NOTICE OF MOTION
(Amended and Restated Initial Order)
(Returnable July 8, 2020)

Roberts Company Canada Limited (“RCCL” or the “Applicant”) will make a motion before the Honourable Madam Justice Dietrich of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) on Wednesday, July 8, 2020, at 3:00 p.m. or as soon after that time as the motion can be heard. Please refer to the videoconference details attached at Schedule “A” hereto in order to attend the motion and advise if you intend to join the motion by emailing Danish Afroz at afrozd@bennettjones.com.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The motion is to be heard orally.

THE MOTION IS FOR:

1. An amended and restated initial order (the “Amended and Restated Initial Order”) substantially in the form of the draft order attached at Tab 3 of the Applicant’s Motion Record, providing for certain amendments to the initial order granted by the Court on June 29, 2020 (the “Initial Order”), including, among other things:

- (a) provisions permitting the Applicant to file a plan of compromise or arrangement with the Court and expanding the duties of the Monitor (defined below) to assist therewith;

- (b) approving the KERP, granting the KERP Charge, and sealing the KERP Summary (each as defined below);
 - (c) authorizing the Applicant, in consultation with the ABL Lender (defined below), and with the consent of the Monitor, to pay amounts owing for goods and services actually supplied to RCCL prior to the date of the Initial Order by third party suppliers, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $700,000, if, in the opinion of RCCL, the supplier is critical to its business, ongoing operations, or preservation of RCCL's property, and the payment is required to ensure ongoing supply;
 - (d) granting a charge (the "ABL Lender's DIP Charge") in favour of the ABL Lender over the assets, property and undertakings of the Applicant (the "Property") as security for all of the obligations of the Applicant to the ABL Lender relating to advances made to the Applicant under the ABL Agreement (defined below) from and after the date of the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order; and
 - (e) extending the stay of proceedings (the "Stay Period") to and including August 31, 2020;
2. Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE:

Background

3. RCCL is in the business of manufacturing, marketing and distributing a comprehensive range of flooring, installation tools, adhesives and other flooring-related products in Canada;
4. On June 29, 2020, RCCL sought and received the Initial Order granting it protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA");
5. Pursuant to the Initial Order, inter alia:
- (a) Richter Advisory Group Inc. was appointed monitor of RCCL (in such capacity, the "Monitor");

- (b) an initial ten-day Stay Period to and including July 9, 2020 was granted; and
- (c) an Administration Charge and Directors' Charge (each as defined in the Initial Order) over RCCL's Property were granted up to the maximum amounts of $500,000 and $250,000 respectively;

6. RCCL is a party to the Fourth Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2017 (as amended, supplemented and otherwise modified from time to time, the "ABL Agreement"), entered into by and among RCCL and certain other borrowers (the "Borrowers"), Bank of America, N.A. ("BOA") and the lenders from time to time party to the ABL Agreement (the "Lenders"), and BOA, as agent for the Lenders (in such capacity, the "Agent");

7. Prior to the initiation of RCCL's CCAA proceedings (the "CCAA Proceedings"), RCCL and the other Borrowers entered into a forbearance agreement (the "ABL Forbearance Agreement") pursuant to which the Agent and the Lenders (collectively, the "ABL Lender") agreed to forbear from exercising their rights and remedies against the Borrowers with respect to existing defaults and agreed to continue to make available to the Borrowers the credit facilities under the ABL Agreement and extend credit and make advances in order to support the ongoing working capital needs of the Borrowers;

Expanding Restructuring Powers

8. The relief sought by RCCL as part of the Initial Order was limited to what was reasonably necessary for the initial ten-day Stay Period;

9. RCCL now seeks certain amendments to the Initial Order that are consistent with the standard form template CCAA Initial Order developed by the Commercial List Users' Committee of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Model Order"), including:

- (a) the insertion of restructuring provisions authorizing RCCL to file a plan of compromise or arrangement with the Court; and
- (b) the insertion of provisions that expand the Monitor's ability to assist therewith;

10. The proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order will enable RCCL and the Monitor to take certain steps that may become necessary during the course of the CCAA Proceedings to facilitate RCCL's restructuring efforts, with a view to maximizing value for all stakeholders;

KERP, KERP Charge and Sealing of the KERP Summary

11. RCCL, in consultation with the Monitor, has developed a key employee retention plan (the "KERP") to facilitate and encourage the continued participation of four (4) key supply chain professionals and between two to five (2 to 5) other key employees integral to the stability of RCCL's business, the preservation of its value, and critical to the execution and successful completion of RCCL's restructuring;

12. RCCL is seeking approval of the KERP and a Court-ordered charge over RCCL's Property up to the maximum aggregate amount of $200,000 as security for payments under the KERP (the "KERP Charge");

13. The KERP and the KERP Charge have been approved by RCCL's board of directors;

14. The KERP and the corresponding KERP Charge are reasonably necessary, appropriate in the circumstances, and in the best interests of RCCL and its stakeholders;

15. The Monitor is supportive of the KERP and the KERP Charge;

16. A summary of the KERP containing, among other things, the form of the letter setting out the terms of the KERP, the names of the KERP beneficiaries, and the retention payment to be made to each of the KERP beneficiaries (the "KERP Summary") is attached as a Confidential Exhibit to the Affidavit of Ravi Williams-Singh sworn July 6, 2020 (the "Second Williams-Singh Affidavit");

17. Disclosure of the sensitive personal and compensation information in the KERP Summary may cause harm to the KERP beneficiaries and to RCCL, and protection of such information is an important commercial interest that should be protected. Accordingly, RCCL is requesting that the KERP Summary be sealed by the Court;

18. The Monitor supports the sealing of the KERP Summary;

Payments to Critical Suppliers

19. Any interruption in the supply of products or services to RCCL could have an immediate and materially adverse impact on RCCL's operations, cash flows and business, and jeopardize RCCL's ability to complete its restructuring;

20. Due to the practical difficulties of enforcing the stay of proceedings extraterritorially and foreign suppliers' lack of familiarity with the CCAA process, payment of pre-filing amounts to certain suppliers may be necessary to ensure an uninterrupted supply of goods and services;

21. RCCL is seeking authorization to, with the consent of the Monitor and in consultation with the ABL Lender, make certain payments for goods and services actually supplied to RCCL prior to the date of the Initial Order, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $700,000, if in the opinion of RCCL, the supplier is critical to its business, ongoing operations, or the preservation of RCCL's property, and the payment is required to ensure ongoing supply;

22. The Monitor's consent is required for any pre-filing payments to critical suppliers and the Monitor is willing to work with RCCL to ensure that payments in respect of pre-filing liabilities are appropriate;

The ABL Lender's DIP Charge

23. It is a condition of the ABL Forbearance Agreement that, by no later than July 9, 2020, RCCL shall obtain an order from the Court which provides that the aggregate of all advances by the ABL Lender to RCCL made on or after the date of such order shall be secured by a charge which ranks in priority to all other claims, liens or security interests against RCCL's Property other than the Administration Charge, the Directors' Charge and the KERP Charge;

24. Access to funds made available under the ABL Agreement and the ABL Forbearance Agreement is critical to RCCL's ongoing business operations and is necessary to provide RCCL with sufficient liquidity while it pursues its restructuring efforts;

25. The ABL Lender's DIP Charge will not secure an obligation that existed before the date of the Amended and Restated Initial Order;

26. The Monitor is supportive of the ABL Lender's DIP Charge and will continue to supervise RCCL's cash flows, expenses and disbursements in accordance with the Amended and Restated Initial Order;

The Stay Extension

27. The Stay Period expires on July 9, 2020 and the Applicant is seeking to extend the Stay Period to and including August 31, 2020;

28. Since the granting of the Initial Order, the Applicant has acted, and continues to act, in good faith and with due diligence;

29. Extending the Stay Period will allow RCCL sufficient runway to consider its restructuring alternatives and give RCCL an opportunity to implement a viable path forward that maximizes recoveries for all stakeholders;

30. Subject to obtaining the relief sought under the Amended and Restated Initial Order, the Applicant is anticipated to have sufficient cash to support its ordinary course business operations and the CCAA Proceedings during the extended Stay Period;

31. No creditor will suffer material prejudice as a result of extending the Stay Period;

32. The Monitor is supportive of the extension to the Stay Period;

Other Grounds

33. The provisions of the CCAA and the inherent and equitable jurisdiction of the Court;

34. Rules 1.04, 1.05, 2.03, 3.02, 16, and 37 of the Ontario Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O 1990, Reg. 194, as amended, and sections 106 and 137(2) of the Ontario Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43 as amended; and

35. Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise and the Court may permit;

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE:

36. The following documentary evidence will be used at the hearing of the motion:

- (a) the Second Williams-Singh Affidavit;
- (b) the First Report of Richter Advisory Group Inc. (the “First Report”) dated July 6, 2020; and
- (c) such further and other evidence as counsel may advise and the Court may permit.

AFFIDAVIT OF RAVI WILLIAMS-SINGH
(Sworn July 6, 2020)

I, Ravi Williams-Singh, of the City of Brampton, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE

OATH AND SAY:

1. I am the Chief Administrative Officer and Controller for Roberts Company Canada Limited (the "Applicant" or "RCCL"). I have been employed by RCCL for a total of 28 years and have held my current position with RCCL since October, 2007. I have also served on RCCL's Board of Directors since October, 2006. As a result of my past and present roles with RCCL, I have knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to, except where stated to be on information and belief, and where so stated, I believe such information to be true.

2. All references to currency in this Affidavit are to Canadian dollars, unless otherwise indicated.

3. This affidavit is sworn in support of a motion by the Applicant (the “Comeback Motion”) pursuant to the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA” and such proceedings, the “CCAA Proceedings”), for an order (the “Amended and Restated Initial Order”) substantially in the form of the draft order attached as Tab 3 of the motion Record, inter alia:

- (a) expanding the Applicant’s restructuring authority and the Monitor’s ability to assist with the Applicant’s restructuring efforts;
- (b) approving the KERP, granting the KERP Charge and sealing the KERP Summary (each as defined below);
- (c) authorizing the Applicant, in consultation with the ABL Lender (defined below), and with the consent of the Monitor, to pay amounts owing for goods and services actually supplied to RCCL prior to the date of the Initial Order (defined below) by third party suppliers, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $700,000, if in the opinion of RCCL the supplier is critical to the business, ongoing operations of RCCL, or preservation of RCCL’s property, and the payment is required to ensure ongoing supply;
- (d) granting a charge (the “ABL Lender’s DIP Charge”) in favour of the ABL Lender (defined below) over the assets, property, and undertakings of the Applicant (the “Property”) as security for all of the obligations of the Applicant to the ABL Lender relating to advances made to the Applicant under the ABL Agreement (defined below) from and after the date of the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order; and

- (e) extending the Stay Period (defined below) in respect of the Applicant to and including August 31, 2020.

I. BACKGROUND AND STATUS OF THE CCAA PROCEEDINGS

4. Reference is made to my affidavit sworn June 26, 2020 (the “Initial Affidavit”) filed in support of the RCCL’s CCAA Application. A copy of the Initial Affidavit (without exhibits) is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Initial Affidavit.

A. Overview

5. As set out in greater detail in the Initial Affidavit, RCCL sought and obtained creditor protection and related relief under the CCAA pursuant to an order of this Court (the “Initial Order”) dated June 29, 2020 (the “Initial Filing Date”). Among other things, the Initial Order granted a stay of proceedings up to and including July 9, 2020 (the “Stay Period”), and appointed Richter Advisory Group Inc. as monitor of RCCL in the CCAA Proceedings (in such capacity, the “Monitor”). The Initial Order also approved: (i) a charge over the Property in respect of the fees and disbursements of the Monitor, its counsel, and counsel to the Applicant in the amount of $500,000 (the “Administration Charge”), and (ii) an indemnity and charge over the Property in favour of RCCL’s directors and officers in the amount of $250,000 (the “Directors’ Charge”) in respect of obligations and liabilities that the directors and officers may incur from and after the Initial Filing Date. A copy of the Initial Order and all other filings in the CCAA Proceedings, is available on the Monitor’s website for these proceedings at: <https://www.richter.ca/insolvencycase/roberts-company-canada-limited/>.

6. RCCL is a privately held company that is in the business of manufacturing, marketing and distributing a comprehensive range of flooring, installation tools, adhesives, accessories and other flooring-related products in Canada. As set out in greater detail in the Initial Affidavit, RCCL sought protection under the CCAA due to the confluence of a number of factors, including the following:

- (a) RCCL historically operated as a profitable business. In an attempt to expand and diversify its business, RCCL acquired, in September 2018, substantially all of the Canada-based assets related to the trading products sales division of Kraus Brands Inc., Kraus Canada Ltd., Kraus Carpet Inc., Kraus Properties Inc., Kraus USA Inc., and Strudex Inc. which involved the distribution and sale of flooring products to commercial and residential customers (the “TPS Business”). The synergies and benefits that RCCL believed would accrue from its acquisition of the TPS Business did not materialize, the substantial losses incurred by the TPS Business threatened the viability of RCCL, and the COVID-19 pandemic further complicated RCCL’s management’s efforts to mitigate such losses.
- (b) RCCL requires significant and continued funding from Bank of America, N.A. (“BOA”) and its parent company Q.E.P. Co., Inc., (“QEP”). Without such funding, RCCL, as currently structured, is unable to financially support all of its operations and is unable to meet its obligations as they come due. Given RCCL’s liquidity issues, further funding is not available to RCCL from QEP absent a significant restructuring.
- (c) RCCL’s primary secured debt obligations consist of amounts owed under the Fourth Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2017, as subsequently amended by amending agreements dated as of October 5, 2018, January 22, 2019, July 26, 2019, and January 27, 2020 (as amended, supplemented and otherwise modified from time to time, the “ABL Agreement”), that was entered into by and among RCCL (as “Canadian Borrower”), QEP and certain other U.S. borrowers (the “U.S. Borrowers” and together with the Canadian Borrower, the “Borrowers”), BOA and the lenders from time to time party to the ABL Agreement (together with BOA, the “ABL Lender”), and BOA in its capacity as the agent for the ABL Lender (in such capacity, the “Agent”). BOA has provided written notice to QEP of an Event of Default under the ABL Agreement. Absent availability under the ABL Agreement and the accommodations provided by QEP to RCCL, RCCL is unable to carry on business in the ordinary course, is insolvent, and is unable to meet all of its obligations as they come due.

7. BOA was notified of RCCL’s intention to apply for relief under the CCAA and, prior to the initiation of the CCAA Proceedings, RCCL entered into the Forbearance Agreement and Amendment No. 5 to Fourth Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, dated as of June 26, 2020, by and among the Borrower, the Lenders and the Agent (the “ABL Forbearance Agreement”). The ABL Forbearance Agreement was described in greater detail in the Initial Affidavit.

8. Pursuant to the ABL Forbearance Agreement, the ABL Lender has agreed to forbear from exercising their rights and remedies against the Borrowers with respect to existing defaults during the Forbearance Period (as defined in the ABL Forbearance Agreement). Subject to the terms and conditions of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, the ABL Lender will continue to make available to the Borrowers, the credit facilities under the ABL Agreement to meet the Borrowers’ working capital requirements and extend credit and make advances in order to support the ongoing working capital needs of the Borrowers.

B. Current Status of the CCAA Proceedings

9. Since the granting of the Initial Order, RCCL, with the oversight and assistance of the Monitor, has worked diligently and in good faith to stabilize its business by, among other things:

- (a) Managing relationships with key stakeholders and implementing a communication plan to advise key stakeholders (including certain suppliers, landlords, and customers) of the CCAA Proceedings, including announcing the granting of the Initial Order;
- (b) meeting with RCCL's employees, together with the Monitor, regarding the CCAA Proceedings;
- (c) assisting the Monitor in preparing and delivering notices to creditors and other stakeholders as required by the Initial Order;
- (d) developing the KERP with a view to ensuring the continued participation of certain key employees;
- (e) communicating with BOA regarding various matters relating to the CCAA Proceedings;
- (f) reviewing forecasted operating costs and cash flows to determine how best to conserve cash during the CCAA Proceedings, with a view to determining the timing of and reducing the need for debtor-in-possession financing;

- (g) preparing, in consultation with the Monitor, a revised cash flow forecast and related financial information to assess potential scenarios under consideration and determine next steps in respect of the CCAA Proceedings; and
- (h) preparing materials seeking the relief sought on the Comeback Motion.

10. Given the brief period of time that has elapsed since the Initial Order was granted, the Applicant has not had an opportunity to make definitive decisions regarding the direction of its restructuring and requires more time to continue discussions with its key stakeholders and consider its options to maximize value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

II. RELIEF SOUGHT ON THE COMEBACK MOTION

A. Expanded Restructuring Powers under the Amended and Restated Order

11. For the purposes of the Initial Order, RCCL only requested such relief as was reasonably necessary for its continued operations in the ordinary course of business during the initial ten-day Stay Period. The proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order sought by RCCL on the Comeback Motion provides for certain amendments to the Initial Order, namely the insertion of certain provisions contained in the standard form template CCAA Initial Order developed by the Commercial List Users' Committee of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Model Order"). A blackline comparing the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order to the Initial Order is attached at Tab 4 to the Applicant's Motion Record. A blackline comparing the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order to the Model Order is attached at Tab 5 to the Applicant's Motion Record.

12. As stated above, at the Comeback Motion, RCCL is seeking the inclusion of the fulsome restructuring provisions contemplated by the Model Order in the Amended and Restated Initial Order. Specifically, RCCL is seeking the inclusion of a standard provision contemplated by the Model Order which permits RCCL to file, subject to further order of this Court, a plan of compromise or arrangement. RCCL is also seeking to include provisions expanding the Monitor's ability to assist with RCCL's restructuring efforts, including, advising RCCL in the development of a plan of compromise or arrangement, and assisting RCCL with holding and administering meetings(s) for voting purposes.

13. The inclusion of the restructuring and Monitor-related provisions in the Amended and Restated Initial Order are necessary in the circumstances as they will enable RCCL and the Monitor to take certain important steps that may become necessary during the CCAA Proceedings, all with a view towards maximizing value for RCCL's stakeholders.

B. The KERP, the KERP Charge and Sealing the KERP Summary

14. The proposed Amended and Restated Order includes approval of a key employee retention plan (as set out below, the "KERP") and granting of a Court-ordered charge up to the maximum aggregate amount of $200,000 as security for payments under the KERP.

15. The KERP was developed by RCCL, in consultation with the Monitor, to facilitate and encourage the continued participation, during the CCAA Proceedings and following completion of RCCL's restructuring efforts, of four (4) key supply chain professionals and between two to five (2 to 5) other key employees of RCCL who are integral to the stability of RCCL's business, the preservation of its value, and the execution and successful completion of RCCL's restructuring. These employees have historical knowledge of and familiarity with RCCL's business and operations. They also have significant experience and expertise that cannot be easily replaced during the CCAA Proceedings. Attempts to locate and onboard suitable replacements to fulfill the responsibilities of the KERP beneficiaries during the CCAA Proceedings would be disruptive and prohibitively costly.

16. Given the expertise and experience of the KERP beneficiaries, as well as the increase in work load anticipated to arise as a result of the CCAA Proceedings, I believe that absent the KERP and the KERP Charge, they will likely consider other employment options.

17. Under the KERP, RCCL shall pay each KERP beneficiary a lump sum cash payment (the “Retention Payment”), less applicable deductions within thirty (30) business days of December 31, 2020. The KERP does not provide a discretionary fund or any additional payments other than the Retention Payment.

18. Other material terms of the KERP include that:

- (a) each KERP beneficiary will keep confidential and will not disclose the terms of the KERP to any person other than their respective personal financial and legal advisors (other than any disclosure required by law), provided however that nothing shall prevent RCCL from publicly disclosing the terms of the KERP, including in any court filing;
- (b) the Retention Payment will be made to each KERP beneficiary who, at the time the Retention Payment is payable has not: (i) resigned from their employment with

RCCL; (ii) had their employment with RCCL terminated with cause; or (iii) failed to perform their duties and responsibilities diligently, faithfully and honestly;

- (c) each KERP beneficiary must execute a release of any and all claims against RCCL and its affiliates, and each of their directors and officers relating to their employment up to the date of the Retention Payment;
- (d) each KERP beneficiary is entitled to the full amount of their respective Retention Payment if their employment is terminated without cause following their entrance into the KERP; and
- (e) any court approval that may be necessary in the context of the CCAA Proceedings or otherwise with respect to the KERP is granted by the Court.

19. The form of the letter setting out the terms of the KERP, and a summary of, among other things, the names of the current KERP beneficiaries, their positions, and the Retention Payment offered to such KERP beneficiaries (the “KERP Summary”) is attached hereto as Confidential Exhibit “A”.

20. The KERP Summary reveals individually identifiable information, including compensation information relating to the KERP beneficiaries. The KERP beneficiaries have an expectation that their personal information will be kept confidential. Disclosure of such personal and compensation information may cause harm to the KERP beneficiaries and to RCCL. For these reasons, RCCL requests that the Confidential Exhibit “A” be sealed and not form part of the public record unless otherwise ordered by this Court.

21. RCCL is also seeking the granting of a Court-ordered charge over the Property of the Applicant up to the maximum aggregate amount of $200,000 as security for payments under the KERP (the “KERP Charge”). It is proposed that the KERP Charge shall be a third-ranking charge, behind the Administration Charge and the Directors’ Charge.

22. The quantum of the KERP Charge was determined in consultation with the Monitor and under the assumption that RCCL will be able to retain all of the key supply chain employees as well as the other key employees that, as discussed above, are contemplated to be part of the KERP. I understand that the Monitor is supportive of the KERP and the KERP Charge, and will provide further information in respect of each in the First Report.

23. The KERP and KERP Charge were approved by RCCL’s board of directors. RCCL believes that the KERP and the corresponding KERP Charge are reasonably necessary, appropriate in the circumstances, and in the best interests of RCCL and its stakeholders.

24. I understand that the KERP, the KERP Charge, and the quantum of the KERP Charge, are contemplated by, and are in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the ABL Forbearance Agreement.

C. Payments to Critical Suppliers

25. RCCL is in the business of manufacturing, marketing and distributing a comprehensive range of flooring, installation tools, adhesives, accessories and other flooring-related products in Canada. As such, RCCL’s supply chain and the continued operation of RCCL’s business, including its ability to manufacture inventory and distribute its products, depends on receiving an uninterrupted supply of goods and services from a variety of suppliers.

26. Any interruption in the supply of goods or services to RCCL could have an immediate and materially adverse impact on RCCL's operations, cash flows and business, and in turn jeopardize RCCL's ability to restructure, all of which would be to the detriment of RCCL's stakeholders. RCCL expects third parties with contractual arrangements with RCCL to continue to provide goods and services in accordance with the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order. However, in order to ensure uninterrupted business operations during the CCAA Proceedings, RCCL is requesting that it be authorized, in consultation with the ABL Lender, and with the consent of the Monitor, to pay amounts owing for goods and services actually supplied to RCCL prior to the date of the Initial Order by third party suppliers, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $700,000, if in the opinion of RCCL the supplier is critical to the business, ongoing operations of RCCL, or preservation of RCCL's property, and the payment is required to ensure ongoing supply.

27. I understand that continued supply from certain overseas and domestic suppliers is crucial to the success of this restructuring and the ordinary course operations of RCCL's business. Due to the practical difficulties in enforcing the stay of proceedings extraterritorially and foreign suppliers' lack of familiarity with the CCAA process, RCCL also believes that the payment of pre-filing amounts to certain suppliers may be necessary to ensure an uninterrupted supply of goods and services from such suppliers. In the circumstances, if RCCL is not authorized to make pre-filing payments to certain critical suppliers it may result in a practically immediate cessation of the provisions of goods and services to RCCL by certain suppliers.

28. As indicated in the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order, payments to critical suppliers will require the Monitor's consent and will only be made where:

- (a) deemed necessary and appropriate by RCCL;
- (b) the supplier is determined, in the view of RCCL, to be critical to the business, ongoing operations of RCCL, or preservation of RCCL's property; and
- (c) the supplier requires such payment as a prerequisite to its continued supply of goods.

29. The continued operation of RCCL without disruption is in the best interests of RCCL and its stakeholders. Any inability to acquire goods and services on reasonable trade terms would further impair RCCL's liquidity position and have severe negative consequences for RCCL's business. Accordingly, I believe that this relief is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

30. I understand that the Monitor is also supportive of this relief, is willing to work with RCCL to ensure that payments in respect of pre-filing liabilities are appropriate, and believes that this will ensure the continued supply of essential products and services to RCCL during the CCAA Proceedings.

D. Approval of the ABL Lender's DIP Charge

31. As described in the Initial Affidavit, on June 26, 2020, RCCL, the other Borrowers under the ABL Agreement, and the ABL Lender, entered into the ABL Forbearance Agreement pursuant to which the ABL Lender: (a) agreed to forbear from exercising their rights and remedies against the Borrowers with respect to existing defaults during the Forbearance Period (as defined in the ABL Forbearance Agreement), and (b) agreed to continue to make available to the Borrowers the credit facilities under the ABL Agreement to meet the Borrowers' working capital requirements and extend credit and make advances in order to support the ongoing working capital needs of the Borrowers.

32. It was a condition of the ABL Forbearance Agreement that the Initial Order provide that: (i) the ABL Lender shall be treated as an “unaffected creditor” in RCCL’s CCAA Proceedings and in any plan of compromise and/or arrangement with respect to RCCL, and (ii) the stay of proceedings ordered by the Court in RCCL’s CCAA Proceedings shall not apply to the ABL Lender. Accordingly, the Initial Order sought by RCCL, and granted by this Court, contained provisions to that effect. A copy of the Initial Order is attached hereto as Exhibit “B”.

33. It was also a condition of the ABL Forbearance Agreement that, by no later than July 9, 2020, RCCL shall obtain an order from this Court which provides that the aggregate of any and all advances of funds by the ABL Lender to RCCL under the ABL Agreement made on or after the date of such order shall be secured by a charge in favour of the Agent which ranks in priority to all other claims, liens or security interests against RCCL’s Property other than (i) the Administration Charge, (ii) the Directors’ Charge, and (iii) the KERP Charge.

34. In accordance with the terms of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, RCCL is seeking approval of the ABL Lender’s DIP Charge under the proposed Amended and Restated Initial Order.

35. The period during which RCCL will be subject to the CCAA Proceedings is currently unknown. While RCCL is pursuing its restructuring efforts, it is expected that RCCL will continue operations, continue employing employees, and continue making payments on account of rent and to suppliers who provide goods and services to RCCL (including critical suppliers). Access to funds, made available to RCCL pursuant to the ABL Agreement and the ABL Forbearance Agreement, is critical to RCCL's ongoing business operations and is necessary to provide RCCL with sufficient liquidity while it pursues its restructuring efforts. RCCL's ability to draw on such funds will ensure the stability of RCCL's business and allow RCCL to focus on restructuring its business for the benefit of its stakeholders.

36. The ABL Lender's DIP Charge will stand as security for advances made to RCCL after the date of the Amended and Restated Initial Order. It will not secure an obligation that existed before the granting of the Amended and Restated Initial Order in respect of the ABL Lender.

37. The ABL Lender's DIP Charge is for the benefit of RCCL's primary secured creditor. I understand that notice of charges sought on the Comeback Motion will be provided to the other secured creditor of RCCL, as required by the CCAA.

38. The Monitor will continue to supervise RCCL's cash flows, expenses and disbursements in accordance with the Amended and Restated Initial Order. I understand that the Monitor is supportive of the ABL Lender's DIP Charge.

39. For the foregoing reasons, I believe that the ABL Lender's DIP Charge is reasonably necessary and appropriate in the circumstances.

E. Extending the Stay Period

40. Since the Initial Order was granted, RCCL has acted and continues to act in good faith and with due diligence with respect to all matters relating to the CCAA Proceedings. As previously described, since the Initial Order was granted, RCCL and the Monitor have primarily focused on maintaining the operational stability of RCCL while continuing to engage with BOA and its various stakeholders on a viable path forward with respect to RCCL's restructuring.

41. The Stay Period granted under the Initial Order provided for a stay of proceedings until July 9, 2020. RCCL is requesting an extension of the Stay Period until and including August 31, 2020 to provide RCCL sufficient run way to consider its restructuring alternatives and attempt to implement a viable path forward that maximizes recoveries for all stakeholders.

42. If the Stay Period is extended, RCCL intends to, among other things,

(a) continue its review of restructuring options with the assistance of its counsel and the Monitor, including, among other things, exploring a potential CCAA plan of compromise or arrangement; and

(b) develop a claims process in respect of RCCL and seek Court approval thereof.

43. I understand that the Monitor is supportive of extending the Stay Period and that the Monitor will be appending a revised cash flow forecast to the First Report, which will demonstrate that, subject to obtaining the relief sought on the Comeback Motion, the Applicant is anticipated to have sufficient cash to support its ordinary course business operations and the CCAA Proceedings during the extended Stay Period.

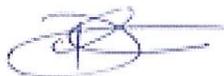

44. In the circumstances, I do not believe that any creditor will suffer material prejudice as a result of the extension of the Stay Period.

III. CONCLUSION

45. The Amended and Restated Initial Order sought by RCCL is in the best interests of RCCL and its stakeholders. Therefore, RCCL respectfully seeks the relief set out in the within Motion.

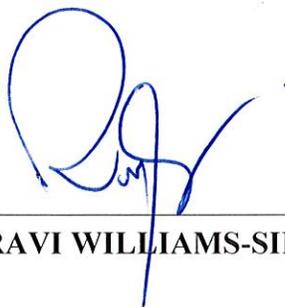

46. I swear this Affidavit in support of the relief set out herein and for no other or improper purpose.

II. OVERVIEW

4. RCCL’s business consists of manufacturing, marketing and distributing a comprehensive range of flooring, installation tools, adhesives, accessories and other flooring-related products in Canada. It is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Roberts Consolidated Industries, Inc. (“RCI”). RCI was a leading participant in the carpet installation market in 1997 when all of its outstanding shares, including those of RCCL, were acquired by Q.E.P. Co. Inc. (“QEP”).

5. QEP manufactures, markets and distributes a broad line of flooring, specialty tools, adhesives and other flooring-related products for the home improvement market in the United States of America and throughout the world.

6. For many years, RCCL operated as a profitable business that principally manufactured and sold its products, as well as those of its affiliates, to large Canadian retailers and distributors. In October 2018, RCCL sought to expand and diversify its business by acquiring substantially all of the Canada-based assets of the trading product sales division of the Kraus Group (defined below) which involved the distribution and sale of flooring products to commercial and residential customers, including carpet tiles, vinyl tiles, laminate, and hardwood (the “TPS Business”).

7. The synergies and benefits which RCCL believed would accrue from its acquisition of the TPS Business have not materialized. Rather than complement RCCL's business, the TPS Business has incurred substantial losses since its acquisition in October 2018 that now threaten the viability of RCCL. Projections demonstrate little or no prospect of improvement within a reasonable time.

8. While RCCL's losses are largely due to the inefficiencies in the TPS Business, the COVID-19 pandemic further complicated RCCL's management's ability to mitigate such losses. In particular, COVID-19 has caused significant market declines, uncertainty, and social dislocation, and the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic could impact demand and market prices for RCCL's products in the future. Similar to other businesses that are suffering from the effects of COVID-19 related disruptions, there is currently no timeline for when all of RCCL's operations will return to normalcy.

9. RCCL is party to the ABL Agreement (defined below). RCCL's obligations under the ABL Agreement are secured against all of RCCL's assets, as described below in further detail. On April 17, 2020, BOA, as the Agent (defined below) under the ABL Agreement, provided written notice of an Event of Default under the ABL Agreement resulting from the Borrowers' (defined below) violation of certain covenants under the ABL Agreement.

10. RCCL and the other Borrowers under the ABL Agreement have entered into the ABL Forbearance Agreement (defined below) pursuant to which the Agent and the Lenders (defined below) have agreed, in reliance upon the terms of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, to forbear from exercising their rights and remedies under the ABL Agreement with respect to existing defaults during the period from the effective date of the ABL Forbearance Agreement to the Forbearance Termination Date (defined below). Subject to the terms and conditions of the ABL

Forbearance Agreement, the Agent and the Lenders will, among other things, continue to make available the credit facilities under the ABL Agreement to meet RCCL's working capital requirements and extend credit and make advances in order to support the ongoing working capital needs of RCCL.

11. While certain segments of RCCL's business are viable and valuable, it is currently insolvent and urgently requires protection under the CCAA to maintain the status quo as it considers restructuring options for the benefit of its stakeholders.

12. RCCL also requires additional funding while it attempts to restructure its business. RCCL is not seeking debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing as part of the proposed Initial Order; however, RCCL anticipates the need for DIP financing in the short term. As such, RCCL intends to return to this Court for approval of DIP financing at a subsequent hearing.

13. The Applicant's anticipated next steps include continuing discussions with its lenders and other stakeholders to pursue financing and/or sale options, with a view to achieving a viable path forward without the imminent threat of uncoordinated enforcement steps being taken that could result in an immediate loss of value.

14. If the Initial Order is granted, the Applicant intends to return to Court within ten (10) days (the "Comeback Hearing") to seek approval of an amended and restated Initial Order which, among other things, would:

- (a) extend the Stay of Proceedings granted in the proposed Initial Order;
- (b) approve DIP financing;

- (c) expand the Initial Order to include the more fulsome restructuring provisions found in the model order subcommittee of the Commercial List Users' Committee of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice ("Model Order"); and
- (d) seek such other relief as may be required to advance the Applicant's restructuring.

III. CORPORATE STRUCTURE AND BUSINESS OPERATIONS

A. Corporate Structure

15. RCCL is a privately held corporation that was incorporated under Ontario's Business Corporation Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. B. 16 (the "OBCA") on April 8, 1987. RCCL's registered head office is located at 34 Hansen Road South, Brampton, Ontario. RCCL has two directors: Leonard Gould and myself. A copy of the Ontario corporate profile report in respect of RCCL is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

16. To facilitate the operation of its business in Canada, RCCL is also extra-provincially registered under the laws of British Columbia, New Brunswick, Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia, Quebec, and Newfoundland and Labrador.

17. RCCL is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of RCI, and an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of QEP. RCI is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of QEP. RCCL does not have any subsidiaries and does not have any equity interests in other corporate entities in Canada.

B. Overview of RCCL's Business

18. RCCL's business consists of manufacturing, marketing and distributing a comprehensive range of flooring, installation tools, adhesives, accessories and other flooring-related products in Canada under various brand names including ROBERTS[®], QEP[®], Capitol[®], Harris[®] Wood, Kraus[®], and Naturally Aged Flooring[™].

19. RCCL's products are sold to retailers with multiple stores throughout Canada, including national home improvement chains such as Home Depot, Lowes, Rona, and Home Hardware, large distributors such as Prosol, and independent dealers and distributors for use by do-it-yourself consumers as well as construction, remodeling and installation professionals.

20. RCCL operates from a facility located at 34 Hansen Road South, in Brampton, Ontario, which serves as RCCL's headquarters and is also the site of RCCL's manufacturing, distribution, and administrative functions. In addition, RCCL leases office space in Waterloo, Ontario, and warehouse and distribution space in Mississauga, Ontario and Edmonton, Alberta. RCCL also utilizes the 3PLs (defined below) on a month-to-month basis.

C. Acquisition of the TPS Business from the Kraus Group

21. On October 5, 2018, RCCL acquired the Canada-based assets of the TPS Business from certain entities within the Kraus Group following a sale process undertaken by the Kraus Group to market the Kraus Group's assets. Certain relevant background information regarding RCCL's purchase of the Canada-based assets of the TPS Business from the Kraus Group is described below.

22. On September 11, 2018, Kraus Brands Inc., Kraus Canada Ltd., Kraus Carpet Inc., Kraus Properties Inc., Kraus USA Inc., and Strudex Inc. (the "Kraus Applicants") filed for and obtained protection under the CCAA. Pursuant to the initial order granted by this Court in those CCAA proceedings, the stay of proceedings granted in respect of the Kraus Applicants was extended to certain partnerships affiliated with the Kraus Applicants (the “Partnerships” and together with the Applicants, the “Kraus Group”). At the time of its CCAA application, the Kraus Group was a vertically integrated manufacturer of premium carpet for the commercial and residential market, as well as a distributor in North America of flooring products produced by other manufacturers.

23. Pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement dated September 10, 2018 (the “Purchase Agreement”) between RCCL and QEP, as purchasers, and Kraus Canada LP, Kraus Properties LP and Kraus USA Inc., as vendors, RCCL and QEP acquired substantially all of the assets related to the TPS Business of the Kraus Group. In addition, RCCL and QEP, as purchasers, agreed to assume certain liabilities and obligations, including, among other things, certain assigned contracts, employee liabilities, and trade accounts payable.

24. The aspects and portions of the TPS Business purchased from the Kraus Group located in Canada are owned and operated by RCCL. Similarly, the aspects and portions of the TPS Business purchased from the Kraus Group located in the United States of America are owned and operated by QEP.

25. RCCL acquired the TPS Business in an effort to expand its sales distribution channels and its presence in the wood flooring market by adding approximately 1,200 dealers and distributors in Canada through which it could distribute its existing flooring and related products. Moreover, RCCL believed that the purchase of the TPS Business would allow it to reduce its customer concentration risk by diversifying its customer base.

D. RCCL's Business Segments

26. Following RCCL's acquisition of the TPS Business from the Kraus Group in October 2018, RCCL's business operations were broadly divided into two business segments:

- (a) Large Customer Segment – RCCL's historical business (prior to the acquisition of the TPS Business from the Kraus Group) primarily consisted of manufacturing and distributing a variety of flooring, installation tools, adhesives, and other flooring-related products, to large home improvement chains such as Home Depot, Lowe's and Home Hardware, as well as large distributors such as Prosol (collectively referred to hereinafter as the "Large Customer Segment") for use by do-it-yourself consumers as well as construction, remodeling and installation professionals. These products are predominantly sold under the ROBERTS[®], QEP[®], and Capitol[®] brands; and
- (b) TPS Business Segment – Under this business segment (acquired from the Kraus Group), RCCL sells flooring and related products to independent dealers and distributors predominantly under the Kraus[®], Harris[®] Wood, and Naturally Aged Flooring[™] brands (referred to hereinafter as the "TPS Business Segment").

27. Since acquiring the TPS Business Segment in October 2018, RCCL has operated in both the Large Customer Segment and the TPS Business Segment. However, integrating the TPS Business Segment into the existing RCCL business has proven to be difficult due to differences between the respective business models and customer bases. In contrast to the Large Customer Segment, the TPS Business Segment is significantly more capital intensive, with considerably more customers than the Large Customer Segment. Onerous overhead and other costs are required to service such customers, including a large sales force, a large supply of product samples and product displays, and other logistics and freight costs.

E. Employees

28. As of April 29, 2020, RCCL employed approximately 87 people (85 on a full-time basis and 2 on a temporary basis). Approximately 61 employees are located in Ontario, 7 employees are located in Alberta and 19 employees at other locations. Approximately 60 of RCCL's employees are salaried employees and 27 are hourly employees.

29. RCCL's monthly payroll obligations are approximately $452,975 for salary and hourly employees, and an additional approximately $23,000 per month for temporary employees. All salaried employees are paid bi-weekly and all hourly employees are paid weekly. Some of RCCL's employees also participate in a sales incentive plan and/or a bonus plan which provides for payments in addition to their base salary. In addition to the payroll amounts above, certain salaried employees are also eligible to receive sales commissions on a monthly basis based on certain objectives/metrics. As at the date of this Affidavit, RCCL is current on its payroll obligations, including all source deductions.

30. In addition, all of RCCL's employees are eligible to participate in a standard group benefit plan, which is administrated by Manulife. RCCL pays approximately $19,202 monthly in support of this benefit plan. RCCL also maintains a short-term disability plan through Manulife.

F. RCCL Pension Plan

31. RCCL maintains a defined contribution pension plan which is mandatory for all of RCCL's employees, which is provided by The Great West Life Assurance Company. There are currently 78 members of the RCCL Pension Plan. The defined contribution pension plan is registered, for pensions standards purposes, in the Province of Ontario, and bears registration number 0296277 (the “RCCL Pension Plan”). The RCCL Pension Plan is RCCL’s only pension plan.

32. Since the RCCL Plan does not guarantee any particular level of benefits to plan members, there can neither be a deficit nor a surplus and an actuarial valuation is not required. Under the RCCL Pension Plan, RCCL matches up to five percent (5%) of a participating employee’s earnings, but in no event more than what the employee contributes. RCCL pays approximately $12,728 in monthly contributions.

33. RCCL is current on its contributions to the RCCL Pension Plan.

G. Real Property Leases

34. RCCL operates from the following four leased facilities:

- (a) premises located at 34 Hansen Road South, Brampton, Ontario, which is approximately 64,000 square feet and is used by RCCL for distribution, warehousing, and manufacturing of flooring related products;
- (b) premises located at 65 Northfield Dr., Waterloo, Ontario, which is approximately 20,000 square feet and is used by RCCL as a business office;
- (c) premises located at Unit#1, 375 Pendant Drive, Mississauga, Ontario, which is approximately 91,500 square feet and is used by RCCL for warehousing flooring inventory and associated products. RCCL currently subleases a certain portion of these premises (approximately 6,000 square feet) to a third party; and

- (d) premises located at 15210-135th Avenue NW, Edmonton, Alberta, which is approximately 53,000 square feet, and is used by RCCL as an office and showroom, and for storage, manufacturing and distribution of flooring and associated products.

35. RCCL also utilizes third party logistics providers in Vancouver, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Calgary and Toronto (the “3PLs”) on a month-to-month basis.

(i) ABL Agreement

42. RCCL is a party to the Fourth Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, dated as of January 31, 2017, as subsequently amended by amending agreements dated as of October 5, 2018, January 22, 2019, July 26, 2019, and January 27, 2020 (as amended, supplemented and otherwise modified from time to time, the "ABL Agreement"), that was entered into by and among RCCL (as "Canadian Borrower"), QEP, RCI, Roberts Holding International, Inc., Q.E.P. Zocalis Holding L.L.C., Boiardi Products Corporation, Roberts Capitol, Inc., QEP – California, Inc., QGrow Products, Inc., QEP – Tennessee, Inc., Liberty Creek, Inc., Imperial Industries, Inc., All-Force Tool Company, Q.E.P. Sun Valley, Inc., Q.E.P. Oklahoma, Inc., Faus Group, Inc., Premix-Marbletite Manufacturing Co., A C Products Co. (collectively, the "U.S. Borrowers" and together with the Canadian Borrower, the "Borrowers"), BOA and the lenders from time to time party to the ABL Agreement (the “Lenders”), and BOA, as agent for the Lenders (in such capacity, “Agent”).

43. The ABL Agreement provides, among other things, a maximum revolving loan commitment of US $85,000,000 (the “ABL Commitment”) to the Borrowers. The ABL Agreement is structured such that up to US $23,000,000 of the ABL Commitment may be allocated to RCCL, as the Canadian Borrower under the ABL Agreement (the “Canadian Revolving Loan Commitment”). Specifically, the ABL Agreement makes available in revolving credit to RCCL the lesser of (a) the Canadian Revolving Loan Commitment (i.e. US $23,000,000) and (b) a borrowing base (the “Canadian Borrowing Base”) determined by reference to, among other things, RCCL’s eligible accounts receivable and eligible inventory, less, in each case, the sum of certain aggregate outstanding principal amounts (the “Canadian Credit Availability”).

44. The ABL Agreement is structured as a typical asset-based loan facility governed by a borrowing base calculation, which in the case of RCCL, is comprised of, among other things, RCCL’s eligible accounts receivables and eligible inventory (collectively, the “Eligible Collateral”). Pursuant to this structure, RCCL submits a written request for an advance, and the Lenders make a revolving advance based on a borrowing base certificate and taking into account the amounts then outstanding under the ABL Agreement.

45. The outstanding and unpaid principal balance of revolving loans made under the ABL Agreement bear interest according to the terms and calculations contained in the ABL Agreement. The maturity date under the ABL Agreement is October 5, 2023 (the “Maturity Date”). The ABL Commitment shall automatically terminate on the Maturity Date.

46. As of April 30, 2020, the total outstanding principal balance under the Canadian Credit

Availability was $23,053,000 (in Canadian dollars) (the “RCCL ABL Debt”). Pursuant to the ABL Agreement, as of any date of determination, U.S. Credit Availability (as defined in the ABL Agreement) in an amount not exceeding US $10,000,000 may be designated by a U.S. Borrower in the calculation of the Canadian Borrowing Base. As of April 30, 2020, the RCCL ABL Debt is comprised of approximately $8.5 million of designated U.S. Credit Availability.

47. The ABL Agreement contains various restrictive covenants that, inter alia, limit RCCL’s and the other Borrowers’ ability to incur additional indebtedness or encumber their assets. The ABL Agreement also requires that the Borrowers maintain certain financial ratios (the “Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio” as defined in the ABL Agreement). The ABL Agreement specifies that the failure to maintain the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is an Event of Default (as defined therein). Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the ABL Agreement, the Agent may, inter alia, declare the ABL Commitment to be terminated, and accelerate the payment of all outstanding indebtedness under the ABL Agreement (with certain limited exceptions).

48. The ABL Agreement was amended pursuant to Amendment No. 1 to Fourth Amended and Restated Loan Agreement dated October 5, 2018 (“Amendment No. 1”). As a result of the amendments made to Section 2.30 of the ABL Agreement pursuant to Amendment No. 1, each Borrower is jointly and severally liable for, and has absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed to the Agent and the Lenders the prompt payment and performance of all Obligations (as defined in the ABL Agreement), provided that RCCL (i.e. the Canadian Borrower) is not deemed to guarantee or be liable for any Obligations (as defined in the ABL Agreement) of the U.S. Borrowers.

49. To secure the payment and performance of any and all present or future indebtedness, obligations and liabilities owing by RCCL to the Agent and/or the Lenders, RCCL granted, pursuant to a security agreement dated December 30, 2008 (the “Security Agreement”), in favour of BOA, as Agent, for itself and on behalf of the other Lenders. Pursuant to the Security Agreement, RCCL granted a continuing security interest in all of the present and after-acquired property, assets and undertakings (collectively, the “Collateral”) of RCCL. The obligations secured by the Security Agreement become immediately due and payable and the security interests constituted by the Security Agreement become enforceable if RCCL fails to make any payment of any of the obligations when due and if an Event of Default occurs under the ABL Agreement.

50. As previously stated, the ABL Agreement was amended pursuant to Amendment No. 1. At this time, RCCL and the other Borrowers entered into a Ratification and Reaffirmation of Security Agreements (the “Ratification Agreement”) pursuant to which RCCL ratified, reaffirmed and confirmed the terms and provisions of the Security Agreement. Pursuant to the Ratification Agreement, the obligations, covenants, duties, debts and liabilities incurred pursuant to the ABL Agreement (as amended by Amendment No. 1) constitute “Obligations” as defined in and secured pursuant to the Security Agreement. To secure the payment and performance of the “Obligations” (as defined in the Security Agreement), RCCL granted to the Agent a continuing security interest in and lien on, any and all right, title and interest of RCCL in and to all of the Collateral of RCCL.

51. As described below, the security interests granted by RCCL in favour of BOA, as Agent, for itself and on behalf of the other Lenders, are perfected by way of registrations pursuant to the various Personal Property Security Acts (or the applicable provincial equivalent) in Ontario, British Columbia, Manitoba and Alberta.

52. The ABL Agreement is an agreement that involves parties other than the Applicant, including QEP and BOA, and is therefore not attached to this Affidavit. A copy of the ABL

Agreement, including the amendments thereto, the Security Agreement, and the Ratification Agreement, will be provided to the Court on a confidential basis if requested by the Court.

(ii) Security Registrations

53. Personal property registry searches against RCCL were conducted under the Personal Property Security Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.10, as amended (the “Ontario PPSA”). Copies of the personal property registry searches conducted against RCCL in Ontario are attached hereto as Exhibit “F”. 55. There are no registrations against RCCL made under the respective personal property registries of Quebec, Nova Scotia, Saskatchewan, Newfoundland and Labrador, and New Brunswick.

E. Intercompany Liability

56. In the ordinary course of business, RCCL has engaged in intercompany transactions with QEP resulting in the creation of intercompany receivables and payables. As reflected in the Balance Sheet, as of April 30, 2020, there is an intercompany liability of approximately $2,246,000.

F. Litigation

57. On April 26, 2018, RCCL filed a claim as against 3942783 Canada Inc. o/a Dragona Carpet Supplies Ltd. (“Dragona”), a customer that ordered products from RCCL, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, Court File No.: CV-18-1771 (as amended, the “Statement of Claim”). In the Statement of Claim, RCCL claims against Dragona, among other things, a liquidated debt in the amount of $79,699.53 for amounts due and owing under invoices for goods sold and delivered by RCCL. RCCL also claims prejudgment and post-judgment interest thereon in accordance with the terms of the invoices, at a rate of 2% per annum calculated monthly, from the invoice dates, as well as, costs of the action on a substantial indemnity basis. A copy of the Statement of Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit “H”.

58. On August 23, 2018, Dragona filed a statement of defence and counterclaim (the “Counterclaim”) in which Dragona denies that, among other things, RCCL is entitled to any damages set out in the Statement of Claim. In the Counterclaim, Dragona claims from RCCL damages in the amount of $2,000,000 for breach of contract, punitive damages in the amount of $1,000,000, interest and costs, all as set out in the Counterclaim. A copy of the Counterclaim is attached hereto as Exhibit “I”.

59. On October 24, 2018, RCCL filed its reply and defence to counterclaim (the “Reply”), categorically denying Dragona’s allegations in the Counterclaim. A copy of the Reply is attached hereto as Exhibit “J”.

G. Cash Management System

60. RCCL uses a centralized cash management system to collect, manage and distribute funds used in RCCL’s business and to facilitate cash monitoring, forecasting, and reporting (the “Cash Management System”). RCCL maintains a total of eight (8) active cash operating bank accounts at TD Canada Trust, Royal Bank of Canada and BOA in Toronto. The accounts are in US and Canadian currency.

61. As previously described, RCCL utilizes the asset-based lending facility provided pursuant to the ABL Agreement as its senior credit facility, which is administered by BOA as agent on behalf of the Lenders. The Borrowers under the ABL Agreement obtain funding from BOA by making requests for such borrowings in accordance with the terms, conditions and requirements of the ABL Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the ABL Agreement, certain of RCCL's cash, notes, cheques, and other proceeds of receivables, inventory and securities are deposited and collected into lockbox accounts maintained by BOA (collectively, the "Lockbox Accounts"), which has the effect of reducing the amount outstanding under the ABL Agreement.

62. The Cash Management System gives RCCL the ability to efficiently and accurately track and control corporate funds and ensure cash availability. The Cash Management System also includes the necessary accounting controls to enable the Applicant, the Applicant's creditors, the proposed Monitor, and this Court to trace funds through the system and ensure that all transactions are adequately documented and readily ascertainable.

63. RCCL needs to be able to continue using the existing cash management system during the CCAA Proceedings. Accordingly, the Applicant seeks the authority to continue to use, in accordance with the ABL Forbearance Agreement, the existing Cash Management System and to maintain the funding and banking arrangements already in place.

V. EVENTS LEADING TO THE APPLICANT'S CURRENT CIRCUMSTANCES

64. As discussed below, RCCL's financial and operational difficulties are primarily due to the inherently high costs of operating the TPS Business Segment in Canada in comparison to the Large Customer Segment, as well as macroeconomic conditions in Canada including those resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

A. Poorly Performing TPS Business Segment Affecting RCCL's Financial Position

65. RCCL's financial position has been particularly impacted by losses incurred in connection with the TPS Business Segment. As previously discussed, many of the advantages that RCCL envisioned would flow from RCCL's acquisition of the TPS Business have failed to come to fruition. Since its acquisition, the TPS Business Segment has proved difficult to improve and make profitable. Furthermore, the synergies that RCCL hoped to realize from the transaction did not materialize. On the contrary, the TPS Business Segment has had a material negative impact on RCCL's bottom line. For the two months ended on April 30, 2020, the TPS Business Segment had pre-tax net losses of approximately $1,211,000, and RCCL (on a consolidated basis) had pre-tax net losses of approximately $1,125,000.

66. Over the last few months, RCCL has made various efforts to improve its financial and/or operational issues including, but not limited to, a reduction in its workforce and temporary layoff of employees in Canada as well as limiting expenditures on product samples and displays. The efficacy of these efforts have been hampered by the public health emergency caused by COVID-19 and the states of emergency and public health orders requiring social distancing, self-isolation and restricting gatherings that have been declared in Canada by the federal and provincial governments.

B. QEP is no Longer Willing to Financially Support RCCL

67. RCCL requires significant and continued funding from QEP's operations in the United States. Without such funding, RCCL, as currently structured, is unable to financially support all of its operations and is unable to meet its obligations as they come due. Projections demonstrate little or no prospect of improvement in RCCL's business within a reasonable time to enable RCCL to financially support its business independently of QEP. Given RCCL's current business prospects, QEP is not willing to provide financial assistance to RCCL absent a significant restructuring.

C. COVID-19 Related Difficulties

68. As has been well publicized, the COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in full or partial closure of retailers and distributors, and has brought about government imposed limits on travel. The COVID-19 pandemic has had an immediate negative impact on RCCL's business as sales figures relating to RCCL's business have declined in comparison to RCCL's sales figures in the ordinary course as RCCL's customers were forced to temporarily close or significantly reduce their ability to sell products to end customers.

D. Default under the ABL Facility

69. On April 17, 2020, BOA provided written notice to QEP of an Event of Default under the ABL Agreement resulting from the Borrowers' violation of certain covenants under the ABL Agreement (the "Reservation of Rights Letter"). In the Reservation of Rights Letter, BOA as lender and Agent expressly reserved all of their rights, powers, privileges and remedies under the ABL Agreement, other loan agreements, applicable law and otherwise.

70. As previously noted, RCCL relies upon the restricted availability under the ABL Agreement, including the allocation of U.S. Credit Availability made available pursuant to the ABL Agreement, in order to finance its operations. Absent such availability under the ABL Agreement and the accommodations provided by QEP to RCCL, RCCL is unable to carry on business in the ordinary course and to meet all of its obligations as they come due and is insolvent.

E. ABL Forbearance Agreement

71. BOA was properly notified of RCCL's intention to apply for relief under the CCAA and to seek the appointment of Richter as Monitor from the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List). Following extensive discussions between, among others, RCCL, Richter, the Agent, and each party's respective counsel, RCCL entered into the Forbearance Agreement and Amendment No. 5 to Fourth Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, dated as of June 26, 2020, by and among the Borrower, the Lenders and the Agent (the "ABL Forbearance Agreement"). Pursuant to the ABL Forbearance Agreement, the Agent and the Lenders have agreed, in reliance upon the terms of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, to forbear during the Forbearance Period (defined below) from exercising their rights and remedies against the Borrowers with respect to existing defaults during the period (the "Forbearance Period") from the effective date of the ABL Forbearance Agreement to the Forbearance Termination Date (defined below).

72. Under the ABL Forbearance Agreement, the "Forbearance Termination Date" is the earlier to occur of:

- (a) (i) October 31, 2020 or (ii) such later date as may be approved by the Agent in its discretion, and
- (b) the date on which any Termination Event (defined below) occurs.

73. The Agent and the Lenders will, subject to the terms and conditions of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, continue to make available to the Borrowers, the credit facilities under the ABL Agreement to meet the Borrowers' working capital requirements and extend credit and make advances to the Borrowers in order to support the ongoing working capital needs of the Borrowers.

74. Pursuant to the ABL Forbearance Agreement, RCCL agreed that, except for RCCL's non-BOA deposit accounts (the "Non-Lender Accounts"), all of RCCL's deposit accounts shall be Lockbox Accounts maintained with BOA. The full amount of all credit balances in the Non-Lender Accounts shall be transferred each business day to a Lockbox Account (subject to certain exceptions). Each of the Non-Lender Accounts are only to be used for the Large Customer Segment of RCCL's business.

75. Among other terms, the ABL Forbearance Agreement is conditional upon:

- (a) the payment of a forbearance fee by the Borrowers;
- (b) approval by the Agent of the Cash Flow Forecast (defined below) filed in connection with RCCL's application for the Initial Order;
- (c) a CCAA Initial Order being granted in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent and the Lenders which, among other terms (i) provides that the Agent and the Lenders shall be treated as an "unaffected creditor" in RCCL's CCAA proceedings and in any plan of compromise and/or arrangement with respect to RCCL, and (ii) the stay of proceedings ordered by the CCAA Court in RCCL's CCAA proceedings shall not apply to the Agent and the Lenders.

76. The "Forbearance Termination Date" may occur as a result of, among other things, the occurrence of certain termination events set out in the ABL Forbearance Agreement, which include, among other things, the following: (a) any event of default (other than existing defaults) under the ABL Agreement and other loan documents; (b) default in the observance or performance of any covenant in the ABL Forbearance Agreement, including any covenants to obtain Orders by this Court; and (c) termination of RCCL's CCAA proceedings or the stay of proceedings granted in RCCL's CCAA proceeding. On the Forbearance Termination Date, the ABL Forbearance Agreement shall automatically terminate and the Agent and Lenders may, among other things, (a) declare all amounts due under the ABL Agreement and ABL Forbearance Agreement to be due and payable forthwith, or (b) appoint a receiver over RCCL.

77. The ABL Forbearance Agreement is an agreement that involves parties other than the Applicant, including QEP and BOA, and is therefore not attached to this Affidavit. A copy of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, will be provided to the Court on a confidential basis if requested by the Court.

F. Strategic Review

78. In light of the impact of some of the events described above on RCCL's business, management started a review of RCCL's business operations in and around the first quarter of 2019. Management considered various options with respect to RCCL's business, including downsizing parts of RCCL's business, reducing RCCL's footprint in certain jurisdictions, and making further investments to bolster parts of RCCL's business.

79. On April 24, 2020, RCCL engaged Richter to provide advisory services and to assist RCCL in reviewing and analyzing its various strategic options. The services and support provided by Richter, included, among other things, the following:

- (a) working with RCCL to complete its strategic review, and outline its restructuring options for consideration by RCCL's management team, board of directors, and

RCCL's lender (i.e. BOA);

- (b) supporting RCCL in its communication with BOA regarding its strategic review and restructuring options; and
- (c) reviewing RCCL's cash flow and other forecasts and assisting with any modifications that may be required by the lender.

80. I understand that Richter will be filing a pre-filing report with the Court as the Proposed Monitor in conjunction with the Applicant's request for relief under the CCAA (the "Pre-Filing Report").

VI. NEED FOR CCAA RELIEF

81. I am advised by Raj Sahni, a partner at Bennett Jones LLP, the lawyers for RCCL, and do verily believe, that, for the purposes of the CCAA, a company is insolvent if, among other things:

- (a) the aggregate of its property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient, or, if disposed of at a fairly conducted sale under legal process, would be sufficient to enable payment of all its obligations, due and accruing due; or
- (b) it is, for any reason, unable to meet its obligations as they generally become due.

82. In light of the present circumstances:

- (a) RCCL is insolvent because it appears that the realizable value of its assets is not sufficient to satisfy its existing liabilities and its contingent liabilities; and
- (b) with the cessation of ongoing financial support by QEP, RCCL is not cash flow positive and is accordingly unable to meet its obligations as they become due.

83. Based on RCCL's Balance Sheet, as at April 30, 2020, RCCL had assets with a net book value of approximately $30.1 million, and liabilities with a net book value of approximately $40.5 million. Accordingly, the assets of RCCL are insufficient to satisfy its potential liabilities.

84. Further, the realizable value of certain categories of RCCL's assets may be lower than the book values reported in RCCL's financial statements. Given the TPS Business Segment's performance, it is reasonable to expect that the realizable value of the assets of RCCL at a fairly conducted sale would be less than the above-noted book value.

85. In addition, with the cessation of ongoing support from QEP, RCCL is unable to meet its obligations as they generally become due, including its employee obligations, trade debt, rent payments and other contractual commitments.

86. Despite RCCL's efforts to manage the unprecedented economic circumstances and significant financial challenges facing RCCL in general and the TPS Business more particularly, it became apparent that urgent relief was needed to manage supplier, customer and employee relationships and otherwise stabilize RCCL's business. In particular, the CCAA Proceedings are needed by RCCL to:

- (a) use the time and stability afforded by the CCAA to continue to manage RCCL's operating business in accordance with the proposed Initial Order;
- (b) facilitate an orderly reduction in RCCL's financial obligations; and
- (c) reduce RCCL's overextended Canadian footprint;

in each case with a view to maximizing value for RCCL's creditors and eventually having RCCL emerge from creditor protection.

VII. RELIEF SOUGHT

A. Reduced Restructuring Provisions in the Proposed Initial Order

87. I am advised by Mr. Sahni that, in line with the current practice after the amendments to the CCAA came into force on November 1, 2019, RCCL is seeking a form of Initial Order which contains certain limited relief that is reasonably necessary for the first ten (10) days until the Comeback Hearing, and does not contain the more fulsome restructuring provisions found in the Model Order. As previously noted, it is anticipated that RCCL will seek an expansion of the Initial Order to include the more fulsome restructuring provisions found in the Model Order at the Comeback Hearing.

B. Stay of Proceedings

88. In the present circumstances, RCCL is currently unable to satisfy all of its liabilities as they become due and is therefore insolvent. RCCL requires the Stay of Proceedings to maintain the status quo in order to preserve the value of RCCL's business, its undertakings and assets, and to ensure that no creditor of RCCL obtains preferred treatment relative to other creditors. It would be detrimental to RCCL's business if proceedings were commenced or continued or rights and remedies were executed against RCCL. Without the benefit of the protection afforded under the CCAA, there could be an immediate and significant erosion of value to the detriment of stakeholders.

89. With the benefit of the breathing room afforded by the Stay of Proceedings, RCCL will be able to continue to operate as a going concern with minimal disruption to its current business operations. The Stay of Proceedings will thus serve to stabilize and preserve the value of RCCL's business for the benefit of RCCL's stakeholders, including its employees, suppliers, landlords and customers. The Stay of Proceedings will also:

- (a) provide a forum to explore a plan of compromise or arrangement under the CCAA that would maximize creditor and stakeholder recoveries; and
- (b) facilitate the potential exploration of sale or other strategic transaction(s) in addition to, or as an alternative to, a plan of arrangement or compromise under the CCAA.

90. Under the circumstances, the Stay of Proceedings is in the best interests of RCCL and its stakeholders.

C. Proposed Monitor

91. Richter has consented to act as the Monitor of the Applicant in the CCAA Proceedings. I understand that a copy of Richter's consent to act as Monitor will be attached to the Pre-Filing Report.

92. As previously noted, I understand that Richter will be filing the Pre-Filing Report with the Court in conjunction with the Applicant's request for relief under the CCAA.

93. I am advised by Paul van Eyk, a partner at Richter, that as the Proposed Monitor, Richter is supportive of the relief being sought by RCCL, including the quantum of the Charges discussed in greater detail below.

VIII. REQUESTED CHARGES

A. Administration Charge

94. In connection with its appointment, it is contemplated that the Proposed Monitor, along with the Proposed Monitor's counsel and RCCL's counsel, will be granted a Court-ordered charge on all of the present and future assets, property, and undertakings of RCCL, to secure payment of their fees and disbursements incurred in connection with services rendered both before and after the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings up to a maximum amount of $500,000 (the "Administration Charge"). The Administration Charge is proposed to rank ahead of and have priority over all other charges and security interests.

95. The Applicant requires the expertise, knowledge, and continuing participation of the proposed beneficiaries of the Administration Charge during the CCAA Proceedings in order to complete a successful restructuring. All of the beneficiaries of the Administration Charge have contributed and will continue to contribute to the restructuring of RCCL. Each of the beneficiaries of the Administration Charge will have distinct roles and there is no duplication as between the roles.

96. RCCL has worked with the Proposed Monitor to estimate the quantum of the Administration Charge sought. In light of the foregoing, I believe that the Administration Charge is fair and reasonable in the circumstances. I understand that the Proposed Monitor is also of the view that the Administration Charge is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

B. Directors' Charge

97. A successful restructuring of RCCL will only be possible with the continued participation of its directors and officers. RCCL's directors and officers have specialized expertise, significant knowledge that cannot be easily replaced, and relationships with RCCL's stakeholders that make them essential to the viability of the Applicant's business and the preservation of its enterprise value.

98. I am advised by Mr. Sahni, and do verily believe that, in certain circumstances, directors and officers can be held liable for certain obligations of a company, including obligations of a company owing to employees and government entities, which may include unpaid accrued wages and unpaid accrued vacation pay, together with unremitted excise, sales, goods and services, and harmonized sales taxes.

99. It is my understanding that the Applicant maintains an insurance policy in respect of the potential liability of its directors and officers (the "D&O Insurance Policy"). Although the D&O Insurance Policy insures the directors and officers of RCCL for certain claims that may arise against them in their capacity as directors and/or officers of the Applicant, coverage is subject to several exclusions and limitations and there is a potential for insufficient coverage in respect of potential director and officer liabilities. The directors and officers of RCCL have expressed their desire for certainty with respect to potential personal liability if they continue in their current capacities in the proposed CCAA Proceedings.

100. RCCL requires the active and committed involvement of the directors and officers during the CCAA Proceedings. Given the potential liabilities and the uncertainty surrounding available indemnities and insurance, it is contemplated that RCCL's directors and officers would be granted a Court-ordered charge on the assets, property, and undertakings of the Applicant (the "Directors' Charge") up to a maximum of $250,000. The Directors' Charge would act as security for indemnification obligations for the directors' and officers' potential liabilities as set out above.

The Directors' Charge will also allow RCCL to benefit from the efforts and knowledge of their directors and offices, and it will promote the stability of RCCL's business during the CCAA Proceedings.

101. RCCL believes that the Directors' Charge is fair and reasonable in the circumstances. I understand that the Proposed Monitor is supportive of the Directors' Charge and its quantum.

C. Priority of Charges

102. It is proposed that the priorities of the Administration Charge and Directors' Charge be as follows:

- (a) First – Administration Charge (up to the maximum amount of $500,000); and
- (b) Second – Directors' Charge (up to the maximum amount of $250,000).

103. The proposed Initial Order provides for the Charges to rank in priority to all other security interests, trust, liens, charges, encumbrances, and claims of secured creditors, statutory or otherwise (collectively, the "Encumbrances") in favour of any person. I am advised by Mr. Sahni that this motion will be served on every party that is believed could have a secured claim in respect of RCCL, as well as upon representatives of the federal government and certain provincial tax authorities. Accordingly, RCCL believes that the Charges should have priority over all Encumbrances.

IX. CASH FLOW PROJECTIONS

104. RCCL, with the assistance of the Proposed Monitor, has conducted a cash flow analysis to

2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Applicant is a company to which the CCAA applies.

POSSESSION OF PROPERTY AND OPERATIONS

3. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall remain in possession and control of its current and future assets, undertakings and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever, and wherever situate including all proceeds thereof (the “Property”). Subject to further Order of this Court, the Applicant shall continue to carry on business in a manner consistent with the preservation of its business (the “Business”) and Property. The Applicant is authorized and empowered to continue to retain and employ the employees, contractors, consultants, agents, experts, accountants, counsel and such other persons (collectively “Assistants”) currently retained or employed by it, with liberty to retain such further Assistants as it deems reasonably necessary or desirable in the ordinary course of business or for the carrying out of the terms of this Order.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall be entitled to continue to utilise the central cash management system currently in place, in accordance with the ABL Forbearance Agreement dated as of June 26, 2020 (as amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time, the “ABL Forbearance Agreement”), as described in the Williams-Singh Affidavit, or replace it with another substantially similar central cash management system (the “Cash Management System”) and that any present or future bank providing the Cash Management System shall not be under any obligation whatsoever to inquire into the propriety, validity or legality of any transfer, payment, collection or other action taken under the Cash Management System, or as to the use or application by the Applicant of funds transferred, paid, collected or otherwise dealt with in the Cash Management System, shall be entitled to provide the Cash Management System without any liability in respect thereof to any Person (as hereinafter defined) other than the Applicant, pursuant to the terms of the documentation applicable to the Cash Management System, and shall be, in its capacity as provider of the Cash Management System, an unaffected creditor under the Plan with regard to any claims or expenses it may suffer or incur in connection with the provision of the Cash Management System.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS that, subject to the terms of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, including the terms therein that refer to the Approved CCAA Cash Flow (as defined in the ABL Forbearance Agreement), the Applicant shall be entitled but not required to pay the following expenses whether incurred prior to, on or after the date of this Order:

- (a) all outstanding and future wages, salaries, commissions, compensation, employee benefits, pension benefits, vacation pay and expenses (including, without limitation, payroll and benefits processing and servicing expenses) payable on or after the date of this Order, in each case incurred in the ordinary course of business and consistent with existing compensation policies and arrangements; and
- (b) the fees and disbursements of any Assistants retained or employed by the Applicant in respect of these proceedings, at their standard rates and charges.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, except as otherwise provided to the contrary herein and subject to the terms of the ABL Forbearance Agreement, including the terms therein that refer to the Approved CCAA Cash Flow, the Applicant shall be entitled but not required to pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the Applicant in carrying on the Business in the ordinary course after this Order, and in carrying out the provisions of this Order, which expenses shall include (subject to the terms of the ABL Forbearance Agreement), without limitation:

- (a) all expenses and capital expenditures reasonably necessary for the preservation of the Property or the Business including, without limitation, payments on account of insurance (including directors and officers' insurance), maintenance and security services; and
- (b) payment for goods or services actually supplied to the Applicant following the date of this Order.

7. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall remit, in accordance with legal requirements, or pay:

- (a) any statutory deemed trust amounts in favour of the Crown in right of Canada or of any Province thereof or any other taxation authority which are required to be deducted from employees' wages, including, without limitation, amounts in respect of (i) employment insurance, (ii) Canada Pension Plan, (iii) Quebec Pension Plan, and (iv) income taxes;
- (b) all goods and services or other applicable sales taxes (collectively, "Sales Taxes") required to be remitted by the Applicant in connection with the sale of goods and services by the Applicant, but only where such Sales Taxes are accrued or collected after the date of this Order, or where such Sales Taxes were accrued or collected prior to the date of this Order but not required to be remitted until on or after the date of this Order, and
- (c) any amount payable to the Crown in right of Canada or of any Province thereof or any political subdivision thereof or any other taxation authority in respect of municipal realty, municipal business or other taxes, assessments or levies of any nature or kind which are entitled at law to be paid in priority to claims of secured creditors and which are attributable to or in respect of the carrying on of the Business by the Applicant.

8. THIS COURT ORDERS that until a real property lease is disclaimed or resiliated in accordance with the CCAA, the Applicant shall pay all amounts constituting rent or payable as rent under real property leases (including, for greater certainty, common area maintenance charges, utilities and realty taxes and any other amounts payable to the landlord under the lease) or as otherwise may be negotiated between the Applicant and the landlord from time to time ("Rent"), for the period commencing from and including the date of this Order, twice-monthly in equal payments on the first and fifteenth day of each month, in advance (but not in arrears). On the date of the first of such payments, any Rent relating to the period commencing from and including the date of this Order shall also be paid.

9. THIS COURT ORDERS that, except as specifically permitted herein, the Applicant is hereby directed, until further Order of this Court: (a) to make no payments of principal, interest thereon or otherwise on account of amounts owing by the Applicant to any of its creditors as of this date; (b) to grant no security interests, trust, liens, charges or encumbrances upon or in respect of any of its Property; and (c) to not grant credit or incur liabilities except in the ordinary course of the Business.

RESTRUCTURING

10. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall, subject to such requirements as are imposed by the CCAA and such covenants as may be contained in the ABL Forbearance Agreement, or as otherwise ordered by this Court, have the right to:

- (c) pursue all avenues of refinancing or restructuring of its Business or Property, in whole or in part, subject to prior approval of this Court being obtained before any material refinancing, all of the foregoing to permit the Applicant to proceed with an orderly restructuring of the Business (the “Restructuring”).

11. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall provide each of the relevant landlords with notice of the Applicant’s intention to remove any fixtures from any leased premises at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the intended removal. The relevant landlord shall be entitled to have a representative present in the leased premises to observe such removal and, if the landlord disputes the Applicant’s entitlement to remove any such fixture under the provisions of the lease, such fixture shall remain on the premises and shall be dealt with as agreed between any applicable secured creditors, such landlord and the Applicant, or by further Order of this Court upon application by the Applicant on at least two (2) days notice to such landlord and any such secured creditors. If the Applicant disclaims or resiliates the lease governing such leased premises in accordance with Section 32 of the CCAA, it shall not be required to pay Rent under such lease pending resolution of any such dispute (other than Rent payable for the notice period provided for in Section 32(5) of the CCAA), and the disclaimer or resiliation of the lease shall be without prejudice to the Applicant's claim to the fixtures in dispute.

12. THIS COURT ORDERS that if a notice of disclaimer or resiliation is delivered pursuant to Section 32 of the CCAA, then (a) during the notice period prior to the effective time of the disclaimer or resiliation, the landlord may show the affected leased premises to prospective tenants during normal business hours, on giving the Applicant and the Monitor 24 hours' prior written notice, and (b) at the effective time of the disclaimer or resiliation, the relevant landlord shall be entitled to take possession of any such leased premises without waiver of or prejudice to any claims or rights such landlord may have against the Applicant in respect of such lease or leased premises, provided that nothing herein shall relieve such landlord of its obligation to mitigate any damages claimed in connection therewith.

13. THIS COURT ORDERS that subject to paragraph 14(v) hereof until and including July 9, 2020, or such later date as this Court may order (the "Stay Period"), no proceeding or enforcement process in any court or tribunal (each, a "Proceeding") shall be commenced or continued against or in respect of the Applicant or the Monitor, or affecting the Business or the Property, except with the written consent of the Applicant and the Monitor, or with leave of this Court, and any and all Proceedings currently under way against or in respect of the Applicant or affecting the Business or the Property are hereby stayed and suspended pending further Order of this Court.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH RIGHTS

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, no Person shall discontinue, fail to honour, alter, interfere with, repudiate, terminate or cease to perform any right, renewal right, contract, agreement, lease, sublease, licence or permit in favour of or held by the Applicant, except with the written consent of the Applicant and the Monitor, or leave of this Court.

NON-DEROGATION OF RIGHTS

17. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding anything else in this Order, no Person shall be prohibited from requiring immediate payment for goods, services, use of leased or licensed property or other valuable consideration provided on or after the date of this Order, nor shall any Person be under any obligation on or after the date of this Order to advance or re-advance any monies or otherwise extend any credit to the Applicant. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the rights conferred and obligations imposed by the CCAA.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

18. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, and except as permitted by subsection 11.03(2) of the CCAA, no Proceeding may be commenced or continued against any of the former, current or future directors or officers of the Applicant with respect to any claim against the directors or officers that arose before the date hereof and that relates to any obligations of the Applicant whereby the directors or officers are alleged under any law to be liable in their capacity as directors or officers for the payment or performance of such obligations, until a compromise or arrangement in respect of the Applicant, if one is filed, is sanctioned by this Court or is refused by the creditors of the Applicant or this Court.

DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INDEMNIFICATION AND CHARGE

19. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Applicant shall indemnify its current and future directors and officers against obligations and liabilities that they may incur as directors or officers of the Applicant after the commencement of the within proceedings, except to the extent that, with respect to any officer or director, the obligation or liability was incurred as a result of the director's or officer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

20. THIS COURT ORDERS that the current and future directors and officers of the Applicant shall be entitled to the benefit of and are hereby granted a charge (the "Directors' Charge") on the Property, which charge shall not exceed an aggregate amount of $250,000 as security for the indemnity provided in paragraph 19 of this Order. The Directors' Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs 32 and 34 herein.

21. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding any language in any applicable insurance policy to the contrary, (a) no insurer shall be entitled to be subrogated to or claim the benefit of the Directors' Charge, and (b) the Applicant's directors and officers shall only be entitled to the benefit of the Directors' Charge to the extent that they do not have coverage under any directors' and officers' insurance policy, or to the extent that such coverage is insufficient to pay amounts indemnified in accordance with paragraph 19 of this Order.

APPOINTMENT OF MONITOR

22. THIS COURT ORDERS that Richter is hereby appointed pursuant to the CCAA as the Monitor, an officer of this Court, to monitor the business and financial affairs of the Applicant with the powers and obligations set out in the CCAA or set forth herein and that the Applicant and its shareholders, officers, directors, and Assistants shall advise the Monitor of all material steps taken by the Applicant pursuant to this Order, and shall co-operate fully with the Monitor in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its obligations and provide the Monitor with the assistance that is necessary to enable the Monitor to adequately carry out the Monitor's functions.

23. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, in addition to its prescribed rights and obligations under the CCAA, is hereby directed and empowered to:

- (e) have full and complete access to the Property, including the premises, books, records, data, including data in electronic form, and other financial documents of the Applicant, to the extent that is necessary to adequately assess the Applicant's business and financial affairs or to perform its duties arising under this Order;
- (f) be at liberty to engage independent legal counsel or such other persons as the Monitor deems necessary or advisable respecting the exercise of its powers and performance of its obligations under this Order; and
- (g) perform such other duties as are required by this Order or by this Court from time to time.

24. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall not take possession of the Property and shall take no part whatsoever in the management or supervision of the management of the Business and shall not, by fulfilling its obligations hereunder, be deemed to have taken or maintained possession or control of the Business or Property, or any part thereof.

25. THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Monitor to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Monitor from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. The Monitor shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Monitor's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless it is actually in possession.

26. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor shall provide any creditor of the Applicant with information provided by the Applicant in response to reasonable requests for information made in writing by such creditor addressed to the Monitor. The Monitor shall not have any responsibility or liability with respect to the information disseminated by it pursuant to this paragraph. In the case of information that the Monitor has been advised by the Applicant is confidential, the Monitor shall not provide such information to creditors unless otherwise directed by this Court or on such terms as the Monitor and the Applicant may agree.

27. THIS COURT ORDERS that, in addition to the rights and protections afforded the Monitor under the CCAA or as an officer of this Court, the Monitor shall incur no liability or obligation as a result of its appointment or the carrying out of the provisions of this Order, save and except for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on its part. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded the Monitor by the CCAA or any applicable legislation.

28. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, and counsel to the Applicant shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements, in each case at their standard rates and charges, whether incurred prior to, on or subsequent to, the date of this Order, by the Applicant as part of the costs of these proceedings. The Applicant is hereby authorized and directed to pay the accounts of the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor and counsel to the Applicant and, in addition, the Applicant is hereby authorized to pay to the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor, and counsel to the Applicant such reasonable retainers as may be requested to be held by them as security for payment of their respective fees and disbursements outstanding from time to time.

29. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor and its legal counsel shall pass their accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Monitor and its legal counsel are hereby referred to a judge of the Commercial List of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

30. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Monitor, counsel to the Monitor and counsel to the Applicant shall be entitled to the benefit of and are hereby granted a charge (the "Administration Charge") on the Property, which charge shall not exceed an aggregate amount of $500,000, as security for their professional fees and disbursements, incurred at their standard rates and charges, both before and after the making of this Order in respect of these proceedings. The Administration Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs 32 and 34 hereof.

31. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the ABL Lender shall be treated as unaffected in any plan of arrangement or compromise filed by the Applicant under the CCAA, or any proposal filed by the Applicant under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) with respect to any obligations outstanding as of the date of this Order or arising hereafter under the ABL Credit Agreement or the ABL Forbearance Agreement and the Applicant is authorized to continue to obtain and borrow, repay (including repayment of amounts owing as of this date) and re-borrow additional monies under the credit facility established in the ABL Credit Agreement pursuant to the terms of the ABL Credit Agreement and the ABL Forbearance Agreement, in order to finance the Applicant's working capital requirements and expenses.

VALIDITY AND PRIORITY OF CHARGES CREATED BY THIS ORDER

32. THIS COURT ORDERS that the priorities of the Directors' Charge, and the Administration Charge, as among them, shall be as follows:

First – Administration Charge (to the maximum amount of $500,000); and Second – Directors' Charge (to the maximum amount of $250,000).

33. THIS COURT ORDERS that the filing, registration or perfection of the Directors' Charge or the Administration Charge (collectively, the "Charges") shall not be required, and that the Charges shall be valid and enforceable for all purposes, including as against any right, title or interest filed, registered, recorded or perfected subsequent to the Charges coming into existence, notwithstanding any such failure to file, register, record or perfect.

34. THIS COURT ORDERS that each of the Charges shall constitute a charge on the Property and such Charges shall rank in priority to all other security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, claims of secured creditors, statutory or otherwise (collectively, "Encumbrances") in favour of any Person.

35. THIS COURT ORDERS that except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, or as may be approved by this Court, the Applicant shall not grant any Encumbrances over any Property that rank in priority to, or pari passu with, any of the Charges, unless the Applicant also obtains the prior written consent of the Monitor and the beneficiaries of the Charges, and the ABL Lender, or further Order of this Court.

36. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Charges and the ABL Forbearance Agreement shall not be rendered invalid or unenforceable and the rights and remedies of the chargees entitled to the benefit of the Charges (collectively, the “Chargees”) thereunder shall not otherwise be limited or impaired in any way by (a) the pendency of these proceedings and the declarations of insolvency made herein; (b) any application(s) for bankruptcy order(s) issued pursuant to BIA, or any bankruptcy order made pursuant to such applications; (c) the filing of any assignments for the general benefit of creditors made pursuant to the BIA; (d) the provisions of any federal or provincial statutes; or (e) any negative covenants, prohibitions or other similar provisions with respect to borrowings, incurring debt or the creation of Encumbrances, contained in any existing loan documents, lease, sublease, offer to lease or other agreement (collectively, an “Agreement”) which binds the Applicant, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any Agreement:

- (a) the creation of the Charges and the execution and performance of the Forbearance Agreement by the Applicant are hereby approved and shall not create or be deemed to constitute a breach by the Applicant of any Agreement to which it is a party;
- (b) none of the Chargees shall have any liability to any Person whatsoever as a result of any breach of any Agreement caused by or resulting from the creation of the Charges or the entry into the ABL Forbearance Agreement; and
- (c) the payments made by the Applicant pursuant to this Order and the granting of the Charges, do not and will not constitute preferences, fraudulent conveyances, transfers at undervalue, oppressive conduct, or other challengeable or voidable transactions under any applicable law.

37. THIS COURT ORDERS that any Charge created by this Order over leases of real property in Canada shall only be a Charge in the Applicant's interest in such real property leases.

10. THIS COURT ORDERS that until a real property lease is disclaimed or resiliated in accordance with the CCAA, the Applicant shall pay all amounts constituting rent or payable as rent under real property leases (including, for greater certainty, common area maintenance charges, utilities and realty taxes and any other amounts payable to the landlord under the lease) or as otherwise may be negotiated between the Applicant and the landlord from time to time (“Rent”), for the period commencing from and including the Initial Filing Date, twice-monthly in equal payments on the first and fifteenth day of each month, in advance (but not in arrears). The relevant landlord shall be entitled to have a representative present in the leased premises to observe such removal and, if the landlord disputes the Applicant’s entitlement to remove any such fixture under the provisions of the lease, such fixture shall remain on the premises and shall be dealt with as agreed between any applicable secured creditors, such landlord and the Applicant, or by further Order of this Court upon application by the Applicant on at least two (2) days notice to such landlord and any such secured creditors. If the Applicant disclaims or resiliates the lease governing such leased premises in accordance with Section 32 of the CCAA, it shall not be required to pay Rent under such lease pending resolution of any such dispute (other than Rent payable for the notice period provided for in Section 32(5) of the CCAA), and the disclaimer or resiliation of the lease shall be without prejudice to the Applicant's claim to the fixtures in dispute.

14. THIS COURT ORDERS that if a notice of disclaimer or resiliation is delivered pursuant to Section 32 of the CCAA, then (a) during the notice period prior to the effective time of the disclaimer or resiliation, the landlord may show the affected leased premises to prospective tenants during normal business hours, on giving the Applicant and the Monitor 24 hours' prior written notice, and (b) at the effective time of the disclaimer or resiliation, the relevant landlord shall be entitled to take possession of any such leased premises without waiver of or prejudice to any claims or rights such landlord may have against the Applicant in respect of such lease or leased premises, provided that nothing herein shall relieve such landlord of its obligation to mitigate any damages claimed in connection therewith.

The Directors' Charge shall have the priority set out in paragraphs 38 and 40 herein.

23. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding any language in any applicable insurance policy to the contrary, (a) no insurer shall be entitled to be subrogated to or claim the benefit of the Directors' Charge, and (b) the Applicant's directors and officers shall only be entitled to the benefit of the Directors' Charge to the extent that they do not have coverage under any directors' and officers' insurance policy, or to the extent that such coverage is insufficient to pay amounts indemnified in accordance with paragraph 21 of this Order.
