76. Moreover, no party in interest will be prejudiced by the relief requested in the Trade Claims Motion because the Trade Claims are unimpaired and will be paid in full under the Prepackaged Plan and, as discussed in the Trade Claims Motion, many of the Trade Claims enjoy statutory or other priority and are otherwise entitled to be paid in full. The relief requested in the Trade Claims Motion seeks to alter only the timing, not the amount or priority, of such payments. Furthermore, I believe that paying the modest amount of Trade in the ordinary course is prudent when compared to the amount the Debtors' stakeholders stand to lose if the Debtors' business were interrupted.

4. Taxes Motion

77. The Debtors seek authority to remit and pay certain taxes, assessments, fees, and other charges in the ordinary course of business, including any taxes, assessments, fees, and charges subsequently determined upon audit, or otherwise, to be owed. The Debtors collect, withhold and incur an assortment of Taxes and Fees that they remit periodically to various U.S. and foreign national, state, and local taxing, licensing, regulatory and other governmental authorities. Certain of the Taxes and Fees collected prepetition are not property of the Debtors' estates but, rather, are held in trust for the applicable Authorities. The Company also seeks to pay certain Taxes and Fees to, among other things, forestall Authorities from taking actions that may interfere with the Debtors' administration of these chapter 11 cases. I believe allowing the Company to continue remitting and paying Taxes and Fees in the ordinary course of business is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, the Debtors' creditors, and all other parties in interest. If the Company is not allowed to remit Taxes and Fees, this could cause a material adverse impact on the Debtors' ability to operate in jurisdictions where they do business and may lead to the imposition of liens on the Debtors' assets, the accrual of interest charges, and/or the imposition of fees and penalties, thereby depleting the value of the Debtors' estates.

5. Insurance Motion

78. The Debtors request authority to continue to maintain and renew their Insurance Policies and Programs, continue honoring their Insurance Obligations on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business, and pay accrued and outstanding prepetition amounts due in connection with the Insurance Obligations.

79. In connection with operating its business, the Company maintain various Insurance Policies and Programs, which help manage and limit various business risks. Pursuant to the Insurance Policies, the Company pays certain Insurance Premiums in addition to various deductibles. The majority of the Insurance Premiums are either paid in full at the time of renewal, or paid in quarterly installments and remitted to the Broker.

80. I believe the Insurance Policies and Programs are essential to mitigating risk and to the preservation of the value of the Company's business and assets. I understand the Company is required legally and contractually to maintain these programs, and the failure to do so will prevent the Debtors from undertaking essential functions related to their operations. Moreover, termination or lapse in the programs may result in substantial liability to the Company, including monetary fines, criminal prosecution, and personal liability, among others, to the detriment of all parties in interest.

6. Utilities Motion

81. By the Utilities Motion, the Debtors are requesting approval of their proposed form of adequate assurance of payment to utility providers, approval of certain procedures for determining adequate assurance of payment for future utility services (the "Adequate Assurance Procedures"), and a prohibition on utility providers from altering, refusing, or discontinuing utility service on account of the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and/or outstanding prepetition invoices.

82. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur expenses for, among other things, electricity, natural gas, water, sewage, telecommunications, and waste services. I believe that preserving utility services on an uninterrupted basis is essential to the Debtors' ongoing operations. The Debtors operate and maintain their corporate U.S. headquarters in Nashua, New Hampshire with additional offices in Boston, Massachusetts, Burlington, Massachusetts, Norwood, Massachusetts, Gainesville, Florida, Scottsdale, Arizona, Des Moines, Iowa, Parsippany, New Jersey, Knoxville, Tennessee, Columbus, Ohio, and Rochester, New York, and any interruption in utility services – even for a brief period of time – would seriously disrupt the Debtors' ability to continue operations and service their customers. Such a result could seriously jeopardize the Debtors' restructuring efforts and, ultimately, creditor recoveries.

83. Furthermore, I believe the Adequate Assurance Procedures are necessary for the Debtors to effectuate their chapter 11 strategy without unnecessary and costly disruptions on account of discontinued utility services. If the Adequate Assurance Procedures are not approved, the Debtors likely will be confronted with and forced to address numerous requests by their utility providers at a critical time for their businesses. I understand that the Debtors' utility providers could unilaterally decide that they are not adequately protected and, therefore, may be entitled to either make exorbitant demands for payment to continue providing service or discontinue providing service to the Debtors altogether. Such an outcome could seriously jeopardize the Debtors' operations and their ability to maximize the value of their estates.

7. Automatic Stay Comfort Motion

84. Sections 362, 365, 525, and 541 of the Bankruptcy Code automatically provide certain protections to the Debtors as a result of filing these chapter 11 cases; however, given the nature of the Company's business, many of the Debtors' creditors, contract counterparties, and other parties in interest are based outside of the United States and may be unfamiliar with these provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors seek entry of an order embodying these aspects of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are not asking the Court to grant any relief beyond the protections that are already automatically provided to the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code, but merely seek a "comfort order" that can be shown to parties in interest.

8. Motion to Appoint Skillsoft Canada as Foreign Representative

85. As discussed above, the Company intends to commence the Canadian Recognition Proceeding shortly after commencing these chapter 11 cases to request that the Canadian Court recognize these chapter 11 cases as a "foreign main proceeding" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA, and enforce this Court's orders in Canada to protect the Debtors' assets and operations in Canada and help implement the Debtors' restructuring.

86. Section 46 of the CCAA provides that a foreign representative may apply to a Canadian court for recognition of a foreign proceeding. CCAA, R.S.C., Ch. C-36, § 46 (1985) (Can.). Under the CCAA, a recognition application must be accompanied by a "certified copy of the instrument, however designated, authorizing the foreign representative to act in that capacity or a certificate from the foreign court affirming the foreign representative's authority to act in that capacity." Id. at § 46(2)(b). Accordingly, in order for Skillsoft Canada to be recognized as the foreign representative in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, and thereby apply to have these chapter 11 cases recognized by the Canadian Court, this Court must enter an order authorizing Skillsoft Canada to act as the foreign representative in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding. If the order is granted, Skillsoft Canada will be able to file the order with the Canadian Court as the instrument authorizing Skillsoft Canada to act as foreign representative pursuant to section 46 of the CCAA.

87. Accordingly, pursuant to the Motion to Appoint the Foreign Representative, the Debtors are requesting entry of an order appointing Skillsoft Canada as foreign representative ("Foreign Representative") on behalf of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Recognition Proceeding. Because the Debtors have assets in Canada, it is critical that a stay similar to the automatic stay imposed pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code be granted in Canada, and that this Court's orders also be recognized in Canada. Indeed, the Restructuring Support Agreement requires the Debtors to commence the Canadian Recognition Proceeding and imposes certain Milestones with respect to the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, including entry of orders by the Canadian Court recognizing and enforcing the DIP Orders and confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan.

C. Relief Requested by Several First Day Pleadings

88. Several of the First Day Pleadings request authority to pay certain prepetition claims against the Debtors. I understand that Rule 6003 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure provides, in relevant part, that the Court shall not consider motions to pay prepetition claims during the first 21 days following the filing of a chapter 11 petition, "except to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." In light of this requirement, the Debtors have narrowly tailored their requests for immediate authority to pay certain prepetition claims to those circumstances where the failure to pay such claims would cause immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and their estates. The Debtors will defer seeking other relief to subsequent hearings before the Court.

89. I am familiar with the content and substance of each of the First Day Pleadings. I believe approval of the relief sought in each of the First Day Pleadings is critical to the Debtors' ability to successfully implement their chapter 11 strategy, with minimal disruption to their business operations. Obtaining the relief sought in the First Day Pleadings will permit the Debtors to preserve and maximize the value of their estates for the benefit of all of their stakeholders.

VI.
Conclusion

90. This declaration illustrates the factors that have precipitated the commencement of the chapter 11 cases and the critical need for the Debtors to obtain the relief requested in the First Day Pleadings.

I declare under penalty of perjury that, after reasonable inquiry, the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

Subject to the provisions contained in Section 5(a) and Section 13, upon the termination of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 5, this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void and of no further force or effect and each Party shall, except as provided otherwise in this Agreement, be immediately released from its liabilities, obligations, commitments, undertakings, and agreements under or related to this Agreement and shall have all the rights and remedies that it would have had and shall be entitled to take all actions, whether with respect to the Restructuring or otherwise, that it would have been entitled to take had it not entered into this Agreement, including all rights and remedies available to it under applicable law; provided, however, that in no event shall any such termination relieve a Party from liability for its breach or non-performance of any of its obligations hereunder prior to the date of such termination.

(f) If the Restructuring is not consummated, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver by any Party of any or all of such Party's rights, and the Parties expressly reserve any and all of their respective rights. This Agreement and all negotiations relating hereto shall not be admissible into evidence in any proceeding other than a proceeding to enforce the Agreement's terms, and, if applicable, Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any other applicable rules shall apply.

6. Definitive Documents; Good Faith Cooperation; Further Assurances.

Each Party hereby covenants and agrees to cooperate with each other in good faith in connection with, and shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts with respect to the pursuit, approval, negotiation, execution, delivery, implementation, and consummation of, the Plan, any Recognition Proceeding, the Pledge Enforcement, the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer, and the Restructuring, as well as the negotiation, drafting, execution and delivery of the Definitive Documents. Furthermore, subject to the terms hereof, each of the Parties shall (i) take such action as may be reasonably necessary or reasonably requested by the other Parties to carry out the purposes and intent of this Agreement, including making and filing any required regulatory filings, and (ii) refrain from taking any action that would frustrate the purposes and intent of this Agreement.

7. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each Party, severally (and not jointly), represents and warrants to the other Parties that the following statements are true, correct, and complete as of the date hereof (or as of the date a Consenting Creditor becomes a party hereto):

(i) such Party is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, and has all requisite corporate, partnership, limited liability company, or similar authority to enter into this Agreement and carry out the transactions contemplated hereby and perform its obligations contemplated hereunder; and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of such Party's obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, limited liability company, partnership or other similar action on its part;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance by such Party of this Agreement does not and will not (A) violate any material provision of law, rule, or regulation applicable to it or any of its subsidiaries or its charter or bylaws (or other similar governing documents) or those of any of its subsidiaries, or (B) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under any material contractual obligation to which it or any of its subsidiaries is a party except, in the case of the Company, for the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the commencement of any Recognition Proceeding, and the consummation of the Pledge Enforcement and Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by such Party of this Agreement does not and will not require any material registration or filing with, consent or approval of, or notice to, or other action, with or by, any federal, state or governmental authority or regulatory body; and

(iv) this Agreement is the legally valid and binding obligation of such Party, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or other similar laws relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles relating to enforceability or a ruling of the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Each Consenting Creditor severally (and not jointly) represents and warrants to the other Parties that, as of the date hereof (or as of the date such Consenting Creditor becomes a party hereto), such Consenting Creditor (i) is, or subject to clearance of trades pending as of (or immediately prior to) the date of such Consenting Creditor becoming party to this Agreement, was or will be the owner of the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness and/or Interests set forth below its name on the signature page hereto (or below its name on the signature page of a Joinder Agreement for any Consenting Creditor that becomes a party hereto after the date hereof), free and clear of any restrictions on transfer, liens or options, warrants, purchase rights, contracts, commitments, claims, demands, and other encumbrances and does not own any other Claims or Interests (other than pursuant to any trades pending as of (or immediately prior to) the date of such Consenting Creditor becoming party to this Agreement), and/or (ii) has, with respect to the beneficial owners of such Claims or Interests, (A) sole investment or voting discretion with respect thereto, (B) full power and authority to vote on and consent to matters concerning such Claims or Interests to exchange, assign, and transfer such Claims or Interests, and (C) full power and authority to bind or act on the behalf of, such beneficial owners; provided that to the extent there are any discrepancies between the amounts set forth on a signature page hereto (or on a signature page to a Joinder Agreement) and the amounts set forth on the official registers maintained by the Agents, such Consenting Creditor and the Company shall work together in good faith to resolve such discrepancies with the Agents and to update, if necessary, the amounts set forth on the underlying signature page at issue.

8. Disclosure; Publicity.

The Company shall submit drafts to Consenting Creditor Counsel of any press releases regarding the Restructuring at least one (1) Business Day prior to making any such disclosure. Except as required by applicable law, rule, or regulation and notwithstanding any provision of any other agreement between the Company and such Consenting Creditor to the contrary, no Party or its advisors shall disclose to any Person (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any other Consenting Creditor), other than advisors to the Company and the Consenting Creditor Counsel, the principal amount or percentage of any Indebtedness of or Claims against the Company held by any Consenting Creditor without such Consenting Creditor's prior written consent; provided, however, that (a) if such disclosure is required by law, rule, or regulation, the disclosing Party shall, to the extent permitted by law, afford the relevant Consenting Creditor a reasonable opportunity to review and comment in advance of such disclosure and shall take commercially reasonable measures to limit such disclosure (the expense of which, if any, shall be borne by the relevant Consenting Creditor) and (b) the foregoing shall not prohibit the disclosure of the aggregate percentage or aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness collectively held by the Consenting Creditors. Notwithstanding the provisions in this Section 8, any Party may disclose, to the extent consented to in writing by a Consenting Creditor, such Consenting Creditor's individual holdings.

9. Amendments and Waivers.

(a) Other than as set forth in Section 9(b), this Agreement, including any exhibits or schedules hereto, may not be waived, modified, amended, or supplemented except with the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Creditors (with an email from counsel to the Company, counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group (on behalf of the Requisite First Lien Lenders), and counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group (on behalf of the Requisite Second Lien Lenders) being sufficient with respect to each such Party).

(b) Notwithstanding Section 9(a):

(i) any waiver, modification, amendment, or supplement to this Section 9 shall require the written consent of all of the Parties;

(ii) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting Creditor and the Parent;

(iii) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite First Lien Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting First Lien Creditor and the Parent;

(iv) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite Second Lien Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting Second Lien Creditor and the Parent;

(v) any change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement, any of the Restructuring Term Sheets, or any of the Definitive Documents that contemplates a sale of the shares in the Parent, all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or a significant business line of the Company shall require the written consent of each Consenting Creditor; and

(vi) any change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement, any of the Restructuring Term Sheets, or any of the Definitive Documents that treats or affects any Consenting Creditor's Claims arising under the Indebtedness in a manner that is materially and adversely disproportionate, on an economic or non-economic basis, to the manner in which (A) if such Consenting Creditor is a Consenting First Lien Lender, the Consenting First Lien Lenders or (B) if such Consenting Creditor is a Consenting Second Lien Lender, the Consenting Second Lien Lenders, are treated (after taking into account each of the Consenting First Lien Lenders' and Consenting Second Lien Lenders', as applicable, respective holdings in the Company and the recoveries contemplated by the Reorganization Term Sheet (as in effect as of the Support Effective Date)) shall require the written consent of such materially adversely and disproportionately affected Consenting Creditor.

(c) In the event that (x) a Consenting Creditor referred to in Section 9(b)(v) or (y) a materially adversely and disproportionately affected Consenting Creditor referred to in Section 9(b)(vi) (in each case, a "Non-Consenting Creditor") does not consent to a waiver, change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement requiring the consent of such Consenting Creditor, but such waiver, change, modification, or amendment receives the consent of Consenting Creditors owning at least 66⅔% of the outstanding principal amount of First Lien Debt or Second Lien Debt (whichever held by such Non-Consenting Creditor), this Agreement shall be deemed to have been terminated only as to such Non-Consenting Creditor, but this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect in respect to all other Consenting Creditors from time to time without the consent of any Consenting Creditors who have so consented.

10. Effectiveness.

This Agreement shall become effective and binding upon each Party upon the execution and delivery by such Party of an executed signature page hereto and shall become effective and binding on all Parties on the Support Effective Date; provided, however, that signature pages executed by Consenting Creditors shall be delivered to (i) other Consenting Creditors in a redacted form that removes such Consenting Creditors' account and/or fund name(s), holdings of Claims (including Indebtedness), and holdings of Interests and (ii) the Company, Weil, and Consenting Creditor Counsel in an unredacted form (to be held by Weil and Consenting Creditor Counsel on a professionals'-eyes-only basis).

11. GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

(b) Each of the Parties irrevocably agrees that any legal action, suit, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by any Party shall be brought and determined in any federal or state court in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York (the "New York Courts") and each of the Parties hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the New York Courts for itself and with respect to its property, generally and unconditionally, with regard to any such proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring. Each of the Parties agrees not to commence any proceeding relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring except in the New York Courts, other than proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any judgment, decree, or award rendered by any New York Court. Each of the Parties further agrees that notice as provided in Section 20 shall constitute sufficient service of process and the Parties further waive any argument that such service is insufficient. Each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion or as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the New York Courts for any reason, (ii) that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment, or otherwise) and (iii) that (A) the proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such proceeding is improper, or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, all proceedings contemplated by this Section 11(b) shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY (I) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT, OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (II) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

12. Specific Performance/Remedies.

It is understood and agreed by the Parties that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by any Party and each non-breaching Party shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) as a remedy of any such breach, without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy, including an order of the Bankruptcy Court requiring any Party to comply promptly with any of its obligations hereunder. Each Party also agrees that it will not seek, and will waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with any Party seeking or obtaining such relief.

13. Survival.

Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 5 hereof, the agreements and obligations of the Parties in this Section 13 and Sections 5(e), 5(f), 8, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, and 21 hereof (and any defined terms used in any such Sections) shall survive such termination and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms hereof; provided, however, that any liability of a Party for breach of the terms of this Agreement shall survive such termination.

14. Headings.

The headings of the sections, paragraphs, and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation hereof or, for any purpose, be deemed a part of this Agreement.

15. Successors and Assigns; Severability; Several Obligations.

This Agreement is intended to bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 15 shall be deemed to permit Transfers of the Claims or Interests other than in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of any such provision to any Person or circumstance, shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or part thereof and the remaining part of such provision hereof and this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any Party. Upon any such determination of invalidity, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a reasonably acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible. The agreements, representations, and obligations of the Parties are, in all respects, ratable and several and neither joint nor joint and several.

16. No Third-Party Beneficiaries.

Unless expressly stated herein, this Agreement shall be solely for the benefit of the Parties (and their permitted successors and assigns) and no other Person shall be a third-party beneficiary hereof.

17. Prior Negotiations; Entire Agreement.

This Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules hereto (including the Restructuring Term Sheets), constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties and supersedes all other prior negotiations with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof.

18. Confidential Information.

Any obligations the Company may have under or in connection with this Agreement to furnish Confidential Information to a Consenting Creditor shall be subject to such Consenting Creditor executing a confidentiality agreement with the Company in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Company.

19. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same agreement. Execution copies of this Agreement may be delivered by electronic mail, or otherwise, which shall be deemed to be an original for the purposes of this paragraph.

Any notice given by electronic mail shall be effective upon oral, machine, or electronic mail (as applicable) confirmation of transmission.

21. No Solicitation; Representation by Counsel; Adequate Information.

(a) This Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to be a solicitation of an offer to buy securities or a solicitation for votes in favor of the Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases. The acceptances of the Consenting Creditors with respect to the Plan will not be solicited until such Consenting Creditor has received the Disclosure Statement and, as applicable, related ballots and other Solicitation Materials. In addition, this Agreement does not constitute an offer to issue or sell securities to any Person or the solicitation of an offer to acquire or buy securities in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

(b) Each Party acknowledges that it has had an opportunity to receive information from the Company and that it has been represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Accordingly, any rule of law, or order, or any legal decision that would provide any Party with a defense to the enforcement of the terms of this Agreement against such Party based upon lack of legal counsel shall have no application and is expressly waived.

(c) Each Consenting Creditor acknowledges, agrees, and represents to the other Parties that it (i) is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D of the Securities Act, (ii) is a "qualified institutional buyer" as such term is defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act or an institutional "Accredited Investor" as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2),

(3), (7), or (8) under the Securities Act, (iii) understands that if it is to acquire any securities, as defined in the Securities Act, pursuant to the Restructuring, such securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and that such securities are, to the extent not offered, solicited, or acquired pursuant to section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Securities Act, based in part upon such Consenting Creditor's representations contained in this Agreement and cannot be sold unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is available, and (iv) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that such Consenting Creditor, as applicable, is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the securities to be acquired by it (if any) pursuant to the Restructuring and understands and is able to bear any economic risks with such investment.

22. Miscellaneous.

When a reference is made in this Agreement to a Section, Exhibit, or Schedule, such reference shall be to a Section, Exhibit, or Schedule, respectively, of or attached to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Unless the context of this Agreement otherwise requires, (i) words using the singular or plural number also include the plural or singular number, respectively, (ii) the terms "hereof," "herein," "hereby," and derivative or similar words refer to this entire Agreement, (iii) the words "include," "includes," and "including" when used herein shall be deemed in each case to be followed by the words "without limitation," (iv) the word "or" shall not be exclusive and shall be read to mean "and/or" and (v) unless the context otherwise requires, the word "extent" in the phrase "to the extent" means the degree to which a subject or other thing extends, and such phrase does not mean simply "if".

Registration Rights	Demand Registration Rights: Following an initial public offering by the Company (an "IPO"), upon receipt of a demand by one or more holders collectively holding at least 10% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (collectively, "Registrable Securities"), subject to mutually agreed restrictions regarding the aggregate number of demand rights and customary time limitations and suspension/blackout periods, the Company shall provide a notice to all holders of Registrable Securities to allow participation in a registration as selling holders. Amounts sold by selling holders will be pro rata based on the relative amounts of Registrable Securities held by them, subject to pro rata reduction based on any cap on the number of securities to be sold as advised by the underwriters, and subject to normal blackout provisions. The Company shall have the right to sell as many shares as the Company wants and any additional securities that may be sold as advised by the underwriters will be allocated among the participating selling holders on a pro rata basis based on the relative amounts of Registrable Securities held by them, in all cases subject to normal blackout provisions. Lock-Up: Any reasonable lock-up requested by underwriters shall apply only to selling holders and, in connection with an IPO only, holders holding more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. No non-executive director of the Company and/or its subsidiaries shall be permitted to pursue any corporate opportunity that could reasonably benefit the Company and/or its subsidiaries based on the then-current business plan, in each case, if, and only to the extent, such corporate opportunity was presented to, or acquired, created or developed by, or otherwise came into the possession of, such non-executive director expressly, solely and directly in such person's capacity as a director of the Company, unless a majority of disinterested Directors confirms that the Company (including its subsidiaries) will not pursue such opportunity. For the avoidance of doubt, no stockholder of the Company shall be restricted from pursuing any corporate opportunities, unless such stockholder is also a director or officer of the Company and/or its subsidiaries.
Related Party Transactions	Other than commercial transactions in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice on arms'-length terms and the issuance of securities pursuant to the preemptive rights described above, the entering into of any transaction with (i) a stockholder, director or officer of the Company, (ii) any entity in which one or more stockholders, directors or officers of the Company owns, directly or indirectly, individually or in the aggregate, 5% or more of the outstanding equity securities of such entity or (iii) any "affiliate", "associate" or member of the "immediate family" (as such terms are respectively defined in rules and regulations under the Exchange Act) of any person described in the foregoing clauses (i) or (ii) shall, in each case, require the affirmative vote of a majority of Directors (excluding any Director who is, or is a related party of, the person with whom the Company or any of its subsidiaries is proposing to enter into the relevant transaction).
Amendments to Governing Documents	Bylaws: Subject to applicable law and the terms of the stockholder agreement to which the Company is party (the "Stockholder Agreement") and the Company's certificate of incorporation (as amended, the "Charter"), the bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws") may be amended or repealed, or new Bylaws adopted, by either the Board or stockholders holding a majority of outstanding shares of Common Stock. Charter: Any amendment to the Charter shall be made in accordance with applicable law. Stockholder Agreement: Amendments to provisions of the Stockholder Agreement shall require the prior consent of stockholders holding (a) 66 2/3% of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock, with respect to amendments to provisions of the Stockholder Agreement related to: (i) Board participation rights; (ii) size of the Board; (iii) supermajority Board approval rights; (iv) stockholder approval rights; (v) Tag-Along Sale rights; (vi) sale of the Company approval rights; (vii) preemptive rights; and (viii) registration rights and (b) a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock for all other amendments (in either case of (a) or (b), the "Amendment Threshold"); provided that (i) no amendment may adversely affect a stockholder relative to other stockholders without such stockholder's specific written consent; (ii) any amendment to the provisions of the Stockholder Agreement regarding the rights of one or more stockholders to nominate Directors shall require the written consent of all such nominating stockholders; and (iii) no provision of the Stockholder Agreement which requires the consent of stockholders owning more than the Amendment Threshold to take the action described therein may be amended without the consent of stockholders owning such higher percentage of shares of Common Stock. Upon an IPO, the Stockholder Agreement (other than provisions relating to registration rights) shall terminate. In the event of a conflict between the Stockholder Agreement, on the one hand, and the Bylaws or the Charter, on the other hand, the Stockholder Agreement will prevail, and the stockholders will take all actions necessary to amend the Charter and/or Bylaws to the extent necessary to conform to the relevant terms of the Stockholder Agreement.

Warrant Term Sheet[1][2]

June 12, 2020

This Warrant Term Sheet, which is Exhibit F to a Restructuring Support Agreement dated June 12, 2020 (the "Restructuring Support Agreement"), by and among Pointwell Limited and certain of its affiliates and subsidiaries, the Agent, and the Consenting Lenders, describes the material terms relating to warrants to be issued by Newco Parent that would be issued in connection with the consummation of the Restructuring.[3] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Restructuring Support Agreement.

THIS WARRANT TERM SHEET IS PRESENTED FOR DISCUSSION AND SETTLEMENT PURPOSES AND IS ENTITLED TO PROTECTION FROM ANY USE OR DISCLOSURE TO ANY PERSON PURSUANT TO RULE 408 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE AND ANY OTHER RULE OF SIMILAR IMPORT.

THIS WARRANT TERM SHEET DOES NOT PURPORT TO SUMMARIZE ALL OF THE TERMS, CONDITIONS, COVENANTS AND OTHER PROVISIONS THAT MAY BE CONTAINED IN THE FULLY NEGOTIATED AND EXECUTED DEFINITIVE DOCUMENTATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE ISSUANCE OF WARRANTS. THIS WARRANT TERM SHEET AND THE INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL REMAIN STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.[4]

Term	Description
Issuer:	Newco Parent (such entity, "Issuer").[5]
Warrants:	On the Effective Date (the "Effective Date"), Issuer will issue the following two tranches of warrants (collectively, the "New Warrants") to the holders thereof (collectively, the "Holders"): - Tranche A Warrants, which will entitle the Holders thereof to receive, upon exercise of the Tranche A Warrants, common stock of Issuer ("New Common Stock") representing in the aggregate 5% of the total outstanding New Common Stock; and - Tranche B Warrants, which will entitle the Holders thereof to receive, upon exercise of the Tranche B Warrants, New Common Stock representing in the aggregate 10% of the total outstanding New Common Stock. For purposes of calculating the percentage of New Common Stock issued upon exercise of the New Warrants, the total outstanding New Common Stock shall be calculated as of the Effective Date and assuming the exercise of all such New Warrants (but excluding any New Common Stock issued or reserved for issuance under any management and/or board incentive plan implemented by Issuer).[6]

Exercise Price:	The exercise price for the New Warrants (the "Exercise Price") will be fixed as of the Effective Date (as may be thereafter adjusted as set forth under "Fundamental Transaction" and "Anti-Dilution" below) and shall be as follows: - To the extent that the Holder elects to exercise the Tranche A Warrants: a price per share equal to [___][7] with the Exercise Price being allocated at par value per share to share capital and the difference to share premium; and - Tranche B Warrants: a price per share equal to [___] with the Exercise Price being allocated at par value per share to share capital and the difference to share premium.[8][9]
Term:	The New Warrants will expire on the earlier of (x) the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date and (y) the consummation of a Fundamental Transaction (as defined below) (the "Expiration Date"). Upon the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date, each outstanding New Warrant shall automatically be deemed to be exercised on a "cashless basis"[10] (as described below).
Fundamental Transaction:	Each New Warrant shall be automatically exercised immediately prior, but subject to, the consummation of a Fundamental Transaction on a "cashless basis" (as described below) and each Holder shall participate in such Fundamental Transaction with respect to the shares of New Common Stock issuable upon such exercise.[11] The exercise price applicable to such exercise will be the lesser of (i) the then-current Exercise Price, and (ii) a Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price (which will be a price calculated to provide to each Warrant holder ordinary shares which, when exchanged for the Fundamental Transaction consideration per ordinary share (the "Transaction Consideration"), will cause the holder to realize, net of the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, a net Fair Market Value of the Transaction Consideration equal to the Black Scholes Value per share of each Warrant). As used herein, "Fundamental Transaction" means any (i) merger, consolidation, amalgamation or other similar transaction or series of related transactions to which the Issuer is a party and pursuant to which (A) an existing Stockholder (or its affiliate, or other person comprising an existing stockholder and one or more of its affiliates) acquires 90% or more of the voting power of the outstanding securities of the Issuer or (B) the "beneficial owners" (as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of the outstanding equity securities of Issuer immediately prior to such transaction "beneficially own" in the aggregate less than 50% of the voting power of the outstanding equity securities of the surviving entity immediately following such transaction, (ii) sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of Issuer's assets (by value), which is consummated with a third-party who is unaffiliated with Issuer (other than a stockholder who is affiliated with the Issuer) at the time of such transaction, or (iii) voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of Issuer, in each of cases (i)-(iii), which is effected in such a way that the holders of New Common Stock receive or are entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation) cash, stock, securities or other assets or property with respect to or in exchange for New Common Stock. As used herein, "Black Scholes Value" means the value of the unexercised portion of any New Warrants remaining on the date of any Holder's notice of election, which value shall be determined by an investment banking firm or independent third-party appraiser, in each case of nationally recognized standing (the "Appraiser") using the Black Scholes Option Pricing Model for a "call" option, as obtained from the "OVME" function on Bloomberg, L.P. subject to the following assumptions: (i) an underlying price per share equal to the sum of the price per share of New Common Stock being offered in cash in the applicable Fundamental Transaction (if any) plus the Fair Market Value of the non-cash consideration being offered to holders with respect to each share of New Common Stock in the applicable Fundamental Transaction (if any), (ii) a strike price equal to the Exercise Price in effect on the date of the Holder's notice of election, (iii) a risk-free interest rate corresponding to the interpolated rate on the United States Treasury securities with a maturity closest to the remaining term of the New Warrant as of the date of consummation of the applicable Fundamental Transaction, (iv) a zero cost of borrow and (v) an expected volatility equal to 35%. For purposes of determining the Black Scholes Value and the Fair Market Value (as described below), the Appraiser shall be selected by the Independent Director (as defined in the Governance Term Sheet) or, if there is more than one Independent Director on the New Board at such time, a majority of such Independent Directors, in each case at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer.[12]

Exercise; Payment of Exercise Price:	The New Warrants shall be exercisable, at the option of the Holder thereof, at any time prior to the Expiration Date, in whole or in part, into New Common Stock, by delivering to Issuer such New Warrant(s), together with a notice of exercise of such New Warrant(s). The issuance of New Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of New Warrants (collectively, the "Warrant Shares") shall be subject to payment in full by the Holder of the applicable Exercise Price either (i) by delivery to Issuer of a certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds in the amount of the aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant Shares or (ii) on a "cashless basis" by paying the Exercise Price (or the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, as applicable) as follows: (i) payment by the Holder of the par value of the Warrant Shares in cash, and (ii) payment of the difference of the Exercise Price (or the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, as applicable) by instructing Issuer to withhold a number of Warrant Shares (or fraction thereof) then issuable upon exercise of such New Warrant(s) with an aggregate Fair Market Value as of the Exercise Date equal to such aggregate Exercise Price (or the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, as applicable) (in either case, less the amount of the cash exercise payment). For purposes of such a "cashless" exercise, the value of the Warrant Shares withheld will be calculated based on the per share fair market value ("Fair Market Value") of New Common Stock: (a) if the Warrant Shares are then listed for trading on a national securities exchange, based on the 30 consecutive trading day volume weighted average closing price as of such date or (b) if the Warrant Shares are not so listed for trading on a national securities exchange, as determined by the Appraiser.[13]
Stockholder Rights:	Neither the New Warrants nor anything contained in the definitive documentation for the New Warrants shall be construed as conferring upon the Holders thereof (i) the right to vote, participate, consent or receive notice as a holder of New Common Stock in respect of any meeting of holders of New Common Stock for the election of directors of Issuer or any other matter, (ii) the right to receive dividends or other distributions as a holder of New Common Stock, or (iii) any other rights of a stockholder, whether or not granted to holders of New Common Stock under Issuer's governing documents.
Issuer Obligation:	The Issuer shall ensure that it at all times maintains an authorized share capital equivalent to the number of outstanding New Warrants to ensure that exercise of same may be completed at any time prior to the Expiration Date.

[12] Subject to revision for reconciliation with applicable Luxembourg law.

[13] Subject to revision for reconciliation with applicable Luxembourg law.

Anti-Dilution:	The New Warrants will be subject to (i) dilution by the management and board incentive plans, consistent with the Restructuring Term Sheet and (ii) customary adjustments (an "Anti-Dilution Adjustment") for (a) the subdivision or combination of the New Common Stock underlying the New Warrants, (b) the payment by Issuer of dividends or other distributions on the outstanding New Common Stock in Issuer payable in New Common Stock, other shares of capital stock of Issuer, rights to purchase shares of capital stock at a price per share that is less than the Fair Market Value of such capital stock, or in cash or other property and (c) repurchase of New Common Stock at a price that is greater than the then Fair Market Value of such New Common Stock; provided, however, there shall be no Anti-Dilution Adjustment to the Warrants (x) for any (1) payment by Issuer of dividends or other distributions on the outstanding New Common Stock of Issuer payable in rights to purchase shares of capital stock at a price per share that is less than the Fair Market Value of such capital stock (a "Below FMV Issuance") to the extent such rights are offered solely to holders of New Common Stock that are also New Warrant holders, or (2) repurchase of New Common Stock at a price that is greater than the then Fair Market Value of such New Common Stock (an "Above FMV Repurchase") to the extent such repurchase solely applies to shares of New Common Stock held by holders of New Common Stock that are also New Warrant holders or (y) with respect to any Below FMV Issuance or Above FMV Repurchase approved by the New Board if, at the time of such approval, a majority of the New Board comprises representatives of EQT (as defined in the Governance Term Sheet), Lodbrok Capital LLP, their respective affiliates or the transferees of New Warrants from any of the foregoing. In addition, in the event of any (i) reclassification of the New Common Stock, (ii) consolidation or merger of Issuer with or into another person or (iii) other similar transaction, in each case which (x) does not constitute a Fundamental Transaction and (y) entitles the holders of New Common Stock to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation and whether in whole or in part) securities or other assets in exchange for the New Common Stock, the New Warrants shall, immediately after such transaction, remain outstanding and shall thereafter, in lieu of the number of shares of New Common Stock then issuable upon exercise of the New Warrants, be exercisable for the kind and number of securities or other assets resulting from such transaction which the Holders would have received upon consummation of such transaction if the Holders had exercised the New Warrants in full immediately prior to the time of such transaction and acquired the applicable number of shares of New Common Stock then issuable upon exercise of the New Warrants as a result of such exercise.[14] For purposes of any Anti-Dilution Adjustment, the "Fair Market Value" of New Common Stock shall be determined in the same manner as described above with respect to the Fair Market Value of Warrant Shares.

Transferability:	The New Warrants shall be transferrable, subject to applicable securities laws (including securities laws applicable to the Issuer as a private company) and such restrictions as are in effect in respect of the New Common Stock.
Amendment:	The terms and conditions of the New Warrants may be amended (i) within the first year following the Effective Date, by vote of more than 66.7% of the Board members appointed by shareholders other than the members of the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group and (ii) after the first anniversary of the Effective Date, by vote of 5 of 7 members of the New Board; provided that any amendment that would affect the Exercise Price, number of Warrant Shares for which the New Warrants may be exercised, or would materially and adversely affect the Holders shall require the affirmative vote or written consent of the Holders of a majority of the outstanding New Warrants.[15]
Governing Law:	Luxembourg[16]

[15] Subject to revision for reconciliation with applicable Luxembourg law. The amendment provisions of the New Warrants to contain a power of attorney to permit such provisions to function without requiring consent by all contracting parties.

Prior to joining Houlihan, I specialized in providing investment banking services, including merger and acquisition and corporate finance advice to media and telecommunications clients at Montgomery Securities (now Bank of America Merrill Lynch, as a result of a series of mergers after my departure). I was also a member of the Investment Banking Group of EVEREN Securities focused on the consumer and retail industries, a member of the leveraged lending and corporate finance group of Union Bank, and a member of the foreign exchange trading department at Bank of America. Prior to joining Bank of America, I managed proprietary trading in foreign exchanges and derivatives at Drexel Burnham Lambert from 1986 until 1990. I hold a B.A. in Computer Science from Harvard University and an M.B.A., with honors, from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at UCLA.

II.
Debtors' Need for DIP Financing

8. I am familiar with the Debtors' operations and projected cash flows, and understand that the Company and its advisors, including Houlihan, have worked to regularly update and refine the Company's cash flow projections and liquidity forecasts in light of drastic and unpredictable market changes stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic, among other evolving circumstances. Based upon my knowledge and familiarity with the Company's operations, I believe that the Company's access to immediate incremental liquidity through the Debtors' proposed DIP Facility will be critical to preserve the value of the Debtors' estates.

9. A detailed overview of the Company's business is provided in the Declaration of John Frederick in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration"), which has been filed contemporaneously herewith. As of the Petition Date, the Company's prepetition capital structure consists of approximately $2.1 billion in outstanding funded indebtedness. Faced with mounting debt servicing payments along with decreased order intake and trade contraction attributable to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Company's liquidity has tightened, particularly over the last six months, and the Company is close to falling below the minimum liquidity cushion that the Company's management and advisors have deemed necessary for the Company to continue operating its business in the ordinary course. In light of these liquidity challenges, the Debtors require immediate access to debtor-in-possession financing and authority to use cash collateral to ensure that they have sufficient working capital to operate their businesses in the ordinary course of business and to administer their estates.

10. Absent the authority to enter into the DIP Credit Agreement and access the DIP Financing, even for a limited period of time, the Company will be unable to continue operating its businesses in the ordinary course, which will cause irreparable harm to the Company and its stakeholders. Additionally, I believe it is imperative that the Company send a clear message to its business partners, employees, and customers that it will be well-capitalized during the chapter 11 cases. Any market perception that the Debtors will not be able to sustain operations through the bankruptcy process may result in a loss of key customers and a decline in order intake that will exacerbate the Company's ability to successfully restructure and emerge as a going concern, especially considering the growing competitive market in which the Debtors operate. It is therefore my belief that the proposed DIP Financing is in the best interests of the Debtors and their stakeholders.

III.
Efforts to Obtain DIP Financing

11. Leading up to the Petition Date, as part of their broader restructuring process, the Debtors, with the assistance of their professionals, searched for potential sources of postpetition financing that could provide the Debtors with sufficient liquidity to fund their business operations during the restructuring process.

12. Notably, the vast majority of the Debtors' assets are encumbered by liens granted to the First Lien Lenders and Second Lien Lenders, such that any potential third party financing would have to be all or partially unsecured, on a junior basis, "prime" the Company's existing secured lenders' prepetition liens, or be secured by the Debtors' immaterial unencumbered assets. Additionally, the Debtors were informed by First Lien Lenders constituting Required Lenders under, and as defined in, the First Lien Credit Agreement that they would not consent to being primed by any third-party DIP financing, which, given the value of the Debtors' encumbered and unencumbered assets, made obtaining third party financing improbable, if not impossible.

13. Given these facts, even if a third party DIP lender were to materialize, a third party DIP loan would have resulted in a long, costly, and likely losing priming fight with the First Lien

Lenders. Equally important, any attempt by the Debtors to seek a nonconsensual priming of the First Lien Lenders would have undermined the support of the Consenting Creditors for the broader restructuring and could have curtailed the Debtors' ability to pursue and consummate the Prepackaged Plan, delaying the Debtors' exit from chapter 11 to the significant detriment of all of the Debtors' stakeholders.

14. I believe that the marketing process used to obtain the DIP Financing was appropriate in light of the Debtors' liquidity position and existing capital structure. During the Debtors' extensive negotiations with the Consenting Creditors in connection with a consensual restructuring transaction, the Company and its advisors discussed the Company's need for, and the potential terms of, a DIP financing with the Company's existing First Lien Lenders. Pursuant to the Restructuring Support Agreement, dated June 12, 2020 (the "Restructuring Support Agreement"), certain of the First Lien Lenders agreed to provide the Debtors with a backstop of the DIP Financing, which financing is necessary to implement the restructuring transactions contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement.

15. Despite the aforementioned challenges associated with obtaining third-party DIP financing, Houlihan engaged in discussions with certain alternative financing sources to ensure that no third party would be willing to provide the Debtors with DIP financing on better terms than those offered by the First Lien Lenders. Given the First Lien Lenders' insistence that they would not consent to a DIP facility that primed their existing prepetition liens, Houlihan focused their marketing efforts on securing a junior DIP facility. Houlihan contacted and engaged with nine (9) financial institutions to solicit offers to provide the Debtors with DIP financing on a junior lien basis and/or collateralized only by unencumbered collateral. None of the third parties contacted were willing to provide a DIP financing proposal to the Debtors.

16. Having received only the DIP financing proposal from the Consenting Creditors, the Debtors and their professionals actively negotiated with the Consenting Creditors to secure favorable terms, and were ultimately able to obtain concessions on a number of key provisions. The Debtors ultimately agreed to a reasonable proposal from the Consenting Creditors that meets the Company's liquidity needs at this critical juncture and secures the support of the Consenting Creditors for the restructuring transactions contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement. The Debtors' agreement with the Consenting Creditors was memorialized in the DIP and Exit Facility Term Sheet attached as Exhibit C to the Restructuring Support Agreement and is set forth in the proposed DIP Credit Agreement.

IV.
Need for Interim Relief

17. The Debtors seek immediate approval of the DIP Facility on an interim basis solely to the extent set forth in the Interim Order. The Debtors have minimal cash on hand and anticipate that the commencement of these chapter 11 cases will significantly and immediately increase the demands on their liquidity as a result of, among other things, the costs of administering these chapter 11 cases, implementing critical restructuring initiatives, and addressing key constituents' concerns regarding the Debtors' financial health and ability to continue operations in light of these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the Debtors have an immediate need for access to liquidity to, among other things, continue the operation of their business, maintain important relationships with customers, meet payroll, procure goods and services from vendors and suppliers, and otherwise satisfy their working capital and operational needs, all of which are required to preserve and maintain the Debtors' going concern value for the benefit of all parties in interest.

V.
Approval of the DIP Facility is in the Best Interest of the Debtors

18. The DIP Facility is on terms that are fair and reasonable under the circumstances. The proposed facility consists of a $60 million DIP Facility to be funded through an escrow account and retained subject to the Borrower's issuance of a Withdrawal Notice and satisfaction of certain withdrawal conditions, of which up to $30 million will be available to the Debtors upon entry of the Interim DIP Order and an additional $30 million available upon entry of the Final DIP Order. The DIP Facility is secured by consensual, first priority priming liens on substantially all of the Debtors' assets (subject only to certain permitted prepetition liens and a customary carve out for professional fees). The proceeds of the DIP Facility will be used to provide working capital for, and the other general corporate purposes of, the Debtors, including chapter 11 expenses, the operations of certain non-Debtor subsidiaries through "on-lending" or contributions of capital, Adequate Protection Payments, and reasonable and documented out-of-pocket transaction costs, fees, and expenses incurred in connection with the restructuring contemplated to be implemented in accordance with the Restructuring Support Agreement.

19. The Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, carefully reviewed the proposed DIP Financing and vigorously negotiated the salient terms with the Consenting Creditors and their advisors. In addition to the many advantages provided to the Debtors in maintaining holistic support from the Consenting Creditors for the Debtors' restructuring, certain specific benefits to the Debtors from entering into the DIP Facility include the Consenting Creditors' offer to "roll" the DIP Financing obligations into a first-out exit term loan facility that will not mature until December 2024.

20. Borrowings and disbursements from the DIP Facility will be made pursuant to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement, and the DIP Facility will mature three months after the Petition

Date subject to an extension of one additional month with the consent of the Required Lenders. The Debtors will be authorized to use Cash Collateral and the proceeds of the DIP Facility in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to permitted variances). The Debtors' initial budget (the "Initial Approved Budget"), attached as Exhibit B to the DIP Motion, reflects the anticipated cash receipts and anticipated disbursements that the Debtors will incur for each calendar week during the period from the Petition Date through and including the end of the thirteenth calendar week following the Petition Date. I believe that the Initial Approved Budget provides reasonable projections of the Company's financial outlay. The DIP Facility also contemplates certain financial monitoring covenants, including agreements by the Debtors to (i) update or supplement the Approved Budget not less than once every four weeks, (ii) provide bi-weekly variance reports to the DIP Lenders, and (iii) deliver supplemental Cash Flow Forecasts every four weeks. These covenants are reasonable and customary.

21. The DIP Facility provides for adequate protection to the Prepetition Secured Parties solely to the extent of any diminution in value in the form of: (i) replacement or new liens on and security interests in the DIP Collateral junior to the liens securing the DIP Facility, (ii) superpriority administrative expense claims that will have priority over any and all other administrative expenses, and (iii) the payment of reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses payable to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group. I believe that this adequate protection package is fair and reasonable, and what I would typically find granted in similar circumstances.

22. The financial terms proposed under the DIP Facility are comparable with terms for other postpetition financing for distressed companies in the industry, and the fees associated with the DIP Facility are customary and usual and in line with DIP Financing of this kind. Specifically, the DIP Documents provide that interest will accrue interest at LIBOR (with a 1% floor) for a one-month period plus 7.5% per annum. The DIP Documents also contemplate that the Debtors will pay other fees and expenses to (i) the DIP Lenders, including a 3% commitment fee and a 2.5% backstop fee, (ii) the DIP Agent, including an annual administrative fee and a seasoning fee, and (iii) the DIP Escrow Agent, including an annual administration fee (collectively, the "DIP Fees"). The fees and interest to be paid in accordance with the DIP Financing, along with the entirety of the DIP Documents, were subject to good faith, arm's-length negotiations among the Debtors and the DIP Lenders, and the fees and interest were required by the DIP Lenders as consideration for the extension of postpetition financing. Based on my experience and under the circumstances of these cases, these fees, costs, and rates are reasonable, customary, and appropriate under the circumstances, particularly in light of the consideration given therefor and the lack of viable options available.

23. The DIP Fees, together with the other provisions of the DIP Documents, represent the most favorable terms to the Debtors on which the DIP Lenders would agree to make the DIP Facility available. The Debtors considered the DIP Fees when determining in their sound business judgment whether the DIP Documents constituted the best terms on which the Debtors could obtain sufficient DIP Financing necessary to continue their operations and prosecute their chapter 11 cases. The Debtors believe paying the DIP Fees in order to obtain such DIP Financing is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, creditors and other parties in interest. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the Debtors to pay the DIP Fees.

24. It is my opinion that moving forward with the DIP Financing is in the Debtors' best interests and a proper exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and that the terms of the DIP Facility are reasonable under the circumstances, particularly in light of the lack of interest in the market to provide the Debtors with postpetition financing on a junior basis. It is also my opinion that the DIP Facility is the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations and will benefit all stakeholders in the chapter 11 cases. Absent authority to enter into and access the DIP Facility, even for a limited period of time, the Debtors will be unable to continue operating their business and providing their learning management tools to customers, resulting in a deterioration of value and immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, the Debtors' need for the DIP Facility, coupled with both the advantageous terms of the DIP Facility and the attendant benefits of securing a comprehensive restructuring, support the approval of the DIP Financing.

Conclusion

25. Based on my experience and observation, the terms of the DIP Facility are reasonable under the circumstances and are generally consistent with market terms for companies facing similar circumstances as those faced by the Debtors. Accordingly, based on the foregoing, the DIP Facility is the best and only actionable financing option available to the Debtors, and the Debtors' entry into the DIP Facility will benefit the Debtors' estates and their creditors.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

[Doc. No. 15] (the "First Day Declaration"),[2] filed on the Petition Date and incorporated herein by reference.

2. I am knowledgeable and familiar with the Debtors' and the Company's day-to-day operations, businesses and financial affairs, books and records, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases.

3. Except as otherwise indicated herein, the facts set forth in this supplemental declaration (this "Declaration") are based upon my personal knowledge, my review of relevant documents, information provided to me by employees of or advisors to the Company, or my opinion based upon my experience, knowledge, and information concerning the Company's operations. If called upon to testify, I would testify competently to the facts set forth in this Declaration on that basis.

4. On the date hereof, the Debtors filed the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing The Debtors to Enter Into an Exclusivity Letter With the Interested Party, and (2) Perform Their Obligations Thereunder, Including Payment of the Upfront Payment Amount, and (II) Granting Related Relief [Doc. No. 34 (sealed), 35 (redacted)] (the "Exclusivity Letter Motion"). I am familiar with the contents of the Exclusivity Letter Motion, and I believe that the relief sought therein is necessary to allow the Debtors to preserve optionality for a potential value-maximizing transaction.

I.
Preliminary Statement

5. With the support of the Consenting Creditors, the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for chapter 11 relief, along with a variety of procedural and substantive First Day

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the First Day Declaration.

Pleadings to minimize the adverse effects of the commencement of the chapter 11 cases, beginning on the Petition Date. The Debtors also began soliciting votes on the Prepackaged Plan before filing their chapter 11 petitions. The Company is in ongoing negotiations (with the consent of the Consenting Creditors) with the Interested Party regarding a potential Alternative Transaction (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement). Notwithstanding such negotiations, the Company commenced these chapter 11 cases (with the support of the Consenting Creditors) and is seeking to implement the Restructuring contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement in light of the Company's deteriorating liquidity position, immediate need to access the DIP Facility, and the need for the certainty of a fully-agreed reorganization path if the Company does not consummate a transaction with the Interested Party.

6. The Debtors and the Consenting Creditors wish to continue negotiations with the Interested Party as successful negotiations with the Interested Party may lead to an Alternative Transaction that will be value-maximizing for the Company and its creditors. I understand that the failure of the Debtors to enter into the Exclusivity Letter in a timely manner may cause the Interested Party to reconsider its interest in a potential purchase of the Debtors' businesses, thus foreclosing a potentially value-maximizing option for the Debtors.

II.
Exclusivity Letter Motion

7. The Debtors request authority to enter into that certain letter agreement granting exclusivity to a potential purchaser of the Debtors' business (the "Interested Party" and such letter agreement, the "Exclusivity Letter") and for the Debtors to perform their obligations under the Exclusivity Letter. The Exclusivity Letter allows the Debtors and the Interested Party to continue negotiating a potential transaction which, if consummated, could maximize the value of the Debtors' estates.

8. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors and the Interested Party explored the potential sale of substantially all of the Debtors' business (the "Potential Transaction"). However, the parties were unable to finalize a definitive transaction in the time necessary to meet the Debtors' liquidity needs. Accordingly, the Debtors entered into the Restructuring Support Agreement and began implementing the transactions contemplated therein. The Debtors, with the support of the Consenting Creditors, also continued negotiations with the Interested Party, which resulted in agreement to the terms of the Exclusivity Letter.

9. The Exclusivity Letter allows the Debtors to continue negotiating in good faith with the Interested Party and to conduct diligence regarding the Potential Transaction. I understand that the Exclusivity Letter obligates the Debtors to pay the Interested Party an amount to cover the Interested Party's fees and expenses in connection with its diligence of the Potential Transaction (the "Upfront Payment Amount"). However, I understand that the Debtors are only obligated to pay the Upfront Payment Amount if the Debtors and the Interested Party enter into a definitive agreement for the Potential Transaction.

10. I believe it is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment to enter into the Exclusivity Letter and to perform their obligations thereunder, including the obligation to pay the Upfront Payment Amount, if required, because doing so is necessary to preserve the option to pursue a potentially value-maximizing transaction. Furthermore, it is my understanding that the Interested Party will not pursue further negotiations or diligence without the Debtors' entry into the Exclusivity Letter and performance of their obligations thereunder. To maximize the efficiency of the Debtors' Restructuring, it is essential for the Debtors and the Interested Party to advance their negotiations and the Interested Party's diligence as quickly as possible. As a result, I believe that entry into the Exclusivity Letter as soon as possible is necessary to preserve the Debtors' ability to negotiate and potentially consummate the Potential Transaction. It is my understanding that the Consenting Creditors support the Debtors' entry into the Exclusivity Letter.

11. Moreover, the Debtors require immediate authority to enter into the Exclusivity Letter. If the Debtors delay entering into the Exclusivity Letter, the Interested Party may stop negotiating, resulting not only in the loss of a value maximizing transaction, nullifying the time and money spent negotiating and performing due diligence for the Potential Transaction.

12. For all of the foregoing reasons, I believe entry into the Exclusivity Letter is in the Debtors' sound business judgment and in the best interests of the estates, because it will allow the Debtors to continue the pursuit of an alternative transaction to the benefit of all of their stakeholders.

III.
Conclusion

13. This declaration illustrates the background that precipitated the Debtors' business decision to agree to the terms of the Exclusivity Letter and demonstrates the critical need for the Debtors to obtain the relief requested in the Exclusivity Letter Motion.

I declare under penalty of perjury that, after reasonable inquiry, the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

(provided that if delivery of such documents, motions, orders, or applications at least three (3) Business Days in advance is not reasonably practicable prior to filing, such document, motion, order, or application shall be delivered as soon as reasonably practicable prior to filing), and the Company shall consult in good faith with the Consenting Creditor Counsel regarding the form and substance of any such proposed filings;

(viii) subject to applicable professional responsibilities, in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, any Recognition Proceeding, and the Pledge Enforcement, timely file a written objection to any motion or document filed by a third party seeking the entry of an order (A) directing the appointment of an examiner with expanded powers or a trustee, (B) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, (C) dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (D) modifying or terminating the Company's exclusive right to file and/or solicit acceptances of a plan of reorganization, (E) enjoining the Pledge Enforcement (if applicable) or the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer, (F) denying recognition of the Chapter 11 Cases as a "foreign main proceeding" or opposing the recognition of any order issued by the Bankruptcy Court, including the DIP Orders and the Confirmation Order, or (G) dismissing any Recognition Proceeding;

(b) Limited Waiver of Automatic Stay. The Company acknowledges and agrees and shall not dispute that, after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, the giving of notice of termination of this Agreement by any Party solely in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall not be a violation of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other stay (and the Company hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the applicability of the automatic stay or any other stay to the giving of such notice); provided, however, that nothing herein shall prejudice any Party's rights to argue that the giving of any notice of default or termination was not proper under the terms of this Agreement.

5. Termination of Agreement.

(a) This Agreement shall terminate three (3) Business Days following the delivery of written notice (in accordance with Section 20 hereof) from: (i) the Requisite First Lien Lenders to Parent and counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Creditor Termination Event (defined below); (ii) the Requisite Second Lien Lenders to Parent and counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Creditor Termination Event; or (iii) Parent to the Consenting Creditors at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Company Termination Event (defined below). Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Section 5, no Party may exercise any of its respective termination rights as set forth herein if such Party has failed to perform or comply in all material respects with the terms and conditions of this Agreement (unless such failure to perform or comply arises as a result of another Party's actions or inactions in breach of this Agreement), with such failure to perform or comply causing, or resulting in, the occurrence of a Creditor Termination Event or Company Termination Event specified herein. This Agreement shall terminate on the Effective Date without any further required action or notice.

(b) A "Creditor Termination Event" shall mean any of the following:

(i) the breach by the Company of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Company set forth herein in any material respect that remains uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 (as applicable);

(vii) the Debtors withdraw the Plan or file any plan of reorganization or liquidation or disclosure statement that is inconsistent in any material respect with this Agreement, the Restructuring Term Sheets, or the Plan;

(viii) the Company files any document, motion, application, or adversary proceeding challenging the validity, enforceability, perfection, or priority of, or seeking avoidance or subordination of, any portion of the Consenting Creditors' Claims;

aggregate principal amount of each of the First Lien Debt and the Second Lien Debt then outstanding or comprise less than half in number of each of the First Lien Lenders and the Second Lien Lenders;

(ii) the board of directors, managers, members, or partners, as applicable, of Parent or any Company Party hereto reasonably determines in good faith, based upon the advice of counsel, that continued performance under this Agreement would be inconsistent with the exercise of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, however, that Parent or such Company Party provides notice of such determination to the Consenting Creditors within five (5) Business Days after the date thereof;

(viii) the Canadian Court enters an order (A) dismissing the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, (B) denying recognition of the Chapter 11 Cases as "foreign main proceedings" or (C) denying recognition of any order issued by the Bankruptcy Court, including the DIP Orders or the Confirmation Order; or

(ix) the occurrence of the Outside Date if the Effective Date has not occurred.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any of the dates or deadlines set forth in Section 5(b) and 5(c) may be extended by the mutual agreement of the Company and the Requisite Creditors.

In addition, notwithstanding anything set forth herein, the Requisite First Lien Lenders (determined without including the holdings of any breaching Party in the numerator or the denominator), on behalf of the Consenting First Lien Lenders, may terminate this Agreement upon the breach by any Consenting Second Lien Lender of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Consenting Second Lien Lenders set forth herein in any material respect that remain uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 hereof (as applicable), but only if the non-breaching Consenting Second Lien Lenders collectively hold less than 66⅔% of the aggregate principal amount of the Second Lien Debt then outstanding or comprise less than half in number of the Second Lien Lenders; and provided further that the Requisite Second Lien Lenders (determined without including the holdings of any breaching Party in the numerator or the denominator), on behalf of the Consenting Second Lien Lenders, may terminate this Agreement upon the breach by any Consenting First Lien Lender of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Consenting First Lien Lenders set forth herein in any material respect that remain uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 hereof (as applicable), but only if the non-breaching Consenting First Lien Lenders collectively hold less than 66⅔% of the aggregate principal amount of the First Lien Debt then outstanding or comprise less than half in number of the First Lien Lenders.

(d) Mutual Termination. This Agreement may be terminated by mutual agreement of the Company and the Requisite Creditors upon the receipt of written notice delivered in accordance with Section 20 hereof.

(e) Effect of Termination. Subject to the provisions contained in Section 5(a) and Section 13, upon the termination of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 5, this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void and of no further force or effect and each Party shall, except as provided otherwise in this Agreement, be immediately released from its liabilities, obligations, commitments, undertakings, and agreements under or related to this Agreement and shall have all the rights and remedies that it would have had and shall be entitled to take all actions, whether with respect to the Restructuring or otherwise, that it would have been entitled to take had it not entered into this Agreement, including all rights and remedies available to it under applicable law; provided, however, that in no event shall any such termination relieve a Party from liability for its breach or non-performance of any of its obligations hereunder prior to the date of such termination.

(f) If the Restructuring is not consummated, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver by any Party of any or all of such Party's rights, and the Parties expressly reserve any and all of their respective rights. This Agreement and all negotiations relating hereto shall not be admissible into evidence in any proceeding other than a proceeding to enforce the Agreement's terms, and, if applicable, Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any other applicable rules shall apply.

6. Definitive Documents; Good Faith Cooperation; Further Assurances.

Each Party hereby covenants and agrees to cooperate with each other in good faith in connection with, and shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts with respect to the pursuit, approval, negotiation, execution, delivery, implementation, and consummation of, the Plan, any Recognition Proceeding, the Pledge Enforcement, the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer, and the Restructuring, as well as the negotiation, drafting, execution and delivery of the Definitive Documents. Furthermore, subject to the terms hereof, each of the Parties shall (i) take such action as may be reasonably necessary or reasonably requested by the other Parties to carry out the purposes and intent of this Agreement, including making and filing any required regulatory filings, and (ii) refrain from taking any action that would frustrate the purposes and intent of this Agreement.

7. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each Party, severally (and not jointly), represents and warrants to the other Parties that the following statements are true, correct, and complete as of the date hereof (or as of the date a Consenting Creditor becomes a party hereto):

(i) such Party is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, and has all requisite corporate, partnership, limited liability company, or similar authority to enter into this Agreement and carry out the transactions contemplated hereby and perform its obligations contemplated hereunder; and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of such Party's obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, limited liability company, partnership or other similar action on its part;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance by such Party of this Agreement does not and will not (A) violate any material provision of law, rule, or regulation applicable to it or any of its subsidiaries or its charter or bylaws (or other similar governing documents) or those of any of its subsidiaries, or (B) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under any material contractual obligation to which it or any of its subsidiaries is a party except, in the case of the Company, for the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the commencement of any Recognition Proceeding, and the consummation of the Pledge Enforcement and Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by such Party of this Agreement does not and will not require any material registration or filing with, consent or approval of, or notice to, or other action, with or by, any federal, state or governmental authority or regulatory body; and similar laws relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles relating to enforceability or a ruling of the Bankruptcy Court.

(iv) this Agreement is the legally valid and binding obligation of such Party, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or other

(b) Each Consenting Creditor severally (and not jointly) represents and warrants to the other Parties that, as of the date hereof (or as of the date such Consenting Creditor becomes a party hereto), such Consenting Creditor (i) is, or subject to clearance of trades pending as of (or immediately prior to) the date of such Consenting Creditor becoming party to this Agreement, was or will be the owner of the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness and/or Interests set forth below its name on the signature page hereto (or below its name on the signature page of a Joinder Agreement for any Consenting Creditor that becomes a party hereto after the date hereof), free and clear of any restrictions on transfer, liens or options, warrants, purchase rights, contracts, commitments, claims, demands, and other encumbrances and does not own any other Claims or Interests (other than pursuant to any trades pending as of (or immediately prior to) the date of such Consenting Creditor becoming party to this Agreement), and/or (ii) has, with respect to the beneficial owners of such Claims or Interests, (A) sole investment or voting discretion with respect thereto, (B) full power and authority to vote on and consent to matters concerning such Claims or Interests to exchange, assign, and transfer such Claims or Interests, and (C) full power and authority to bind or act on the behalf of, such beneficial owners; provided that to the extent there are any discrepancies between the amounts set forth on a signature page hereto (or on a signature page to a Joinder Agreement) and the amounts set forth on the official registers maintained by the Agents, such Consenting Creditor and the Company shall work together in good faith to resolve such discrepancies with the Agents and to update, if necessary, the amounts set forth on the underlying signature page at issue.

8. Disclosure; Publicity.

The Company shall submit drafts to Consenting Creditor Counsel of any press releases regarding the Restructuring at least one (1) Business Day prior to making any such disclosure. Except as required by applicable law, rule, or regulation and notwithstanding any provision of any other agreement between the Company and such Consenting Creditor to the contrary, no Party or its advisors shall disclose to any Person (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any other Consenting Creditor), other than advisors to the Company and the Consenting Creditor Counsel, the principal amount or percentage of any Indebtedness of or Claims against the Company held by any Consenting Creditor without such Consenting Creditor's prior written consent; provided, however, that (a) if such disclosure is required by law, rule, or regulation, the disclosing Party shall, to the extent permitted by law, afford the relevant Consenting Creditor a reasonable opportunity to review and comment in advance of such disclosure and shall take commercially reasonable measures to limit such disclosure (the expense of which, if any, shall be borne by the relevant Consenting Creditor) and (b) the foregoing shall not prohibit the disclosure of the aggregate percentage or aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness collectively held by the Consenting Creditors. Notwithstanding the provisions in this Section 8, any Party may disclose, to the extent consented to in writing by a Consenting Creditor, such Consenting Creditor's individual holdings.

9. Amendments and Waivers.

(a) Other than as set forth in Section 9(b), this Agreement, including any exhibits or schedules hereto, may not be waived, modified, amended, or supplemented except with the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Creditors (with an email from counsel to the Company, counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group (on behalf of the Requisite First Lien Lenders), and counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group (on behalf of the Requisite Second Lien Lenders) being sufficient with respect to each such Party).

(b) Notwithstanding Section 9(a):

(i) any waiver, modification, amendment, or supplement to this Section 9 shall require the written consent of all of the Parties;

(ii) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting Creditor and the Parent;

(iii) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite First Lien Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting First Lien Creditor and the Parent;

(iv) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite Second Lien Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting Second Lien Creditor and the Parent;

(v) any change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement, any of the Restructuring Term Sheets, or any of the Definitive Documents that contemplates a sale of the shares in the Parent, all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or a significant business line of the Company shall require the written consent of each Consenting Creditor; and

(vi) any change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement, any of the Restructuring Term Sheets, or any of the Definitive Documents that treats or affects any Consenting Creditor's Claims arising under the Indebtedness in a manner that is materially and adversely disproportionate, on an economic or non-economic basis, to the manner in which (A) if such Consenting Creditor is a Consenting First Lien Lender, the Consenting First Lien Lenders or (B) if such Consenting Creditor is a Consenting Second Lien Lender, the Consenting Second Lien Lenders, are treated (after taking into account each of the Consenting First Lien Lenders' and Consenting Second Lien Lenders', as applicable, respective holdings in the Company and the recoveries contemplated by the Reorganization Term Sheet (as in effect as of the Support Effective Date)) shall require the written consent of such materially adversely and disproportionately affected Consenting Creditor.

(c) In the event that (x) a Consenting Creditor referred to in Section 9(b)(v) or (y) a materially adversely and disproportionately affected Consenting Creditor referred to in Section 9(b)(vi) (in each case, a "Non-Consenting Creditor") does not consent to a waiver, change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement requiring the consent of such Consenting Creditor, but such waiver, change, modification, or amendment receives the consent of Consenting Creditors owning at least 66⅔% of the outstanding principal amount of First Lien Debt or Second Lien Debt (whichever held by such Non-Consenting Creditor), this Agreement shall be deemed to have been terminated only as to such Non-Consenting Creditor, but this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect in respect to all other Consenting Creditors from time to time without the consent of any Consenting Creditors who have so consented.

10. Effectiveness.

This Agreement shall become effective and binding upon each Party upon the execution and delivery by such Party of an executed signature page hereto and shall become effective and binding on all Parties on the Support Effective Date; provided, however, that signature pages executed by Consenting Creditors shall be delivered to (i) other Consenting Creditors in a redacted form that removes such Consenting Creditors' account and/or fund name(s), holdings of Claims (including Indebtedness), and holdings of Interests and (ii) the Company, Weil, and Consenting Creditor Counsel in an unredacted form (to be held by Weil and Consenting Creditor Counsel on a professionals'-eyes-only basis).

11. GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

(b) Each of the Parties irrevocably agrees that any legal action, suit, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by any Party shall be brought and determined in any federal or state court in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York (the "New York Courts") and each of the Parties hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the New York Courts for itself and with respect to its property, generally and unconditionally, with regard to any such proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring. Each of the Parties agrees not to commence any proceeding relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring except in the New York Courts, other than proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any judgment, decree, or award rendered by any New York Court. Each of the Parties further agrees that notice as provided in Section 20 shall constitute sufficient service of process and the Parties further waive any argument that such service is insufficient. Each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion or as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the New York Courts for any reason, (ii) that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment, or otherwise) and (iii) that (A) the proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such proceeding is improper, or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, all proceedings contemplated by this Section 11(b) shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY (I) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT, OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (II) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

12. Specific Performance/Remedies.

It is understood and agreed by the Parties that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by any Party and each non-breaching Party shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) as a remedy of any such breach, without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy, including an order of the Bankruptcy Court requiring any Party to comply promptly with any of its obligations hereunder. Each Party also agrees that it will not seek, and will waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with any Party seeking or obtaining such relief.

13. Survival.

Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 5 hereof, the agreements and obligations of the Parties in this Section 13 and Sections 5(e), 5(f), 8, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, and 21 hereof (and any defined terms used in any such Sections) shall survive such termination and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms hereof; provided, however, that any liability of a Party for breach of the terms of this Agreement shall survive such termination.

14. Headings.

The headings of the sections, paragraphs, and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation hereof or, for any purpose, be deemed a part of this Agreement.

15. Successors and Assigns; Severability; Several Obligations.

This Agreement is intended to bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 15 shall be deemed to permit Transfers of the Claims or Interests other than in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of any such provision to any Person or circumstance, shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or part thereof and the remaining part of such provision hereof and this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any Party. Upon any such determination of invalidity, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a reasonably acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible. The agreements, representations, and obligations of the Parties are, in all respects, ratable and several and neither joint nor joint and several.

16. No Third-Party Beneficiaries.

Unless expressly stated herein, this Agreement shall be solely for the benefit of the Parties (and their permitted successors and assigns) and no other Person shall be a third-party beneficiary hereof.

17. Prior Negotiations; Entire Agreement.

This Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules hereto (including the Restructuring Term Sheets), constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties and supersedes all other prior negotiations with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof.

18. Confidential Information.

Any obligations the Company may have under or in connection with this Agreement to furnish Confidential Information to a Consenting Creditor shall be subject to such Consenting Creditor executing a confidentiality agreement with the Company in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Company.

19. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same agreement. Execution copies of this Agreement may be delivered by electronic mail, or otherwise, which shall be deemed to be an original for the purposes of this paragraph.

Any notice given by delivery, mail, or courier shall be effective when received. Any notice given by electronic mail shall be effective upon oral, machine, or electronic mail (as applicable) confirmation of transmission.

21. No Solicitation; Representation by Counsel; Adequate Information.

(a) This Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to be a solicitation of an offer to buy securities or a solicitation for votes in favor of the Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases. The acceptances of the Consenting Creditors with respect to the Plan will not be solicited until such Consenting Creditor has received the Disclosure Statement and, as applicable, related ballots and other Solicitation Materials. In addition, this Agreement does not constitute an offer to issue or sell securities to any Person or the solicitation of an offer to acquire or buy securities in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

(b) Each Party acknowledges that it has had an opportunity to receive information from the Company and that it has been represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Accordingly, any rule of law, or order, or any legal decision that would provide any Party with a defense to the enforcement of the terms of this Agreement against such Party based upon lack of legal counsel shall have no application and is expressly waived.

(c) Each Consenting Creditor acknowledges, agrees, and represents to the other Parties that it (i) is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D of the Securities Act, (ii) is a "qualified institutional buyer" as such term is defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act or an institutional "Accredited Investor" as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2),

(3), (7), or (8) under the Securities Act, (iii) understands that if it is to acquire any securities, as defined in the Securities Act, pursuant to the Restructuring, such securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and that such securities are, to the extent not offered, solicited, or acquired pursuant to section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Securities Act, based in part upon such Consenting Creditor's representations contained in this Agreement and cannot be sold unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is available, and (iv) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that such Consenting Creditor, as applicable, is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the securities to be acquired by it (if any) pursuant to the Restructuring and understands and is able to bear any economic risks with such investment.

22. Miscellaneous.

When a reference is made in this Agreement to a Section, Exhibit, or Schedule, such reference shall be to a Section, Exhibit, or Schedule, respectively, of or attached to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Unless the context of this Agreement otherwise requires, (i) words using the singular or plural number also include the plural or singular number, respectively, (ii) the terms "hereof," "herein," "hereby," and derivative or similar words refer to this entire Agreement, (iii) the words "include," "includes," and "including" when used herein shall be deemed in each case to be followed by the words "without limitation," (iv) the word "or" shall not be exclusive and shall be read to mean "and/or" and (v) unless the context otherwise requires, the word "extent" in the phrase "to the extent" means the degree to which a subject or other thing extends, and such phrase does not mean simply "if".

In the event that an Evergreen Stockholder transfers all of its Common Stock to an unaffiliated transferee and, at the time of such transfer, such Evergreen Stockholder is entitled to nominate an Evergreen Director in accordance with clause (ii) of the above section titled "Nomination of Directors" (such transfer, an "Evergreen Transfer"), then the right of such Evergreen Stockholder to nominate an Evergreen Director shall transfer to such unaffiliated transferee and all rights and limitations hereunder applicable to an Evergreen Stockholder (other than the right to nominate an Additional Director) shall apply to such transferee mutatis mutandis.

Promptly after the full administration of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Reorganized Debtors shall file with the Bankruptcy Court all documents required by Bankruptcy Rule 3022 and any applicable order of the Bankruptcy Court to close the Chapter 11 Cases; provided, as of the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may submit separate orders to the Bankruptcy Court under certification of counsel closing certain individual Chapter 11 Cases and changing the caption of the Chapter 11 Cases accordingly; provided further that matters concerning Claims may be heard and adjudicated in one of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases that remains open regardless of whether the applicable Claim is against a Debtor in a Chapter 11 Case that is closed. Nothing in this Plan shall authorize the closing of any case nunc pro tunc to a date that precedes the date any such order is entered. Any request for nunc pro tunc relief shall be made

For the avoidance of doubt, none of the DIP Agent, the First Lien Agent, or the Second Lien Agent shall have any liability to any party for actions taken in accordance with this Plan or in reliance upon information provided to it in accordance with this Plan, and the Reorganized Debtors shall reimburse the DIP Agent, First Lien Agent and the Second Lien Agent for any reasonable and documented fees and expenses (including reasonable and documented fees and expenses of its counsel and agents) incurred on or after the Effective Date in connection with the implementation of the Plan, including but not limited to, making distributions pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan.

6.8 Unclaimed Property.

One year from the later of: (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date that is ten (10) Business Days after the date a Claim is first Allowed, all distributions payable on account of such Claim shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors or their successors or assigns, and all claims of any other Person (including the holder of a Claim in the same Class) to such distribution shall be discharged and forever barred. The Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall have no obligation to attempt to locate any holder of an Allowed Claim other than by reviewing the Debtors' books and records and the Bankruptcy Court's filings.

6.9 Satisfaction of Claims.

Unless otherwise provided in this Plan, any distributions and deliveries to be made on account of Allowed Claims under this Plan shall be in complete and final satisfaction, settlement, and discharge of and exchange for such Allowed Claims.

6.10 Manner of Payment under Plan.

Except as specifically provided herein, at the option of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, any Cash payment to be made under this Plan may be made by a check or wire transfer or as otherwise required or provided in applicable agreements or customary practices of the Debtors.

6.11 Fractional Shares.

No fractional shares of Newco Equity (including Newco Equity issued upon exercise of the Warrants) or fractional Warrants shall be distributed. When any distribution would otherwise result in the issuance of a number of shares of Newco Equity (including Newco Equity issued upon exercise of the Warrants) or Warrants that is not a whole number, the Newco Equity or Warrants subject to such distribution shall be rounded to the next higher or lower whole number as follows: (i) fractions equal to or greater than 1/2 shall be rounded to the next higher whole number, and (ii) fractions less than 1/2 shall be rounded to the next lower whole number. The total number of shares of Newco Equity (including Newco Equity issued upon exercise of the Warrants) or Warrants to be distributed on account of Allowed Claims shall be adjusted as necessary to account for the rounding provided for herein. No consideration shall be provided in lieu of fractional shares that are rounded down.

6.12 Minimum Distribution.

Neither the Reorganized Debtors nor the Disbursing Agent, as applicable, shall have an obligation to make a distribution pursuant to this Plan that is less than one (1) share of Newco Equity, less than one (1) Warrant, or less than $100.00 in Cash.

6.13 No Distribution in Excess of Amount of Allowed Claim.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, no holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive, on account of such Allowed Claim, Plan Distributions in excess of the Allowed amount of such Claim (plus any postpetition interest on such Claim solely to the extent permitted by section 6.2 of this Plan).

6.14 Allocation of Distributions Between Principal and Interest.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan and subject to section 6.2 of this Plan or as otherwise required by law (as determined by the Reorganized Debtors), distributions with respect to an Allowed Claim shall be allocated first to the principal portion of such Allowed Claim (as determined for United States federal income tax purposes) and, thereafter, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim, if any.

6.15 Setoffs and Recoupments.

Other than with respect to the Claims in Class 3 and Class 4, each Reorganized Debtor, or such entity's designee as instructed by such Reorganized Debtor, may, pursuant to section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable nonbankruptcy law, set off or recoup against any Allowed Claim and the distributions to be made pursuant to this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, any and all claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever that a Reorganized Debtor or its successors may hold against the holder of such Allowed Claim after the Effective Date; provided, however, that neither the failure to effect a setoff or recoupment nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by a Reorganized Debtor or its successor of any claims, rights, or Causes of Action that a Reorganized Debtor or its successor or assign may possess against the holder of such Claim.

6.16 Rights and Powers of Disbursing Agent.

The Disbursing Agent shall be empowered to (i) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties hereunder, (ii) make all applicable distributions or payments provided for under this Plan, (iii) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities, and (iv) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Disbursing Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court (including any Final Order issued after the Effective Date) or pursuant to this Plan, or as deemed by the Disbursing Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions hereof.

6.17 Expenses of Disbursing Agent.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court and subject to the written agreement of the Reorganized Debtors, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Disbursing Agent on or after the Effective Date (including taxes) and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement Claims (including for reasonable attorneys' fees and other professional fees and expenses) made by the Disbursing Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Reorganized Debtors in the ordinary course of business.

6.18 Withholding and Reporting Requirements.

In connection with this Plan, any Person issuing any instrument or making any distribution or payment in connection therewith, shall comply with all applicable withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any federal, state, or local taxing authority. In the case of a non-Cash distribution that is subject to withholding, the distributing party may require the intended recipient of such distribution to provide the withholding agent with an amount of Cash sufficient to satisfy such withholding tax as a condition to receiving such distribution or withhold an appropriate portion of such distributed property and either (i) sell such withheld property to generate Cash necessary to pay over the withholding tax (or reimburse the distributing party for any advance payment of the withholding tax) or (ii) pay the withholding tax using its own funds and retain such withheld property. The distributing party shall have the right not to make a distribution under this Plan until its withholding or reporting obligation is satisfied pursuant to the preceding sentences. Any amounts withheld pursuant to this Plan shall be deemed to have been distributed to and received by the applicable recipient for all purposes of this Plan.

Any party entitled to receive any property as an issuance or distribution under this Plan shall, upon request, deliver to the withholding agent or such other Person designated by the Reorganized Debtors a Form W-8, Form W-9 and/or any other forms or documents, as applicable, requested by any Reorganized Debtor to reduce or eliminate any required federal, state, or local withholding. If the party entitled to receive such property as an issuance or distribution fails to comply with any such request for a one hundred eighty (180) day period beginning on the date after the date such request is made, the amount of such issuance or distribution shall irrevocably revert to the applicable Reorganized Debtor and any Claim in respect of such distribution under this Plan shall be discharged and forever barred from assertion against such Reorganized Debtor or its respective property.

Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest that is to receive a distribution under this Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any tax obligations imposed on such holder by any Governmental Unit, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such Plan Distribution.

ARTICLE VII. PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING CLAIMS.

7.1 Disputed Claims Process.

Notwithstanding section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise set forth in this Plan, holders of Claims need not file proofs of claim with the Bankruptcy Court, and the Reorganized Debtors and holders of Claims shall determine, adjudicate, and resolve any disputes over the validity and amounts of such Claims in the ordinary course of business as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced. Except for (i) proofs of claim asserting damages arising out of the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease by any of the Debtors pursuant to section 8.3 of this Plan, (ii) in respect of non-ordinary course Administrative Expense Claims made under section 2.1 of this Plan or pursuant to the Confirmation Order and (iii) proofs of claim that have been objected to by the Debtors before the Effective Date, (x) the holders of Claims shall not be subject to any claims resolution process in the Bankruptcy Court in connection with their Claims and shall retain all their rights under applicable non-bankruptcy law to pursue their Claims against the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors in any forum with jurisdiction over the parties and (y) upon the Effective Date, any filed Claim, regardless of the time of filing, and including Claims filed after the Effective Date, shall be deemed withdrawn. To the extent not otherwise provided in this Plan, the deemed withdrawal of a proof of Claim is without prejudice to such claimant's rights under section 7.1 of this Plan to assert its Claims in any forum as though the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced. From and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may satisfy, dispute, settle, or otherwise compromise any Claim without approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

7.2 Objections to Claims.

Except insofar as a Claim is Allowed under this Plan, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or any other party in interest shall be entitled to object to Claims. Any objections to Claims shall be served and filed (i) on or before the ninetieth (90th) day following the later of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date that a proof of Claim is filed or amended or a Claim is otherwise asserted or amended in writing by or on behalf of a holder of such Claim, or (ii) such later date as ordered by the Bankruptcy Court upon motion filed by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors.

7.3 Estimation of Claims.

The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may at any time request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate any contingent, unliquidated, or Disputed Claim pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, regardless of whether the Debtors had previously objected to or otherwise disputed such Claim or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to estimate any Claim at any time during litigation concerning any objection to any Claim, including during the pendency of any appeal relating to any such objection. In the event that the Bankruptcy Court estimates any contingent, unliquidated, or Disputed Claim, the amount so estimated shall constitute either the Allowed amount of such Claim or a maximum limitation on such Claim, as determined by the Bankruptcy Court. If the estimated amount constitutes a maximum limitation on the amount of such Claim, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may pursue supplementary proceedings to object to the allowance of such Claim.

7.4 Claim Resolution Procedures Cumulative.

All of the objection, estimation, and resolution procedures in this Plan are intended to be cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims may be estimated and subsequently settled, compromised, withdrawn, or resolved in accordance with this Plan without further notice or Bankruptcy Court approval.

7.5 No Distributions Pending Allowance.

If an objection, motion to estimate, or other challenge to a Claim is filed, no payment or distribution provided under this Plan shall be made on account of such Claim unless and until (and only to the extent that) such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

7.6 Distributions after Allowance.

To the extent that a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, distributions (if any) shall be made to the holder of such Allowed Claim in accordance with the provisions of this Plan. As soon as practicable after the date on which the order or judgment of the Bankruptcy Court allowing any Disputed Claim becomes a Final Order, the Disbursing Agent shall provide to the holder of such Claim the distribution (if any) to which such holder is entitled under this Plan as of the Effective Date, without any interest to be paid on account of such Claim unless required by the Bankruptcy Code.

ARTICLE VIII. EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES.

8.1 General Treatment.

(a) As of and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the payment of any applicable Cure Amount, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in any contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan, all executory contracts and unexpired leases shall be deemed assumed, including the Restructuring Support Agreement, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such executory contract or unexpired lease: (i) was assumed or rejected previously by the Debtors; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms; (iii) is the subject of a motion to reject filed on or before the Effective Date; or (iv) is identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List. Any executory contract or unexpired lease that is not deemed assumed on the Effective Date in accordance with this section 8.1(a) shall be deemed rejected, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute a Bankruptcy Court order approving the assumptions, assumption and assignment, or rejections, as applicable, of such executory contracts or unexpired leases as provided for in the Plan, pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code effective as of the Effective Date. Each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to the Plan or by Bankruptcy Court order but not assigned to a third party before the Effective Date shall re-vest in and be fully enforceable by the applicable contracting Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms, except as such terms may have been modified by the provisions of the Plan or any order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing and providing for its assumption under applicable federal law. Any motions to assume executory contracts or unexpired leases pending on the Effective Date shall be subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court on or after the Effective Date by a Final Order.

8.2 Determination of Assumption and Cure Disputes; Deemed Consent.

(a) Following the Petition Date, the Debtors shall have served a notice to parties of executory contracts and unexpired leases to be assumed stating the Debtors' intention to assume such contracts or leases in connection with this Plan and indicating that Cure Amounts (if any) they believe are payable by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, as a condition to such assumption. Any monetary amounts by which any executory contract or unexpired lease to be assumed under this Plan is in default shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, upon assumption thereof.

(b) If there is a dispute regarding (i) any Cure Amount, (ii) the ability of the Reorganized Debtors to provide adequate assurance of future performance (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the contract or lease to be assumed, or (iii) any other matter pertaining to assumption, such dispute shall be heard by the Bankruptcy Court prior to such assumption being effective. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent the dispute relates solely to any Cure Amounts, the applicable Reorganized Debtor may assume the executory contract or unexpired lease prior to the resolution of any such dispute; provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtor reserves Cash in an amount sufficient to pay the full amount reasonably asserted as the required Cure Amount by the contract counterparty; provided, further, however, that following entry of a Final Order resolving any such dispute, the Reorganized Debtor shall have the right to reject any executory contract or unexpired lease within thirty (30) days of such resolution, and any such rejection shall constitute rejection under the Plan.

(c) Any counterparty to an executory contract or unexpired lease that fails to object timely to the notice of the proposed assumption of such executory contract or unexpired lease or the proposed Cure Amount in accordance with the procedures set forth therein, shall be deemed to have assented to such assumption and Cure Amount and shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from challenging the validity of such assumption thereafter.

(d) Subject to resolution of any dispute regarding any Cure Amount, all Cure Amounts shall be satisfied by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, upon assumption of the applicable underlying contracts and unexpired leases. Assumption of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to this Plan, or otherwise, shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, subject to satisfaction of the Cure Amount, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed executory contract or unexpired lease at any time before the effective date of the assumption. Any proofs of claim filed with respect to an executory contract or unexpired lease that has been assumed or assigned shall be deemed disallowed and expunged, without further notice to or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, upon the deemed assumption of such contract or unexpired lease.

8.3 Rejection Damages Claims.

Any counterparty to a contract or lease that is identified on the Rejected Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List or is otherwise rejected by the Debtors must file and serve a proof of Claim on the applicable Debtor that is party to the contract or lease to be rejected no later than thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the Confirmation Date or (ii) the effective date of rejection of such executory contract or unexpired lease.

8.4 Survival of the Debtors' Indemnification Obligations.

The Company's indemnification provisions currently in place (whether in the bylaws, certificates of incorporation (or other equivalent governing documents), or employment contracts) for current and former directors, officers, employees, managing agents, and professionals and their respective affiliates will be assumed by the Company and not modified in any way by the Restructuring through the Plan or the transactions contemplated thereby.

8.5 Compensation and Benefit Plans.

All employment policies, and all compensation and benefits plans, policies, and programs of the Debtors applicable to their respective employees, retirees, and nonemployee directors, including all savings plans, retirement plans, healthcare plans, disability plans, severance benefit plans, incentive plans, and life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance plans in effect on the Effective Date, are deemed to be, and shall be treated as, executory contracts under this Plan and, on the Effective Date, shall be assumed pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8.6 Insurance Policies.

(a) All insurance policies to which any Debtor is a party as of the Effective Date, including any directors' and officers' insurance policies, shall be deemed to be and treated as executory contracts and shall be assumed by the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor and shall continue in full force and effect thereafter in accordance with their respective terms. All other insurance policies shall vest in the Reorganized Debtors.

(b) In addition, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any directors' and officers' insurance policies (including any "tail policy") in effect or purchased as of the Petition Date, and all members, managers, directors, and officers of the Company who served in such capacity at any time prior to the Effective Date or any other individuals covered by such insurance policies, shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy for the full term of such policy regardless of whether such members, managers, directors, officers, or other individuals remain in such positions after the Effective Date.

8.7 Reservation of Rights.

(a) Neither the exclusion nor the inclusion by the Debtors of any contract or lease on any exhibit, schedule, or other annex to this Plan or in the Plan Supplement, nor anything contained in this Plan, shall constitute an admission by the Debtors that any such contract or lease is or is not an executory contract or unexpired lease or that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or their respective affiliates has any liability thereunder.

(b) Except as explicitly provided in this Plan, nothing in this Plan shall waive, excuse, limit, diminish, or otherwise alter any of the defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under any executory or non-executory contract or unexpired or expired lease.

(c) Nothing in this Plan shall increase, augment, or add to any of the duties, obligations, responsibilities, or liabilities of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, under any executory or non-executory contract or unexpired or expired lease.

(d) If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory or unexpired at the time of its assumption under this Plan, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall have thirty (30) days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract or lease.

ARTICLE IX. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE OCCURRENCE OF THE EFFECTIVE DATE.

9.1 Conditions Precedent to Effective Date.

The Effective Date shall not occur unless all of the following conditions precedent have been satisfied:

(a) the Definitive Documents shall be consistent in all material respects with the Restructuring Support Agreement and otherwise approved by the parties thereto in accordance with the Definitive Document Requirements;

(b) the Restructuring Support Agreement shall not have been terminated and shall be in full force and effect;

(c) the Plan Supplement has been filed;

(d) the Bankruptcy Court has entered the Confirmation Order and such Confirmation Order has not been stayed, modified, or vacated;

(e) the Canadian Plan Confirmation Recognition Order shall have been issued and such Canadian Plan Confirmation Recognition Order has not been stayed, modified, or vacated, and shall not be subject to an application for leave to appeal, appeal, or other review;

(f) the conditions to the effectiveness of the Exit Credit Agreement, and all documentation related thereto, have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms thereof and the Exit Credit Agreement is in full force and effect and binding on all parties thereto;

(g) the conditions to the effectiveness of the Exit A/R Facility Agreement, and all documentation related thereto, have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms thereof except for the occurrence of the Effective Date.

(h) all governmental approvals, including Bankruptcy Court approval necessary to effectuate the Restructuring shall have been obtained and all applicable waiting periods have expired;

(i) the Professional Fee Escrow shall have been funded in full in Cash in an amount equal to the Professional Fee Reserve Amount;

(j) all Restructuring Fees and Expenses shall have been paid in Cash;

(k) the Plan shall not have been materially amended, altered, or modified from the Plan as confirmed by the Confirmation Order, unless such material amendment, alteration, or modification has been made in accordance with the terms of the Plan as confirmed by the Confirmation Order and the Restructuring Support Agreement; and

(l) all conditions to the Effective Date set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement shall have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms set forth therein.

9.2 Waiver of Conditions Precedent.

(a) Subject to the terms of the Restructuring Support Agreement, each of the conditions precedent to the occurrence of the Effective Date may be waived in writing by the Debtors and the Requisite Creditors without leave of or order of the Bankruptcy Court. Subject to the terms of the Restructuring Support Agreement, if any such condition precedent is waived pursuant to this section and the Effective Date occurs, each party agreeing to waive such condition precedent shall be estopped from withdrawing such waiver after the Effective Date or otherwise challenging the occurrence of the Effective Date on the basis that such condition was not satisfied, the waiver of such condition precedent shall benefit from the "equitable mootness" doctrine, and the occurrence of the Effective Date shall foreclose any ability to challenge this Plan in any court.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, all actions required to be taken on the Effective Date shall take place and shall be deemed to have occurred simultaneously and no such action shall be deemed to have occurred prior to the taking of any other such action.

(c) The stay of the Confirmation Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3020(e) shall be deemed waived by and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, and the Confirmation Order shall take effect immediately upon its entry.

9.3 Effect of Failure of a Condition.

If the conditions listed in section 9.1 of this Plan are not satisfied or waived in accordance with section 9.2 of this Plan on or before the first Business Day that is more than sixty (60) days after the date on which the Confirmation Order is entered or by such later date set forth by the Debtors in a notice filed with the Bankruptcy Court prior to the expiration of such period, this Plan shall be null and void in all respects and nothing contained in this Plan or the Disclosure Statement shall (i) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims by or against or any Interests in the Debtors, (ii) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Person, or (iii) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer, or undertaking by the Debtors, any of the Consenting Creditors, or any other Person.

ARTICLE X. EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION.

10.1 Binding Effect.

Except as otherwise provided in section 1141(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, on after entry of the Confirmation Order, the provisions of this Plan shall bind every holder of a Claim against or Interest in any Debtor and inure to the benefit of and be binding on such holder's respective successors and assigns, regardless of whether the Claim or Interest of such holder is Impaired under this Plan and whether such holder has accepted this Plan.

10.2 Vesting of Assets.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, or any Plan Document, on and after the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 1141(b) and (c) of the Bankruptcy Code, all Assets of the Estates, including all claims, rights, and Causes of Action and any property acquired by the Debtors under or in connection with this Plan, shall vest in each respective Reorganized Debtor free and clear of all Claims, Liens, encumbrances, charges, and other interests. Subject to the terms of this Plan, on and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, and dispose of property and prosecute, compromise, or settle any Claims (including any Administrative Expense Claims) and Causes of Action without supervision of or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free and clear of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules other than restrictions expressly imposed by this Plan or the Confirmation Order. Without limiting the foregoing, the Reorganized Debtors may pay the charges that they incur on or after the Confirmation Date for Professional Persons' fees, disbursements, expenses, or related support services without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

10.3 Discharge of Claims and Interests.

Upon the Effective Date and in consideration of the distributions to be made under this Plan, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan or in the Confirmation Order, each holder (as well as any trustee or agents on behalf of each holder) of a Claim or Interest and any affiliate of such holder shall be deemed to have forever waived, released, and discharged the Debtors, to the fullest extent permitted by section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, of and from any and all Claims, Interests, rights, and liabilities that arose prior to the Effective Date. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, upon the Effective Date, all such holders of Claims and Interests and their affiliates shall be forever precluded and enjoined, pursuant to sections 105, 524, and 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, from prosecuting or asserting any such discharged Claim against or terminated Interest in any Debtor or Reorganized Debtor.

10.4 Pre-Confirmation Injunctions and Stays.

Unless otherwise provided in this Plan or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all injunctions and stays arising under or entered during the Chapter 11 Cases, whether under sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and in existence on the date of entry of the Confirmation Order, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

10.5 Injunction against Interference with Plan.

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all holders of Claims and Interests and all other parties in interest, along with their respective present and former affiliates, employees, agents, officers, directors, and principals, shall be enjoined from taking any action to interfere with the implementation or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

10.6 Plan Injunction.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, in the Plan Documents, or in the Confirmation Order, as of the entry of the Confirmation Order but subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, all Persons who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests, and other parties in interest, along with their respective present or former employees, agents, officers, directors, principals, and affiliates, are permanently enjoined after the entry of the Confirmation Order from (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative, or other forum) against or affecting, directly or indirectly, a Debtor, a Reorganized Debtor, or an Estate or the property of any of the foregoing, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this subsection (i) or any property of any such transferee or successor, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering in any manner or by any means, whether directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree, or order against a Debtor, a Reorganized Debtor, or an Estate or its property, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this subsection (ii) or any property of any such transferee or successor, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against a Debtor, a Reorganized Debtor, or an Estate or any of its property, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this subsection (iii) or any property of any such transferee or successor, (iv) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of this Plan, and the Plan Documents, to the full extent permitted by applicable law, and (v) commencing or continuing, in any manner or in any place, any action that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Plan and the Plan Documents.

(b) By accepting distributions pursuant to this Plan, each holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest shall be deemed to have affirmatively and specifically consented to be bound by this Plan, including the injunctions set forth in section 10.6 of this Plan.

10.7 Releases.

(a) Releases by Debtors. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan, pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, for good and valuable consideration, including without limitation the efforts of the Released Parties to facilitate the reorganization of the Debtors and the implementation of the Restructuring contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement, on and after the Effective Date, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Debtors and the Estates are deemed to have conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released, waived, and discharged each Released Party from, and covenanted not to sue on account of, any and all claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, causes of action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, including any derivative claims and avoidance actions, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or other occurrence or circumstances existing or taking place at any time prior to or on the Effective Date, arising from or related in any way in whole or in part to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Restructuring, the Evergreen Skills Entities, the Parent, the Company or any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Parent, the First Lien Credit Agreement, Second Lien Credit Agreement, any Credit Document (as defined in the Credit Agreements), the Existing AR Credit Agreement, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the offer, purchase or sale of any security of the Company, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any claim against or equity interest in the Company that is treated hereunder, or the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Definitive Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, in each case other than claims or liabilities arising out of a Released Party's own intentional fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct.

(b) Releases by Holders of Claims or Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan, pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, for good and valuable consideration, including without limitation the efforts of the Debtors and Released Parties to facilitate the reorganization of the Debtors and the implementation of the Restructuring contemplated by the Restructuring Support Agreement, on and after the Effective Date, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each Releasing Party shall be deemed to have conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released, waived, and discharged each Released Party from, and covenanted not to sue on account of, any and all claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, causes of action, remedies, and liabilities whatsoever, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, including any derivative claims and avoidance actions, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing or hereinafter arising, in law, equity, or otherwise, based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or other occurrence or circumstances existing or taking place at any time prior to or on the Effective Date, arising from or related in any way in whole or in part to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Restructuring, the Evergreen Skills Entities, the Parent, the Company or any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Parent, the First Lien Credit Agreement, Second Lien Credit Agreement, any Credit Document (as defined in the Credit Agreements), the Existing AR Credit Agreement, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the offer, purchase or sale of any security of the Company, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any claim against or equity interest in the Company that is treated hereunder, or the negotiation, formulation, or preparation of the Definitive Documents or related agreements, instruments, or other documents, in each case other than claims or liabilities arising out of a Released Party's own intentional fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any First Lien Lender, Second Lien Lender, or DIP Lender from its respective obligations to the First Lien Agent, the Second Lien Agent, or the DIP Agent (and their respective successors, agents, and servants), as the case may be, under the applicable Credit Agreements or the DIP Credit Agreement.

10.8 Exculpation.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action in connection with or arising out of the administration of the chapter 11 cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Facility, the New First Out Term Loan Facility, the New Second Out Term Loan Facility, the Exit AR Facility, the Warrants, the Incentive Plans, the Disclosure Statement, the Restructuring Supporting Agreement, the Restructuring, and the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing; other than claims or Causes of Action arising out of or related to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is a criminal act or constitutes intentional fraud or willful misconduct as determined by a Final Order. In all respects the Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Exculpated Parties have acted in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code with regard to the solicitation and distribution of securities pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan, including the issuance of securities thereunder. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable law or rules protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

10.9 Injunction Related to Releases and Exculpation.

The Confirmation Order shall permanently enjoin the commencement or prosecution by any Person, whether directly, derivatively, or otherwise, of any Claims, obligations, suits, judgments, damages, demands, debts, rights, Causes of Action, losses, or liabilities released pursuant to this Plan, including, without limitation, the claims, obligations, suits, judgments, damages, demands, debts, rights, Causes of Action, and liabilities released or exculpated in this Plan or the Confirmation Order.

10.10 Subordinated Claims.

The allowance, classification, and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Interests and the respective distributions and treatments thereof under this Plan take into account and conform to the relative priority and rights of the Claims and Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal, and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, sections 510(a), 510(b), or 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors reserve the right to reclassify any Allowed Claim or Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal, or equitable subordination relating thereto.

10.11 Retention of Causes of Action and Reservation of Rights.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, including sections 10.6, 10.7, 10.8, and 10.9, nothing contained in this Plan or the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of any rights, claims, Causes of Action, rights of setoff or recoupment, or other legal or equitable defenses that the Debtors had immediately prior to the Effective Date on behalf of the Estates or of themselves in accordance with any provision of the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable nonbankruptcy law, including any affirmative Causes of Action against parties with a relationship with the Debtors. The Reorganized Debtors shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all such claims, Causes of Action, rights of setoff or recoupment, and other legal or equitable defenses as fully as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced, and all of the Debtors' legal and equitable rights in respect of any Unimpaired Claim may be asserted after the Confirmation Date and Effective Date to the same extent as if the Chapter 11 Cases had not been commenced.

10.12 Ipso Facto and Similar Provisions Ineffective.

Any term of any prepetition policy, prepetition contract, or other prepetition obligation applicable to a Debtor shall be void and of no further force or effect with respect to any Debtor to the extent that such policy, contract, or other obligation is conditioned on, creates an obligation of the Debtor as a result of, or gives rise to a right of any Entity based on (i) the insolvency or financial condition of a Debtor, (ii) the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, (iii) the confirmation or consummation of this Plan, including any change of control that shall occur as a result of such consummation, or (iv) the Restructuring Transactions.

(h) to hear and determine any application to modify this Plan in accordance with section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code to remedy any defect or omission or reconcile any inconsistency in this Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, including the Confirmation Order, in such a manner as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and effects thereof;

(i) to hear and determine all Fee Claims;

(j) to resolve disputes concerning any reserves with respect to Disputed Claims or the administration thereof;

(l) to take any action and issue such orders, including any such action or orders as may be necessary after entry of the Confirmation Order or the occurrence of the Effective Date, as may be necessary to construe, enforce, implement, execute, and consummate this Plan;

(m) to determine such other matters and for such other purposes as may be provided in the Confirmation Order;

(n) to hear and determine matters concerning state, local, and federal taxes in accordance with sections 346, 505, and 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code (including any requests for expedited determinations under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code);

(o) to hear and determine any other matters related to the Chapter 11 Cases and not inconsistent with the Bankruptcy Code or title 28 of the United States Code;

(p) to resolve any disputes concerning whether a Person had sufficient notice of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Disclosure Statement, any solicitation conducted in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, any bar date established in the Chapter 11 Cases, or any deadline for responding or objecting to a Cure Amount, in each case, for the purpose for determining whether a Claim or Interest is discharged hereunder or for any other purposes;

Subject to the terms of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw this Plan prior to the Effective Date as to any or all of the Debtors. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration, or interpretation by the Bankruptcy Court, subject to the terms of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the remainder of the terms and provisions of this Plan shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, Impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Company acknowledges and agrees and shall not dispute that, after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, the giving of notice of termination of this Agreement by any Party solely in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall not be a violation of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other stay (and the Company hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the applicability of the automatic stay or any other stay to the giving of such notice); provided, however, that nothing herein shall prejudice any Party's rights to argue that the giving of any notice of default or termination was not proper under the terms of this Agreement.

5. Termination of Agreement.

(a) This Agreement shall terminate three (3) Business Days following the delivery of written notice (in accordance with Section 20 hereof) from: (i) the Requisite First Lien Lenders to Parent and counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Creditor Termination Event (defined below); (ii) the Requisite Second Lien Lenders to Parent and counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Creditor Termination Event; or (iii) Parent to the Consenting Creditors at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Company Termination Event (defined below). Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Section 5, no Party may exercise any of its respective termination rights as set forth herein if such Party has failed to perform or comply in all material respects with the terms and conditions of this Agreement (unless such failure to perform or comply arises as a result of another Party's actions or inactions in breach of this Agreement), with such failure to perform or comply causing, or resulting in, the occurrence of a Creditor Termination Event or Company Termination Event specified herein. This Agreement shall terminate on the Effective Date without any further required action or notice.

(b) A "Creditor Termination Event" shall mean any of the following:

(i) the breach by the Company of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Company set forth herein in any material respect that remains uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 (as applicable);

(ii) the issuance by any governmental authority, including any regulatory authority or court of competent jurisdiction, of any ruling, judgment, or order enjoining the consummation of or prohibiting the Debtors from implementing the Plan, the Pledge Enforcement (if applicable), the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer, any Recognition Proceeding, or the Restructuring, and such ruling, judgment, or order has not been stayed, reversed, or vacated within fifteen (15) days after such issuance;

(iii) the failure of the Company to satisfy any Milestone as and when due;

(iv) the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction enters an order (A) directing the appointment of a trustee, receiver or examiner with expanded powers beyond those set forth in sections 1106(a)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code in one or more of the Chapter 11 Cases, (B) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (C) dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases;

(v) the Canadian Court enters an order (A) dismissing the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, (B) denying recognition of the Chapter 11 Cases as a "foreign main proceeding" or (C) denying recognition of any order issued by the Bankruptcy Court, including the DIP Orders or the Confirmation Order;

(vi) the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction enters a final order that grants relief terminating, annulling, or materially modifying the automatic stay (as set forth in section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code) or any other stay with regard to any material asset that, to the extent such relief were granted, would have a material adverse effect on the consummation of the Restructuring;

(vii) the Debtors withdraw the Plan or file any plan of reorganization or liquidation or disclosure statement that is inconsistent in any material respect with this Agreement, the Restructuring Term Sheets, or the Plan;

(viii) the Company files any document, motion, application, or adversary proceeding challenging the validity, enforceability, perfection, or priority of, or seeking avoidance or subordination of, any portion of the Consenting Creditors' Claims;

(ix) termination of the DIP Facility and the acceleration of any amounts outstanding thereunder in accordance with the terms of the DIP Financing Documents;

(x) the Company files a document, motion, application, or adversary proceeding (or the Company supports any such document, motion, application, or adversary proceeding filed or commenced by any third party) (A) challenging the validity, enforceability, perfection, or priority of, or seeking the avoidance or subordination of, any portion of the Indebtedness or asserting any other cause of action against the Consenting Creditors or with respect or relating to such

Indebtedness, the Credit Agreements or any Credit Document (as such term is defined in the Credit Agreements) or the prepetition liens securing the Indebtedness or (B) challenging the validity, enforceability, perfection, or priority of, or seeking avoidance or subordination of, any portion of the Indebtedness or asserting any other cause of action against the Consenting Creditors or with respect or relating to such Indebtedness or the prepetition liens securing the Indebtedness;

(xi) the Debtors lose the exclusive right to file a plan or plans of reorganization or to solicit acceptances thereof pursuant to section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(xii) the commencement of an involuntary case against the Company or the filing of an involuntary petition seeking bankruptcy, winding up, dissolution, liquidation, administration, moratorium, reorganization or other relief in respect of the Company, or its debts, or of a substantial part of its assets, under any federal, state, provincial, or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, administrative receivership or similar law now or hereafter in effect (provided that such involuntary proceeding is not dismissed within a period of thirty (30) days after the filing thereof), or if any court grants the relief sought in such involuntary proceeding; or (xiii) without the prior consent of the Requisite Creditors, the Company (A) voluntarily commences any case or files any petition seeking bankruptcy, winding up, dissolution, liquidation, administration, moratorium, reorganization or other relief under any federal, state, provincial, or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, administrative receivership or similar law now or hereafter in effect except as contemplated by this Agreement (other than an application for examinership in Ireland for the purpose of implementing the Restructuring, if ultimately determined necessary), (B) consents to the institution of, or fails to contest in a timely and appropriate manner, any involuntary proceeding or petition described above, (C) files an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding; or (D) applies for or consents to the appointment of a receiver (other than in furtherance of the Pledge Enforcement and the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer), administrator, administrative receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator, or similar official, trustee or examiner pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code in any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (E) makes a general assignment or arrangement for the benefit of creditors, or (F) takes any corporate action directly or indirectly authorizing any of the foregoing.

(c) A "Company Termination Event" shall mean any of the following:

(i) the breach by one or more of the Consenting Creditors of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Consenting Creditors set forth herein in any material respect that remains uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 hereof (as applicable), but only if the non-breaching Consenting Creditors collectively hold less than 66⅔% of the aggregate principal amount of each of the First Lien Debt and the Second Lien Debt then outstanding or comprise less than half in number of each of the First Lien Lenders and the Second Lien Lenders;

(ii) the board of directors, managers, members, or partners, as applicable, of Parent or any Company Party hereto reasonably determines in good faith, based upon the advice of counsel, that continued performance under this Agreement would be inconsistent with the exercise of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, however, that Parent or such Company Party provides notice of such determination to the Consenting Creditors within five (5) Business Days after the date thereof;

(iii) if, as of 11:59 p.m. prevailing Eastern Time on June 13, 2020, the Support Effective Date has not occurred;

(iv) the issuance by any governmental authority, including any regulatory authority or court of competent jurisdiction, of any ruling, judgment, or order enjoining the consummation of or prohibiting the Debtors from implementing the Plan, the Pledge Enforcement (if applicable), the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer, any Recognition Proceeding, or the Restructuring, and such ruling, judgment, or order has not been stayed, reversed, or vacated within fifteen (15) days after such issuance;

(v) termination of the DIP Facility and the acceleration of any amounts outstanding thereunder in accordance with the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement;

(vi) if counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group and/or counsel to the Ad Hoc Second Lien Group give notice of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 5;

(vii) the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction enters an order (A) directing the appointment of a trustee, receiver or examiner with expanded powers beyond those set forth in sections 1106(a)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code in one or more of the Chapter 11 Cases (other than an application for examinership in Ireland for the purpose of implementing the Restructuring, if ultimately determined necessary), (B) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (C) dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases;

(viii) the Canadian Court enters an order (A) dismissing the Canadian Recognition Proceeding, (B) denying recognition of the Chapter 11 Cases as "foreign main proceedings" or (C) denying recognition of any order issued by the Bankruptcy Court, including the DIP Orders or the Confirmation Order; or

(ix) the occurrence of the Outside Date if the Effective Date has not occurred.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any of the dates or deadlines set forth in Section 5(b) and 5(c) may be extended by the mutual agreement of the Company and the Requisite Creditors.

In addition, notwithstanding anything set forth herein, the Requisite First Lien Lenders (determined without including the holdings of any breaching Party in the numerator or the denominator), on behalf of the Consenting First Lien Lenders, may terminate this Agreement upon the breach by any Consenting Second Lien Lender of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Consenting Second Lien Lenders set forth herein in any material respect that remain uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 hereof (as applicable), but only if the non-breaching Consenting Second Lien Lenders collectively hold less than 66⅔% of the aggregate principal amount of the Second Lien Debt then outstanding or comprise less than half in number of the Second Lien Lenders; and provided further that the Requisite Second Lien Lenders (determined without including the holdings of any breaching Party in the numerator or the denominator), on behalf of the Consenting Second Lien Lenders, may terminate this Agreement upon the breach by any Consenting First Lien Lender of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or covenants of the Consenting First Lien Lenders set forth herein in any material respect that remain uncured for a period of five (5) Business Days after the receipt of written notice of such breach pursuant to this Section 5 and in accordance with Section 20 hereof (as applicable), but only if the non-breaching Consenting First Lien Lenders collectively hold less than 66⅔% of the aggregate principal amount of the First Lien Debt then outstanding or comprise less than half in number of the First Lien Lenders.

(d) Mutual Termination. This Agreement may be terminated by mutual agreement of the Company and the Requisite Creditors upon the receipt of written notice delivered in accordance with Section 20 hereof.

(e) Effect of Termination. Subject to the provisions contained in Section 5(a) and Section 13, upon the termination of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 5, this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void and of no further force or effect and each Party shall, except as provided otherwise in this Agreement, be immediately released from its liabilities, obligations, commitments, undertakings, and agreements under or related to this Agreement and shall have all the rights and remedies that it would have had and shall be entitled to take all actions, whether with respect to the Restructuring or otherwise, that it would have been entitled to take had it not entered into this Agreement, including all rights and remedies available to it under applicable law; provided, however, that in no event shall any such termination relieve a Party from liability for its breach or non-performance of any of its obligations hereunder prior to the date of such termination.

(f) If the Restructuring is not consummated, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver by any Party of any or all of such Party's rights, and the Parties expressly reserve any and all of their respective rights. This Agreement and all negotiations relating hereto shall not be admissible into evidence in any proceeding other than a proceeding to enforce the Agreement's terms, and, if applicable, Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any other applicable rules shall apply.

6. Definitive Documents; Good Faith Cooperation; Further Assurances.

Each Party hereby covenants and agrees to cooperate with each other in good faith in connection with, and shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts with respect to the pursuit, approval, negotiation, execution, delivery, implementation, and consummation of, the Plan, any Recognition Proceeding, the Pledge Enforcement, the Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer, and the Restructuring, as well as the negotiation, drafting, execution and delivery of the Definitive Documents. Furthermore, subject to the terms hereof, each of the Parties shall (i) take such action as may be reasonably necessary or reasonably requested by the other Parties to carry out the purposes and intent of this Agreement, including making and filing any required regulatory filings, and (ii) refrain from taking any action that would frustrate the purposes and intent of this Agreement.

7. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each Party, severally (and not jointly), represents and warrants to the other Parties that the following statements are true, correct, and complete as of the date hereof (or as of the date a Consenting Creditor becomes a party hereto):

(i) such Party is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, and has all requisite corporate, partnership, limited liability company, or similar authority to enter into this Agreement and carry out the transactions contemplated hereby and perform its obligations contemplated hereunder; and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of such Party's obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, limited liability company, partnership or other similar action on its part;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance by such Party of this Agreement does not and will not (A) violate any material provision of law, rule, or regulation applicable to it or any of its subsidiaries or its charter or bylaws (or other similar governing documents) or those of any of its subsidiaries, or (B) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under any material contractual obligation to which it or any of its subsidiaries is a party except, in the case of the Company, for the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the commencement of any Recognition Proceeding, and the consummation of the Pledge Enforcement and Share and Intercompany Debt Transfer;

(iii) the execution, delivery, and performance by such Party of this Agreement does not and will not require any material registration or filing with, consent or approval of, or notice to, or other action, with or by, any federal, state or governmental authority or regulatory body; and

(iv) this Agreement is the legally valid and binding obligation of such Party, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or other similar laws relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles relating to enforceability or a ruling of the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Each Consenting Creditor severally (and not jointly) represents and warrants to the other Parties that, as of the date hereof (or as of the date such Consenting Creditor becomes a party hereto), such Consenting Creditor (i) is, or subject to clearance of trades pending as of (or immediately prior to) the date of such Consenting Creditor becoming party to this Agreement, was or will be the owner of the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness and/or Interests set forth below its name on the signature page hereto (or below its name on the signature page of a Joinder Agreement for any Consenting Creditor that becomes a party hereto after the date hereof), free and clear of any restrictions on transfer, liens or options, warrants, purchase rights, contracts, commitments, claims, demands, and other encumbrances and does not own any other Claims or Interests (other than pursuant to any trades pending as of (or immediately prior to) the date of such Consenting Creditor becoming party to this Agreement), and/or (ii) has, with respect to the beneficial owners of such Claims or Interests, (A) sole investment or voting discretion with respect thereto, (B) full power and authority to vote on and consent to matters concerning such Claims or Interests to exchange, assign, and transfer such Claims or Interests, and (C) full power and authority to bind or act on the behalf of, such beneficial owners; provided that to the extent there are any discrepancies between the amounts set forth on a signature page hereto (or on a signature page to a Joinder Agreement) and the amounts set forth on the official registers maintained by the Agents, such Consenting Creditor and the Company shall work together in good faith to resolve such discrepancies with the Agents and to update, if necessary, the amounts set forth on the underlying signature page at issue.

8. Disclosure; Publicity.

The Company shall submit drafts to Consenting Creditor Counsel of any press releases regarding the Restructuring at least one (1) Business Day prior to making any such disclosure. Except as required by applicable law, rule, or regulation and notwithstanding any provision of any other agreement between the Company and such Consenting Creditor to the contrary, no Party or its advisors shall disclose to any Person (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any other Consenting Creditor), other than advisors to the Company and the Consenting Creditor Counsel, the principal amount or percentage of any Indebtedness of or Claims against the Company held by any Consenting Creditor without such Consenting Creditor's prior written consent; provided, however, that (a) if such disclosure is required by law, rule, or regulation, the disclosing Party shall, to the extent permitted by law, afford the relevant Consenting Creditor a reasonable opportunity to review and comment in advance of such disclosure and shall take commercially reasonable measures to limit such disclosure (the expense of which, if any, shall be borne by the relevant Consenting Creditor) and (b) the foregoing shall not prohibit the disclosure of the aggregate percentage or aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness collectively held by the Consenting Creditors. Notwithstanding the provisions in this Section 8, any Party may disclose, to the extent consented to in writing by a Consenting Creditor, such Consenting Creditor's individual holdings.

9. Amendments and Waivers.

(a) Other than as set forth in Section 9(b), this Agreement, including any exhibits or schedules hereto, may not be waived, modified, amended, or supplemented except with the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Creditors (with an email from counsel to the Company, counsel to the Ad Hoc First Lien Group (on behalf of the Requisite First Lien Lenders), and counsel to the Ad Hoc Crossholder Group (on behalf of the Requisite Second Lien Lenders) being sufficient with respect to each such Party).

(b) Notwithstanding Section 9(a):

(i) any waiver, modification, amendment, or supplement to this Section 9 shall require the written consent of all of the Parties;

(ii) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting Creditor and the Parent;

(iii) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite First Lien Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting First Lien Creditor and the Parent;

(iv) any modification, amendment, or change to the definition of "Requisite Second Lien Creditors" shall require the written consent of each Consenting Second Lien Creditor and the Parent;

(v) any change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement, any of the Restructuring Term Sheets, or any of the Definitive Documents that contemplates a sale of the shares in the Parent, all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or a significant business line of the Company shall require the written consent of each Consenting Creditor; and

(vi) any change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement, any of the Restructuring Term Sheets, or any of the Definitive Documents that treats or affects any Consenting Creditor's Claims arising under the Indebtedness in a manner that is materially and adversely disproportionate, on an economic or non-economic basis, to the manner in which (A) if such Consenting Creditor is a Consenting First Lien Lender, the Consenting First Lien Lenders or (B) if such Consenting Creditor is a Consenting Second Lien Lender, the Consenting Second Lien Lenders, are treated (after taking into account each of the Consenting First Lien Lenders' and Consenting Second Lien Lenders', as applicable, respective holdings in the Company and the recoveries contemplated by the Reorganization Term Sheet (as in effect as of the Support Effective Date)) shall require the written consent of such materially adversely and disproportionately affected Consenting Creditor.

(c) In the event that (x) a Consenting Creditor referred to in Section 9(b)(v) or (y) a materially adversely and disproportionately affected Consenting Creditor referred to in Section 9(b)(vi) (in each case, a "Non-Consenting Creditor") does not consent to a waiver, change, modification, or amendment to this Agreement requiring the consent of such Consenting Creditor, but such waiver, change, modification, or amendment receives the consent of Consenting Creditors owning at least 66⅔% of the outstanding principal amount of First Lien Debt or Second Lien Debt (whichever held by such Non-Consenting Creditor), this Agreement shall be deemed to have been terminated only as to such Non-Consenting Creditor, but this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect in respect to all other Consenting Creditors from time to time without the consent of any Consenting Creditors who have so consented.

10. Effectiveness.

This Agreement shall become effective and binding upon each Party upon the execution and delivery by such Party of an executed signature page hereto and shall become effective and binding on all Parties on the Support Effective Date; provided, however, that signature pages executed by Consenting Creditors shall be delivered to (i) other Consenting Creditors in a redacted form that removes such Consenting Creditors' account and/or fund name(s), holdings of Claims (including Indebtedness), and holdings of Interests and (ii) the Company, Weil, and Consenting Creditor Counsel in an unredacted form (to be held by Weil and Consenting Creditor Counsel on a professionals'-eyes-only basis).

11. GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

(b) Each of the Parties irrevocably agrees that any legal action, suit, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by any Party shall be brought and determined in any federal or state court in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York (the "New York Courts") and each of the Parties hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the New York Courts for itself and with respect to its property, generally and unconditionally, with regard to any such proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring. Each of the Parties agrees not to commence any proceeding relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring except in the New York Courts, other than proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any judgment, decree, or award rendered by any New York Court. Each of the Parties further agrees that notice as provided in Section 20 shall constitute sufficient service of process and the Parties further waive any argument that such service is insufficient. Each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion or as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Restructuring, (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the New York Courts for any reason, (ii) that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment, or otherwise) and (iii) that (A) the proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (B) the venue of such proceeding is improper, or (C) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, all proceedings contemplated by this Section 11(b) shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR ANY OTHER THEORY). EACH PARTY (I) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT, OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (II) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

12. Specific Performance/Remedies.

It is understood and agreed by the Parties that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by any Party and each non-breaching Party shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) as a remedy of any such breach, without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy, including an order of the Bankruptcy Court requiring any Party to comply promptly with any of its obligations hereunder. Each Party also agrees that it will not seek, and will waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with any Party seeking or obtaining such relief.

13. Survival.

Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 5 hereof, the agreements and obligations of the Parties in this Section 13 and Sections 5(e), 5(f), 8, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, and 21 hereof (and any defined terms used in any such Sections) shall survive such termination and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms hereof; provided, however, that any liability of a Party for breach of the terms of this Agreement shall survive such termination.

14. Headings.

The headings of the sections, paragraphs, and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation hereof or, for any purpose, be deemed a part of this Agreement.

15. Successors and Assigns; Severability; Several Obligations.

This Agreement is intended to bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 15 shall be deemed to permit Transfers of the Claims or Interests other than in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of any such provision to any Person or circumstance, shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or part thereof and the remaining part of such provision hereof and this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any Party. Upon any such determination of invalidity, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a reasonably acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible. The agreements, representations, and obligations of the Parties are, in all respects, ratable and several and neither joint nor joint and several.

16. No Third-Party Beneficiaries.

Unless expressly stated herein, this Agreement shall be solely for the benefit of the Parties (and their permitted successors and assigns) and no other Person shall be a third-party beneficiary hereof.

17. Prior Negotiations; Entire Agreement.

This Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules hereto (including the Restructuring Term Sheets), constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties and supersedes all other prior negotiations with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof.

18. Confidential Information.

Any obligations the Company may have under or in connection with this Agreement to furnish Confidential Information to a Consenting Creditor shall be subject to such Consenting Creditor executing a confidentiality agreement with the Company in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Company.

19. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same agreement. Execution copies of this Agreement may be delivered by electronic mail, or otherwise, which shall be deemed to be an original for the purposes of this paragraph.

21. No Solicitation; Representation by Counsel; Adequate Information.

(a) This Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to be a solicitation of an offer to buy securities or a solicitation for votes in favor of the Plan in the Chapter 11 Cases. The acceptances of the Consenting Creditors with respect to the Plan will not be solicited until such Consenting Creditor has received the Disclosure Statement and, as applicable, related ballots and other Solicitation Materials. In addition, this Agreement does not constitute an offer to issue or sell securities to any Person or the solicitation of an offer to acquire or buy securities in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

(b) Each Party acknowledges that it has had an opportunity to receive information from the Company and that it has been represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Accordingly, any rule of law, or order, or any legal decision that would provide any Party with a defense to the enforcement of the terms of this Agreement against such Party based upon lack of legal counsel shall have no application and is expressly waived.

(c) Each Consenting Creditor acknowledges, agrees, and represents to the other Parties that it (i) is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D of the Securities Act, (ii) is a "qualified institutional buyer" as such term is defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act or an institutional "Accredited Investor" as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2),

(3), (7), or (8) under the Securities Act, (iii) understands that if it is to acquire any securities, as defined in the Securities Act, pursuant to the Restructuring, such securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and that such securities are, to the extent not offered, solicited, or acquired pursuant to section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in the Securities Act, based in part upon such Consenting Creditor's representations contained in this Agreement and cannot be sold unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is available, and (iv) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that such Consenting Creditor, as applicable, is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the securities to be acquired by it (if any) pursuant to the Restructuring and understands and is able to bear any economic risks with such investment.

22. Miscellaneous.

When a reference is made in this Agreement to a Section, Exhibit, or Schedule, such reference shall be to a Section, Exhibit, or Schedule, respectively, of or attached to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Stockholder Proposals	At any meeting of stockholders, only the business brought forward by the Directors or the stockholders shall be decided. To submit business (i) for an annual meeting, a stockholder must provide notice not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting and (ii) for a special meeting, the Requesting Stockholders must provide notice in connection with their request for such meeting. In each case, stockholders must provide a description of business to be discussed along with information about their holdings and interests in the Company in the notice. There is no limit with respect to the number of matters that can be brought at a meeting.
Quorum	Stockholders holding a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock shall constitute a quorum. Unless otherwise required by law or the Company's governing documents, the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock present in person or voting by proxy shall be sufficient to take corporate action.
Stockholder Approval Matters	The following actions shall require the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock: (i) the matters set forth in clauses (i) and (iii) of the definition of "Supermajority Matters"; provided that stockholder approval shall not be required for any matter set forth in clause (iii)(A) of the definition of "Supermajority Matters", or for any matter set forth in clause (iii)(B) of the definition of "Supermajority Matters" if, in the case of any matter set forth in clause (iii)(B) of the definition of "Supermajority Matters", the proceeds of such financing are used for general corporate purposes; (ii) the issuance, in one or more related transactions, of any shares of Common Stock (or Preferred Stock or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock) exceeding 20% of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock; and Notwithstanding the foregoing, holders of Common Stock (including Common Stock issuable upon exercise of Warrants) or Warrants shall not transfer any such Common Stock or Warrants, as applicable, if, in the Board's judgment, such transfer could, or may reasonably be expected to, result in an increase in the number of holders of record of such class of equity securities which would cause the Company to become required to register such securities under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). In the event that an Evergreen Stockholder transfers all of its Common Stock to an unaffiliated transferee and, at the time of such transfer, such Evergreen Stockholder is entitled to nominate an Evergreen Director in accordance with clause (ii) of the above section titled "Nomination of Directors" (such transfer, an "Evergreen Transfer"), then the right of such Evergreen Stockholder to nominate an Evergreen Director shall transfer to such unaffiliated transferee and all rights and limitations hereunder applicable to an Evergreen Stockholder (other than the right to nominate an Additional Director) shall apply to such transferee mutatis mutandis.

The Drag-Along Rights shall be subject to customary limits on representations, warranties, restrictive covenants and indemnities and the consideration to be received by stockholders shall be in the same form and amount per share.

Tag-along rights shall be subject to customary limits on representations, warranties, restrictive covenants and indemnities and the consideration to be received by stockholders participating in transactions subject to such tag-along rights shall be in the same form and amount per share. In addition, the Company will schedule a teleconference

Registration Rights	Demand Registration Rights: Following an initial public offering by the Company (an "IPO"), upon receipt of a demand by one or more holders collectively holding at least 10% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (collectively, "Registrable Securities"), subject to mutually agreed restrictions regarding the aggregate number of demand rights and customary time limitations and suspension/blackout periods, the Company shall provide a notice to all holders of Registrable Securities to allow participation in a registration as selling holders. Amounts sold by selling holders will be pro rata based on the relative amounts of Registrable Securities held by them, subject to pro rata reduction based on any cap on the number of securities to be sold as advised by the underwriters, and subject to normal blackout provisions. For the avoidance of doubt, Warrants shall not be considered "Registrable Securities" hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the Company's receipt of a demand in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the Company shall provide notice to the holders of Warrants in order to enable any such holders to exercise their Warrants and, to the extent permitted, participate in such registration with respect to the Common Stock received pursuant to such exercise. Piggyback Registration Rights: If the Company plans to file a registration statement (other than for an IPO or in other customary circumstances in which piggy-back rights are not appropriate), the Company shall provide a notice to all holders of Registrable Securities to offer participation in the registration as selling holders. The Company shall have the right to sell as many shares as the Company wants and any additional securities that may be sold as advised by the underwriters will be allocated among the participating selling holders on a pro rata basis based on the relative amounts of Registrable Securities held by them, in all cases subject to normal blackout provisions. Lock-Up: Any reasonable lock-up requested by underwriters shall apply only to selling holders and, in connection with an IPO only, holders holding more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Registration Rights shall be provided pursuant to an agreement in reasonably customary form for transactions of this type.

No non-executive director of the Company and/or its subsidiaries shall be permitted to pursue any corporate opportunity that could reasonably benefit the Company and/or its subsidiaries based on the then-current business plan, in each case, if, and only to the extent, such corporate opportunity was presented to, or acquired, created or developed by, or otherwise came into the possession of, such non-executive director expressly, solely and directly in such person's capacity as a director of the Company, unless a majority of disinterested Directors confirms that the Company (including its subsidiaries) will not pursue such opportunity. For the avoidance of doubt, no stockholder of the Company shall be restricted from pursuing any corporate opportunities, unless such stockholder is also a director or officer of the Company and/or its subsidiaries.
Related Party Transactions	Other than commercial transactions in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice on arms'-length terms and the issuance of securities pursuant to the preemptive rights described above, the entering into of any transaction with (i) a stockholder, director or officer of the Company, (ii) any entity in which one or more stockholders, directors or officers of the Company owns, directly or indirectly, individually or in the aggregate, 5% or more of the outstanding equity securities of such entity or (iii) any "affiliate", "associate" or member of the "immediate family" (as such terms are respectively defined in rules and regulations under the Exchange Act) of any person described in the foregoing clauses (i) or (ii) shall, in each case, require the affirmative vote of a majority of Directors (excluding any Director who is, or is a related party of, the person with whom the Company or any of its subsidiaries is proposing to enter into the relevant transaction).
Amendments to Governing Documents	Bylaws: Subject to applicable law and the terms of the stockholder agreement to which the Company is party (the "Stockholder Agreement") and the Company's certificate of incorporation (as amended, the "Charter"), the bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws") may be amended or repealed, or new Bylaws adopted, by either the Board or stockholders holding a majority of outstanding shares of Common Stock. Charter: Any amendment to the Charter shall be made in accordance with applicable law. Stockholder Agreement: Amendments to provisions of the Stockholder Agreement shall require the prior consent of stockholders holding (a) 66 2/3% of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock, with respect to amendments to provisions of the Stockholder Agreement related to: (i) Board participation rights; (ii) size of the Board; (iii) supermajority Board approval rights; (iv) stockholder approval rights; (v) Tag-Along Sale rights; (vi) sale of the Company approval rights; (vii) preemptive rights; and (viii) registration rights and (b) a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock for all other amendments (in either case of (a) or (b), the "Amendment Threshold"); provided that (i) no amendment may adversely affect a stockholder relative to other stockholders without such stockholder's specific written consent; (ii) any amendment to the provisions of the Stockholder Agreement regarding the rights of one or more stockholders to nominate Directors shall require the written consent of all such nominating stockholders; and (iii) no provision of the Stockholder Agreement which requires the consent of stockholders owning more than the Amendment Threshold to take the action described therein may be amended without the consent of stockholders owning such higher percentage of shares of Common Stock. Upon an IPO, the Stockholder Agreement (other than provisions relating to registration rights) shall terminate. In the event of a conflict between the Stockholder Agreement, on the one hand, and the Bylaws or the Charter, on the other hand, the Stockholder Agreement will prevail, and the stockholders will take all actions necessary to amend the Charter and/or Bylaws to the extent necessary to conform to the relevant terms of the Stockholder Agreement.

Term	Description
Issuer:	Newco Parent (such entity, "Issuer").[5]
Warrants:	On the Effective Date (the "Effective Date"), Issuer will issue the following two tranches of warrants (collectively, the "New Warrants") to the holders thereof (collectively, the "Holders"): - Tranche A Warrants, which will entitle the Holders thereof to receive, upon exercise of the Tranche A Warrants, common stock of Issuer ("New Common Stock") representing in the aggregate 5% of the total outstanding New Common Stock; and - Tranche B Warrants, which will entitle the Holders thereof to receive, upon exercise of the Tranche B Warrants, New Common Stock representing in the aggregate 10% of the total outstanding New Common Stock. For purposes of calculating the percentage of New Common Stock issued upon exercise of the New Warrants, the total outstanding New Common Stock shall be calculated as of the Effective Date and assuming the exercise of all such New Warrants (but excluding any New Common Stock issued or reserved for issuance under any management and/or board incentive plan implemented by Issuer).[6]

Exercise Price:	The exercise price for the New Warrants (the "Exercise Price") will be fixed as of the Effective Date (as may be thereafter adjusted as set forth under "Fundamental Transaction" and "Anti-Dilution" below) and shall be as follows: - To the extent that the Holder elects to exercise the Tranche A Warrants: a price per share equal to [___][7] with the Exercise Price being allocated at par value per share to share capital and the difference to share premium; and - Tranche B Warrants: a price per share equal to [___] with the Exercise Price being allocated at par value per share to share capital and the difference to share premium.[8][9]
Term:	The New Warrants will expire on the earlier of (x) the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date and (y) the consummation of a Fundamental Transaction (as defined below) (the "Expiration Date"). Fundamental Transaction:	Each New Warrant shall be automatically exercised immediately prior, but subject to, the consummation of a Fundamental Transaction on a "cashless basis" (as described below) and each Holder shall participate in such Fundamental Transaction with respect to the shares of New Common Stock issuable upon such exercise.[11] The exercise price applicable to such exercise will be the lesser of (i) the then-current Exercise Price, and (ii) a Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price (which will be a price calculated to provide to each Warrant holder ordinary shares which, when exchanged for the Fundamental Transaction consideration per ordinary share (the "Transaction Consideration"), will cause the holder to realize, net of the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, a net Fair Market Value of the Transaction Consideration equal to the Black Scholes Value per share of each Warrant). As used herein, "Fundamental Transaction" means any (i) merger, consolidation, amalgamation or other similar transaction or series of related transactions to which the Issuer is a party and pursuant to which (A) an existing Stockholder (or its affiliate, or other person comprising an existing stockholder and one or more of its affiliates) acquires 90% or more of the voting power of the outstanding securities of the Issuer or (B) the "beneficial owners" (as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of the outstanding equity securities of Issuer immediately prior to such transaction "beneficially own" in the aggregate less than 50% of the voting power of the outstanding equity securities of the surviving entity immediately following such transaction, (ii) sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of Issuer's assets (by value), which is consummated with a third-party who is unaffiliated with Issuer (other than a stockholder who is affiliated with the Issuer) at the time of such transaction, or (iii) voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of Issuer, in each of cases (i)-(iii), which is effected in such a way that the holders of New Common Stock receive or are entitled to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation) cash, stock, securities or other assets or property with respect to or in exchange for New Common Stock. As used herein, "Black Scholes Value" means the value of the unexercised portion of any New Warrants remaining on the date of any Holder's notice of election, which value shall be determined by an investment banking firm or independent third-party appraiser, in each case of nationally recognized standing (the "Appraiser") using the Black Scholes Option Pricing Model for a "call" option, as obtained from the "OVME" function on Bloomberg, L.P. subject to the following assumptions: (i) an underlying price per share equal to the sum of the price per share of New Common Stock being offered in cash in the applicable Fundamental Transaction (if any) plus the Fair Market Value of the non-cash consideration being offered to holders with respect to each share of New Common Stock in the applicable Fundamental Transaction (if any), (ii) a strike price equal to the Exercise Price in effect on the date of the Holder's notice of election, (iii) a risk-free interest rate corresponding to the interpolated rate on the United States Treasury securities with a maturity closest to the remaining term of the New Warrant as of the date of consummation of the applicable Fundamental Transaction, (iv) a zero cost of borrow and (v) an expected volatility equal to 35%. For purposes of determining the Black Scholes Value and the Fair Market Value (as described below), the Appraiser shall be selected by the Independent Director (as defined in the Governance Term Sheet) or, if there is more than one Independent Director on the New Board at such time, a majority of such Independent Directors, in each case at the sole cost and expense of the Issuer.[12]

Exercise; Payment of Exercise Price:	The New Warrants shall be exercisable, at the option of the Holder thereof, at any time prior to the Expiration Date, in whole or in part, into New Common Stock, by delivering to Issuer such New Warrant(s), together with a notice of exercise of such New Warrant(s). The issuance of New Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of New Warrants (collectively, the "Warrant Shares") shall be subject to payment in full by the Holder of the applicable Exercise Price either (i) by delivery to Issuer of a certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds in the amount of the aggregate Exercise Price for such Warrant Shares or (ii) on a "cashless basis" by paying the Exercise Price (or the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, as applicable) as follows: (i) payment by the Holder of the par value of the Warrant Shares in cash, and (ii) payment of the difference of the Exercise Price (or the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, as applicable) by instructing Issuer to withhold a number of Warrant Shares (or fraction thereof) then issuable upon exercise of such New Warrant(s) with an aggregate Fair Market Value as of the Exercise Date equal to such aggregate Exercise Price (or the Black Scholes Adjusted Exercise Price, as applicable) (in either case, less the amount of the cash exercise payment). For purposes of such a "cashless" exercise, the value of the Warrant Shares withheld will be calculated based on the per share fair market value ("Fair Market Value") of New Common Stock: (a) if the Warrant Shares are then listed for trading on a national securities exchange, based on the 30 consecutive trading day volume weighted average closing price as of such date or (b) if the Warrant Shares are not so listed for trading on a national securities exchange, as determined by the Appraiser.[13]
Stockholder Rights:	Neither the New Warrants nor anything contained in the definitive documentation for the New Warrants shall be construed as conferring upon the Holders thereof (i) the right to vote, participate, consent or receive notice as a holder of New Common Stock in respect of any meeting of holders of New Common Stock for the election of directors of Issuer or any other matter, (ii) the right to receive dividends or other distributions as a holder of New Common Stock, or (iii) any other rights of a stockholder, whether or not granted to holders of New Common Stock under Issuer's governing documents.

[12] Subject to revision for reconciliation with applicable Luxembourg law.

[13] Subject to revision for reconciliation with applicable Luxembourg law.

Anti-Dilution:	The New Warrants will be subject to (i) dilution by the management and board incentive plans, consistent with the Restructuring Term Sheet and (ii) customary adjustments (an "Anti-Dilution Adjustment") for (a) the subdivision or combination of the New Common Stock underlying the New Warrants, (b) the payment by Issuer of dividends or other distributions on the outstanding New Common Stock in Issuer payable in New Common Stock, other shares of capital stock of Issuer, rights to purchase shares of capital stock at a price per share that is less than the Fair Market Value of such capital stock, or in cash or other property and (c) repurchase of New Common Stock at a price that is greater than the then Fair Market Value of such New Common Stock; provided, however, there shall be no Anti-Dilution Adjustment to the Warrants (x) for any (1) payment by Issuer of dividends or other distributions on the outstanding New Common Stock of Issuer payable in rights to purchase shares of capital stock at a price per share that is less than the Fair Market Value of such capital stock (a "Below FMV Issuance") to the extent such rights are offered solely to holders of New Common Stock that are also New Warrant holders, or (2) repurchase of New Common Stock at a price that is greater than the then Fair Market Value of such New Common Stock (an "Above FMV Repurchase") to the extent such repurchase solely applies to shares of New Common Stock held by holders of New Common Stock that are also New Warrant holders or (y) with respect to any Below FMV Issuance or Above FMV Repurchase approved by the New Board if, at the time of such approval, a majority of the New Board comprises representatives of EQT (as defined in the Governance Term Sheet), Lodbrok Capital LLP, their respective affiliates or the transferees of New Warrants from any of the foregoing. In addition, in the event of any (i) reclassification of the New Common Stock, (ii) consolidation or merger of Issuer with or into another person or (iii) other similar transaction, in each case which (x) does not constitute a Fundamental Transaction and (y) entitles the holders of New Common Stock to receive (either directly or upon subsequent liquidation and whether in whole or in part) securities or other assets in exchange for the New Common Stock, the New Warrants shall, immediately after such transaction, remain outstanding and shall thereafter, in lieu of the number of shares of New Common Stock then issuable upon exercise of the New Warrants, be exercisable for the kind and number of securities or other assets resulting from such transaction which the Holders would have received upon consummation of such transaction if the Holders had exercised the New Warrants in full immediately prior to the time of such transaction and acquired the applicable number of shares of New Common Stock then issuable upon exercise of the New Warrants as a result of such exercise.[14] For purposes of any Anti-Dilution Adjustment, the "Fair Market Value" of New Common Stock shall be determined in the same manner as described above with respect to the Fair Market Value of Warrant Shares.

Transferability:	The New Warrants shall be transferrable, subject to applicable securities laws (including securities laws applicable to the Issuer as a private company) and such restrictions as are in effect in respect of the New Common Stock.

8.2 The rights of each Party under or in connection with this Agreement are separate and independent rights. Each Party may separately and independently enforce its rights under this Agreement.

9 SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

9.1 Each Consenting Creditor agrees that, for the duration of this Agreement, applicable to such Consenting Creditor, such Consenting Creditor shall not sell, transfer, loan, issue, pledge, hypothecate, assign, or otherwise dispose of (each, a "Transfer"), directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, any of its Claims or Interests or any option thereon (including grant any proxies, deposit any Claims or Interests into a voting trust, or enter into a voting agreement with respect thereto), unless the transferee thereof either (i) is a Consenting Creditor or (ii) prior to such Transfer, agrees in writing for the benefit of the Parties to become a Consenting Creditor and to be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement applicable to Consenting Creditors (including with respect to any and all Claims or Interests it already may hold against or in the Company prior to such Transfer) by executing a joinder agreement, a form of which is annexed hereto as Schedule 3 (the "Joinder Agreement"), and delivering an executed copy thereof within three (3) Business Days following such execution, to Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP ("Weil"), as counsel to the Company, and the Consenting Creditor Counsel, in which event (A) the transferee (including the Consenting Creditor transferee, if applicable) shall be deemed to be a Consenting Creditor hereunder with respect to such transferred Claims or Interest and (B) the transferor shall be deemed to relinquish its rights (and be released from its obligations) under this Agreement to the extent of such transferred Claims or Interests. Each Consenting Creditor agrees that any Transfer of any Claims or Interests that does not comply with the terms and procedures set forth herein shall be deemed void ab initio, and the Company and each other Consenting Creditor shall have the right to enforce the voiding of such Transfer. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, a Consenting Creditor may Transfer its Claims or Interests to an entity that is acting in its capacity as a Qualified Marketmaker without the requirement that the Qualified Marketmaker become a Party; provided, however, that (i) such Qualified Marketmaker must Transfer such right, title or interest by five (5) Business Days prior to the Voting Deadline and (ii) the transferee of such Company Claims or Interests from the Qualified Marketmaker shall become a Consenting Creditor hereunder and comply in all respects with the terms of this Agreement (including executing and delivering a Joinder) and (iii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the extent that a Consenting Creditor, acting in its capacity as a Qualified Marketmaker, acquires any Company Claims or Interests from a holder of such claims that is not a Consenting Creditor, such Qualified Marketmaker may Transfer such Company Claims or Interests without the requirement that the transferee be or become a Consenting Creditor.

9.2 To the extent any Consenting Creditor (i) acquires additional Claims or Interests or (ii) Transfers any Claims or Interests, then, in each case, each such Consenting Creditor shall promptly (in no event less than three (3) Business Days following such acquisition or transaction) notify Weil and Consenting Creditor Counsel and each such Consenting Creditor agrees that such additional Claims or Interests shall be subject to this Agreement.

9.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any Transfer conducted in compliance with the terms of this Agreement must also be conducted in accordance with any relevant provisions of the Restructuring Support Agreement, otherwise such Transfer shall be deemed void ab initio, and the Company and each other Consenting Creditor shall have the right to enforce the voiding of such Transfer.

9.4 For purposes of Clauses 9.1 and 9.2 hereof, "Business Day" shall bear the meaning ascribed to it in the Restructuring Support Agreement.

10 COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, which may be delivered by electronic mail in portable document format (PDF). This has the same effect as if the signatures on the counterparts were on a single copy of this Agreement.

11 PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If, at any time, any provision of this Agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under any law of any jurisdiction:

(a) neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provisions under the law of any other jurisdiction will in any way be affected or impaired; and

(b) the invalid provision will be deemed to be replaced with a legal provision that is as close as possible to the original.

12 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

12.1 This Agreement and, with respect to the Company and the Consenting Creditors members, the Restructuring Support Agreement, set out the Parties' entire understanding of the Restructuring Transactions and supersede any previous agreement between any of the Parties with respect to the Restructuring Transactions (save for the Restructuring Support Agreement, which shall continue to be binding on the parties thereto).

12.2 The Company and the Sponsor shall and shall procure that their Affiliates and/or Related Entities (other than in the case of the Sponsor, the Company and its subsidiaries) treat all terms of the reimbursement agreement dated June 24, 2019 (the "Reimbursement Agreement") as waived by all parties from and with effect from the date hereof until either: (i) the Effective Date occurring, in which case the Reimbursement Agreement shall be treated as terminated and without effect; or (ii) this Agreement being terminated for any reason other than the occurrence of the Effective Date, in which case the waiver of the terms of the Reimbursement Agreement shall cease to apply with effect from such termination notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary.

(a) This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles thereof.

EACH PARTY (I) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT, OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (II) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER

By virtue of article 19 of the Company's articles of association (the "Articles"), each interested director could vote and count in the quorum in relation to the matters to be considered in this resolution.

2.4 It is noted that the purpose of these resolutions is to consider, and if thought appropriate, approve transactions and documentation relating to the DIP Credit Agreement and the other Credit Documents.

3 DOCUMENTS

3.1 The Director has considered the latest drafts of the following documents to which the Company may be a party to:

(a) the DIP Credit Agreement;

(b) the Guarantee;
