to entry of a Final Order, in determining to make any loan under the DIP Documents, permitting the use of Cash Collateral, or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Interim Order or the DIP Documents, the DIP Secured Parties and the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not, solely by reason thereof, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a "responsible person" or "owner or operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq. as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Furthermore, nothing in this Interim Order or in the DIP Documents shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, the DIP Lenders, or any Prepetition Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or post-petition activities of any of the Debtors.

32. No Requirement to File Claim for DIP Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any prior or subsequent order of the Court, including, without limitation, any order establishing a deadline for the filing of proofs of claim or requests for payment of administrative expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, none of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, or any DIP Lender shall be required to file any proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses with respect to any of the DIP Obligations, all of which shall be due and payable in accordance with the DIP Documents without the necessity of filing any such proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses, and the failure to file any such proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses shall not affect the validity, priority, or enforceability of any of the DIP Documents or of any indebtedness, liabilities, or obligations arising at any time thereunder or prejudice or otherwise adversely affect the DIP Agent's, the DIP Escrow Agent's, or any DIP Lender's rights, remedies, powers, or privileges under any of the DIP Documents, this Interim Order, or applicable law. The provisions set forth in this paragraph are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the substantive rights of any party-in-interest or their respective successors-in-interest.

33. No Requirement to File Claim for Prepetition Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any prior or subsequent order of the Court, including, without limitation, any order establishing a deadline for the filing of proofs of claim or requests for payment of administrative expenses under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, neither the Prepetition Agents nor any Prepetition Secured Parties shall be required to file any proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses with respect to any of the Prepetition Obligations or Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; and the failure to file any such proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses shall not affect the validity, priority, or enforceability of any of the Prepetition Credit Documents or of any indebtedness, liabilities, or obligations arising at any time thereunder or prejudice or otherwise adversely affect any Prepetition Agent's or any Prepetition Secured Party's rights, remedies, powers, or privileges under any of the Prepetition Credit Documents, this Interim Order, or applicable law. In the event any Prepetition Agent nevertheless files a proof of claim, such Prepetition Agent is hereby authorized to file a single consolidated master proof of claim for all applicable Prepetition Obligations arising under the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents and applicable Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and such master proof of claim shall be deemed to constitute the filing of such proof of claim in each of the Cases of any Debtor against whom a claim may be asserted under the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents or this Interim Order. The provisions set forth in this paragraph are intended solely for the purpose of administrative convenience and shall not affect the substantive rights of any party-in-interest or their respective successors-in-interest.

34. No Marshaling. Subject to entry of a Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Agent and the DIP Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral, and proceeds of the DIP Collateral shall be received and applied pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Documents notwithstanding any other agreement or provision to the contrary. Subject to entry of a Final Order granting such relief, the Prepetition Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the Prepetition Collateral.

Each Lender's Commitment shall automatically be reduced by the amount of Loans funded in respect thereof on the Funding Date; provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all such Commitments shall terminate automatically and be reduced to zero on June [●], 2020 to the extent that the Funding Date has not occurred on or prior to such date (or such later date as agreed to by the Borrower and the Required Lenders (which agreement of the Required Lenders may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors)). Such Term Loans (i) will at the option of the Borrower be incurred and maintained as, and/or converted into, ABR Loans or Eurocurrency Loans; provided that all Term Loans made by each of the Lenders pursuant to the same Borrowing shall, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, consist entirely of Term Loans of the same Type, (ii) may be repaid or prepaid (without premium or penalty) in accordance with the provisions hereof, but once repaid or prepaid, may not be reborrowed, (iii) shall not exceed for any such Lender the Term Loan Commitment of such Lender, (iv) shall not exceed in the aggregate the Total Term Loan Commitments and (v) shall be funded into the Loan Proceeds Account

Such notice (a "Notice of Borrowing") shall specify (i) the aggregate principal amount of the Term Loans to be made, (ii) the date of the Borrowing, and (iii) whether the Term Loans shall consist of ABR Loans and/or Eurocurrency Loans and, if the Term Loans are to include Eurocurrency Loans, the Interest Period to be initially applicable thereto (which shall be one month). If no election as to the Type of Borrowing is specified in any such notice, then the requested Borrowing shall be a Eurocurrency Borrowing. If no Interest Period with respect to any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans is specified in any such notice, then the Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration. The Administrative Agent shall promptly advise the applicable Lenders of any notice given pursuant to this Section 2.3(a) (and the contents thereof), and of each Lender's pro rata share of the requested Borrowing.

2.4 Disbursement of Funds.

(a) No later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Funding Date, each Lender shall make available its pro rata portion, if any, of the Borrowing requested to be made on such date in the manner provided below; provided that on the Funding Date, such funds may be made available at such earlier time as may be agreed among the Lenders, the Borrower, and the Administrative Agent for the purpose of consummating the Transactions.

(b) Each Lender shall make available all amounts it is to fund to the Borrower under any Borrowing for its applicable Commitments, and in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent at the Administrative Agent's Office and the Administrative Agent will deposit the aggregate amounts so made available into the Loan Proceeds Account in Dollars in accordance with Section 2.4(d). Unless the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by any Lender prior to the date of any such Borrowing that such Lender does not intend to make available to the Administrative Agent its portion of the Borrowing or Borrowings to be made on such date, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such amount available to the Administrative Agent on such date of Borrowing, and the Administrative Agent, in reliance upon such assumption, may (in its sole discretion and without any obligation to do so) make available to the Borrower a corresponding amount. If such corresponding amount is not in fact made available to the Administrative Agent by such Lender and the Administrative Agent has made available such amount to the Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such corresponding amount from such Lender. If such Lender does not pay such corresponding amount forthwith upon the Administrative Agent's demand therefor the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrower, and the Borrower shall immediately pay such corresponding amount to the Administrative Agent in the applicable currency. The Administrative Agent shall also be entitled to recover from such Lender or any Borrower interest on such corresponding amount in respect of each day from the date such corresponding amount was made available by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower to the date such corresponding amount is recovered by the Administrative Agent, at a rate per annum equal to (i) if paid by such Lender, the Overnight Rate or (ii) if paid by the Borrower, the then-applicable rate of interest or fees, calculated in accordance with Section 2.8, for the respective Loans.

(c) Nothing in this Section 2.4 shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to, fulfill its commitments hereunder or to prejudice any rights that the Borrower may have against any Lender as a result of any default by such Lender hereunder (it being understood, however, that no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to fulfill its commitments hereunder).

(d) Upon receipt of all requested funds pursuant to Section 2.4(b), the Administrative Agent will promptly (i) in accordance with the Flow of Funds Statement, (I) remit to the Borrower from such amounts, all fees and expenses of counsel of the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Specified Lender Advisors (which the Borrower shall immediately remit by wire transfer such amounts to such counsel and advisors in accordance with the Flow of Funds Statement) and (II) deduct and apply all fees payable to the Agents and the Escrow Agent on the Funding Date in accordance with the Flow of Funds Statement (including for purposes of clause (I) and (II) above in connection with any fronting arrangement), (ii) in accordance with the Flow of Funds Statement, and subject to Sections 6 and Section 7, remit to the Borrower from such amounts the amount requested by the Borrower in the Withdrawal Notice, and (iii) remit the remaining amounts by promptly crediting such amount, in like funds, to the Loan Proceeds Account. The Loans shall be deemed made by the Lenders when so remitted and applied and so deposited to such account. For the avoidance of doubt, the full amount of all Loans will begin to accrue interest on the Funding Date.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent shall have no Commitments to make Loans in its capacity as the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Agent's requirement to remit the Loan proceeds received from the Lenders in accordance with the provisions hereof shall be limited to the funds that it receives from the Lenders.

2.5 Repayment of Loans; Evidence of Debt.

(e) The Administrative Agent shall maintain the Register pursuant to Section 13.6(a), and a subaccount for each Lender, in which Register and subaccounts (taken together) shall be recorded (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, whether such Loan is a Term Loan, the Type of each Loan made, the currency in which it is made, the name of the Borrower and the Interest Period, if any, applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrower to each Lender hereunder, and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder from the Borrower and each Lender's share thereof.

(f) The entries made in the Register and accounts and subaccounts maintained pursuant to clauses (d) and (e) of this Section 2.5 shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations of the Borrower therein recorded; provided, however, that in the event of any inconsistency between the Register and any such account or subaccount, the Register shall govern, provided, further, that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such account, such Register or subaccount, as applicable, or any error therein, shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrower to repay (with applicable interest) the Loans made to such Borrower by such Lender in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(g) The Borrower hereby agrees that, upon request of any Lender at any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, the Borrower shall provide to such Lender, at the Borrower's own expense, a promissory note, substantially in the form of Exhibit G, as applicable, for the sole purpose of evidencing the Loans owing to such Lender. Thereafter, unless otherwise agreed to by the applicable Lender, the Loans evidenced by such promissory note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 13.6) be represented by one or more promissory notes in such form payable to the order of the payee named therein (or, if requested by such payee, to such payee and its registered assigns).

Each such conversion shall be effected by the Borrower by giving the Administrative Agent notice at the Administrative Agent's Office prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) at least (i) three Business Days prior, in the case of a conversion to Eurocurrency Loans (other than in the case of a notice delivered on the Funding Date, which shall be deemed to be effective on the Funding Date), or (ii) three Business Days prior in the case of a conversion into ABR Loans (each such notice, a "Notice of Conversion" substantially in the form of Exhibit K) specifying the Loans to be so converted, the Type of Loans to be converted into and, if such Loans are to be converted into a Eurocurrency Loans, the Interest Period to be initially applicable thereto will be one month's duration. The Administrative Agent shall give each applicable Lender notice as promptly as practicable of any such proposed conversion or continuation affecting any of its Loans. Until the Maturity Date, any Eurocurrency Loans will be continued as Eurocurrency Loans with an Interest Period of one month's duration.

(b) If any Event of Default is in existence at the time of any proposed continuation of any Eurocurrency Loans denominated in Dollars and the Administrative Agent has or the Required Lenders have determined in its or their sole discretion not to permit such continuation, such Eurocurrency Loans shall be automatically converted on the last day of the current Interest Period into ABR Loans. If upon the expiration of any Interest Period in respect of Eurocurrency Loans, the Borrower has failed to elect a new Interest Period to be applicable thereto as provided in clause (a), the Borrower shall be deemed to have elected to convert such Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans into a Borrowing of ABR Loans, effective as of the expiration date of such current Interest Period.

2.7 Pro Rata Borrowings. Each Borrowing of Term Loans under this Agreement shall be made by the Lenders pro rata on the basis of their then-applicable Term Loan Commitments. It is understood that (a) no Lender shall be responsible for any default by any other Lender in its obligation to make Loans hereunder and that each Lender severally but not jointly shall be obligated to make the Loans provided to be made by it hereunder, regardless of the failure of any other Lender to fulfill its commitments hereunder and (b) other than as expressly provided herein with respect to a Defaulting Lender, failure by a Lender to perform any of its obligations under any of the Credit Documents shall not release any Person from performance of its obligation, under any Credit Document.

2.8 Interest.

(a) The unpaid principal amount of each ABR Loan shall bear interest from the date of the Borrowing thereof until maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) at a rate per annum that shall at all times be the Applicable Margin for ABR Loans plus the ABR, in each case, in effect from time to time.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise elected by the Required Lenders (which election not to impose the default interest rate set forth in this Section 2.8(c) may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors), upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, Loans and all other Obligations overdue hereunder shall bear interest, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to 2% plus the rate otherwise applicable thereto.

(d) Interest on each Loan shall accrue from and including the date of any Borrowing to but excluding the date of any repayment thereof and shall be payable in the same currency in which the Loan is denominated; provided that any Loan that is repaid on the same date on which it is made shall bear interest for one day. Except as provided below, interest shall be payable (i) in respect of each ABR Loan, monthly in arrears on the last Business Day of each month of the Borrower, (ii) in respect of each Eurocurrency Loan, on the last day of each Interest Period applicable thereto, and (iii) in respect of each Loan, (A) on any prepayment in respect thereof, (B) at maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise), and (C) after such maturity, on demand.

(e) All computations of interest hereunder shall be made in accordance with Section 5.5.

(f) The Administrative Agent, upon determining the interest rate for any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans, shall promptly notify the Borrower and the relevant Lenders thereof. Each such determination shall, absent clearly demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

2.9 Interest Periods. At the time the Borrower gives a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion in respect of the making of, or conversion into or continuation as, a Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans in accordance with Section 2.6(a), the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent written notice of the Interest Period applicable to such Borrowing, which Interest Period shall be a one month period.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above:

(a) the initial Interest Period for any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans shall commence on the date of such Borrowing (including the date of any conversion from a Borrowing of ABR Loans) and each Interest Period occurring thereafter in respect of such Borrowing shall commence on the day on which the next preceding Interest Period expires;

(b) if any Interest Period relating to a Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans begins on the last Business Day of a calendar month or begins on a day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period, such Interest Period shall end on the last Business Day of the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period;

(c) if any Interest Period would otherwise expire on a day that is not a Business Day, such Interest Period shall expire on the next succeeding Business Day; provided that if any Interest Period in respect of a Eurocurrency Loan would otherwise expire on a day that is not a Business Day but is a day of the month after which no further Business Day occurs in such month, such Interest Period shall expire on the immediately preceding Business Day; and

(d) the Borrower shall not be entitled to elect any Interest Period in respect of any Eurocurrency Loan if such Interest Period would extend beyond the Maturity Date of such Loan.

2.10 Increased Costs, Illegality, Etc.

(a) In the event that (x) in the case of clause (i) below, the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders and (y) in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) below, the Required Lenders shall have reasonably determined (which determination shall, absent clearly demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto):

(i) on any date for determining the Eurocurrency Rate for any Interest Period that (x) deposits in the principal amounts and currencies of the Loans comprising such Eurocurrency Loan are not generally available in the relevant market or (y) by reason of any changes arising on or after the Closing Date affecting the applicable interbank market, adequate and fair means do not exist for ascertaining the applicable interest rate on the basis provided for in the definition of Eurocurrency Rate; or

(ii) at any time, that such Lenders shall incur increased costs or reductions in the amounts received or receivable hereunder with respect to any Eurocurrency Loans (including any increased costs or reductions attributable to Taxes, other than any increase or reduction attributable to Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes) because of any Change in Law; or

(iii) at any time, that the making or continuance of any Eurocurrency Loan has become unlawful by compliance by such Lenders in good faith with any law, governmental rule, regulation, guideline or order (or would conflict with any such governmental rule, regulation, guideline or order not having the force of law even though the failure to comply therewith would not be unlawful), or has become impracticable as a result of a contingency occurring after the Closing Date that materially and adversely affects the applicable interbank market;

(such Loans, "Impacted Loans"), then, and in any such event, such Required Lenders (or the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, in the case of clause (i) above) shall within a reasonable time thereafter give notice (if by telephone, confirmed in writing) to the Borrower, and to the Administrative Agent of such determination (which notice the Administrative Agent shall promptly transmit to each of the other Lenders). Thereafter (x) in the case of clause (i) above, Eurocurrency Loans shall no longer be available until such time as the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, notifies the Borrower, the Administrative Agent (if applicable) and the Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice by the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, no longer exist (which notice shall be given at such time when such circumstances no longer exist), and any Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion given by the Borrower with respect to Eurocurrency Loans that have not yet been incurred shall be deemed rescinded by the Borrower, (y) in the case of clause (ii) above, the Borrower shall pay to such Lenders, promptly after receipt of written demand therefor such additional amounts (in the form of an increased rate of, or a different method of calculating, interest or otherwise as such Required Lenders, in their reasonable discretion shall determine) as shall be required to compensate such Lenders for such actual increased costs or reductions in amounts receivable hereunder (it being agreed that a written notice as to the additional amounts owed to such Lenders, showing in reasonable detail the basis for the calculation thereof, submitted to the Borrower by such Lenders shall, absent clearly demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding upon all parties hereto), and (z) in the case of subclause (iii) above, the Borrower shall take one of the actions specified in subclause (x) or (y), as applicable, of Section 2.10(b) promptly and, in any event, within the time period required by law.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, has made the determination described in Section 2.10(a)(i)(x), the Required Lenders, in consultation with the affected Lenders, may establish an alternative interest rate for the Impacted Loans, in which case, such alternative rate of interest shall apply with respect to the Impacted Loans until (1) the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders, as applicable, revokes the notice delivered with respect to the Impacted Loans under clause (x) of the first sentence of the immediately preceding paragraph, (2) the Required Lenders or the affected Lenders notify the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that such alternative interest rate does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding the Impacted Loans, or (3) any Lender determines that any Requirement of Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for such Lender or its applicable lending office to make, maintain or fund Loans whose interest is determined by reference to such alternative rate of interest or to determine or charge interest rates based upon such rate or any Governmental Authority has imposed material restrictions on the authority of such Lender to do any of the foregoing and provides the Administrative Agent and the Borrower written notice thereof.

(b) At any time that any Eurocurrency Loan is affected by the circumstances described in Section 2.10(a)(ii) or (iii), the Borrower may (and in the case of a Eurocurrency Loan affected pursuant to Section 2.10(a)(iii) shall) either (x) if a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion with respect to the affected Eurocurrency Loan has been submitted pursuant to Section 2.3 but the affected Eurocurrency Loan has not been funded or continued, cancel such requested Borrowing by giving the Administrative Agent written notice thereof on the same date that the Borrower was notified by Lenders pursuant to Section 2.10(a)(ii) or (iii) or (y) if the affected Eurocurrency Loan is then outstanding, upon at least three Business Days' notice to the Administrative Agent, require the affected Lender to convert each such Eurocurrency Loan into an ABR Loan; provided that if more than one Lender is affected at any time, then all affected Lenders must be treated in the same manner pursuant to this Section 2.10(b).

(c) If, after the Closing Date, any Change in Law relating to capital adequacy or liquidity of any Lender or compliance by any Lender or its parent with any Change in Law relating to capital adequacy or liquidity occurring after the Closing Date, has or would have the effect of reducing the actual rate of return on such Lender's or its parent's or its Affiliate's capital or assets as a consequence of such Lender's commitments or obligations hereunder to a level below that which such Lender or its parent or its Affiliate could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or its parent's policies with respect to capital adequacy or liquidity), then from time to time, promptly after demand by such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower shall pay to such Lender such actual additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or its parent for such actual reduction, it being understood and agreed, however, that a Lender shall not be entitled to such compensation as a result of such Lender's compliance with, or pursuant to any request or directive to comply with, any law, rule or regulation as in effect on the Closing Date or to the extent such Lender is not imposing such charges on, or requesting such compensation from, borrowers (similarly situated to the Borrower hereunder) under comparable syndicated credit facilities similar to the DIP Facility. Each Lender, upon determining in good faith that any additional amounts will be payable pursuant to this Section 2.10(c), will give prompt written notice thereof to the Borrower, which notice shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis of the calculation of such additional amounts, although the failure to give any such notice shall not, subject to Section 2.13, release or diminish the Borrower's obligations to pay additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.10(c) promptly following receipt of such notice.

(d) With respect to any alternative interest rate selected by the Required Lenders pursuant to this Section 2.10: (i) no Agent or the Escrow Agent shall be bound to follow or agree to any modification to this Agreement or any other Credit Document or any such rate that would increase or materially change or affect the duties, obligations or liabilities of any Agent or the Escrow Agent (including without limitation the imposition or expansion of discretionary authority), or reduce, eliminate, limit or otherwise change any right, privilege or protection of any Agent or the Escrow Agent, or would otherwise materially and adversely affect any Agent or the Escrow Agent, in each case in its reasonable judgment, without its express written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) and (ii) any such alternative interest rate shall be administratively feasible for the Administrative Agent.

2.11 Compensation. If (a) any payment of principal of any Eurocurrency Loan is made by the Borrower to or for the account of a Lender other than on the last day of the Interest Period for such Eurocurrency Loan as a result of a payment or conversion pursuant to Sections 2.5, 2.6, 2.10, 5.1, 5.2, or 13.7, as a result of acceleration of the maturity of the Loans pursuant to Section 11 or for any other reason, (b) any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans is not made as a result of a withdrawn Notice of Borrowing or a failure to satisfy borrowing conditions, (c) any ABR Loan is not converted into a Eurocurrency Loan as a result of a withdrawn Notice of Conversion, (d) any Eurocurrency Loan is not continued as a Eurocurrency Loan, as the case may be, as a result of a withdrawn Notice of Conversion or (e) any prepayment of principal of any Eurocurrency Loan is not made as a result of a withdrawn notice of prepayment pursuant to Sections 5.1 or 5.2, the Borrower shall, after receipt of a written request by such Lender (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such amount), promptly pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender any amounts required to compensate such Lender for any additional losses, costs or expenses that such Lender may reasonably incur as a result of such payment, failure to convert, failure to continue or failure to prepay, including any loss, cost or expense (excluding loss of anticipated profits) actually incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds acquired by any Lender to fund or maintain such Eurocurrency Loan. A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender as specified in this Section 2.11 and setting forth in reasonable detail the manner in which such amount or amounts were determined shall be delivered to the Borrower and shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

2.12 Change of Lending Office. Each Lender agrees that, upon the occurrence of any event giving rise to the operation of Sections 2.10(a)(ii), 2.10(a)(iii), 2.10(b) or 5.4 with respect to such Lender, it will, if requested by the Borrower use reasonable efforts (subject to overall policy considerations of such Lender) to designate another lending office for any Loans affected by such event; provided that such designation is made on such terms that such Lender and its lending office suffer no unreimbursed cost or other material economic, legal or regulatory disadvantage, with the object of avoiding the consequence of the event giving rise to the operation of any such Section. Nothing in this Section 2.12 shall affect or postpone any of the obligations of the Borrower or the right of any Lender provided in Sections 2.10 or 5.4.

2.13 Notice of Certain Costs. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, to the extent any notice required by Sections 2.10 or 2.11 is given by any Lender more than 180 days after such Lender has knowledge (or should have had knowledge) of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the additional cost, reduction in amounts, loss, or other additional amounts described in such Sections, such Lender shall not be entitled to compensation under Sections 2.10 or 2.11, as the case may be, for any such amounts incurred or accruing prior to the 181st day prior to the giving of notice to the Borrower; provided that, if the circumstances giving rise to such claim is retroactive, then such 180 day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

2.14 [Reserved].

2.15 [Reserved]

2.16 Defaulting Lenders.

(a) Adjustments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as that Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable Requirement of Law:

(i) Waivers and Amendments. Such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Required Lenders and Section 13.1.

(ii) Defaulting Lender Waterfall. Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 11 or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 13.9 shall be applied at such time or times as follows: first, as may be determined by the Administrative Agent to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to any Agent or the Escrow Agent hereunder; second, [reserved]; third, [reserved]; fourth, as the Borrower may request (so long as no Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement; fifth, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to (x) satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement and (y) [reserved]; sixth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower, the Lenders as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower or any Lender against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; seventh, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and eighth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 2.16(a)(ii) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(iii) Certain Fees. No Defaulting Lender shall be entitled to receive any fee payable under Section 4 for any period during which that Lender is a Defaulting Lender (and the Borrower shall not be required to pay any such fee that otherwise would have been required to have been paid to that Defaulting Lender).

(b) Defaulting Lender Cure. If the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein, that Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other

Lenders or take such other actions as may be necessary to cause the Term Loans to be held on a pro rata basis by the Lenders in accordance with their percentages of the Term Loan Commitments, whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender.

Section 3. [Reserved]

Section 4. Fees

4.1 Fees.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent in Dollars, for the account of each Lender (in each case pro rata according to the respective Commitments of all such Lenders), a commitment fee (the "Commitment Fee") on the Funding Date equal to 3.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the Term Loans.

(b) The Borrower agrees to pay (i) to the Agents and the Lenders, as applicable, for their respective accounts, the fees and other amounts due in accordance with the terms of the Fee Letter in accordance with the applicable terms thereof and (ii) to the Escrow Agent the fees set forth in the fee letter referenced in the Escrow Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall not be obligated to pay any amounts to any Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 4.1, except as otherwise set forth in Section 2.16(a)(iii)(B).

Section 5. Payments

5.1 Voluntary Prepayments.

(a) The Borrower shall have the right to prepay Term Loans, in each case, without premium or penalty, in whole or in part from time to time on the following terms and conditions: (1) the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent at the Administrative Agent's Office written notice of the Borrower's intent to make such prepayment, the amount of such prepayment and (in the case of Eurocurrency Loans) the specific Borrowing(s) pursuant to which made, which notice shall be given by the Borrower no later than 12:00 Noon (New York City time) (i) in the case of Eurocurrency Loans, three Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment, (ii) [reserved], (iii) in the case of ABR Loans, two Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment or (iv) [reserved], (2) each partial prepayment of (i) any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans shall be in a minimum amount of $5,000,000 (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) and in multiples of $1,000,000 (or the Dollar Equivalent thereof) in excess thereof, (ii) any ABR Loans shall be in a minimum amount of $1,000,000 and in multiples of $500,000 in excess thereof, and (iii) [reserved]; and (3) in the case of any prepayment of Eurocurrency Loans pursuant to this Section 5.1 on any day other than the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto, the Borrower shall, promptly after receipt of a written request by any applicable Lender (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such amount), pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender any amounts required pursuant to Section 2.11.

5.2 Mandatory Prepayments.

(a) Term Loan Prepayments. Subject in all respects to the DIP Order, on each occasion that a Prepayment Event occurs, the Borrower shall, within two Business Days after receipt of the Net Cash Proceeds of any Prepayment Event (or, in the case of Deferred Net Cash Proceeds, within two Business Days after the Reinvestment Period ends), prepay, in accordance with clause (c) below, Term Loans with an equivalent principal amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds from such Prepayment Event, unless otherwise approved by the Required Lenders (which approval may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors). No prepayment pursuant to this Section 5.2(a) shall be required in respect of the sale or disposition of any Foreign Subsidiary's assets to the extent such prepayment would result in material adverse tax consequences (as reasonably determined by the Borrower in consultation with the Administrative Agent) or would be prohibited or restricted by applicable law.

(b) Reinvestment Period. Until the Reinvestment Period ends, the Parent or any Subsidiary shall apply the Net Cash Proceeds from such Casualty Event solely to reinvest in the business of the Parent or such Subsidiary in order to replace the property affected by such Casualty Event; provided that the Parent and the Subsidiaries will be deemed to have complied with this Section 5.2(b) if and to the extent that, within the Reinvestment Period after the Casualty Event that generated the Net Cash Proceeds, the Parent or such Subsidiary has reinvested such proceeds within the Reinvestment Period and, in the event any such proceeds are not reinvested within the Reinvestment Period, the Parent or such Subsidiary prepays the Loans in accordance with Section 5.2(a).

(c) Application to Repayment Amounts. Each prepayment required by Section 5.2(a) shall be allocated pro rata among the Loans based on the amounts due thereunder. With respect to each such prepayment, the Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to Section 5.2(a) two Business Days after the date of realization or receipt of such Net Cash Proceeds. Each such notice shall be irrevocable, shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such prepayment, shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit D and which shall include a calculation of the amount of such prepayment to be applied to the Term Loans requesting that the Administrative Agent provide notice of such prepayment to each Lender.

5.3 Method and Place of Payment.

(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all payments under this Agreement shall be made by the Borrower, without set-off, counterclaim or deduction of any kind, to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Lenders entitled thereto not later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time), in each case, on the date when due and shall be made in immediately available funds at the Administrative Agent's Office or at such other office as the Administrative Agent shall specify for such purpose by notice to the Borrower, it being understood that written or facsimile notice by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent to make a payment from the funds in the Borrower's account at the Administrative Agent's Office shall constitute the making of such payment to the extent of such funds held in such account. All repayments or prepayments of any Loans (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) hereunder shall be made in the currency in which such Loans are denominated and all other payments under each Credit Document shall, unless otherwise specified in such Credit Document, be made in Dollars. The Administrative Agent will thereafter cause to be distributed on the same day (if payment was actually received by the Administrative Agent prior to 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) or, otherwise, on the next Business Day in the Administrative Agent's sole discretion) like funds relating to the payment of principal or interest or Fees ratably to the Lenders entitled thereto.

(b) Any payments under this Agreement that are made later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) shall be deemed to have been made on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. Except as otherwise provided herein, whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest shall be payable during such extension at the applicable rate in effect immediately prior to such extension.

(c) Pre-Default Allocation of Payments. At all times when Section 5.3(d) does not apply and except as otherwise expressly provided herein, monies to be applied to the Obligations and the Pre-Petition Obligations, whether arising from payments by the Credit Parties, realization on Collateral, setoff or otherwise, shall be allocated as follows (subject, in all respects, to the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge):

(i) First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of the Agent Advisors payable under the Credit Documents) payable to the Agents and the Escrow Agent in their capacity as such pursuant to any Credit Document, until paid in full;

(ii) Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Lenders pursuant to any Credit Document (including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of Lender Advisors payable under Section 13.5 and amounts payable under Section 2.10 or 5.4), ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause Second payable to them, until paid in full;

(iii) Third, to pay interest and principal due in respect of all Loans, until paid in full;

(iv) Fourth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Credit Parties that are due and payable to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Escrow Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Escrow Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, until paid in full;

(v) Fifth, ratably to pay any Obligations that are that are due and payable to Defaulting Lenders, until paid in full;

(vi) Sixth, to the Pre-Petition Agents for the payment of the Pre-Petition Obligations in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreements; and

(vii) Last, the balance, if any, to the Borrower or as otherwise required by law.

Amounts shall be applied to each category of Obligations set forth above until Full Payment thereof and then to the next category. If amounts are insufficient to satisfy a category, they shall be applied on a pro rata basis among the Obligations in the category.

(d) Post-Default Allocation of Payments. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, after the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, the Required Lenders may elect, in lieu of the allocation of payments set forth in Section 5.3(a), that monies to be applied to the Obligations, whether arising from payments by the Credit Parties, realization on Collateral, setoff or otherwise, shall, to the extent elected by the Required Lenders (in writing to the Administrative Agent), be allocated as follows (subject, in all respects, to the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge):

(i) First, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal and interest, but including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of Agent Advisors payable under the Credit Documents) payable to the Agents and the Escrow Agent pursuant to any Credit Document in their capacity as such, until paid in full;

(ii) Second, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities and other amounts (other than principal and interest) payable to the Lenders pursuant to any Credit Document (including Attorney Costs and fees and expenses of the Lender Advisors payable under Section 13.5 and amounts payable under Section 2.10 or 5.4), ratably among them in proportion to the amounts described in this clause Second payable to them, until paid in full;

(iii) Third, to pay interest and principal due in respect of all Loans, until paid in full;

(iv) Fourth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Credit Parties that are due and payable to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Escrow Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations owing to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties (other than any Defaulting Lenders) on such date, until paid in full;

(v) Fifth, ratably to pay any Obligations that are that are due and payable to Defaulting Lenders, until paid in full;

(vi) Sixth, to pay any other Obligations until paid in full;

(vii) Seventh, to the Pre-Petition Agents for the payment of the Pre-Petition Obligations in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreements; and

(viii) Last, the balance, if any, after Full Payment of the Obligations, to the Borrower or as otherwise required by any Requirement of Law.

Amounts shall be applied to each category of Obligations set forth above until Full Payment thereof and then to the next category. The allocations set forth in this Section 5.3(d) may be changed by agreement among the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders without the consent of any Credit Party and are subject to Section 2.16 (regarding Defaulting Lenders); provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment to Section 5.3(d) shall be permitted without the consent of the Borrower which would modify the priority of the Pre-Petition Obligations set forth therein. If amounts are insufficient to satisfy a category, they shall be applied on a pro rata basis among the Obligations in the category. Appropriate adjustments shall be made with respect to payments from other Credit Parties to preserve the allocation to Obligations otherwise set forth above in this Section 5.3(d). For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Agreement shall relieve or waive payment of the Pre-Petition Obligations in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreements.

(e) If, except as otherwise expressly provided herein (subject in all respects to the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge), any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Loans resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Loans and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other similarly situated Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for cash at face value) participations in the Loans of other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans; provided that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant, other than to any Credit Party or Affiliate thereof (as to which the provisions of this paragraph shall apply). The Borrower consents to the foregoing and agree, to the extent they may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against the Borrower's rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of the Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(f) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders hereunder that the Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders the amount due. In such event, if the Borrower has not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation.

(g) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it hereunder, then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), (i) apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations hereunder until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid and/or (ii) hold any such amounts in a segregated account as cash collateral for, and application to, any future funding obligations of such Lender hereunder; application of amounts pursuant to (i) and (ii) above shall be made in any order determined by the Administrative Agent in its discretion.

5.4 Net Payments.

(a) Payments Free of Taxes; Obligation to Withhold; Payments on Account of Taxes.

(i) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Credit Party hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall to the extent permitted by applicable laws be made free and clear of and without reduction or withholding for any Taxes.

(ii) If any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent or any other applicable Withholding Agent shall be required by applicable law to withhold or deduct any Taxes from any payment, then (A) such Withholding Agent shall withhold or make such deductions as are reasonably determined by such Withholding Agent to be required by applicable law, (B) such Withholding Agent shall timely pay the full amount withheld or deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority, and (C) to the extent that the withholding or deduction is made on account of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes, the sum payable by the applicable Credit Party shall be increased as necessary so that after such required withholding or deductions have been made (including any such withholding or deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5.4) each Lender (or, in the case of a payment to the Administrative Agent for its own account, the Administrative Agent) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such withholding or deductions been made.

(b) Payment of Other Taxes by the Borrower. Without limiting the provisions of clause (a) above, the Borrower shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law or timely reimburse the Administrative Agent or any Lender for the payment of any Other Taxes.

(c) Tax Indemnifications. Without limiting the provisions of clause (a) or (b) above, the Borrower shall indemnify the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and shall make payment in respect thereof within 15 days after demand therefor, for the full amount of Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 5.4) payable by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of any such payment or liability (along with a written statement setting forth in reasonable detail the basis and calculation of such amounts) delivered to the Borrower by a Lender, or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by any Credit Party to a Governmental Authority as provided in this Section 5.4, the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of any return required by laws to report such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) Status of Lenders and Tax Documentation.

(i) Each Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and to the Administrative Agent, at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable laws or by the taxing authorities of any jurisdiction and such other reasonably requested information as will permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, to determine (A) whether or not any payments made hereunder or under any other Credit Document are subject to withholding Taxes, (B) if applicable, the required rate of withholding or deduction, and (C) such Lender's entitlement to any available exemption from, or reduction of, applicable Taxes in respect of any payments to be made to such Lender by any Credit Party pursuant to any Credit Document or otherwise to establish such Lender's status for withholding tax purposes in the applicable jurisdiction. Any documentation and information required to be delivered by a Lender pursuant to this Section 5.4(e) (including any specific documentation set forth in subsection (ii) below) shall be delivered by such Lender (i) on or prior to the Closing Date (or on or prior to the date it becomes a party to this Agreement), (ii) whenever a lapse of time or change in circumstances renders such documentation obsolete, expired or inaccurate in any respect and (iii) from time to time thereafter if reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent. Each such Lender shall also promptly notify in writing the Borrower and the Administrative Agent if such Lender is no longer legally eligible to provide any documentation previously provided.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.4, no Lender or the Administrative Agent shall be required to deliver any documentation that it is not legally eligible to deliver.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) any Lender that is a U.S. Person (a "U.S. Lender") shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or such other documentation or information prescribed by applicable laws or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) each Non-U.S. Lender that is entitled under the Code or any applicable treaty to an exemption from or reduction of U.S. federal withholding tax with respect to any payments hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or any successor form thereto) claiming eligibility for benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party;

(2) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI (or any successor form thereto);

(3) in the case of a Non-U.S. Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate, substantially in the form of Exhibit J-1, J-2, J-3 or J-4, as applicable, (a "Non-Bank Tax Certificate"), to the effect that such Non-U.S. Lender is not (A) a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, (B) a "10 percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or (C) a "controlled foreign corporation" described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code and that no payments under any Credit Document are effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Lender's conduct of a United States trade or business and (y) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or any successor thereto);

(4) where such Lender is a partnership (for U.S. federal income tax purposes) or otherwise not a beneficial owner (e.g., where such Lender has sold a participation), Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY (or any successor thereto), accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI, Internal Revenue service Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E and/or Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (in each case, or any successor thereto), and all required supporting documentation (including, where one or more of the underlying beneficial owner(s) is claiming the benefits of the portfolio interest exemption, a Non-Bank Tax Certificate of such beneficial owner(s)) (provided that, if the Non-U.S. Lender is a partnership and not a participating Lender, the Non-Bank Tax Certificate(s) may be provided by the Non-U.S. Lender on behalf of the direct or indirect partner(s)); or

(5) executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable laws as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in United States federal withholding tax together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable laws to permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made;

(C) if a payment made to a Lender under any Credit Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount, if any, to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (C), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(iii) On or before the date the Administrative Agent (or any successor thereto) becomes a party to this Agreement, such Administrative Agent shall provide to the Borrower two duly-signed properly completed copies of the documentation prescribed in clause (A) or (B) below, as applicable (together with any required attachments): (A) IRS Form W-9 or any successor thereto, or (B)(x) IRS Form W-8ECI, or any successor thereto with respect to payments, if any, received by the Administrative Agent for its own account, and (y) with respect to payments received on account of any Lender, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY (or any successor form) certifying that the Administrative Agent is either (a) a "qualified intermediary" or (b) a "U.S. branch" and that payment it receives for others are not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States, in each case certifying that the Administrative Agent is assuming primary withholding responsibility under Chapters 3 and 4 of the Code and primary Form 1099 reporting and backup withholding responsibility for payments it receives for the accounts of others, with the effect that the Borrower can make payments to the Administrative Agent without deduction or withholding of any Taxes imposed by the United States. At any time thereafter, the Administrative Agent shall update documentation previously provided (including, if applicable, any successor forms thereto) when any documentation previously delivered has expired or become obsolete or invalid or otherwise upon the reasonable request of the Borrower. The Administrative Agent shall also promptly notify the Borrower in writing of its legal inability to do so.

(f) Treatment of Certain Refunds. If the Administrative Agent or any Lender determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by any Credit Party or with respect to which any Credit Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 5.4, the Administrative Agent or such Lender (as applicable) shall promptly pay to the Borrower an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by the Credit Parties under this Section 5.4 with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including any Taxes) incurred by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that the Borrower, upon the request of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, agrees to repay the amount paid over to the Borrower pursuant to this paragraph (f) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent or such Lender in the event the Administrative Agent or such Lender is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. In such event, the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, shall, at the Borrower's request, provide the Borrower with a copy of any notice of assessment or other evidence of the requirement to repay such refund received from the relevant taxing authority (provided that the Administrative Agent or such Lender may delete any information therein that it deems confidential). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (f), in no event will the Administrative Agent or any Lender be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this paragraph (f) the payment of which would place the Administrative Agent or any Lender in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Administrative Agent or any Lender would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This subsection shall not be construed to require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to any Credit Party or any other Person.

(g) If the Administrative Agent is a U.S. Person, it shall provide the Borrower with two duly completed original copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9. If the Administrative Agent is not a U.S. Person, it shall provide applicable Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (together with required accompanying documentation) with respect to payments to be received by it on behalf of the Lenders.

(h) [Reserved].

(i) Each party's obligations under this Section 5.4 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under the Credit Documents.

5.5 Computations of Interest and Fees.

(a) Except as provided in the next succeeding sentence, interest on Eurocurrency Loans shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed. Interest on ABR Loans shall be calculated on the basis of a 365- (or 366-, as the case may be) day year for the actual days elapsed.

(b) Fees shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual days elapsed.

(c) For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) and disclosure thereunder, whenever any interest or any fee to be paid hereunder or in connection herewith is to be calculated on the basis of a 360-day or any other period of time that is less than a calendar year, the yearly rate of interest to which the rate used in such calculation is equivalent is the rate so used multiplied by the actual number of days in the calendar year in which the same is to be ascertained and divided by 360 or such other period of time, as applicable. The rates of interest under this Agreement are nominal rates, and not effective rates or yields. The principle of deemed reinvestment of interest does not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement.

5.6 Limit on Rate of Interest.

(a) No Payment Shall Exceed Lawful Rate. Notwithstanding any other term of this Agreement, the Borrower shall not be obliged to pay any interest or other amounts under or in connection with this Agreement or otherwise in respect of the Obligations in excess of the amount or rate permitted under or consistent with any applicable law, rule or regulation.

(b) Payment at Highest Lawful Rate. If the Borrower is not obliged to make a payment that it would otherwise be required to make, as a result of Section 5.6(a), the Borrower shall make such payment to the maximum extent permitted by or consistent with applicable laws, rules, and regulations (the "Maximum Rate").

(c) Adjustment if Any Payment Exceeds Lawful Rate. If any provision of this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents would obligate the Borrower to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to any Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate that would be prohibited by any applicable law, rule or regulation, then notwithstanding such provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by law, such adjustment to be effected, to the extent necessary, by reducing the amount or rate of interest required to be paid by the Borrower to the affected Lender under Section 2.8; provided that to the extent lawful, the interest or other amounts that would have been payable but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section shall be cumulated and the interest payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Effective Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and after giving effect to all adjustments contemplated thereby, if any Lender shall have received from the Borrower an amount in excess of the maximum permitted by any applicable law, rule or regulation, then the Borrower shall be entitled, by notice in writing to the Administrative Agent to obtain reimbursement from that Lender in an amount equal to such excess, and pending such reimbursement, such amount shall be deemed to be an amount payable by that Lender to the Borrower.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if any provision of this Agreement would oblige any Credit Party that is organized under the laws of Canada or any Province thereof to make any payment of interest or other amount payable to any Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate which would be prohibited by law or would result in a receipt by that Lender of "interest" at a "criminal rate" (as such terms are construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)), then, notwithstanding such provision, such amount or rate shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by applicable law or so result in a receipt by that Lender of "interest" at a "criminal rate", such adjustment to be effected, to the extent necessary (but only to the extent necessary), as follows:

(i) first, by reducing the amount or rate of interest; and

(ii) thereafter, by reducing any fees, commissions, costs, expenses, premiums and other amounts required to be paid to the affected Lender which would constitute interest for purposes of section 347 of the Criminal Code (Canada).

5.7 Super Priority Nature of Obligations and Collateral Agent's Liens; Payment of Obligations.

(a) The priority of the Collateral Agent's Liens on the Collateral, claims and other interests shall be as set forth in the DIP Order and the Canadian DIP Recognition Order (and, for the avoidance of doubt, are subject to the Carve Out).

(b) Upon the maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) of any of the Obligations under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to immediate payment of such Obligations without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court or the Canadian Bankruptcy Court.

Section 6. Conditions Precedent.

6.1 Conditions Precedent to the Closing Date. The effectiveness of this Agreement and the obligations of each Lender to make any Loan hereunder on the Funding Date is subject to the satisfaction or waiver (by the Required Lenders in their sole discretion and, with respect to any condition affecting the rights and duties of the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent, any which waiver by the Required Lenders, and the satisfaction of the Required Lenders with any document described in Section 6 may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors), of the following conditions precedent:

(i) Other Filings. Each of the Chapter 11 Plan, the Chapter 11 Plan Disclosure Statement, and Solicitation Motion (as defined in the RSA) shall have been or be concurrently filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

(j) Patriot Act. (k) Assignment. Evidence that Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB has been assigned as administrative agent and collateral agent under each Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and the other Pre-Petition Credit Documents, such evidence in form and substance satisfactory to the Lenders and the Administrative Agent.

For purposes of determining compliance with the conditions specified in this Section 6.1 on the Closing Date, each Lender that has signed this Agreement shall be deemed to have consented to, approved or accepted or to be satisfied with, each document or other matter required thereunder to be consented to or approved by or acceptable or satisfactory to a Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from such Lender prior to the proposed Closing Date specifying its objection thereto.

6.2 Conditions Precedent to the Funding Date. In addition to the conditions set forth in Section 6.1, the obligations of each Lender to make any Loan hereunder on the Funding Date is subject to the satisfaction or waiver (by the Required Lenders in their sole discretion, any which waiver, and the satisfaction of the Required Lenders with any document described in Section 6 may be communicated via an email from any of the Specified Lender Advisors), of the following conditions precedent:

(a) Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 8 hereof or in any other Credit Document shall be true and correct in all material respects (except that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct in all respects) on and as of the Funding Date with the same effect as though made on and as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date (except that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct in all respects as of such earlier date).

(e) Flow of Funds Statement. The Administrative Agent shall have received a Flow of Funds Statement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders.

Section 7. Conditions Precedent to Withdrawal.

7.1 Conditions Precedent to Withdrawal. Any Withdrawal on or after the Funding Date is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions precedent:

(a) No Default. At the time of and immediately after giving effect to such Withdrawal and the application of the proceeds thereof, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on such date.

(b) Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 8 hereof or in any other Credit Document shall be true and correct in all material respects (except that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct in all respects) on and as of the date of such Withdrawal with the same effect as though made on and as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date (except that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect" shall be true and correct in all respects as of such earlier date).

(c) Bankruptcy Proceedings. (i) The DIP Order, the Canadian Interim Orders and the Canadian Final Order (to the extent required to be in effect on the date of such Withdrawal) shall not have been vacated, stayed, reversed, modified, or amended, in whole or in any part, without the Administrative Agent's and the Required Lenders' written consent and shall otherwise be in full force and effect; (ii) no

(f) Approved Budget. The proceeds of the Loans shall be used as set forth in the Approved Budget (subject to the Permitted Variance).

The Borrower has delivered to the Administrative Agent (for distribution to the Lenders and the Specified Lender Advisors) an executed Withdrawal Notice, executed by the Borrower requesting the proposed Withdrawal thereunder by no later than 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Wednesday of the week (provided that in connection with the Funding Date, such Withdrawal notice may be provided at least one Business Day prior to the Funding Date) for a proposed funding of such Withdrawal on Friday of such week, which Withdrawal Notice (other than the Withdrawal Notice delivered on the Funding Date) will set forth the Actual Liquidity as of the Friday prior to the date of such Withdrawal Notice.

(h) Maximum Withdrawal. The amount of such Withdrawal does not exceed the Maximum Withdrawal Amount.

(i) Orders. Other than in connection with the Withdrawal on the Funding Date, the Canadian Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Canadian Interim Orders, and such orders shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the Required Lenders (and with respect to any provisions that affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent) in their sole discretion, be in full force and effect, and shall not have been reversed, modified, amended, stayed or vacated absent prior written consent of the Required Lenders (and with respect to any provisions that affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Required Lenders determine that the Borrower has failed to satisfy the conditions precedent set forth in this Section 7 for a Withdrawal Notice and so advise the Administrative Agent in writing (directly or through the Specified Lender Advisors), the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders) shall communicate the same to the Escrow Agent.

On any date on which the Loans shall have been accelerated, any amounts remaining in the Loan Proceeds Account, as the case may be, may be applied by the Administrative Agent to reduce the Loans then outstanding, in accordance with Section 5.3(d). None of the Credit Parties shall have (and each Credit Party hereby affirmatively waives) any right to withdraw, claim or assert any property interest in any funds on deposit in the Loan Proceeds Account upon the occurrence and continuance of any Default or Event of Default (except to fund the Carve Out).

The acceptance by the Borrower of the Loans or proceeds of a Withdrawal shall conclusively be deemed to constitute a representation by the Borrower that each of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 7 shall have been satisfied in accordance with its respective terms or has been irrevocably and expressly waived by the applicable Person; provided, however, that the making of any such Loan or Withdrawal (regardless of whether the lack of satisfaction was known or unknown at the time), shall not be deemed a modification or waiver by the Administrative Agent, any Lender or other Secured Party of the provisions of this Section 7 on such occasion or on any future occasion or operate as a waiver of (i) the right of Administrative Agent and Lenders to insist upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent with respect to any subsequent funding or issuance, (ii) any Default or Event of Default due to such failure of conditions or otherwise or (iii) any rights of any Agent, the Escrow Agent or any Lender as a result of any such failure of the Credit Parties to comply with such conditions precedent.

Section 8. Representations and Warranties

In order to induce the Lenders to enter into this Agreement and to make the Loans provided for herein, the Parent and the Borrower make the following representations and warranties to each Agent, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders on the date of each Credit Event (it being understood that the following representations and warranties shall be deemed made with respect to any Foreign Subsidiary only to the extent relevant under applicable law):

8.1 Corporate Status. Each Credit Party (a) is a duly organized and validly existing corporation, limited liability company or other entity in good standing (if applicable) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and subject to entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, and subject to any restrictions arising on account of any Credit Party's status as a "debtor" under the Bankruptcy Code, has the corporate, limited liability company or other organizational power and authority to own its property and assets and to transact the business in which it is engaged and (b) has duly qualified and is authorized to do business and is in good standing (if applicable) in all jurisdictions where it is required to be so qualified, except where the failure to be so qualified or authorized, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

8.2 Corporate Power and Authority. Subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, each Credit Party has the corporate or other organizational power and authority to execute, deliver and carry out the terms and provisions of the Credit Documents to which it is a party and has taken all necessary corporate or other organizational action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of the Credit Documents to which it is a party. Each Credit Party has duly executed and delivered each Credit Document to which it is a party and subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, each Credit Document constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of each Credit Party enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to the Legal Reservations.

8.3 No Violation. Subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, and the terms thereof, neither the execution, delivery or performance by any Credit Party of the Credit Documents to which it is a party nor compliance with the terms and provisions thereof nor the other transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will (a) contravene any applicable provision of any material law, statute, rule, regulation, order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (b) result in any breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default (that is not excused by the Bankruptcy Code) under, or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien upon any of the property or assets of such Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries (other than Liens created under the Credit Documents, the DIP Order, any restrictions arising on account of such Credit Party's status as a "debtor" under the Bankruptcy Code, or Permitted Liens) pursuant to, the terms of any indenture, loan agreement, lease agreement, mortgage, deed of trust, agreement or other instrument to which such Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or any of its property or assets is bound (any such term, covenant, condition or provision, a "Contractual Requirement") other than, in the case of clause (b), to the extent any such breach, default or Lien would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (c) violate any provision of the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, articles or other organizational documents of such Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries.

8.4 Litigation. Except for the Chapter 11 Cases and the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, there are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of any Credit Party, threatened in writing against any Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries (a) that would reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (b) that involves this Agreement or the Transactions.

8.5 Margin Regulations. Neither the making of any Loan hereunder nor the use of the proceeds thereof will violate the provisions of Regulation T, U or X of the Board.

8.6 Governmental Approvals. Subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, and the terms thereof, the execution, delivery and performance of each Credit Document does not require any consent or approval of, registration or filing with, or other action by, any Governmental Authority, except for (i) such as have been obtained or made and are in full force and effect, (ii) filings, consents, approvals, registrations and recordings in respect of the Liens created pursuant to the Security Documents (and to release existing Liens), and (iii) such licenses, approvals, authorizations, registrations, filings or consents the failure of which to obtain or make would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

8.7 Investment Company Act. No Credit Party nor any of its Subsidiaries is an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

8.8 True and Complete Disclosure.

(a) None of the written information and written data (taken as a whole) heretofore or contemporaneously furnished by or on behalf of the Credit Parties any of their Subsidiaries or any of their respective authorized representatives to the Administrative Agent and/or any Lender on or before the Closing Date (including all such written information and data contained in the Credit Documents) for purposes of or in connection with this Agreement or any transaction contemplated herein, contain any untrue statement of any material fact or omitted to state any material fact necessary to make such information and data (taken as a whole) not materially misleading at such time in light of the circumstances under which such information or data was furnished (after giving effect to all supplements and updates), it being understood and agreed that for purposes of this Section 8.8(a), such factual information and data shall not include pro forma financial information, projections, estimates (including financial estimates, forecasts, and other forward-looking information) or other forward-looking information and information of a general economic or general industry nature.

(b) The projections (including financial estimates, forecasts, and other forward-looking information) contained in the information and data referred to in paragraph (a) above were based on good faith estimates and assumptions believed by such Persons to be reasonable at the time made, it being recognized by the Lenders that such projections as to future events are not to be viewed as facts and that actual results during the period or periods covered by any such projections may differ from the projected results and such differences may be material.

8.9 Financial Condition; Financial Statements.

(a) The Parent has heretofore furnished to the Lenders its audited consolidated balance sheet and statement of income, stockholders equity and cash flows as of and for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2019 and January 31, 2018. Such financial statements present fairly in all material respects the combined financial position of the Parent and its Subsidiaries at the respective dates of said information, statements and results of operations for the respective periods covered thereby. The financial statements referred to in clause (a) of this Section 8.9 have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied except to the extent provided in the notes to said financial statements.

(b) Since January 31, 2019, there has been no event, change or condition that has had or could reasonably be excepted to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Except as set forth in the financial statements referred to in Section 8.9(a), the Chapter 11 Cases and the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, there are no liabilities of any Credit Party of any kind, whether accrued, contingent, absolute, determined, determinable or otherwise, which would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

8.10 Compliance with Laws; No Default. Subject to the entry of the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, each Credit Party and each of its Subsidiaries is in compliance with all Requirements of Law applicable to it or its property, except where the failure to be so in compliance would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. No Default has occurred and is continuing.

8.11 Tax Matters. The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to each Agent, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable: (i) by such Agent in each Credit Document and any other document related hereto or thereto to which it is a party and (ii) the entity serving as such Agent in each of its capacities hereunder and in each of its capacities under any Credit Document whether or not specifically set forth therein and each agent, custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder and under any Credit Document or related document, as the case may be. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, neither Agent shall be under any obligation (i) to monitor, determine or verify the unavailability or cessation of LIBOR or the Eurocurrency Rate (or other applicable benchmark interest rate), or whether or when there has occurred, or to give notice to any other transaction party of the occurrence of, any date on which such rate may be required to be transitions or replaced in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documents, applicable law or otherwise, (ii) to select, determine or designate any replacement to such rate, or other successor or replacement benchmark index, or whether any conditions to the designation of such a rate have been satisfied, (iii) to select, determine or designate any modifier to any replacement or successor index, or (iv) to determine whether or what any amendments to this Agreement or the other Credit Documents are necessary or advisable, if any, in connection with any of the foregoing. Neither Agent shall be liable for any inability, failure or delay on its part to perform any of its duties set forth in this Agreement or any other Credit Document as a result of the unavailability of LIBOR or the Eurocurrency Rate (or other applicable benchmark interest rate), including as a result of any inability, delay, error or inaccuracy on the part of any other party, including without limitation the Required Lenders or the Credit Parties, in providing any direction, instruction, notice or information required or contemplated by the terms of this Agreement and reasonably required for the performance of such duties. Neither Agent shall have any liability for any interest rate published by any publication that is the source for determining the interest rates of the Loans, including but not limited to Bloomberg (or any successor source) and the Reuters Screen (or any successor source), or for any rates compiled by the ICE Benchmark Administration or any successor thereto, or for any rates published on any publicly available source, including without limitation the Federal Reserve Bank of New York's Website, or in any of the foregoing cases for any delay, error or inaccuracy in the publication of any such rates, or for any subsequent correction or adjustment thereto.

12.4 Reliance by Agents. The Agents shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telecopy, telex or teletype message, statement, order or other document or instruction believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper Person or Persons and upon advice and statements of legal counsel (including the Agent Advisors, the Lender Advisors, the Specified Lender Advisors and counsel to the Escrow Agent), independent accountants and other experts selected by such Agent. Each Agent may deem and treat the Lender specified in the Register with respect to any amount owing hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes unless a written notice of assignment, negotiation or transfer thereof shall have been filed with the Administrative Agent. Each Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under this Agreement or any other Credit Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders as it deems appropriate or a Direction of the Required Lender or it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action. Each Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents in accordance with a request of the Required Lenders or a Direction of the Required Lenders, and such request and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all the Lenders and all future holders of the Loans; provided that the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or in the opinion of its counsel, may expose it to liability or that is contrary to any Credit Document or applicable law. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Credit Agreement or the other Credit Documents to the contrary, without limiting any rights, protections, immunities or indemnities afforded to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent hereunder (including without limitation this Section 12), phrases such as "satisfactory to the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "approved by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "acceptable to the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "as determined by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "designed by the [Administrative][Collateral] Agent", "specified by the [Administrative][Collateral] Agent", "in the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent's discretion," "selected by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "elected by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "requested by the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," "in the opinion of the [Administrative] [Collateral] Agent," and phrases of similar import that authorize or permit the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to approve, disapprove, determine, act, evaluate or decline to act in its discretion shall be subject to the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, receiving a Direction of the Required Lenders or other written direction from the Lenders or Required Lenders, as applicable, to take such action or to exercise such rights.

12.5 Notice of Default. No Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless such Agent has received written notice from a Lender or the Borrower referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default." In the event that the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall give notice thereof to the Lenders, the Escrow Agent and the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by the Required Lenders; provided that unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received such directions, the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interests of the Lenders except to the extent that this Agreement requires that such action be taken only with the approval of the Required Lenders or each of the Lenders, as applicable.

12.6 Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Other Lenders. Each Lender expressly acknowledges that no Agent nor the Escrow Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by any Agent or the Escrow Agent hereinafter taken, including any review of the affairs of any Credit Party, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by any Agent or the Escrow Agent to any Lender. Each Lender represents to the Agents that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own appraisal of an investigation into the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of the Borrower and each other Credit Party and made its own decision to make its Loans hereunder and enter into this Agreement. Each Lender also represents that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Agents or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and to make such investigation as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of any of the Credit Parties. Except for notices, reports, and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders by the Administrative Agent hereunder, no Agent nor the Escrow Agent shall have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender with any credit or other information concerning the business, assets, operations, properties, financial condition, prospects or creditworthiness of any Credit Party that may come into the possession of any Agent or the Escrow Agent or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates.

12.7 Indemnification. The Lenders agree to severally indemnify each Agent and the Escrow Agent in its capacity as such (to the extent not reimbursed by the Credit Parties and without limiting the obligation of the Credit Parties to do so), ratably according to their respective portions of the Total Credit

Exposure in effect on the date on which indemnification is sought (or, if indemnification is sought after the date upon which the Commitments shall have terminated and the Loans shall have been paid in full, ratably in accordance with their respective portions of the Total Credit Exposure in effect immediately prior to such date), from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses, or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time (including at any time following the payment of the Loans) be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against an Agent or the Escrow Agent in any way relating to or arising out of the Commitments, this Agreement, any of the other Credit Documents or any documents contemplated by or referred to herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or any action taken or omitted by the any Agent or the Escrow Agent under or in connection with any of the foregoing; provided that no Lender shall be liable to an Agent or the Escrow Agent for the payment of any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from such Agent's or the Escrow Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, further, that no action taken by any Agent or the Escrow Agent in accordance with the directions of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be required by the Credit Documents) shall be deemed to constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct for purposes of this Section 12.7. In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time occur (including at any time following the payment of the Loans), this Section 12.7 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Lender or any other Person. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse each Agent and the Escrow Agent upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out-of-pocket expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by such Agent or the Escrow Agent in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice rendered in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Credit Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that such Agent or the Escrow Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of the Borrower; provided that such reimbursement by the Lenders shall not affect the Borrower's continuing reimbursement obligations with respect thereto. If any indemnity furnished to any Agent or the Escrow Agent for any purpose shall, in the opinion of such Agent or the Escrow Agent, as applicable, be insufficient or become impaired, such Agent or the Escrow Agent may call for additional indemnity and cease, or not commence, to do the acts indemnified against until such additional indemnity is furnished; provided that in no event shall this sentence require any Lender to indemnify any Agent or the Escrow Agent against any liability, obligation, loss, damage, penalty, action, judgment, suit, cost, expense or disbursement in excess of such Lender's pro rata portion thereof; and provided, further, this sentence shall not be deemed to require any Lender to indemnify any Agent or the Escrow Agent against any liability, obligation, loss, damage, penalty, action, judgment, suit, cost, expense or disbursement resulting from such Agent's or the Escrow Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The agreements in this Section 12.7 shall survive the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder. The indemnity provided to each Agent and the Escrow Agent under this Section 12.7 shall also apply to such Agent's and the Escrow Agent's respective Affiliates, directors, officers, members, partners, representatives, assigns, controlling persons, employees, trustees, investment advisors and agents and successors.

12.8 Agents in Their Individual Capacities. If applicable, the agency hereby created shall in no way impair or affect any of the rights and powers of, or impose any duties or obligations upon, any Agent in its individual capacity as a Lender hereunder. Each Agent, the Escrow Agent and its Affiliates may make loans to, accept deposits from and generally engage in any kind of business with any Credit Party as though such Agent or the Escrow Agent were not an Agent or the Escrow Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents. With respect to the Loans made by it, each Agent and the Escrow Agent shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as any Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not an Agent or the Escrow Agent, and the terms Lender and Lenders shall include each Agent and the Escrow Agent in its individual capacity.

12.9 Successor Agents.

(a) Each Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right (subject to the consent of the Borrower (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) so long as no Event of Default is continuing), to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation (the "Resignation Effective Date"), then the retiring Agent may on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above (including receipt of the Borrower's consent); provided that if the any Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) With effect from the Resignation Effective Date, (1) the retiring or removed agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Credit Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Credit Documents, the retiring Collateral Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security as nominee until such time as a successor Collateral Agent is appointed) and (2) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the retiring Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Agent as provided for above. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, hereunder, and upon the execution and filing or recording of such financing statements, or amendments thereto, and such amendments or supplements to the Mortgages, and such other instruments or notices, as may be necessary or desirable, or as the Required Lenders may request, in order to continue the perfection of the Liens granted or purported to be granted by the Security Documents, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Credit Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section 12.9). Except as provided above, any resignation of Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB as the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 12.9 shall also constitute the resignation of Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB as the Collateral Agent and the Escrow Agent, subject to the terms of the Escrow Agreement. The fees payable by the Borrower (following the effectiveness of such appointment) to such Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, the provisions of this Section 12 (including Section 12.7) and Section 13.5 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Agent was acting as an Agent.

12.10 Withholding Tax. To the extent required by any applicable law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender under any Credit Document an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any authority of the United States or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered, was not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstances that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax ineffective) or if the Administrative Agent reasonably determines that a payment was made to a Lender pursuant to this Agreement without deduction of applicable withholding Tax from such payment, such Lender shall indemnify the Administrative Agent (to the extent that the Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by any applicable Credit Party and without limiting the obligation of any applicable Credit Party to do so) fully for all amounts paid, directly or indirectly, by the Administrative Agent as Tax or otherwise, including penalties, additions to Tax and interest, together with all expenses incurred, including legal expenses, allocated staff costs and any out of pocket expenses. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement or any other Credit Document against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this Section 12.10. The agreements in Section 12.10 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

12.11 Agents Under Security Documents and Guarantee. Each Secured Party hereby further authorizes the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties, to be the agent for and representative of the Secured Parties with respect to the Collateral and the Security Documents. Subject to Section 13.1, without further written consent or authorization from any Secured Party, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, may execute any documents or instruments necessary to (a) release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent thereof) under any Credit Document (i) upon the Maturity Date and Full Payment of all Obligations (except for contingent indemnification obligations), (ii) that is sold or to be sold or transferred as part of or in connection with any sale or other transfer permitted hereunder or under any other Credit Document to a Person that is not a Credit Party, (iii) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Credit Party, upon the release of such Credit Party from its Guarantee otherwise in accordance with the Credit Documents, (iv) as to the extent provided in the Security Documents, (v) that constitutes Excluded Property or (vi) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 13.1; (b) release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guarantee if such Person ceases to be a Credit Party (or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary) as a result of a transaction or designation permitted hereunder or (c) subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under any Credit Document to the holder of any Lien permitted under clause (vi) (solely with respect to Section 10.1(d)), and (ix) of the definition of Permitted Lien. Any such release of guarantee obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such guarantee obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the Obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Credit Parties, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Credit Parties or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

The Collateral Agent shall have its own independent right to demand payment of the amounts payable by the Borrower under this Section 12.11, irrespective of any discharge of the Borrower's obligations to pay those amounts to the other Lenders resulting from failure by them to take appropriate steps in insolvency proceedings affecting the Borrower to preserve their entitlement to be paid those amounts.

Any amount due and payable by the Borrower to the Collateral Agent under this Section 12.11 shall be decreased to the extent that the other Lenders have received (and are able to retain) payment in full of the corresponding amount under the other provisions of the Credit Documents and any amount due and payable by the Borrower to the Collateral Agent under those provisions shall be decreased to the extent that the Collateral Agent has received (and is able to retain) payment in full of the corresponding amount under this Section 12.11.

Prior to taking any action or executing any document pursuant to this Section 12.11 or Section 12.12, each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive, and may conclusively rely upon without incurring liability therefor, an officer's certificate executed by a Financial Officer of the Borrower certifying that such action and execution of such documents are authorized and permitted under this Agreement and any other Credit Document and all conditions precedent to such release or execution have been satisfied. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for executing any documents or instruments pursuant to Section 12.11 or 12.12 to the extent the Collateral Agent did so upon the Direction of the Required Lenders (which consent may be provided via email by any of the Specified Lender Advisors).

12.12 Right to Realize on Collateral and Enforce Guarantee.

(a) Anything contained in any of the Credit Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, the Borrower (on behalf of itself and each other Credit Party), the Administrative Agent and each Secured Party hereby agree that (i) no Secured Party shall have any right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral or to enforce the Guarantee, it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies hereunder and under any of the Credit Documents may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof and all powers, rights and remedies under the Security Documents may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms thereof, and (ii) in the event of a foreclosure or similar enforcement action by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale or other disposition (including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 363(k), Section 1129(b)(2)(a)(ii) or otherwise of the Bankruptcy Code), the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or any Lender, except with respect to a "credit bid" pursuant to Section 363(k), Section 1129(b)(2)(a)(ii) or otherwise of the Bankruptcy Code) may, upon instruction from the Required Lenders, be the purchaser or licensor of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale or other disposition and the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as agent for and representative of the Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders in its or their respective individual capacities) shall be entitled, upon instructions from the Required Lenders, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such sale or disposition, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent at such sale or other disposition.

(b) Release of Collateral and Guarantees, Termination of Credit Documents.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or any other Credit Document, when all Obligations have been Paid in Full and all Commitments have terminated or expired, upon request of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall (without notice to, or vote or consent of, any Lender, or any other Secured Party) take such actions as shall be required or reasonably requested to release its security interest in all Collateral, and to release all guarantee obligations provided for in any Credit Document. Any such release of guarantee obligations shall be deemed subject to the provision that such guarantee obligations shall be reinstated if after such release any portion of any payment in respect of the Obligations guaranteed thereby shall be rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of any Credit Party, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, any Credit Party or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payment had not been made.

(ii) The Agents shall not be responsible for or have a duty to ascertain or inquire into any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Credit Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Agents be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral.

(iii) In case of the pendency of any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code or any other Debtor Relief Laws relative to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(A) to file a verified statement pursuant to rule 2019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure that, in its sole opinion, complies with such rule's disclosure requirements for entities representing more than one creditor;

(B) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Administrative Agent under this Agreement) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(C) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

(D) and any custodian, administrator, administrative receiver, receiver, receiver and manager, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under this Agreement. To the extent that the payment of any such compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent, its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under this Agreement out of the estate in any such proceeding, shall be denied for any reason, payment of the same shall be secured by a Lien on, and shall be paid out of, any and all distributions, dividends, money, securities and other properties that the Lenders may be entitled to receive in such proceeding whether in liquidation or under any plan of reorganization or arrangement or otherwise.

(iv) Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, plan of liquidation, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such proceeding.

12.13 Lender Action. Each Lender agrees that it shall not take or institute any actions or proceedings, judicial or otherwise, for any right or remedy against any Credit Party or any other obligor under any of the Credit Documents (including the exercise of any right of setoff, rights on account of any banker's lien or similar claim or other rights of self-help), or institute any actions or proceedings, or otherwise commence any remedial procedures or cause any of the foregoing (through Affiliates or otherwise), with respect to any Collateral or any other property of any such Credit Party, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders). Without limiting the foregoing, each Lender agrees that, except as otherwise provided in any Credit Documents or with the written consent of the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders), it will not take any enforcement action, accelerate Obligations under any Credit Documents, or exercise any right that it might otherwise have under applicable Requirement of Law to credit bid or purchase any portion of the Collateral at any sale or foreclosure thereof referred to in Section 12.1; provided that nothing contained in this Section shall affect any Lender's right to credit bid its pro rata share of the Obligations pursuant to Section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code.

12.14 Carve Out Account. In connection with the DIP Order, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized and directed to establish and maintain a single segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the "Pre-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve Account" and a single segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the "Post-Carve Out Trigger Notice Reserve Account" (such accounts, collectively, the "Carve Out Accounts"). Funds will be deposited into and remitted from the Carve Out Accounts in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the DIP Order.

13.1 Amendments, Waivers, and Releases.

(a) (a) Neither this Agreement nor any other Credit Document, nor any terms hereof or thereof, may be amended, supplemented or modified except in accordance with the provisions of this Section 13.1. Other than with respect to any amendment, modification or waiver contemplated in the proviso to clause (i) below, which shall only require the consent of the Lenders expressly set forth therein and not the Required Lenders, the Required Lenders may, or, with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent may, from time to time, (A) enter into with the relevant Credit Party or Credit Parties written amendments, supplements or modifications hereto and to the other Credit Documents for the purpose of adding any provisions to this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Lenders or of the Credit Parties hereunder or thereunder or (B) waive in writing, on such terms and conditions as the Required Lenders or the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent, as the case may be, may specify in such instrument, any of the requirements of this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or any Default or Event of Default and its consequences; provided, however, that each such waiver and each such amendment, supplement or modification shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; and provided, further, that no such waiver and no such amendment, supplement or modification shall (x) (i) forgive or reduce any portion of any Loan or extend the scheduled maturity date of any Loan or reduce the stated rate of interest, premium or fees (it being understood that only the consent of the Required Lenders shall be necessary to waive any obligation of the Borrower to pay interest at the "default rate" or amend Section 2.8(c)), or forgive any portion thereof, or extend the date for the payment of any interest, premium or fee payable hereunder (other than as a result of waiving the applicability of any post-default increase in interest rates), or amend or modify any provisions of Sections 5.3(a) (with respect to the ratable allocation of any payments only) 13.9(a) or 13.20, or make any Loan, interest, Fee or other amount payable in any currency other than expressly provided herein, in each case without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby; provided that a waiver of any condition precedent in Sections 6 or 7 of this Agreement, the waiver of any Default, Event of Default, default interest, mandatory prepayment or reductions, any modification, waiver or amendment to the financial covenant definitions or financial ratios or any component thereof or the waiver of any other covenant shall not constitute an increase of any Commitment of a Lender, a reduction or forgiveness in the interest rates or the fees or premiums or a postponement of any date scheduled for the payment of principal, premium, interest or fees or an extension of the final maturity of any Loan or the scheduled termination date of any Commitment, in each case for purposes of this clause (i), or (ii) consent to the assignment or transfer by the Borrower of its rights and obligations under any Credit Document to which it is a party (except as permitted pursuant to Section 10.3), in each case without the written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, or (iii) amend, modify or waive any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document without the written consent of each Agent or the Escrow Agent in a manner that directly and adversely affects such Agent or the Escrow Agent, as applicable, or (iv) [reserved], or (v) [reserved], or (vi) [reserved], or (vii) release all or substantially all of the Guarantors under the Guarantees (except as expressly permitted by the Guarantees or this Agreement) or release all or substantially all of the Collateral under the Security Documents (except as expressly permitted by the Security Documents or this Agreement) without the prior written consent of each Lender, or (viii) [reserved], or (ix) reduce the percentages specified in the definitions of the terms Required Lenders or amend, modify or waive any provision of this Section 13.1 that has the effect of decreasing the number of Lenders that must approve any amendment, modification or waiver, without the written consent of each Lender or (y) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in clause (x), (i) extend the final expiration date of any Lender's Commitment or (ii) increase the aggregate amount of the Commitments of any Lender, in each case, without the written consent of such Lender.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder, except (x) that the Commitment of such Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender, (y) for any such amendment, waiver or consent that treats such Defaulting Lender disproportionately from the other Lenders (other than because of its status as a Defaulting Lender), and (z) that the principal amount of any Loan owed to such Lender may not be decreased or reduced without the consent of such Lender.

(c) [Reserved].

(d) Any such waiver and any such amendment, supplement or modification shall apply equally to each of the affected Lenders and shall be binding upon the Parent, the Borrower, such Lenders, the Administrative Agent and all future holders of the affected Loans. In the case of any waiver, the Parent, the Borrower, the Lenders and the Administrative Agent shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, and any Default or Event of Default waived shall be deemed to be cured and not continuing, it being understood that no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon. In connection with the foregoing provisions, the Administrative Agent may, but shall have no obligations to, with the concurrence of any Lender, execute amendments, modifications, waivers or consents on behalf of such Lender.

(e) [Reserved].

(f) [Reserved].

(g) The Lenders hereby irrevocably agree that the Liens granted to the Collateral Agent by the Credit Parties on any Collateral shall be automatically released (i) in full, upon the termination of this Agreement and the payment of all Obligations hereunder (except for contingent indemnification obligations in respect of which a claim has not yet been made), (ii) upon the sale or other disposition of such Collateral (including as part of or in connection with any other sale or other disposition permitted hereunder) to any Person other than another Credit Party, to the extent such sale or other disposition is made in compliance with the terms of this Agreement, (iii) to the extent such Collateral is comprised of property leased to a Credit Party, upon termination or expiration of such lease, (iv) if the release of such Lien is approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other percentage of the Lenders whose consent may be required in accordance with this Section 13.1), (v) to the extent the property constituting such Collateral is owned by any Guarantor, upon the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under the applicable Guarantee (in accordance with the second following sentence), (vi) as required to effect any sale or other disposition of Collateral in connection with any exercise of remedies of the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Security Documents, and (vii) if such assets constitute Excluded Property. Any such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect, or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those being released) upon (or obligations (other than those being released) of the Credit Parties in respect of) all interests retained by the Credit Parties, including the proceeds of any sale, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral except to the extent otherwise released in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Documents. Additionally, the Lenders hereby irrevocably agree that any Subsidiary that is a Guarantor shall be released from the Guarantees upon consummation of any transaction not prohibited hereunder resulting in such Subsidiary ceasing to constitute a Subsidiary. The Lenders hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to execute and deliver any instruments, documents, and agreements necessary or desirable to evidence and confirm the release of any Guarantor or Collateral pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, all without the further consent or joinder of any Lender. Prior to taking any action or executing any document pursuant to this section, each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to receive, and may conclusively rely upon without incurring liability therefor, an officer's certificate executed by officer of the Borrower certifying that such action and execution of such documents are authorized and permitted under this Agreement and any other Credit Document and all conditions precedent to such release or execution have been satisfied.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Credit Documents may be amended to add syndication or documentation agents and make customary changes and references related thereto with the consent of only the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

(i) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement (including, without limitation, this Section 13.1) or any other Credit Document to the contrary, (i) [reserved]; (ii) [reserved]; (iii) any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document may be amended by an agreement in writing entered into by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to (x) cure any ambiguity, omission, mistake, defect or inconsistency (as reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower) and (y) effect administrative changes of a technical or immaterial nature and such amendment shall be deemed approved by the Lenders if the Lenders shall have received at least five Business Days' prior written notice of such change and the Administrative Agent shall not have received, within five Business Days of the date of such notice to the Lenders, a written notice from the Required Lenders stating that the Required Lenders object to such amendment; and (iv) guarantees, collateral documents and related documents executed by Credit Parties in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Required Lenders (which approval may be communicated via email by any Specified Lender Advisor) and may be, together with any other Credit Document, entered into, amended, supplemented or waived, without the consent of any other Person, by the applicable Credit Party or Credit Parties and the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (in each case acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders in their sole discretion), to (A) effect the granting, perfection, protection, expansion or enhancement of any security interest in any Collateral or additional property to become Collateral for the benefit of the Secured Parties, (B) as required by local law or advice of counsel to give effect to, or protect any security interest for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in any property or so that the security interests therein comply with any applicable Requirement of Law, or (C) to cure ambiguities, omissions, mistakes or defects (as reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent, the Required Lenders and the Borrower) or to cause such guarantee, collateral security document or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

(j) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any Security Document to the contrary, the Required Lenders may, in their sole discretion, grant extensions of time for the satisfaction of any of the requirements under Sections 9.12, 9.13 and 9.14 or any Security Documents in respect of any particular Collateral or any particular Subsidiary if it determines that the satisfaction thereof with respect to such Collateral or such Subsidiary cannot be accomplished without undue expense or unreasonable effort or due to factors beyond the control of the Borrower and the other Credit Parties by the time or times at which it would otherwise be required to be satisfied under this Agreement or any Security Documents.

13.2 Notices. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices and other communications provided for hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall be in writing (including by facsimile transmission). All such written notices shall be mailed, faxed or delivered to the applicable address, facsimile number or electronic mail address, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(a) if to the Parent, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 13.2 or to such other address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number as shall be designated by such party in a notice to the other parties; and

(b) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire or to such other address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number as shall be designated by such party in a notice to the Parent, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent.

All such notices and other communications shall be deemed to be given or made upon the earlier to occur of (i) actual receipt by the relevant party hereto and (ii) (A) if delivered by hand or by courier, when signed for by or on behalf of the relevant party hereto; (B) if delivered by mail, three Business Days after deposit in the mails, postage prepaid; (C) if delivered by facsimile, when sent and receipt has been confirmed by telephone; and (D) if delivered by electronic mail, when delivered; provided that notices and other communications to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders pursuant to Sections 2.3, 2.6, 2.9 and 5.1 shall not be effective until received.

13.3 No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the other Credit Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers, and privileges provided by law.

13.4 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties made hereunder, in the other Credit Documents and in any document, certificate or statement delivered pursuant hereto or in connection herewith shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the making of the Loans hereunder.

13.5 Payment of Expenses; Indemnification.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay promptly following demand (and in any event as required by the DIP Order and/or the Canadian DIP Recognition Order), without the requirement of prior Bankruptcy Court approval and whether incurred before or after the Petition Date, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket legal, accounting, appraisal, consulting, financial advisory and other fees, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, in respect of the Specified Lender Advisors, the Crossholder Lender Advisors, the Lender Advisors and the Agent Advisors) incurred by the Agents, the Ad Hoc Group of Lenders, the Ad Hoc Group of Crossholder Lenders and their respective Affiliates in connection with the negotiation, preparation and administration of the Credit Documents, the Interim Order, the Final Order, the Canadian DIP Recognition Order or incurred in connection with:

(i) amendment, modification or waiver of, consent with respect to, or termination of, any of the Credit Documents or advice in connection with the syndication and administration of the Loans made pursuant hereto, including any Withdrawal, or its rights hereunder or thereunder

(ii) any litigation, contest, dispute, suit, proceeding or action (whether instituted by the Agents, any Lender, the Borrower or any other Person and whether as a party, witness or otherwise) in any way relating to the Collateral, any of the Credit Documents, the Pre-Petition Credit Documents, or any other agreement to be executed or delivered in connection herewith or therewith, including any litigation, contest, dispute, suit, case, proceeding or action, and any appeal or review thereof, in connection with a case or proceeding commenced by or against any Credit Party or any other Person that may be obligated to the Agents or the Lenders by virtue of the Credit Documents, including any such litigation, contest, dispute, suit, proceeding or action arising in connection with any work-out or restructuring of the Loans during the pendency of one or more Events of Default; provided that no Person shall be entitled to reimbursement under this clause (ii) in respect of any litigation, contest, dispute, suit, proceeding or action to the extent any of the foregoing results from such Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction);

(iii) any attempt to enforce or prosecute any rights or remedies of the Agents or any Lender against any or all of the Credit Parties or any other Person that may be obligated to the Agents or any Lender by virtue of any of the Credit Documents, including any such attempt to enforce any such remedies in the course of any work-out or restructuring of the Loans prior to or during the pendency of one or more Events of Default;

(iv) any work-out or restructuring of the Obligations prior to or during the pendency of one or more Events of Default;

(v) [reserved];

(vi) the obtaining of approval of the Credit Documents by the Bankruptcy Court or any other court;

(vii) the preparation and review of pleadings, documents, orders and reports related to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and any Successor Cases, attendance at meetings, court hearings or conferences related to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and any Successor Cases, and general monitoring of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and any Successor Cases and any action, arbitration or other proceeding (whether instituted by or against the Agents, any Lender, any Credit Party, any representative of creditors of an Credit Party or any other Person) in any way relating to any

Collateral (including the validity, perfection, priority or avoidability of the Liens with respect to any Collateral), the Pre-Petition Credit Documents, Credit Documents or the Obligations, including any lender liability or other claims;

(viii) efforts to (1) monitor the Loans or any of the other Obligations, (2) evaluate, observe or assess any of the Credit Parties or their respective affairs, (3) verify, protect, evaluate, assess, appraise, collect, sell, liquidate or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral or (4) settle or otherwise satisfy any charges or Liens with respect to any Collateral;

(ix) any lien searches or request for information listing financing statements or liens filed or searches conducted to confirm receipt and due filing of financing statements and security interests in all or a portion of the Collateral; and

(x) including, as to each of clauses (i) through (ix) above, all reasonable and documented professional and service providers' fees arising from such services and other advice, assistance or other representation, including those in connection with any appellate proceedings, and all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses, costs, charges and other fees incurred by such counsel and others in connection with or relating to any of the events or actions described in this Section 13.5, all of which shall be payable by Borrower to the Agents or the Lenders, as applicable.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such reasonable expenses, costs, charges and fees may include: reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses of accountants, sales consultants, financial advisors, the Agent Advisors, any Specified Lender Advisors, any Lender Advisor, environmental advisors, appraisers, investment bankers, management and other consultants; court costs and expenses; photocopying and duplication expenses; court reporter fees, costs and expenses; air express charges, and reasonable expenses for travel, lodging and food paid or incurred in connection with the performance of such legal, professional or other advisory services; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.5(a) or in any other Credit Document, each Credit Party reaffirms its obligation to pay the fees as set forth in the Financial Advisor Engagement Letters.

(b) The Borrower (on behalf of itself and the other Credit Parties) agrees to pay, indemnify and hold harmless each Lender, each Agent and their respective Related Parties (without duplication) (the "Indemnified Persons") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, demands, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses, disbursements or penalties of any kind or nature whatsoever (and the reasonable and documented fees, expenses, disbursements and other charges of any Specified Lender Advisors, any Lender Advisors and the Agent Advisors owed pursuant to Section 13.5(a)) of any such Indemnified Person arising out of or relating to any action, claim, litigation, investigation or other proceeding (regardless of whether such Indemnified Person is a party thereto), arising out of any Commitment, Loan or the use or proposed use of the proceeds therefrom, arising out of, or with respect to the Transactions or to the execution, delivery, performance, administration and enforcement of this Agreement, the other Credit Documents and any such other documents, agreements, letters or instruments delivered in connection with the transactions contemplated thereby or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including any of the foregoing relating to the violation of, noncompliance with or liability under, any Environmental Law or any actual or alleged presence, Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Materials attributable to any Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries (all the foregoing in this clause (iii), regardless of whether brought by any Credit Party, any of its subsidiaries or any other Person collectively, the "Indemnified Liabilities"); provided that the Borrower shall have no obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Person with respect to Indemnified Liabilities to the extent arising from (i) the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties as determined in a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, (ii) a material breach of the obligations of such Indemnified Person (other than with respect to each Agent) or any of its Related Parties under the terms of this Agreement by such Indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties as determined in a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, or (iii) any proceeding between and among Indemnified Persons that does not involve an act or omission by any Credit Party or any of their respective Subsidiaries; provided the Agents, to the extent acting in their capacity as such, shall remain indemnified in respect of such proceeding, to the extent that the exception set forth in the immediately preceding clause (i) of the immediately preceding proviso does not apply to such Agent at such time. The agreements in this Section 13.5 shall survive repayment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder. This Section 13.5 shall not apply with respect to Taxes, other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements arising from any non-Tax claim.

(c) Each Indemnified Person agrees (x) that the Borrower shall have no obligation to reimburse such Indemnified Person for fees and expenses and (y) to return and refund any and all amounts paid by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 13.5, in the case of each of clauses (x) and (y), to the extent such Indemnified Person is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documentation.

(d) No Credit Party or Indemnified Person (or any Related Party of an Indemnified Person) shall have any liability for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages resulting from this Agreement or any other Credit Document or arising out of its activities in connection herewith or therewith (whether before or after the Closing Date); provided that the foregoing shall not limit the Borrower's indemnification obligations to the Indemnified Persons pursuant to Section 13.5(a) or under any other provision of this Agreement or any of the other Credit Agreement Documents. No Indemnified Person (or any Related Party of an Indemnified Person) shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent that such damages have resulted from the willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of any Indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties as determined by a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) All amounts reimbursable by the Borrower under this Section 13.5 shall constitute Obligations secured by the Collateral. The agreements in this Section 13.5 shall survive the termination of the Commitments and repayment of all other Obligations. All amounts due under this Section 13.5 shall be paid within ten (10) Business Days of receipt by the Borrower of an invoice relating thereto. If the Borrower fail to pay when due any amounts payable by it hereunder or under any Credit Document, such amount may be paid on behalf of the Borrower by the Administrative Agent in its discretion by charging any loan account(s) of the Borrower, without notice to or consent from the Borrower, and any amounts so paid shall constitute Obligations hereunder.

13.6 Successors and Assigns; Participations and Assignments.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) except as expressly permitted by Section 10.3, the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void) and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 13.6. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in clause (c) of this Section 13.6) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders and each other Person entitled to indemnification under Section 13.5) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in clause (b)(ii) below and Section 13.7, any Lender may at any time assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) of

(A) the Parent; provided that no consent of the Borrower shall be required for (1) an assignment Loans or Commitments of to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender, or an Approved Fund or (2) an assignment of Loans or Commitments to any assignee if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or (3) so long as made in accordance with the RSA; and

(B) the Administrative Agent; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of any Term Loan to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

The Parent's consent shall be deemed to have been given if the Borrower has not responded within four Business Days after having received notice thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such assignment shall be made to a natural Person.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Loans, the amount of the Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 in the case of Term Loans (and shall, in each case be in an integral multiple thereof), unless each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent otherwise consents (which consents shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) or, if less, the assignment constitutes all of the applicable Lender's Term Loans; provided that no such consent of the Borrower shall be required if an Event of Default under Section 11.1(a) has occurred and is continuing; provided, further, that contemporaneous assignments by a Lender and its Affiliates or Approved Funds shall be aggregated for purposes of meeting the minimum assignment amount requirements stated above (and simultaneous assignments to or by two or more Related Funds shall be treated as one assignment), if any;

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided that this clause shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations in respect of the Term Loans;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance via an electronic settlement system or other method reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent, together with a processing and recordation fee in the amount of $3,500; provided that the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment;

(D) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an administrative questionnaire in a form approved by the Administrative Agent (the "Administrative Questionnaire") and applicable tax forms (as required under Section 5.4(e)); and

(E) any assignment to an Affiliated Lender (other than an Affiliated Institutional Lender) shall also be subject to the requirements of Section 13.6(h); and

(F) such assignment shall be permitted by, and in accordance with, the RSA.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent bears no responsibility for tracking or monitoring assignments to or participations by any Affiliated Lender.

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to clause (b)(v) of this Section 13.6, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5, 5.4 and 13.5). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.6 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) of this Section 13.6. For the avoidance of doubt, in case of an assignment to a new Lender pursuant to this Section 13.6, (i) the Administrative Agent, the new Lender and other Lenders shall acquire the same rights and assume the same obligations between themselves as they would have acquired and assumed had the new Lender been an original Lender signatory to this Agreement with the rights and/or obligations acquired or assumed by it as a result of the assignment and to the extent of the assignment the assigning Lender shall each be released from further obligations under the Credit Documents and (ii) the benefit of each Security Document shall be maintained in favor of the new Lender.

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at the Administrative Agent's Office a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amount of the Loans (and stated interest amounts) owing to each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates and, with respect to itself, any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice. The Borrower hereby designates the Administrative Agent to serve as the Borrower's agent solely for purposes of maintaining the Register as provided in this Section 13.6(b)(iv). This Section 13.6(b)(iv) shall be construed so that all Loans are at all times maintained in "registered form" within the meaning of Section 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and any related Treasury Regulations (or any other relevant or successor provisions of the Code or of such Treasury Regulations).

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire and applicable tax forms (as required under Section 5.4(e) unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) of this Section 13.6 and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b) of this Section 13.6, the Administrative Agent shall promptly accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment, whether or not evidenced by a promissory note, shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (b)(v).

(c) (i) Any Lender may, without the consent of, or notice to the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than (x) a natural person, (y) any Credit Party or any of their Subsidiaries and (z) [reserved] (each, a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, and (C) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in clauses (i) and (vii) of the third proviso to Section 13.1 that affects such Participant. Subject to clause (c)(ii) of this Section 13.6, the Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5, and 5.4 to the same extent as if it were a Lender (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections as though it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 13.6, including the requirements of clause (e) of Section 5.4) (it being agreed that any documentation required under Section 5.4(e) shall be provided to the participating Lender)). To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 13.9(b) as though it were a Lender; provided such Participant shall be subject to Section 13.9(a) as though it were a Lender.

(ii) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10, 2.11, 3.5 or 5.4 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive absent the sale of such the participation sold to such Participant, except to the extent such entitlement to a greater payment results from a Change in Law after the sale of the participations takes place. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest amounts) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. No Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register to any Person (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Credit Document) except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in connection with a tax audit or other proceeding to establish that such commitment, loan, or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations.

(d) Any Lender may, without the consent of, or notice to, the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, or other central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender, and this Section 13.6 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(e) Subject to Section 13.16, the Borrower authorizes each Lender to disclose to any Participant, secured creditor of such Lender or assignee (each, a "Transferee") and any prospective Transferee any and all financial information in such Lender's possession concerning the Borrower and its Affiliates that has been delivered to such Lender by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement or that has been delivered to such Lender by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates in connection with such Lender's credit evaluation of the Borrower and its Affiliates prior to becoming a party to this Agreement.

(f) The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in any Assignment and Acceptance shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPV"), identified as such in writing from time to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, the option to provide to the Borrower all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPV to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPV elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPV hereunder shall utilize the Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that no SPV shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender). In furtherance of the foregoing, each party hereto hereby agrees (which agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement) that, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the payment in full of all outstanding commercial paper or other senior indebtedness of any SPV, it shall not institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, such SPV any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings under the laws of the United States or any State thereof. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.6, any SPV may (i) with notice to, but without the prior written consent of, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and without paying any processing fee therefor, assign all or a portion of its interests in any Loans to the Granting Lender or to any financial institutions (consented to by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent) providing liquidity and/or credit support to or for the account of such SPV to support the funding or maintenance of Loans and (ii) subject to Section 13.16, disclose on a confidential basis any non-public information relating to its Loans to any rating agency, commercial paper dealer or provider of any surety, guarantee or credit or liquidity enhancement to such SPV. This Section 13.6(g) may not be amended without the written consent of the SPV. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement but subject to the following sentence, each SPV shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 2.11, 3.5 and 5.4 to the same extent as if it were a Lender (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections as though it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 13.6, including the requirements of clause (e) of Section 5.4 (it being agreed that any documentation required under Section 5.4(e) shall be provided to the Granting Lender)). Notwithstanding the prior sentence, an SPV shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10, 2.11, 3.5 or 5.4 than its Granting Lender would have been entitled to receive absent the grant to such SPV, unless such grant to such SPV is made with the Borrower's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (and so long as no Event of Default is then continuing), (x) any Lender may, at any time, assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement in respect of its Term Loans to an Affiliated Lender; provided that:

(i) [reserved];

(ii) by its acquisition of Loans or Commitments, an Affiliated Lender shall be deemed to have acknowledged and agreed that:

(A) it shall not have any right to (I) attend or participate in (including, in each case, by telephone) any meeting (including "Lender only" meetings) or discussions (or portion thereof) among the Administrative Agent or any Lender at which representatives of the Borrower are not then present, (II) receive any information or material prepared by the Administrative Agent or any Lender or any communication by or among the Administrative Agent and one or more Lenders or any other material which is "Lender only", except to the extent such information or materials have been made available to the Borrower or its representatives (and in any case, other than the right to receive notices of prepayments and other administrative notices in respect of its Loans required to be delivered to Lenders pursuant to Section 2) or receive any advice of counsel to the Administrative Agent or (III) make any challenge to the Administrative Agent's or any other Lender's attorney-client privilege on the basis of its status as a Lender; and

(B) except with respect to any amendment, modification, waiver, consent or other action (I) in Section 13.1 requiring the consent of all Lenders, all Lenders directly and adversely affected or specifically such Lender, (II) that alters an Affiliated Lender's pro rata share of any payments given to all Lenders, or (III) affects the Affiliated Lender (in its capacity as a Lender) in a manner that is disproportionate to the effect on any Lender, the Loans held by an Affiliated Lender shall be disregarded in both the numerator and denominator in the calculation of any Lender vote (and, in the case of a plan of reorganization that does not affect the Affiliated Lender in a manner that is materially adverse to such Affiliated Lender relative to other Lenders, shall be deemed to have voted its interest in the Term Loans in the same proportion as the other Lenders) (and shall be deemed to have been voted in the same percentage as all other applicable Lenders voted if necessary to give legal effect to this paragraph); and

(iii) the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans held at any one time by Affiliated Lenders may not exceed 25% of the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans outstanding at the time of such purchase.

For avoidance of doubt, the foregoing limitations shall not be applicable to Affiliated Institutional Lenders. None of the Borrower, the Parent, any other Subsidiary of the Parent or any Affiliated Lender shall be required to make any representation that it is not in possession of information which is not publicly available and/or material with respect to the Parent, the Borrower and their respective Subsidiaries or their respective securities for purposes of U.S. federal and state securities laws and all parties to the relevant transactions shall render customary "big boy" disclaimer letters.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Lenders hereto on the Funding Date may assign all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement in respect of the Term Loans on the Funding Date to an Affiliated Lender or any Pre-Petition Lender (or any Affiliated Lender thereof) in connection with the syndication of the Term Loans contemplated in the RSA.

13.8 Replacement of Lenders Under Certain Circumstances.

(a) The Borrower, at its cost and expense (which, for the avoidance of doubt, may be shared with the replacement institution with such institution's consent), shall be permitted to replace any Lender, and in the case of a Lender repay all Obligations of the Borrower due and owing to such Lender relating to the Loans that (a) requests reimbursement for amounts owing pursuant to Sections 2.10 or 5.4, (b) is affected in the manner described in Section 2.10(a)(iii) and as a result thereof any of the actions described in such Section is required to be taken, or (c) becomes a Defaulting Lender, with a replacement bank or other financial institution; provided that (i) such replacement does not conflict with any Requirement of Law, (ii) no Event of Default under Section 11.1 shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of such replacement, (iii) the Borrower shall repay (or the replacement bank or institution shall purchase, at par) all Loans and other amounts pursuant to Sections 2.10, 2.11, 5.4 or 13.5, as the case may be, owing to such replaced Lender prior to the date of replacement, (iv) the replacement bank or institution, if not already a Lender, an Affiliate of the Lender, an Affiliated Lender or Approved Fund, and the terms and conditions of such replacement, shall be satisfactory to the Required Lenders, (v) the replacement bank or institution, if not already a Lender shall be subject to the provisions of Section 13.6(a), (vi) the replaced Lender shall be obligated to make such replacement in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.6 (provided that unless otherwise agreed the Borrower shall be obligated to pay the registration and processing fee referred to therein), and (vii) any such replacement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any rights that the Borrower, any Agent, the Escrow Agent or any other Lender shall have against the replaced Lender. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each party hereto agrees that any assignment pursuant to the terms of this Section 13.7 may be effected pursuant to an Assignment and Acceptance executed by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the assignee and that the Lender making such assignment need not be a party thereto.

13.9 Adjustments; Set-off. Subject to Section 12.13, the Carve Out and the CCAA Administration Charge,

(a) Except as contemplated in Section 13.6 or elsewhere herein, if any Lender (a "Benefited Lender") shall at any time receive any payment of all or part of its Loans, or interest thereon, or receive any collateral in respect thereof (whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by set-off, pursuant to events or proceedings of the nature referred to in Section 11.1(e), or otherwise), in a greater proportion than any such payment to or collateral received by any other Lender, if any, in respect of such other Lender's Loans, or interest thereon, such Benefited Lender shall purchase for cash from the other Lenders a participating interest in such portion of each such other Lender's Loan, or shall provide such other Lenders with the benefits of any such collateral, or the proceeds thereof, as shall be necessary to cause such Benefited Lender to share the excess payment or benefits of such collateral or proceeds ratably with each of the Lenders;

provided, however, that if all or any portion of such excess payment or benefits is thereafter recovered from such Benefited Lender, such purchase shall be rescinded, and the purchase price and benefits returned, to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

(b) Subject to the DIP Order, after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, in addition to any rights and remedies of the Lenders provided by law, each Lender shall have the right, without prior notice to the Credit Parties, any such notice being expressly waived by the Credit Parties to the extent permitted by applicable law, upon any amount becoming due and payable by the Credit Parties hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) (other than payroll, trust, tax, fiduciary, and petty cash accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by such Lender or any branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of the Credit Parties. Each Lender agrees promptly to notify the Credit Parties and the Administrative Agent after any such set-off and application made by such Lender; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application.

13.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Agreement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Agreement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

13.11 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

13.12 Integration. This Agreement and the other Credit Documents represent the agreement of the Borrower, the other Credit Parties, the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by the Borrower, the other Credit Parties, any Agent, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender relative to subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the other Credit Documents. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement or any Credit Document and the DIP Order, the provisions of the DIP Order shall govern.

13.13 GOVERNING LAW; CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINING A CONTRARY EXPRESS CHOICE OF LAW PROVISION) AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK IS SUPERSEDED BY THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

(b) ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT SHALL BE BROUGHT IN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT, AND, IF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT DOES NOT HAVE (OR ABSTAINS FROM) JURISDICTION, IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND THE COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, IN EACH CASE LOCATED IN NEW YORK COUNTY, AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM ANY THEREOF, AND, BY

EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY ACCEPTS IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY, THE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURTS. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENTS TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS OUT OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT AND IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING BY THE MAILING OF COPIES THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS SET FORTH HEREIN. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR TO COMMENCE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS OR OTHERWISE PROCEED AGAINST ANY OTHER PARTY IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY EXPRESSLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE JURISDICTION OR LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUCH LITIGATION BROUGHT IN SUCH COURT AND ANY CLAIM THAT ANY SUCH LITIGATION HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY PARTY HAS OR HEREAFTER MAY ACQUIRE ANY IMMUNITY FROM JURISDICTION OF ANY COURT OR FROM ANY LEGAL PROCESS (WHETHER THROUGH SERVICE OR NOTICE, ATTACHMENT PRIOR TO JUDGMENT, ATTACHMENT IN AID OF EXECUTION OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO ITSELF OR ITS PROPERTY, EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES SUCH IMMUNITY IN RESPECT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS.

13.14 Acknowledgments. The Borrower hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution, and delivery of this (a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution, and delivery of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents;

(b) (i) the credit facilities provided for hereunder and any related arranging or other services in connection therewith (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document) are an arm's-length commercial transaction between the Borrower and the other Credit Parties, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Lenders, the other Agents and the Escrow Agent on the other hand, and the Borrower and the other Credit Parties are capable of evaluating and understanding and understand and accept the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Credit Documents (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or thereof);

(i) in connection with the process leading to such transaction, each of the Administrative Agent, the other Agents and the Escrow Agent, is and has been acting solely as a principal and is not the financial advisor, agent or fiduciary for the Borrower, any other Credit Parties or any of their respective Affiliates, stockholders, creditors or employees, or any other Person;

(ii) neither the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender has assumed or will assume an advisory, agency or fiduciary responsibility in favor of the Borrower or any other Credit Party with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby or the process leading thereto, including with respect to any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document (irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent, other Agents, the Escrow Agent or any Lender has advised or is currently advising the Borrower, the other Credit Parties or their respective Affiliates on other matters) and neither the Administrative Agent, other Agents, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender has any obligation to the Borrower, the other Credit Parties or their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents;

(iii) the Administrative Agent, each other Agent, the Escrow Agent, each Lender and each Affiliate of the foregoing may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of the Borrower and their Affiliates, and neither the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent nor any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests by virtue of any advisory, agency or fiduciary relationship; and

(iv) neither the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent any Lender nor any of their respective Affiliates has provided and none will provide any legal, accounting, regulatory or tax advice with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Credit Document) and the Borrower has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate. The Borrower hereby agrees (on behalf of itself and the other Credit Parties) that it will not claim that any Agent or the Escrow Agent owes a fiduciary or similar duty to the Credit Parties in connection with the Transactions contemplated hereby and waives and releases, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims that it may have against the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent or any Lender with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty; and

(c) no joint venture is created hereby or by the other Credit Documents or otherwise exists by virtue of the transactions contemplated hereby among the Lenders or among the Borrower, on the one hand, and any Lender, on the other hand.

13.15 WAIVERS OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE (TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW) TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

13.16 Confidentiality. The Administrative Agent, each other Agent and each Lender (collectively, the "Restricted Persons" and, each a "Restricted Person") shall treat confidentially all non-public information provided to any Restricted Person by or on behalf of any Credit Party hereunder with respect to such Credit Party or any of its Subsidiaries and their businesses in connection with such Restricted Person's evaluation of whether to become a Lender hereunder or obtained by such Restricted Person pursuant to the requirements of this Agreement ("Confidential Information") and shall not publish, disclose or otherwise divulge such Confidential Information; provided that nothing herein shall prevent any Restricted Person from disclosing any such Confidential Information (a) pursuant to the order of any court or administrative agency or in any pending legal, judicial or administrative proceeding, or otherwise as required by applicable law, rule or regulation or compulsory legal process (in which case such Restricted Person agrees (except with respect to any routine or ordinary course audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any governmental or bank regulatory authority exercising examination or regulatory authority), to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform the Borrower promptly thereof prior to disclosure), (b) upon the request or demand of any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such Restricted Person or any of its Affiliates (in which case such Restricted Person agrees (except with respect to any routine or ordinary course audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any governmental or bank regulatory authority exercising examination or regulatory authority) to the extent practicable and not prohibited by applicable law, rule or regulation, to inform the Borrower promptly thereof prior to disclosure), (c) to the extent that such Confidential Information becomes publicly available other than by reason of improper disclosure by such Restricted Person or any of its affiliates or any related parties thereto in violation of any confidentiality obligations owing under this Section 13.16, (d) to the extent that such Confidential Information is received by such Restricted Person from a third party that is not, to such Restricted Person's knowledge, subject to confidentiality obligations owing to any Credit Party or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates, (e) to the extent that such Confidential Information was already in the possession of the Restricted Persons prior to any duty or other undertaking of confidentiality or is independently developed by the Restricted Persons without the use of such Confidential Information, (f) to such Restricted Person's affiliates and to its and their respective officers, directors, partners, employees, legal counsel, independent auditors, and other experts or agents who need to know such Confidential Information in connection with providing the Loans or action as an Agent hereunder and who are informed of the confidential nature of such Confidential Information and who are subject to customary confidentiality obligations of professional practice or who agree to be bound by the terms of this Section 13.16 (or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16) (with each such Restricted Person, to the extent within its control, responsible for such person's compliance with this paragraph), (g) to potential or prospective Lenders, hedge providers, participants or assignees, in each case who agree (pursuant to customary syndication practice) to be bound by the terms of this Section 13.16 (or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16); provided that (i) the disclosure of any such Confidential Information to any Lenders, hedge providers or prospective Lenders, hedge providers or participants or prospective participants referred to above shall be made subject to the acknowledgment and acceptance by such Lender, hedge provider or prospective Lender or participant or prospective participant that such Confidential Information is being disseminated on a confidential basis (on substantially the terms set forth in this Section 13.16 or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16) in accordance with the standard syndication processes of such Restricted Person or customary market standards for dissemination of such type of information, which shall in any event require "click through" or other affirmative actions on the part of recipient to access such Confidential Information and (ii) [reserved], (h) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense, or (i) to rating agencies in connection with obtaining ratings for the Borrower and the DIP Facility to the extent such rating agencies are subject to customary confidentiality obligations of professional practice or agree to be bound by the terms of this Section 13.16 (or confidentiality provisions at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Section 13.16). Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) Confidential Information shall not include, with respect to any Person, information available to it or its Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Parent, its Subsidiaries or their respective Affiliates, (ii) the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for compliance with this Section 13.16 by any other Restricted Person (other than its officers, directors or employees), (iii) in no event shall any Lender, the Administrative Agent or any other Agent be obligated or required to return any materials furnished by the Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, and (iv) each Agent and each Lender may disclose the existence of this Agreement and the information about this Agreement to market data collectors, similar services providers to the lending industry, and service providers to the Agents and the Lenders in connection with the administration, settlement and management of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

13.17 Direct Website Communications. Each of the Parent and the Borrower may, at their option, provide to the Administrative Agent any information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the Credit Documents, including, without limitation, all notices, requests, financial statements, financial, and other reports, certificates, and other information materials, but excluding any such communication that (A) relates to a request for a new, or a conversion of an existing, borrowing or other extension of credit (including any election of an interest rate or interest period relating thereto), (B) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (C) provides notice of any default or event of default under this Agreement or (D) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any borrowing or other extension of credit thereunder (all such non-excluded communications being referred to herein collectively as "Communications"), by transmitting the Communications in an electronic/soft medium in a format reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent to the Administrative Agent at an email address provided by the Administrative Agent from time to time; provided that (i) upon written request by the Administrative Agent, the Borrower shall deliver paper copies of such documents to the Administrative Agent for further distribution to each Lender until a written request to cease delivering paper copies is given by the Administrative Agent and (ii) the Borrower shall notify (which may be by electronic mail) the Administrative Agent of the posting of any such documents and provide to the Administrative Agent by electronic mail electronic versions (i.e., soft copies) of such documents. Each Lender shall be solely responsible for timely accessing posted documents or requesting delivery of paper copies of such documents from the Administrative Agent and maintaining its copies of such documents. Nothing in this Section 13.17 shall prejudice the right of the Credit Parties, the Administrative Agent, any other Agent, the Escrow Agent or any Lender to give any notice or other communication pursuant to any Credit Document in any other manner specified in such Credit Document.

The Agents agree that the receipt of the Communications by any Agent at its e-mail address set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Agent for purposes of the Credit Documents. Each Lender agrees that notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) specifying that the Communications have been posted to the Platform shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to such Lender for purposes of the Credit Documents. Each Lender agrees (A) to notify the Administrative Agent in writing (including by electronic communication) from time to time of such Lender's e-mail address to which the foregoing notice may be sent by electronic transmission and (B) that the foregoing notice may be sent to such e-mail address.

(a) The Borrower further agrees that any Agent may make the Communications available to the Lenders by posting the Communications on Intralinks or a substantially similar electronic transmission system (the "Platform"), so long as the access to such Platform (i) is limited to the Agents, the Lenders and Transferees or prospective Transferees and (ii) remains subject to the confidentiality requirements set forth in Section 13.16.

(b) THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF ANY MATERIALS OR INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE CREDIT PARTIES (THE "BORROWER MATERIALS") OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall any Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties" and each an "Agent Party") have any liability to the Borrower, any Lender, or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's or such Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the internet, except to the extent the liability of any Agent Party resulted from such Agent Party's (or any of its Related Parties' (other than any trustee or advisor)) gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct as determined in the final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) The Borrower and each Lender acknowledge that certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to the Parent, the Borrower, the Subsidiaries or their securities) and, if documents or notices required to be delivered pursuant to the Credit Documents or otherwise are being distributed through the Platform, any document or notice that the Borrower has indicated contains only publicly available information with respect to the Borrower may be posted on that portion of the Platform designated for such public-side Lenders. If the Borrower has not indicated whether a document or notice delivered contains only publicly available information, the Administrative Agent shall post such document or notice solely on that portion of the Platform designated for Lenders who wish to receive material nonpublic information with respect to the Credit Parties and their securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall use commercially reasonable efforts to indicate whether any document or notice contains only publicly available information; provided, however, that, the following documents shall be deemed to be marked "PUBLIC," unless the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent promptly that any such document contains material nonpublic information: (1) the Credit Documents, (2) any notification of changes in the terms of the DIP Facility and (3) all financial statements and certificates delivered pursuant to Sections 9.1(b) and (d).

13.18 USA PATRIOT Act. Each Agent, the Escrow Agent and each Lender hereby notifies each Credit Party that pursuant to the requirements of the USA Patriot Act (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001)) (the "Patriot Act"), it is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each Credit Party, which information includes the name and address of each Credit Party and other information that will allow such Agent, the Escrow Agent and such Lender to identify each Credit Party in accordance with the Patriot Act.

13.19 Judgment Currency. If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder or any other Credit Document in one currency into another currency, the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with its normal banking procedures the Administrative Agent could purchase the first currency with such other currency on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The obligation of the Borrower in respect of any such sum due from it to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders hereunder or under the other Credit Documents shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than that in which such sum is denominated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Administrative Agent may in accordance with its normal banking procedures purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent from the Borrower in the Agreement Currency, the Borrower agrees, as a separate joint and several obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the Administrative Agent or the Person to whom such obligation was owing against such loss. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent in such currency, the Administrative Agent agrees to return the amount of any excess to the Borrower (or to any other Person who may be entitled thereto under applicable law).

13.20 Payments Set Aside. To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Parent or the Borrower is made to any Agent or any Lender, or any Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by such Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver, receiver and manager or any other party, in connection with any proceeding or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (b) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share of any amount so recovered from or repaid by any Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Overnight Rate from time to time in effect.

13.21 No Fiduciary Duty. Each Agent, the Escrow Agent, each Lender and their Affiliates (collectively, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the "Lenders"), may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Credit Parties, their stockholders and/or their affiliates. Each Credit Party agrees that nothing in the Credit Documents or otherwise will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between any Lender, on the one hand, and such Credit Party, its stockholders or its affiliates, on the other. The Credit Parties acknowledge and agree that (i) the transactions contemplated by the Credit Documents (including the exercise of rights and remedies hereunder and thereunder) are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Lenders, on the one hand, and the Credit Parties, on the other, and (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading thereto, (x) no Lender has assumed an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of any Credit Party, its stockholders or its affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (or the exercise of rights or remedies with respect thereto) or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether any Lender has advised, is currently advising or will advise any Credit Party, its stockholders or its Affiliates on other matters) or any other obligation to any Credit Party except the obligations expressly set forth in the Credit Documents and (y) each Lender is acting solely as principal and not as the agent or fiduciary of any Credit Party, its management, stockholders or creditors. Each Credit Party acknowledges and agrees that it has consulted its own legal and financial advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate and that it is responsible for making its own independent judgment with respect to such transactions and the process leading thereto. Each Credit Party agrees that it will not claim that any Lender has rendered advisory services of any nature or respect, or owes a fiduciary or similar duty to such Credit Party, in connection with such transaction or the process leading thereto.

13.22 Canadian Anti-Money Laundering. The Borrower acknowledges that, pursuant to AML Legislation, the Agents, the Escrow Agent and the Lenders may be required to obtain, verify and record information regarding the Borrower, its directors, authorized signing officers, direct or indirect shareholders or other Persons in control of the Borrower, and the transactions contemplated hereby. The Borrower shall promptly provide all such information, including supporting documentation and other evidence, as may be reasonably requested by any of the Agents, the Escrow Agent or the Lenders, or any prospective assignee or participant of any of the Agents, the Escrow Agent or the Lenders, in order to comply with any applicable AML Legislation, whether now or hereafter in existence.

(b) If any of the Agents or the Escrow Agent has ascertained the identity of the Borrower or any authorized signatories of the Borrower for the purposes of applicable AML Legislation, then such Agent or the Escrow Agent, as applicable:

(i) shall be deemed to have done so as an agent for each Lender, and this Agreement shall constitute a "written agreement" in such regard between each Lender and such Agent within the meaning of applicable AML Legislation; and

(ii) shall provide to each Lender copies of all information obtained in such regard without any representation or warranty as to its accuracy or completeness.

Notwithstanding the preceding sentence and except as may otherwise be agreed in writing, each of the Lenders agrees that none of the Agents nor the Escrow Agent has any obligation to ascertain the identity of the Borrower or any authorized signatories of the Borrower on behalf of any Lender, nor to confirm the completeness or accuracy of any information any of the Agents or the Escrow Agent obtains from the Borrower or any such authorized signatory in doing so.

13.23 [Reserved].

13.24 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of any Affected Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Credit Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Bank that is an Affected Financial Institution arising under any Credit Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of a Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by a Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any Bank that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Credit Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of any Resolution Authority.

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126 and 1128 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rules 1007, 2002, 3017, and 3018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rules 1007-1, 1007-2, 3017-1 and 3018-2 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors request entry of an order:

(i) scheduling a combined hearing (the "Combined Hearing") to (a) approve the Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Plan Chapter 11 of Skillsoft Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "Disclosure Statement"), (b) approve the Solicitation Procedures (as defined herein) with respect to the Prepackaged Plan, including the forms of Ballots (as defined herein), and (c) consider confirmation of the Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors (as may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time, the "Prepackaged Plan");[2]

(ii) establishing an Objection Deadline (as defined below) to object to the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement or confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan;

(iii) approving the notice and objection procedures in connection with the assumption of executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to the Prepackaged Plan;

(iv) approving the form and manner of notice of the Combined Hearing, the Objection Deadline, and notice of commencement of these chapter 11 cases (the "Combined Notice");

(v) extending the time for the Debtors to file schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs (collectively, the "Schedules and Statements") through and including August 7, 2020 (the "SOAL/SOFA Deadline"), and conditionally waiving the requirement that the Debtors file the Schedules and Statements upon confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan;

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meaning ascribed to such terms in the Prepackaged Plan or in the First Day Declaration (as defined herein).

(vi) conditionally waiving the requirement to convene the meeting of creditors under section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code if the Prepackaged Plan becomes effective on or before the SOAL/SOFA Deadline; and

(vii) granting related relief.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

3. The following table summarizes proposed dates related to relief requested in the Motion (subject to the Court's calendar), which comply with the milestones contained in the Restructuring Support Agreement (as defined herein).

[3] This date assumes entry of the Proposed Order by June 16.

[4] Local Rule 3016–2 requires that, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a debtor file the plan supplement by no later than seven days prior to the earlier of (i) the deadline to vote on the plan and (ii) the deadline to object to the plan. Del. Bankr. L.R. 3016–2. The Debtors' proposed confirmation schedule sets the plan supplement filing deadline seven days prior to the deadline to object to the plan, but after the deadline to vote on the plan. Under the circumstances of this "straddle" prepackaged plan, the Debtors submit that filing the plan supplement seven days prior to the plan objection deadline will provide parties in interest sufficient time to review the documents contained therein and file any objections thereto. Similar relief has been granted in other straddle prepackaged cases in this district. See In re Longview Power, LLC, Case No. 20–10951 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jurisdiction

5. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules, the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

6. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

7. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) the Bankruptcy Rules.

Declaration of John Frederick in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

9. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of the members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; and (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the Ad Hoc First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

10. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Prior to the filing of the chapter 11 petitions on June 14, 2020, the Debtors commenced the solicitation of votes on the Prepackaged Plan through the Disclosure Statement pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors are seeking to emerge from chapter 11 on an expedited basis.

The Prepackaged Plan

11. The Debtors' proposed restructuring under the Prepackaged Plan provides that, among other things:

(i) each holder of a First Lien Debt Claim will receive its pro rata share of (i) Second Out Term Loans and (ii) 96% of the Newco Equity (subject to dilution by the Warrants and the Incentive Plans);

(ii) each holder of a Second Lien Debt Claim will receive its pro rata share of (i) 4% of the Newco Equity (subject to dilution by the Warrants and Incentive Plan); (ii) Tranche A Warrants; and (iii) Tranche B Warrants (in each case subject to dilution by the Incentive Plans);

(iii) holders of Allowed General Unsecured Claims against the Debtors will have their legal, equitable and contractual rights unaltered by the Plan; and

(iv) existing equity interests in the Parent will be transferred to Newco in accordance with the Restructuring Transaction Steps.

12. In addition to supporting the Prepackaged Plan, certain Consenting Creditors have agreed to provide the Debtors with up to $60 million debtor-in-possession financing in the form of a term loan facility, which will be used to the support the Debtors' working capital needs during these chapter 11 cases. In addition, certain of the Consenting Creditors will provide the Debtor with new money post-Effective Date in the form of the New First Out Term Loan Facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $110 million.

13. Certain of the Consenting Creditors will backstop the New First Out Term Loan Facility and, as consideration for such backstop, receive 2.5% earned and payable cash on the funding date. Each holder of an Allowed First Lien Debt Claim will have the opportunity to participate in both the DIP Facility and the New First Out Term Loan Facility. On the Effective Date, the aggregate principal amount outstanding under the DIP Facility will be (i) converted on a dollar-for-dollar basis into New First Out Term Loans or (ii) repaid in full in cash (provided the New First Out Term Loan Commitment is met in full).

14. The Restructuring will leave the Company's business intact and will substantially de-lever the Company by reducing its balance sheet liabilities from approximately $2.1 billion in secured debt to approximately $585 million (inclusive of the Exit AR Facility) in secured debt upon emergence.

Basis for Relief Requested

I. Scheduling a Combined Hearing

15. The Debtors seek a Combined Hearing to consider approval of the Disclosure Statement, the Solicitation Procedures, and the Prepackaged Plan. Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3017(a) require twenty-eight (28) days' notice be given by mail to all creditors of the time fixed (i) for filing objections to and the hearing to consider approval of a disclosure statement and (ii) for filing objections to and the hearing to consider confirmation of a plan of reorganization. Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "[a]fter notice, the court shall hold a hearing on confirmation of a plan." Local Rule 3017-1 requires the hearing date on a disclosure statement to be at least thirty-five (35) days following service of the notice thereof. In addition, Bankruptcy Rule 3017(c) provides that "[o]n or before approval of the disclosure statement, the court shall fix a time within which the holders of claims and interests may accept or reject the plan and may fix a date for the hearing on confirmation." In addition, under Bankruptcy Rule 3020(b)(1), objections to confirmation of a plan must be filed and served "within a time fixed by the court." Section 105(d)(2)(B)(vi) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court may combine the hearing on approval of a disclosure statement with the hearing on confirmation of the related Prepackaged Plan.

16. The most sensitive and difficult tasks required to effectuate a successful reorganization—the negotiation of consensual agreements with critical creditor constituencies and the ultimate formulation of a chapter 11 plan of reorganization—have already been concluded in advance of the Petition Date. It is anticipated that the votes tabulated and received from the Voting Classes will be well above the thresholds needed to confirm the Prepackaged Plan. It should be further noted that the votes solely from the Consenting Creditors will be above the thresholds needed to confirm the Prepackaged Plan. A Combined Hearing would promote judicial economy and is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates and creditors by enabling all parties in interest to proceed with the confirmation process as expeditiously as possible. Additionally, the adverse effects of the chapter 11 filings upon the Debtors' businesses and going concern value will be minimized, and the benefit to all stakeholders maximized, through prompt distributions to holders of Allowed Claims against the Debtors and the reduction of administrative expenses of the estates. Such benefits are the hallmarks of a prepackaged plan of reorganization.

17. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court schedule the Combined Hearing on July 23, 2020, or as soon thereafter as is practicable in light of the Court's calendar. The relief sought herein is necessary to the efficient administration of these chapter 11 cases and will protect the rights of all of the Debtors' creditors and interest holders. The Debtors further request that the Proposed Order provide that the Combined Hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice other than an announcement of the adjourned date or dates in open court or at the Combined Hearing, and that notice of such adjourned date(s) will be available on the electronic case filing docket. In addition to the reasons set forth above, it is appropriate to enter the Proposed Order at this time so that parties in interest may be informed as promptly as possible of the anticipated schedule of events for confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan.

18. The proposed schedule affords creditors and all other parties in interest ample notice of these Chapter 11 Cases and the Combined Hearing. Specifically, the proposed schedule provides a period of thirty-five (35) days between service of the Combined Notice and the Combined Hearing, during which time parties may evaluate the Prepackaged Plan prior to the proposed Combined Hearing thereon. Consequently, no party in interest will be prejudiced by the requested relief.

II. Approval of Disclosure Statement

19. The Debtors will request at the Combined Hearing that the Court find that the Disclosure Statement contains "adequate information" as defined in section 1125(a) and required by section 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Disclosure Statement contains adequate information to permit holders of Claims and Interests to make an informed judgment about the Prepackaged Plan. In addition to a description of the Prepackaged Plan itself, the Disclosure Statement includes disclosures regarding: (i) the operation of the Debtors' businesses; (ii) key events leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases; (iii) the Debtors' significant prepetition indebtedness; (iv) the proposed capital structure of the Reorganized Debtors; (v) financial information and a valuation that are relevant to creditors' determinations of whether to accept or reject the Prepackaged Plan; (vi) a liquidation analysis setting forth the estimated return that holders of Claims and Interests would receive in a hypothetical chapter 7 liquidation; (vii) risk factors affecting the Prepackaged Plan; and (viii) federal tax law consequences of the Prepackaged Plan.

20. The Disclosure Statement and the related Solicitation Procedures discussed below comply with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, as well as any applicable nonbankruptcy laws, rules, or regulations governing the adequacy of disclosure in connection with such solicitation. Accordingly, the Debtors will respectfully request that the Court find that the information contained in the Disclosure Statement is "adequate information" as such term is defined in section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

III. Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Form of Ballots

21. The Debtors request that the Court approve the solicitation, balloting, tabulation, and related activities undertaken in connection with the Prepackaged Plan (collectively, the "Solicitation Procedures") at the Combined Hearing.

A. Classes Presumed to Accept or Deemed to Reject the Prepackaged Plan

22. Section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that > Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a class that is not impaired under a plan, and each holder of a claim or interests of such class, are conclusively presumed to have accepted the plan, and solicitation of acceptances with respect to such class from the holders of claims or interests of such class is not required.

11 U.S.C. § 1126(f).

23. The Prepackaged Plan provides that each holder of a Claim or Interest in Class 1 (Other Priority Claims), Class 2 (Other Secured Claims), and Class 5 (General Unsecured Claims) is unimpaired. Pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the holders of claims or interests in each of the foregoing classes are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Prepackaged Plan and, thus, are not entitled to vote. Accordingly, the Debtors have not solicited votes from such holders.

24. Section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that > Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a class is deemed not to have accepted a plan if such plan provides that the claims or interests of such class do not entitle the holders of such claims or interests to receive or retain any property under the [Prepackaged Plan] on account of such claims or interests.

11 U.S.C. § 1126(g).

25. The Prepackaged Plan provides that each holder of a Claim or Interest in Class 6 (Subordinated Claims), Class 8 (Existing Parent Equity Interests), and Class 9 (Other Equity Interests) is impaired and will receive no distribution under the Prepackaged Plan. Pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code, the holders of Claims or Interests in Class 6, Class 8, and Class 9 are conclusively presumed to have rejected the Prepackaged Plan and, thus, are not entitled to vote. Accordingly, the Debtors have not solicited votes from such holders.

26. The Prepackaged Plan provides that each holder of an interest in Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) and Class 10 (Intercompany Interests), on the Effective Date, shall be reinstated, modified, cancelled, or otherwise treated, in each case at the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' option, in accordance with the Restructuring Transaction Steps. Each holder of an interest in Class 7 and Class 10 are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan or deemed to have rejected the Plan and, thus, are not entitled to vote. Accordingly, the Debtors have not solicited votes from such holders.

27. Holders of claims in Class 3 (First Lien Debt Claims) and Class 4 (Second Lien Debt Claims) are impaired and receiving distributions under the Prepackaged Plan, and, thus, entitled to vote.

28. With respect to the specific Classes and Claims against and Interests in the Debtors that were presumed to accept or deemed to reject the Prepackaged Plan, the Solicitation Procedures undertaken by the Debtors and described herein comply with the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved. The Debtors respectfully request that the Court consider approval of the Solicitation Procedures with respect to these Classes at the Combined Hearing.

B. Solicitation of Classes Entitled to Vote to Accept or Reject the Prepackaged Plan

29. Section 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code expressly permits a debtor to solicit votes from holders of claims or interests prepetition and without a court-approved disclosure statement if the solicitation complies with applicable non-bankruptcy law—including generally applicable federal and state securities laws or regulations—or, if no such laws exist, the solicited holders receive "adequate information" within the meaning of section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

30. The Solicitation Procedures comply with all applicable non-bankruptcy laws governing the adequacy of disclosures in connection with the solicitation. The Debtors' prepetition Solicitation Procedures are exempt from registration pursuant to Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. § 77a-77aa (as amended from time to time, the "Securities Act"), and under state "Blue Sky" laws, or any similar rules, regulations, or statutes and/or Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. Specifically, Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act creates an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act for transactions not involving a "public offering." Section 4(a)(2) exempts from registration under the Securities Act all "transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering." 15 U.S.C. § 77d(2). The Solicitation is being made prior to the Petition Date only to holders of First Lien Debt Claims and Second Lien Debt Claims who are "accredited investors" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D of the Securities Act and/or who are "Qualified Institutional Buyers" (as defined in rule 144a of the Securities Act), "Institutional Accredited Investors" (within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D of the Securities Act), or are non-"US Persons" (as defined in Regulation S of the Securities Act). Accordingly, the Debtors have complied with the requirements of the Securities Act and Section 4(a)(2) and/or Regulation D thereunder, as the prepetition solicitation of acceptances would constitute a private placement of securities. Accordingly, the Debtors' prepetition solicitation complies with the requirements of section 1126(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

31. Bankruptcy Rule 3018(b) provides, among other things, that prepetition acceptances or rejections of a plan are valid only if the Prepackaged Plan was "transmitted to substantially all creditors and equity security holders of the same class" and that the time for voting was not "unreasonably short." On the Solicitation Date (i.e., June 14, 2020), the Debtors' proposed Administrative Agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC"), served the Disclosure Statement, the Prepackaged Plan, and one or more of the forms of Ballots (collectively with the Disclosure Statement and the Prepackaged Plan, the "Solicitation Package") via email on holders of Claims in Class 3 (First Lien Debt Claims) and Class 4 (Second Lien Debt Claims). The Solicitation Package established June 12, 2020 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining which creditors were entitled to vote on the Prepackaged Plan, and advised recipients that the voting period will end at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on June 26, 2020 (the "Voting Deadline").

32. The Solicitation Packages were distributed to all holders of Claims in Class 3 (First Lien Debt Claims) and Class 4 (Second Lien Debt Claims) using the contact information for First Lien Lenders and Second Lien Lenders (as of the Record Date) provided to the Debtors by the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Agent, respectively; however, there were certain First Lien Lenders and Second Lien Lenders of record for which the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Agent did not have contact information (email or otherwise) readily available. In an effort to ensure that each holder of a First Lien Debt Claim and/or Second Lien Debt Claim receives a Solicitation Package and an opportunity to cast its vote on the Prepackaged Plan, the Debtors instructed the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Agent to post the memorandums substantially in the forms annexed hereto as Exhibit C-1 (the "1L Memorandum") and Exhibit C-2 (the "2L Memorandum" and, together with the 1L Memorandum, the "Lender Memorandums"), respectively, to the public side of each of the Lender data sites maintained by the First Lien Agent and Second Lien Agent. The Lender Memorandums provide instructions for how to obtain a Solicitation Package from KCC in the event any Lender, who believes it is a holder of a Claim entitled to vote, did not receive a Solicitation Package.

33. The electronic distribution of solicitation packages has been approved in other prepackaged chapter 11 cases in this district. See, e.g., In re Pace Idus., LLC, No. 20-10927 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. April 15, 2020) (D.I. 79); In re Templar Energy, LLC, No. 20-11441 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. June 2, 2020) (D.I. 63). Moreover, due to COVID-19 and the fact that most, if not all, of these holders of Claims are likely working remotely, the Debtors believe that electronic distribution of the Solicitation Packages (as opposed to distribution via overnight or first class mail) is appropriate and will be the most effective method of distribution in these circumstances.

34. The Prepackaged Plan is the product of several months of hard-fought, arm's length negotiations among the Debtors, the Consenting Creditors, and other key stakeholders. As a result, the Debtors commenced solicitation shortly before commencing these chapter 11 cases and set the Voting Deadline twelve (12) days after the Solicitation Date. The solicitation period will provide a sufficient period within which the holders of Claims entitled to vote may make an informed decision to accept or reject on the Prepackaged Plan. Indeed, as noted above, a significant majority of such holders have been actively involved in negotiating the Prepackaged Plan.

35. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) requires that the Debtors use a form of ballot substantially conforming to Official Form No. 314. The Ballots are based on Official Form No. 314, but were modified to address the particular aspects of these chapter 11 cases and to be relevant and appropriate for each Class of Impaired Claims entitled to vote on the Prepackaged Plan. To be counted as votes to accept or reject the Prepackaged Plan, the Ballots must be properly executed, completed, and delivered to Skillsoft Ballot Processing, c/o KCC, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 so that they are received no later than the Voting Deadline. Alternatively, holders in Classes 3 and 4 may submit their Ballots via KCC's online eBalloting Portal by visiting https://eballot.kccllc.net/skillsoft where such holders will find instructions on how to submit the eBallot. The Debtors submit that the Ballots satisfy the requirement of Rule 3017(d).

36. In consideration of the foregoing, the Solicitation Procedures and Ballots are in full compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and all applicable nonbankruptcy laws, rules, and regulations. Consequently, the Debtors respectfully requests that this Court approve the Solicitation Procedures and Ballots.

C. Continuation of the Debtors' Prepetition Solicitation After the Petition Date

37. The Debtors distributed the Disclosure Statement and Ballots prior to the Petition Date in accordance with Sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 1125(g) ("[A]n acceptance or rejection of the plan may be solicited from a holder of a claim or interest if such solicitation complies with applicable nonbankruptcy law and if such holder was solicited before the commencement of the case in a manner complying with applicable nonbankruptcy law."). Although the Debtors do not believe that the Disclosure Statement must be conditionally approved, the Debtors, out of an abundance of caution, request that the Court conditionally approve the Disclosure Statement if the Court deems it necessary to do so.

38. Courts in this district have recognized that debtors may "straddle" solicitation by commencing solicitation prior to the petition date and continuing postpetition. See, e.g., In re Checkout Holding Corp., et al., No. 18-12794 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 12, 2018) (D.I. 13) (solicitation commenced prior to the petition date and continued postpetition); In re Se. Grocers, LLC, No. 18-10700 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 29, 2018) (D.I. 131) (same); In re

Furthermore, it is important that these chapter 11 cases proceed as expeditiously as possible.

IV. Deadline and Procedures for Objections to the Disclosure Statement and the Prepackaged Plan

39. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(a) authorizes the Court to fix a time for filing objections to the adequacy of a disclosure statement and Bankruptcy Rule 3020(b)(1) authorizes the Court to fix a time for filing objections to a plan of reorganization. Further, Bankruptcy Rule 2002(b) requires at least twenty-eight (28) days' notice be given by mail to all creditors of the time fixed for filing objections to approval of a disclosure statement and confirmation of a plan of reorganization. Local Rule 3017-1 similarly provides that "[t]he hearing date [to consider approval of the disclosure statement] shall be at least thirty-five (35) days following service of the disclosure statement and the objection deadline shall be at least twenty-eight (28) days from service of the disclosure statement." The Debtors further request that the Proposed Order provide that the Combined Hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice other than an announcement of the adjourned date or dates in open court or at the Combined Hearing, and that notice of such adjourned date(s) will be available on the electronic case filing docket.

40. The Debtors request that the Court set July 16, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as the objection deadline (the "Objection Deadline"). This date will provide holders of Claims no less than twenty-eight (28) days' notice of the deadline for filing objections to the Disclosure Statement and the Prepackaged Plan while still affording the Debtors and other parties in interest time to file a responsive brief and, if possible, resolve any objections received. The Debtors also request that the Court set the reply deadline for July 21, 2020 at 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

41. The Debtors further request that the Court direct that any objections to the Disclosure Statement and/or the Prepackaged Plan be: (i) in writing; (ii) filed with the Clerk of Court together with proof of service thereof; (iii) set forth the name of the objecting party, and the nature and amount of any claim or interest asserted by the objecting party against the estate or property of the Debtors; and (iv) state the legal and factual basis for such objection; and (v) conform to the applicable Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules. In addition to being filed with the Clerk of the Court, any such objections should be served upon the following parties in accordance with the Local Rules:

i. Skillsoft Corporation, 300 Innovative Way, Suite 201, Nashua, NH 03062 (Attn: Greg Porto, Chief People Officer (greg.porto@skillsoft.com));

ii. proposed counsel to the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. Holtzer, Esq. (Gary.Holtzer@weil.com), Robert J. Lemons, Esq. (Robert.Lemons@weil.com), and Katherine Theresa Lewis, Esq. (Katherine.Lewis@weil.com)) and Richard, Layton & Finger, P.A. One Rodney Square, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Mark D. Collins, Esq. iii. counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. Greenberg, Esq. (sgreenberg@gibsondunn.com) and Christina M. Brown, Esq. (Christina.brown@gibsondunn.com));

iv. counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group, Milbank LLP, 55 Hudson Yards, New York, NY 10001 (Attn: Evan R. Fleck, Esq. (efleck@milbank.com), Benjamin M. Schak, Esq. (bschak@milbank.com), and Sarah Levin, Esq. (slevin@milbank.com));

v. counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, in its capacity as First Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq. (bateman@sewkis.com));

vi. counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, in its capacity as Second Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq. (bateman@sewkis.com));

vii. counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, in its capacity as DIP Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq. (bateman@sewkis.com));

viii. Counsel to the AR Facility Agent, Holland & Knight, 200 Crescent Court, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75201 (Attn: Samuel Pinkston, Esq. (Samuel.Pinkston@hklaw.com)); and

ix. the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"), 844 N King St., Suite 2207, Lockbox 35, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Jane Leamy, Esq.).

V. Form and Manner of Notice of the Combined Hearing and the Commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases

42. The Debtors propose to serve a notice and summary of the Prepackaged Plan (the "Combined Notice") within two (2) business days of entry of the Proposed Order substantially in the form annexed as Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order, upon all parties in interest. The Combined Notice sets forth (i) the date, time, and place of the Combined Hearing; (ii) instructions for obtaining copies of the Disclosure Statement and Prepackaged Plan; (iii) the Objection Deadline and the procedures for filing objections to the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan; (iv) procedures in respect of assumption or rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases; and (v) notice of commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.[5]

43. In addition, Bankruptcy Rules 2002(1) permits a court to "order notice by publication if it finds that notice by mail is impracticable or that it is desirable to supplement the notice." The Debtors request that this Court authorize the Debtors, in their discretion, to give supplemental publication notice of the Combined Hearing on a date no less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the Combined Hearing. The proposed notice schedule, as described above, affords parties in interest ample notice of these proceedings.

44. The Debtors request that the Court determine that they are not required to distribute copies of the Prepackaged Plan or the Disclosure Statement to any holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors within a Class under the Prepackaged Plan that is deemed to accept or is deemed to reject the Prepackaged Plan, unless such party makes a specific request in writing for the same. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) provides, in relevant part, as follows:

> If the court orders that the disclosure statement and the [Prepackaged Plan] or a summary of the [Prepackaged Plan] shall not be mailed to any unimpaired class, notice that the class is designated in the [Prepackaged Plan] as unimpaired and notice of the name and address of the person from whom the [Prepackaged Plan] or summary of the [Prepackaged Plan] and disclosure statement may be obtained upon request and at the [Prepackaged Plan] proponent's expense, shall be mailed to members of the unimpaired class together with the notice of the time fixed for filing objections to and the hearing on confirmation.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3017(d). The Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of Claims in Class 1 (Other Priority Claims), Class 2 (Other Secured Claims), and Class 5 (General Unsecured Claims) are [5] The Debtors will also instruct the First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Agent to post the Combined Notice to the public side of the Lender data sites to the extent the Debtors are unable to serve the Combined Notice on any parties by email or first class or overnight mail.

unimpaired. Accordingly, holders of Claims in each of the above mentioned Classes are conclusively presumed to accept the Prepackaged Plan and were not solicited.

45. The Debtors request that the Court apply the same rationale to Class 6 (Subordinated Claims), Class 8 (Existing Parent Equity Interests), and Class 9 (Other Equity Interests), all of which are deemed to reject the Prepackaged Plan and waive any requirement that the Debtors send a copy of the Prepackaged Plan and Disclosure Statement to members of such Classes.

46. The Debtors further request that the Court apply the same rationale to Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) and Class 10 (Intercompany Interests), all of which are deemed to accept or reject the Prepackaged Plan and waive any requirement that the Debtors send a copy of the Prepackaged Plan and Disclosure Statement to members of such Classes. In lieu of furnishing each such holder of a Claim against or Interest in the Debtors that is either deemed to accept or is deemed to reject the Prepackaged Plan with a copy of the Prepackaged Plan and the Disclosure Statement, the Debtors propose to send to such holders the Combined Notice, which sets forth the manner in which a copy of the Prepackaged Plan and the Disclosure Statement may be obtained. In addition, the Debtors have made the Disclosure Statement and the Prepackaged Plan available at no cost on KCC's website at www.kccllc.net/skillsoft. The Debtors submit that such notice satisfies the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d).

VI. Procedures in Respect of the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

47. The Prepackaged Plan provides that all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (as defined in the Prepackaged Plan) to which the Debtors are parties shall be deemed assumed, including the Restructuring Support Agreement, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease: (i) was assumed or rejected previously by the Debtors; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms; (iii) is the subject of a motion to reject filed on or before the Effective Date; or (iv) is identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List. The Debtors intend to serve the Combined Notice on all parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, reflecting the Debtors' intention to assume the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases in connection with the Prepackaged Plan and indicating that the Cure Amount[6] shall be payable by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, in the ordinary course of business. In addition, the Combined Notice provides that in the event of any dispute pertaining to the assumption of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, such dispute will be addressed pursuant to Section 8.2 of the Prepackaged Plan, which provides that the Bankruptcy Court will make a determination on the dispute before the assumption is effective, or the Debtors, subject to certain conditions and consents, may settle any dispute without any further notice to any party or any action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

48. The Debtors respectfully submit that the notice of the Debtors' assumption of executory contracts and unexpired leases, as provided in the Combined Notice, and the procedures set forth herein, are appropriate under the circumstances. Pursuant to the procedures proposed by the Debtors, the Debtors will serve the Combined Notice on all applicable counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Lease at least twenty-eight (28) days before the Objection Deadline.

[6] Under the Prepackaged Plan, "Cure Amount" means the payment of Cash or the distribution of other property (as the parties may agree or the Bankruptcy Court may order) as necessary to (i) cure a monetary default by the Debtors in accordance with the terms of an executory contract or unexpired lease of the Debtors and (ii) permit the Debtors to assume such executory contract or unexpired lease under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

VII. Extension and Conditional Waivers of the 341 Meeting and the Filing of Schedules and Statements

49. The Debtors also request that the Court grant an extension of time to file the Schedules and Statements and to waive the requirement to file the Schedules and Statements in the event the Prepackaged Plan is confirmed. Section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor to file schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs unless the Court orders otherwise. 11 U.S.C. § 521(a)(1)(A)-(B). These schedules and statements must be filed within 14 days after the petition date unless the bankruptcy court grants an extension of time "on motion for cause shown." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c). As a matter of course, the Debtors are already entitled to an extension to thirty (30) days from the Petition Date because the Debtors' claims agent is maintaining the consolidated creditor matrix as of the Petition Date, and the Debtors have over 200 creditors. See Local Rule 1007-1(b). The Court is authorized to grant the Debtors' further extension "for cause" pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007(c) and Local Rule 1007-1(b).

50. Sufficient cause exists here for such further extension through and including the SOAL/SOFA Deadline. The purposes of filing the Schedules and Statements are to provide notice to creditors and to disclose information about the debtor to holders of claims. Here, however, the benefits of filing the Schedules and Statements are heavily outweighed by their costs. Requiring the Debtors to complete the Schedules and Statements would be time consuming, distracting to the Debtors' advisers and management, and costly to the Debtors' estates, while providing little benefit to most parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases at that point. No party in interest would be prejudiced by the Court granting the Debtors' request for an extension through and including the SOAL/SOFA Deadline because the Debtors have proposed the Prepackaged Plan, under which trade claims and other general unsecured claims will ride through the bankruptcy unimpaired and be enforceable against the Reorganized Debtors. Therefore, the Court should extend the deadline for filing the Schedules and Statements through and including the SOAL/SOFA Deadline, and waive the requirement altogether if the Prepackaged Plan is confirmed in accordance with the timetable proposed by the Debtors.

51. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, which codifies the equitable powers of the bankruptcy court, authorizes the court to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." In light of the facts and circumstances surrounding these prepackaged chapter 11 cases, this Court has authority, consistent with section 521(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to grant the requested relief. See, e.g., In re Mattress Firm, Inc., No. 18-12241 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 9, 2018) (D.I. 21); In re Se. Grocers, LLC, No. 18-10700 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 29, 2018) (D.I. 131); In re Remington Outdoor Co., No. 18-10684 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 27, 2018) (D.I. 64); In re Tidewater Inc., No. 17-11132 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. May 17, 2017) (D.I. 378); In re Basic Energy Servs., Inc., No. 16-12320 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 25, 2016); In re Halcón Res. Corp., No. 16-11724 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 29, 2016) (D.I. 50); In re RCS Capital Corp., No. 16-0223 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 29, 2016) (D.I. 423).

52. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court extend the time for filing the Schedules and Statements to August 7, 2020, and, if confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan is obtained before that date, waive this requirement.

53. Additionally, the Debtors request that the Court direct the U.S. Trustee not to convene a meeting of the creditors under section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code unless the Prepackaged Plan is not confirmed on or prior to the SOAL/SOFA Deadline. Section 341(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the U.S. Trustee to convene and preside over a meeting of creditors (a "Section 341(a) Meeting"), and section 341(b) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the U.S.

Trustee to convene a meeting of equity security holders (a "Section 341(b) Meeting" and collectively with a Section 341(a) Meeting, a "Section 341 Meeting"). However, Bankruptcy Code section 341(e) provides that > Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), the court, on the request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, for cause may order that the United States trustee not convene a meeting of creditors or equity security holders if the debtor has filed a plan as to which the debtor solicited acceptances prior to the commencement of the case.

11 U.S.C. § 341(e).

54. The purpose of the Section 341 Meeting is to provide parties in interest with a meaningful opportunity to obtain and examine important information about the debtor. In these chapter 11 cases, however, the solicitation of the Prepackaged Plan was commenced prior to the Petition Date, and the Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors intend to proceed expeditiously to confirm the Prepackaged Plan and emerge from chapter 11 as quickly as possible. Therefore, parties are not likely to receive any benefit from a Section 341 Meeting.

55. This Court has granted the requested waiver in other prepackaged chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Mattress Firm, Inc., No. 18-12241 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 9, 2018) (D.I. 21); In re Se. Grocers, LLC, No. 18-10700 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 29, 2018) (D.I. 131); In re Remington Outdoor Co., No. 18-10684 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 27, 2018) (D.I. 64); In re Tidewater Inc., No. 17-11132 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. May 17, 2017) (D.I. 378); In re Basic Energy Servs., Inc., No. 16-12320 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 25, 2016); In re Halcón Res. Corp., No. 16-11724 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 29, 2016) (D.I. 50); In re RCS Capital Corp., No. 16-0223 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 29, 2016) (D.I. 423).

56. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court direct the U.S. Trustee not to convene a Section 341 Meeting unless the Prepackaged Plan is not confirmed on or prior to the SOAL/SOFA Deadline.

1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

Hearing and no further notice need be given; provided, however, that any provision of Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) requiring the Debtors to distribute the Disclosure Statement and the Prepackaged Plan to parties not entitled to vote, whether because they are unimpaired or because they are deemed to reject the Prepackaged Plan, or any parties in interest other than as prescribed in this Order, shall be waived; provided further, however, the Disclosure Statement and Prepackaged Plan shall remain posted in PDF format to the following page at www.kccllc.net/skillsoft and shall be provided in either electronic or paper form to any parties in interest upon written request to the Debtors. 10. Any objection to the assumption or rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases must (a) be in writing; (b) conform to the applicable Bankruptcy Rules and Local Rules, (c) set forth the name of the objecting party, the basis for the objection, and the specific grounds thereof; (d) be filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Objection Deadline, together with proof of service, and (e) served upon the Notice Parties.

11. The objection procedures in connection with the assumption or rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases pursuant to the Prepackaged Plan are approved, as set forth in the Combined Notice.

12. The time within which the Debtors shall file the Schedules and Statements is extended through and including August 7, 2020 without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek further extensions of the time within which to file the Schedules and Statements or to seek additional relief from this Court regarding the filing of, or waiver of the requirement to file, the Schedules and Statements.

13. The requirement that the Debtors file the Schedules and Statements is permanently waived effective upon the date of confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan, provided confirmation occurs on or before the SOAL/SOFA Deadline.

14. The U.S. Trustee shall not be required to schedule a meeting of creditors and equity holders pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 341(a) and (b), unless the Prepackaged Plan is not confirmed in these chapter 11 cases on or before the SOAL/SOFA Deadline.

15. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the confirmation schedule set forth in the Motion, any holder of Claims in Class 3 and/or Class 4 that is a Consenting

8. Please take notice that, in accordance with Section 8.1 of the Plan and sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases shall be deemed assumed, including the Restructuring Support Agreement, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (such contracts and leases, the "Assumed Contracts"), unless such Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease: (i) was assumed or rejected previously by the Debtors; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms; (iii) is the subject of a motion to reject filed on or before the Effective Date; or (iv) is identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List.

9. Any monetary amounts by which any executory contract or unexpired lease to be assumed under the Plan is in default (a "Cure Amount") shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, upon assumption thereof. If you believe that any Cure Amounts are due by the Debtors in connection with the assumption of your contract or unexpired lease, you should assert such Cure Amounts against the Debtors in the ordinary course of business.

10. To the extent that you object to the assumption of an Assumed Contract on any basis, including the Debtors' satisfaction of the requirement under section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code to provide adequate assurance of future performance under an Assumed Contract, you must (a) file with the Bankruptcy Court a written objection (the "Objection") no later than the Objection Deadline that complies with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules and sets forth (i) the basis for such objection and specific grounds therefor, and (ii) the name and contact information of the person authorized to resolve such objection, and (b) serve the same on the parties listed above.

11. If no Objection is timely filed with respect to an Assumed Contract, (a) you shall be deemed to have assented to (i) the assumption of such Assumed Contract, (ii) the effective date of such assumption, and (iii) the satisfaction of the requirement under section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code of the Debtors to provide adequate assurance of future performance under such Assumed Contract, and (b) you shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from challenging the validity of such assumption or the adequate assurance of future performance contemplated herein.

12. The Debtors request that, before filing an Objection, you contact the Debtors prior to the Objection Deadline to attempt to resolve such dispute consensually. The Debtors' contact for such matters is Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. Holtzer, Esq. (gary.holtzer@weil.com), Robert J. Lemons, Esq. (robert.lemons@weil.com), and Katherine Theresa Lewis, Esq. (katherine.lewis@weil.com)) and Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., 920 North King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Mark D. Collins, Esq. (collins@rlf.com), Amada R. Steele, Esq. (steele@rlf.com) and Christopher M. De Lillo, Esq. (delillo@rlf.com)). If such dispute cannot be resolved consensually prior to the Objection Deadline (as the same may be extended by agreement of the Debtors), you must file and serve an Objection as set forth herein to preserve your right to object.

13. If a timely Objection is filed and served in accordance with this notice pertaining to assumption of an Assumed Contract, and cannot be otherwise resolved by the parties pursuant to Section 8.2 of the Prepackaged Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may hear such Objection at a date set by the Bankruptcy Court.

VOTING INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE BALLOT

1. Ballots received after the Voting Deadline (if the Voting Deadline has not been extended) may not, at the Debtors' discretion, be counted. The Voting Agent will tabulate all properly completed Ballots received on or before the Voting Deadline.

2. Submit your vote by either

   (a) Logging on to the online, electronic balloting platform maintained by KCC at www.kccllc.net/skillsoft under the "eBallot" section ("eBallot"), clicking on the "Submit eBallot" link, and following the instructions set forth on the website[1], or

   (b) Completing, executing, and submitting this paper Ballot ("Paper Ballot") to KCC via first class mail, overnight mail, or personal delivery to Skillsoft Ballot Processing, c/o KCC, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245.

3. If a Holder submits its vote through eBallot, it does not need to submit a Paper Ballot.

4. Any Ballot that is illegible, contains insufficient information to identify the Holder, does not contain an original signature (with the understanding that a creditor's electronic signature submitted through eBallot will be deemed an "original signature" and to be immediately legally valid and effective), or is unsigned, will not be counted. Ballots may not be submitted to the Voting Agent by facsimile or e-mail. If neither the "accept" nor "reject" box is checked in Item 2, both boxes are checked in Item 2, or the Ballot is otherwise not properly completed, executed, or timely returned, then the Ballot shall not be counted in determining acceptance or rejection of the Plan.

5. You must vote all your Class 4 Second Lien Debt Claims under the Plan either to accept or reject the Plan. Accordingly, if you return more than one Ballot voting different First Lien Debt Claims under the Plan, the Ballots are not voted in the same manner, and you do not correct this before the Voting Deadline, those Ballots will not be counted. An otherwise properly executed Ballot that attempts to partially accept and partially reject the Plan likewise will not be counted. Further, to the extent you vote multiple Claims within Class 3 consistently, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate those votes for numerosity purposes.

6. If you hold a Claim in more than one Class entitled to vote, you may receive more than one Ballot for each such Claim. Each Ballot votes only your Claims indicated on that Ballot. Accordingly, you must complete and return each Ballot you receive to vote multiple Claims.

7. If you voted to reject the Plan or if you are abstaining from voting to accept or reject the Plan, and in each case elect not to grant the releases contained in Section 10.7(b) of the

[1] The encrypted ballot data and audit trail created by such electronic eBallot submission shall become part of the record of any vote submitted in this manner and the creditor's electronic signature will be deemed to be immediately legally valid and effective.

Plan, you must check the box in Item 3. Election to withhold consent is at your option. If you submit a rejecting Ballot, or if you abstain from submitting a Ballot, and in each case, you do not check the box in Item 3, you will be deemed to consent to the releases set forth in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan.

8. If you vote to accept the Plan by checking the "accept" box in Item 2, but you also check the box in Item 3, your election not to grant the releases will not be counted, as your vote in favor of the Plan shall be deemed a consent to the releases set forth in Section 10.7(b) of the Plan.

9. The Ballot does not constitute, and shall not be deemed to be, a proof of Claim or an assertion or admission of Claims.

10. The Ballot is not a letter of transmittal and may not be used for any purpose other than to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

11. If you cast more than one Ballot voting the same Claims prior to the Voting Deadline, the latest received, properly executed Ballot submitted to the Voting Agent will supersede any prior Ballot.

12. If (i) the Debtors revoke or withdraw the Plan, or (ii) the Confirmation Order is not entered, or (iii) consummation of the Plan does not occur, this Ballot shall automatically be null and void and deemed withdrawn without any requirement of affirmative action by or notice to you.

13. There may be changes made to the Plan that do not cause material adverse effects on an accepting Class. If such non-material changes are made to the Plan, the Debtors will not resolicit votes for acceptance or rejection of the Plan.

14. Any votes rejected as non-conforming to the aforementioned provisions will be set forth on an exhibit to KCC's voting certification.

15. NO PERSON HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR ADVICE, OR TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION, OTHER THAN WHAT IS CONTAINED IN THE MATERIALS MAILED WITH THIS BALLOT, ANY SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE DEBTORS, OR OTHER MATERIALS AUTHORIZED BY THE BANKRUPTCY COURT.

16. PLEASE RETURN YOUR BALLOT PROMPTLY.

17. IF YOU HAVE RECEIVED A DAMAGED BALLOT OR HAVE LOST YOUR BALLOT, OR IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS CONCERNING THIS BALLOT OR THE VOTING PROCEDURES, PLEASE CONTACT THE VOTING AGENT BY CALLING 877-709-4752 (DOMESTIC) OR 424-236-7232 (INTERNATIONAL) OR BY SENDING AN ELECTRONIC MAIL MESSAGE TO SKILLSOFTINFO@KCCLLC.COM WITH "SKILLSOFT" IN THE SUBJECT LINE. PLEASE DO NOT DIRECT ANY INQUIRIES TO THE BANKRUPTCY COURT.

18. THE VOTING AGENT IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO, AND WILL NOT, PROVIDE LEGAL ADVICE.

19. ALL BALLOTS MUST BE FULLY EXECUTED TO BE COUNTED. IF YOU ARE COMPLETING THIS BALLOT ON BEHALF OF ANOTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, INDICATE YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH SUCH PERSON OR ENTITY AND THE CAPACITY IN WHICH YOU ARE SIGNING. 8. Please take notice that, in accordance with Section 8.1 of the Plan and sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases shall be deemed assumed, including the Restructuring Support Agreement, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (such contracts and leases, the "Assumed Contracts"), unless such Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease: (i) was assumed or rejected previously by the Debtors; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms; (iii) is the subject of a motion to reject filed on or before the Effective Date; or (iv) is identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List.

9. Any monetary amounts by which any executory contract or unexpired lease to be assumed under the Plan is in default (a "Cure Amount") shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, upon assumption thereof. If you believe that any Cure Amounts are due by the Debtors in connection with the assumption of your contract or unexpired lease, you should assert such Cure Amounts against the Debtors in the ordinary course of business.

10. To the extent that you object to the assumption of an Assumed Contract on any basis, including the Debtors' satisfaction of the requirement under section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code to provide adequate assurance of future performance under an Assumed Contract, you must (a) file with the Bankruptcy Court a written objection (the "Objection") no later than the Objection Deadline that complies with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules and sets forth (i) the basis for such objection and specific grounds therefor, and (ii) the name and contact information of the person authorized to resolve such objection, and (b) serve the same on the parties listed above.

11. If no Objection is timely filed with respect to an Assumed Contract, (a) you shall be deemed to have assented to (i) the assumption of such Assumed Contract, (ii) the effective date of such assumption, and (iii) the satisfaction of the requirement under section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code of the Debtors to provide adequate assurance of future performance under such Assumed Contract, and (b) you shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from challenging the validity of such assumption or the adequate assurance of future performance contemplated herein.

12. The Debtors request that, before filing an Objection, you contact the Debtors prior to the Objection Deadline to attempt to resolve such dispute consensually. The Debtors' contact for such matters is Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10153 (Attn: Gary T. Holtzer, Esq. (gary.holtzer@weil.com), Robert J. Lemons, Esq. (robert.lemons@weil.com), and Katherine Theresa Lewis, Esq. (katherine.lewis@weil.com)) and Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., 920 North King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Mark D. Collins, Esq. (collins@rlf.com), Amada R. Steele, Esq. (steele@rlf.com) and Christopher M. De Lillo, Esq. (delillo@rlf.com)). If such dispute cannot be resolved consensually prior to the Objection Deadline (as the same may be extended by agreement of the Debtors), you must file and serve an Objection as set forth herein to preserve your right to object.

13. If a timely Objection is filed and served in accordance with this notice pertaining to assumption of an Assumed Contract, and cannot be otherwise resolved by the parties pursuant to Section 8.2 of the Prepackaged Plan, the Bankruptcy Court may hear such Objection at a date set by the Bankruptcy Court.

YOU ARE ADVISED AND ENCOURAGED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW AND CONSIDER THE PREPACKAGED PLAN, INCLUDING THE RELEASE, EXCULPATION AND INJUNCTION PROVISIONS, AS YOUR RIGHTS MIGHT BE AFFECTED.

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), the Debtors request entry of an order (i) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (a) enter into that certain letter agreement with [redacted] (the "Interested Party"),[3] in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B (the "Exclusivity Letter"), and (b) perform their obligations thereunder, including payment of the Upfront Payment Amount (defined herein) subject to the terms and conditions of the Exclusivity Letter, and (ii) granting related relief.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Background

4. On June 14, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to

[3] Contemporaneously with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors have filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Debtors to File under Seal and Redact Certain Identity Information in the Motion to Enter into Exclusivity Letter seeking to seal the identity of the Interested Party as required by the terms of Exclusivity Letter.

sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

5. The Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

6. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

7. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the First Lien Group and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

9. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously with the Petition

Date, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis.

Exclusivity Letter and Alternative Transaction

10. Prior to the Petition Date, and as part of the Debtors' pre-petition marketing process,[4] the Interested Party approached the Debtors about a potential sale transaction for substantially all of the Debtors' business (the "Potential Transaction" or an "Alternative Transaction"). However, in light of the Debtors' deteriorating liquidity position, immediate need to access the DIP Facility, and the need for the certainty of a fully-agreed reorganization path if the Debtors cannot consummate the Potential Transaction, the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases (with the support of the Consenting Creditors) and are seeking to implement the restructuring contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement.[5] Notwithstanding entry into the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors, continued to negotiate in good faith with the Interested Party and have agreed to the terms of the Exclusivity Letter.[6] The Exclusivity Letter allows for the Debtors and Consenting Creditors to continue negotiating in good faith with the Interested Party and conduct diligence regarding a potential value-maximizing Alternative Transaction (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement). If the ongoing negotiations with the Interested Party are ultimately successful, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors, may seek to amend the Plan and Disclosure Statement to reflect the Alternative Transaction prior to the Confirmation Hearing.[7]

11. The key terms of the Exclusivity Letter are summarized below:[8]

Item	Terms
Exclusivity	From June 15, 2020 until the earlier to occur of (x) midnight (Eastern time) on August 13, 2020, and (y) the execution of a definitive agreement between Pointwell and/or its affiliates and the Interested Party relating to the Potential Transaction (the "Definitive Transaction Agreement"), Pointwell shall not and shall not authorize or permit any officer, director, employee or affiliate of, or any investment banker, attorney or other agent, advisor or representative of, Pointwell or its direct or indirect subsidiaries to, (a) make or negotiate any offer or proposal to, (i) sell or otherwise transfer any material equity interest in the Company or all or any substantial portion of its or their respective assets to any third party, or (ii) enter into any definitive agreement with respect to, or otherwise effect, any recapitalization, refinancing, or other similar transaction involving the Company (any of the foregoing hereafter referred to as an "Alternative Proposal"), (b) solicit or encourage the initiation of (including by way of furnishing information) any inquiries or proposals regarding any Alternative Proposal, (c) have any discussions with or provide any non-public information or data to any third party that would encourage, facilitate or further any effort or attempt to make or implement an Alternative Proposal, or (d) enter into any agreement with respect to any Alternative Proposal made by any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) a restructuring contemplated by the terms of that certain Restructuring Support Agreement, dated as of June 12, 2020, by and between Pointwell and certain of its subsidiaries and the lenders party thereto (the "RSA") shall not constitute an Alternative Proposal (the "Consensual Transaction"), and (ii) the foregoing shall not prohibit the Company from having any discussions with, or providing any non-public information or data to, the Consenting Creditors (as defined in the RSA).
Accounting and Financial Work	From June 15, 2020 until the earlier to occur of (x) midnight (Eastern time) on August 13, 2020, and (y) the execution of the Definitive Transaction Agreement, Pointwell shall, and shall cause its affiliates to, use commercially reasonable efforts and work diligently and in good faith to advance and finalize as soon as reasonably practicable following June 15, 2020 all accounting and financial work that the Interested Party and Pointwell mutually determine to be necessary to be included in a proxy statement under applicable securities law and shall keep the Interested Party apprised of the status of such matters on a reasonably current basis and from time to time at the reasonable request of the Interested Party.
Fiduciary Out and Termination	Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in the Exclusivity Letter, (1) in order to fulfil the fiduciary obligations of Pointwell's

[8] This summary is qualified by reference to the Exclusivity Letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

Item	Terms
	officers and directors, if Pointwell receives a bona fide unsolicited proposal or offer for an Alternative Proposal from other parties after June 15, 2020, which Alternative Proposal did not result from a breach of this letter agreement (including this paragraph), Pointwell may, subject to compliance with the following proviso, provide due diligence materials and/or analyze and/or negotiate only such Alternative Proposal, without breaching this letter agreement; provided, that Pointwell shall notify the Interested Party in writing promptly (and, in any event within 48 hours) of the receipt by Pointwell or any of its subsidiaries, or any of its or their respective representatives, of any bona fide inquiries, proposals or offers, requests for information or requests for discussions or negotiations regarding any Alternative Proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions thereof and the identity of such party, (2) Pointwell may terminate this letter agreement (without breaching this letter agreement) upon two (2) business days' notice to the Interested Party to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Alternative Proposal; provided that if at or prior to the time of Pointwell receives such Alternative Proposal, Pointwell and the Interested Party have mutually agreed that the Definitive Transaction Agreement is in final form, then (A) Pointwell shall only be permitted to provide due diligence materials and/or analyze and/or negotiate such Alternative Proposal, and/or terminate this letter agreement, in each case, without breaching this letter agreement, if the Board of Directors of Pointwell determines in good faith that such Alternative Proposal constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Proposal, and (B) Pointwell shall provide the Interested Party with five (5) business days' notice of its intention to terminate this agreement in light of a Superior Proposal and during such five (5) business days' period Pointwell shall negotiate in good faith with the Interested Party regarding any revisions to the Potential Transaction, and if following such good faith negotiations, the Board of Directors of Pointwell determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, that, in light of such Superior Proposal and taking into account any revised terms proposed by the Interested Party, such Superior Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal and that the continued performance under this letter agreement would be inconsistent with the exercise of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, Pointwell may terminate this letter agreement without breaching this letter agreement and (3) if [redacted] publicly announces or enters into a transaction to acquire a third party other than the Company and the Interested Party fails to designate an alternative purchasing entity within five (5) business days that is reasonably acceptable to Pointwell, then Pointwell may terminate this letter agreement upon written notice to the Interested Party; provided, that if during such five (5) business day period the Interested Party designates an alternative purchasing entity that is both (x) an affiliate of the Interested Party and advised by [redacted] and (y) a special purpose acquisition company with available funds of no less than $700,000,000 (on a pro-forma basis and without taking into account any required redemptions pursuant to the organizational documents of such alternative purchasing entity) then Pointwell may not terminate this letter agreement pursuant to this clause (3) (each of (2) or (3) (subject to the proviso therein), a "Pointwell Termination Event").

"Superior Proposal"	For purposes of the Exclusivity Letter, the term "Superior Proposal" means any binding bona fide unsolicited written offer which did not result from a breach of this letter agreement by any person (other than the Interested Party), that, if consummated, would result in such person acquiring, directly or indirectly, the majority of the equity interests of Pointwell or all or substantially all the assets of Pointwell, and which offer, in the reasonable good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of Pointwell (after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation and outside legal counsel), is more favorable to the Pointwell stakeholders than the Potential Transaction, taking into account all of the terms and conditions of such proposal and the Potential Transaction (including any changes to the terms of the Potential Transaction proposed by the Interested Party in response to such Superior Proposal or otherwise), including the financial, legal, regulatory, timing and other aspects of such proposal.
Payment for Expenses	To assist and encourage the Interested Party to expeditiously pursue and consummate the Potential Transaction, Skillsoft agrees on the first business day following the date upon which the parties enter into the Definitive Transaction Agreement, Skillsoft shall advance (or cause one or more of Skillsoft's direct or indirect subsidiaries to advance) to the Interested Party $2,000,000.00 (the "Upfront Payment Amount"), which shall be applied to the reimbursement of the Interested Party for reasonable, documented and out-of-pocket fees and expenses to be incurred by the Interested Party in connection with the Interested Party's diligence, structuring, negotiation and documentation of the Potential Transaction and/or compliance with applicable securities laws with respect to the Potential Transaction (collectively, the "Expenses"); provided, that, except as may otherwise be provided in the Definitive Transaction Agreement, if the Potential Transaction fails to close (including if the Definitive Transaction Agreement is terminated or upon the occurrence of a toggle event to the Consensual Transaction) or a Pointwell Termination Event occurs and the Expenses incurred through the date of termination are less than the Upfront Payment Amount, the Interested Party shall promptly (and in any event within two (2) business days) refund to Skillsoft the difference between such actual Expenses and the Upfront Payment Amount.
Confidentiality	Pointwell and/or its affiliates shall keep the Interested Party's name, identity any other identifying information strictly confidential and shall not disclose any such information to any other Person except to the extent required by Law, in which event Pointwell shall provide the Interested Party with prompt written notice to the extent not legally prohibited of such requirement so that the Interested Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy to afford such information confidential treatment.

Damages upon Breach	In the event of any actual or threatened default in, or breach of, any of the terms, conditions and provisions of this letter agreement, the maximum amount of liability for monetary damages that the breaching party may be subject to shall not exceed $2,000,000.00. Nothing in the Exclusivity Letter shall purport to limit the right of the aggrieved party thereunder to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief of its rights under this letter agreement.
Commitment to a Potential Transaction	The Exclusivity Letter does not constitute a commitment, a contract to provide a commitment or an offer to enter into a contract regarding the Potential Transaction. Only a fully executed definitive written agreement will constitute a binding and enforceable agreement regarding the Potential Transaction.

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

12. Entry into the Exclusivity Letter to preserve optionality for a potential value-maximizing transaction is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment in these chapter 11 cases. Critically, the Debtors' entry into the Exclusivity Letter is also supported by the Consenting Creditors.

13. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor, with court approval, to enter into transactions and use property of the estate outside of the ordinary course of business. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). To approve the use of assets outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts in the Third Circuit require only that the transaction has a "sound business purpose" and the debtor proposes it in good faith. See, e.g., Myers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 395 (3d Cir. 1996); In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999).

14. To determine whether the business judgment test is met, a court examines "whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances." In re Exide Techs., Inc., 340 B.R. 222, 239 (Bankr. D. Del. 2006), rev'd on other grounds, 607 F.3d 957 (3d Cir. 2010). If a debtor articulates a valid business justification under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, a presumption arises that the debtor made its decision on an informed basis, in good faith, and in the honest belief that the action was in the best interest of the debtor's estate. See, e.g., In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 656 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (citing Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)). Accordingly, a court should approve a debtor's business decision unless that decision is the product of bad faith or gross abuse of discretion. See id.

15. In addition, under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code a bankruptcy court may issue any "order, process, or judgment that is necessary to carry out the provisions" of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). This allows a bankruptcy court to fashion orders necessary to further the purposes of other sections of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Combustion Eng'g, Inc., 391 F.3d 190, 225, 236 (3d Cir. 2004); In re Padilla, 389 B.R. 409, 425 (E.D. Pa. 2008) ("[A] court may invoke § 105(a) if the equitable remedy utilized is demonstrably necessary to preserve a right elsewhere provided in the Code. . . .").

16. Here, entry into the Exclusivity Letter is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment because doing so preserves optionality for the Debtors to pursue a potential value-maximizing Alternative Transaction. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors conducted a market test for the sale of the Debtors' business. At the conclusion of those efforts, the only viable option forward was through the financial restructuring embodied in the Prepackaged Plan. Around the same time, the Interested Party came forward regarding a potential sale of the Debtors' assets but the parties were not able to move towards a definitive transaction in the time necessary to meet the Debtors' liquidity needs. Accordingly, and as described in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors and the Consenting Creditors entered into the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors commenced solicitation with respect to the Prepackaged Plan, and the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases to effectuate a consensual financial restructuring. That notwithstanding, the Interested Party remains interested in pursuing an Alternative Transaction that could maximize value for the Debtors' estates and their stakeholders, and the Consenting Creditors support the Debtors' pursuit of such transaction.

17. In light of the pre-petition marketing efforts and consensual restructuring offer embodied in the Prepackaged Plan, the Debtors submit that granting the Interested Party exclusivity is reasonable and necessary in order to preserve the option to pursue an Alternative Transaction for the benefit of the Debtors and their stakeholders. Further, the Interested Party has indicated that it will not pursue further negotiations or diligence without the Debtors' entry into the Exclusivity Letter. In addition, the Consenting Creditors support the Debtors' efforts to preserve a potential Alternative Transaction by entering into the Exclusivity Letter. The Debtors therefore submit entering into the Exclusivity Letter to allow negotiations to continue with respect to a potential Alternative Transaction for the benefit of their stakeholders is a sound exercise of their business judgment.

18. In addition, the Debtors' performance of their obligations under the Exclusivity Letter, including the obligation to pay the Upfront Payment Amount, if required, is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment because doing so is an inducement for the Interested Party to continue negotiating and conducting diligence with respect to an Alternative Transaction. Under the terms of the Exclusivity Letter, the Debtors are obligated to pay the Upfront Payment Amount to the Interested Party only if the Debtors and the Interested Party execute a definitive agreement for the Potential Transaction. The Debtors therefore submit that it is a sound exercise of their business judgment to perform their obligations under the Exclusivity Letter, including payment of the Upfront Payment Amount if required. Importantly, the Consenting Creditors support the relief requested herein, including approval of payment of the Upfront Payment Amount on the terms and conditions in the Exclusivity Letter, in order to preserve the optionality and potential benefits of an Alternative Transaction.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

19. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a bankruptcy court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one days after the filing of the petition. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(b). Here, the Exclusivity Letter requires the Debtors to seek this Court's approval of the letter upon the filing of these chapter 11 cases. Failure to do so could result in the Interested Party withdrawing from the Exclusivity Letter and stopping negotiations for the Alternative Transaction altogether, which could result in the loss of a potential value-maximizing opportunity for the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and (h)

20. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above and in the First Day Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

21. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. Greenberg, Esq. and Christina M. Brown, Esq.); (iv) counsel to the ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group"), Milbank LLP, 10 Gresham St., London EC2V 7JD (Attn: Yushan Ng, Esq. and Sarah Levin, Esq.) and 55 Hudson Yards, New York, New York 10001 (Attn: Evan R. Fleck, Esq.); (v) counsel to Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB ("WSFS"), in its capacity as First Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vi) counsel WSFS, in its capacity as Second Lien Agent, Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004 (Attn: Gregg S. Bateman, Esq.); (vii) counsel to CIT Bank, N.A., in its capacity as AR Facility Agent, Holland & Knight LLP, 200 Crescent Court, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75201 (Attn: Samuel Pinkston); (viii) the Internal Revenue Service; (ix) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (x) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (xi) counsel to the Interested Party; and (xii) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). As this Motion is seeking "first day" relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered in respect of the Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Order granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

MOTION OF DEBTORS FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO FILE UNDER SEAL AND REDACT CERTAIN IDENTITY INFORMATION IN THE MOTION TO ENTER INTO EXCLUSIVITY LETTER

Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent in support of this motion (the "Motion"):

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 107(b) and (c) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 9018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and Rule 9018-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors request authority to file under seal and to redact information in the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Enter Into an Exclusivity Letter

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, as applicable, are Skillsoft Corporation (6115); Amber Holding Inc. (0335); SumTotal Systems LLC (7228); MindLeaders, Inc. (6072); Accero, Inc. (4684); CyberShift Holdings, Inc. (2109); CyberShift, Inc. with the Interested Party and (B) Perform Their Obligations Thereunder, Including Payment of the Upfront Payment Amount, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Exclusivity Letter Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

Background

5. On June 14, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

6. The Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

7. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

8. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

9. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

10. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis.

11. Prior to the Petition Date, and as part of the Debtors' pre-petition marketing process, the Interested Party approached the Debtors about a potential sale transaction for substantially all of the Debtors' business (the "Potential Transaction" or an "Alternative Transaction"). However, in light of the Debtors' deteriorating liquidity position, immediate need to access the DIP Facility, and the need for the certainty of a fully-agreed reorganization path if the Debtors cannot consummate the Potential Transaction, the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases (with the support of the Consenting Creditors) and are seeking to implement the restructuring contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement. Notwithstanding entry into the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors, continued to negotiate in good faith with the Interested Party and have agreed to the terms of the Exclusivity Letter. The Exclusivity Letter allows for the Debtors and Consenting Creditors to continue negotiating in good faith with the Interested Party and conduct diligence regarding a potential value-maximizing Alternative Transaction (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement). If the ongoing negotiations with the Interested Party are ultimately successful, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors, may seek to amend the Plan and Disclosure Statement to reflect the Alternative Transaction prior to the Confirmation Hearing.

12. As more fully set forth in the Exclusivity Letter Motion, the Exclusivity Letter requires that the Debtors "shall keep the Interested Party's name, identity any other identifying information strictly confidential and shall not disclose any such information to any other Person except to the extent required by Law." Exclusivity Letter Motion ¶ 11. The Debtors have been informed that the confidentiality of the identity of the Interested Party is a condition for the Interested Party's agreement to continue to pursue a potential value-maximizing transaction with the Debtors. Accordingly, pursuant to the Exclusivity Letter, the Debtors agreed to seek the relief requested in this motion to file the identity of the Interested Party under seal.

Basis for Relief

13. Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code is a codified exception to the general rule of access to the court and protects entities from potential harm caused by the public disclosure of confidential information. Specifically, section 107(b) provides, in relevant part:

> (b) On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court's own motion, the bankruptcy court may –
> (1) protect an entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information . . . .

11 U.S.C. § 107(b).

14. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 and Local Rule 9018-1 establish the procedure by which a party in interest may obtain a protective order authorizing the filing of a document under seal pursuant to section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 provides, in relevant part, "[o]n motion or its own initiative, with or without notice, the court may make any order which justice requires . . . to protect the estate or any entity in respect of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information." Fed. R. Bank. P. 9018.

15. Once the court determines that a party in interest is seeking protection of information that falls within one of the categories enumerated in section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, "the court is required to protect a requesting interested party and has no discretion to deny the application." Video Software Dealers Ass'n v. Orion Pictures Corp. (In re Orion Pictures Corp.), 21 F.3d 24, 27 (2d Cir. 1994).

16. Courts have held that protection under section 107(b) must be granted if the information sought to be protected is commercial information, and significantly, that commercial information need not rise to the level of a trade secret to be entitled to protection. See, e.g., Orion Pictures, 21 F.3d at 28 (finding that the use of the disjunctive in section 107(b)(1) "neither equates 'trade secret' with 'commercial information' nor requires the latter to reflect the same level of confidentiality as the former"). Furthermore, in contrast with Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require an entity seeking such protection to demonstrate "good cause." Id. Nor does section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code require a finding of "extraordinary circumstances or compelling need." Id. at 27.

17. Rather, a party seeking the protection of section 107(b) need only demonstrate that the information is "confidential" and "commercial" in nature. Id.; see also In re Glob. Crossing Ltd., 295 B.R. 720, 725 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (recognizing that the purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 9018 is to "protect business entities from disclosure of information that could reasonably be expected to cause the entity commercial injury"). Once the moving party establishes that the subject information qualifies as "commercial information" under section 107(b)(1), the Bankruptcy Code mandates that this information be protected from disclosure. See id.

Relief Requested Should be Granted

18. Sufficient cause exists here for the Debtors to file under seal and to redact those portions of the Exclusivity Letter Motion containing the identity of the Interested Party (the "Commercial Information"), whose identity has not yet been publicly disclosed and, pursuant to the terms of the Exclusivity Letter, must not be disclosed and must remain confidential.

19. The Debtors respectfully submit that sealing the identity of the Interested Party is warranted. As set forth above, the identity of the Interested Party constitutes confidential commercial information under section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Public disclosure of the name of the Interested Party would violate the terms of the Exclusivity Letter and severely hinder the viability of the Alternative Transaction, eliminating a potential value-maximizing transaction to the detriment of the Debtors' estates and all of their creditors. In addition, the Interested Party has asserted its identity is commercially sensitive information and if disclosed could cause harm to the Interested Party. To that end, sealing the identity of the Interested Party is necessary to preserve the Debtors' ability to continue to pursue the Alternative Transaction with the Interested Party. See, e.g., In re Glob. Crossing, Ltd., 295 B.R. 720, 725 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (finding that the purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 9018 is to "protect business entities from disclosure of information that could reasonably be expected to cause the entity commercial injury").

20. To protect commercially sensitive and confidential information related to the potential Alternative Transaction, and at the same time to ensure appropriate disclosure in these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors request authority to file under seal and redact those few portions of the Exclusivity Letter Motion that contain the identity of the Interested Party. The Debtors have endeavored to limit the scope of the redactions as much as possible while maintaining confidentiality.

21. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that good cause exists for the Court to grant them leave to file under seal and to redact those narrow portions of the Exclusivity Letter Motion containing the Commercial Information.

22. The Debtors will provide an un-redacted version of the Exclusivity Letter Motion to the Court pursuant to Local Rule 9018-1 and will provide an un-redacted version of the Exclusivity Letter Motion, on a confidential, professionals' eyes only basis, to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"); (b) counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases; (c) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group; and (d) counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group (collectively, the "Receiving Parties").

In addition, consistent with Local Rule 9018-1(d), the Debtors have filed a redacted version of the Exclusivity Letter Motion on the Court's docket under a "Notice of Filing."

Compliance with Local Rule 9018-1(d)(iv)

23. To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the undersigned proposed counsel to the Debtors, the Exclusivity Letter Motion contains information subject to the Confidentiality Rights (as defined in Local Rule 9018-1(d)(iii)) of the Interested Party and potentially the Debtors as well. The undersigned proposed counsel to the Debtors conferred in good faith with counsel to the Interested Party, and reached an agreement concerning the information in the Exclusivity Letter Motion that must be redacted and must remain sealed.

Notice

24. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. Skillsoft Corporation ("Skillsoft") and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors" and, together with their non-Debtor affiliates, the "Company"), respectfully represent as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):

Relief Requested

1. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 107(b) and (c) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 9018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") and Rule 9018-1 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), the Debtors request entry of an order (a) authorizing the Debtors to file under seal and to redact certain portions of the Fee Letters (as defined below) and (b) directing that the Fee Letters shall remain under seal and confidential and not be made available to any person without the consent of the Debtors and the DIP Agent Parties (as defined below), unless otherwise provided by order of the Court.

2. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order").

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

Background

5. On June 14, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

6. The Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

7. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

8. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

9. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

10. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

11. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Senior Secured Superpriority Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Parties, (III) Granting Liens and Superpriority Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief (the "DIP Motion")[3] seeking authorization to incur postpetition financing in an aggregate principal amount of $60 million (the "DIP Facility"), provided by certain of the Debtors' prepetition secured lenders (the "DIP Lenders"). Pursuant to the DIP Facility, Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB shall serve as the administrative agent and collateral agent (the "DIP Agent"), and as escrow agent (the "DIP Escrow Agent").

12. In connection with the proposed DIP Facility, the Debtors will enter into (i) that certain Fee Letter, by and between the Debtors and the DIP Agent (the "DIP Agent Fee Letter"), and (ii) that certain Fee Letter, by and between the Debtors and the DIP Escrow Agent (the "DIP Escrow Agent Letter" and together with the DIP Agent Fee Letter, the "Fee Letters"). Each of the Fee Letters is annexed as Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2, respectively, to the Notice of Filing Confidential Proposed Debtor-In-Possession Financing Fee Letters Under Seal filed contemporaneously herewith.

13. Due to the sensitive and confidential nature of the commercial information contained in the Fee Letters—including those portions of the Fee Letters that set forth certain fee amounts and information about methodologies for calculating fees with respect to the proposed DIP Facility (the "Commercial Information")—the Debtors request authorization to seal the Confidential Information.

[3] Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the DIP Motion.

Basis for Relief

14. Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code is a codified exception to the general rule of access to the court and protects entities from potential harm caused by the public disclosure of confidential information. Specifically, section 107(b) provides, in relevant part:

> (b) On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court's own motion, the bankruptcy court may—
> (1) protect an entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information . . . .

11 U.S.C. § 107(b).

15. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 and Local Rule 9018-1 establish the procedures by which a party in interest may obtain a protective order authorizing the filing of a document under seal pursuant to section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 provides, in relevant part, "[o]n any motion or its own initiative, with or without notice, the court may make any order which justice requires . . . to protect the estate or any entity in respect of a trade secret or other confidential research, development or commercial information." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9018.

16. Once a court determines that a party in interest is seeking protection of information that falls within one of the categories enumerated in section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, "the court is required to protect a requesting interested party and has no discretion to deny the application." Video Software Dealers Ass'n v. Orion Pictures Corp. (In re Orion Pictures Corp.), 21 F.3d 24, 27 (2d Cir. 1994) (emphasis in original).

17. Courts have held that protection under section 107(b) must be granted if the information sought to be protected is "commercial information," and, significantly, that commercial information need not rise to the level of a trade secret to be entitled to protection. See, e.g., Orion Pictures, 21 F.3d at 28 (finding that the use of the disjunctive in section 107(b)(1) "neither equates 'trade secret' with 'commercial information' nor requires the latter to reflect the same level of confidentiality as the former"). Furthermore, in contrast with Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require an entity seeking such protection to demonstrate "good cause." Id. Nor does section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code require a finding of "extraordinary circumstances or compelling need." Id. at 27.

18. Rather, a party seeking the protection of section 107(b) need only demonstrate that the information is "confidential" and "commercial" in nature. Id.; see also In re Glob. Crossing Ltd., 295 B.R. 720, 725 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (recognizing that the purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 9018 is to "protect business entities from disclosure of information that could reasonably be expected to cause the entity commercial injury"). Once the moving party establishes that the subject information qualifies as "commercial information" under section 107(b)(1), the Bankruptcy Code mandates that this information be protected from disclosure. See id.

Relief Requested Should be Granted

19. Cause exists to redact the Commercial Information, including fees and certain other commercial information contained in the Fee Letters, because such information constitutes "commercial information" within the meaning of section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, insofar as it concerns the terms of a private, confidential commercial contract between the Debtors and each of the DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent, respectively, that contains sensitive information relating to pricing. Indeed, by their own terms, the Fee Letters are confidential in nature. Further, in accordance with industry-wide customs, the DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent treat information such as the Commercial Information as highly sensitive and generally do not make information such as the Commercial Information available to competitor financial institutions, much less to the public.

20. If the Commercial Information were disclosed, the disclosure would cause harm to the Debtors, the DIP Agent, and the DIP Escrow Agent. In fact, given the intense competition in the investment banking and lending industries, disclosure of the Commercial Information could heavily constrain the ability of the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and their respective affiliates to negotiate their fees in future transactions, putting them at a strategic disadvantage relative to their competitors and causing commercial injury. Because debtor-in-possession financing is only a small fraction of all syndicated financings arranged by each of the DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent, requiring them to disclose the Commercial Information in this context when such disclosure is not required in other contexts could have a "chilling effect" in these and future cases by discouraging the DIP Agent, the DIP Escrow Agent, and other competitor institutions from extending debtor-in-possession facilities on terms favorable to debtors. In that regard, the DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent's ability to maintain the confidentiality of their pricing methodology is paramount to each of their ability to provide postpetition financing to these and other chapter 11 debtors.

21. Based on the foregoing, absent protection of their Commercial Information, the DIP Agent and DIP Escrow Agent would be placed at a competitive disadvantage, and the Debtors' ability to obtain postpetition financing from the DIP Lenders could be undermined. Maintaining the confidentiality of the Commercial Information set forth in the Fee Letters enables the DIP Agent and the DIP Escrow Agent to remain competitive and willing to arrange and extend postpetition financing to these and other chapter 11 debtors.

22. To balance the need for confidentiality with disclosure, the Debtors' proposed redactions are limited in scope. The Debtors propose to redact only those portions of each of the Fee Letters that contain highly sensitive, commercial information regarding the specific terms and conditions that could reveal either the DIP Agent's or the DIP Escrow Agent's fees or their methodologies for calculating fees.

23. Courts in this district have granted similar requests to seal or redact portions of postpetition or exit financing documents—such as fee letters in connection with debtor-in-possession financing—and the lenders' or agents' commercial information contained therein. See, e.g., In re Bumble Bee Parent, Inc., No. 19-12502 (LSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 25, 2019) [D.I. 71] (authorizing debtors to file under seal debtor-in-possession financing fee letters); In re Hexion Holdings LLC, No. 19-10684 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 29, 2019) [D.I 227] (same); In re CTI Foods, LLC, No. 19-10497 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 12, 2019) [D.I. 68] (same); In re Checkout Holding Corp., No. 18-12794 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 17, 2019) [D.I. 221] (same).

24. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that good cause exists for the Court to grant them leave to file under seal and to redact those portions of the Fee Letters containing the Commercial Information.

25. The Debtors will provide un-redacted versions of the Fee Letters to the Court pursuant to Local Rule 9018-1 and will provide un-redacted versions of the Fee Letters on a confidential, professionals' eyes only basis, to (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee") and (b) counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Receiving Parties"). In addition, consistent with Local Rule 9018-(d), redacted versions of the Fee Letters were separately filed on the Court's docket under a "Notice of Filing."

Compliance with Local Rule 9018-1(d)(ii)

26. To the best of the knowledge, information, and belief of the undersigned proposed counsel to the Debtors, the Fee Letters contain commercial information subject to the Confidentiality Rights (as defined in Local Rule 9018-1(d)(iii)) of the DIP Agent or the DIP Escrow Agent. The undersigned proposed counsel to the Debtors, counsel to the DIP Agent, and counsel to the DIP Escrow Agent have conferred in good faith and reached an agreement concerning what information contained in the Fee Letters must remain sealed.

Relief Requested

Jurisdiction

3. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(f), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

Background

5. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

6. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

7. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of John Frederick In Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

8. On June 12, 2020, the Debtors executed a restructuring support agreement (as may be amended from time to time, the "Restructuring Support Agreement") with (i) a subset of members of an ad hoc group of first lien lenders (the "Ad Hoc First Lien Group"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 51.28% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 6.36% of value of the Second Lien Debt; (ii) an ad hoc group of first and second lien creditors (the "Ad Hoc Crossholder Group" and, together with the members of the First Lien Group party to the Restructuring Support Agreement and any other First Lien Lenders or Second Lien Lenders that become party to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the "Consenting Creditors"), which group collectively holds, manages, or controls approximately 38.50% in value of the First Lien Debt and approximately 79.07% in value of the Second Lien Debt.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the First Day Declaration.

9. Contemporaneously with the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors and in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement, began the solicitation of votes on their Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan") through their Disclosure Statement for Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan of Skillsoft Corporation and Its Affiliated Debtors pursuant to sections 1125 and 1126(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Consenting Creditors have agreed to vote in favor of and support confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan which, upon implementation, provides for the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases substantially de-levered. Notably, the Prepackaged Plan provides that holders of general unsecured claims, including the Company's vendors, suppliers, and customers, will be unimpaired and receive payment of their prepetition claims and ongoing obligations in full.

10. The Debtors expect that the Prepackaged Plan will be accepted by all classes entitled to vote well in excess of the statutory thresholds specified in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Consistent with their obligations under the Restructuring Support Agreement and as set forth in more detail in the Motion of Debtors for Order (I) Scheduling Combined Hearing to Consider (A) Approval of Disclosure Statement, (B) Approval of Solicitation Procedures and Forms of Ballots, and (C) Confirmation of Prepackaged Plan; (II) Establishing an Objection Deadline to Object to Disclosure Statement and Plan; (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice of Combined Hearing, Objection Deadline, and Notice of Commencement; (IV) Conditionally Waiting Requirement of Filing Statement of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities; (V) Approving Notice of Objection Procedures for the Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; (VI) Conditionally Waiving Requirement to Convene the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors; and (VII) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 341, 521(a), 1125, 1126, and 1128 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 1007, 2002, 3017 and 3018 (the "Solicitation Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors are seeking to move as quickly and as efficiently as possible through the chapter 11 process and emerge from these chapter 11 cases on an expedited basis. The relief requested in this Motion, as well as in the Debtors' other "first day" pleadings, is intended to help maximize the benefits of the Prepackaged Plan by minimizing any unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' business during this expedited timeline.

Basis for Relief

A. Commercial Information

11. Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code is a codified exception to the general rule of access and protects entities from potential harm caused by the disclosure of confidential information. Specifically, section 107(b) provides, in relevant part:

> (b) On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court's own motion, the bankruptcy court may –
> (1) protect an entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information . . . .

11 U.S.C. § 107(b).

12. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 and Local Rule 9018-1 establish the procedure by which a party in interest may obtain a protective order authorizing the filing of a document under seal pursuant to section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 provides, in relevant part, "[o]n motion or its own initiative, with or without notice, the court may make any order which justice requires . . . to protect the estate or any entity in respect of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information." Fed. R. Bank. P. 9018.

13. Once the court determines that a party in interest is seeking protection of information that falls within one of the categories enumerated in section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, "the court is required to protect a requesting interested party and has no discretion to deny the application." Video Software Dealers Ass'n v. Orion Pictures Corp. (In re Orion Pictures Corp.), 21 F.3d 24, 27 (2d Cir. 1994) (emphasis in original).

14. Courts have held that protection under section 107(b) must be granted if the information sought to be protected is commercial information, and significantly, that commercial information need not rise to the level of a trade secret to be entitled to protection. See, e.g., Orion Pictures, 21 F.3d at 28 (finding that the use of the disjunctive in section 107(b)(1) "neither equates 'trade secret' with 'commercial information' nor requires the latter to reflect the same level of confidentiality as the former"). Furthermore, in contrast with Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require an entity seeking such protection to demonstrate "good cause." Id. Nor does section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code require a finding of "extraordinary circumstances or compelling need." Id. at 27.

15. Rather, a party seeking the protection of section 107(b) need only demonstrate that the information is "confidential" and "commercial" in nature. Id.; see also In re Glob. Crossing Ltd., 295 B.R. 720, 725 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (recognizing that the purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 9018 is to "protect business entities from disclosure of information that could reasonably be expected to cause the entity commercial injury"). Once the moving party establishes that the subject information qualifies as "commercial information" under section 107(b)(1), the Bankruptcy Code mandates that this information be protected from disclosure. See id. Moreover, this Court has previously held that the identities of a debtor's customers "are confidential commercial information as contemplated by section 107(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code." In re Altegrity, Inc., No. 15-10226 (LSS), 2015 WL 10963572, at *4 (Bankr. D. Del. July 6, 2015); see also Liveware Publ'g, Inc. v. Best Software, Inc., 252 F. Supp. 2d 74, 85 (D. Del. 2003) ("the customer list . . . is precisely the type of business information which is regularly accorded trade secret status"); cf. In re Northstar Energy, Inc., 315 B.R. 425, 429–30 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 2004) (authorizing sealing of the debtor's investor list because "disclosure would expose the heart and soul of the commercial operations of this Debtor"); id. at 430 ("Section 107(b) offers its protections for this very circumstance in order that such situated debtors need not face a Hopson's [sic] choice between the involuntary disclosure of vital business information as the quid pro quo of obtaining bankruptcy relief or exposure to economic hardships without the availability of bankruptcy relief in order to preserve the proprietary information upon which its business is based.").

B. Personal Information

16. Section 107(c)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court, "for cause, may protect an individual, with respect to the following types of information to the extent the court finds that disclosure of such information would create undue risk of identity theft or other unlawful injury to the individual or the individual's property: [a]ny means of identification . . . contained in a paper filed, or to be filed in a case under" the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 107(c)(1)(A).

17. Further, for European entities, the European Union's (the "EU") General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR") imposes significant restrictions on processing of personal data of individuals who are in the European Union, which includes the collection, maintenance, use, and dissemination of personal data. "Personal data" includes both names and addresses of individuals. See generally General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679. If an organization subject to the GDPR is found to have disclosed information in breach of the GDPR, the organization may be fined up to the greater of €20 million or, in the case of an undertaking, 4 percent of the total worldwide annual turnover of the preceding financial year. See General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 art. 83(5).

Relief Requested Should be Granted

18. Sufficient cause exists here for the Debtors to file under seal and to redact those portions of the Sealed Documents containing (a) the names and addresses of the Debtors' customers (the "Commercial Information"), and (b) names and home addresses for any of the Debtors' individual creditors (including the Debtors' current and former employees) who (i) are in the United Kingdom, Ireland, or other EU member countries, (ii) may reside in those countries, or (iii) may otherwise be subject to the protections of the GDPR or other similar foreign privacy laws, and (c) the home addresses of the Debtors' North American current and former employees ((b) and (c) together, the "Personal Information").

A. Commercial Information

19. Cause exists to file under seal and to redact the Commercial Information because such information constitutes "commercial information" within the meaning of section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors operate in a highly competitive learning management system software and learning content industry. Indeed, the Debtors have experienced customer attrition in recent years due to increased competition driven in part by the entry of global enterprise technology competitors into the Debtors' market. See First Day Declaration ¶ 33. As such, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors closely guard their customer lists and treat such lists as confidential, proprietary trade secrets. See In re Altegrity, Inc., 2015 WL 10963572, at *4 (debtors treated the identity of their customers as confidential). The Debtors' contracts with their customers also generally contain confidentiality provisions that limit the Debtors' ability to disclose the nature of their relationship with their customers.[3] See id. (debtors' customer relationships were subject to confidentiality agreements). Failure to comply with those provisions could harm the Debtors' relationships with their customers at a critical juncture in the Debtors' restructuring efforts and hinder the Debtors' chapter 11 messaging with their customers.

20. If filed publicly on the Court's docket, therefore, the Commercial Information would provide the Debtors' competitors: (a) a clear picture of who the Debtors' customers are, including those persons and entities who show a willingness to purchase software of the type offered by the Debtors; (b) the locations within the customer's operations where they interface with the Debtors; and (c) insight into the scope and type of work in which the Debtors and the customers are engaged. This would enable competitors to strategically target the Debtors' customers and attempt to secure them as their own. Accordingly, disclosure of such Commercial Information, particularly at this juncture, could severely impact the Debtors' ongoing business, put the Debtors at an enormous competitive disadvantage, and undermine their ability to reorganize in chapter 11. See, e.g., In re Altegrity, Inc., 2015 WL 10963572, at *4; In re Northstar Energy, Inc., 315 B.R. at 429–30. Like other recent cases, the Debtors seek to redact their customers' identities to maintain the lifeblood of the Debtors' business and prevent attrition and harm to their estates. See, e.g., In re CTI Foods, LLC, No. 19–10497 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 12, 2019) (D.I. 69) (authorizing redaction of customer information on creditor matrix and related affidavits of service); In re CST Indus. Holdings, Inc., No. 17–11292 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Sept. 15, 2017) (D.I. 465) (authorizing redaction of customer information on debtors' schedules and related affidavits of service); In re Lensar, Inc., No. 16–12808 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 30, 2017) (D.I. 126) (same).

[3] That notwithstanding, from time to time the Company may ask certain customers for permission or authorization to identify such organizations as customers on the Company's website or in other sales and marketing materials. The permission or authorization granted is generally restricted to the limited purpose allowed by the Company's contract with, or in a separate written authorization from, the customer.

21. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that good cause exists for the Court to grant them leave to file under seal and to redact those portions of the Sealed Documents containing the Commercial Information.

B. Personal Information

22. Cause also exists to authorize the Debtors to file under seal and to redact the Personal Information in the Sealed Documents.

23. First, the restrictions of the GDPR may apply to at least some of the Debtors, and thereby provide cause to redact the Personal Information. The GDPR applies to "a controller or a processor in the Union, regardless of whether the processing takes place in the Union or not." General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 art. 3(1). It also applies to processing the Personal Information of data subjects who are in the EU, even though the processor may not be, if the processing is related to the offering of goods or services within the EU. See id. art. 3(2). Accordingly, due to their organization in EU member states and significant operations in Europe, many of the Debtors could be subject to the restrictions of the GDPR. Disclosure of protected information (i.e., personal data) in violation of the GDPR falls within the very "unlawful injury" against which section 107(c) of the Bankruptcy Code seeks to protect. As noted above, the Debtors filed these chapter 11 cases to effectuate a restructuring through the Prepackaged Plan with minimal disruption to their businesses. This includes disruptions to those persons associated with the Debtors' business: their employees and individual customers or creditors. Failure to properly protect Personal Information in accordance with the GDPR also exposes the Debtors (and their estates) to a real risk of specific, quantifiable economic penalties, to say nothing of the reputational harm that could result from the Debtors' customers, suppliers, or employees learning of such a breach. This is a risk that the Debtors, as a global, cross-border business, cannot take.

24. Second, failure to properly redact the creditor matrix will result in the public disclosure of the home addresses of the North American Debtors' current and former employees, which the Debtors respectfully submit is sensitive information. This information could be used to, among other things, perpetuate identity theft, stalk the Debtors' employees, or locate an employee of the Debtors who may be a survivor of domestic violence. Although the Debtors are not currently aware of any such incidents affecting their employees, the human risk is not speculative, which this Court has acknowledged in several recent cases. See, e.g., Jan. 22, 2020 Hr'g Tr. at 24:21–25, In re Clover Techs. Grp., LLC, Case No. 19–12680 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 24, 2020) (D.I. 146) ("To me it is common sense. I don't need evidence that there is, at best, a risk of identity theft and worse a risk of personal injury from listing someone's name and address on the internet by way of the court's electronic case filing system and, of course, the claims agent's website."); Mar. 10, 2020 Hr'g Tr. at 25:6–7, 25:21–22 In re Art Van Furniture, LLC, Case No. 20–10553 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 11, 2020) (D.I. 82) ("I really don't view it as a burden of proof as much as a common sense issue" and noting "identity theft happens, it happens all the time"). Indeed, in one recent chapter 11 case, the abusive former partner of a debtor's employee was able to track down the employee to her new address using the address information in the publicly-filed documents in the chapter 11 case. See Motion ¶ 7, In re Charming Charlie Holdings Inc., Case No. 19–11534 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 11, 2019) (D.I. 4) (describing incident).

25. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that good cause exists for the Court to grant them leave to file under seal and to redact those portions of the Sealed Documents containing the Commercial Information and/or the Personal Information.

26. As noted above, the Sealed Documents are not limited to the Creditor Matrix but also include the Prospective Sealed Documents. The Debtors anticipate that, in connection with these chapter 11 cases, other documents will be filed that may include some or all of the Commercial Information and/or Personal Information. These could include, for example, affidavits or certificates of service, and the Debtors schedules of assets and liabilities. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the Debtors to redact and file under seal any filing during these chapter 11 cases that contains any of the Commercial Information or the Personal Information. To be clear, to the extent the Debtors wish to file under seal information that does not comprise the Commercial Information or Personal Information, even within a document otherwise containing Commercial Information or Personal Information, the Debtors will file a separate motion for authority to seal that information.

27. The Debtors will provide un-redacted versions of the Sealed Documents to the Court pursuant to Local Rule 9018-1 and will provide un-redacted versions of the Sealed Documents, on a confidential, professionals' eyes only basis, to the following parties: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee") and (b) counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Receiving Parties").

Compliance with Local Rule 9018-1(d)(ii)

28. To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the undersigned proposed counsel to the Debtors, the Sealed Documents do not contain information subject to the Confidentiality Rights of another Holder of Confidentiality Rights (each as defined in Local Rule 9018-1(d)(iii)). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there are any such Confidentiality Rights, then undersigned counsel respectfully certifies that they are unable to confer with all Holders of such Confidentiality Rights and that attempting to confer with all known or potential Holders of Confidentiality Rights would be futile due to the significant number of such Holders with respect to this Motion.

Notice

29. Notice of this Motion will be provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (iii) counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166 (Attn: Scott J. As this Motion is seeking "first day" relief, the Debtors will serve copies of this Motion and any order entered in respect of the Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

30. The Debtors respectfully submit that no further notice is required. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other Court.

PART I - OVERVIEW

1. This Pre-Hearing Brief is filed in support of an application by Skillsoft Canada, Ltd. ("Skillsoft Canada" or the "Applicant") in its capacity as the foreign representative of itself and of Skillsoft Corporation, Amber Holding Inc., Sumtotal Systems LLC, Mindleaders, Inc., Accero, Inc., Cybershift Holdings, Inc., Cybershift, Inc. (U.S.), Pointwell Limited, SSI Investments I Limited, SSI Investments II Limited, SSI Investments III Limited, Skillsoft Limited, Skillsoft Ireland Limited, Thirdforce Group Limited and Skillsoft U.K. Limited (collectively, the "Chapter 11 Debtors" and each, a "Chapter 11 Debtor"), companies that each commenced a case (the "Chapter 11 Cases") on June 14, 2020 (the "Petition Date") by filing voluntary petitions (the "Petitions") for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "US Court", and such proceedings in the US Court, the "US Proceedings"), for recognition of the US Proceedings as a foreign main proceeding and other relief under Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (the "CCAA").

2. Firstly, the Applicant seeks an order (the "Initial Recognition Order"), substantially in the form of the draft order attached at Exhibit "A" of the affidavit of John Frederick dated June 17, 2020, and filed in support of the present Application (the "Frederick Affidavit"; Tab 2 to the Application Record), for, inter alia:

(a) a declaration that Skillsoft Canada is a "foreign representative" as defined in section 45 of the CCAA in respect of the US Proceedings and is entitled to bring this Application pursuant to section 46 of the CCAA;

(b) recognition of the US Proceedings and a declaration that the US Proceedings are a "foreign main proceeding" pursuant to section 47 of the CCAA; and

(c) a stay of proceedings.

3. Secondly, the Applicant seeks an order (the "Supplemental Order"), substantially in the form of the draft order attached at Exhibit "B" of the Frederick Affidavit (Tab 2 to the Application Record), for, inter alia:

(a) a declaration that certain First Day Orders (as defined below), including the Interim DIP Order (as defined below), made in the US Proceedings have full force and effect in all provinces and territories of Canada;

(b) the appointment of Richter Advisory Group Inc. ("Richter") as the information officer (the "Information Officer") in connection with this proceeding;

(c) an Administration Charge and a DIP Lenders' Charge (each as defined below) on the assets, property and undertakings of the Chapter 11 Debtors in Canada (the "Property"); and

(d) additional relief, of a nature that is customary in the context of recognition proceedings under Part IV of the CCAA.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 8, Application Record, Tab 2.

6. The Company's North American headquarters are located in Nashua, New Hampshire (the "Company's Headquarters"). The Company operates in eleven (11) countries and has a total of approximately 2,200 employees worldwide.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 11, Application Record, Tab 2.

7. The Company's operations are mainly carried out in the United States, where its main business and corporate decisions are taken.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 13, Application Record, Tab 2.

8. The Company utilizes shared services across the globe. Shared services include functions such as human resources, finance, legal affairs, information technology, marketing, sales operations, and business applications. Shared services are predominantly administered from the Company's Headquarters, where approximately 45% of the shared services are administered.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 14, Application Record, Tab 2.

9. The Company also uses an integrated, centralized cash management system operated by the treasury team in the United States to collect, transfer and disburse funds generated by, and to fund the operation of, the Company (the "Cash Management System").

- Frederick Affidavit at para 15, Application Record, Tab 2.

10. Almost half of the Company's human resources employees, including its Chief People Officer, and the majority of the Company's assets are located in the United States.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 17-18, Application Record, Tab 2.

11. The Chapter 11 Debtors form part of the Company's corporate group and are incorporated either in the United States, in Canada, in Ireland or in the United Kingdom.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 19, Application Record, Tab 2.

12. As of the Petition Date, the Company's funded debt totaled approximately $2.1 billion.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 20, Application Record, Tab 2.

B. THE COMPANY'S CONNECTION WITH CANADA

13. Among the Chapter 11 Debtors is Skillsoft Canada, a company incorporated pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (New Brunswick), with a registered and physical office in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

- Skillsoft Canada's information card from the New Brunswick Corporate Affairs Registry (Exhibit "G" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2)
- Frederick Affidavit at para 26, Application Record, Tab 2.

14. Skillsoft Canada provides cloud-based learning solutions and talent management solutions for customers ranging from global enterprises, government, and educational institutions to mid-sized and small businesses and currently employs a total of 259 employees, of which 229 are located in Fredericton, New Brunswick, with the balance working remotely. These employees are non-unionized and Skillsoft Canada does not sponsor any pension plans for its employees.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 27-28, Application Record, Tab 2.

15. Skillsoft Canada is a borrower and a guarantor under certain pre-filing credit facilities, namely:

(a) a borrower and a guarantor of the First Lien Credit Agreement under which in excess of $1.3 billion is outstanding;

(b) a guarantor of the Second Lien Credit Agreement under which approximately $670 million principal amount is outstanding; and

(c) an "Originator" under the AR Facility Agreement under which approximately $68 million is outstanding.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 31-40, Application Record, Tab 2.

C. THE COMPANY'S FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES

16. As more fully described in the Frederick Affidavit and the Frederick Declaration, due to a variety of factors, including the increased competitiveness of the human capital management and enterprise e-learning markets and the adverse near-term business consequences from the macroeconomic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Company suffered a decline in revenue and faces short term liquidity issues.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 21-25, Application Record, Tab 2.

17. To address its financial difficulties caused by shifting market conditions and prior to the severe complications caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Company conducted a comprehensive review of its business model and, in April 2019, launched a transformation plan aimed at stabilizing the business. This plan produced positive results; however, these results alone were insufficient for the Company to surmount its financial challenges.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 23-24, Application Record, Tab 2.

D. THE COMPANY'S RESTRUCTURING

i. Pre-Filing Efforts

18. In the months leading up to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases and with the goal of stabilizing and improving the Company's business, as well as to allow further time for negotiations among the Company's stakeholders to bear fruit, the Company, with the assistance of its advisors, inter alia:

(a) maximized the use of its existing sources of credit in order to increase liquidity;

(b) launched a holistic, competitive marketing process for the sale of the Company's SumTotal business; and

(c) proactively engaged its key stakeholders, including entering in forbearance agreements with its principal secured lenders, to negotiate with the latter a comprehensive, consensual restructuring.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 41, Application Record, Tab 2.

19. In the past several weeks, faced with mounting debt service payments and decreased order intake and trade contraction attributable to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Company's liquidity has tightened, and it was close to falling below the minimum liquidity cushion that Company management and advisors have deemed necessary for the Company to continue operating its business in the ordinary course. These short-term liquidity issues precipitated the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 42, Application Record, Tab 2.

ii. Restructuring Support Agreement and Prepackaged Plan

20. On June 12, 2020, following extensive efforts and negotiations between the Company, its advisors and its principal secured lenders, a Restructuring Support Agreement (as amended from time to time and including all exhibits thereto, the "RSA") was executed pursuant to which a vast majority of the Company's principal secured lenders (collectively, the "Consenting Creditors") have agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the RSA, to vote in favor of the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization of Skillsoft Corporation and its Affiliates Debtors (the "Prepackaged Plan"), and provide certain additional liquidity to the Chapter 11 Debtors both during the Chapter 11 Cases and upon emergence.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 43, Application Record, Tab 2.

21. The terms of the Chapter 11 Debtors' restructuring are reflected in the Prepackaged Plan which will effect, upon its full implementation, a significant deleveraging of the Chapter 11

Debtors' capital structure by eliminating approximately USD $1.5 billion in principal amount of funded debt. Of significant importance for the purposes of this Application, it is not anticipated that the obligations owing to Skillsoft Canada's trade creditors or employees will be affected under the Prepackaged Plan.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 44 and 47, Application Record, Tab 2.

iii. Debtor-in-Possession Financing

22. Pursuant to that certain Secured Super-Priority Term Loan Debtor-In-Possession Loan Agreement to be entered into (as may be amended, restated, supplemented, amended and restated, waived or otherwise modified from time to time, the "DIP Credit Agreement"), certain of the Company's First Lien Lenders (in such capacity, the "DIP Lenders") have agreed to provide a $60 million debtor-in-possession credit facility (the "DIP Financing") to provide incremental liquidity to help fund the costs of the Chapter 11 Debtors' restructuring. The DIP Lenders have also agreed to provide the Company with exit financing, which consists of (i) $60 million to be used to fund the outstanding DIP Financing obligations and (ii) $50 million of incremental liquidity to the Company on the Effective Date (as defined in the Prepackaged Plan).

- Frederick Affidavit at para 48, Application Record, Tab 2.

23. In light of their liquidity issues, the Chapter 11 Debtors required immediate access to debtor-in-possession financing to ensure they have sufficient working capital to operate their businesses and to administer their estates. The DIP Financing is essential to ensure that the Chapter 11 Debtors have the liquidity necessary to, among other things, fund payroll and satisfy their working capital and general corporate requirements. Access to sufficient working capital and liquidity is necessary and vital to ensure the Chapter 11 Debtors' ability to operate their businesses prudently during the Chapter 11 Cases and the present Canadian recognition proceedings.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 49 and 52, Application Record, Tab 2.

24. On June 16, 2020, the US Court granted, as part of the First Day Orders, the Interim Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Utilize Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Parties, (IV) Modifying Automatic Stay, (V) Scheduling Final Hearing, and (VI) Granting Related Relief attached at Tab "NN" of the US Compendium (the "Interim DIP Order"), which, inter alia, (i) authorized the Chapter 11 Debtors to enter into the DIP Credit Agreement and (ii) granted to the DIP Agent (as defined in the Interim DIP Order), for the benefit of the DIP Lenders to secure the obligations under the DIP Financing, valid, enforceable, binding, non-avoidable, and fully perfected first priority priming liens on and senior security interests in substantially all of the property of the Chapter 11 Debtors, including the property of Skillsoft Canada.

iv. Negotiations with a Potential Third Party Purchaser

25. In addition to the foregoing, the Company, with the support of the Consenting Creditors, has entered into an exclusivity agreement with a potential third party purchaser of substantially all of the Company's business and is continuing negotiations with this party regarding a potential Alternative Transaction (as defined in the RSA).

- Frederick Affidavit at para 54, Application Record, Tab 2.

26. If the ongoing negotiations with the third party are ultimately successful, the Company may seek to amend, inter alia, the Prepackaged Plan (to the extent it obtains the support of the Consenting Creditors) to reflect the Alternative Transaction prior to the Prepackaged Plan's confirmation hearing before the US Court.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 56, Application Record, Tab 2.

E. CURRENT STATUS OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

27. On the Petition Date, each of the Chapter 11 Debtors commenced the Chapter 11 Cases by filing the Petitions for relief under the Bankruptcy Code with the US Court.

28. Contemporaneously with or shortly following the filing of the Petitions in the Chapter 11 Cases, the Chapter 11 Debtors filed first day motions (the "First Day Motions") with the US Court.

29. On June 16, 2020, the US Court entered various orders in respect of the First Day Motions (the "First Day Orders"), which First Day Orders are attached at Exhibit "J" to the Frederick Affidavit (Application Record, Tab 2).

30. Pursuant to the terms of the RSA and the DIP Credit Agreement, Skillsoft Canada, in its capacity as foreign representative of itself and the other Chapter 11 Debtors, is required to commence before this Court the present recognition proceedings under Part IV of the CCAA and to seek the issuance of the Initial Recognition Order and Supplemental Order. The granting of the Initial Recognition Order and Supplemental Order by this Court is a condition precedent to the effectiveness of the Prepackaged Plan.

- Restructuring Support Agreement, Exhibit "H" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2.

31. Accordingly, pursuant to the Order Authorizing Skillsoft Canada, Ltd. to Act as Foreign Representative on Behalf of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1505 (the "Foreign Representative Order") attached at Tab "X" of the US Compendium (Exhibit "J" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2), Skillsoft Canada was appointed by the US Court to act as "foreign representative" on behalf of the Chapter 11 Debtors in the present Canadian recognition proceedings.

PART III - ISSUES

32. The issues before this Court, as addressed below, are:

(a) Is New Brunswick the proper jurisdiction for these recognition proceedings?

(b) Should this Court recognize the US Proceedings as a "foreign main proceeding" pursuant to Part IV of the CCAA?

(c) Should the Initial Recognition Order be granted, which, inter alia:

(i) declares that Skillsoft Canada is a "foreign representative";

(ii) recognizes and declares that the US Proceedings are a foreign main proceeding pursuant to s. 47 of the CCAA; and

(iii) grants a stay of proceedings.

(d) Should the Supplemental Order be granted, which, inter alia:

(i) declares that the First Day Orders, including the Interim DIP Order, made in the US Proceedings have full force and effect in all provinces and territories of Canada;

(ii) appoints Richter as the Information Officer in connection with this proceeding;

(iii) grants an Administration Charge and a DIP Lenders' Charge on the Property; and

(iv) grants additional relief, of a nature that is customary in the context of recognition proceedings under Part IV of the CCAA.

PART IV - THE LAW

A. NEW BRUNSWICK IS THE PROPER JURISDICTION FOR THESE PROCEEDINGS

33. New Brunswick is the proper jurisdiction for these recognition proceedings in Canada.

34. Pursuant to s. 9(1) of the CCAA, an application under the CCAA is to be made:

> […] to the court that has jurisdiction in the province within which the head office or chief place of business of the company in Canada is situated, or, if the company has no place of business in Canada, in any province within which any assets of the company are situated.

- CCAA, s. 9(1).

35. Skillsoft Canada is a company incorporated pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (New Brunswick), with its registered and physical office in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

- Skillsoft Canada's information card from the New Brunswick Corporate Affairs Registry (Exhibit "G" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2).

36. Skillsoft Canada also conducts its business operations in New Brunswick and employs a total of 259 employees, of which 229 employees are located in Fredericton, with the balance working remotely.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 28, Application Record, Tab 2.

37. Accordingly, New Brunswick is the proper jurisdiction for these recognition proceedings in Canada.

B. THE US PROCEEDINGS SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED

38. Part IV of the CCAA is founded on the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency (1997). It establishes a process for addressing the administration of cross-border and multi-national insolvencies in a coordinated and cooperative manner with foreign courts.

- CCAA, s. 44.

39. The underlying basis of Part IV of the CCAA is the principle of comity and cooperation between courts of various jurisdictions, whereby a Canadian court will accord respect to "the overall thrust of foreign bankruptcy and insolvency legislation in any analysis, unless in substance generally it is so different from the bankruptcy and insolvency law of Canada or perhaps because the legal process that generates the foreign order diverges radically from the process here in Canada." Cooperation between courts under Part IV of the CCAA promotes the "fair and efficient administration of cross-border insolvencies" and the "protection and maximization of the value of the debtors' property."

- CCAA, s. 44.

- Babcock & Wilcox Canada Ltd., Re, 2000 CanLII 22482 (ON SC) at para 21 (CanLII).
- MtGox Co., Ltd. (Re), 2014 ONSC 5811 at paras 10-12 (CanLII).

i. The Criteria of "Foreign Proceeding" and "Foreign Representative" are Satisfied

40. Pursuant to section 46(1) of the CCAA, a foreign representative may apply to the court for recognition of a foreign proceeding in respect of which that person is a foreign representative.

- CCAA, s. 46(1).

41. Section 47(1) of the CCAA provides that the Court shall make an order recognizing a foreign insolvency proceeding if two requirements are met: (i) the proceeding is a "foreign proceeding"; and (ii) the applicant is a "foreign representative".

- CCAA, s. 47(1).

(a) The US Proceedings are a "Foreign Proceeding"

42. Section 45(1) of the CCAA defines a "foreign proceeding" as follows:

> […] a judicial or an administrative proceeding, including an interim proceeding, in a jurisdiction outside Canada dealing with creditors' collective interests generally under any law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency in which a debtor company's business and financial affairs are subject to control or supervision by a foreign court for the purpose of reorganization.

- CCAA, s. 45(1), "foreign proceeding".

43. Canadian courts have consistently recognized proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code as foreign proceedings for the purposes of the CCAA.

- Hollander Sleep Products, LLC et al., Re, 2019 ONSC 3238 at para 27 [Hollander] (CanLII).
- Purdue Pharma L.P., Re., 2019 ONSC 7042 [Purdue] (CanLII).
- Ultra Petroleum Corp., 2017 YKSC 9 (CanLII).

- Probe Resources Ltd. (Re), 2011 BCSC 552 [Probe] (CanLII).
- Gyro-Trac (USA) Inc. et Raymond Chabot inc., 2010 QCCS 1311 (CanLII).

44. The US Proceedings satisfy the criteria of a "foreign proceeding." They are judicial proceedings in a foreign jurisdiction being conducted under the supervision of the US Court pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, and they are "for the purpose of reorganization".

45. In this case, the Chapter 11 Debtors have already presented a reorganization plan, the Prepackaged Plan, to their principal secured creditors. The Prepackaged Plan sets out the terms of the Chapter 11 Debtors' restructuring and reorganization to allow them to continue funding their operations and emerge from the US Proceedings with a significantly de-leveraged capital structure.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 43-44, Application Record, Tab 2.
- Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization of Skillsoft Corporation and its Affiliates Debtors (Exhibit "I" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2)

46. Based on the foregoing, the US Proceedings are a "foreign proceeding" for the purposes of section 45(1) of the CCAA.

(b) The Applicant is a "Foreign Representative"

47. The second requirement under section 47 of the CCAA is that the Applicant be a "foreign representative" in respect of the foreign proceeding. A "foreign representative" is defined as:

> […] a person or body, including one appointed on an interim basis, who is authorized, in a foreign proceeding respect of a debtor company, to
> > (a) monitor the debtor company's business and financial affairs for the purpose of reorganization; or
> >
> > (b) act as a representative in respect of the foreign proceeding.

- CCAA, s. 45(1), "foreign representative".

48. In the present instance, Skillsoft Canada meets the definition in section 45(1) of the CCAA as it has been authorized by the US Court to act as the Chapter 11 Debtors' representative in respect of the present Canadian recognition proceedings.

- Order Authorizing Skillsoft Canada, Ltd. to Act as Foreign Representative on Behalf of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1505 attached at Tab "X" of the US Compendium (Exhibit "J" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2).

49. Pursuant to the foregoing, the US Proceedings are a "foreign proceeding" and the Applicant is a "foreign representative". Accordingly, it is submitted that this Court should recognize the US Proceedings as a "foreign proceeding" within the meaning of section 47(1) of the CCAA.

ii. The US Proceedings are a "Foreign Main Proceeding"

50. If the Court grants an order under section 47(1) of the CCAA, section 47(2) of the CCAA requires that the Court specify whether the foreign proceeding is a "foreign main proceeding" or a "foreign non-main proceeding". If a foreign proceeding is recognized as a "foreign main proceeding", then the Court shall make an order staying any action, suit or proceeding against the debtor(s) in Canada by operation of section 48(1) of the CCAA.

- CCAA, s. 47(1), 47(2) and 48(1).

51. Section 45(1) of the CCAA provides that a "foreign main proceeding" is a foreign proceeding in a jurisdiction where the debtor company has the "centre of its main interests" ("COMI").

- CCAA, s. 45(1).

52. The CCAA does not provide a definition of COMI; however, section 45(2) of the CCAA establishes that, in the absence of proof to the contrary, the location of a debtor company's registered office is deemed to be its COMI.

- CCAA, s. 45(2).

53. The presumption created by section 45(2) CCAA to the effect that the COMI is located at the debtor's registered office "can be rebutted if there are factors which, viewed objectively by third parties, would lead to the conclusion that the centre of main interest is other than at the location of the registered office".

- Probe, supra at para 21 (CanLII).

54. When determining whether the section 45(2) CCAA presumption has been rebutted, the following main factors have been considered by Canadian courts:

(a) the location of the debtor's headquarters or head office functions or nerve centre;

(b) the location of the debtor's management; and

(c) the location which significant creditors recognize as being the centre of the company's operations.

- Massachusetts Elephant & Castle Group, Inc. (Re), 2011 ONSC 4201 at para 30 [Elephant & Castle] (CanLII).

- Hollander, supra at para 33 (CanLII).

55. In addition to the above principal factors, Canadian courts have made reference to the following factors in conducting the COMI analysis:

(a) The location where corporate decisions are made;

(b) The location of employee administrations, including human resource functions;

(c) The location of the company's marketing and communication functions;

(d) Whether the enterprise is managed on a consolidated basis;

(e) The extent of integration of an enterprise's international operations;

(f) The centre of an enterprise's corporate, banking, strategic and management functions;

(g) The existence of shared management within entities and in an organization;

(h) The location where cash management and accounting functions are overseen;

(i) The location where pricing decisions and new business development initiatives are created; and

(j) The seat of an enterprise's treasury management functions, including management of accounts receivable and accounts payable.

56. While Skillsoft Canada's registered office is in Canada, and several other Chapter 11 Debtors have their registered offices outside of the United States, the evidence is clear that each Chapter 11 Debtor's (including Skillsoft Canada's) COMI is in the United States, notwithstanding the location of its registered office, namely:

(a) The Chapter 11 Debtors' operations are mainly carried out in the United States and the main business and corporate decisions in respect of the Chapter 11 Debtors, including Skillsoft Canada, are made in that jurisdiction;

(b) The Chapter 11 Debtors operate shared services across the globe, which include functions such as human resources, finance, legal affairs, information technology, marketing, sales operations, and business applications. The most significant location where shared services are administered is the Company's Headquarters in the United States, where approximately 45% of the shared services are administered;

(c) The Chapter 11 Debtors use an integrated, centralized Cash Management System operated by the treasury team in the United States to collect, transfer and disburse funds generated by them, including among others, Skillsoft Canada;

(d) Within the Company, almost half of the human resources employees, including the Company's Chief People Officer, are based in the Company's Headquarters;

(e) There are no senior management personnel employed by Skillsoft Canada or located in Canada;

(f) All of Skillsoft Canada's accounts payable and accounts receivable are managed from the Company's Headquarters;

(g) The majority of the Company's assets are located in the United States;

(h) The Chapter 11 Debtors' assets and operations are highly interconnected with the Company's global operations and are mainly situated and conducted in the United States;

(i) Skillsoft Canada's directors and a significant portion of the other Chapter 11 Debtors' directors reside in the United States;

(j) The location that significant creditors of the Chapter 11 Debtors recognize as being the center of the Company's operations is the United States, as appears from the support provided to the relief sought in the present proceedings by the principal secured creditors of the Chapter 11 Debtors; and

(k) Pursuant to the Foreign Representative Order, the US Court requested, inter alia, the aid and assistance of the Canadian Court to recognize the Chapter 11 Cases as a "foreign main proceeding".

- Order Authorizing Skillsoft Canada, Ltd. to Act as Foreign Representative on Behalf of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1505 attached at Tab "X" of the US Compendium (Exhibit "J" to the Frederick Affidavit).
- Frederick Affidavit at paras 11, 13-18 and 64-71, Application Record, Tab 2.
- First Report of the Proposed Information Officer at paras 41-42 and 45-46.

57. Canadian courts have on several occasions found that debtor companies with registered offices in Canada, but which are part of a centrally-managed and integrated corporate structure based in the United States, have their COMI in the United States.

- Lightsquared LP (Re), 2012 ONSC 2994 at para 31 [Lightsquared] (CanLII).
- Elephant & Castle, supra at para 32 (CanLII).

- Re Xerium Technologies Inc., 2010 ONSC 3974 at para 27 (CanLII).
- Hollander, supra at paras 35-36 (CanLII).

58. Based on the foregoing, the Applicant submits that the COMI of Skillsoft Canada and each Chapter 11 Debtor is in the United States and, accordingly, the US Proceedings should be recognized as a "foreign main proceeding".

C. THE INITIAL RECOGNITION ORDER AND SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER SHOULD BE GRANTED

59. The Applicant submits that the Initial Recognition Order and Supplemental Order (collectively, the "Orders") recognizing the US Proceedings as a foreign main proceeding and granting related relief should be granted by this Court. Included in the Orders are, among other things:

(a) a stay of proceedings in favour of the Chapter 11 Debtors;

(b) the appointment of the Information Officer;

(c) the recognition of the First Day Orders in Canada, including the Interim DIP Order; and

(d) the granting of an Administration Charge and a DIP Lenders' Charge on the Property.

60. Skillsoft Canada submits that this honourable Court should exercise its discretion to grant such relief.

i. A Stay of Proceedings is Required and Appropriate

61. A stay of proceedings and customary related relief consistent with a model CCAA initial order in Canada is necessary to ensure the proper and efficient administration of the Chapter 11 Debtors' reorganization efforts. Refusal to grant this relief would endanger these efforts not only in Canada, but also in the United States, and would frustrate the purpose of Part IV of the CCAA.

- Hollander, supra at para 41 (CanLII).
- Purdue, supra at para 21 (CanLII).

62. Section 48(1) of the CCAA provides that once the Court has found that a foreign proceeding is a "foreign main proceeding", it is required to grant certain relief, including a stay of proceedings.

- CCAA, s. 48(1).
- Hollander, supra at para 37 (CanLII).

63. In addition to the stay relief provided for in section 48 of the CCAA, section 49 of the CCAA grants this Court with the broad discretion to make any order that it considers appropriate, if it is satisfied that the order is necessary for the protection of the debtor company's property or the interests of creditors. The Court may make such orders on any terms and conditions that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances.

- CCAA, s. 49(1) and 50.
- Hollander, supra at para 38 (CanLII).

64. Finally, section 52(1) of the CCAA requires that if an order recognizing a foreign proceedings is made, the Court "shall cooperate, to the maximum extent possible, with the foreign representative and the foreign court involved in the foreign proceeding."

- CCAA, s. 52(1).
- Hollander, supra at paras 41-42 (CanLII).
- Purdue, supra at para 21 (CanLII).

65. In light of the requirements of the CCAA and the exigencies of the circumstances facing the Chapter 11 Debtors, it is appropriate to grant a stay of proceedings and customary relief consistent with a model CCAA initial order to facilitate the Chapter 11 Debtors' reorganization.

ii. Richter Should Be Appointed Information Officer

66. Courts have previously used the broad discretion granted to them under section 49(1) of the CCAA to appoint information officers. Section 50 of the CCAA requires that any such orders be made on "terms and conditions that the court considers appropriate in the circumstances".

- Lightsquared, supra at paras 35, 37 (CanLII).
- Hollander, supra at para 55 (CanLII).
- CCAA s. 49(1).
- CCAA, s. 50.

67. An information officer helps effect cooperation between the Canadian foreign recognition proceeding and the foreign representative and foreign court, as required by section 52(1) of the CCAA.

- CCAA, s. 52(1).
- Digital Domain Media Group Inc. (Re), 2012 BCSC 1565 at para 32 (CanLII).

68. The Applicant seeks to appoint Richter as the Information Officer in this proceeding. Richter is a certified trustee in bankruptcy in Canada, and its principals have acted as information officers in several previous ancillary proceedings. Richter has consented to act as the Information Officer.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 87-88, Application Record, Tab 2.
- Richter's Consent (Exhibit "K" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2).

69. The Information Officer will facilitate cooperation between this Court and the US Court. The Information Officer will also provide information to the Court, creditors and stakeholders as is necessary and appropriate in a cross-border restructuring.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 88, Application Record, Tab 2.

70. The Information Officer will file reports with the Court prior to each hearing, informing the Court, inter alia, of matters affecting Canadian stakeholders and of any material developments in the Chapter 11 Debtors' restructuring in the United States.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 89, Application Record, Tab 2.

71. It is appropriate for the Court to exercise its discretion and appoint Richter as the Information Officer in this proceeding.

iii. The First Day Orders Should Be Recognized

72. Canadian Courts have previously used the broad discretion granted to them under section 49(1) of the CCAA to recognize orders rendered by foreign Courts in the context of the "foreign main proceedings".

- Lightsquared, supra at paras 35, 36 (CanLII).
- Hollander, supra at para 43 (CanLII).
- CCAA, s. 49(1).

73. The recognition of the First Day Orders is necessary to ensure the proper and efficient administration of the Chapter 11 Debtors' reorganization efforts and consistent treatment as between stakeholders in the United States and Canada. The recognition of the First Day Orders is also appropriate in the circumstances, given that:

(a) the US Court has appropriately taken jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases, so comity will be furthered by this Court's recognition of and support for the Chapter 11 Cases already under way in the United States;

(b) coordination of proceedings in the United States and Canada will ensure equal and fair treatment of all stakeholders;

(c) it is reasonable and sensible for the US Court to have principal control over the insolvency process given the close connection between the Chapter 11 Debtors and the United States. This principal control will produce the most efficient restructuring for the benefit of all stakeholders;

(d) it is imperative that there be a centralized and coordinated process for these insolvency proceedings to maximize the prospect of a successful restructuring and preserve value for stakeholders; and

(e) the Chapter 11 Debtors' operations are highly integrated.

- Hollander, supra at para 43 (CanLII).

74. Therefore, it is appropriate for this Court to exercise its discretion and declare that the First Day Orders rendered in the US Proceedings have full force and effect in all provinces and territories of Canada.

iv. The Administration Charge Should Be Granted

75. The Applicant is seeking a first-ranking charge on the Property in the maximum amount of CAD$150,000 to secure the fees and disbursements of the proposed Information Officer and its counsel in connection with services rendered in the present Canadian recognition proceedings (the "Administration Charge").

- Frederick Affidavit at para 73, Application Record, Tab 2.

76. The Administration Charge is proposed to rank in priority to any other security interest, trust, lien, charge and encumbrance on the Property, including the DIP Lenders' Charge.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 74, Application Record, Tab 2.

77. The Applicant has worked with the proposed Information Officer to estimate the proposed quantum of the Administration Charge. The proposed Information Officer has reviewed the quantum of the Administration Charge and believes it is reasonable and appropriate in view of the complexities of the Chapter 11 Debtors' CCAA recognition proceedings and the services to be provided by the beneficiaries of the Administration Charge.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 75-76, Application Record, Tab 2.
- First Report of the Proposed Information Officer at para 82.

78. Section 11.52 of the CCAA provides statutory jurisdiction to grant such a charge:

> 11.52(1) Court may order security or charge to cover certain costs — On notice to the secured creditors who are likely to be affected by the security or charge, the court may make an order declaring that all or part of the property of a debtor company is subject to a security or charge — in an amount that the court considers appropriate — in respect of the fees and expenses of
> > (a) the monitor, including the fees and expenses of any financial, legal or other experts engaged by the monitor in the performance of the monitor's duties;
> >
> > (b) any financial, legal or other experts engaged by the company for the purpose of proceedings under this Act; and
> > (c) any financial, legal or other experts engaged by any other interested person if the court is satisfied that the security or charge is necessary for their effective participation in proceedings under this Act.
>
> 11.52(2) Priority — This court may order that the security or charge rank in priority over the claim of any secured creditor of the company.

- CCAA, s. 11.52.

79. In Canwest Publishing, Pepall J. identified six non-exhaustive factors that the Court may consider in addition to section 11.52 of the CCAA when determining whether to grant an administration charge:

(a) the size and complexity of the business being restructured;

(b) the proposed role of the beneficiaries of the charge;

(c) whether there is an unwarranted duplication of roles;

(d) whether the quantum of the proposed charge appears to be fair and reasonable;

(e) the position of the secured creditors likely to be affected by the charge; and

(f) the position of the monitor.

- Canwest Publishing Inc, Re, 2010 ONSC 222 at para 54 (CanLII).

80. In the present matter, the following factors support the granting of the Administration Charge as requested:

(a) the proposed restructuring involves cross-border matters, which will require the extensive involvement of the Information Officer and its counsel, who will not only will facilitate cooperation between this Court and the US Court, but also file reports with the Court prior to each hearing, informing the Court and stakeholders, inter alia, of matters affecting the Canadian stakeholders and of any material developments in the Chapter 11 Debtors' restructuring in the United States;

(b) there is no anticipated unwarranted duplication of roles;

(c) the Administration Charge will rank in priority to the DIP Lenders' Charge and any existing secured creditors, all of whom were provided with notice that Skillsoft Canada was commencing this Application for recognition proceedings pursuant to the CCAA; and

(d) the Information Officer supports the Administration Charge and its proposed quantum.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 73-77 and 87-90, Application Record, Tab 2.

- First Report of the Proposed Information Officer at para 82.

81. In light of the above, the Applicant submits that the Administration Charge sought should be granted by this Court.

v. Interim DIP Financing and DIP Charge

82. In addition to the above, the Applicant is seeking from this Court:

(a) the recognition of the Interim DIP Order in Canada; and

(b) the granting of a super-priority charge in favour of the Collateral Agent (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), for and on behalf of itself, the Administrative Agent (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) and the DIP Lenders on the Property (the "DIP Lenders' Charge") in these proceedings as security for the obligations of the Chapter 11 Debtors under the DIP Financing.

(a) Recognition of the Interim DIP Order

83. As mentioned above, Canadian Courts have previously used the broad discretion granted to them under section 49(1) of the CCAA to recognize orders rendered by foreign Courts in the context of the "foreign main proceedings".

- Lightsquared, supra at paras 35, 36 (CanLII).
- Hollander, supra at para 43 (CanLII).
- CCAA, s. 49(1).

84. The recognition of the Interim DIP Order is necessary to ensure the proper and efficient administration of the Chapter 11 Debtors' reorganization efforts. The recognition of the Interim DIP Order is also appropriate in the circumstances given that:

(a) immediate access to incremental liquidity pursuant to the DIP Financing is critical to maximizing value and facilitating a going-concern restructuring. Without immediate access to DIP Financing, the Chapter 11 Debtors, including Skillsoft Canada, would face significant near term liquidity challenges and their ability to operate their business in the normal course while seeking to implement the Prepackaged Plan would be undermined, thereby harming the Chapter 11 Debtors' ability to preserve and maximize value for the benefit of their stakeholders, including the stakeholders of Skillsoft Canada;

(b) the DIP Financing represents the best available option for the Chapter 11 Debtors to address their short-term liquidity challenges and will maximize value in the circumstances;

(c) the Company, with guidance from its advisors, actively negotiated the terms of the DIP Financing proposal and was able to obtain concessions from the DIP Lenders on a number of key provisions. The Chapter 11 Debtors ultimately obtained a reasonable proposal from the DIP Lenders that meets the Company's liquidity needs at this critical juncture;

(d) the Chapter 11 Debtors, in consultation with their professionals, reviewed and analyzed their projected cash needs and prepared an initial analysis of the amount of cash that would be reasonably required to complete the prepackaged Chapter 11 Cases (including these recognition proceedings). Based on this analysis, the Chapter 11 Debtors determined they would be unable to fund their restructuring efforts with cash on hand and would need incremental liquidity in the form of DIP Financing;

(e) while the only borrower under the DIP Financing is Skillsoft, the DIP Credit Agreement contemplates that the obligations under the DIP Financing will be jointly and severally guaranteed by certain of Skillsoft's subsidiaries and affiliates, including Skillsoft Canada. Although Skillsoft Canada is not a borrower under the DIP Financing, it is contemplated that the proceeds of the loans under the DIP Financing may provide working capital for (among others) all of the Chapter 11 Debtors, including Skillsoft Canada, as well as to fund the expenses of these proceedings;

(f) Skillsoft Canada is a borrower under the First Lien Credit Agreement and a guarantor of the First Lien Borrowers' obligations thereunder, as well as a guarantor of the Second Lien Borrowers' obligations under the Second Lien Credit Agreement, and, as such, Skillsoft Canada's assets are already significantly encumbered. Nevertheless, the vast majority of the First Lien Lenders and Second Lien Lenders have agreed to support the Chapter 11 Debtors' restructuring proceedings, including the terms of the DIP Financing, as contemplated by the RSA;

(g) It is contemplated that the obligations owing to Skillsoft Canada's trade creditors and employees will not be affected by the Prepackaged Plan or by the issuance of the DIP Lender's Charge over Skillsoft Canada's assets;

(h) the DIP Lenders are a subset of the First Lien Lenders;

(i) the recognition of the Interim DIP Order is a milestone pursuant to the DIP Financing, and is also required pursuant to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement; and

(j) if the requested relief is not granted, the entire restructuring of the Chapter 11 Debtors will be jeopardized. As Skillsoft Canada's operations are wholly intertwined with those of the other Chapter 11 Debtors, Skillsoft Canada's continued viability will be negatively impacted.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 49-53, 79-83, 86 Application Record, Tab 2.
- Restructuring Support Agreement, Exhibit "H" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2.

85. In addition, Canadian courts have emphasized the importance of avoiding second-guessing the decision of a United States court which has approved DIP financing after having considered the interests of all the parties. Recognizing a United States court-approved DIP financing accords with the principle of comity which is at the heart of Part IV of the CCAA.

- Hollander, supra at paras 47-48 (CanLII).
- Hartford Computer Hardware, Inc. (Re), 2012 ONSC 964 at paras 12, 14 (CanLII).

86. It is appropriate for this Court to exercise its discretion and declare that the Interim DIP Order rendered by the US Court has full force and effect in all provinces and territories of Canada.

(b) Granting of the DIP Lender's Charge

87. Pursuant to the RSA and the DIP Credit Agreement, Skillsoft Canada is required to seek the DIP Lenders' Charge in these proceedings as security for the obligations of the Chapter 11 Debtors under the DIP Financing.

- Restructuring Support Agreement, Exhibit "H" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2.

88. It is proposed that the DIP Lenders' Charge will constitute a charge on the Property that will rank in priority to all claims of any nature or kind against the Property, subject only to the Administration Charge.

89. This Court's authority to authorize funding in the context of a CCAA restructuring is found in sections 11.2(1) and 11.2(2) of the CCAA, which expressly permit the granting of a charge over the property of a debtor that ranks in priority to the claims of any secured creditor.

- CCAA, s. 11.2(1) and 11.2(2).

90. In considering whether to approve DIP financing secured by a priority charge, the Court is to consider the non-exhaustive list of factors set out in s. 11.2(4) of the CCAA:

> Factors to be considered
>
> 11.2 (4) In deciding whether to make an order, the court is to consider, among other things,
>
> (a) the period during which the company is expected to be subject to proceedings under this Act;
>
> (b) how the company's business and financial affairs are to be managed during the proceedings;
>
> (c) whether the company's management has the confidence of its major creditors;
>
> (d) whether the loan would enhance the prospects of a viable compromise or arrangement being made in respect of the company;
> (e) the nature and value of the company's property;
>
> (f) whether any creditor would be materially prejudiced as a result of the security or charge; and
>
> (g) the monitor's report referred to in paragraph 23(1)(b), if any.

- CCAA, s. 11.2(4).

91. Canadian Courts frequently exercise their authority to approve DIP financing that is secured by a priority charge on the debtor company's assets. A recent post-November 2019 case where the Court has approved DIP financing is Re Clover Leaf Holdings Company.

- Re Clover Leaf Holdings Company, 2019 ONSC 6966 at paras 20-23 (CanLII).

92. Based on the following factors, the DIP Lenders' Charge should be approved:

(a) the DIP Lenders' Charge is necessary in order for the Chapter 11 Debtors to obtain incremental financing pursuant to the DIP Financing to finance their restructuring proceedings and implement the Prepackaged Plan;

(b) the Information Officer is supportive of the DIP Lenders' Charge;

(c) there is no "roll-up" contemplated by the DIP Credit Agreement and, as such, the DIP Lenders' Charge does not secure an obligation that existed before the Chapter 11 Cases;

(d) the granting of the DIP Lenders' Charge is consistent with this Court's proposed recognition of the Interim DIP Order and an extension of comity in that regard;

(e) the granting of the DIP Lenders' Charge is a condition precedent to the effectiveness of the Prepackaged Plan, and is also required pursuant to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement; and

(f) the Applicant has provided notice of the proposed DIP Lenders' Charge to affected secured creditors as required under s. 11.2(1) of the CCAA.

- Frederick Affidavit at para 86, Application Record, Tab 2.
- Restructuring Support Agreement, Exhibit "H" to the Frederick Affidavit, Application Record, Tab 2.
- First Report of the Proposed Information Officer at para 85.

93. Moreover, key factors distinguish this case from Payless Holdings Inc. LLC, (Re)[2], in which Regional Senior Justice Morawetz (as he then was) of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice declined to approve a DIP order and lenders' charge in the context of a proceeding under Part IV of the CCAA.

94. In Payless, the DIP order and lenders' charge sought would have required the solvent Canadian applicants to guarantee borrowings from the DIP facility even though they would not receive advances from it. The DIP facility was opposed by the Canadian landlords who were prejudiced by its terms.

95. The Court's decision in Payless is distinguishable from this case for the following reasons:

(a) In Payless, the Canadian applicants were not insolvent, were not prepetition borrowers, had never granted security and were not borrowers under the DIP facility. In this case:

---

[2] Payless Holdings LLC (Re), 2017 ONSC 2321 (CanLII).

(i) Skillsoft Canada is insolvent;

(ii) Skillsoft Canada is a prepetition borrower and/or guarantor under the First Lien Credit Agreement, the Second Lien Credit Agreement and the AR Facility Agreement;

(iii) Skillsoft Canada's assets are already significantly encumbered in connection with the above noted credit facilities;

(iv) Skillsoft Canada will benefit from the DIP Financing, as it is contemplated that the proceeds of the loans under the DIP Financing may be utilized to providing working capital for (among others) all of the Chapter 11 Debtors, including Skillsoft Canada, as well as to fund the expenses of these proceedings;

(b) In Payless, there was evidence of material prejudice to Canadian creditors and certain Canadian creditors opposed the DIP order because they were disadvantaged. In this case, no such material prejudice or unequal treatment exists with respect to the creditors of Skillsoft Canada or the other Chapter 11 Debtors. To the contrary:

(i) the principal secured lenders of the Chapter 11 Debtors, including Skillsoft Canada, support the present Application and the granting of the DIP Lenders' Charge; and

(ii) it is not anticipated that the obligations owing to Skillsoft Canada's trade creditors or employees will be affected under the Prepackaged Plan.

- Frederick Affidavit at paras 21-40, 43-47 and 80 Application Record, Tab 2.
- Hollander, supra at paras 52-53 (CanLII).

96. Therefore, it is appropriate and reasonable to grant the DIP Lenders' Charge in the present circumstances.

PART V - ORDER SOUGHT

97. For the foregoing reasons, the Applicant requests that this Honourable Court grant the Initial Recognition Order and Supplemental Order.

ALL OF WHICH IS RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 17th day of June, 2020.

SCHEDULE "B" RELEVANT STATUTES

Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act*, RSC 1985, c C-36:

Jurisdiction of court to receive applications

9 (1) Any application under this Act may be made to the court that has jurisdiction in the province within which the head office or chief place of business of the company in Canada is situated, or, if the company has no place of business in Canada, in any province within which any assets of the company are situated.

Interim financing

11.2 (1) On application by a debtor company and on notice to the secured creditors who are likely to be affected by the security or charge, a court may make an order declaring that all or part of the company's property is subject to a security or charge — in an amount that the court considers appropriate — in favour of a person specified in the order who agrees to lend to the company an amount approved by the court as being required by the company, having regard to its cash-flow statement. The security or charge may not secure an obligation that exists before the order is made.

Priority — secured creditors

(2) The court may order that the security or charge rank in priority over the claim of any secured creditor of the company.

Priority — other orders

(3) The court may order that the security or charge rank in priority over any security or charge arising from a previous order made under subsection (1) only with the consent of the person in whose favour the previous order was made.

Factors to be considered

(4) In deciding whether to make an order, the court is to consider, among other things,

> (a) the period during which the company is expected to be subject to proceedings under this Act;
>
> (b) how the company's business and financial affairs are to be managed during the proceedings;
>
> (c) whether the company's management has the confidence of its major creditors;
>
> (d) whether the loan would enhance the prospects of a viable compromise or arrangement being made in respect of the company;
>
> (e) the nature and value of the company's property;
>
> (f) whether any creditor would be materially prejudiced as a result of the security or charge; and

(g) the monitor's report referred to in paragraph 23(1)(b), if any.

Additional factor — initial application

(5) When an application is made under subsection (1) at the same time as an initial application referred to in subsection 11.02(1) or during the period referred to in an order made under that subsection, no order shall be made under subsection (1) unless the court is also satisfied that the terms of the loan are limited to what is reasonably necessary for the continued operations of the debtor company in the ordinary course of business during that period.

Court may order security or charge to cover certain costs

11.52 (1) On notice to the secured creditors who are likely to be affected by the security or charge, the court may make an order declaring that all or part of the property of a debtor company is subject to a security or charge — in an amount that the court considers appropriate — in respect of the fees and expenses of

(a) the monitor, including the fees and expenses of any financial, legal or other experts engaged by the monitor in the performance of the monitor's duties;

(b) any financial, legal or other experts engaged by the company for the purpose of proceedings under this Act; and

(c) any financial, legal or other experts engaged by any other interested person if the court is satisfied that the security or charge is necessary for their effective participation in proceedings under this Act.

Priority
